STABBING AFFRAY AMONG CIRCUS MEN

One Is in Hospital Dangerously Wounded, Another Rests Behind Bars.

The visit of Norris & Rowe's circus on Saturday almost ended in a tragedy in the city. Joseph Grady lies in the Royal Columbian hospital with three wounds, and his assailant, Robert T. Long, is in custody, also with a bad wound on the scalp.

It was late when the employees of the circus finished the work of loading up the endless effects of the show, and a number of the men were resting on a pile of logs on the C. P. N. wharf about 12:30 a.m. after their labors. Among them was Long, a youth of 19, and some altercation ensued with Grady, another attendant, who is an older man. As far as can be learned, Grady was the aggressor.

"Bones" Did It.

Officer Gill heard a cry for help, and on reaching the spot he found Grady bleeding profusely from his wounds. Long had disappeared, and it was not until a hack had been called and the wounded man was on his way to Dr. Drew's that he could give any account of the attack. At first he refused to implicate his companion, but later gave the nick-name of his fellow employee as "Bones." The injured man was covered with blood, and there were two cuts below the shoulder, two inches apart, one of which would have probably penetrated the lungs, if the knife which was used had not glanced on the shoulder bone. There was a long gash on the head from which blood was flowing freely.

Arrested in Vancouver.

The doctor dressed the wounds, and the man was taken to the Royal Columbian hospital. Meanwhile Long had joined the pony section of the circus, where he works, and gone forward on the train to Vancouver. The description of the man wanted was at once sent, and he was arrested by the Vancouver police without difficulty. Chief McIntosh went over, and brought the accused to Westminster yesterday morning.

Used Japanese Weapon.

He has a severe wound on the head which he says was given him by Grady with a beer bottle, the beginning of the fracas, and the police have in their possession the broken neck of what was a bottle of good ale until the circus visit.

When the accused was brought in the wound was dressed by Dr. Jones. What the nature of the charge may be will not be decided until the man Grady is able to appear. According to the condition of the injured man, the charge alleged may be one of doing grievous bodily harm, or wounding with intent to murder.

Admits His Guilt.

Long does not deny that he used a knift, but claims provocation. The knife has not been found; it was apparently thrown away.

New Russian Battleship.

St. Petersburg, June 20—The Financial commission of the council of the empire tonight passed the budget of the ministry of marine, amounting to $42,500,000, inclusive of $5,500,000 to lay down four battleships this year.

RESERVOIR AT PARK IS BROUGHT INTO SERVICE

Water Turned on by Ald. Shiles in Presence of Representative Citizens Saturday Afternoon.

The Coquitlam water flowing into the new reservoir at Queens park on Saturday for the first time showed in tangible form that the city had taken possession of the newly constructed three million gallon storage reservoir. The day was beautiful, so far as climatic conditions could make it, and in spite of other attractions there was a good turn out of citizens to witness the inauguration of this extension to the city's water system.

The details of construction have already been given, and it will suffice to say it is 230 feet long and 130 feet wide at the bottom, and will be ordinarily filled to a depth of eleven feet. The cost was about $25,000. W. Stott, superintendent of waterworks, has been entirely responsible for the work, and it was generally agreed that he has added to the city's utilities not only an extension, but an ornament to the principal pleasure ground.

The Visitors.

Among those present were Mayor Keary, Ald. Shiles (chairman of the water committee), Aldermen Garrett, Henley, Jardine and Johnston, W. A. Duncan (city clerk), P. Bowler (electrician), Chief Watson, H. L. DeBeck, G. D. Brymner, F. J. Coulthard, J. R. Grant, W. Howay, James Johnson, J. Leamy, L. A. Lewis, J. Mahoney, J. P. McMurphy, R. J. Payne and John Peck.

Water Turned on.

Ald. Shiles, at the request of the mayor, turned the water on, and the fourteen inch pipe from the lake was soon delivering its contents to the great tank. If run continuously it would take forty-four and one-half hours to fill the reservoir, but as the superintendent proposes to run into the new one only sixteen hours a day, leaving eight for the upper reservoir, it will take a long time before the water will reach the level at which it is to stand at normal periods. The outfall pipe has been protected with a mesh guard, to keep scum and other matter from entering the main.

With regard to the fencing of the reservoir, the members of the council informally discussed the matter on the site and referred Superintendent Stott's designs to a committee consisting of Aldermen Shiles, Gray and Henley to report.

FOREST FIRES IN MICHIGAN RENDER MANY HOMELESS

Thousands of Acres of Timber Land Destroyed by Flames—Three Villages Razed to the Ground.

Detroit, Mich., June 20.—Fires in northern Michigan forests, fanned to gigantic proportions by the gales of the last few days, have destroyed at least three villages, rendered hundreds homeless, swept over thousands of acres of timber land, and caused damage estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars. The heaviest loss has been sustained in Presque Isle and Cheboygan counties, although Leelanau, Charlevoix and Otsego counties have also suffered considerably. The village of Chase, in Presque county, was destroyed today, and LeGrande, a little town in Cheboygan county, was burned tonight. The village of Kentucky, near Berne City, has been wiped out.

Fire tonight threatens the entire south part of Cheboygan county.

The fire extends a distance of twenty miles, and unless rain comes tonight the losses will be tremendous. The flames were driven along today by high winds.

Yaquis Return to War Path.

Mexico City, June 21.—The Yaqui war has begun in earnest and American and Mexican troops are pursuing the Indians as before the recent futile peace arrangements were arranged. In a battle which occurred at the town of Buena Vista, near Canton, Del Mordeste, in the state of Chihuanna, four Indians were killed yesterday and several wounded. The soldiers had one man wounded.

TUG DAUNTLESS HITS REEF OFF TWIN ISLAND

Rapidly Fills With Water and Sinks—Salvage Work Will Commence Today.

In the darkness of the early hours of Saturday the tug Dauntless, owned by Mayers & Preston, of this city, struck a reef off Twin Island, one of the smaller islands in the Straits of San Juan and rapidly filled with water.

The tug was towing a boom of logs destined for a Vancouver firm, and Captain Merchant appears to have been nearer the shore than he expected, and before preventative steps could be taken the boat stranded, and touching at a falling tide, nothing could be done. The tug quickly filled with water, and this will represent the principal damage. The B. C. Salvage company, of Victoria, will take the salvage work on hand today. The loss is shared between the owners and an insurance company.

PRESIDENT MURRAY SAYS RULES ARE DISREGARDED

Special Meeting of the B. C. A. L. A. Called to Discuss Alleged Violation of the Rules.

A special general meeting of the B. C. A. L. A. will be held in Vancouver tomorrow evening for the purpose of discussing certain matters pertaining to lacrosse, chief of which will be the alleged violation by three of the four clubs in the senior league of sections three and four of rule six. Notices calling attention to the meeting are being sent out by C. W. Murray, president of the association, owing to the absence of the secretary-treasurer, F. J. Lynch.

The rules which are being disregarded, according to Mr. Murray, read as follows:

"Sec. 3. In all matches there shall be a referee and a judge of play having charge of all games. The referee to have absolute control of game, judge to assist him. Both officials shall not be members of competing clubs.

"Sec. 4. Should the clubs be unable to agree upon a referee or referees, the president of the association shall appoint out of the number of official referees. In case none of these can act, the president shall then appoint an outsider or outsiders in their stead, but shall not appoint two who are connected with one of the contesting clubs."

The Westminster men who are being notified to attend the meeting are F. J. Lynch, secretary-treasurer of the association; A. W. Gray, first vice-president, and C. A. Welsh, one of the members of the council.

No instances of violation of the rule are mentioned by President Murray in the notices sent out.

PRESIDENT IS SAID TO HAVE THREATENED JAPAN

San Jose, Cal., June 21.—In a speech last night before the local branch of the Asiatic Exclusion league, Congressman E. A. Hays delivered what he said was a personal message from the president to the people of California.

"Two or three days before the adjournment of congress," said Hays, "I went to the president and asked him how I should explain the absence of exclusion legislation, which I told him my constituents expected. He replied:

"'I am still trying diplomacy. I am sending to Japan the sharpest correspondence that any nation has ever received. But tell your constituents that if I cannot get what I want by diplomacy, I will get it by exclusion legislation.'"

Tolstoi's Books Suppressed.

St. Petersburg, June 21.—The censorship department of the ministry of the interior has suppressed Count Leo Tolstoi's books on Christianity, patriotism and the history of materialism.

HINDUS MUST SHOW MONEY TO COME IN

Check on Indians Will Be Result of $200 Proviso in Order-in-Council.

Ottawa, June 20.—At the immigration department the explanation is forthcoming that the order-in-council regarding Asiatics applies solely to Hindus. Canada has special arrangements with Japan, and the head-tax on Chinese is held to be sufficient.

So far as the Hindus are concerned, the department is determined that these people, who are held to be unfitted for Canada, must show that they are worth $200 before admission. It is expected that the result will be to put an effective stop on the influx of Hindus.

VICTORIA PYROMANIAC IS PLACED UNDER ARREST

Insurance Agent, Accused of Firing Building, Captured After Being Shadowed for Some Time.

Victoria, June 21.—C. B. Bratton, local agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, was arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with incendiarism. He was caught coming from the Board of Trade building basement, from which flames were bursting. His actions have been suspicious, and he was shadowed for some time before being arrested. He is thought to be responsible for the 15 fires which have broken out in the last two days, one of which did nearly $50,000 damage.

Bratton was formerly in the employ of the United States Secret Service department, and has been here two years, coming from Salt Lake City.

BIG CROWDS ATTENDED CIRCUS ON SATURDAY

All other attractions in the city paled into insignificance on Saturday when Norris & Rowe's circus took possession of Tipperary and delighted old and young with its presentment of all the time honored attractions that go to make up a travelling hippodrome and menagerie.

The acrobatic and other attractions in the main tent were well up to the established standard, a few new stunts being introduced by a family of Japanese performers. The aerial work of the Peerless Potters was rapid and daring in the extreme. A number of clowns in varied costumes provided endless amusement for the little folks, besides causing many of the older ones to indulge in roars of laughter. There was nothing unusual in the equestrian feats.

Owing to the late arrival of the circus train, there was no parade, to the great regret of a large number of citizens who consider this the best part of the show. Up to this morning no cases of theft had been reported to the city police.

Perry's Next Polar Quest.

New York, June 21.—Commander Robert E. Perry announced last night that he had raised all but $10,000 of the $50,000 needed for his latest Polar expedition on which he proposed to embark on July 15th. He said that his vessel would soon be ready to leave dry dock. He expects to raise the remaining $10,000 by July.

Washington, June 20.—President Roosevelt has issued a proclamation declaring the adhesion of the United States government to the Paris convention of May, 1904, for the suppression of the "White Slave" traffic. There are thirteen nations signatory to the convention, and three others have declared their admission to it.

Wall of Water Does Damage.

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 20.—A special to the Tribune from Malad, Idaho, says that the Deep creek dam, nine miles above that town, broke yesterday and a wall of water twenty feet high swept down the valley, inundating several miles of farm lands and doing damage estimated at $50,000. Considerable stock perished.

SUPPOSED SUSPECT IS ROAMING NEAR LANGLEY

Man Answering Description of Hazelmere Murderer Calls at Farm House for Meals.

The latest of the many Hazelmere murder suspects reported as being in any given district is supposed to be at the present time making his way towards Mission from Langley, where he was seen by a woman last Friday afternoon. Some of the members of the provincial police are following up the clue. The man is said to answer the circulated description of the murderer in a general way, but as every suspect corralled to date did the same, little hope is held out that the latest "find" is the right man. The first news of his presence near Langley filtered through on Friday evening when a woman who had given him two meals that day notified some of her friends of the incident. According to her story, the man told her he had been in the woods for over ten days.

Provincial Constable Wilkie came back to this city on Saturday afternoon for the first time since the murder, having been on the hunt ever since the afternoon of June 9. It is not yet known whether he will remain here or get back to Hazelmere and vicinity. Chief Spain is somewhere in the country district.

BURNABY HAS METHODIST CHURCH DEDICATED SUNDAY

New Edifice Is Consecrated by President of Conference—Bulk of the Debt Is Paid Off.

East Burnaby Methodist church was dedicated yesterday by Rev. John Robson, president of the conference. There was a crowded congregation, and the president was assisted in the ceremony by Revs. A. J. Brace, of Victoria, to whose efforts the congregation owes its inception; W. H. Barraclough, F. A. Magee and H. W. Bromwick, pastor of the church. Rev. W. H. Barraclough explained the financial needs of the new congregation, and no less than $317 was received towards the building fund. With the collection in the evening, and the social to be held tomorrow, it is hoped that $700 of the $1000 required will be in hand. The choir of Queens avenue church assisted during the afternoon.

At the evening service Mr. Barraclough preached to a large congregation. Tomorrow at the social gathering Rev. James Turner will take part. The arrangements for this social assure a pleasant time.

HALIFAX IS BEST PORT FOR ATLANTIC SERVICE

The Halifax Chronicle has issued a booklet replete with maps and illustrations setting out the case for Halifax as the all-the-year-round Canadian port for a fast Atlantic steamship line. Salient facts for the object in question are put forth, and there is a capital historical sketch of the growth of the Gateway City, from a naval and commercial standpoint. The details of trade are concisely set out, and attention is drawn to the fact that it was on the West Indian business that the commercial supremacy of Halifax was first laid. Developments since the early colonial days are explained, and perhaps the most important feature of the issue is the chart showing the only safe fast mail and passenger route between Canada and the United Kingdom. The need of an alternative route for the Intercolonial railway to Moncton to avoid the Cobequid mountains, with their heavy grades, is the subject of an interesting article, and is a matter of the most vital interest to the city, and to Canada generally as the double-tracking of the I. C. R. is a national matter.

Pan-Anglican Conference

London, June 21.—The Pan-Anglican Conference continues to command the interest both of the public and press by its astonishing success. In addition to the largely attended daily sectional meetings, for the fourth night in succession the vast Albert hall was occupied last night by an audience of nearly 10,000 persons. The Bishop of Missouri presided.

FAIRVIEWS ARE BADLY BEATEN BY LOCALS

Legislative Library.

Visitors Score One Goal Against Home Team in Lacrosse Match.

The old story of easy victory for the Royal City boys when Vancouver lacrosse teams visit Queens park was again witnessed on Saturday. Fairview, last year's champions of the Vancouver city intermediate league, essayed to try conclusions with the Westminster intermediates, and went home beaten at all points, their only score being more of an accident than of design.

Starts Off Early.

Spring at once started the scoring from the face-off, and it was clear that the home boys would have an easy thing. The only excuse offered was that the senior game at Vancouver had drawn off several of the Fairviews from their places. With the hill in their favor the suburbanites managed to make something of a show, the defence being better than the attack. Mannering distinguished himself in some pretty runs, and worked well with W. Warwick and Doughey Spring. Munn was called on to save, and then Westminster should have netted twice, had shooting being responsible in both cases. The first quarter ended with a single tally.

Scoring in the Second.

The second period saw most of the scoring, Ozzie Peele and Bert Galbraith putting in some pretty work. Wright and Swanson were penalized for a little difference, and the home man found himself twice later sent to the fence. The Springs and Bert Henry showed themselves goal getters, and five were added to the list during the period. McArthur played a good defence for Fairview, and Johnson got busy on the attack. The home boys were superior at every point, and changed ends with a lead of six.

Hard Working Home.

The home defence, especially Peele and Galbraith were in fine trim during the third quarter. Robertson introduced several bouts of passing and led up to Swanson netting the only occasion. Some of the home boys played as if they meant to get a place on the twelve which is to do or die in the east, and their checking and speed were closely watched from the fence. In the last quarter E. Warwick scored from Henry's run, and although Fairview got busy at the other end, they failed with Peele and Marshall. E. Warwick did not pass when a goal was a sure thing. Henry fixed matters up soon after, and then W. Warwick came into collision with a Fairview stick, and retired with a bad cut on the head. Swanson, who by this time had returned from another rest at the fence, was the last to score for the home team. Just before time was called F. Painter, to the surprise of everybody, placed the ball home and saved the visitors from a pointless disaster.

Rail Birds.

Second quarter—Wright and Swanson, three minutes.

Third quarter — Galbraith, three minutes; Swanson, three minutes; Summer, three minutes.

Fourth quarter — Swanson, five minutes; Wright, ten minutes.

Summary.

Crocodiles and the Cure.

One does not usually connect crocodiles with a health resort—rather the reverse—but the creatures are quite a feature of the Indian bathing place of Manghapir, about nine miles from Karachi. This town is a place of pilgrimage for pious Hindoos, but it is chiefly famous for the value of its waters in the cure of the dread scourge of leprosy. The waters are hot, and more than 60 per cent of the sufferers who bathe there annually, it is said, are cured. The crocodiles are rather noteworthy in that they live in the hot water, apparently suffering no inconvenience from its temperature or medicinal qualities.—Wide World Magazine.

Consols by the Pennyworth.

It may not be generally known that a pennyworth of British consols can be purchased. Consols are not like shares, which are invariably of a certain denomination—£1, £5, £10, and so on—but can be divided up to any extent. It consequently happens that very small amounts of this lordly stock are bought to make up round sums, but no one can be registered at the Bank of England as a holder unless he has acquired enough to bring him in fourpence a year in dividends, and less than £1 will purchase a sufficient amount for that purpose.—London Saturday Review.

"Well, maybe I do. It does nut-meg any difference, though. It's what I camphor, anyway. What does it sulphur?"

"Twenty-five cents a can."

"Then you can give me a can?"

"I have seldom cinnamon who thought himself as witty as you," said the chemist, in a gingerly manner, feeling called upon to do a little punning himself.

"Well, that's not bad, either," laughed the customer, with a syrupticious smile. "I ammonia a novice at the business, though. I've soda good many puns that other punsters were credited with. However, I don't care a copperas far as I am concerned. We have had a pleasant time, and I shall carraway—"

THE PEOPLE'S PAPER

THE BOOMERANG.

One of the Most Peculiar Weapons of War Ever Invented.

The boomerang is an instrument used both in war and in the chase by the aborigines of Australia. It is usually about two feet in length, made of hard wood bent into a curve resembling an obtuse angle, flat on one side and rounded on the other. The method of using this curious weapon is very peculiar. The thrower takes it in one hand, holding the bent side downward, and hurls it forward as if to hit some object twenty or twenty-five yards in advance. Instead of continuing to go directly forward in accordance with the Newtonian law it slowly ascends in the air, whirling round and round, describing a beautiful and geometrical curved line till it reaches a considerable height, when it begins to retrograde, finally sweeping over the head of the projector, striking the object for which it was intended, which is always in the rear.

An English officer has this to say of the singular weapon: "The boomerang is one of the most curious weapons of war ever invented, at least by a barbarous people, nor is it easy to comprehend by what law of projectiles it is made to take the singular directions that it frequently does. I have seen a native throw one so as to make it go forty or fifty yards horizontally and not more than four feet from the ground. It would then suddenly dart into the air to the height of fifty or sixty yards, describe a very considerable curve and finally fall at his feet. In all cases, no matter how thrown the boomerang keeps turning with great rapidity, like as if on a pivot making a loud, whizzing noise all the while."

MAKE GOOD FRIENDS.

Every One Should Have This In Mind Because of Future Benefits.

It is not worth while to pause to consider whether men in olden times placed a mercantile value on friendships. The significance of the modern application needs no justification. Friendship pays. Acquaintance pays. That is a wise young man who looks to it that his acquaintances are formed with a view to future benefit to himself. What does it profit any man to know a lot of men who are only ordinary mortals with no capacity for doing anything special or anything especially well—merely men who do a day's work at whatever they have to do and who spend their leisure time at the races, base ball games or at the theater?

The men to know are those who have a serious purpose in life and who go on cheerfully toward the goal, developing their powers meanwhile. At college a young man has an excellent opportunity for selecting among his classmates companions for a future career, but if a boy is denied the advantage of a college course, with its discipline and associations, and is cast into the huge swirl of the commercial world without training he must make his friends and get his start there. To begin with, it requires no mercenary foresight. No pleasant fellow need be slighted because he probably cannot "be of use," but the importance of spending little time with good fellows is apparent when one has his way to make by his own efforts in the world. Courtesy is always commendable, and courtesy costs nothing. It helps everywhere.

The value of a long list of friends and acquaintances to a commercial man is most obvious, for by his acquaintance, his popularity, he obtains much valuable information that helps when it comes to doing business. And the point is not to overlook the opportunity to cultivate the friendship of those whose knowledge and worth have already advanced them to high position, for their example inspires to emulation; thus association develops our best powers, and their counsel and friendship are worth something ethically and financially.—Los Angeles Times.

Tit For Tat.

A victim of omnibus pickpockets determined to get even with them, so he put into his pocket a pocket-book containing only a slip of paper on which were written the words:

"This time, you rascal, you've lost the reward of your labor!"

He got into the same omnibus and waited, resolved to have the first pickpocket that meddled with him arrested. Twenty minutes passed and nothing happened, and, tired of waiting, he got out, having assured himself that his pocketbook was safe. He opened it, and in place of his white piece of paper was a blue one, which he unfolded and read as follows:

"What a sly joker you are
London Tit-Bits.

The Appetite.

"The appetite," said the physician, "is always a consideration of great importance."

"Yes," answered the man who is painfully economical. "If you have a poor one you worry about your health, and if you have a good one you worry about the expense."—Washington Star.

THE LULU ISLAND BY-LAW.

Today the ratepayers will exercise their right of saying whether or not the authority asked in the by-law by the corporation to sell certain lands on Lulu Island shall be granted. The slim attendance at the meeting called to discuss the matter points to a certain amount of apathy on the part of those most interested,—the real estate taxpayers—and a very small vote may result. We commend the judgment of the council in accepting our suggestion, made months ago, of presenting this by-law separate from the other loan bylaws, so that there may be no confusion and resultant errors therefrom. One or two safeguards might have been incorporated in the by-law as suggested by ratepayers, but the absence of these should not prevent its passage by the required three-fifths vote necessary to a majority for passing. We cannot afford to quibble over small matters now, we must look to the greater advantage of having this large area on the island covered with manufacturing concerns employing a large number of men and distributing a heavy pay roll regularly to further augment the growing trade of the city, so that we hope the ratepayers will arise to the occasion and poll a large vote so that the work may be undertaken at once.

HARRISON RAPIDS.

Successive governments have promised again and again to clean out and deepen sections of the channel between Harrison Lake and Harrison River known as the rapids. The channel has no difficulties from swift water, the waters are simply spread out over a large area, which if deepened throughout the channel used by steamboat men would be of sufficient depth to allow the passage of river boats and tugs at all seasons of the year in perfect safety. An attempt has been made by the dredge King Edward to make the improvements so urgently needed, but it has only succeeded in operating successfully in the lighter sand and gravel at the foot of the rapids. This dredge was built to lift sand silt, and is not constructed to lift rock and bolders and so will be unable to complete the work. A vast amount of money has been expended in the construction of a mill plant at Harrison mills and the immense wealth of merchantable timber on the shores and adjacent to Harrison Lake, so urgently needed to operate this plant, and for which the Dominion Government is receiving rental and will collect stumpage, points to an obligation of the Department of Public Works to devise means to finish the work so well begun. There are other interests awaiting the deepening of this channel and the making of it safe will see quite a traffic through it, sufficient, we think, to warrant the expenditure necessary. We would urge upon the department the desirability of using the new dipper dredge now under construction to fully deepen this channel. It is the only place, contiguous to the Fraser River, as far as we are aware, needing the services of a dipper dredge constructed to lift bolders and it would be a good opportunity to thoroughly test its capabilities before being sent north and any change found necessary in the appliances could be more easily made here, and at less cost, than in the Skeena River. It is unfortunate that the resident engineer is laid up on account of an accident, but we suggest that the gentleman acting in his stead will see the advisability of acting upon our suggestion and if necessary get instructions from the department to complete the work with the dipper dredge as soon as possible.

FOSTERIAN ELOQUENCE.

The lengthy sessions at Ottawa, caused by the verbosity of George Eulas Foster, is having such a deadly effect upon the members of the House of Commons that Dr. Chisholm, M. P. for East Huron, a few days ago, dwelt upon the physical dangers which attendance during the lengthy sessions entail. The perils of parliamentary life are appalling when one considers that in the last two sessions fifteen have fallen victims to the lack of sunlight in the chamber for elected representatives, added to the immense strain of listening to the dry long drawn out speeches of Mr. Borden's chief lieutenant. Front benchers should be asked either to shorten their speeches or take a vacation so that the actual and necessary business of the country may be transacted within a reasonable space of time, then the House would not be found sitting in the hot midsummer days as it has for some years past. It might be good business to vote a sum to enable Mr. Foster to inflict his eloquence upon the people in other climes, where the temperature perchance is not so enervating as at Ottawa.

Failing this, the British Government might be induced to employ him on some of its punative expeditions, where the deadly effect of his verbosity might clean out some of the troublesome tribes with greater neatness and more despatch than by force of arms. Such a course would be very liable to mark a page in the history of methods of warfare, although the cruelty of using "Fosterine" would be one of the incidents.

It was the mistake of his life when Sir Wilfrid Laurier provided a seat for this man of words and many a bereaved family will have an eternal grudge against him for the doubtful exercise of this kindness of heart to one of his opponents.

Death of E. Z. Whyman.

The death is announced of Edward Zacharah Whyman, aged 72, an old resident of this province, who passed away on Friday night last. He was formerly employed in the gardens at Windsor castle, and while in New Westminster was for some time caretaker of the city hall and library. His family consists of a son employed at the B. C. E. R. shops and a daughter, Mrs. Oddy. The deceased was a charter member of the Rose of Columbia lodge, S. O. E. B. S., having been continuously connected with it from the institution in May 1890.

The funeral will be conducted under the auspices of the lodge, the members of which will meet at their hall at 1:30 p.m. today. The cortege will leave the house, corner of Sixth street and Fifth avenue, at two o'clock, proceeding to Holy Trinity cathedral, where the service will be held.

Excessive Heat in Chicago.

Chicago, June 21.—Ten prostrations and several deaths, in part due to the heat, is the net result of yesterday's heat wave in Chicago. On account of the high winds from the West, which reached a velocity of twelve miles an hour at noon, the streets were filled with clouds of dust. The maximum temperature was 88 degrees.

Rev. John Robson, president of the British Columbia conference, will speak at the fourth quarterly rally of the local union of Christian Endeavor at Sapperton Methodist church tonight. Officers will be elected during the evening. Many musical items are announced and proceedings are timed to begin at a quarter to eight.

An ice cream and strawberry social will take place tomorrow evening under the auspices of the ladies of St. Barnabas Parish church, when a lengthy and interesting program of songs and instrumental selections will be rendered by local talent. The revenue derived from the social will be devoted to church work.

Owing to the unsuitable nature of Eighth street for heavy traffic the circus on Saturday had a great deal of trouble to handle their material, especially with the heavy wagons coming down hill after the evening performance. Two runaways occurred, and the teamsters had a stiff task to hold the lines in nearly all cases.

Rev. T. R. Hall, of St. Pauls Presbyterian church, Sarnia, Ont., and Rev. D. M. Ramsay, of Knox church, Ottawa, were visitors at St. Andrews manse during the latter part of last week, the guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Henderson. These two pastors are spending a short holiday on the coast after attending the meetings of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church at Winnipeg.

The circus is a show of the past.

Dr. F. P. Smith returned yesterday from Victoria, where he has been during the past week acting as one of the examiners at the recent dental examinations. He also attended the session of the Masonic grand lodge held in that city.

The poll on behalf of the Lulu Island land sale takes place today. Everybody who wishes the enable the council to build the new bridge across the North Arm should go to the following places to record a vote: City hall, fire hall (Sapperton), and Tenth street light station. The polls take place from nine to five. The council looks to the citizens to give them a large and united vote to go ahead.

Steamer Beaver will make its annual trip to Douglas, leaving New Westminster at 8 a.m., June 26. Will remain all night at Harrison Hot Springs, then proceed to Douglas at daylight, returning, arriving at New Westminster Saturday evening. Do not miss this opportunity of seeing this beautiful lake. Rates, $5.00 for the round trip. Ed. Goulet, C. P. R. agent. **

There will be a busy session at the city council tonight. In addition to such routine business as the further consideration of the money by-laws, which are now settled in all their details, there will be the fire prevention amendment by-law, which, as a result of discussion in committee on Friday, will not be so sweeping as was originally intended. It was first proposed to go to Tenth street with the brick construction limits, but the by-law will be amended to reach only as fas west as McNeely street, the remainder of Chinatown being allowed to use galvanized iron for future buildings. It was felt that the other plan would check buildings going up in the area affected.

Attention is called to the dangerous condition of the sidewalk in front of the Dominion Trust building on Columbia street, where a few rotten boards partly cover the entrance into the basement of the premises. As there is a drop of about twelve feet from the sidewalk to the cellar, the breaking of the planks is liable to be followed by a serious accident. Tom Kelly, of the city electric light department, narrowly escaped breaking his leg at that spot yesterday evening, his foot being caught between two of the loose boards and requiring the assistance of some bystanders before being released.

REPORT A DISCOVERY OF 400 POUNDS OF AMBERGRIS

Aberdeen, June 21.—Word was received from North Beach today that two brothers named Northrup, farmers, have found a mass of ambergris weighing about 400 pounds.

They are guarding their find day and night, as its market value, $400 a pound, makes it worth something like $160,000. This is the first discovery of the kind in this vicinity.

NAILS AND NAILING.

They Figure in Speech as Well as in Trade and Building.

To nail a thing is to fix or fasten with a nail or nails; to drive nails into for the purpose of fastening or securing, such as to nail up a box, to nail a shelf to the wall, to nail down the hatches, etc.; to stud with nails; figuratively, to nail a thing is to pin it down and hold it fast, such as to nail a bargain or secure by prompt action. It was Burns who said:

Ev'n ministers, they ha'e been ken'd,
In holy rapture,
A rousing whid at times to vend
An nail 't wi' Scripture.

Passing into the colloquial, to "nail to the counter" is to put a counterfeit coin out of circulation by fastening it with a nail to the counter of a shop; hence, figuratively, to expose as false.

Other definitions referring to the nail are: Nailer, one who nails, who makes nails or who sells them, while a female nailmaker is referred to by Hugh Miller as a naileress. A nailery is described as an establishment where nails are made. A nail head is the head of a nail, and anything is said to be nail headed when so shaped as to resemble the head of a nail.

A nailing machine is one for forcing or driving nails into place; in carpentry, a feeding tube for the nails, connected with a plunger or reciprocating hammer; in shoemaking, a power machine closely allied to the shoe pegger, used to drive small metallic nails or brads into the soles of shoes.

The nail machine is a power machine for making nails, spikes, brads or tacks.

A nailmaker is one who makes nails; a nailer, a person connected in any capacity in the manufacture of nails.

A nail plate is a plate of metal rolled to the proper thickness for cutting into nails.

A nail rod is a strip split or cut from an iron plate to be made into wrought nails. A nail selector is a machine, or an attachment to a nail machine, for automatically throwing out headless or otherwise ill formed nails and slivers.

A countersunk nail is one having a cone shaped head like that of a screw; a cut nail, one made by a nail machine, as distinguished from a wrought or forged nail.

"On the nail" means on the spot, at once, immediately, without delay or postponement, as, to pay money on the nail. This phrase is said to have originated from the custom of making payments, in the exchange at Bristol, England, and elsewhere, on the top of a pillar called "the nail."

THE TRUE TEST.

It's easy enough to be cheerful and gay
When money and favors are coming your way;
When friends are as plenty as leaves on the trees
And people who meet you endeavor to please,
When things run like that
You laugh and grow fat
And see in your bills little more than a joke.
It's harder, you'll find, to be happy though broke.

When into your auto you jump for a ride
And over the roadway a runaway glide
And light at the corner to rest for a spell
In front of a place with refreshments to sell,
Then any one could
Cheer up and be good,
It's not—and I can from experience speak—
So nice when you walk and have corns on your feet.

It's easy to say, "It's a jolly old world,"
When snug in your home by the fireside curled
You sit with a fragrant cigar in your face
Allowing your fancies in cloudland to chase
And bear on their wings
Good luck and such things,
But who could be buoyant without a red cent
If pressed by the landlord and back on the rent?

If you have a job and a sweet little wife
It's easy to talk of the fullness of life,
To wonder why every one cannot agree
That living is quite what it's cracked up to be,
If nothing goes wrong
You tear off a song
And wonder how any one living can croak.
It's harder, you'll find, to be happy though broke.

Desirable One.

"A roll of bills I guess."

Got the Autograph.

At Carlsbad on one occasion Brahms' physician, Dr. Grunbeserger, asked the composer for his autograph for a young lady admirer, but Brahms scolded him for making a nuisance of himself and refused to give it. Some weeks later, at his departure from Carlsbad, Brahms handed to the doctor an envelope inscribed, "With the cordial thanks of Johannes Brahms." Noticing a broad grin on the doctor's face, he asked: "What makes you look so cheerful? You don't know yet what the envelope contains." "Nor do I care," retorted the doctor. "The envelope is the main thing. Much obliged for the autograph!"

Synopsis of Canadian North-West Homestead Regulations.

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or sub-agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is rejuired to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).

(4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

(5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the agent for the district of such intention.

Six months' notice in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of intention to apply for patent.

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

DOOR KEYS IN SWEDEN

Curious Custom of Hanging Them Outside the Doors.

HOUSES LOCKED, YET OPEN.

The Dangling Key Informs You the Tenants Are Out, but Friends Who Call Are at Liberty to Unlock the Door and Enter and Rest.

When the Swedes go calling, they lock up and then hang the door key on the bell or the doorknob or some other conspicuous place. When they go visiting for a few weeks, bolts and bars are slid into place, and then out goes the key. If the house is shut up for an entire season or a full year, the gayly swinging door key says "Not at home" to passersby.

There is no kicking your heels on the doormat in Sweden while the bell or knocker awakes the echoes in an empty house. Agents, peddlers, friends and relatives all know this message of the door key and seeing it out pass by.

As can be readily imagined, this strange custom has been put to good use in many instances when visitors were not wanted. Instead of telling the maid to inform callers that Mrs. Jones is not at home the mistress says to Jennie: "Hang out the door key at 3 o'clock this afternoon and bring it in at 5. I don't wish to see any one for a few hours."

About the first of the month in certain districts door keys swing to the breezes in great numbers, and collectors, knowing the custom and also its misuse, scratch their heads in perplexity at this not at home signal.

Many amusing stories are told of creditors sliting down to await the return of their man while the debtor sat on the other side of the locked door and chuckled. There have been instances where a collector has taken the key, unlocked the door and entered the house to be met by the owner, who calmly laughed over his ruse. Again a creditor has entered a house in which he supposes the owner to be hiding only to find it vacant and to be caught by the irate master, arrested and made to pay a fine, while the debtor got an extension of time on his bill.

These illegitimate uses of this very old custom of not only leaving the latchstring out, but also putting the door key at the disposal of all who pass, are not discovered at first glance, and they are really very much in the minority, for Sweden is pre-eminently an honest land. In and around about Stockholm there is very little need of policemen or strong boxes, for every man, however low down in the social scale, seems to have due respect for another's property.

Although a few of the more suspicious, or the foreigners who have not been brought up in this strange custom of leaving the door key out, may lock up with bolts from the inside and use another door for exit when they leave home for an extended visit, the old residents actually leave their homes at the disposal of any who may care to enter.

Friends who call and find the key out feel at perfect liberty to unlock the door, enter and rest a bit before passing on. Strangers seldom misuse the confidence.

The custom started ages ago when it was the usual thing for "holy men" or priests to travel through Swedish villages, stopping to leave their blessing on the households of the neighborhood. These visits were looked forward to with eagerness by the pious Swedes, and it was considered an act of grossest discourtesy to bar the door, for whatever reason, against a holy man. Consequently if a family left home the key was always put out against the arrival of the priest. Meat and drink were left, and should the holy man stop at a vacant house he entered, refreshed himself, left his blessing in the form of a candle or a bottle of holy water or a bit of consecrated green and passed. Thus the custom originated and, although these quaint villages have become towns and traveling priests have passed away and the influx of other nations has modernized Sweden and brought the evil of theft with it, the door keys still hang out as evidence of trust and open doored hospitality.

A thief seldom takes down one of the keys and enters, for there is the uncertainty about the absence of the residents spoken of to hold him back, and the knowledge that an exposed door key may merely mean that the owner has stepped across to the store and will return any minute makes tampering with property risky business.

These facts, together with the big one that Swedes are one of the most honest people on the face of the globe make a custom safe there which would be a foolhardy tempting of misfortune in our "land of the free."—Los Angeles Times.

Found an Excuse.

One Easter a Methodist minister in the south wrote to J. Pierpont Morgan and asked him to subscribe to the erection of a new church.

"Since I am an Episcopalian," Mr. Morgan wrote back, "I can't conscientiously join this Easter subscription to the building of a Methodist church. Before erecting your new church, though, you are going, I understand, to tear the old church down. For that purpose I gladly inclose my check for $250."

To please will always be the wish of benevolence; to be admired, the constant aim of ambition.—Dr. Johnson.

BIBLE IS CIRCULATED AMONG FOREIGN COMMUNITY

Rev. Dr. Cooper Spoke Thrice in Westminster Yesterday on Work of Canadian Bible Society.

Rev. Dr. Cooper, of Toronto, spoke at three of the city churches yesterday. In the morning he was at Queens avenue Methodist, in the evening at St. Pauls Reformed Episcopal, and at a subsequent meeting at Olivet Baptist. Dr. Cooper succeeded Rev. R. E. Welsh as general secretary of the Canadian Bible society, an offshoot of the world-famous British and Foreign Bible society, which circulates the holy writ in the vernacular throughout the world. The Canadian society deals with the foreign population brought in under the immigration propaganda, and in so wide a field discharges a useful duty.

Objects of Society.

Dr. Cooper explained the reasons for the existence of the Canadian society, and the demonstration it had already given of its power to remain as a permanent institution for good in the land. A few years ago it was felt that the various agencies at work ought to be united, and this was done. The headquarters were in Toronto, and from there were issued the publications of the society, and plans made for colporteurs to work in various fields, as on the Grand Trunk Pacific camps, and among the immigrants just landing in the country. The parallel editions, issued by the Bible societies, were great helps in spreading the knowledge of English, and while a Swede, for instance, was reading in his own tongue the scriptures at the same time he might be drinking in the Water of Life, as well as getting that knowledge of the language which would fit him to be a good Canadian. He commended the objects of the society to their earnest help. The New Westminster branch, it might be mentioned, is one of the oldest in the Dominion.
