OFFERS TO RESIGN.

sident Watters Demands That the Charge be Investigated.

ictoria, June 6.—The Victoria des and Labor council met last ning. President Watters called the tin g to order, and stated that be- going ahead with the ordinary iness, he wished to resign the sidency until such time as the ncil investigated the charge inst him contained in a statement de in court yesterday by A. motion was made requesting Mr. atters to retain the presidency until h time as the matter was investi- ed and reported upon by the Boilmakers' and the Boilermakers' pers' unions. The vote on the mon was unanimously in the affirmae and Mr. Watters resumed the air.

Attempt to Smash Crusher.

Juneau, June 5.—A dastardly atmpt a few days ago was made to stroy the large rock breaker and ck breaker house at the Alaska severance mine. The watchman duty was attracted by the noise the rock crusher in operation with avy pressure at an early hour in morning.

A short crowbar had been placed the crusher with malicious intent, e water released at the gate, floodg the pipe line to heavy pressure. e rock crusher belting had torn and lped from place, thereby saving the luable machinery.

There is no question but that some e had made a deliberate attempt to jure the compay. President Suthland offers a reward of $500 for formation leading to the conviction the guilty party or parties. Genal indignation is expressed in this y. The mine officials had nothing say for publication but it is known at they have taken steps to ferret t and punish the guilty ones.

INDIANS VICTIMS IN LACROSSE GAME

Palefaces Put It All Over Red Braves in Patchwork Game Last Evening.

With the scalps of the Brownsville Indians hanging to their belts, after trouncing them in an exhibition lacrosse game by a score of eight goals to four, the Westenders left the oval at Queen's park yesterday evening elated with the performance they had gone through. It was good practice for the Green shirts, and once again demonstrated the superiority of the paleface over his brothers of the dusky hue. The Brownsville men were hopelessly outclassed, only two players on their team being competent to handle a stick, these being the two Point brothers, who put up almost the whole game on behalf of the across-river boys. Charley Point especially played a fine game, but without support of any kind, it was impossible to stem the tide against the men of his race.

Had the Westend boys so desired, the score might have been anything under a century for their side, but they were generous. Time after time sure shots into the goal were thrown aside in order to keep the rubber in the field.

Passing was poor on both teams, and no star playing was visible to the naked eye, although Spring and Warwick both managed to do a little grand stand play during the course of the game. Warwick tried a sensational method of carrying the ball in the second quarter with his body exposed, and was rewarded by putting into lone of the redmen's sticks. Warwick reposed easily on the green sward for a couple of minutes while analysing his feelings.

A feature of the game was the constant changing of positions on the Westend team, the boys roaming all over the field at their own sweet will.

C. D. Peele had a soft snap as referee, and looked as if he enjoyed the job.

FADER BUYS BOAT.

Nellie G. Thurston Sold to Local Man for Coast Service.

The Nellie G. Thurston, which has been lying in Nanaimo harbor since her trip last winter to the west coast fisheries, has been sold by Captain Bradford, her owner, to E. J. Fader of New Westminster, to be used as a receiving boat up the northern coast fisheries.

The ship was built 22 years ago, but is today as sound as the day she was built. She is made of Ohio white oak, the life of which is almost everlasting. The vessel came around the Horn during the Klondike rush. Captain Bradford purchased her about a year and a half ago. The schooner just missed being famous a year ago, when Capt. Mikkelson, who is now making his dash for the pole, came to Nanaimo to purchase her for the Arctic trip. She had been chartered, however, a day or two previous to his visit here.

Successful Garden Party.

The garden party given by the ladies of the mission circle of the Queen's Avenue Methodist church on the Columbian college grounds last evening was a great success. A program consisting of violin, mandolin and vocal solos was rendered. Prof. Burwash gave a mandolin solo, followed by Miss Frith with a recitation, which were well rendered. Miss M. Clark and Miss E. McBride followed with vocal solos, both young ladies being in excellent voice.

After a short interval in which all present enjoyed themselves with ice cream, strawberries and other refreshments, Miss Maxwell gave a violin solo and the Ladies Glee club of the college then rendered several selections. The lawn was illuminated by Chinese lanterns, which presented a very pretty effect.

IMMEDIATE EFFECT FOR FISHERIES ACT

Clash Expected Between Dominion and Provincial Governments Over It.

Victoria, June 6.—A proclamation appears in the British Columbia Gazette today that the provincial fisheries act is to take effect immediately.

This enactment gives the administration of British Columbia control over practically all the fisheries of Western Canada. It outlines necessary regulations in detail and, in a word, its enforcement will mean the taking from the hands of the Dominion government all authority in respect to fisheries as far as this province is concerned.

There is little doubt that when the act comes into active operation it will clash with that of the Dominion and an interesting contest probably will arise as a result between the provincial and federal governments.

Knockout Drops.

Aberdeen, June 6.—"Billy" McDonald, one of the proprietors of the largest of this city's dance halls, last night offered a reward of $500 in gold for any positive proof that knockout drops or any other drug had been dispensed in any Aberdeen bar visited by the men whose bodies have recently been found floating in the waters about this city, and a further reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons using the same.

This offer is but one instance of many that show the extent to which the city has been stirred by the recent tragedies revealed by the floating bodis found along the waterfront.

The desire to thoroughly sift the mysteries of the dead bodies is not confined to the managers of the tenderloin resorts alone, but is expressed by all classes.

Attempt to Lynch Abbe.

Rome, June 6.—The people of the village of Giardini, Sicily, attempted yesterday to lynch an abbe, because in the course of a sermon he denounced Garibaldi as a spurious hero. The abbe had to appeal to the protection of the carbineers to escape from the mob.

BOLD BRIGANDS DIE DEFIANT TO THE LAST

Ship Laden With Contraband Ammunition Blows Up, Killing Entire Crew.

New York, June 6.—The Tunis-Turkish sailing vessel, laden with contraband ammunition, bound for Tripoli, has been blown up in the vicinity of Port Zaraiss. Her entire crew, as well as eight fishermen alongside at the time, were drowned. The vessel had a number of rifles and 500 barrels of powder.

The local authorities learned that she was about to take advantage of the absence of guard ships to try and destroy her cargo on the beach. They thereupon ordered a body of armed boats belonging to sponge fishers to prevent the landing.

Twenty-four of these boats surrounded the vessel and the men were about to swarm aboard when a terrific explosion occurred. The explosion was heard sixty miles away. Zaraiss is in Tunis, near the frontier of Tripoli.

ANOTHER RANSOM.

Turkish Brigands Carry Off a Dutch Baron.

Constantinople, June 6.—A telegram from Smyrna reports that Baron van Heemstra, a member of the well known Dutch family of that name, was captured by brigands last Thursday evening at his farm near Smyrna.

The Dutch legation, in calling the Porte's attention to the affair, requested that no troops should be sent to the spot, in order that the life of the captive might not be endangered.

It is believed that the members of the baron's family have succeeded in obtaining his release on payment of a ransom, for which, in all probability, the Turkish government will be held responsible.

Gold in Bellingham.

Bellingham, June 6.—Workmen digging a trench at 1015 Key street yesterday were amazed by discovering placer gold in shovelfulls of earth. The find created general interest in the neighborhood and it is said placer operations will be started there in the immediate future. The find is near the home of City Engineer Gerhard.

ORANGEMEN PREPARE TO CELEBRATE

Twelfth of July Gathering In This City Will Be A Memorable Event.

The Twelfth of July will be a long remembered day by New Westminster Orangemen. Preparations are even now under way for a monster celebration, which will take place in this city on that date, when representatives of all the Orange lodges from Victoria to Kamloops will assemble in this city to do honor to King William of everlasting Boyne water fame.

The celebration will be inaugurated by service in the local Orange hall, following which the members of the different lodges, attired in full regalia, will parade to Queen's park, where suitable speeches will be delivered by many prominent Orangemen. Grand Master McLaren, of Kamloops, who is at present seriously ill, may not attend, but should a change for the better take place between now and the twelfth of next month, the local members sincerely hope to have him take part in the celebration.

The annual convention of the Supreme Grand lodge of British North America will be held in Vancouver on towards the end of June, when delegates from the following places will attend: Halifax, N. S., St. John, N. B., Newfoundland, Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Sault Ste. Marie, Kingston, London, Hamilton and Winnipeg.

Prior to the meeting of the Supreme lodge, the Royal Black Knights of Ireland will hold the annual meeting of the Grand Black Chapter of British North America.

GROWN RIGHT HERE.

Splendid Window Display of Fruits, Cereals and Grains.

"A few samples of the products grown in New Westminster District," is the notice which surmounts a splendid exhibition of fruit, grain, and cereals in the window of Messrs. White and Shiles' Real Estate Office on Columbia street.

The exhibit is probably one of the most effective forms of advertising farming land in New Westminster district that has yet appeared in the city. The fruit, which consists of pears, peaches, plums, apples, grapes and other varieties, are in hermetically sealed bottles filled with a liquid which, while preserving the contents, does not in any way detract from the luscious appearance of the fruit.

The samples of grain, which, like the fruit, have without exception been grown in this district, would stand comparison with anything grown in any part of the Dominion. Messrs. White and Shiles can congratulate themselves on their exhibit which can do more to promote the interest of the New Westminster district than any amount of talking.

Discover New Seam.

Nicola, June 6.—General activity is the rule at the Nicola Valley Coal company's property. The work on the tunnel is being pushed ahead, and the plant is being put in order.

Some of the staff have been engaged in prospecting work on the property and with most satisfactory results, an entirely new seam of coal having been discovered. This new seam was found on the hill above the tunnel, and is some eleven feet in depth. Another seam has also been found in the vicinity, and there is every indication, that the property will prove a much more profitable producer than even its most enthusiastic admirers have dreamed of. There is not the slightest doubt that one of the finest coalfields in the province is located at our very doors.

Young Singer's Triumph.

Montreal, June 6.—Miss B. Gatien, sixteen years old, pupil of Miss Marier, this city, scored a triumph at a concert in Karn hall last night. She sang the Bohemian song from Carmen, and was brought back seven times by the audience. One man in the audience presenting her with a check for $1,000 in order that she might study abroad. Critics predict a brilliant future for this young singer.

OFFERS SUGGESTION TO RIVER COMMITTEE

George Small Thinks Better Plan Would Be to Bring Officials Here.

At the mass meeting held a couple of weeks ago for the purpose of deciding on some definite action regarding the betterment of the Fraser river channel, it was suggested by several of the speakers that a deputation be appointed to accompany J. B. Kennedy, M. P., to Ottawa, and assist him in laying the matter before the house.

Commenting on this proposed action, George Small, who has always had the interests of New Westminster at heart, and who took a prominent part at the meeting in question, stated yesterday that while the deputation might possibly do something towards the desired end, yet if some of the Ottawa officials could be induced to view for themselves the Fraser river, and realize the great possibilities which a betterment of the channel would open up, it would do more towards influencing the government, than any deputation could do in this matter.

"Let the different boards of trade cooperate in this matter," said Mr. Small, "and by joint resolutions impress upon the government the advisability of sending out men such as Mr. Ames (whose able remarks were read by Mr. Kennedy at the meeting), and I believe it would be a surer way of obtaining financial aid from the government than by sending any deputations.

"The special committee, which meets Monday afternoon to discuss the subject of the proposed deputation, might do well to consider this phase of the situation," concluded Mr. Small.

Real Estate Men Protest.

Considerable discussion has been going on of late among real estate men, regarding a resolution passed in coucil about two months ago. The resolution was to the effect, that in future persons wishing to subdivide city acreage must undertake to rough-grade all intersecting streets before their plans for streets would be approved of by the city council, caused a general feeling against the measure at the time. Since then real estate firms have been going into the matter, and have held a couple of meetings at which the obnoxious measure was fully discussed. The upshot of the opposition is that a deputation consisting of Messrs. Blair, Vidal, Dauphinee and Bacchus has been appointed to wait on the civic fathers at the committee meeting of the council this evening, to endeavor to dissuade the council from enforcing the resolution.

BAD BLACK MAN.

Tough Negro Escapes From Jail With Gun Play.

Grand Forks, B. C., June 5.—That George Thompson, the negro who broke jail here last Friday evening while awaiting sentence on two charges of theft, was a desperate character, is evidenced by a report that has just reached here from Marcus, Wash.

Thompson reached that town on a freight train last Saturday evening and shortly after his arrival he attempted to hold up a citizen. The town official and four citizens started in pursuit of the negro who drew a gun on his pursuers and stood the five men off and again succeeded in making his escape. This time he is supposed to have gone towards Spokane.

Wine Situation Serious.

Paris, June 6.—The report of the commission, the members of which personally investigated the situation in the wine districts of France and Algeria, was turned in yesterday. It shows the situation everywhere to be most grave, and declares that unless remedial steps are taken most promptly a condition similar to that which prevails in the south will arise in the other wine-producing districts. The commission recommends the prohibition of sugaring and watering wines, and says the prevention of the use of chemicals is absolutely essential. It adds a recommendation to the effect that distilling should be encouraged.

INDIAN GIRLS WANT TO WED WHITE MEN

Chickasaw Female Students Make Pact to Marry None But Palefaces.

Charlotte, N. C., June 6.—Twelve Indian girls of the Chickasaw nation, in Indian territory, have written to President Winstone of the State Agricultural college requesting his aid in getting white husbands.

The girls state they have entered into a pact to marry none but white men. They have much land and they think students at the Agricultural college will make the right sort of husbands.

President Winstone read the letter to the students today and it created enthusiasm. Fifty students have written replies to the girls.

Richmond Council.

At the regular meeting of the Richmond council held on Saturday, June 1, the reeve and all the councillors were present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

Nels Nelson requested to know how much the council required for a road and the clerk was instructed to furnish description for a 66 foot road.

The honorary secretary of the Steveston Citizen's league notified the council of the resolution asking the reeve and councillors to use every means in their power to have a water supply brought to Lulu island as soon as possible and stating that the unanimous opinion of the league that no other public work is so important or beneficial to the municipality at the present time.

Councillor Tilton was empowered to let a contract for a ditch on the north side of the Robinson road.

Reports were received from the following: Health officer, road overseer and clerk re clade for grader, chief of police, Councillor Tilton and Councillor Atkinson. Councillor Tilton's report stated that he had let a contract for cutting one mile and a few rods of brush on No. 3 road at $55 per mile and Councillor Atkinson's report stated that he had let a contract to dig a ditch on No. 2 road at $2.25 per rod.

The resignation of Chief of Police Morrison was accepted and on a vote by ballot being taken, G. J. Miller was appointed chief.

On a vote E. W. Sexsmith was appointed road tax collector at a commission of 12 1-2 per cent. on collections.

The clerk was instructed to write the pound keeper that he must not allow people in Steveston to tether their cows on the streets.

A large deputation of residents and taxpayers attended with a view to ascertaining what steps were being taken in the meeting of the reconstruction of the bridge over the North Arm and a committee consisting of the reeve, Councillors Tilton and Trites and Mr. Cowan, solicitor for the municipality, was appointed to interview the government and get some definite statement as to what assistance they were prepared to give in the construction of the bridge.

Orders were given that notices calling attention to the Noxious Weeds bylaw be posted as soon as possible.

The Liquor License bylaw introduced by Councillor Tilton and the Road Tax bylaw introduced by Councillor Dixon passed the third reading.

Councillor Dixon gave notice of motion to introduce a bylaw under the provisions of subsection 2 of section 73 of the Municipal Clauses act to provide for the reduction of the amount heretofore raised annually for sinking fund and interest in the general loan bylaws 1888 and 1891, there now being a sufficient amount in sinking fund to provide for the payment of debentures issued under the provisions of the said bylaw at their maturity.

On the report of the finance committee, accounts to the amount of $3,274.51 were ordered to be paid.

School Without a Staff.

London, June 6.—Owing to the rejection of the new scale of salaries by the teachers, the West Ham National school, London, is practically without a staff. The managers brought pressure upon one teacher, and as she still refused to accept the terms she was dismissed. Five other teachers in the school have sent in their resignations in protest against the manager's action.

PENKNIFE SAVES MAN FROM DEATH

Doctor Opens A Choking Youth's Throat With Pocket Knife In Nick of Time

St. Catharines, June 6.—Neil McCann, a Merritton young man, had a narrow escape from death by choking today. While eating at a restaurant a large piece of meat stuck in his throat, and the efforts of those nearby to relieve him proved useless.

Just as the bystanders had given up hope, and after McCann had become black in the face, Dr. Herod of Thorold drove past and was speedily summoned. The doctor had no instruments with him, and, seeing that it was a case of life or death, cut a small hole in the unfortunate man's throat with his pocket knife, and then pushed the meat through the man's mouth with his finger. In this manner his life was saved. McCann was taken to the G. and M. hospital, where he is resting easier, although still in rather a serious condition.

PHYSIQUE SINKS LOW.

Degenerance of Peasants Attributed to Want of Meat.

Berlin, June 5.—Some curious statistics come from southern Baden. During the recent enrolment of recruits in the Lindau and Allgau districts, out of 604 young men liable for service, only twenty were found who were up to the physical standard required by the military authorities, 217 were placed on the doubtful list, and the unusual number of 367 were put aside as wholly unfit for active service.

It seems that the peasantry in those districts were at one time among the most robust in the empire, but owing in the first place to the dearness of meat, and to the fact that milk, which was once one of their staple articles of food, is now carefully collected for cheese factories, their physique has sunk to a dangerously low level. Their principal food for years has been potatoes and skimmed milk.

Lumber Drive Under Way.

Roblin, June 5.—The yearly lumber drive here is well under way. The backward spring has kept the drivers off the Shell river fully six weeks later than usual, but the excellence of the water will easily make up for at least two weeks of this time. The water is just the proper height for driving. H. I. Stevenson, who is in charge of the Hanbury drive, stated: "Nearly 100 men are employed. Four million and a half feet have been cut. There is a rumor to the effect that the firm will remove from Brandon to Winnipeg next year. Another firm working further up the Shell have six million feet in the river.

Pope Receives.

Rome, June 6.—The pope today received in private audience Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Canadian premier, and L. P. Brodeur, the Canadian minister of marine and fisheries, and their families. The pontiff informed his visitors that he followed with affectionate interest the progress made by the Dominion.

THE PROPER PERSPECTIVE.

A dispatch from Nanaimo which we printed yesterday conveys the intelligence that a big excursion comes from that city to New Westminster July 12, and adds:

"The Royal City people will now have a chance to demonstrate how they expected Nanaimoites to receive them on the occasion of their visit here last year."

And the Nanaimo Free Press, writing in the spirit of the above-quoted sentence, requests the Daily News to put in its pipe and smoke certain paragraphs from Vancouver papers.

Now we beg to say, first, that we prefer to leave pipe dreams to the Free Press, and, in the second place, that the paragraphs referred to have nothing in the world to do with the question before the house, which is, the reception accorded by Nanaimo to the "citizen's picnic" from New Westminster, last summer.

As to the subject proper, the Free Press ought to know that the Daily News said nothing about it. It simply gave a report of the proceedings at a certain meeting. That report was printed as an item of news, ad as it did not seem to require comment, none was made.

Since, however, the Free Press has rung us up, we must point out that the reception accorded the picnic from this city, in Nanaimo, last summer, must be judged in the light of the fact that Nanaimo had expressed a wish that the picnicers should go there, and had volunteered certain things by way of cooperating with the visitors in creating a good time for all concered. If some people living in New Westminster charter a boat and go over to Nanaimo for a holiday, they have no right to make any complaint about their reception except direct and overt incivility were shown them (which could not happen in Nanaimo); but when a number of well know merchants in New Westminster set about to get up a picnic with the intention of making it an annual affair and an "institution," as May Day is, and when there is discussion as to the objective point and a certain city is chosen, and correspondence with public bodies in that city follows, and that city displays an anxiety to have the affair held there, and promises warm welcome and cooperation—that is another pair of shoes entirely. Now this is what happened last year. In the light of the inducements held out and the promises made in the name of Nanaimo, the picnicers had a right to expect a certain amount of demonstration of welcome on the part of Nanaimo. Did they receive it?

A PEACEMAKER.

The details of what the Toronto Globe calls the first real test of the "Lemieux Law," as the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act is generally called, are now before the public. The occasion was a dispute between the Grand Trunk Railway and the machinists in its employ. A big corporation like the Grand Trunk and a body of first-class mechanics certainly furnished as good material for a test as one could wish. Then the conditions and requirements and object of the law were fully understood. It is doubtful if that was the case in the earlier instances of proceedings under the Act. It is to these circumstances the Globe refers when it calls this case "the first real test" of the law. The particulars which it gives seem to show that the law promises very great usefulness in its practical working. The dispute included many typical features of the labor problem, such as rate of wages, hours of employment, night and day work, classification of men, the number and status of apprentices, the reinstatement of men on strike or lockout, some of them for over two years, and the general recognition of the union—questions enough, one might fear, to keep the typical Board of Arbitration busy for a month. As to the working of the law, the published correspondence between Prof. Adam Shortt and the Minister of Labor shows that the men's application for the appointment of a board was received by the Minister of Labor only on April 20, while the interesting letter in which Prof. Shortt, who had been chairman of the board, summed up the work done and outlined the way in which it had been done, was dated from his home at Kingston on May 20, a bare month having thus sufficed to furnish a complete illustration of the successful application of the Act. The actual proceedings before the board, as a matter of fact, lasted but three days, during which time an agreement was prepared covering all the knotty points indicated above, and we may be very sure that many of the conclusions arrived at will influence conditions outside of the particular class of employees whose grievances were ventilated.

TARIFF REFORM.

The people of the United States seem to be learning how great has been the folly of their protectionist policy. For many years the voice of common sense and sound politics was a voice crying in the wilderness, but a great change has come in these latter days and a greater is coming in the near future. The "stand patters" will make a great fight, of course; the beneficiaries of Protection will not surrender their profitable graft without a desperate struggle; but the Democrats, should they attain power, could hardly avoid the enactment of large measures of tariff reform (using that word in its proper sense), and many of their foremost men would not avoid it if they could, while influential Republicans are more and more loudly demanding such reform, as quotations from some of their leading papers show. The Washington Star thinks the handwriting on the wall has already been read so plainly that "the standpatters are figuring only on how far revision when it begins will go." The Philadelphia Record says "the manufacturers know that they can keep their home trade and compete successfully for the trade of other nations," adding that the tariff which was a help to infant industries, has become a hindrance to adult and established undertakings that only ask for a free foot and fair play in the world's markets. The Washington Post, always well-informed, gives another reason in favor of tariff reform which, it declares, is bound to come, for "the Republican party is too full of discontent and disgruntlement to tolerate the dictation of the standpatters much longer." The Boston Herald believes revision must take place in order "to remedy a situation that may become menacing to the foreign trade of the nation."

The carcass of a black bear, which was on exhibition in J. Reichenbach's meat market yesterday morning, caused quite a large crowd to gather for the purpose of viewing the brute. The bear, which was shot with a rifle by S. A. Peters, of Elgin, is a fine specimen, and weighed in the neighborhood of 350 pounds, the fur being in exceptionally good condition for this time of the year. The pelt has been purchased by a local business man who will make a robe of it, while several Chinamen were around early during the day, making a deal with Mr. Reichenbach for the meat, which is considered quite a delicacy by the Celestials.

HATCHERY SITES.

Dominion Superintendent of Fish Culture Visits Alberni.

Alberni, June 5.—On the 1st of June the Dominion fishery protector cruiser Kestrel arrived at Alberni, having on board F. H. Cunningham, Dominion superintendent of fish culture, who is now in British Columbia in connection with the erection and management of the various hatcheries erected, or about to be erected, in different parts of the province. The government have in contemplation at the present time the establishment of two hatcheries on the West coast, one on Barkley sound and one in Clayoquot sound. Mr. Cunningham's present visit is to look over the proposed sites and select the two most suitable for the purpose. While here he inspected the Sproat lake, and the Sproat river and falls, leaving later in the day for Anderson lake and river, at the head of Uchuckliset harbor, and also Nahmint river at the head of the bay of that name in the Alberni canal.

It is probable that the hatchery for Barkley sound will be located in one of these places. From there the Kestrel proceeded to Clayoquot sound to locate the site for the other hatchery. The spot chosen may be Kennedy lake or river, which is the largest lake and river emptying into Clayoquot sound. Fishery Inspector Taylor accompanied Mr. Cunningham.

Aboard the Kestrel was also W. Sloan, Dominion M. P. for this district, paying a flying visit to this part of his extensive constituency. Mr. Sloan stated that preparations are now under way for starting the construction of a pack horse trail along the coast between Bamfield creek and Carmanah lighthouse. When finished this will enable a rocket throwing apparatus to be hurried by land to the scene of any wreck, which might mean the saving of an entire ship's crew and passengers. In conjunction with the life boat to be stationed at Claoose and the motor boat at Bamfield, and telephone connection along the shore, communicating with the light houses of Carmanah and Cape Beale, and the look out huts between, this should complete as good a life protecting system as can well be made on such a coast.

School Without a Staff.

London, June 6.—Owing to the rejection of the new scale of salaries by the teachers, the West Ham National school, London, is practically without a staff. The managers brought pressure upon one teacher, and as she still refused to accept the terms she was dismissed. Five other teachers in the school have sent in their resignations in protest against the manager's action.

Another Alleged Attempt.

St. Petersburg, June 6—There have been so many alleged attempts lately upon the lives of members of the imperial house of Russia that scarcely a day passes without adding to the number.

The latest, according to the Novoe Vremya, was a deliberate design on the life of Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, younger brother of Emperor Nicholas. In any event a serious accident was narrowly averted. The scene was the Gatchina road leading to Tsarkoe-Selo, and the time yesterday afternoon. Piles of stones completely blocking the highway were discovered just before the passage of an automobile bearing the grand duke. They were hurriedly carried away, and the emperor's brother passed in safety.
