Six Carriers Commence Duties in Defined Territories This Afternoon—Letters Insufficiently Addressed Will Remain in Postoffice—Provision For Isolated Residents.

For the first time in the history of Westminster, mail matter will be delivered by carriers to the business men and residents this afternoon, the long expected boon commencing a few days earlier than had been anticipated. The first deliveries will not be so comprehensive as those to follow as the newly appointed carriers must be trained to their work gradually, but it is expected that within a week or so everything will be running smoothly. Inspector of Routes George McCort, of Vancouver, who has been here for the past few days laying out the walks, as the districts are termed in postoffice parlance, will remain here until the men are accustomed to their tasks in order to facilitate the work.

No Uniforms Yet.

The carriers will not wear uniforms though these have not yet arrived from Ottawa, but before the end of the month the carriers will be seen on the streets wearing the natty clothing furnished them by the department. The uniforms are made of blue cloth, with red stripes and epaulets and brass buttons. The regulation peak cap and leather belt will be worn. Oilskin capes have been furnished for use in rainy weather.

Six walks have been laid out, two deliveries being made to each, with an additional delivery in the business district. Isolated houses on the outskirts of the city, or on streets unprovided with sidewalks, may not be served for some time to come.

Three Deliveries Down Town.

The business section of the city is what is termed No. 1 walk, and includes territory between the waterfront and Hanlan, Moody and Cunningham streets (lanes running one block south of Royal avenue), and between Leopold place and Royal avenue. The district lying south of Carnarvon street and between Fourth street and Tenth street will be served three times a day, with the exception of a number of Chinese shacks in and near Ramage street, where only two deliveries will be made. W. J. Sayce is the carrier for this district.

From the northern boundary of Walk No. 1 to Third avenue, and from First street to Eleventh stret, is the territory to be covered by No. 2 walk. As this section is thickly covered with residences, the mail delivery is expected to be heavy. William Fryer has been assigned this district.

The Sapperton Walk.

J. S. Cameron will look after the interests of the Sapperton residents, his beat being bounded by the Fraser river on the south, Eighth avenue on the north, Richmond street on the east, and Brunette street on the west. The penitentiary is included in the Sapperton district.

Third avenue to Sixth avenue, and First street to Sixth street, are the boundaries of No. 4 walk. J. W. Buckland has been selected as carrier.

George Morrow, carrier for No. 5 walk, will tramp along from Third avenue to Eighth avenue, and from Sixth street to Eleventh street.

No. 6 walk is in the West End of the city, and is to be served by F. W. B. Press, whose peregrinations will be limited to that territory between the corner of Royal avenue and along the North Arm to Eighth avenue, and from Eleventh street to Sixteenth street.

Outside Residents.

Arrangements may be made by people residing outside these boundaries to have mail addressed to them deposited by the carriers in receptacles within the defined districts.

To facilitate the work of the carriers, residents are requested to have their mail fully addressed to their homes, including street numbers, as without this it is impossible to deliver mail efficiently. Incidentally, mail insufficiently addressed will not be taken out by the carriers, but will remain at the general delivery wicket. Business firms which do not issue written instructions to the contrary will continue to receive their mail in their postoffice boxes as at present.

NO QUORUM PRESENT AT COUNCIL MEETING

Conference on Water Question Thursday—Gas as Aid to Industries.

The city council did not meet last evening as a quorum could not be got together. Those attending were Mayor Keary, Aldermen Henley and Smith. The difficulty of obtaining the requisite number was due to the fact that only three aldermen had returned from an inspection trip to Portland, and the council consequently adjourned till Thursday. Notices will be sent to Reeve Bridge and Councillor Trites of the Richmond municipality asking them to attend and meet representatives of the consulting engineers, Hermon and Burwell, on that occasion with refernce to the proposed new water main to Coquitlam lake.

Extending Intake Pipe.

R. H. Sperling, general manager of the Vancouver Power Company, has written acknowledging receipt of a copy of Sanitary Inspector Pearce's report on the conditions around the dam at Coquitlam lake. Mr. Sperling writes expressing his satisfaction at the report of good sanitary conditions prevailing, and says he will use his best endeavor to maintain and enforce perfect sanitary arrangements.

Continuing, he says: "With reference to the recommendation made by the inspector that the intake pipe be extended to a point beyond the sawmill before the mill starts operation, I beg to suggest that as the extension of the present pipe would entail considerable expenditure, it would be a great saving to the company if you could supply us now with the dimensions of the permanent pipe which you would require to have laid through the new dam. We could then escape the expense of a temporary pipe, which might only be in position a few weeks before it would be necessary to replace it with the larger and permanent pipe. The

NO CHANGE PROJECTED IN PUBLIC WORKS DEPT.

Ottawa, June 14.
A. E. Kellington,
President Liberal Association
New Westminster, B. C.:
No change in office at present.
WM. PUGSLEY.

The above telegram was received yesterday afternoon in response to an enquiry forwarded from this city to the minister of public works as to the truth of the rumor to the effect that the offices of the Federal government were to be removed from this city to Vancouver.

The rumor stated that quarters were being prepared for the officials of the Dominion government for this province in the new postoffice building in Vancouver and that as soon as that structure was complete the transfer would take place.

Even were the transfer to take place it would not greatly affect the status of this city, inasmuch as only a few of the principal officials of the Federal government would be concerned. The same stores would be purchased in this city, and the same work carried on as heretofore.

READY FOR VISITING WOMEN DELEGATES

Arrangements for the reception of delegates to the quinquennial gathering of the local Council of Women in Toronto, which is meeting from June 23 to 30, and of whom a party of about 100 comes to the coast in July, occupied the attention of the local Council of Women yesterday.

In the absence of Miss Wavis, the first vice-president, Mrs. Pearce presided. The corresponding secretary, Mrs. Levar, read a number of communications from various bodies with reference to the entertainment of the visitors, and also an announcement that the party will leave for the west on July 1, arriving in Vancouver on July 11. They will visit Edmonton,

INSPECTOR DAWSON DISCUSSES PENITENTIARY ADMINISTRATION

Official Explains Address on D. D. Bourke's Telegram Was Altered By Telegraph Operator—Believes Bill Miner Made His Way to Mexico and Will Again Wear Prison Stripes.

Corruption in government officials in any department is a serious crime, but corruption in the officials of the department of justice is a heinous offence, and any guilty of such a breach of trust should be inside, and not administering penitentiaries. When members of the House of Commons make statements calling in question the integrity of such men, and suggestion is made of a conspiracy, or collusion between the officials of the B. C. penitentiary and the representatives of certain influential corporations for the escape of such a notorious criminal as Bill Miner, these suggestions are read with avidity by the criminal classes on this coast. Those men, convicted of crime, enter this penitentiary, and by means of communication known to convicts, convey to each other the impression that the discipline is corrupted. This is the cause of the unrest which has been experienced at the B. C. penitentiary during the past six months, and has found its outward expression in escapes and attempts to escape, on the part of criminals during that period.

The above summarizes the opinion expressed by Inspector Dawson, who arrived from the east yesterday morning on a trip of inspection, and will examine into conditions at the B. C. penitentiary during the next few days.

Satisfied With Inquiry.

Since his last visit Inspector Dawson has been the subject of frequent reference in the Canadian House of Commons as the officer responsible for the conduct of the inquiry into Miner's escape, and the use to which his name has been put by Conservative speakers, including the member for this constituency, has far from pleased the inspector. He takes issue with the section of the house who contended new facts of material importance dealing with Miner's escape have come to light since his inquiry in the fall of 1907, and says ex-Deputy Warden Bourke's letters have done little good either to himself or toward elucidating the story of the train robber's escape.

Mr. Dawson points out that Conservative members had no right to draw from Bourke's letters the suggestion of a conspiracy, as the ex-officer never suggested it, although making statements which, according to the inspector's opinion, he could not sustain.

Three Features Reviewed.

With copies of correspondence before him the inspector discussed the telegram of August 9, 1907, which the ex-warden sent to the "Inspectors," Ottawa, and which he (Dawson) received addressed to himself at Kingston on Sunday, August 11, sending it by mail to Ottawa that night, being the first intimation he received that Miner was among the four convicts who had escaped. On inquiry at the C. P. R. telegraph office in Ottawa he (Dawson) was told the night operator received the message addressed "The Inspectors," found out he was in Kingston, and addressed it personally to him there, this accounting for the change of address. Thus tumbled down all the structure of complicity to deceive which had been built up. The delay was purely accidental.

With regard to the cutting of Miner's hair, it was to his certain knowledge obtained under oath, cut on August 2, six days before the man escaped. When he visited in June, 1907, he spoke to Bourke on the matter, finding many of the prisoners with hair longer than was permitted by the rules, and the barber was instructed to cut the convicts' hair shorter.

There existed considerable divergence of opinion on the visits to Miner, and the way they were recorded, but it was against all penitentiary practice to have permitted such interviews as apparently took place.

Miner Will Be Caught.

The inspector says there is not a particle of truth in the story of the Australian bonds, and asked if he thought Miner would ever be captured he said he believed the man escaped southward to Mexico, and some day or other would be recaptured. His experience always showed that sooner or later the men were lodged once more in the prison walls.

Miner's Unclaimed Money.

Asked as to the amount standing to Miner's credit in the local branch of the Bank of Montreal, Mr. Dawson said it would remain there undisturbed till the convict claimed same. Throughout the Dominion it was no uncommon thing for quite a large sume of money to be sent to convicts, who claimed it upon the expiration of their sentence. The money was placed in savings banks accounts to the credit of the convict.

Decrease of Crime.

Discussing penitentiary administration generally he said the B. C. penitentiary was running Dorchester close as being the third largest penitentiary in the Dominion. Kingston and St. Vincent de Paul were naturally the largest. Manitoba, at Staney Mountain, and Alberta at Edmonton, were the smaller ones. A new one was in course of construction at Prince Albert, but to show how crime was decreasing on the pariries, he mentioned there were fewer prisoners in the two penitentiaries on the prairies than formerly occupied the cells at Stoney Mountain.

ESQUIMALT STILL A BRITISH BASE

Victoria, June 14.—That the formal transfer of the Esquimalt naval base from the Imperial to the Dominion authorities will take place during the present month is the tenor of apparently official information, which follows on the inspection made by Admiral Kingsmill, a few days ago. It is stated that the vessels of the fishery protection and lighthouse services will berth there, and that some repairs will be carried out at the wharves.

While the naval yard will be ostensibly transferred to Canada, it will at least for the next couple of years, remain a British base. The war sloops at present stationed there, will not be withdrawn, until Canada has naval vessels of her own to supplant them. The exact status of Esquimalt, is in a somewhat nebulous phase, and will only be decided after the Imperial naval and military conference on Empire defence, which is to be held in London next autumn. At this conference it is expected that Canada's contribution to naval defence will loom largely. The outcome will probably be that she will undertake to maintain in good shape the defence and naval facilities at both Esquimalt and Halifax, as well as building a number of the smaller class of warships, such as torpedo destroyers, and perhaps third class cruisers.

The negotiations now in progress for the purchase of a cruise from the British Admiralty, will be furthered by Admiral Kingsmill's visit to England where he is going in connection with this matter, as well as in regard to the transfer of Esquimalt. This vessel may possibly form the nucleus of the Canadian navy of the future, although it will be used as a fishery protection vessel. It is planned to have it also used as a training ship for marines, who can be drafted to whatever other vessels Canada may built in the course of time.

Under the new regime at Esquimalt the fishery protection cruiser Kestrel will make her headquarters there, instead of at Vancouver.

NEW INVENTION FOR PARTY LINE PHONES

Winnipeg, June 14.—The Manitoba telephone commission is about to test the invention of a Chicago man who claims that he can entirely eradicate the overheard-conversation trouble that is at present the great disadvantage of the party line, so much used by farmers in that province.

He has designed what is known as the party line secret service telephone system which can be connected to any line and is of such a nature that every one on the line except the party called up is locked out, thus insuring a secret service and the best possible talking conditions. Listening on the line by third parties or the highly confusing conversational quartette is thus positively prevented. The operator has absolute control of the line at all times, whether the receivers are on or off the hooks, also the central office calling device takes care of all the rural lines from that exchange.

MORE HONORS FOR ROYAL CITY STUDENTS

Graduates of Westminster Schools Rank High in University of Toronto Examinations.

Partial returns of the University of Toronto examinations in Arts and Medicine have been received in this city and show that as usual the students from New Westminster have succeeded in distinguishing themselves.

In medicine, W. V. Watson of this city made a high average in the examinations for the first year. In arts, Miss Jessie Drew, daughter of Dr. Drew, passed sixth in the third class in Honor Moderns, with Teutonic option, while in the general course S. C. Dyke ranked second in the first class.

TWO CUPS FOR JUDGING STOCK AT EXHIBITION

Victoria, June 14.—The directors of the B. C. Live Stock Breeders' Association met in the office of the agricultural department, parliament buildings, Victoria at the close of last week to discuss the work to be taken up for the season.

The association voted $500 to assist to the amount of one-half railway fare, in the transportation of live stock and poultry to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exhibition, the amount expended on transportation of stock not to exceed $500.

It was decided that the association would assist stock breeders who were members of the association, in the transportation of stock from the East.

The question of holding a winter fair was taken up, and it was decided that the matter be left with the secretary-treasurer, R. W. Hodson, to deal with, he being advised to interview Mayor Hall, of Victoria, Mayor Douglas, of Vancouver, and Mayor Keary of New Westminster, on the question.

That two cups be given for stock judging to Victora fair, and also for Westminster fair for the same purpose.

CANADIAN BRIDGE CO. GETS G. T. P. CONTRACT

Six Steel Spans to Be Erected on the First Hundred Miles of Railroad.

Vancouver, June 14.—The Canadian Bridge Co., of Walkerville, Ont., has been awarded the contract for the construction of six steel bridges on the hundred-mile section of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway between Prince Rupert and Kitsalas canyon on the Skeena river. The total amount involved is between $350,000 and $400,000. Mr. H. Ferguson of Toronto has been awarded the contract for putting in the concrete foundations in connection with the bridgework. Tracklaying out of Prince Rupert is expected to start some time in September.

Will Rebuild Lumber Mill.

Revelstoke, June 14.—The mill of the Munday Lumber Co., at Three Valleys, which was destroyed by fire last week, will be reconstructed on plans as large if not larger than before and it is expected by September to have the new mill in a position to resume its business on as large if not a larger scale than before the fire.

TO DEEPEN CHANNEL OF COQUITLAM RIVER

J. W. Pike's Dredge Will Leave This Morning and Start Will Be Made at Once.

Work will in all probability be commenced today on the deepening of the channel of the Coquitlam river as far as the new asylum wharf, for which the contract was let to J. W. Pike, the Vancouver dredging expert, recently.

Mr. Pike was in the city yesterday and stated that his river dredge, which is at present in dock at Lulu island, would leave for the Coquitlam today. The work of deepening the channel is being undertaken by the provincial government in order that the best possible facilities may be afforded the contractors for getting in the building materials for the new big ward, work on which will be commenced immediately.

BURNABY RAEPAYERS DISCUSS ROAD BY-LAW

The proposal to borow the sum of $150,000 for the purpose of improving the present roads of the municipality and building new ones is a question much before the public eye in Burnaby at the present time.

In order to give the ratepayers a chance to express their opinion on the matter public meetings will be held in the Burnaby Municipal hall on Wednesday evening and in the Central Park Agricultural hall on Thursday. Both meetings will commence at 7:30, and a large attendance is looked for.

The polling on the by-law takes place on Saturday of the present week.

Big Realty Deal.

The Allard block passed into the hands of a Vancouver syndicate yesterday. The last owners were a syndicate composed of both local and Vancouver men, J. B. Mathers of this city being the principal. The turnover involved $40,000.

AUTHORITIES CLASH OVER JURISDICTION

Province and Municipality Both Wish to Hold Inquest on Drowned Chinaman.

Do tide waters come under the jurisdiction of the provincial government or of the municipality whose shores they wash? This question is at present exercising the minds of the coroners of New Westminster district and of Burnaby municipality respectively, and until it is decided the body of an unknown Chinaman will await an inquest.

The body in question was found floating in the waters of Burrard inlet off the shore of Burnaby municipality a mile east of the Hastings boundary yesterday afternoon. It was immediately taken to the Douglas Shingle mill and Municipal Constable W. A. Ralph was notified of the gruesome discovery.

The question of jurisdiction then arose, the provincial and municipal authorities both claiming the right of holding the coroner's inquest.

The body bore no apparent signs of violence and it appears as if death had been accidental.

ALDERMEN RETURN.

They Combined Business and Pleasure in Enjoyable Trip.

Aldermen J. J. Johnston, J. Jardine and E. J. Fader have returned from the trip which, along with Ald. Gray and Adams, they made to Portland, on the invitation of the Hassam Cement Paving Co., in order to inspect the paving laid by the company in that city. All three aldermen stated that they were much impressed with what they saw of the pavement in use. "We saw it under all possible conditions," said Ald. Johnston, "and it appeared to be A1."

In Portland they found the rose festival in full swing and all the people wearing blossoms. In Seattle they inspected the lighting system and were particularly impressed with the system of illumination on the principal streets there. Instead of act lights, groups of lamps, consisting of one large and four small ones, are used, these giving an even light. Superintendent of Works Furness, who accompanied the party, will not return for some days yet.

ELECT ROWATT TO CHILLIWACK COUNCIL

R. G. Rowatt, a well known resident of Chilliwack will take the place on the city council made vacant by the appointment of Alderman Jackson to the office of mayor.

The election, which took place at Chilliwack yesterday, was closely contested and excited the greatest interest in the upriver town. Mr. Rowatt was opposed by Robert Marshall, one of the most popular residents of the district. There was a good turnout to the polls, the votes cast totalling two hundred and two. Of these Mr. Rowatt received one hundred and six and Mr. Marshall ninety-six, the successful candidate winning by a majority of ten.

J. H. Ashwell acted as returning officer.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any available Dominion Lands within the railway belt in British Columbia, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry must be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however, be made on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of the homesteader resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for, the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Six months' notice in writing should be given to the commissioner of Dominion lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.

Coal.—Coal mining rights may be leased for a period of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2560 acres shall be leased to one individual or company. A royalty at the rate of five cents per ton shall be collected on the merchantable coal mined.

Seattle, June 14.—Whisked through mountains at lightning speed on the scenic railway, rolled down a steep incline in a tub, one minute surrounded by savage Igorrotes, the next lost in an Egyptian pyramid, the visitor at the Pay Streak of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition at Seattle has a lifetime of experience in an hour or two.

To anyone who is bored with life and wishes new sensations, the Pay Streak is "Paradise enow." If it is speed he wishes there is the pneumatic Tube railway, where he is shot through a half-mile of underground tube in half a minute.

For the brave there are the Foolish House and the Mountain slide. In the first the victim stands on his head one minute and on his feet the next. His hat is suddenly swept from his head and while he is vainly searching for it, it comes back as suddenly as it went and lands at his feet. In the Mountain Slide, with a piece of carpet as a seat, the visitor glides through wild canyons and mountains at ticklish speed.

Entering the Battle of the Monitor and Merrimac a panorama of the first battle of ironclads is realistically before him. In like manner the famous Battle of Gettysburg is protrayed.

Real Alaska "Fairies" waltz with you in the Klondyke Dance Hall, but you buy "soft" drinks.

The Eskimo Village takes the visitor on a journey through the wild north. The next stop is the Trip on the Yukon where a boat is furnished in a twinkling the scene is changed to a broad panoramic river. The Streets of Cairo, Dixieland, and Gay Paree furnish a touch of high life for all. The noise, the crowds and the excitement of the Pay Streak make it an immensely popular place.

THE STAGE

The Grown up Pollards.

Tonight the Pollards will make their bow to the New Westminster public as a company of grow-up Lilliputians. That they are grown-up and may fairly take their place as stars in the theatrical world was clearly demonstrated by the performances last Friday and Saturday in Vancouver.

"Fun on the Bristol" is the play they have chosen for their presentation tonight. It is a play that made a great hit in New York and London years ago. The feature of the comedy, musical farce, or whatever one may call a clever vehicle for vaudeville is the dozen or more pretty songs, in the piece and as many clever dances. There are many screamingly funny situations and novelties. Each one of the young actors has a part that fits exactly.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or sub agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).

(4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

Six months' notice in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of intention to apply for patent.

Father Pat

Toward the making of this great Dominion many have given the best years of their lives to the strenuous labor of pioneer work. It is to these plucky, persevering spirits of the early days that British Columbia owes so much for that greatness and prosperity which she today enjoys. But aside with those who labored for the material good of themselves and their fellows, who hewed out of the great primeval forests, roads and rail tracks settlements and cities, have been men who, equally brave and persevering, have spent the ripe years of their lives in ministering to the spiritual needs of the settlers and colonists.

Henry Irwin was one of these. Far and wide was he known and loved, from New Westminster to Fernie and Donald and beyond, as Father Pat. To how great an extent a man of the calibre and character of Henry Irwin does good to his fellows is not possible to determine. But in the sketch of his life by Mrs. Jerome Mercier which has just been published, we find ample evidence of the great influence for good that he exercised, especially among the rougher natures gathered in the mining and construction camps of his day.

Father Pat was an Irishman, born amid the Wicklow mountains in 1859. He belonged to the old church school of Ireland, his father being incumbent of New Town, Mount Kennedy. Whilst displaying athletic tendencies, both at school and college, he was also a careful student, and from early times evinced a keen desire to be a missionary. Thus it came about that when he had served his curacy in the old English town of Rugby, where he gained the soubriquet that stuck to him through the rest of his life, he sailed for British Columbia in April 1895. Appointed by Bishop Sillitoe to assist Mr. Horlock, vicar of Kamloops, he soon did excellent work as an itinerant minister among the various camps located in and around the city. In 1887 he was moved to Donald, then a centre of great activity, with the C. P. R. Pacific coast line construction in porgress.

Here it was that he really began to prove his mettle. He did not confine his work to the construction camp, but was constantly out upon a wide circuit through the wilds, ministering to all alike. An incident quoted by the authoress, illustrates the practical sympathy of the kindly missionary. Serious snow slides occurred on the line some distance out, and the lives of some of the workers were lost. Communication with Donald was cut off and the widow of one of the men killed, Mrs. Green, was wild with anxiety about the body of her husband. Hearing of this Father Pat determined to try and get the body in, to relieve the poor woman's anxiety. He took a toboggan out to the scene of the disaster, and, disregarding the dangers threatened by the still falling slides, made his way to where the body lay. Then he started back to Donald with it and after many trials and narrow escapes reached the town. He was away two days and a night and that night he spent alone with the corpse on the desolate and dangerous road.

After two years vigorous work in the wilds of the Selkirks Henry Irwin came to New Westminster as assistant curate and domestic chaplain to the bishop. In the following year, in January 1890, he was married to Miss Frances Stuart Innes, daughter of Superintendent Innes, of H. M. dockyard, Esquimalt. But the very happy union thus formed was destined to last only too brief a time, for in November of the same year Mrs. Irwin died. His father's severe illness called him to Ireland in 1894, but two years later Father Pat returned to B. C. and expressing a desire to devote himself to good hard work of the pioneer sort, was appointed mission priest to Rossland by Bishop Dart. Here the missionary, trying to subdue the grief that still possessed him, labored more zealously than ever. Established in a shack, conveniently situated, he often sat outside to converse with the heterogenous crowd that passed by, offering a word of advice, or comfort, or sympathy, as might be needed. These were the most interesting years of his life.

Father Pat's shack, like the library hard by, was always open. He considered it too great a luxury to enjoy alone, and constantly had some sick or needy fellow creature to share it with him. As to clothes, he adopted the blue derry of the miners as his working costume. "The more civilsed part of his wardrobe was constantly being diminished by the inroads of his reckless charity." His days and nights, the authoress tells us, "were given to others. His door was ever open to the men. They might smoke with him, chat with him; and then in the confidence of such talk he would lead many a poor fellow to confess his faults, to ask advice, to remember the better life of the past."

The Rev. C. A. Procunier, Rector of Revelstoke, has remarked of his fellow priest: "His great book was human nature and his best sermon was a pure life." Anecdotes of his practical sympathy and kindly nature abound in Rossland to this day, and this interesting sketch of Mrs. Mercier contains many. He was the beloved Padre of the miners. Over mountain and valley, by trail and by road he perpetually trudged and travelled, always on errands of mercy and love.

As Bishop Dart has said in his preface to this book "It was because Henry Irwin always showed himself to be unselfish, sympathetic and anxious to help others to the very utmost of his power that he won his great influence among the pioneers of B. C. and that his name and memory are held by them in affectionate respect."

The end of this noble worker was a painfully sad one. Things had become dark and unpromising in Fairview camp in 1901 and Father Pat was on his way home to Ireland for rest and change at the suggestion of the Bishop. He appeared to have got out of the train before reaching Montreal and tramped along some distance. He was picked up by a farmer on the Sault au Recollet road the next morning, with his feet badly frost bitten. After receiving medical attention the sufferer was taken to Notre Dame hospital and though every attention was bestowed upon him by the Sisters, he passed away a few days later. The pathetic circumstances are excellently told by Mrs. Mercier. The body of the beloved missionary was brought to New Westminster and laid to rest, in the presence of a great crowd of friends, in the cemetery at Sapperton by the side of the wife he loved so fondly.

ANOTHER CANARD.

If the report in the Vancouver papers, to the effect that the Dominion public works office was to be removed to the new postoffice building in that city in December next had been true, it would have been of serious import to New Westminster. But as a matter of fact it was altogether untrue, and we are able to print the Hon. Mr. Pugsley's denial of the statement. The report appeared in a very similar way to the seemingly circumstantial story about the Fruhling dredge of a few months ago, which turned out to be utterly baseless. It is but another canard hatched in the Terminal City for the injury and annoyance of her elder sister on the Fraser.

The district office of the Department of Public Works has been located in this city since its removal from Victoria in 1897, and owing to the central position of New Westminster its location here has always been regarded as advantageous and convenient. We never heard of any complaint having been made of this city being at all unsuitable, and it is certain that Vancouver would not offer anything like the same convenience as a location for the office. The presence of this important department of the state has been of real advantage to New Westminster, and its removal would mean a distinct loss in many ways. No doubt the Vancouver people would much like to have the office removed there, but, at present, at all events, there is neither reason nor necessity for such a change.

Yet it would not altogether have surprised us if the district office had been removed from the Royal City as a result of the miscievous tactics of the member for this constituency. Not satisfied with having devoted the two years or so which he spent in the cool shades of hope to the persistent pouring forth of vile abuse and spiteful calumny upon the heads of the Liberal government, from the Prime Minister downward, he has misused the privilege which the electors conferred upon him by making baseless charges and attacking the heads of one department and another. No doubt his object was to force himself into notice and advertise his paper—he generally managed to drag in some reference to the Columbian—but the net result was to make himself obnoxious to both sides of the House, to besmirch the good name of our city and impose upon it a notoriety the reverse of pleasant or profitable.

BATHING ACCOMMODATION.

It is a strange circumstance, one that is almost ironical in its character, that though New Westminster has for its southern margin one of the great rivers of the world, and that otherwise there is abundance of water available, no provision has hitherto been made for what may be termed the general cleanliness of the people. That is to say, there is no convenience for bathing or swimming. The need for the provision of such a convenience has again made itself felt this summer. A public bathing place and swimming bath would certainly be a valuable addition to the amenities of the Royal City, and we feel certain that any steps the Council might take to establish such an institution would be appreciated by the ratepayers at large.

A well designed swimming bath, centrally placed, would probably prove self-supporting, and we are not sure that it might not be a profitable investment, as many such establishments are in European and British towns and cities, very few of which are without this admirable incentive to cleanliness and good health. It seems to us that a public bath might well be located in Queen's park, being placed in a position convenient for supply by the new 24-inch main that is to be laid from Coquitlam lake.

COURT OF APPEAL TO BE ESTABLISHED FOR B. C.

Victoria, June 14.—The provincial government have notified the Ottawa authorities that the act providing for the establishment of a court of appeal for this province will be brought into effect in August next. The act constituting the court was passed some years ago by the Dominion government, but the court was not formally appointed until the action taken by the provincial authorities. It will consist of five judges, and under the arrangement the Dominion will permit the province to nominate one member. The court will relieve the full court of much of the work that has been falling upon the latter, and will result in the greater despatch of all legal business. The province has given the Dominion ample time to make the selection of judges.

THREE TUGBOATS TRY TO SALVE SEA LION

Victoria, June 14.—Tugs are still at work in an effort to salve the sunken wreck of the Puget Sound Tugboat Company's tug Sea Lion, lying in seventy-two fathams of water, five miles east of Race Rocks. The tug Tyee has hold of the eleven inch hawser fast to the bitts of the submerged vessel with which she was towing the barge Charger and with the assistance of the Wyadda and Pioneer is endeavoring to dray the wreck of the Sea Lion to shallower water, where chances of raising the vessel will be offered. The Sea Lion had 110 tons of coal in her bunkers, and it is believed the effort to float her will be ineffective.

LACROSSE IS LOSING GROUND IN OTTAWA

The decadence of the Canadian National game in the east, and more particularly in Ottawa, is troubling the Ottawa Free Press, hence the following lament:

What has come over the National game of lacrosse in Ottawa?

Last Saturday the crowd that went to 'Varsity Oval to see the N. L. U. opening between Capitals and Cornwall numbered not more than 800 and of this total, about half were paid admissions.

Just before the game started, President Dr. J. L. Chabot remarked at the paucity of the crowd, and stated that if future games were not productive of better gates, the persent backers would drop out at the end of this season. It only meant going down deep in their pockets to put on a pastime the public refused to support.

Lacrosse has been on the wane in Ottawa since the Capitals of 1906 lost the championship. Last year the team was fighting one and two all season with Tecumsehs, till accidents in the game with Montreal relegated it to the back-ground. Yet their were no excessively large gates and a deficit was shown at the end of the season.

But there are other and more potent indications the game in dying out in the Capital. The younger generation does not play lacrosse. Cartier Square, and all the open lots about the city that were forests of lacrosse sticks in the off hours five years ago, are now vacated or occupied by baseballists. Lee's field and Slattery's field in Ottawa East, had a big game going every other night four years ago. So did Bingham's Square. The teams rode back and forth in 'buses and as many as two thousand people watched the contests. Where are the Beavers, the Shamrocks, the Dundonalds, the Stars, the Emmetts, the Pastimes and a half dozen other city teams whose members fairly sweated for the hour hand to rest on six, so they could hike to the lacrosse field and get into action supperless?

Unless something is done this season, lacrosse will become extinct in Ottawa. It is a magnificent game and the fact that it is our National pastime makes it imperative something should be done immediately to keep it going.

Why is lacrosse dying out?

Perhaps by delving down to the causes of its decline the real reasons can be unearthed and the game be again placed on a plane wher it belongs.

GERMANS SUPPLANT BRITISH IN CHINA

Victoria, June 14.—The liners Empress of Indian and Antiochus, which arrived on Saturday from the Orient, both brought news of the German movement in China. According to passengers on the Empress and English newspapers published in Japan, the Germans are supplanting the British on the new railways being built in Northern China, and, in one or two cases, the railway work has been stopped on that account. One member of a legation staff who is well posted on the events transpiring in that country, and who is now on his way to London to consult with the British government on the question, says that the Chinese, influenced by the Germans, have refused to carry out their agreements and are appointing Germans to all the chief positions. The British are not taking this action without protest, and several cases have refused to advance further capital until the German officials have been deposed and Englishmen appointed in their places.

STEAM WHALERS MAKE A SUCCESSFUL CRUISE

Victoria, June 14.—The Norwegian steam whalers Edda, Samson and Hercules, which cruise yearly to the Antarctic after whales, have returned to Sandjeford, where they arrived two weeks ago, according to letters received by those interested in the whaling business on the Vancouver Island coast. The catch for the season totalled 600 whales. They were taken in four months. The storeship, which acted as a floating station for the whalers, brought home 14,000 barrels of oil, valued at $225,000. Each of the steam whalers was 50 tons register and carried ten men, while there was a crew of 50 on the storeship.

New Theatre For Victoria.

Victoria, June 14.—Arrangements are said to be now well in hand whereby Victoria will obtain a new first-class theatre. The site is stated to have been selected at the corner of Government and Elliott streets, a property owned by Mrs. Jas. Anderson, who is understood to be considerbly interested in the enterprise, and to have secured a promise of financial assistance from John Cort, the well known theatrical man of Seattle. The entire project is to cost $150,000.

Robin Hood Flour—Canada's Newest, Greatest Flour—Continues to Grow in the User's Favor.

"ROBIN HOOD FLOUR" started out well. It made an immediate impression by its "goodness," by the amount of bread it makes in comparison with other flours, and by the sweet, mealy flavor of the loaves made from it.

When you are using add more water than with the flours you formerly bought. Then note the result. You get more bread, of more nutritious quality. It will prove its value.

"ROBIN HOOD FLOUR" is sold under a positive guarantee. Your money back if not satisfied after two fair trials.

Every woman in New Westminster ought to be using ROBIN HOOD FLOUR now. If you haven't tried it start now. Order a bag the next time you buy flour. You will certainly be delighted with it. And remember that "this DIFFERENT flour" is always guaranteed.

Made of Saskatchewan's Best Wheat, "Robin Hood Flour" is in Every Way a Superior Flour.

YESTERDAY'S MOVEMENTS ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The steamer Trader arrived in port yesterday morning. She had on board eight hundred barrels of cement which she discharged at Gilley Bros.' wharf and a large quantity of produce for the Brackman-Ker Co. She will leave today again for Victoria with a full cargo.

The new Dominion government dredge Frusling, Captain Goss, will leave this morning for the sandheads where she will commence work. Before leaving port the Frusling will berth at Gilley Bros.' wharf where she will coal.

The Dominion government steamer Restless which has been in port for the last few days, will leave this morning for Blaine. On her way down to the American port she will inspect the fish traps on the Canadian side of the line.

The date of the annual trip of the Beaver to Port Douglas at the head of Harrison lake has been fixed for June 25. The steamer will take with her the annual supply of provisions and other goods for the Pemberton hatchery, Purcell's store at Port Douglas, and the other settlements along the lake.

The steamer Transfer will not run to Ladner until further notice. She is at present berthed at the Schaake Machine Works wharf where her engines are being taken out and new ones installed. It is expected that the work of getting the new engines in place will take some three or four days. The new machinery will be of the most up-to-date type and it is expected that it will considerably increase the speed of the vessel. Due notice will be given when she is ready to take the run again.

CLERGY TAKE PAY IN MOLASSES AND PORK

Pembroke, June 14.—The laymen of the Montreal Methodist conference, considering the claim that many of the clergy are insufficiently paid, have recommended the appointment of a special (lay) official, with representatives in every circuit, to pay special attention to this.

That seventy-seven clergy in the Montreal district are paid less than $750 annually; that some get their pay partly in pork, molasses and wood; and that there were cases of where some of the clergy, wanting to attend the conference, had to stay at home as they had not the money to attend, were some of the statements made at the conference here.

Regina, Calgary and other cities en route, and on the following morning after their arrival in Vancouver will visit this city in special cars, arriving about 10 a.m. Arrangements have been made to inspect one or more of the canneries, and probably one of the lumber mills.

A reception committee, consisting of Miss Davis, Mrs. Levar, Mrs. J. R. Gilley, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Pearce, Mrs. James Anderson and Mrs. Marshall Sinclair, was appointed to make all plans for the entertainment of the guests. Although the delegates will arrive in Vancouver on a Sunday their reception will be necessary on that day, as Monday afternoon they leave for Victoria. A mass-meeting at the Opera House, Vancouver, has been arranged for July 11, when all members of the council and ladies interested in the work arecordially invited to attend.

The nomination of two members of the board of managers of the Royal Columbian hospital came up. Four ladies are elected to the council, for two-year terms. The retiring members, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Broad, were re-elected on a ballot, the other names submitted being Mrs. Welsh and Mrs. Anderson.

A letter from the Humane Society of Ottawa asking support of a bill to prevent cruelty to animals in transportation, was received, and the secretary was requested to inform the senders that owing to the end of the session it was impossible to pass a resolution before that time.

"Naked Hussies"

London, June 14.—The base-reliefs and classical figures of the new memorial of the late Queen Victoria, in front of Buckingham palace, have been universally admired. But, during the week, the king received a letter of protest from the non-conforming ministers, reading: "What would your gracious mother, the embodiment of all the domestic virtues, say if she could see at her feet these naked hussies, whose sole attraction is the display of their wealth of form. Before it is too late, cannot you prevent such a desecration of all the principles of her sainted life in this national tribute to the greatest and best of Englishwomen?"

BAPTIST MINISTER IS ASKED TO RESIGN

Chicago, June 14.—Prof. George B. Foster of the University of Chicago, and formerly professor of philosophy at McMaster University, Toronto, whose writings, denounced by some as "a bitter indictment of the Christian religion before the bar of skepticism,' have harrowed the clergy of Chicago, at a meeting of Baptist preachers of Chicago today was called on by Rev. Johnstone Myers, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist church, to withdraw from the Baptist ministry to yield up his ordination papers. The fire of criticism was directed chiefly at Professor Foster's recent book, "The Function of Religion."

This motion was put before several hundred preachers and laymen gathered at the conference of the Baptist executive council, and only the objection of one man, Prof. A. K. Parker, who, like Prof. Foster, is an instructor at the University of Chicago, prevented the eviction of the author of "The Function of Religion." Prof. Parker prevented action by calling attention to a constitutional provision, preventing action without a week's deliberation. The case accordingly was postponed.

MYSTERY WRAPS DEATH OF VANCOUVER MAN

Vancouver, June 14.—The body which was found at Kitsilano beach on Sunday afternoon has been identified as that of Major E. Browne, at various times politician, leader of an anti-Japanese crusade and keeper of a bucket shop. The watch was still running at the time of the finding of the body, showing that it could not have been long in the water. The circumstances denote either suicide or accident.

BOSPHORUS PAVED WITH SKELETONS

London, June 14.—The Liverpool Journal of Commerce states that it has received a letter from an officer on one of the Saint Line steamers, referring to the deposition of the Sultain of Tukrey, in which that officer makes the following startling statement:

"While at Constantinople on April 30, two divers went down in the Bosphorus for some purpose, and they reported that the bottom was covered with skeletons, and one of the divers died from the effects of going down and the other went mad.

"A yacht anchored in this place a little while ago, and when the crew hove up the anchor there were two dead bodies hooked in it shakled together."

matter will be dealt with on Thursday.

A. E. Hill, of Vancouver, asks for an engagement as engineer if the council wants such an officer to superintend construction operations.

Price of Gas.

W. Thomas, engineer of the Royal City Gas Improvement Company writes to the council that for manufacturing purposes his company will guarantee an industrial company current at a cost of one quarter cent per kilowatt hour. The company would be able to show a horsepower from each five pounds of ordinary fir sawdust and shavings. In each ton there would be an average of 50,000 cubic feet of gas. Their gas not only eliminated all objectionable elements of the ordinary producer gas, which forced all others to use only smokeless fuels such as coke and anthracite coal, but has doubled the British heat units of any producer now before the public.

Application for Fee.

An account for professional fees has been presented by Willis Chipman, C. E., who reported on the Coquitlam dam scheme. The bill is $750. These matters will be dealt with on Thursday.

THREE MORE UMPIRES FOR BASEBALL LEAGUE

Committee Meets This Evening to Revise Schedule—Russells and Balmorals Play Tonight.

Three more victims were added to the list of official umpires of the Westminster Baseball association at an executive meeting held at Blair's cigar store yesterday evening, this trio consisting of Fred. J. Lynch, Alf. Turner and Sid. Malcolmson. The last-named is at present in the east and will not know of his misfortune until his return, about three weeks hence.

A committee of the managers of the three teams in the league, W. E. Sinclair, of the Balmorals; W. J. Sayce, of the Young Liberals; and Arthur Sinclair, of the Russells, will meet this evening to revise the schedule, this having become necessary because of the Cubs dropping out of the league. Under the new schedule it is proposed to play two games a week.

To avoid disputes, and incidentally rob the games of some of its attractions, umpires will in future be appointed by the contending teams; should the discussion be unduly prolonged, the home team will have the option of naming the official.

Bals. and Russells Tonight.

The two high teams in the league, the Balmorals and the Russells, will meet tonight at Queen's park, when a snappy game is expected. The Balmorals will take the field with the following: Munn, c.; Smith, p.; Sinclair, 1b.; Pierrot, 2b.; Ryall, ss.; Stein, 3b.; Barbaree, lf.; Canfield, cf.; Fletcher, rf.

The Russells are still in suspense as to who to keep on the bench out of the following eleven: Cunningham, H. Robinson, Robertson, Davidson, Arthur Sinclair, Wilkie, Kenny, Howard, Sharpe, Peebles, McPhail.

Russells Elect Officers.

The Russells, for the first time this year, have now properly organized and elected officers, this happening at a meeting held at P. Peebles' office last night. Those honored are: Sid. Malcolmson, president; Gowan MacGowan, manager; L. G. Sharpe, captain; P. G. Peebles, secretary; L. L. Adams, treasurer. Walter Cunningham, Arthur Sinclair and L. G. Sharpe were elected delegates to the local association.

LOCAL NOTES.

James Murphy, alias C. S. Brittain, will be brought up today to decide whether he will take speedy trial on a charge of horse-stealing at Ladner. According to the complainant, Joseph Jordan, prisoner hired a rig and horse from him, and later attempted to sell it in Bellingham, where he was arrested.

On account of the new legal firm of Wade, Wheallier & McQuarrie being formed since the action of Cooksley vs. City of New Westminster was heard before Judge Howay, Mr. Whealley did not act for Mr. Cooksley in the full court, the brief being transferred to Whiteside & Edmonds, who instructed E. P. Davis, K. C.

The lady principal of Columbian College, Miss L. M. Hockin, will leave today for her home in Nova Scotia. After vacation she will take charge of a school in St. John's Newfoundland. Miss McArthur, assistant lady principal at the college, who has been seriously ill at the Royal Columbian hospital, will also return to her home in the east, in company with Miss Hockin.

One of the men employed at Coquitlam lake in raising the dam for the Vancouver Power Company went insane on Sunday, and assaulted several other employees. Provincial Constable Wilkie went out and brought him in to the city, where his condition was certified by Drs. Walker and Green. He has since been removed to the provincial asylum.

The death of S. G. Hoffard occurred at the Vancouver General hospital on Saturday. The late Mr. Hoffard, who was well known in this city, was fifty-four years of age. He was for some time postmaster at Agassiz. The funeral will take place today from Vancouver to the cemetery at Agassiz. Mr. Hoffard leaves a wife and several sons and daughters, most of them resident in this city, to mourn his loss.

A telegram was received yesterday afternoon from Charlie Querrie, manager of the Tecumsehs, challengers for the Minto cup, to the effect that the referees suggested by Westminster for the championship games did not meet with his approval, and that he had referred the question to Sir Edward Clouston, temporary managing trustee of the mug, for settlement. The names suggested by Westminster were those of Matt Barr and Stanley Peele.
