HEDULE ENDS AS IT COMMENCED

mon Bellies Are Victori- us in Last Game of B. C. A. Series.

Played Steady Game.

ancouver never had a chance for honors of the game, for the cham- were there with the strong men every part of the field, playing a game until the last seven min- of play. Then with the score at four all, the New Westminster cut themselves loose and gave exhibition of the national game brought the fans to their feet, afforded all the excitement that be desired while it lasted. In last seven minutes of play the three times lodged in the visit- net.

w men only on the Vancouver were able to compare with the brilliant work, these being the star Vancouver goal- er and Lalonde. When the lat- left the field in the third quarter, visitors' home went to pieces, the local defence men then went the assistance of the home who e battering Gibbons with shots all sides.

Fans Stayed Home.

The crowd was small, the fans ving apparently decided that there uld be nothing of interest in the t game of the season, especially e it was known that Jim Gifford Lex Turnbull would be off the d. It was pretty generally be- ved that the locals would not put a strenuous fight, but let the game to settle themselves for the coming ay matches with the expected to cup challengers and with the ncouvers at the exhibition.

The game promised to be a clean hibition, and was so until the rd quarter, when Lalonde and ◆ George Rennie—Lalonde hit me with his stick once before I got the ball and again after I had thrown the ball, the same thing he has been doing all the time; he is the dirtiest player in the game. He hit Galbraith before the judge of play had spoken to him at all, when he says that Tom held him he is talking through his hat. He also kicked at me and tried to bite, getting my cheek in his mouth once. ◆

George Rennie mixed it. The police interfered and separated the combat- ants, and did good work in keeping of the field the few fans who would ave liked to cross the fence. There were not half a hundred fans mixed p in the fight, as a Vancouver morn- ng paper stated, nor yet a twentieth f a hundred, if that many. Lalonde also struck the referee Barlow Gal- raith when he interfered to restore rder.

Swift From Start.

The red and blue showed that it as out for victory from the moment he ball was drawn carrying it with rush to Vancouver territory and rying a shot at Gibbons. Play went back but only for a moment, the local en keeping the ball well on the Vancouver end. In one of these rushes a check from a Vancouver stick caught Dougbey Spring on his injured nose, slashing it open again. He was forced to leave the field for repairs, Clark going off to even up until his return. Latham early sur- prised the fans by his exhibition of speed and stick handling. Feeney was back again and played a dashing game, both these players keeping the pace set at the beginning through to the end.

Not until the second quarter did the Vancouver men seem to be able to stem the tide, although the good work of Gibbons kept the goal tally down to two. In this quarter Bones Allen scored for Vancouver well to- ward the end of the quarter, as much by good luck as good shooting, the ball glancing from the stick of one of the defence men. Once Doughey Spring seemed as though he would break through and score in this quar- ter, rushing through the Vancouver defence, and after a pretty piece of stick handling resting Gibbons with a stinger.

In the third the Vancouver boys picked up slightly and received con- siderable encouragement when La- londe made the first tally of the quar- ter by a brilliant piece of play. Securing the ball he broke away from his check and rushed through the local defence, dropping the rubber neatly behind Sandy Gray. Murray found the way to the net again in 32 seconds, putting the visitors in the lead for a few minutes. The red and blue then began to get busy and the pace traveled hard for a time, shot after shot testing the man in the Vancouver flags, Turnbull trying one of the prettiest shots of the game.

A pause occurred in the play while Lalonde and the Rennies settled their differences, Lalonde and George Ren- nie leaving the field for the remainder of the game, Tom Rennie and Mc- Conaghy resting for five minutes with the penalty timekeepers. When play was resumed, the local team had changed their tactics and at- tacked with a series of wicked rushes that could have but one result, Cliff Spring doing the needful.

The start of the last quarter was

ORIENTAL IMMIGRATION.

Premier Objects to Wording of Message.

The following reply has been received by the Trades & Labor Council, Vancouver, in answer to its message to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, which was sent Thursday:

"Ottawa, Ont., September 17th, 1909
R. P. Pettipiece,
General Secretary Trades and Labor Council,
Vancouver, B. C.

Your telegram received. Quite disregarding the offensive language, I have to inform you that no request has been made this government by anybody for the importation of Asiatic labor.

WILFRID LAURIER."

R. P. Pettipiece says that he does not consider the Trades & Labor Council has anything to retract. The language of the despatch, in his opinion, was justified by the emergency.

ROLLING MILLS SITE RESTS ON INDUCEMENTS

Valuable Plant to Develop Iron and Steel Industry May Locate Here If Encouraged.

In common with other principal cities in British Columbia New Westminster has received a letter from Gibson Arnoldi, financial agent of the James A. Moore syndicate, stating that the company will build a large plant employing 1500 persons to handle the business of the Irondale Steel Company in British Columbia, the plan being to take advantage of the Canadian tariff.

The equipment includes shops for building freight cars, nut and bolt works, rolling mills, tube works blast furnaces and installation of the most improved equipment for the production of steel by the open-hearth system.

Harbor facilities, tax exemptions, free water, and probably a bonus are some of the inducements which will be required to secure the business in any one locality. All these factors have been conceded in the past, and probably will be given if the company submits a definite business proposition to the city council for New Westminster more than anywhere else has them to offer.

From communications received by prominent business men of this city who are in communication with Mr. Arnoldi, it appears that his company has New Westminster particularly in view and that if the required inducements are offered, the company will almost certainly locate here.

The company has a factory at Irondale almost completed. The James Moore syndicate some months ago bought large mineral holdings in the province having in view the erection of a factory and rolling mills in the near future.

ANTARCTIC EXPLORERS TO CARRY WIRELESS

Will Communicate With Station in New Zealand, 2200 Miles Distant.

London, Sept. 18.—An interesting feature of the British Antarctic expedition will be an attempt to keep in communication with the world by means of aerograph.

"We shall be about 2200 miles from the nearest radiograph station which is in New Zealand," said Capt. Scott, the commander of the expedition, today, "but at the rate at which science is developing we may by the time we get to the Antarctic be able to send, and undoubtedly will, receive messages. We shall not carry portable apparatus but will have wireless stations at our base of supplies."

ANDREW CARNEGIE HELPS MONTREAL CHURCH

Montreal, Sept. 18.—Andrew Carnegie has given St. James' Methodist church $3000 toward rebuilding the organ, to cost $6000, on condition that the church raises the other half itself.

PROTEST AGAINST REDUCED SERVICE

Surrey Residents Will Appeal to Commission Concerning Cloverdale Branch

The difficulty of lack of transportation and mail facilities which the residents of Surrey have suffered from since the "scenic route" was opened, and only a partial service given by the G. N. Railway over the line to the boundary via Cloverdale, has been the subject of a strongly worded resolution passed at a recent meeting at Hall Prairie P. O., and the Surrey board of trade will lay the matter before the railway commission when they reach the coast next month.

J. A. Alcock was chairman of the meeting, and H. T. Thrift represented the Surrey board of trade, addressing the meeting on the expediency of the residents joining issue with the board of trade in its efforts to improve the district particularly in the matter of transportation.

The Resolution.

The resolution adopted was as follows:

"Whereas about the year 1885-86 a charter was granted to a number of the progressive business men of the district, by the provincial legislature for the purpose of constructing a line of railway that would assist in opening up and developing the district lying south of the Fraser river, and incidentally afford the city of New Westminster and the lower mainland railway connection with the railway systems south of the boundary line. After most strenuous efforts on the part of the New Westminster board of trade and the settlers of that day to circumvent the pernicious monopoly clause of the C. P. R. charter, success finally crowned their united efforts. The road was opened for traffic on February 14, 1891, and the operation thereof did for a number of years very materially assist in the development of the municipality of Surrey and part of the municipality of Langley.

"And whereas unfortunately the G. N. R. have acquired both the charter and the railway.

"And whereas, the said G. N. R. have seen fit to discontinue the operation of a train service that is of any value to the people, or to this part of the municipalities affected, the consequence is that land values have very greatly depreciated, development is suspended, and the residents have been greatly inconvenienced and put to unnecessary loss and expense.

Appeal to Commissioners.

F. H. Green moved and H. G. Lawrence seconded, "That the Surrey board of trade be urged to lay the matter before the honorable the board of railway commissioners for Canada with a view to compel the G. N. R. Co. to operate a reasonable train service over the whole road adequate for the requirements of the country contiguous to the road, and that the active and sympathetic co-operation of other organizations be secured to assist," carried.

E. C. Johnston moved and S. Walker seconded, "That in the opinion of this meeting the provincial government should be urged to take action in the matter of the operation of a train service over the New Westminster Southern Railway, that all the facts in connection with the matter be forwarded to the Hon. R. McBride with the request that the government exercise its perogative, and compel the company to either operate the road in a way that will meet the reasonable requirements of the communities interested or otherwise, that the charter be cancelled." Carried.

NEGRO MUST FACE DISTURBANCE CHARGE

Oscar Mortimore, Formerly of This City, Was Too Obstreperous in Support of Vancouver.

Another negro figured on Saturday as the central feature in the last lacrosse match of the season between Westminster and Vancouver, and as in the notorious case last year a police court case will arise from it.

A distorted account of the incident appears in the Vancouver News-Advertiser which makes it appear that the policeman led the defendant to use abusive language through a remark he made. The officer states the term "Nigger" was not used till the man, Oscar Mortimore, threatened him, and as the result of Mortimore's provocative actions he ran him in on a charge of disorderly conduct.

At the police station the defendant took quite a humble attitude and was let out on $10 bail, on the surety of M. J. Barr, of the Vancouver Lacrosse club. The case will be called in the police court this morning.

FUNDS SOUGHT FOR HOMESPUN PURCHASE

Rev. Dr. White Makes Appeal For Financial Assistance—Excellent Enterprise

Rev. Dr. White, at the evening service at Queen's Avenue church yesterday took occasion to make an appeal on behalf of the men in the lumber and railway construction camps, in the mines, and engaged in the fisheries who are beyond the reach of the usual avenues of Christian teaching, and for whom the Methodist church in this province maintains an excellent waterways mission.

In the course of his duties as Superintendent of Missions for British Columbia Dr. White ha secome thoroughly acquainted with the good work which the mission boats have been able to accomplish, and his plea was specially directed toward raising funds to meet the promissory notes upon which the Homespun was recently purchased from Frank De Grey, of this city.

This expense became necessary recently owing to the foundering of the Udal, which was Captain Oliver's gift to the church, and upon which he had devoted endless care. The new mission boat had hardly begun its usefulness and the various Epworth Leagues and to her organizations made arrangements for paying the cost when the news came of its loss in the north, Captain Oliver and Rev. C. W. Webber having narrow escapes with their lives. Mr. De Grey offered a reduced figure of $3000 as the boat was to be used for mission purposes, and the boat was secured. It is to meet that sum that the appeal was made, Dr. White giving some information from his personal knowledge of its usefulness to reach the outposts of civilization.

THE HASTINGS EXTENSION.

Burnaby Council Will Confer as to Route with Manager Sperling.

A meeting between the Burnaby council and Manager Sperling of the B. C. E. R. Co., had been arranged for Saturday evening of the past week, but owing to the unavoidable absence of both Manager Sperling and Reeve Byrne it was postponed, and will probably be held either this evening or tomorrow.

The meeting was called for the purpose of conferring as to the route to be taken by the proposed extension of the Hastings car line through Burnaby municipality. It is not yet certain whether the line will run along the north or south shore of Burnaby lake, and some definite assurance on the matter is being eagerly awaited by the residents of the municipality.

TRUCULENT PASTOR CALLS DOWN FLOCK

St. Catherines, Ont., Sept. 17.—At the St. Paul Street Methodist church last Sunday, Rev. W. J. Crothers, the pastor, had a word to say about the lack of cordiality among the people of his flock.

"There are some people," he said, "who think that the pastor of this church should go down to the door after the service and shake hands with the people as they go out. I refuse to do such a thing. I refuse to make a pump-handle of my arm for anybody. I am not here for that purpose. It is up to the members of the congregation themselves. If they don't see fit to shake hands with each other that is their affair, not mine. I am here to preach the gospel."

Dr. Crothers also intimated that there were other churches in the city for those who were not satisfied with St. Paul's.

TRAGEDY SHOCKS NORTHERN ALBERTA

Insane Russian Farmer Attacks Wife With Axe and Then Tries to Kill Himself.

Edmonton, Sept. 19.—What may develop into a case of murder and attempted suicide took place at section 22, township 55, range 6, ten miles north of Mundare on Saturday morning. The parties are S. Zbihly, a Russian farmer and his wife, each about 35 years of age, who now lie at the point of death in the Vegreville hospital. Some time ago the man quarrelled with his wife with whom he has not since lived. On Monday morning the wife, accompanied by another woman went to the shack, and, according to the story told the man, is alleged to have attacked her with a short axe cutting her head in a terrible way before the horrified gaze of her companion. He then multilated himself in a frightful manner with a jackknife. Zbihly was corralled in the house by his neighbors and the police summoned. The woman is still unconscious, and with her husband was taken to Vegreville. She cannot recover, but it is thought he may survive.

CATCHES BIG STURGEON.

Denizen of Fraser Was Eleven Feet and a Half in Length.

One of the biggest sturgeons ever taken in the Fraser was caught on Friday and brought into the city on Saturday morning. It was purchased by P. Venables.

The monster weighed six hundred and ninety-five pounds, and measured eleven feet six inches from its snout to the tip of its tail. It was taken in the Fraser, near the mouth of the Pitt, having been caught in a net. The fishermen who dragged it from the river state that it fought so fiercely after having become enmeshed that they were forced to tow the net fish and all ino the bank, before they could land it.

This sturgeon is the largest that has been caught in the river for some years. In the past it was no uncommon thing for fish measuring eight and ten feet to be taken, but of late most of the sturgeon taken have gone little over four.

YOUTHFUL GROOM HID AGE OF BRIDE

Hated to Confess That She Was Seventy Years Old and Is Now in Jail.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 18.—Charles R. Goddard, aged 21 years the Yale student under arrest on a charge of perjury in obtaining a license for his recent marriage was released today under a bond of $1000. The case wil be heard next Saturday.

The warrant was sworn out by a clerk in the marriage license bureau and is based upon the allegation that Goddard, in taking out the permit, gave the age of the bride as 36, while her actual age is claimed to be 70.

Goddard spent last night in a cell, the surety offered by his wife being refused.

Relatives of the aged bride are adding their share of discord to the honeymoon by declaring that the young groom unduly influenced the old lady, taking advantage of her years and impressionableness to obtain her consent to a sudden marriage. They attribute his choice of a wife to a desire to share her wealth rather than a genuine love inspired by feminine charms.

Woman Shoots Herself.

London, Sept. 18.—Mrs. Jane Perin, a young American, committed suicide this morning at Harrow-on-the-Hill. Mrs. Perin who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ackroyd, the former music master of the Harrow-on-the-Hill school, was found dead in the conservatory with her own revolver by her side.

HOG CHOLERA COSTS FORTY MILLION YEARLY

Farmers of United States Big Losers by Disease—Will Take $200,000,000 to Stamp It Out.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Hog cholera costs farmers of the United States $40,000,000 annually, according to estimates compiled by the Interstate Association of State Boards of Live Stock Commissioners. It was urged that larger appropriations be asked of the legislatures of the various states where hog cholera is most prevalent to help in the work of exterminating the disease. It would require $200,000,000, Dr. A. T. Reynolds said to stamp out the disease.

EXAMINE TRADE RELATIONS WITH WEST INDIES

New York, Sept. 19.—Lord Balfour of Burleigh, who is a member of the Commission appointed by the King to protect Colonial trade, arrived yesterday on the steamer Campania from Liverpool. He is on his way to Canada to adjust the differences in the commerce between that country and the West Indies. Lady Balfour, Sir Daniel Morris and his secretary, the Hon. G. A. M. Hamilton-Gordon, the son of Lord Stanmore, accompanied Lord Balfour to this country. This is the latter's first trip to Canada. Lord Balfour gave it as his opinion that there is very little probability of a war between Great Britain and Germany and said that neither country desires war with the other. The greatest danger in the whole matter, he said, is the agitation which has been aroused and which might probably lead to international complications.

Pirates in French China.

Saigon, French Cochin China, Sept. 18.—A band of pirates under the command of Carinth, son of Dethan, recently attacked the French post at Bayon. Three members of the French force were killed, and seven, including Capt. Fontaine, were wounded. The pirates were repulsed with a loss of ten men killed.

A court of revision on the assessment for the First street sewer will be held on Wednesday morning. Several appeals have been lodged, which will come up for hearing.

GREAT TRANSFER OF RIVER FRONTAGE

Alderman Fader Buys For Railway — Splendid Site For Freight Terminals.

Alderman E. J. Fader has purchased the greater part of Annacis Island, about 823 acres in all, the consideration being in round figures a quarter of a million dollars.

He admits it is not for himself, but for other parties, though not for the Canadian Northern, as stated by the News-Advertiser yesterday. It is well known that a railway survey has been made terminating near the Island, and it is generally believed that in making the purchase Ald. Fader is acting for parties interested in the shipment of Alberta grain from the Pacific coast.

The land was purchased from small owners to the number of about twenty, largely through the agency of W. J. Kerr and Malins & Coulthard, the former owners of the entire island. The balance of the island 261 acres, situated at the lower end of the island is owned by Thomas Parmiter, who refused to sell at the present time.

Two Miles of Frontage.

The land has a frontage on the company has a waterfrontage on the main channel of two miles, is level as could be desired, and almost all prairie, affording every advantage for terminal yards. The inside channel is narrow, and of a depth varying from ten to fifteen feet, navigable for tugs and with a little dredging for small coasting craft. It could be easily conected with Lulu Island with a single span bridge, the shores being suitable for piling for the approaches.

The island is situated 1 1-2 miles below the business portion of New Westminster, immediately below the upper point of Lulu Island, which stretches to the outh of the river, some twelve miles distant. The shore is perfectly suited to the construction of wharves and forty feet of water is obtainable at any portion of the frontage at any stage of the tide. The channel is wide at this point providing ample room for the turning of the largest ships. A wagon road extends around the dyke, but at present there is no connection with Lulu Island or the mainland except by water.

Seizing a Chance.

The time is not far distant when New Westminster will be able to step into the forefront of Canadian cities, and claim her right to recognition as a manufacturing and maritime port. Adequate shipping facilities have long lain dormant here, unrecognized by the capitalist, whose eyes have been blinded by the attractions of the Burrard Inlet. The river always safe for vessels drawing twenty feet of water, needed only a little conservation, a little dredging to make it one of the greatest natural harbors in the world. The city needed, and needs, only direct railway facilities.

Today the world is waking up to the fact that they have been passing over one of the finest opportunities that Canada has to offer. The Fraser River Lumber Company have recognized the value of this port and have proved its value. With this proof before them the Dominion government has undertaken the necessary work required on the river and goernment has undertaken the necessary work required on the river and today almost any vessel of ordinary draft can reach the port, and in a year's time the channel will undoubtedly be open to the largest ships afloat.

D. D. Man's View.

It is said that Vice-President David D. Mann, on his comparatively recent visit to the city made a number of significant remarks, which led his hearers to believe that the Pacific terminals of the Canadian Northern would be located in or near New Westminster and that in any case the line would come here. Mr. Mann had some remarks to make at that time with respect to waterfrontage in Vancouver, remarks that could not be construed otherwise than that the great railway builder was convinced that the Burrard Inlet city had had its day, had reached the end of its tether as a shipping port, and that the new industries coming to the coast must look elsewhere for land and wharfage sites.

Mr. Mann himself discovered that land and waterfrontage of the very best could be obtained on the Fraser at a figure ridiculously reasonable when compared to its advantages.

When another railway uses the Westminster bridge into the city, business will commence to pour in, industries will grow such as few have dreamed of, and the Royal City will become royal in fact as in name. It will mean the bringing of the western grain to this port for shipment, the further development of the lumber industry on the Fraser river already rapidly opening up, and all the great advantages that accrue to the port that has a railway ocean terminal. And more so than to many, for here there can be no congestion of waterfrontage; there is room for all for half a century or more to come.

BOILER EXPLODES ON BRITISH BATTLESHIP

London, Sept. 19.—A boiler of the battleship Warrior exploded this afternoon while the ship was off Cromarty, doing heavy damage to the vessel. Three sailors are known to have been killed and four seriously injured.

The admiralty has started a rigid investigation of the accident. Dynamite is alleged to have recently been found in the coal bunkers of a number of ships in the navy and today's accident, it is thought in some quarters, may have resulted from the presence of explosives in the fuel.

SLEEP AND NERVE REST.

A Necessity That Is Overlooked In the Modern Strenuous Life.

In the days when eight hours for sleep were nominally regarded as an hour too long for any self respecting individual the exhausting character of modern life was unknown. There was less wealth and more contentment; less competition and more security; fewer distractions. but more simplicity. Work was easier, slower, and care anxiety, apprehension—in a word, worry—did not feed, like the worm i' th' bud, upon the hours exempt from toil. We are remorseless in overtaxing the delicate mechanism of our minds and nerves. The best walker, for instance does not propose to himself to go regularly sixty miles a day or to subject the same set of muscles in any other form of physical exercise to intense and unremitting labor. But that is what we do with the immediate agent of our minds—the brain machine. We cannot watch its operations. We often assume that its movements are as light and endless as the ripples of the universal air. We know and nevertheless we forget that the brain is a substantial apparatus as liable to depreciation as the fixed plant in a workshop. Now nothing is more certain than this—that the potential capacity of the human brain has not increased, if at all, to anything like the proportion of the immensely aggravated demand upon it.

The modern man is subject to as much mental and moral wear and tear in a day as his ancestors in no very remote generation experienced in a week. Yet in respect of sleep we have hardly changed traditional habit. We keep later and still later hours. We catch our trains in the morning as usual. There is no doubt whatever that we burn the candle at both ends with unprecedented disregard of the laws of psychological economy, and that the amount of rest we allow for nerve and brain is no longer adequate.—London Telegraph.

A Fast Train.

On the Riviera line near Ventimiglia, Italy, the train, after ambling gently along, stopped suddenly. An impatient passenger put his head out and asked crustily, "Is this Bordighera?" No answer. "Guard, is this Bordighera?" he shouted again. A voice came from the fore part of the train, "No, monsieur. It is not Bordighera—it is a cow." When the cow had been removed from the line the train ambled on again. Two minutes later it once more came to a dead stop. "Another cow, I suppose?" shouted the testy passenger witheringly. "No, monsieur, it is not," said the guard placidly. "It is the same cow."

A Costly Desk.

There is a famous old desk in the British war office in London. It is a desk to which old hands point with emotion. That desk cost the nation $25,000,000. In it is a pigeonhole with a story. It was into that pigeonhole that the dispatch of King Theodore of Abyssinia was thrust—and forgotten. After we had been to war the document was found in the desk, and we all learned that there ought to have been no war.—London Sketch.

The Sting.

"I hear your firm discharged you."

"Yes, but I wouldn't mind that so much if they hadn't added insult to injury."

"How?"

"They advertised for a boy to fill my place."

Sheridan fell in love with Miss Linley and told the story of "The Rivals," which is a true account of his courtship.

The Difference.

Small Boy—Pa, what is the difference between a pessimist and an optimist? Pa—Well, let me see if I can illustrate. You know I am often discouraged, and things don't look to me as if they'd ever go right. Well, at such times I can be said to be a pessimist. But years ago, when I was a young man, everything looked bright and rosy, and I was always hopeful. Then I was an optimist. Now, my son, can you understand the difference between a pessimist and an optimist? Small Boy—Oh, yes; one is married and the other isn't.—Harper's Weekly.

Cause of His Joy.

"What are you looking so happy over, old man?"

"I am rejoicing over the birth of twins."

"Great Scott! I congratulate you!"

"Don't congratulate me. Go and congratulate Evans. He's the lucky man. I never did like him."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

August.

"August," the name of the month, is accented on the first syllable. "August," the adjective, is accented on the second syllable. This is due, no doubt to the fact that, though both started from the Latin "augustus," they have arrived by different routes. The adjective is the French "auguste," while "August," commemorating the Roman emperor's title, is the French "aout" and the middle English "augst" or "aust." "July" used to rhyme with "duly," even in Johnson's time, as it had done centuries earlier and as it does in southern Scotland to this day.

In the Air.

Farmer Greene (who has been knocked down by a balloon anchor)—Gol dern 'em! I'll hev th' law on 'em! Whar's th' sheriff? Farmer Brown—No use kicking, Josh! Them critters is above the law, I reckon!—Houston Post.

It is not enough to run; one must start in time.—French Proverb.

THE FORESTRY COMMISSION.

The British Columbia Forestry Commission, appointed by the Provincial government, will be sitting at New Westminster a few days hence, and foresters and lumbermen are looking forward to the occasion with a good deal of interest. The Commission has just concluded its sitting at Nelson, where some of the most practical and businesslike evidence that has so far been submitted was given by Mr. A. G. Lang, of Waneta. The fact that this witness is a trained forester, having gained his experience and knowledge in the great forests and forestry colleges of Germany, and in Scotland, whilst he has been engaged in forestry work in this province for twelve years, gives weight to his evidence and entitles it to the best consideration.

We are glad to see that Mr. Lang, in connection with the important question of fire protection, spoke plainly and forcibly in respect to the fallacy of regarding only mature timber as valuable and treating the young growth as of no account. We never could understand the position taken up by many lumbermen and others connected with the forestry industry in regard to this matter. It must surely be apparent to any intelligent person that the young trees have at least some future value, and the man who treats such as valueless is as lacking in common sense as a farmer would be who turned his hogs into the wheat field in May.

In dealing with this question of fire protection Mr. Lang declared plainly and unmistakably that the present system falls far short of the needs of the province. He was right when he said, "it should be a matter of business with the government to more fully insure its property by increasing the number of rangers and improving present methods." His suggestion that if this increase were made timber holders should be asked to bear a proportion of the salaries of deputy rangers, in view of the greater safety of the timber that would be insured is a good one. We believe the majority of lumbermen would be quite ready to do this. Then, too his plea for the permanent engagement of chief rangers, in order that they may gain a thorough knowledge of their districts, and be in constant touch with the conditions thereof, deserves the most favorable consideration. There is something haphazard about the present method of appointing rangers for temporary service, which we should like to see removed. Some of the appointees lack that knowledge of their work which is requisite for the proper discharge of their duties. Again, we believe it is not required of a ranger that he give his whole time to the work, and a consequent result of this is that he is not always at hand when his services are most urgently needed. The chief rangers certainly ought to be appointed permanently, as Mr. Lang urges, whilst the districts should be reduced in area and additional men appointed. Inasmuch as such a policy would mean a far stronger insurance against the terrible risk of a calamitous fire there can be no objection to the extra expense involved. But this increased cost would be materially lessened, if a further suggestion of Mr. Lang's were adopted, namely, that the office of fire warden and game warden be combined.

The importance of a more systematic patrolling of the railroad tracks is another useful point in the evidence of this witness. Here there is not only the danger from locomotive sparks, but the passing to and fro of tramps on foot, and the fire started by the careless settler in his slashing without thought for the surrounding bush. The provision of a safety strip thirty feet or so wide on each side of the track, with half a dozen furrows ploughed on the outer margin would, as Mr. Lang observed, be a most useful safeguard.

Some valuable hints were given by this witness apropos of re-afforestation and planting, which will, we hope, receive the attention they merit at the hands of the Provincial Government. In this connection it was pointed out that by the time the first returns are due the prices and demand for what we now, in the time of plenty, regard as waste, will be far more favorable than today. The day of perfection in respect to the timber administration of this province was sketched by Mr. Lang in the following admirable epitome:

"When a great part of the timber areas only suited to forest growth shall be set aside as permanent forest reserves which shall have been surveyed, cruised and mapped as to stand of timber and topography. The amount of timber which is being added by annual growth will in time be ascertained and the cut regulated accordingly. The trees to be felled wil have been chosen and marked by the Government foresters, bids will be asked for by the 1000 feet, upset price having been fixed from cruisers' statement; and to preserve the young growth, cutting and removal of logs will be watched by competent officers who will also have perfected the system of fire protection."

A DENIAL.

Mr. W. J. Kerr, New Westminster, B C.:

Dear Sir,—Having been informed by a real estate agent traveling on the train at Mission September 8 that the property at Peachvale and Port Kells, which you are selling for fruit lands, was all big rocks and gulleys, I visited same and found his statement to be incorrect as it is the finest soil I have seen in this country for fruit raising and vegetables. The trees are loaded with plums, pears and apples, and have to be supported with posts to keep the boughs from breaking. Being on the Fraser river it is beautifully situated; the boat and train service runs daily. I saw Mr. Kellen late of Calgary, living on the property, and doing well. Hoping this will meet the eye of the agent, I remain, yours truly,

JOE LEAKE,
Calgary.

PURE MILK SUPPLY

A National Necessity.

There is no more far-reaching problem before the people of the day than that of a pure milk supply. Doctors and scientists are at one in their assertions that the health of the child is more seriously menaced through impure milk than through any other channel. In Chicago ther are municipal laws forbidding the delivery of milk in any but sealed containers. In New York milk must be pasteurized before it receives the seal of official approval. But the proverbial coach-and-horses can be and is driven through and through these ordinances by unscrupulous milk dealers and the peril is as great as ever. For instance, the so-called "Commercial Pasteurization" consists in superheating the milk for but a few minutes which may or may not kill the disease germs and is liable to destroy the necessary and healthful ferment elements in th milk.

There is one, only really safe and reliable source of milk supply and that is to have the milk evaporated and packed in sealed tins under conditions of ideal cleanliness in such a factory as the St. Charles Condensing company at Ingersoll, Ont. Here a mammoth modern plant, governed by the highest ideals of cleanliness, and operated by over 100 employees, draws upon the rich Oxford County milk supply through over 90 special dairy stations scattered throughout the county. The milk is handled with scrupulous care, is evaporated and packed without admixture of any description and is shipped in sealed containers under the names St. Charles Evaporated Unsweetened Cream, and in Silver Cow (Sweetened) brand, guaranteed to keep pure and safe indefinitely in any climate.

The St. Charles goods can be diluted and instantly produce the same rich pure, fresh creamy fluid that left the Dairyman's pails.

There is not a household in the land that can afford to overlook this healthful, safe, always pure milk and cream supply. Sold by all grocers and dealers.

BOWLING

Work has been started on the local alleys, putting them in first class shape for the coming season New balls will be found in the racks for the public and also new pins. An individual tournament has been arranged as an opening event, players will be graded, and winners of each class will roll off for the gold medals. Entries are coming in fast, and this season will find many new players in line for premier honors. Dave Gilchrist will take his team over to Vancouver on Wednesday resuming the weekly games between the two cities. The indivdual tourney consists of five games.

SATURDAY'S FRACAS.

Time That Such Exhibitions on Lacrosse Field Came to an End.

Yet another sample of unsportsmanlike conduct on the lacrosse field has been furnished by a member of the Vancouver team, a team which has furnished so many examples of the kind during this and preceding seasons.

No follower of the game in this city would think of denying Lalonde his mead of praise as one of the best players on the Vancouver team, but lacrosse enthusiasts here and Vancouver alike must regret the tactics in which he all too frequently indulges when on the field. Their opinion of the Vancouver player will not be improved by the exhibition of "la savate" given by him on Saturday, when he fought with feet and teeth, taking Rennies face in his mouth on one occasion and biting Galbraith on another.

Neither will the public be impressed favorably by the biased and exaggerated report of the incident given by the Vancouver press, which has sought to make it appear that Lalonde was ill dealt with both by the players and the public, and that there was a riot on the field, well knowing that the officials did their best to restore order and that the public took no part in the fracas.

Itm ust have been a plesaing spectacle to the fair-minded visitors from Vancouver to see congratulations showered on the author of the trouble on his retirement from the field. It was an elevating sight to witness a member of the medical profession, a maker of laws for the preservation of peace and order—Dr. McGuire, M. P. P.—hastening on to the field to shake hands wint the man who had been guilty of such an ungentlemanly style of play. But then, it must be remembered that the same gentleman thought it no shame to poke a spectator with an umbrella at a match in Vancouver.

Is it not time that the Terminal City Lacrosse Club recognized that the public generally are true sportsmen and pay their money to support athletics, nor rowdyism?

Fix up Race Horse Tariff.

Tacoma, Sept. 19.—A new decision in the matter of tariff on horses taken out of the United States for exhibition purposes was received by the customs officials yesterday which will permit Tacomans entering their horses in the Vancouver, B.C., show. The first decision declared horses might be shippedi n and out of the country for racing purposes free of all duty. The new decision makes the same provision for horses to be exhibited at shows or expositions, fairs or other similar events.

Big Race at Seattle.

Seattle, Sept. 19.—Arrangements have been completed for a big international distance race which will be pulled off here in connection with the exposition. Among those who have promised to enter are John D. Marsh of Winnipeg and Alfred Shrubb, the great English distance runner.

FILLED THE OPERA HOUSE.

The Time, the Place and the Girl Pleases Large Audience.

The Time, the Place and the Girl presented at the Opera House on Saturday night attracted a capacity house.

The play, a musical comedy, was well recived and the numbers were accorded generous applause, some of the best being encored four and five times. The play was attractive, the time and place certainly being the real thing for matchmaking, the scene being laid at a sanitarium quarantined for two weeks, the guests being thrown upon their own resources by the disappearance of the servants.

The plot provided ample opportunities for many picturesque scenic effects, and for many pretty choruses. Robert Pitkin as Johnny Hicks, the gambler, showed himself a talented comedian and kept the audience amused by his witticisms. Jessie Huston as Margaret Simpson, "The Girl," presented her part well, and all the leading roles were portrayed with that vim which makes a play take with the public.

The costumes were pretty, the light effects well managed, and the drill effects and dances were exceedingly good, the chorus showing thorough training in their work.

marked by a brilliant rush, concluding with a tricky shot from Doughey which puzzled Gibbons and rested in the net in 24 seconds from the face-off. The quarter was fast and clean, the local players showing a burst of speed at the finish that came as a surprise to the green-shirted ones, who from that moment never had a look-in for the honors. Hennessey managed to slip in one in eight minutes by good luck, and made the score four all. From that time on there was nothing but Westminster. Latham sent in a nice one and tallied, and made a record by repeating the act in exactly nine second. Cliff Spring finished the scoring one minute and four seconds later. During the last few minutes or two occasions only the Vancouver men got away; it seemed as though the red and blue could not lose the ball and Gibbons alone saved the visitors from greater defeat.

AN UNKINGLY KING.

The Lion Is a Low, Crafty Brute and a Good Deal of a Coward.

The "king of beasts," declares a writer upon the lions of Africa in the Metropolitan Magazine, is an unmitigated nuisance. The stock owner loathes him for the havoc he causes among the herds. There is no security against him. He is always traveling. A pair of lions may find a spot where game is easily obtainable and make a considerable stay there, but their real home is the whole veld.

If the lion slew only as much as he could eat he would be less hateful, but he will often kill four or five oxen and content himself with devouring only the entrails of one.

He is a low, crafty brute, one that takes no risks, for, unlike the leopard he will never leap a wall unless he can see what is on the other side. A paper fence would keep him away from a herd of cattle, provided they did not break out through terror of his growling and his smell.

The lion's roar is the subject of another fiction. Not that he is incapable of making the most terrible, awe inspiring sound emitted by any living thing, but because when he is roaring he is harmless. It is the lion which keeps quiet that is to be feared, for as a rule the male and female work in couples, and the one that makes the noise is merely driving the game down the wind to the silent partner.

In a single respect only—on the score of strength—does the lion deserve his name of "king of beasts." He can drag a large bullock over rough ground with the greatest ease; he can carry a mule on his back, after hoisting it there by some strange sideways jerk of his head; he can leap a five foot fence with a full sized donkey gripped in his mouth. Otherwise, speaking from a seven years' experience in the lion country, I have no hesitation in describing the king of beasts as a fraud, at least so far as his alleged nobility is concerned.

His regal attributes lose some of their glamour when one learns that the so called monarch frequently lives for days at a time on such plebeian food as field rats, and the vision of the kingly creature sitting patiently on a flat rock waiting for the rats to come out from underneath is a rather unheroic one.

LUNCHEON WAS EXPENSIVE.

Instead of 15 Francs It Really Cost 40,000 Francs.

One day three friends in Paris were taking a walk together.

"I should like to have an exquisite lunch," said one of the three.

"I should be satisfied with a lunch," said the second, "which is a little short of being exquisite."

"And I," remarked the third one, "should be content with any kind of lunch."

Unfortunately none of them was possessed of the necessary money. Presently one of the trio was struck by an idea. He led his friends to a music publisher and made him an offer:

"Buy from us a song. This gentleman wrote the text; that one set it to music, and I shall sing it, as I am the only one of us with a good voice."

"Well, sing it for a trial," replied the publisher.

The young man complied, and the publisher seemed to be satisfied. He paid 15 francs for the song, and the friends hastened joyfully to a restaurant.

The author of the text was Alfred de Musset, the musician was Monpur and the singer Dupre. The song, which was bought and paid for with 15 francs, "The Andalusian Girl," yielded the publisher 40,000 francs.—Harper's Weekly.

Strength of a Bear.

Few people know that a grizzly bear can give points to any other carnivorous animal in point of strength. A grizzly bear weighing just four hundredweight has been watched carrying a heifer of more than two-thirds its own weight for two miles up the most steep and rugged mountain side, and this without pausing one instant for rest. The grizzly bear is the largest and most powerful of all the bear tribe, but his cousin, the cinnamon bear, runs him very close, and the big white polar bear, though not really so dangerous a customer, is capable of performing the most extraordinary feats of strength.

Giving Impressively.

There are diversities of giving as well as of gifts. To give a little with a grand air sometimes seems to make more of an impression than to give much modestly. The world has not changed in this respect. Samuel Pepys wrote in his "Diary" in 1660: "There was a great number of merchants and others of good quality (at a dinner) on purpose to make an offering (to two newly married servants), which, when dinner was done, we did, and I did give 10 shillings and no more, though I believe most of the rest did give more, and did believe that I did so too."

Convicted by Sleep.

A Paris woman who was arrested for picking pockets and who pretended to speak an unknown language betrayed herself in her sleep. When brought before the magistrate she was interrogated by Turkish, Russian, Polish and Hungarian interpreters, but none could understand her, although one believed she spoke a little known dialect of Persia. The magistrate was not convinced and ordered her to be kept in the prison infirmary under strict surveillance. In her sleep the woman talked fluent French, with the true Parisian accent.
