EBATE OF TAXES IS NOT PROTESTED

irms Entitled to Exemption Given Same, No Questions Concerning Asiatics Asked

The slate that faced the city thers at the session last night was fairly clear one and took but a ort time to clean off.

The exemption from taxation for the ar 1907 to manufacturers employing er twenty-five men amounts to 31.15, according to a report present- to the city council last evening. e item was passed without discus- n, not a single word of protest and s despite the agitation against the ese peril," and the fact that ny of the firms are known to em- y yellow labor.

Under the heading of communica- ns, the Sisters of the Providence hanage wrote thanking the mayor d council for their generous Christ- s donation.

P. Peebles wrote enclosing a plan the subdivision of lots 16, 17 and lot 18, for the signature of the yor. This was authorized.

The corporation of Burnaby for- rded a cheque to the amount of 3.66 in payment of their share of cost of grading Tenth avenue east Twelfth street.

The board of pilot commissioners ote expressing hearty thanks to the yor and council for their assistance defraying the expenses of the pilot the port. They believed that this istance had been of benefit to the y as a city, and as a deep sea port. ey hoped that the new council uld extend the same assistance uld it be required. The communi- on was received and filed.

Ching Wing Sing, a Chinaman, te asking permission to lay build- material on Columbia street in perton for building purposes. Per- sion was granted subject to the al conditions.

The Ministerial association of the wrote expressing their satisfac- n at the action of the council in sing the houses of vice on McNee- and Ramage streets. The com- nication was referred to the police mmissioners.

The parks committee recommended t the following accounts be paid: omas Wilson, $45; Lamont Bros., 50. The accounts were laid over ll January 6.

Ald. Smith enquired when the side- lk was going to be laid on the th side of Agnes street between Innes and Eighth streets. Ald. nley, chairman of the board of rks, replied that the work would done as soon as work was com- nced in that district. There was rk still on hand authorized before and many delays had been en- ntered.

An agitation is afoot for the im- vement of the Port Moody road the taking over of the road by provincial government. A petition dressed to the commissioner of ds and works has been extensively ned by the residents along the d and a copy was presented to the council at the session last night h a request that the council en- se it. The petition urged the essity of making an appropriation the forthcoming estimates for the pose of reconstructing and making road good and of making it a nk road. The petitioners point out t the improvement would be a boon the ever increasing number of lers along the road, giving easy ess to the New Westminster mar- and giving easy ingress and egress the townspeople of Port Moody. It uld also contribute to the develop- nt of trade between Port Moody this city.

Some little discussion took place as whether it was advisable for the ncil to endorse the petition in- idually or as a body. On motion Aldermen Smith and Johnston, the ter course was taken.

The waterworks committee of the y council last night brought down a ort from the superintendent of terworks, William Stott, regard- the location of the reservoir. The ncil, on motion of Aldermen Smith d Garrett, decided to receive the re- rt and comply with the request of superintendent to visit the site; instructing the water committee bring in a report at a subsequent eeting. The council will visit the e this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Fol- lowing is the superintendent's letter to the mayor and aldermen:

I beg leave to report that on having the levels taken on the reservoir site chosen on the government reserve near Queen's avenue and Third street, it was found that the lower corner of the site was too low for the elevation required, and was, therefore, unsuitable. Levels are now being taken on the park reserve just above the brickyard and a suitable site locate d there. I would be pleased, therefore, if the council could visit this place at an early date and decide as to the location. As it is absolutely necessary to push this work with all possible speed I would be glad to have the aid of the council tomorrow if convenient.

Yours respectfully,
WILLIAM STOTT,
Superintendent of Waterworks.

MORE STOCK ISSUED BY C. P. R. DIRECTORS

Capital of Company Brought Up to Respectable Total of $150,000,000.

Montreal, Dec. 30.—At a special meeting of the Canadian Pacific railway this afternoon the directors authorized the issue of new stock to the amount of $28,320,000, so as to bring up the authorized capital of the company to $150,000,000. The new stock will be issued from time to time as needed.

At a subsequent meeting the directors decided to issue $24,346,000 of the new stock, which will be issued to shareholders on a basis of 20 per cent. of their holdings. Sir Thomas Shaugnessy said the money was to be used for improvements and additions to the company's lines. He also denied the rumors that the C. P. R. was after the Boston & Maine and the Chicago Great Western railways.

SHEEP ARE VICTIMS IN SEARCH FOR CANCER CURE

Berlin, Dec. 30.—Prof. Ernest Von Leyden, who recently has devoted himself entirely to the study of cancer, from which it is said three thousand persons die yearly in Germany, has made a pressing appeal to the government, and to private sources, for the foundation of an institute of research.

Prof. Von Leyden recommends the formation of an international association in order that an exchange of results of investigation in the various countries might be had. He gives some hopes of eventually finding a remedy for cancer by means of liver fermentations developed into a suitable injection through the inoculation of sheep. He reports good results in several mild cases of cancer by means of this treatment.

RALLY OF ENDEAVORERS WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

A rally of the various branches of the Christian Endeavor in the city was held in the Queen's avenue Methodist church yesterday. The rally was most successful, the attendance was large and the enthusiasm great. All the societies were will represented, many of them especially so. The chair was occupied by Rev. A. E. Hetherington, B. A., vice-president of the Columbian college, and president of the local union. After devotional exercises an anthem was rendered by the Queen's avenue choir. Rev. J. S. Henderson, of St. Andrew's church, followed with a splendid address on "Power for Service.

After the roll call of societies the business of the union was proceeded with. A resolution was adopted to form an executive for the local union to consist of the president and a member from each of the societies. George McKee, of Sapperton, was appointed treasurer in the place of Miss Scott, who has left the city.

Rev. W. H. Barraclough addressed the meeting on the work of the provincial union and made a suggestion involving the carrying out of the local option plan. Another meeting will be held tonight to fully formulate the plans.

Considerable disappointment was felt at the absence of Rev. Mr. Milliken, of Vancouver, whose address had been much looked forward to.

COFFIN CONTAINED BEARDED MAN'S BODY

Roll of Lead Theory Finally Exploded in Druce-Duke of Portland Case.

London, Dec. 30.—The body of Thos. Charles Druce, in Highgate cemetery, was exhumed this morning, just 43 years to a day after its burial. The coffin was found to contain the remains of a human body, thus exploding the romantc tales told by Robert C. Caldwell and others who swore during the recent hearing of the Druce perjury case, that it contained a roll of lead.

The official statement given out by the representatives of the home office and others who were officially present at the exhumation, not only definitely disposes of the lead myth, but seems effectively to confirm that the body buried in 1864 was actually that of T. C. Druce.

The authorized statement follows:

"The coffin was opened and found to contain the body of an aged bearded man. The plate on the coffin bore the name Thomas Charles Druce."

The scene at Highgate cemetery this morning when the vault was opened was remarkable. Constables seemed to spring from everywhere; every bush and every tree apparently had an officer of the law. All the entrances to the cemetery were surrounded by cordons of police. Only those persons who had passes from the home office were admitted to the grounds.

George Hollamby Druce, who claims he is the rightful heir to the Portland dukedom and to its vast estates, tried twice to get into the cemetery, but was met with a stern refusal. The operations began at daybreak with the removal of the topmost coffins in the vault, containing the bodies of the wife and a son of T. C. Druce. It was nearly half-past eleven before the coffin, the contents of which have aroused the curiosity of the whole world, was brought up ready for opening and inspection. The top was quickly unscrewed and the fastening of the lead cut, and there was no need for the dictum of the eminent surgeon, Augustus J. Pepper, who was appointed by the head office to carry out the exhumation, to assure all present that human remains lay in the coffin.

So far as the general public is concerned, the entire long-drawn-out Druce-Duke of Portland controversy is at an end, and in the case of the claimant, George Hollamby Druce, it has fallen to the ground.

BANK CLERKS SUGGEST FORMATION OF UNION

Toronto, Dec. 30.—There is talk of the formation of an organization of bank clerks at an early date, in fact it is said that men who take care of the money in Toronto met recently at one of the big hotels and decided to band themselves in an association for mutual protection. It has long been known that the bank clerks have nursed a number of grievances. The importation of young men from Scotland to take positions here has caused considerable feeling. Then there is the ever present dissatisfaction with the low rate of salaries, the minimum being $300 per annum, which goes only a short way toward meeting the expenses. Objection is also taken to the cast iron rule prohibiting marriage unless with the consent of the bank management. There are other sore spots which the clerks feel can be more easily healed by collective action than by individual effort and it is to this end that the proposed association is being mooted.

Chong Lee, the Chinaman who was charged with frequenting and with damaging windows, was yesterday fined $25 and costs on the first charge and $5 and costs on the latter, the whole amounting to $34. For being drunk on the streets and using grossly insulting language another visitor to the city police court was fined $20 by Magistrate Corbould.

Snake Kills Cow.

Ottawa, Dec. 30.—John E. Hughes, a Pontiac farmer, had a cow which died mysteriously. A post-mortem examination revealed a snake 20 inches long in the bowels. It is supposed the snake was swallowed while the cow was drinking water.

COAL STRIKERS ARE ACTIVE IN AUSTRALIA

Crisis is Grave, and Trouble May Spread Over Entire Continent.

According to the latest mail advices from Australia the coal industry over there was face to face with a grave crisis. The men of the Newcastle district were out, and both the northern and southern districts were likely to be implicated if a settlement was not reached.

According to the Sydney Telegraph of November 18 there were at least hopes of the differences between men and masters being amicably arranged.

Premier Ward had come out with proposals for a settlement. By these proposals work would be immediately resumed, and the whole case to be submitted to a tribunal composed of a judge appointed by the government and two mining experts, each side to select one. It was hoped that these proposals would be acceptable to both masters and men, and that the strike would be forthwith ended.

Mayor of Nelson.

Nelson, B. C., Dec. 30.— S. S. Taylor, K. C., will be Nelson's next mayor if a unanimous call to the office prevails. Mr. Taylor has pleaded press of professional business, but as the coming year is regarded as a critical one in the history of the city and as the demand for Mr. Taylor's services as chief magistrate is practically unanimous it is probable he will accept nomination.

OLD BATTLEFORD IS GUTTED BY FIRE

North Battleford, Sask., Dec. 30.—The old town of Battleford was visited by a serious fire Saturday night, when a number of business houses in the heart of the city were destroyed.

The fire is believed to be incendiary as there were two others on Friday, all pointing to the same cause. The total loss will be in the neighborhood of $50,000, while the insurance is only some $10,000.

Muckers Killed by Explosion.

Field, B. C., Dec. 30.—Three muckers named Maretti, Paulo and J. Duffy, were blown up and killed in an accidental explosion of dynamite in McDonnell & Gzowski's grading contract, near here. The explosion was due to stray pieces of gelignite that had got mixed with dirt on the grade. Several gangs who were working in the vicinity had narrow escapes from the flying pieces of rock which were hurled in all directions.

EAGER FARMERS FIGHT OVER EMPTY FREIGHT CARS

Saskatoon, Sask., Dec. 30.—There was great excitement in Asquith Saturday night over the grain congestion. The situation was somewhat relieved today by the receipt of about twenty empties. The news soon spread among the farmers and the elevators were quickly filled again. The C. P. R. rushed a large number of cars in last night for the Asquith elevators. Seventy farmers who had gathered in town rushed for the cars as soon as the train neared the town, each armed with a small sack of wheat and threw it into a car as a sign of possession. A general stampede followed the stopping of the train in which there were many disputes over the possession of the cars, and mounted police were called into control the angry settlers when the cars were handed over to the elevators.

Death of Mrs. John Campbell.

After suffering from general debility for some considerable time, Mrs. John Campbell, of Peardonville, expired at her home shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday evening. The deceased, who was 67 years of age, was a native of County Down, Ireland, and had been a resident of Peardonville since 1891, being one of the pioneers of that place. She is survived by a husband, four sons, William Henry, of this city; Samuel H. M., inspector of customs at Peardonville; John H., and Hugh, both of this city, and one daughter, Rachael, now Mrs. J. B. McLean, wife of the Steveston postmaster, and several grandchildren. The interment will take place on Thursday at the Aberdeen cemetery, Matsqui municipality, W. E. Fales having charge of the funeral arrangements.

DROPS DEAD AFTER FIGHTING A FIRE

George Howe of Chilliwack Succumbs After Excitement Attending Blaze.

Chilliwack, Dec. 30.—After working with the fire department in its efforts to extinguish the outbreak at the sash and door factory of Street Bros. this morning George Howe, dropped dead from heart failure on the return of the department to the fire hall. He was 45 years of age and leaves a wife and five children.

The fire broke out at 5 o'clock this morning over the boiler room and Mr. Howe was among those citizens who lent the firemen a hand in fighting the flames. He has been suffering from his heart for some time and the excitement and heat proved too much and upon returning he collapsed and died almost immediately. The fire department will conduct the funeral arrangements.

EXPEDITION IS ORGANIZED TO INVADE GUATEMALA

Puerto Cortez, Honduras, Dec. 30.—An expedition is being organized at Belize, British Honduras, for the purpose of making an armed invasion of Guatemala, according to advices received here, and General Lee Christmas, of Memphis, Tenn., who recovered from his wound received last July during the war between Nicaragua and Honduras, is recruiting a force at Puerto Barrios, an Atlantic port of Honduras.

Colic Cure Killed Him.

Calgary, Dec. 30.—John Hobson, a laborer at Breckenridge & Lund's Bow river spur camp, a few miles from Calgary, is dead from the effects of a dose of International Stock Food colic cure.

SEVEN YEAR SENTENCE METED OUT TO TOUGH

Constable Latimer, of the Vancouver police force, stepped off the street car yesterday afternoon with a strong grip on the arm of a tough looking customer whom the officer watched somewhat in the manner of a cat watching a mouse. There was good reason for watchfulness for Fred Simons, sentenced to seven years in the penetentiary, has prove himself an ugly customer and Constable Latimer was the recipient of a blow that he doubtless will long remember.

Simons was charged by a woman named May Miller with assaulting her and robbing her of $50. He also assaulted Officer Latimer, who was called in to arrest him, with a rubber pipe loaded with metal at the end. Constable Latimer had only a policeman's helmet to thank that he was still alive, and the accused that he was not before the court on a murder charge.

Magistrate Williams, of Vancouver, found the accused guilty of robbery with violence, accompanied by revolting circumstances, and sentenced him to five years' imprisonment in the provincial penitentiary.

The magistrate also found the accused guilty of assaulting Constable Latimer, and for this he imposed a sentence of two years' imprisonment, to date from the expiry of the former term.

DAUGHTER OF EARL OF SHREWSBURY ELOPES

London, Dec. 30.—Lady Viola Talbot, daughter of the Earl of Shrewsbury, the premier earl of England, has created a sensation in society by eloping with Reginald Gore and getting married at a humble registry office in London. The wedding was a great surprise to the earl, for Lady Viola kept the wooing a secret until the details of the elopement were perfected.

Young Gore is clever and handsome, but not an aristocrat. He was unknown to anybody in the Shrewsbury set.

Would Retain Consulate.

Nelson, Dec. 30.—A request was sent to Washington on Saturday protesting against the removal of the United States consulate here, signed by banks and all business houses.

GEORGIA GOES DRY ON NEW YEAR'S DAY

Topers of Southern State Have But Few Hours Left To Enjoy Life.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 30.—With the advent of the new year, the law preventing the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors passed by the last session of the legislature, becomes effective, making Georgia the first of the southern states to be placed in the prohibition column. The law is very drastic in its prohibition, and prevents the keeping or giving away of liquors in public places, and imposes a tax of $500 on clubs whose members are allowed to keep drinks of an intoxicating nature in their individual lockers.

There is some agitation to have the law declared unconstitutional. This action may be brought in the United States courts in the course of the month.

ROOTING HOG FINDS STORE OF BURIED BOMBS

Odessa, Dec. 30.—The curiosity of a stray hog at Akkerman has brought to light a store of bombs at that place, caused the arrest of a number of school boys charged with being aware of the whereabouts of the explosives, and resulted incidentally in the death of the animal.

The hog wandered into the school yard, began to root, turned over a half buried bomb and exploded it with its snout. The police made an investigation and found on the school grounds an extensive store of buried bombs.

No persons were injured by the explosion, but hundreds of windows were shattered.

COUNTESS OF WARWICK TO LECTURE IN AMERICA

London, Dec. 30.—The Countess of Warwick announces her intention of starting early next year on a lecturing tour of America, the proceeds from which, as well as the proceeds from her memoirs, which she is now writing, will be devoted to realizing "My great ambition, owning and editing a paper."

EDDY ESTATE IS ONCE MORE DISPUTED

Boston, Dec. 30.—Disputing the power of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, head of the Christian Science church, to make disposition of so large a part of her fortune, formal notices have been served upon Trustees McClellan, Fernald and Baker, having in charge Mrs. Eddy's estate, ordering them not to make an appropriation of $1,000,000 to found a charitable institution recently announced, or any other appropriation from Mrs. Eddy's estate, pending the outcome of litigation.

According to former United States Senator William E. Chandler, this action is to be followed by a new lawsuit involving the Christian Science head and her trustees, brought by the "next friends," Mrs. Eddy's son, George W. Glover, his daughter, Mary Gaker Glover, and Mrs. Eddy's adopted son, Dr. Ebenezer J. Foster, of Waterbury, Vt.

Jailer McInnes had an interesting companion brought to him yesterday afternoon, a man whose future residence appears at the present to lie between the cells and the asylum. He is an American, gives his name as Charles Eddington, and claims to be a logger from up the coast. He was very indignant at the police for the rude manner in which his liberty has been curtailed, and spun up a long story of having large soms of money out in loans in the district. His stories, however, differ very materially as told to various persons, and the police have doubts as to his sanity. Today he will be charged before the magistrate on two criminal counts which, if proved, will put it up to the immigration officials to have him deported. Leaving his coat and vest in the lavatory of a local hotel. Eddington raised a cry that he had been robbed and was gathered in by the police after endeavoring to pull a coat off a man on the street and gathering up an assortment of clothes from the rooms of the hotel.

MAKE GOOD FRIENDS.

Every One Should Have This In Mind Because of Future Benefits.

It is not worth while to pause to consider whether men in olden times placed a mercantile value on friendships. The significance of the modern application needs no justification. Friendship pays. Acquaintance pays. That is a wise young man who looks to it that his acquaintances are formed with a view to future benefit to himself. What does it profit any man to know a lot of men who are only ordinary mortals with no capacity for doing anything special or anything especially well—merely men who do a day's work at whatever they have to do and who spend their leisure time at the races, baseball games or at the theater?

The men to know are those who have a serious purpose in life and who go on cheerfully toward the goal, developing their powers meanwhile. At college a young man has an excellent opportunity for selecting among his classmates companions for a future career, but if a boy is denied the advantage of a college course, with its discipline and associations, and is cast into the huge swirl of the commercial world without training he must make his friends and get his start there. To begin with, it requires no mercenary foresight. No pleasant fellow need be slighted because he probably cannot "be of use," but the importance of spending little time with good fellows is apparent when one has his way to make by his own efforts in the world. Courtesy is always commendable, and courtesy costs nothing. It helps everywhere.

The value of a long list of friends and acquaintances to a commercial man is most obvious, for by his acquaintance, his popularity, he obtains much valuable information that helps when it comes to doing business. And the point is not to overlook the opportunity to cultivate the friendship of those whose knowledge and worth have already advanced them to high position, for their example inspires to emulation; thus association develops our best powers, and their counsel and friendship are worth something ethically and financially.—Los Angeles Times.

Tit For Tat.

A victim of omnibus pickpockets determined to get even with them, so he put into his pocket a pocketbook containing only a slip of paper on which were written the words:

"This time, you rascal, you've lost the reward of your labor!"

He got into the same omnibus and waited, resolved to have the first pickpocket that meddled with him arrested. Twenty minutes passed and nothing happened, and, tired of waiting, he got out, having assured himself that his pocketbook was safe. He opened it, and in place of his white piece of paper was a blue one, which he unfolded and read as follows:

"What a sly joker you are!"—London Tit-Bits.

Womanly Logic.

"Never," groaned a Euclid avenue picture dealer the other day, "never try to argue a woman into believing that she ought to pay a bill when she thinks otherwise. I tried it this morning—presented a bill for some stuff ordered two months ago. Here was her irrefutable logic:

"'I never ordered any pictures.

"'If I did, you never delivered them.

"'If you did, I never got them.

"'If I did, I paid for them.

"'If I didn't, I must have had some good reason for it.

"'And if I had, of course I won't pay.'

"What do you think of that?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

He Knew English.

An intelligent sepoy one day came into a telegraph office in India and handed in a message to send to a station in central India. Having read the message, I told him there was something wrong.

"No, sahib; me knows English," he said.

Again I attempted to explain to him that it was worded wrongly.

"Me knows English," he declared haughtily and indignantly. "If you no send, me report superintendent Mandalay."

Thus threatened, I forwarded this message: "Come quick. Father dangerously dead. W."—Pearson's Weekly.

His Escape.

The honeymoon was over, and the husband, returning from business, was grieved to find his little wife crying bitterly.

"Oh, George," she sobbed, "such a dreadful thing has happened! I had made a beautiful pie all myself, and Fido went and ate it!"

"Well, never mind, my dear," he said cheerfully. "We can easily buy another dog."

CONSULT YOUR BANKER.

All over this country, in village and city, bankers are coming to be the advisors of the working classes. Financial pitfalls are so numerous, specious speculative offers so allaring, many securities so unreliable that the man with a small deposit in the bank actually needs some disinterested person to advise him. It seems of late years that it is the man with the small amount laid by who attracts most of the financial vultures. The banker sees a savings account grow from a few dollars to a hundred or so. He sees the house mother enter the bank each week with a small addition to the nest egg. These small, hard-won savings come to have a peculiar interest to the banker—to even the big banker with many depositors.

That has happened many, many times in the country during the last few years, and with the exploitation of so many "companies," the banker has taken it upon himself to inquire for the disposition to be made for small investors. Some banks, at a great expense, have hunted down fake companies for the express purpose of giving their depositors the benefit of the information thus gained. Thus do bankers perform a real service, and earn the gratitude of the depositor, who otherwise would have been duped and robbed. In these days, when so much is said about the heartlessness of commercial methods, it is refreshing to note the human interest with which the banker regards a misled client.—Financial Post.

THE BANK OF COMMERCE.

A Notable Statement Showing An Increase in Interest-bearing Deposits and Holding Its Own Against a Previous Banner Year.

The annual statement of the Bank of Commerce has been awaited with perhaps almost more interest than that of any other institution because it is more widely extended than any throughout the Dominion and has pursued a more expansive policy. The year ending Nov. 30, 1906, was a banner twelve months in the history of the Commerce and its growth was of an astonishing character. Its assets had increased over 15 per cent. and its deposits over 17 per cent., while its rate of earning had advanced from 14 to 17.41 per cent.

That there should be a considerable recession from the high water mark of last year was generally expected, but instead of such being the case there is a slight advance indicating that the Bank of Commerce has more than held its own in the stressful period through which we are now passing. The net earnings are the largest in the history of the bank, being $1,752,349, as compared with $1,741,125 in 1906 or at the rate of 17.52 per cent., against 17.41 in 1906 and 14.44 per cent. in 1905.

Most notable, however, is the situation in regard to deposits. At the annual meeting last year the president stated that a certain portion of the deposits were of a temporary character. In view of the reduction of over three millions in the deposits of Canada's premier institution, the Bank of Montreal, added to the situation previously mentioned, a considerable decrease might have been expected in the Bank of Commerce's deposits. While the total deposits have decreased by the mere bagatelle of $111,000, those from the general public have gained by over a million and a half, thus demonstrating that there have been no withdrawals by alarmed depositors. The decrease in commercial loans amounting to $3,229,956 shows that the bank has adopted a conservative attitude which was rendered necessary by the contraction in the industrial condition.

The Bank of Commerce has always pursued a liberal policy in regard to Canadian securities and this is evidenced in the fact that call loans are $3,694,162 greater than last year. These loans have been slightly decreased in the past month, but it is quite evident that the bank has been a supporter of the situation and has not made it worse by calling in loans at home where this process would have had only a disturbing influence.

This year the bank carries forward a balance at credit of profit and loss of $675,912. It has been announced that the bank will hereafter make additions to the rest only in amounts of $1,000,000. The comparative statement of 1907 and 1906 will disclose the satisfactory position of the bank better than any words.

Timber Licenses.

A meeting of all persons who are interested in special timber licenses in New Westminster and its surroundings will be held in the lobby of the Hotel Russell on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Any person interested in same is cordially invited.

The intention of the meeting is:

To appoint a committee to work in conjunction with the British Columbia Timber and Forestry Chamber of Commerce, Limited, of Vancouver, with the object of securing from the Provincial Government a better title to special licensed lands so as to make possible conservative and economic methods so that the owners of licenses may know definitely for a reasonable period of time to come what their financial outlays and obligations are to be.

Also the question of excessive costs of surveys will be taken up at the meeting.

Also the protection for the prevention of forest fires, etc.

To elect officers for the coming year.

To discuss ways and means for the better protection of timber lands and the interests of timber land owners.

There will be present at the meeting Judson F. Clark, acting secretary for the British Columbia Timber and Forestry Chamber of Commerce, Limited; also the vice-president, Mr. E. P. Bremner.

It is to be hoped there will be a large and representative gathering of timbermen at this meeting, and the following names are respectfully urged to be present:

A. R. Green, acting on behalf of the G. T. P., yesterday signed on over thirty axmen for work at clearing the townsite of Prince Rupert, the men being due to sail on the Princess May Thursday. A special meeting of the school board was held yesterday, when no doubt teachers were appointed to the two vacant positions in the high school and public school. However, the press not being admitted to the meetings of the board, and the secretary having neglected to furnish the News with a report of the proceedings, no details appear in this morning's paper.

The Commercial, a new hotel, has just been opened at Abbotsford, the lessees being Messrs. Blair and McElroy, who have secured the premises on a three year lease at a rental of $100 a month. The license was granted to the new house on December 28, and the opening of the new bar was celebrated in time honored style. The partners expect to do a good business for a long time to come, judging by the success that attended their efforts on the opening day.

Prospects for a victory by the local senior football team are bright for the match which is to take place at Queen's park on New Year's Day between the Thistles, of Vancouver, and the New Westminster Rovers. Two of the Thistles best men, Cruickshanks and Hewitt, have recently joined the Nanaimo senior team, and no worthy substitutes have as yet been found to fill their places, a circumstance which makes the locals almost certain of victory on Wednesday. The New Westminster team will be picked from the following: Barbaree, Clark, Herringshaw, Kirby, Leamy, Cunningham, Turnbull, Fleming, A. and G. Lumsden, Lockhart, Watson, Craig, Gibson, Christie and Lock. The match is to take place in Queen's park, kick-off to be at 2:30 sharp. Admission 25c for gentlemen, ladies free.

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Royal Columbian hospital held on Saturday afternoon, tenders were received for the furnishing of supplies to the hospital during the coming year, the following being awarded contracts: C. A. Welsh, groceries; Edmonds Tea Co., tea and coffee; D. S. Curtis, drugs; Reichenbach Co., Ltd., beef, mutton and other meats; J. E. Fleger, milk; W. E. Fales, funerals; Royal City Fish Co., fish. Two local coal firms having put in tenders for equal amounts, the award was divided between Gilley Bros. and Mayers & Preston. In the case of bread, white and brown, no award was made, the directors deciding to demand more complete particulars from the firms tendering before finally deciding. The members present at the meeting when the tenders were opened were Messrs. James Cunningham, Marshall Sinclair, J. J. Jones, James Johnston, H. T. Kirk and Secretary W. H. Keary. None of the lady members of the board were present.

Poetry With a Sting In It.

On one occasion when William Hamilton Hayne was visiting Samuel Minturn Peck at the latter's home in Tuskaloosa the two poets strolled into the woods and paused to rest beneath the shadows of the pines.

"Here are your favorite pines, Hayne," said Peck. "Let's dream a few poems beneath them."

The languid summer day had its effect on them, and they were soon snoring and dreaming away.

But suddenly both awoke and both started down the home road at top speed, shouting as they ran.

An army of yellow jackets had discovered them, and, not being partial to poetry, had forcibly and feelingly resented its intrusion on their domain.

Later, at supper, Peck asked:

"Did you make a poem, Hayne?"

"No," was the meek reply. "I made a poultice!"

"So did I," said Peck.

Not a Slip of the Tongue.

It is dangerous to pretend to knowledge one does not possess. A man of little education was once a guest at a dinner, during which a servant stumbled so that a roast tongue fell from the platter he was carrying. It was an embarrassing moment, but the quick witted host saved the day by remarking, "Never mind, gentlemen, it's only a 'lapsus lingua.'" This caused much laughter and applause, and instead of being spoiled the dinner was a great success. The boor, wishing to shine as a wit himself, shortly afterward gave a dinner, to which none of those present at the first dinner were invited. When the guests had been seated a servant entered bearing a beef roast. Just before reaching the table he stumbled and fell. The host, leaping to his feet, astonished the guests by exclaiming, "Never mind, gentlemen, it's only a 'lapsus lingua.'"—Kansas City Times.

In Ignorance.

"Your husband seems to have an exalted opinion of you," remarked the bride's aunt. "He says you are his right hand."

"Yes," rejoined the young wife, with a sigh, "but he's one of those men who never let their right hand know what their left hand does."

THREE WEEKS HENCE CONTEST WILL END

Now that the rush and hustle of the Christmas holidays is over, interest is again being taken in the voting contest in connection with the free library to be awarded to the society, church or public institution securing the greater number of votes in its behalf. The ballot box at D. S. Curtis' store is rapidly filling up, and more votes are being polled at the present time than had been the case for some time past. Votes are given by a number of city merchants with every ten cent cash purchase, while tickets will also be given with every current account when same is promptly met by customers.

The contest commenced on August 23, and will end on January 23, little more than three weeks from this date. Insist upon getting voting coupons with every purchase, and deposit these on behalf of the institution for which you are voting. There is no knowing how many votes are being held back by parties working on the opposite sides.

THE DYING YEAR.

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty light.
The year is dying in the night;
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.

Ring out the old, ring in the new;
Ring happy bells across the snow;
The year is going, let him go;
Ring out the false, ring in the true.

Ring out the grief that saps the mind,
For those that here we see no more;
Ring out the feud of rich and poor,
Ring in redress to all mankind.

Ring out a slowly dying cause,
And ancient forms of party strife;
Ring in the nobler modes of life,
With sweeter manners, purer laws.

Ring out the want, the care, the sin,
The faithless coldness of the times;
Ring out, ring out, my mournful rhymes,
But ring the fuller minstrel in.

Ring out false pride in place and blood,
The civic slander and the spite:
Ring in the love of truth and right.
Ring in the common love of good.

Ring out old shapes of foul disease;
Ring out the narrowing lust of gold;
Ring out the thousand wars of old.
Ring in the thousand years of peace.

Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kindlier hand;
Ring out the darkness of the land,
Ring in the Christ that is to be.
—Tennyson.

FOOTBALL ON THE STAGE IS SEEN IN "STRONGHEART"

Ralph Stuart will be seen here on Friday in the latest success, "Strongheart," a comedy drama by William C. de Mille, with its scenes laid at Columbia university. Th author has provided for Mr. Stuart the unconventional role of a collegebred Indian and in its portrayal this popular star has added materially to his artistic repute. A football game furnishes an exciting and dramatic episode in this comedy drama which is certain to rank as the most unusual of stage offerings.

"Strongheart" acquired wide popularity last season at the Hudson theatre, New York, and at the Park theatre, Boston, and recently played a return engagement in New York at the Savoy theatre to undiminished popularity.

San Francisco, Dec. 30.—Shortly after 12 o'clock today westbound passenger train No. 3 left the track at Floriston and rolled into the Truckee river. Several people were killed, but the number is not known. A call was sent to Sacremento to doctors.

A masquerade ball given by the members of the Scandinavian colony in the Eagles' hall yesterday evening was largely attended. The gathering did not break up until well into the small hours of the morning.

Wind up New Year's festivities by attending the minstrel performance at the opera house. Songs and new jokes galore.
