FISHERIES COMMISSION FACES SERIOUS SPLIT

No fishing with nets on the Fraser river between August 25 and September 15, next year, is the program which is probably being drafted by the Fisheries commission now sitting in Victoria. After a great deal of labor, the report has finally been prepared and the commission is considering its adoption.

The last session will be held on Tuesday next, when the report will be finally revised and forwarded to Ottawa for the perusal and guidance of the Fisheries department.

Meanwhile reports are coming from Victoria, through various channels, of dissension among the members of the commission, and it is even affirmed that one commissioner, Campbell Sweeney, has resigned. It is understood that prior to his departure from Victoria, Mr. Sweeney submitted a minority report to Prof. Prince, which conveyed to that gentleman the intelligence that Mr. Sweeney did not agree with him in certain matters.

That it is the intention of the commission as a whole to recommend an absolute close season between the dates mentioned above, is practically certain. James Anderson, of the St. Mungo cannery, who has been following the proceedings closely, has learned through his sources of information that the packers have been pulling wires and have influenced the decision of the commission considerably. Notwithstanding the strenuous opposition of certain members who have the interests of New Westminster at heart. According to Mr. Anderson's statement, the recommendation will be that all gill net fishing on the Fraser shall be stopped from August 25 to September 15, and that the traps be allowed to continue fishing. The main arguments advanced by the advocates of an absolute close season on the river are that sockeyes are taken even during the close season. It was alleged that as many as 12,000 were offered for sale during the recent close season, or in the close season of 1906, and also that the canners had been a unit in recommending an absolute close season.

In discussing the matter last evening, Mr. Anderson stated that no good purpose could be served by having a close season. The fact that the season just closed has seen the biggest run of cohoes in the river in a great number of years proved conclusively that a close season was not necessary to improve the run. Continuing, Mr. Anderson stated: "I have always stood out against a close season on the river while fishing by traps is allowed, not because it would injure my business, because I have a trap site in the gulf and can build one or I can buy fish from the other traps; but I am opposed to the policy of shutting out the net fishermen on the river and allowing the trap owners to continue in operation. It seems to me to be an outrage to prohibit the net men from fishing while the traps are allowed to fish. I consider the ordinary close season sufficient protection," said Mr. Anderson, in conclusion.

Harry McMartin, deputy sheriff, who has been under treatment at the St Mary's hospital for the past few days, is expected to be able to resume his duties on Monday morning.

BOYS HAVE ESCAPED FROM REFORMATORY

Two boys, Glenroy Clunes and Ora Anderson, escaped from the Provincial reformatory at Point Grey yesterday morning, and officers from the reformatory and the Provincial police are now searching for them. Clunes is about 15 years of age, of dark complexion, 5 feet 8 inches in height, and wore a pair of heavy logger's boots.

Anderson has been an inmate of the reformatory and got away once before. He was wanted recently at Sumas for the alleged theft of a watch and was arrested on this side of the line. The magistrate at New Westminster, before whom he appeared, sent him back to the reformatory. Anderson is 5 feet 10 inches in height, very fair. Both boys were blue sweaters, and when they got away were without coats.

TEMPERANCE SUNDAY SPECIAL SERVICES

Throughout the Whole Wide World To-morrow, Preachers Will Denounce Drink.

Stirring sermons, directed against the evils of the drink traffic, will be preached in churches and chapels the world over tomorrow morning, afternoon, and evening. "World's Temperance Sunday" is the appellation affixed to a particular Sabbath day every year, when an united effort is made throughout the wide world to bring home to the people the awful results of the liquor trade, the greatest enemy of the church in every community. Special rallies of temperance societies will be held in many parts of the province, and temperance sermons will be preached in most of the churches, dealing with this particular question.

The annual service of the Royal Templars of Temperance will be held tomorrow at St. Andrew's church, when sermons appropriate to the occasion will be preached by the pastor, Rev. J. S. Henderson. A large number of the members of the order have signified their intention to attend, and special seats have been reserved for them.

At the Queen's Avenue Methodist church, the Rev. W. H. Barraclough will also attack the demon drink, his morning topic being "Close up the barrooms and give the boys a chance." At the evening service he proposes to dilate upon the interesting problem, "Is the drink traffic a curse or a blessing?" A choir of children will sing at the morning service. Several of the other city pastors will also deliver temperance sermons.

Smith is Acquitted.

Winnipeg, Nov. 22.—After being out an hour and three-quarters yesterday afternoon, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty in the case of Detective Smith, of the city police force, on trial for manslaughter in the killing of a suspected fur thief by the name of Gans.

WILL PUNISH TEN THOUSAND WOMEN

Madrid, Nov. 22.—Ten thousand women are being summoned to appear in the courts to answer for having glorified a crime.

Jesusa Pajana, a young milliner of Bilbao, recently shot dead a man to whom she had been betrothed and who had deserted her. She was sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

A few days ago the corporation of Milliners held a meeting at Bilbao, at which the sentence was denounced, and an address was drafted by the author, Manuel Aranaz, expressing sympathy with Pajana and extolling her act. This address was afterwards signed by 10,000 milliners.

The public prosecutor has decided that the publication of the address is a punishable offense, and citations to answer to the charge are now being served on the author and all the signatories.

BAPTIST CONVENTION HAS ELECTED ITS OFFICERS

Calgary, Nov. 22.—The Baptist convention of Western Canada was made an accomplished fact by the adoption of a resolution:

"That we the accredited delegates of the Baptist churches of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and British Columbia, in convention assembled, this 21st day of November, 1907, in the city of Calgary, do now approve of the action of the joint committee on the union of Baptist convention of Manitoba and the Northwest, the Baptist convention of British Columbia, in the organization of a Baptist convention for Western Canada, and do ratify the same; and farther, that we now proceed to a discussion of the constitution prepared by the committee."

The convention elected officers as follows: President, H. E. Sharpe, Winnipeg; vice-presidents, Premier Rutherford, Alberta; A. Hogett, Vancouver; Dr. S. J. McKee, Brandon; treasurer, S. Blackhall, Winnipeg; secretary, J. F. McIntyre, Winnipeg; auditors, J. F. Allan and J. McCracken, Winnipeg.

ELECTORS SATISFIED WITH LIBERAL RULE

Steady Growth of Dominion Under Laurier's Administration a Clear Indication that Present Government is Best for Canada---Facts and Figures Prove It.

The test of political merit is the prosperity that waits on the people. Under Liberal rule the record from 1896 to date has been marked by a degree of prosperity and material progress never before known in Canada. The farmers have never been so well-to-do, never so successful and contented; the manufacturers have never been so busy and prosperous; never were working men so much in demand; never did they get better wages.

Great Deed Done.

The manner in which the great west has been opened up is a monument to the sagacity of the government, and the results a marvel of the century. The land and water tansportation problems of Canada have been solved in the interests of the Dominion as a whole. The National Transcontinental railway, to build which the government received a direct mandate from the people, is being rapidly pushed to completion, and very shortly Canada will have another line stretching from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The finances of the country have been so ably and economically administered that each year of Liberal rule has found the debts of the country promptly discharged, no new debts created, and a handsome surplus remaining. Lower tariff, producing a greater evenue, has been less burdensome to the people and accomplished the purpose for which it was designed. The post office department has been managed in a business-like manner, resulting in a surplus for the first time in the history of the country. Every department of the government has been conducted upon business principles, in which honesty and economy have become apparent in the satisfactory results secured.

What Electors Demand.

What does the average elector require of a government?

1. To do everything possible to promote the prosperity and welfare of the whole people.

2. To administer public affairs economically and honestly, to tax the people equitably and fairly, but not unduly.

3. To develop the resources of the country on sound principles, and to that end to promote immigration, and to provide transportation facilities.

Have Liberals Made Good?

It is admitted—the condition of the country proves it—that the Liberals have given Canada the best government since Confederation. Nothing has been left undone that would tend to promote the prosperity and welfare of the people.

It cannot be successfully denied that public affairs have been administered with economy, having due regard to a proper perfomance of the public service.

It is an incontrovertible fact that under Liberal policy the taxes have been diminished and the revenue has been increased, in startling contrast to Conservative days when the very contrary was the case, for under the Tory administration taxes were increased and revenue was reduced.

Miserable Tory Performances.

Debt, ever increasing debt, was the lot of the Conservative government. Not having the intelligence to manage affairs so as to maks both ends meet, resort was had to the device of the gambder, profligate, money was borrowed, and the Liberals succeeded to this legacy of debt. Conservatives today accuse the Liberals of great expenditures; they forget the country has advanced under Liberal auspices, that the expenses are geater, the needs greater. They also forget that the Liberals have the money to spend. Mr. Fielding, finance minister, speaking on this phase of the subject, once said:

"The lessor sum our predecessors expended was extravagance, because they did not have it to expend; the larger sum we have expended is economy, because we have lived within our means."

Liberals Brilliant Deeds.

The resources of the country have been developed by the exercise of an intelligence and grasp of Canada's possibilities not possessed by the Conservatives, who had equal opportunities, but who for eighteen years carried on a government that was conspicuous by its lack of ability to grasp great public questions, and was best known by its attempts to purchase the votes of the people by bartering public works in exchange for political support.

The present government has promoted immigration to a remarkable extent, and is today engaged in providing transportation facilities in response to the expressed will of the people, and in the carrying out of its own pre-election pledges.

The Liberals have striven at all times to promote harmonious relations between the various elements of the population. It has been the aim of Conservatives to disturb this harmony and raise up race and religious prejudices, and create discord whenever such a course would appear to serve some political end.

The average elector should be satisfied that his requirements have been met by the Liberal government and that everything that goes to promote national growth, and the prosperity of the people has been contributed to with a lavish hand by the government of the day.

Compare Records.

The condition of the public debt is a good indication of the measure of prosperity enjoyed by the people. The public debt in 1896, after the Conservatives had been in office eighteen years, was $258,497,432. When they assumed power in 1878, the public debt was $140,504,069, so that in eighteen years they added to the burdens of the people the sum of $118,135,363, equivalent to an average increase of about six and a half millions per annum. During eleven years of Liberal rule, there has positively been no addition to the public debt, but surpluses have been created amounting to over $90,000,000.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier once said, when speaking at Toronto, that it was not necessary to quote a long array of figures to prove the prosperity of the country, for, said he: "You will feel the jingle of prosperity in your pockets." This prophesy has been remarkably fulfilled, for that the Canadian people have felt the jingle of prosperity in their pockets is everywhere acknowledged.

WILL FOLLOW WISHES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 22.—The Western Canadian Immigration association held a meeting yesterday when letters were read from the boards of trade of Edmonton and Regina, and thanking the executive commission for benefits secured by these two cities.

J. M. Obed Smith, acting for the executive committee, will go to British Columbia and take up with the members of British Columbia the program of publicity work now being done for that province by the association. It is the wish of the committee to have the propaganda arranged to follow the exact lines most desired by British Columbia.

SOCCER TEAMS PLAY AT QUEEN'S PARK TODAY

A scheduled soccer match between the New Westminster footballers and the North Vancouver team will be played this afternoon at Queen's park, commencing promptly at 2.30.

The match was to have been played at Vancouver, but owing to the fact that the athletes' plots have already been engaged, arrangements were made last evening by long distance phone for playing the game at Queen's park. The North Vancouver men will leave Vancouver on the 1:30 car, arriving here in due time. The Westminster line-up will be: Goal, Barbaree; backs, Clark and Herringshaw; half-backs, F. Locke, A. Turnbull and O. Peele; forwards, Watson, Ambrose, Lumsden, L. Turnbull and Cunningham. J. J. Welsh will referee the match.

NEW PROCESS WILL EXTRACT LOST GOLD

Vancouver, Nov. 22.—A new method of extracting gold and other metals from black sands found in many of the rivers along the coast line of British Columbia is to be given a practical test in the Cariboo district next spring. The process is a chemical one, and the discoverer is T. Corwin, a metallurgist, who is now in Vancouver. Mr. Corwin has staked two miles af placer ground along the Quesnel river, about twelve miles from the village of Quesnel, and backed by Vancouver capital, he will next year install a plant with a treatment capacity of ten tons daily.

"The treatment charges by my process," said Mr. Corwin today, "will not exceed $4 per ton. The chemicals used can be bought for about $1 per ton of material treated. I have already demonstrated to my own satisfaction that I can recover from 90 to 95 per cent of the gold associated with the black sands. The process also separates the rare metals like platinum and osmeredian, which are found in the black sands of the streams of the Cariboo district. There will be big money made in treating these river sands, as a series of assays show that they contain gold values ranging from $100 to $300 per ton, besides the rare metals I mentioned.

"An illimitable field for the application of the new process to the waste dumps of hydraulic propositions is also opened up. In the Cariboo I treated ten pounds of tailings—nothing but so-called waste—and secured a recovery of $1.10. My local financial backers will supply the funds for the ten-ton plant to be erected next spring on our two placer claims along the Quesnel river. If the results are as successful as I anticipate, we will lose no time in installing other plants."

BLAMES TARTAR'S PILOT FOR THE COLLISION

Victoria, Nov. 22.—Before the commission which is enquiring into the Tartar-Charmer collision, Mr. Bodwell, who is acting for Capt. Whitely, of the Charmer, this morning announced that he would produce evidence to show that had the Tartar been on the course as stated by her officers, there would have been no collision. He also stated that he would show that Capt. Jones, pilot on the Tartar, had endeavored to force the Charmer to go to port instead of to starboard, as it is claimed he did a few days before the accident with the steamer Titan.

Vernon, Nov. 22.—Nolan Davis, who has spent several years in the fruit-raising districts of California, is about to start a paper in Summerland, to be known as the Review. He expects to have the first number out by the beginning of the new year.

MISSIONARY FROM CHINA RELATES EXPERIENCES

Mrs. Huntley, a missionary who has been working in the heart of China for the last twenty years, and is now on parole, delivered a lecture Thursday evening in the West Presbyterian church on the subject of her experiences in the Orient. Her talk was very interesting and was keenly followed. Mrs. Huntley lives so far inland from the coast that she requires six months from the time she disembarks at Hong Kong to reach her post, travelling in the only manner possible—by boats on rivers, and in the regular Chinese conveyances on land.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Scouler auxiliary, of the West Presbyterian church. The annual report of missionary work during the past year was received, and a thank-offering for foreign missions, amounting to $127.75, was taken up among the members of the assemblage. After the conclusion of the address, a short program of songs, recitations, etc., were rendered, and the serving of refreshments ended the meeting.

ROYAL CITY SCHOLARS MAY WIN THE PLAQUE

Essays on England's Naval Hero Wanted from Public School Lads and Lassies.

Alex. Robinson, provincial superintendent of education, is in receipt of a letter from E. W. Matthews, secretary of the British and Foreign Sailors' society, in which details are given of the society's intentions to circulate throughout the British Empire a number of busts and medals of Lord Nelson, made from the wood and copper of his two flagships, the Victory and the Foudroyant. A prize is offered for the best essay by any boy or girl under sixteen years of age, dealing with any subject connected with life on the rolling wave. Two prizes have been specially set apart for Canada, and this year this subject has been selected for competition: "What does the nation owe to Nelson and her sailors?" Essays will be received by Mr. Robinson from all schools in British Columbia until June 30. No essay shall exceed 1,000 words. The prize will be an artistic copper plaque, bearing the King's initials.

From the report received the work of the society is proceeding excellently. The sale of Nelson medals, made from the copper of the flagships has realized a handsome figure, and has been of assistance in furnishing seamen's homes in different British and foreign ports.

MILITARY PROGRAM FOR ENTERTAINMENT

Active preparations are going on for the big military entertainment which is to be given by the officers and men of A and B companies, Sixth regiment, D. C. O. R., at the Armouries on Friday, Nov. 29, and the many features which will be presented are being rehearsed nightly by the men who are to be the star performers.

Among the star attractions of the evening will be a burlesque drill by an incompetent awkward squad, commanded by Sergt. Major Cornish. All military rules will be disregarded by this squad, and much amusement is promised in connection with this feature. A boxing match between two of the militia middleweights, and a wrestling match between Andy MacDonald and an opponent whose name is kept secret, will also take place during the evening.

It is proposed to have a basketball match between teams representing the militia and Columbian college, and in order to make way for the other attractions, the game will be put on early in the evening and will last less than an hour.

During the evening, musical selections will be rendered by A. S. Leslie, while a number of local vocalists will oblige with solos and duets. As this will be the first of a series of entertainments this winter, the militiamen are straining every effort to make it a striking success.

LINE TO BE BUILT FROM PORT SIMPSON TO SKEENA

Victoria, Nov. 22.—Notice is given in the British Columbia Gazette by C. J. Prior, of this city, that application will be made to the legislative assembly at its next session for an act to incorporate a company to build a line of railway from Port Simpson to a point on the North Skeena passage. The railway will be of standard or narrow gauge, to be operated by steam or electricity, from a point at or near Port Simpson; thence following the Work canal to Skeena river and to a point on North Skeena passage.

Power is also asked to connect with and enter into a running arrangement with any other railway and to receive from any government or person grants of land, money, bonuses, privileges or other assistance in aid of the company's undertaking.

1896, after the Conservatives had bungled things for eighteen years, kept the people poor by excessive taxation, debarred our manufacturers from foreign markets, militated against the exportation of farm produce, was $224,420,485. Compare this with the total trade of Canada for the year ending August, 1907, which amounts to $640,338,157, an increase of $73,725,729 over the previous twelve months.

The trade policy of the government was condemned in unmeasured terms by the Conservatives. Stung into recriminations when they observed the Liberals casting off the wornout methods which had been so abortive of good results, and applying intelligent principles of political economy, promised in the new and enlightened policy which was to govern public affairs from the time the Liberals assumed office, the Conservatives could but scoff and sneer. Said Sir Charles Tupper, "One universal wail of anguish from the manufacturers would resound from earth to heaven." There was no wail of anguish, but a tribute of praise and thankfulness that the commercial interests of the country had been redeemed from bankruptcy and the electors of Canada cannot do better than digest the figures given above and then render a verdict and pronounce upon the relative merits of the two parties.

Public Works Constructed.

The Liberals have been charged with neglecting public works, and the Conservatives claim credit for great activity in this regard. What are the facts? In addition to the construction of additions to the Trent canal and the building of the great Kirkfield lift-lock, the department of public works has pursued a most vigorous course with the object of cheapening and facilitating transportation between the great Northwest and the Canadian Atlantic seaboard. Special and energetic attention was directed towards the following improvements:

1. The harbors on Lake Superior, where the western grain is delivered by the railways and stored for distribution.

2. The harbors for trans-shipment in Ontario.

3. The lines of routes between the province of Ontario and Montreal and other eastern ports, both by rail and water.

4. The harbors for receiving, storing and shipment for the ocean voyage.

5. The river St.Lawrence ship channel, Montreal and Quebec, to the sea (night and day).

The general idea has been to create divers avenues through which would flow into the St.Lawrence as the main artery not only the products of the great Northwest, but also the products of part of the Western American States.

To accomplish this additional depth of water was provided at the lake harbors. Dredging has been done at Depot harbor, Collingwood, Goderich Owen Sound, Meaford, Sault Ste. Marie, Sarnia and other places, and at some of them wharves and breakwaters have been constructed. Perhaps the most important work of this description consistently carried on by the present government has been the improvement of the St. Lawrence ship channel. The old-fashioned plant of the Conservative government, utterly useless to accomplish anything in this generation, was thrown aside by the Liberal government and powerful modern dredges were built and put to work, and the result is seen today in the magnificent deep channel, well buoyed and lighted, which is the delight and the safety of shipping interests.

Poor Not Neglected.

The transportation facilities in respect of what might be termed purely local domestic trade have also been greatly improved. In the Maritime Provinces particularly the greatest attention has been paid to the needs of those people who subsist by the fishing industry. Each time money was voted for a wharf in Nova Scotia which would alleviate the condition of the fishermen, the Conservatives would raise every objection possible. The Liberal government, while doing what was necessary with regard to important public works, has not been unmindful of the poor man, and his interests have not been neglected but his welfare has been thoughtfully considered. It can truthfully be said that a most vigorous and progressive policy has been pursued by the government in the direction of improving aids to navigation.

Canal Tolls Abolished.

In order to facilitate lake shipping the government tolls on vessels passing through the canals have been abolished. This was a great boon to Canadian shipping interests, and, judging by results, it appears to have been just what was necessary to turn the tide of the grain-carrying trade through Canadian channels. The St. Lawrence route is patronized to a much greater extent than ever before. Canada is more and more handling American export grain, there being a difference in grain rates of several cents a bushel in favor of the Canadian lake and canal route. Thus does a progressive government create favorable commercial conditions from which the people as a whole receive the benefit.

Well Managed Post Office.

The management of the post office department affords a striking instance of intelligent administration under Liberal methods compared to the slipshod manner in which business was conducted in Conservative times. In 1896, the last year of Conservative rule, this department was run at a loss of $781,152. Last year, under Liberal rule, there was a surplus of over a million dollars—after the establishment of hundreds of additional post offices. In addition it may also be said to the credit of the government that the postal rates have been greatly reduced, a boon for which the people are grateful.

Preserving Public Domain.

The policy of the Liberals to preserve the public domain for the settler is too well known to be enlarged upon, but it is interesting in this connection to remind the people that the Conservatives voted as subsidies to railroads no less than 56,087,072 acres. These are the people who accuse the government of alienating the public lands and favoring the speculator at the expense of the settler.

Tories Made Settlers Suffer.

As a matter of fact, the lands alienated by the Conservatives were naturally selected along the right-of-way of the various railoads and were consequently of greater value (in respect to transportation of products) to the settler who was compelled to buy from the corporation at high figure the land which he would otherwise have been entitled to take up free as a homestead. This is the manner in which the Conservative government protected the homeseeker of the West, by forcing him to buy from the railroad or locate so far from the line that it became of no service to him. What will the people think of the men who cry "the land for the settler," when they compelled the settler to purchase from the corporations at a high figure, land which the corporations secured for nothing?

If the settler is compelled to pay a high price for his land he owes it to a Conservative government, which frittered away this heritage of the home seeker. The evils of land bonus to wealthy monopolists must be laid to the Conservatives, and if the west suffers today in having land adapted to agriculture held at prohibitive prices, the blame must be placed where it properly belongs.

The Liberal government, appreciating that railways were necessary to the development of new territory, extended assistance by payment of a cash subsidy upon which interest was charged, thus the subsidy became practically a loan. The Liberal government imposed other conditions with respect to rates charged the government upon all subsidized railroads which effected a great saving each year. Had this policy been adopted by the Conservatives in the early history of railroad building, many millions of dollars a year of the people's money would have been saved.

Pre-election Promises Kept.

To make even a short allusion to all the good things accomplished by the Liberal Government since 1896 is quite impossible in a short article. It may be said with truth that what the Liberals promised before the elections in 1896 and before every general election since, has been more than performed. That the people believe this is proved by the result in bye-elections. The Government has lost but one seat London and in that case no Liberal candidate was nominated. The Conservatives have not been so fortunate, they have steadily lost the slight hold they had on the public confidence.

Future Safe With Liberals.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier put the case well when he said the Liberals had not been imitators, had not walked in beaten paths, but had framed a policy to meet difficulties as they arose, a policy suited to the condition and the time. As it has been in the past, so it will be in the future, the Liberal Government will face any difficulty; meet every problem as it arises, and solve it in the best interests of the Canadian people.

THE HOUSE OF LORDS

The wires gave us some time ago, a sort of synopsis of Lord Roseberry's opinions about the House of Lords, but it is worth while to read some extracts from the press reports of his speech, not only because the question is one in which every loyal subject in the Empire has an interest, but because some of the things which the speaker said have an indirect bearing upon that question of senate reform which comes up from time to time in our discussions of Dominion political matters.

Lord Roseberry did not defend the House of Lords as it is. "He had never been able to defend the present constitution of the House of Lords; he had indeed stoutly attacked it; he had constantly endeavored to reform it. But on the other hand he was from the bottom of his heart convinced, by every iota of political and historical experience of which he was possessed, that a Second Chamber, and an effective Second Chamber, was necessary, both to the welfare of this country and to the maintenance of its constitution. And if he might sum up the position in a word, and he did believe that it embodied the conviction of the great mass of the intelligent opinion of this country. He was not a House of Lords man, but he was a Second Chamber man."

And he went on to make it pretty clear that if he were free to choose he would not be a member of the Second Chamber, but of the first. People seemed to forget that the vast majority of the lords were members of the upper house not by any act or volition of their own but "by the accident of succession and the law of the constitution."

The present popular feeling against the lords, he believed, was the retribution which overtook them on account of their subservience to the Tory government which went out of office two years ago. "I think," he said, "that the House of Lords is suffering in popular reputation not for what it has done, but for what it has left undone; not for fulfilling its functions of legitimate criticism now but for having abdicated them during the last ten years. If it had always been a chamber of revision and correction it would stand infinitely higher in esteem than it does."

His policy therefore was to mend the House of Lords, not to end it. "He firmly believed that the nation would not submit to be governed by a single Chamber, and he was equally certain that the nation would demand that the Second Chamber or other Chamber should place itself in harmony with the changed conditions which had come into existence."

Down in Quebec they seem to have rather curious notions about law. A recent dispatch says that a certain accused person was found "not guilty" on the ground that certain other persons were just as guilty as he was!

It appears that there is grave danger of the recurrence of those scenes of horror which were caused by the great famine in India of some years ago. The failure of the rains has caused a failure of the crops, and where millions live "from hand to mouth," such a failure means suffering and death. Much as we object to Hindus overrunning this country, our sympathy must be strongly stirred by the miserable condition of people condemned to the tortures of hunger and often to a lingering death through no special omission or commission of their own, but by the failure of the earth to yield its increase.

They have a problem in municipal finance down at the capital. Government street, which is the principal thoroughfare as well as the great street for retail business, was paved some five years ago on a "local improvement" plan, the payments of the property holders to be spread over ten years. Now, when about half the term has expired, the street wants paving more than it did in the first place, and who is to pay the bill? By the way, block paving was adopted and some one should let the public know, as a guide to civic bodies in future paving enterprises, how it happens that, after such a short time, the pavement is full of holes. Is all wood block paving to be condemned or is it only that this particular sample was bad?

Belcourt's Successor.

CITY ELECTIONS

NOTICE is hereby given to the electors of the city of New Westminster, that I require the presence of the said electors at the City hall, on Monday, the 2nd day of December,

1907, at 11 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of electing a Mayor and two School Trustees for the year 1908, and at 12 o'clock noon of the same day, for the purpose of electing seven persons as Aldermen for the said year of 1908.

The mode of nomination shall be as follows: Each candidate shall be nominated in writing; the writing shall be subscribed by two persons as proposer and seconder, who shall be duly qualified electors and residents in the city; and such nomination paper shall contain a statement signed by the person nominated, that he consents to such nomination. The nomination papers shall be delivered to the Returning Officer at any time between the date of this notice and (in the case of Mayor and School Trustees) 12 noon of the 2nd day of December, or (in the case of Aldermen) 1 o'clock p. m. of the same day.

In the event of a poll being necessary, such poll will be opened on the 9th day of December, 1907, at 9 o'clock a. m., and will remain open until 5 p. m. of the same day, at the following places: The Council Chamber, City hall; the Fire hall, Sapperton; and at the Light station, Tenth street.

Of which every person is required to take notice and govern himself accordingly.

Given under my hand at the City hall, New Westminster, the 22nd day of November, 1907.

W. A. DUNCAN,
Returning Officer.

Seldom indeed does a professional impersonator attain the high dramatic skill with which Newton Beers, the talented monologue artist, is gifted. Before an audience which completely filled the Oddfellows' hall, and which included a large number of people who did not belong to that fraternal order Mr. Beers yesterday evening rendered a narration of scenes in the lives of David and Jonathan, delineating with rare mimetic skill the different characters which entered into the action of the play. Spellbound from start to finish he held his audience, his finely modulated voice vibrating with varying emotions as he proceeded with the thrilling Biblical narrative leading up to the covenant of Friendship, Love and Truth entered into by the two young men. Mr. Beers was warmly applauded at the close of his dramatic characterization, and was complimented on behalf of the local Oddfellows by Bro. D. E. MacKenzie, P. G. M., P. G. R.

The Whole of This Establishment One Blaze of Electrifying Bargains

OUR GUARANTEE

We assure each and every person absolute satisfaction. We guarantee every garment, every statement here made, and will take back exchange or refund the money on any purchase not satisfactory for any reason whatever. Everything marked in plain figures.

No Juggling with Prices
One Price to All

This is Not a Sale for any Particular Member of a Family

You will find here unheard of Bargains for mothers, for fathers, for young ladies, for boys and girls. During these seven days everything will be purchaseable at prices which cannot be duplicated. Westminster will be stirred from centre to circumference, and this gigantic seven days' sale will bring to a rustling finish with which wind of values, the greatest turnover of merchandise that has ever been held in the Province of British Columbia.

AN IMPOSSIBILITY

'Tis an impossibility to mention everything for sale during these seven days; hundreds of articles that have been overlooked in writing this advertisement will not be overlooked when it comes to marking them down; and probably though the article you want is not mentioned here, it will be found waiting you during the sale at a

Price which will Greatly Surprise You.

This Store is a Gold Mine where Every Man can Make a Strike

We have gone to considerable expense and trouble preparing and advertising this Great Sale. Remember you'll get everything advertised, and more, but as we expect some heavy selling, our advice is to shop early. Don't wait until the articles you want are sold. We anticipate the heaviest 7 days' sale ever experienced in the Province of British Columbia. There are bargains for every man or boy.

Synopsis of Canadian North-West Homestead Regulations.

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or sub-agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is rejuired to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).

(4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

(5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the agent for the district of such intention.

Six months' notice in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of intention to apply for patent.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

A New Subdivision

Just what a good many people have been waiting for—

Mr. D. D. Bourke has just authorized us to sell in lots a portion of his Twelfth street property, bordering on Twelfth street, Fifth avenue, Thirteenth street, and a lane.

The property is all cleared, fenced, graded and in grass, and commands a charming view of the Delta and North Arm.

Heretofore this property could only be purchased as a whole, but now separate lots can be had at prices justified by local conditions, and upon easy terms.

MARKET REPORT

There was no change in the market quotations yesterday from the former week, with the possible exception of the price of pears, which dropped down to 65 cents and 75 cents a box. The supply of produce was about equal to the call. Trading on the whole was brisk.

Meats.

Beef was again plentiful, and sold readily at 8 cents for hindquarters, and from 5 to 6 for forequarters. Lamb and mutton was in good demand and with the supply short, prices were firm at 14 and 15 for lamb, and from 12 to 13 for mutton. There was a fair offering of veal, and the demand was normal. Prices ranged from 8 to 9 cents for heavy carcasses, and about 11 cents for medium sized calves. Pork was an average supply, and sold readily at from 9 to 10 cents.

Fowls.

The weekly offering of fowls was quite equal to the demand, which was strong. Prices ran as high as $8.50 for fair fowls, while a poorer class brought from $6 to $7.50. Good chickens sold as high as $6.50 a dozen, but $5 was an average price. The supply of chickens was not large, and the demand was strong. Ducks were in poor demand, and those who had first class fowl for sale were obliged to dispose of their stock at prices ranging about $6.50 and $7 a dozen. There is a very good demand for good fowls at the present time, and the demand will undoubtedly increase as the holidays draw closer.

Produce.

Eggs and butter were an average supply and prices were normal. Eggs brought 55 cents wholesale and as high as 60 cents retail. Butter sold for 30 and 35 cents a pound.

Fruit.

Apples are still in good demand, and prices have an upward tendency. The greate part o fthe stock yesterday sold at $1.25 a box, while a poorer class of goods realized about $1.00 a box. Pears were not in good demand, and prices ran as low as 65 cents a box.

Several tons of potatoes brought $18 a ton, but there was a limited market. The supply was not large. A large supply of onions brought $2.75 a sack.

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—A cable dispatch received in this city today by J. and A. Brown, coal importers, says that the strike of coal miners in New South Wales has been settled at all the collieries except the Helburn colliery. The men will return to work next Monday.

BOTH PARTIES LOSE IN LIQUOR LIBEL SUIT

Bellingham, Nov. 22.—In the criminal libel suit which ended in Judge Williams' court late last night, the editor of the Ferndale Record, as well as the complaining witness, Dug Welsh, proprietor of a saloon in Ferndale were found guilty. The verdict is as follows:

"We, the jury, duly impaneled and sworn, find the defendant guilty as charged and we assess his punishment at a fine of $1 without costs; and earnestly recommend the revocation of the complainant's (Dug Welsh) license as a liquor dealer in the town of Ferndale, Wash."

The clerical and store staff of the city electric light department yesterday moved from the building which they had occupied for a long time past on Tenth street, to a recently constructed structure at the rear, which will be used until a suitable location can be secured. John Reid will shortly move his blacksmithing establishment from Begbie street to the place vacated by the electric light employees, the building having been refitted in order to be in proper shape for the conducting of his business. A new floor, new windows, and several other additions, have been put in at Mr. Reid's expense.
