RUSSELL IS ALMOST READY FOR BUSINESS

New Westminster's Biggest and Best Hotel to Receive Guests within Short Time.

"Russell hotel!" Within a few days these words will fall on the ears of passengers descending from C. P. R. and G. N. R. trains at the two local depots, and it is quite probable they will be asked to step into a and enjoy a free ride to the new hostelry. A free ride to a hotel in New Westminster will be a novelty indeed, but if there is to be no disappointment in the Russell equipment, there will surely be a vehicle to meet all trains.

The carpenters are now adding the finishing touches to the new building, and everything will be in readiness for the commencement of business within a week. The only matter still unsettled is the management, but a solution of this problem is anticipated shortly. C. J. Tabor, of New Brunswick, leasing the premises from the owner, J. Fader, a few months ago, paying a certain amount in advance, and at a later time later notified Mr. Fader that he could not comply with the agreement. A suit resulting from the alleged breach of the agreement is to be settled in court. Proceedings have been started and will be heard in due time, but Mr. Fader's immediate troubles are to get a competent man to manage the house when it is constructed. To invest sixty thousand dollars in a house for ornamentation only, is considered a New Westminster business. It is reported that Mr. Cameron, accountant for Mr. Fader, will assume the management, but confirmation of this rumor is not yet forthcoming.

The Russell is exceeded in design and appearance by very few hotels west on the coast. It probably ranks third in British Columbia. The main floor is subdivided into an office, lobby, dining room, kitchen, cloak rooms and several bedrooms, besides toilets and bathrooms; while the two upper stories are laid out in parlors and bedrooms. In the basements are located the barroom, billiard and pool rooms, sample rooms, storage room, and furnace room.

All the furniture has arrived, and will be set up as soon as the painters have vacated.

SEATTLE RESTAURANTS TO EMPLOY ALL WHITES

Seattle, Nov. 21.—The Japanese who perform menial tasks about Seattle restaurants are to be supplanted in the near future by white labor, according to a decision reached by the members of the Seattle Restaurant Keepers' association. The change will take place gradually, as the restaurant men do not believe they can fill the Japs' places at short notice. Greeks and Italians will probably be hired.

Took First Cable

New York, Nov. 21.—William F. Shiebler, who received the first message over the Atlantic cable, sent to President Buchanan by Queen Victoria, died Wednesday in Brooklyn. It was while acting as an expert telegrapher in Washington that he received the cable message. He delivered it to the President and sent the President's reply to the Queen. He also received the message from the front announcing the fall of Richmond at the close of the Civil War. He had charge of the first military telegraph station. Since 1868, Mr. Shiebler has been in the jewellery business in Manhattan.

Anxious Father Inquires.

J. Collins, of Arbroath, Scotland, has written to Dominion Lands Agent J. MacKenzie inquiring concerning the whereabouts of his son, William Collins, who was last heard of at Yale in 1906, when he was working for the C. P. R. The young man is described as being about nineteen years of age, five feet seven inches tall, light build, with brown hair, and, when last heard of, was smooth faced. Any party knowing the whereabouts of the young man is requested to communicate with either Mr. MacKenzie or Chief of Police McIntosh, who will in turn notify the anxious parents of the missing man.

ITALIANS INSISTED ON SAILING ON VIRGINIAN

Montreal, Nov. 21.—There was a warm time on the Allan steamer Virginian last evening. Two hundred Italians who had purchased tickets for Liverpool, swarmed on board the steamer and took possession of the steerage. The company intended sending the Italians on the Sicilian, sailing this evening, but the Italians came to the conclusion that they would sail on the Virginian, and took possession.

Attempts were made to dislodge them, but without avail, and finally the company was obliged to take off 250 other steerage passengers, mostly Poles, Russians and Swedes and transfer them to the Sicilian. They took the change of steamers philosophically, and the Italians carried the day. The Virginian has 800 passengers in her steerage.

ODDFELLOWS ENTERTAIN FRIENDS TO-NIGHT

Newton Beers, Clever Monologue Artist, Will Render "David and Jonathan."

In dramatic characterizations, "David and Jonathan," a stirring Biblical drama, will be presented this evening under the auspices of Royal City lodge, No. 3. I. O. O. F., by that gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, a monologuist celebrated for his renderings of stirring scenes peculiarly adapted to entertainments held under the auspices of fraternal societies. Newton Beers has long since made a reputation which compels attention, and is still far from having reached the point where his dramatic art is on the wane. For the past few weeks he has been appearing in Nanaimo, Ladysmith, Victoria, Vancouver and other coast cities, presenting "David and Jonathan," "Damon and Pythias," and several other like dramatizations for the benefit of fraternal organizations. Everywhere his impersonations have been stamped with the seal of public approval, and it is safe to say that his appearance in this city tonight will but be one more to be added to the long list of previous successes on the coast this season.

Already a large number of tickets have been disposed of by the committee in charge of the entertainment, and as the lodge has decided to throw open the doors of the lodge room to the general public, there is no doubt that an overflow meeting will greet Mr. Beers' appearance this evening. In order to permit Mr. Beers to commence his impersonations at eight o'clock, the members of Royal City lodge will assemble at seven o'clock and transact the usual routine business before declaring the meeting open to the public.

PROHIBITION LAW CAUSES WILD SCENES

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 21.—Unprecedented scenes were enacted in the Senate chamber of the historical capitol of Alabama when the statutory prohibition bill was passed. Women and children thronged through the corridors and galleries and even invaded the sanctity of the floor itself, pushing the senators from their seats and giving vent to their enthusiasm by shouts and cheers that echoed and reechoed through the building. Senators who opposed the bill were hissed down when they arose to speak against the measure.

The statutory prohibition bill which passed today was in the nature of a compromise between the antis and Prohibitionists. The antis, seeing the handwriting on the wall, agreed to give up the fight provided the time was extended until January 1, 1909, when the sale of whisky will be forbidden in the state of Alabama. This amendment will be sent to the House and will be concurred in without a fight.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Ottawa, Nov. 21—Yesterday was the anniversary of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's birthday. The premier was born at St. Lin, Quebec, November 20, 1841, so that he was 66 years old yesterday. Telegrams were received from all quarters, conveying congratulations and good wishes.

Sir Wilfrid is in the best of health and spirits and celebrated the day in characteristic manner, that is to say, at work in his office in the Western departmental block.

HOTEL LICENSE FOR SAPPERTON WANTED

Petition is Being Circulated Among Residents, But Many Oppose Movement.

A proposition to establish a hotel in Sapperton is again in the wind, and bids fair to get as far on the way towards development as the licensing commissioners at least.

The responsible party is a Sapperton old-timer, who believes that a hotel would fill a long-felt want in Sapperton, as well as bring compensation to himself. He is circulating a petition among the ratepayers of that district, and if a sufficient number of names can be secured, the petition will be laid before the licensing commissioners at their next meeting. According to the recently enacted Liquor Licensing by-law, the endorsement of a majority of the ratepayers of the district in which the promoter proposes building a hotel is required before the petition can receive the attention of the licensing commissioners.

It is confidently affirmed by persons who should know, one of whom is Alderman Garrett, that the promoters will never be able to induce enough taxpayers to sign his petition. Ald. Garrett stated yesterday that he had been asked to support the petition for a license, but he intended, on the contrary, to oppose the movement to the best of his ability. He held that Sapperton, notwithstanding the increased number of industries and the growing need of accommodation, did not need a hotel.

The circulator of the petition reports that he will erect a building, first-class in every way, to cost not less than $20,000.

GRANT FOR DOMINION FAIR ASKED FROM CALGARY CITY

Calgary, Nov. 21.—As a result of a special meeting of the city council, which was attended by I. S. G. Van-Wart, president of the Exhibition board, and Manager Richardson, the city will submit a bylaw to the people to raise $35,000 for the dominion fair.

Manager Richardson gave a sketch of the estimated expenditure. The Dominion government grant for $50,000 carried certain stipulations. The grant must be used for equalizing freight rates for the exhibition from all over the Dominion. Special prizes over and above the regular exhibition, advertising outside of Alberta, and the cost of educational exhibits and additional attractions for the fair.

The grant from the provincial government was, he thought, to be given unconditionally.

The board would have to expend $40,000 on new buildings, and for this purpose they would have only $20,000. If the city should give $20,000 towards the buildings, the board would give them a written guarantee that it would put in $15,000 in permanent buildings, and another $5,000 in a temporary building, in which to accommodate visitors. After the fair the city will be given full posession of all the buildings, and thus will get back $40,000 for the $20,000 put in.

Mr. Richardson stated that the board intended to see that visitors had proper sleeping accommodation. They would put up a temporary building outside of the grounds and rent rooms and cots at a nominal price.

They were also endeavoring to secure the large number of tents which are used in the local military camp, and these would be placed all over the city, with boarding house people, and for private use.

New Westminster had spent $1,500 on advertising and $10,000 on music. Calgary would spend more on advertising and less on music. Westminster had raised $9,000 from local subscriptions, Calgary did not intend to ask any subscriptions.

The board suggested that the council appoint a committee to co-operate in expending the money.

Married, Not Murdered.

Calgary, Alta., Nov. 21.—Jacob Schneider, 65 years old, widower, whose mysterious disappearance a week ago created sensation here, was found in North Dakota, where he had gone to get married. His nephew, Leonard Shan, held by the police on suspicion of murdering the old man, was released.

CANADIAN PATROL BOAT FIRES ON AMERICANS

Put in Bay, Ohio, Nov. 21.—The Canadian patrol Vigilant today came upon two American fishing boats and a launch near Old Hen island. There were four men in the boats. The fishermen were ordered to surrender, but instead they hurried aboard the launch and set out for American waters as fast as they could go.

The Canadian government boat chased them a lively race for a time, but when the Vigilant sent a shot after the Americans which came dangerously near them, they surrendered and were taken aboard and later to boats fishing on the American side, and liberated.

The Canadians, however, kept the fishing boats.

GOVERNMENT LOANS TIED UP IN BANKS

Secretary Cortelyou Proposes Taking Drastic Action Against Gotham Shylocks.

New York, Nov. 21.—An acute difference has developed between Secretary Cortelyou and the banking instiests of the country. Secretary Cortelyou feels that certain banking institutions have not treated him fairly. In this feeling he is sustained by the President.

The administration has stepped to the front to save the financial situation. Instead of the men whose interests have been jeopardized co-operating fully with the government they have met the government's liberality it is charged, with selfish aggrandizement.

It is extremely probable that, within the next few days, several of the men who two weeks ago were figuratively on their knees to the secretary of the treasury will hear from him in no uncertain terms.

Briefly, the secretary believes, and this belief is shared by the President, that certain bankers, instead of utilizing the funds released by the government to relieve business stress, have diverted the money to build up cash reserves.

Others, it is said, have gone into the market to buy securities at panic prices, rather than apportion the money among the business interests that need it.

More than $200,000,000 has been released and placed in the banks. So large has the government been that the working capacity of the treasury is close to a point of impairment. In addition there is the decision to sell $50,000,000 of Panama canal bonds, and also to issue $100,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness.

When the Wall street financiers came to see Secretary Cortelyou, begging for this money, they declared that the legitimate business interests demanded that the crops must be moved, cotton exchanges arranged, and so on. It was with the idea that legitimate business interests were to be succored that the money was released.

A totally different situation has developed. The secretary has discovered that the banking interests of the country, instead of releasing the money for the need of actual business, are utilizing it in two ways.

First, where heretofore bankers had been contented to carry a flexible currency reserve of approximately 20 per cent, they now, in many instances, have increased their reserve to 35 and even 50 per cent. As fast as money has been loosened by the government it has been locked up by bankers.

Second, in many cases the banks have utilized the funds so provided to buy securities at panic prices, with the loans as collateral.

As a result there is no more money loose today for the business interests of the country than there was before the government started to render assistance to the crippled banking interests.

This fact is now realized by the secretary of the treasury and he feels he has been treated unfairly. What step he will take to remedy the situation can only be surmised. One method of retaliation is at hand:

The secretary can withdraw the deposits from the banks and the bankers who he thinks have acted unfairly. After he has stated his views to the bankers, if he finds them still recalcitrant he may take some such step.

PENITENTIARY WARDEN MAY BE J. C. BROWN

Ottawa Despatch Announces Appointment to Vacant Government Position.

Ottawa, Nov. 21.—J. C. Brown, of New Westminster, is to be warden of New Westminster penitentiary in place of the late Lieut.-Col. Whyte. Mr. Brown has been long identified with the interests of New Westminster and district and the public life of the province.

The above despatch was received yesterday, but no confirmation as to its authenticity could be obtained. Mr. Brown is at present in Victoria attending the sitting of the Fisheries commission, of which body he is a member, and up to yesterday evening had not heard of the appointment, although he knew that his name had been connected with the vacant office for several weeks past.

Since the death of Lieut.-Col. Whyte, the penitentiary has been under the charge of Inspector Dawson, who arrived here early in September in order to investigate the escape of four convicts from that institution.

BROODED OVER LOVE AFFAIR ALL THE DAYS OF HIS LIFE

Nanaimo, B. C., Nov. 21.—An old man named Martin was found dead in bed at a house in Northfield this morning. Death was due to heart disease. The old man had a magnificent house built years ago for the reception of a girl whom he was to marry, but the engagement fell through. The house has since been used for the keeping of cattle and fowl. Most of them had perished from hunger and thirst, since the old man's death.

BURN HAS RECEIVED PRIZE WON AT FAIR

Calgary, Nov. 21.—Arthur Burn has received a handsome $250 gold watch from the New Westminster Exhibition Co., being the trophy for the ten mile race he won there during fair time.

The watch is suitably engraved on the inside of the case, giving the date and place of the race.

Accompanying the watch was a letter from Manager Keary to Jimmy McEwan, stating that he was glad to send the watch to Burn and stating that he thought McEwan was too hasty in the remarks he had given to the Albertan for publication on returning from the coast. One point Manager Keary particularly objected to was the fact that McEwan had stated they received better treatment in Vancouver than in New Westminster. Of course, that is all a matter of opinion.

Both Burn and McEwan are entirely satisfied with the trophy and are of the opinion that such a prize is worth going a long way to win.

Farmer Outdoes Luther Burbank.

Wenatchee, Nov. 21.—W. B. Packwood expects to evolute a variety of potatoes that will enable a man to gather instead of digging potatoes. He is led to believe this by a strange experience he has had on his ranch in Central Washington. He has succeeded in raising immense potatoes on vines above the ground instead of by roots. One of the big fellows weighs four and three-quarters pounds. This product comes from the planting of potato seed that grew on top of vines last year.

Little Girl Dies from Burns.

Nanaimo, Nov. 21.—Little five-year-old Maud Gibbons, who died at Ladysmith yesterday, was the victim of a burning accident. She was sitting by the side of a bonfire on Saturday, when her clothes caught fire. Her father, who was in the house at the time, saw the accident and rushed out and tore the clothes off her back. The little one was badly burned, however, and gradually sank.

London, Nov. 21.—As a result of the scarcity of fodder throughout the county of Middlesex, cattle are being sold at almost sacrifice prices by farmers who are anxious to dispose of their surplus stock before the winter comes on. This condition is general around London. Good beef cattle are still in good demand, but stockers are being let go at prices heretofore unheard of.

PRAYERS AND PHONOGRAPH FAIL TO APPEASE STORM

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—The German steamer [illegible] which arrived today from Japan with a cargo of 3,800 tons of coal, was lashed during her voyage by a hurricane which sent mountainous waves awash her decks, carrying away every portable article and causing much damage. For two days in the middle of the Pacific her Oriental crew kneeled before their idols and prayed to their gods. An incident of the storm was the playing of a battered phonograph in the cabin. Capt. Frank gave orders to keep music in the air, and the familiar strains of "My Old Kentucky Home" could occasionally be heard above the roar of the tempest.

The Tolosan came in with a yellow flag and will probably be fumigated by the quarantine officials.

AMATEURS MEET WITH GREAT SUCCESS

"Don't Tell My Wife" Loudly Applauded by Appreciative Audience.

Produced under the able direction of James W. Evans as a benefit for the Women's auxiliary of the Royal Columbian hospital, the three-act farce, "Don't Tell My Wife," presented by a septette of local amateurs at the Opera house yesterday evening, proved to be one of the most enjoyable theatre events of the season, and the warm applause tendered the thespians by the appreciative audience removed from the footlight favorites any doubt that they might have entertained as to their ability to interpret Sidney Grundy's comedy in a suitable manner.

The story of the play, as is well known locally, hinges upon the boomerang brought upon himself by a practical joker of a husband, who foolishly thought that he was a match for woman's wits. As Felix Featherstone, the would-be master in his own house, James W. Evans, the only professional in the cast, appeared on the stage for the first time in five years. His long absence from the glare of the footlights had in no way impaired his ability to successfully interpret a difficult role, and it is a foregone conclusion that were he in New York at the present time, he would not be one of the three thousand tramping the Great White Way in search of work.

In the leading feminine role, Miss Jeannette Peele (Mrs. Featherstone) acquitted herself in a manner that showed the possession of considerable dramatic talent and also the ability to thoroughly toss any man that might interfere with her plans. Managing a husband is one of this lady's strong points, and her success last evening should be a happy augury for the future.

Miss Margaret Lewis, and Harry Davis, who acted the part lovers, both showed that their training for this had not been confined to the rehearsals held in St. George's hall, each having apparently been well supplied with willing partners in the past.

Penelope, the pert maid, found a clever impersonator in Miss Minnie Johnston, who introduced into the part a few mannerisms of her own which in no wise detracted from the effect. In the third act, Penelope is led to believe that she is about to be kissed by both Felix and Uncle John, but both decline. Miss Johnston is not used to being disappointed in this manner, but she acted the part well.

C. D. Peele, who was cast for the part of the cantankerous old Uncle John, made a great hit with the audience by his sage advice on the way in which a family should be conducted. Mr. Peele is competent to judge as to this, and it did not require great effort to carry out his part.

The musical numbers, "So Long, Mary," and "Wouldn't You Like to Have Me for a Sweetheart," interpolated betwen the acts, made a great hit with the audience, both the singing and acting being well up to the professional standard. J. W. Fleming as Dancing Dan, introduced some clever terpsichorean exercises during an interval.

The following ladies and gentlemen took part in the musical numbers: Misses Bilodeau, Pride, Heaton, Fletcher, Spring, McLeod, Emmett, King, Corrigan, Livingston, McLain, Wilkie, and Lewis; Messrs. Johnston, Gilchrist, Small, Stapleford, Mumford, and Bilodeau.

SEA HAS GIVEN UP ONE OF ITS VICTIMS

Lashed to the Boat, Body of W. Holdan is Found on Shore of Bowen Island.

The sea has given up one of its dead as a result of the awful experiences of the party of three who set out in a sailing boat from the mouth of the Fraser on Monday night, with the intention of sailing home to Vancouver, for the body of William F. Holdan was found yesterday on the shore of Bowen island. He was fastened to the boat, with his face contused and beaten almost beyond recognition from the battering of the waves. The body was found by J. Bowes, who has a camp on North Arm, and had been searching. The older man, named Hudson is still missing, and as he could not swim, a power which saved the life of Chapman, one of the three, it is feared that he has shared the fate of Holdan. The three men, with one other, had been on a shooting expedition to the Delta country, and there was a gale blowing when they started out from Steveston. The sailing boat capsized off Passage island, but they managed to turn it over and climb back after cutting away the mast. They drifted for three hours and ran up against the rocks off Bowen island, where all three attempted to jump to a rock, and Chapman only succeeded after desperate efforts. The others were swept back to the boat and drifted away. Holdan was 24 years of age and his family reside at 101 Dunsmuir street, Mount Pleasant. He was a member of C company of the Sixth regiment.

Dr. McIntyre Nominated.

Wetaski, Man., Nov. 21.—The Liberal convention for the federal constituency was held here yesterday. Dr. McIntyre, the present member, was re-nominated.

FIRE FIEND STARTS DISASTROUS BLAZE

Starting in Stable, Flames Are Mastered after Causing $144,000 Damage.

Winnipeg, Nov. 21.—A mysterious fire, which started in an old stable, probably of incendiary origin, also destroyed $144,000 worth of property last night. It burned an old warehouse belonging to Frost & Wood, implement manufacturers, then spread to Dyson's pickle factory, from which it jumped to the Rat Portage Lumber Co.'s sash and door factory and Merrick & Anderson's track warehouse, all of which were completely destroyed. Only the excellent work of the brigade prevented nore serious damage. The C. P. R. Imperial Limited, westbound, had to be held two hours and a half.

The losses, together with the insurance, so far as can be learned, are as follows:

Dyson pickle factory, $800; fully insured.

Frost & Wood warehouse, $1000.

Rat Portage Lumber Co., sash factory, $25,000; stock, $85,000; insurance, $100,000.

Merrick, Anderson, warehouse, $5,000; stock, $25,000; insurance, $20,000

Other minor losses, $2,000.

Brandon, Nov. 21.—A disastrous fire occurred here last evening at 11:30, the loss of which is placed at over $20,000. The scene of the fire was in Campbell & Campbell's big brick block, Rosser avenue. The stock was valued at $75,000, and of this about $30,000 insurance was carried.

Consistory Postponed.

Rome, Nov. 21.—The Pope has expressed his intention to postpone until January the consistory which it seemed to be established was to take place in the middle of December. Nothing definite is known regarding the creation of new cardinals, but it would seem that only a few Italians will be created.

ABOUT THE PLATFORM.

The Colonist is quite blithely sarcastic in its comments on the Liberal platform which was drawn up at the recent convention in Vancouver. It would not be worth while to follow the organ through all its criticism of the platform; one or two samples of its style will be quite sufficient. It says:

"We do not know that we ought to say of it (the platform), as was said of a certain other deliverance: 'It contains things which are new and good; but the things which are new are not good and the things which are good are not new.' At the same time such a characterization of it would not be very far astray."

This is, of course, quite too awfully clevah, doncherknow; but it is always easy to draw on one's memory for smart sayings which can be used in criticism of a plain, unadorned business statement, such as a political platform. When such a platform happens to be that of a Liberal party in British Columbia, it follows as a matter of course that much of it will not be new, because, in the first place, Liberal principles are fixed and permanent; and in the second place, Tory abuses and Tory malfeasance are, unfortunately, far from new things in this province. Naturally, therefore, a platform which seeks to apply the fixed principles of Liberalism to the persistent abuses of Toryism in British Columbia, must contain a lot of matter that, being, as the Colonist acknowledges, good is not new.

Another characteristic utterance of the McBride organ is this: "Another (plank) alleges that certain corporations do not pay their taxes." Then, a little further on the comment: "The allegation in regard to non-payment of taxes is somewhat affected by the fact that it is not true." But it is the Colonist's version of the "plank" and not the "plank" itself, which lacks the essential element of truth. The "plank" says that certain corporations do not pay some taxes which they should pay, and that is notoriously true. By the way, this trick of garbling public documents is becoming a very common one with politicians and political papers which support the McBride government. They seem to have discovered that the truth will not serve their purpose.

THE ORIENTAL COMMISSION.

It is a matter for congratulation that the Dominion government has in its service so able a deputy minister of labor as Mr. Commissioner King is proving himself to be, and that regardless of political strife, the whole community appears to have confidence in him.

That he will hew to the line, no matter who falls in the process, is now certain, and a reluctant or halting witness, from whom the truth has to be dragged inch by inch, will have no mercy at his hands. The comission of enquiry was created to ascertain the whole facts, so that the Japanese and Dominion governments can deal with the trouble intelligently and effectively, and if with the large powers with which the commissioner is invested and the almost unlimited scope he has been given, the main points of which he has outlined, fails in any measure to elicit all the evidence, then we think the commissioner will not be blamed, but the responsibility of failure will rest with those who smother up a bad business in which the agreement with the Japanese nation has been evaded in letter and spirit, being circumvented by combinations far removed from the confines of control of both of the high parties to the agreement. Let the enquiry have the fullest scope and let everyone who has any evidence pertinent thereto, aid the commissioner to get possession of the facts.

It is stated that the McBride government has renewed for another term the engagement of J. P. Babcock, provincial commissioner of fisheries. We confess that we do not know what Mr. Babcock's duties are, and it is therefore possible that he may be a very useful official in some way, but that way certainly is not along the lines of the protection or betterment of the fisheries of British Columbia. There is the Seton lake hatchery, it is true, but it does not appear to have hatched anything of much value so far; and there is an annual report which contains more or less interesting obiter dicta about fish and recommendations for the protection of sockeye, but these are either impracticable or useless as a means towards the end in view. We take it for granted that Mr. Babcock's reappointment has the full and cordial approval of Thomas Gifford, M. P. P., of J. D. Taylor, and of the Columbian; for all the ways and works of the McBride government are faultless and lovely in their eyes.

The statement that the Intercolonial (or any other railway for that matter) cannot, with a given number of cars, handle as much business in six days as it could in seven, is not exactly of a nature to excite astonishment. Most of us, in fact, had quite made up our minds before we heard anything about these railway troubles, that six was a smaller number than seven, and to find the fact gravely advanced as an argument against the Lord's Day Act is apt to excite a feeling of amusement. It is noticeable, however, that when the right of "business" to follow its own devices is to be defended, no argument is too silly for use, nor is any way of attaining the end too roundabout.

We observe in one of the McBride papers a defence of the Hon. G. E. Foster, who, as we noted the other day, is an advocate of the free admission of Orientals. It is, of course, quite natural that the McBride organs should side with him, as there is abundant evidence that the government at Victoria is of the same mind. Just what the individual opinions of the members of the McBride government on this Oriental matter may be, we do not know; but everybody knows that the government as a body is the mere creature of certain corporations which are advocates of "cheap labor," and that it must do as its masters direct.

Great Actress in Original Drama.

There seems to be no doubt as to the emphatic hit Sarah Truax has made in her new play, "The Spider's Web," an original three act drama by John Hutchins, in which are said to be combined those salient features, serious sentiment, sparkling wit and brisk humor. There is a charm to the drama which particularly appeals to the American spirit and which displays its artistic and poetic beauties, as well as the force of its dramatic appeal. Such a play should show Miss Truax at her very best, and increase her already great popularity. "The Spider's Web" calls for a company of artistic players, and these John Cort is said to have supplied, as well as magnificent scenic settings. Miss Truax will be the attraction at the Opera house Tuesday night, November 26.

It seems as if Thorleif Larsen, the winner of the Rhodes scholarship, will soon be as popular at Oxford as he was in Toronto. Word has been received in this city that he has been elected president of the Rabbit club. This club, the members of which are some of the best men in Exeter college, is named after a stair-case which is called the "Rabbit Warren," on account of its tortuosity. Mr. Larsen is simply delighted with Exeter college. He thinks Oxford is the most beautiful city in Europe, and England the finest country in the world.

COOPER IS BLAMED FOR BRIDGE CRASH

Engineer Used High Stresses Without Authority from Company or Government.

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.— The royal commission named by the Canadian government to investigate the cause that led to the collapse of the Quebec bridge on August 29, was last night made public.

Theodore Cooper, of New York, the consulting engineer, in his testimony, given before the commission in New York, intimated that the engineers in charge of the work at the bridge site were incompetent and declared that the expenditure of $100 and three hours' labor the weakened part of the structure could have been braced up until permanent repairs were made, and the structure saved.

Mr. Reeves explains that Mr. Cooper made modification in the units of stress. Ordinarily engineers use 12,000 to 15,000 pounds to the square incn, as the basis or unit of stress in determining the amount of metal to be put into each member in a bridge, but in the Quebec bridge, according to Mr. Reeves, Mr. Cooper increased this to 24,000.

"Such high stresses," he says, "had never before been used and when using them he acted without authority of the Quebec Bridge Co., or the Dominion of Canada. The fall of the bridge is to be laid directly to the changes of stress as made by Mr. Cooper."

Synopsis of Canadian North-West Homestead Regulations.

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or sub-agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is rejuired to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).

(4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

(5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the agent for the district of such intention.

Six months' notice in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of intention to apply for patent.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

REPORT DEPLORES LAX SUNDAY OBSERVANCE

Memorandum Submitted to Attorney General Bowser Points to Violation of Law.

In the annual report of the executive of the Provincial Lord's Day alliance the action of the attorney-general of this province in refusing to sign indictments for prosecution of violators of the Lord's Day Act is severely criticized. The statement is made that his action has actually resulted in increase of labor and business upon the Sabbath. Further, the report states that the view that the attorney-general has the power to veto the law within the province has not been entertained by any other attorney-general in the Dominion, and that neither the attorney-general nor the cabinet of British Columbia has given public justification of this refusal to enforce the act.

The report is distinctly unfavorable to the sacred concert on the Sabbath, terming it "a subtle innovation and an insidious influence." The Sunday paper, too, is still "a feature of violation of law as well as an untoward influence of serious strength." But in the main the report states that the outlook for a stricter interpretation of the act is favorable. The report recommends that the alliance continue vigorously in its work of education as to the nature of the Sabbath, that citizens be urged to devote the hours of the day "to rest, to devotion, to spiritual improvement and to doing good"; that cases of infraction be dealt with by means of conference and persuasion and that the claims of the Lord's Day Act be confinually brought to the attention of the attorney-general.

The report comprises nine typewritten sheets and is altogether interesting reading.

Backed the Right Team.

Jack Cherry, for the past twenty years a resident of this city, is leaving this afternoon for a holiday trip to the Old Country, where he intends to spend the next three months visiting old-time friends and relatives. Mr. Cherry is reported to be making the trip on the proceeds of certain judicious investments which he made in connection with the visit of the Tecumsehs to New Westminster, he having always been a money-talks supporter of the home team. While in London he intends to look closely into the workings of the municipal board of works in order to compare the methods in vogue in the two countries.

S. O. S. Camp for Nanaimo.

The Rev. A. E. Vert, district deputy grand chieftain, and Aleck Adams, past grand chief and lord of the camp, of this city, have during the past few days been canvassing the Scotchmen of Nanaimo, Ladysmith and surrounding villages for the purpose of getting together a sufficient number to organize a Nanaimo branch of the Sons of Scotland fraternal society. Already a large number of names have been secured, and a meeting of the clans will be called in the Coal City next week for the purpose of organizing the new camp.

Judge Fined the Constable.

Toronto, Nov. 21.—Judge Riddell, who is getting a reputation as railroad judge, occasioned comment Wednesday by reproving Mr. Proudfoot, K.C., for using the slang phrase "thrown down." Yesterday he again came into the limelight by summoning the sheriff and ordering him to fine the constable a day's pay because he was not in court when his Lordship wanted the door closed. Deputy Sheriff Sutherland arrived in hot haste and was followed speedily by a host of constables.
