L SHAREHOLDERS ANNOYED AT DELAY

Who Bought Stock In rconi Wireless Propose tion - Circular Received ocal shareholders of the Marreless Telegraph company of have recently been holding a of private meetings for the of discussing ways and means ining satisfactory treatment the directors of the company. ncipal grievance of the local olders is that no stations have tablished on the Pacific coast, mpany having been delaying ction on one pretext and anor the past four years. Another is stated to take place next when definite action will be upon, and strong representaade to the directors of the y.

estimated that a sum ranging $25,000 to $30,000 was taken out Westminster by the fluent wery spielers engaged to sell y the Marconi people, and that s than $100,000 was charmed he pockets of the Vancouver, a and Nanaimo business men. hares sold at $5 apiece, this beir value, but according to the s tales told by the certificate ers, these same shares ought be worth anything from $5 up , and should have paid for lves many times over by the inaccumulated on the wonderful s that was to be made by the n company.

r many weary months of waitnd postponing action several on account of the rosy promises by the Marconi company, the tockholders have finally decidat the time for promises is past, e determined that the company either go ahead and fulfil the es which induced them to buy ock or shall refund them the paid for the certificates, plus st at the current rate. A large r of people bought stock who ill afford to have their money ide all these years, and there is e of the men induced to buy es not rue the day when the n tongued orator first appeared horizon with the tempting of f future wealth.

following circular which has sent to all local shareholders by D. Oppe, general manager of the any, gives in detail the reasons e delay in the construction of ns on the Pacific coast. It is nt, from the tone of Mr. Oppe's that he considers that the government is responsible for the delay, he local shareholders, of whom are over a hundred, are not rned with the political aspect of ase. They demand either an imate building of stations of the coast, and a corresponding ac on the Atlantic coast, or the reng of their money. Following is ircular referred to: entlemen: In reply to your enies regarding the company's busi generally and our views with re to the establishment of stations he west coast in particular, I beg to give you the following ination, which will, I hope, bring situation clearly before your mind. lieve that about two years ago n friends of ours pointed out the ability of establishing stations on west coast. We were unable to do then because the government's s regarding the establishment of ions were not definite, and we ives had as much development on hand on the Atlantic coast e could well carry out.

ront a year ago, however, the govment's ideas assumed a more de e character, and we have since time until quite recently been in ost continuous communication with authorities at Ottawa with re d to the erection of stations on the t coast.

hese communications, however, e recently abrupted suspended by government and I believe that it now the government's purpose to t the stations independently of company.

he government has, I believe, pursed apparatus in the States simto what we are manufacturing in ada and of identical character.

here exists today several contracts ween this company and the govment. The first one, concluded in 2, in so far as it refers to stations required by the government, regulates the conditions for their erection. In 1904, and subsequently, we have made several other contracts with the government, all based on the contract of 1902, but referring to certain specific stations referred to therein.

This contract of 1902 obliges the company to sell its apparatus to the government at fair and reasonable terms, fre of royalties, but gives to the company the option of erecting the stations itself if it desire to do so; the intention being to reserve to the government the right to erect stations cheaply if the company does not do so, and to give to the company, being a telegraph company, the right of erecting them itself at such places where the commercial business will justify its so doing, for the purpose of serving the requirements of both navigation and commerce.

On the basis of this contract, we made an offer to the government last year, when it was considering the erection of stations on the west coast, to erect them ourselves free of charge to the government, and to agree to an extended government control not embodied in the original contract.

At the time the company was in communication with the government with regard to the erection of stations, we were also in negotiation with steamship owners and other users for the equipment of vessels and shore stations with our apparatus, and eventually succeeded in making agreements with both the Grand Trunk Pacific Co. and the Canadian Pacific Co.

ROSE TEA.

Pretty Presentation of Volume of Poems to Mrs. Stevens.

On the eve of leaving this city for the purpose of taking up her permanent residence in Alberni, Mrs. A. C. Stevens was yesterday feted by the ladies connected with the West End Methodist church, who gathered together at the parsonage, Twelfth street, for the purpose of partaking of a rose tea, Mrs. Stevens being the guest of honor.

The gathering had been planned as a surprise by the ladies, and the first intimation that Mrs. Stevens had that something of a pleasant nature was about to happen was when one of the ladies rose, and after a neat speech presented her with a handsomely bound volume of Longfellows poems. Although this mark of esteem was quite unexpected, Mrs. Stevens was able to rise to the occasion, and made a suitable reply, dwelling more particularly upon the regret with which she was severing her connection with the West End Methodist church.

The parlor of the parsonage had been beautifully decorated with roses for the occasion, while draperies of of rose and pink adorned the room. Among the ladies present were Mrs. (Rev.) McGee, Mrs. W.Cummings, Mrs. J. R. Green, Mrs. Arthur O'Conner, Mrs. L. O. Henderson, Mrs. George Adams, Mrs. A. Hardman, Miss Davies, and others.

BOAT IS TOO SMALL TO ACCOMMODATE ALL

Beaver Has Capacity For Only 150 Women—Others Will Be Left Behind.

Owing to the fact that the steamer Beaver has been limited to a capacity of 150 passengers by the inspector, there will be a large number of people who were to be included in the trip left behind when the boat sails up the river on Thursday afternoon with members of the International Council of Women on board as guests of the local council of women. It is expected that over 300 members will visit New Westminster tomorrow afternoon, but not more than 125 of them will have the pleasure of a jaunt up the river. There will be a number of members of the local council on board, and the mayor and members of the city council have also been invited and will be in the company.

The visitors will be taken on a trip about the city after the return from up-river, and in the evening will be entertained at an At Home at the residence of Mrs. Hill.

The ladies are attending the meeting of the International Council of Women this week in Vancouver and between sessions many of them are endeavoring to see the chief points of interest on the coast. There are delegates in attendance from nearly all large eastern points.

ATHLETICS GIVEN SEVERE DRUBBING

Baseball Players Score Victory Over Vancouver Visitors---Score 4 to 2.

The New Westminster baseballers were there with the long drive again last evening at Queen's park, and it was up to the visiting Athletics of Vancouver to do all the explaining after the game was over. The word "long" is used here in a Pickwickian sense, and has no reference to time. In fact, if considered with a view to minutes, the drive was quite short, for the Athletics strolled leisurely on the field about 7:30, notwithstanding that the match had been called for 6:30 and before 8 o'clock some of them were asking off. They seemed to be anxious to bring the ordeal to a close as soon as possible, but the match was lengthened out until quite dusk, at which time Vancouver had wielded the bat five heats, and New Westminster had had but four innings. The score was 2 to 4 in favor of the locals.

Captain Stein was successful in getting his men placed to good advantage, and the positions were all well played. Spinks fumbled an occasional ball at short stop, and Ryall in center field ran under a flyer or two, but the latter's fielding was on the whole up to the scratch. The New Westminster battery was looked upon by certain members of the club in the light of a speculation, as it was considered that Sid Malcolmson would not be able to hold the various spits, drops, curves, etc., which A. Lewis is wont to discharge from his nimble left. There can hardly have been anything but an agreeable surprise for the uneasy ones, for the men worked very well together. Only once did Sid miss the ball at a critical time, and that was when W. Townsend trotted in from third on the catcher's miss. During the five innings the new battery struck out nine men, which is not a bad showing.

Vancouver opened the game at the bat, and made the locals sit up. Pierrot went to bat and drove the ball so far away that he got around to third, and was easily let in by Townsend who hit a fly and went down. Frost and Gunn were then fanned out in quick succession. The locals then had a chance at the home plate and Spinks leading off was caught out. Then came Sinclair who swatted the ball but was put out of business before getting to first. Stein and Ryall then each hit far afield and steered around the block to third and second, where they died because of a loosing hit by Lewis.

Vancouver did nothing in the second inning. R. Townsend and Forrest were each fanned out and Neilson was caught on the fly. Free was fanned in the local's second inning, Malcolmson was caught out and Price made a good hit but got no further than second, when Canfield was foiled as he was nearing the first bag, ending the inning. Pierrot got rattled when he came up to bat again, and reached first for the dust and then above his head. He was fanned, after which J. Watson landed once and got to second but in the meantime Frost and Townsend both went down before getting to first.

New Westminster did the bulk of its work in the third inning. With Spinks and Sinclair on bases, Ryall fanned and bounded for first, arriving safely while the catcher was looking for the ball back near the fence. The two men on bases came in, in the meantime making the first scores. Ryall also came in on a bat by Lewis.

Vancouver made their second score in the fourth, when Townsend circled the square. The other men were put out before getting to first. New Westminster scored again in the fourth Spinks getting around and being let in on a long drive by Sinclair, who bit the dust at third. He contended that he was not out, but the referee ruled otherwise. Two Vancouver men fanned in the last inning, and the other was caught before reaching first.

Joe Bilodeau umpired the match and handed out a fair deal to both aggregations. There were a number of objections from both sides to several of his decisions, but there was only one that was really bad, and he was generally commended for his work on the whole.

The attendance was larger than usual, and is increasing with every game.

DOUKHS TRAMP AGAIN.

Religious Fanatics, Wearing Nighties, Now Seek Warmer Climate.

Dauphin, Man., July 16.—About fifty Doukhobors, men and women, tramped into town last night, weary and footsore. They went through the streets singing and chattering, and took up a collection for food.

They are from the Thunder hill settlement, which they left a week ago with a hundred in the party. More than half deserted before they reached Dauphin. On Saturday they were at Garland, and arrived at Sifton on Sunday leaving Sifton yesterday morning.

They all wore blue and pink nightgowns and straw hats, their hair cut short. Their footwear was in bad shape, many having sacks wrapped about their feet. Only one or two can speak English, and stated that they were looking for a warmer country, but were leaving first for Winnipeg. J. A. Campbell, M. P. A., had an interview with them. Provisions were offered them by citizens, but the wanderers refused everything but bread.

Tolstoi Still Lives.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—There is no truth in the report which has reached Great Britain and the United States that Count Leo Tolstoi is dead. The count is in excellent health.

INSTRUCT DELEGATES TO PRESS FOR RIGHTS

President Barr Will Not Have Everything His Own Way In Settling Dispute.

At a special meeting of the New Westminster Lacrosse club held last evening in H. Ryall's office, a full discussion of President Barr's action in over-riding the New Westminster club's rights to have a part in the settlement of the Maple Leaf protest, took place, and the delegates to the meeting of the association, which will be held tomorrow evening in Vancouver, were instructed to make a stand against any attempts that may be made to sidetrack New Westminster. It was the concensus of opinion that President Barr's attempt at the last meeting to have the protest settled by a special committee, in view of the fact that the rules state a dispute shall be settled by the disinterested club of the league, was an insult to the New Westminster club, which the members are not disposed to let slip. The delegates to Thursday evening's meeting will be C. A. Welsh, A. Wells Gray, and Rev. J. S. Henderson, who will have Fred Lynch's proxy.

Representatives from the R. A. & I. society waited on the meeting and laid before it an offer of a certain grant for a series of lacrosse matches to be played at Queen's park during exhibition week. The club was given until tomorrow evening to accept or reject the offer.

On motion it was decided that all persons possessing property belonging to the club, such as trophies, pictures, etc. should be asked to return them to the secretary. It is the intention of the management to apply for space in the Carnegie library, and assemble the trophies and leave them permanently on exhibition there.

SMALLPOX SCARE IS THING OF THE PAST

Travellers from the State of Washington into Canada will no longer be required to give proof of their being vaccinated before securing admittance to King Edward's dominions. Yesterday the quarantine was removed, after having been in operation for several months.

Smallpox was reported in Whatcom County and stringent regulations were adopted to prevent its spreading into Canada. Every passenger from the affected district was compelled by the Canadian officials to furnish proof of vaccination. The lifting of the quarantine will remove a great inconvenience to travelers.

BIGGER AND BETTER SLOGAN FOR THIS YEAR

Exhibition Matters Discussed Last Evening --- Splendid Attractions Planned.

Important exhibition business came before the meeting of the board of control of the R. A. & I. society last evening in the mayor's office, such as the appointment of judges, the choosing of attractions for the entertainment of exhibition visitors, the allotting of space in the various buildings, etc.

Letters from the Nanaimo city band and the Summerland city band, offering to play here during the exhibition week were received and read, and were then passed along to the celebration committee to be dealt with.

Applications for space were received from a number of districts, and these were referred to the proper committees.

The expense accounts occasioned by the rebuilding of a number of cattle sheds were laid before the meeting, and these were ordered to be paid. Action was also taken with regard to freight rates on the district exhibits, which will be received at the fair, and the manager was also instructed to make the necessary arrangements for transporting the first prize district exhibit throughout the prairie provinces, as has already been proposed, for the purpose of advertising the agricultural possibilities of British Columbia.

With regard to the attractions in the way of sports which will be secured for exhibition week, it was arranged to have at least three lacrosse matches, one of which will probably be between the local seniors and one of the crack teams of Eastern Canada. Full arrangements for bringing a team from the east has not yet been made, but it is expected that the project will go through.

"The outlook is most promising, and there is every indication that the exhibition this year will be larger and better than ever," stated Manager W. H. Keary last evening after the meeting. "We have already applications for space from nine districts as against seven last year, and there may still be more than nine before the time for applying expires. There are also a number of new towns in Alberta which are preparing to exhibit, and we expect to receive more exhibits from the Kootenay district this year than heretofore," concluded the manager.

Those present last evening were: President T. J. Trapp, in the chair, W. R. Gilley, L. A. Lewis, C. A. Welsh and Manager W. H. Keary.

Gypsies Stranded in Mountains.

Geneva, July 16.—A party of twenty-two gypsies, men, women and children, are stranded at the top of the great St. Bernard pass owing to curious circumstances. On being expelled from Italy, they ascended the pass, intending to go to Switzerland, but when they had reached the top they were refused admission to Switzerland territory by Swiss gendarmes. Unable to return to Italy, as Italian gendarmes followed them to see them across the frontier, they are now camped at an elevation of 8,100 feet, unable to advance or retreat. They may freeze to death unless either Italy or Switzerland relents. The monks of St. Bernard are feeding them and lending them warm clothing, but they cannot be sheltered in the hospice because it is in Swiss territory.

A. W. Ellis returned yesterday from London, Ont., where he has been for some considerable time in the interests of the Laminated Wood company. While in the east, Mr. Ellis bought a large amount of machinery, which has been shipped, and is expected to reach here by the end of this week. Since his return from the east, Mr. Ellis has been consulting with W. Finch Page, the financial backer of the company. The prospectus of the company will be issued in the course of a few days.

Mayor Keary was back at his office again yesterday after a week's absence from the city, during which time he visited a number of eastern cities. When asked for news of his trip, his worship stated that he had nothing to give out at the present time, but would probably have something to say respecting his absence later. "There is something very good in sight for New Westminster, and I will give you the news when it matures," concluded the mayor.

ICE CREAM FETE.

Successful Garden Party at St. Patrick's Hall.

Over [illegible] gallons of ice cream were consumed at the garden party given yesterday afternoon and evening in St. Patrick's hall and the lot adjoining under the auspices of the ladies of St. Peter's parish. The hall and the temporary garden had been beautifully decked out with bunting and electric lights for the occasion, while the tables groaned with the weight of delicious viands temptingly displayed. An orchestra, consisting of a piano, violin and cornet, charmed the visitors during the evening.

A large number of parishoners, mostly of the fair sex, assembled to do honor to the good things provided, and so successful were the efforts of the ladies that the sum of $60 was added to the church exchequer when the receipts were counted after one o fthe most successful garden parties of the season had been brought to a close.

Boni Down and Out.

Paris, July 16.—The appeal of Count Boni De Castellane from the decision of the court on November 4 last, granting a divorce to the Countess Boni De Castellane, formerly Miss Anna Gould, was dismissed this afternoon and a final decree of divorce duly entered. Attorneys for the count made practically no contest.

RATHER BE MAYOR THAN M. P. FOR CITY

W. H. Keary Denies Rumor Ascribing Political Aspirations to Him.

In connection with a report which has gained some currency to the effect that His Worship Mayor Keary will seek the conservative nomination to represent New Westminster in the federal house, the mayor replied as follows yesterday when interviewed by a News reporter:

"I have no ambition to be a candidate for either the federal or the local house; have never thought of such a course, and would not accept the nomination if it were offered to me. So far as the honor of the position is concerned, I would rather be mayor of the city of New Westminster than a member of parliament. I am content to do my best in my present position, and when the people of New Westminster have found some person whom they think will fill the position of mayor better than I have done, it is their privilege to elect him. I have done my best in the interests of the city, and will continue to do so, but I have not the least intention of mixing in Dominion or provincial politics."

Cold Wave in Austria.

Vienna, July 16.—A sudden cold wave has struck Austria-Hungary and conditions are prevailing such as have not been experienced in 130 years. Ten degrees of frost were registered here yesterday. There is much snow in the mountain district. Summer visitors at mountain hotels are snowed in and the mountain railways are not working.

MAN WITH THE PAIL IS BLAMED FOR WRECK

Regina, July 16—Considerable mystery appears to surround the derailing of a C. P. R. engine which took place early Monday morning a short distance east of the Albert street crossing, an unidentified man with a galvanized iron pail being the central figure in the story as told by some of the C. P. R. employes.

According to one of these he was in the vicinity of Albere street crossing about 7 o'clock Thursday morning, when he observed a man who went to the switch and threw it. Believing that it as a man in the employ of the company, he tok no special notice of him at the time. A few moments later owing to the misplaced switch, a light engine, fortunately running at a low rate of speed, left the track at this point. The story told by another employe of the C. P. R. is almost identical with the foregoing. The man who is thus believed to have wilfully tampered with the switch is said to have been carrying a pail, but beyond that fact there seems to be nothing to point to his identification.

CHILLIWACK NEEDS "HELLO" SYSTEM

Prominent Men, Weary of Delay, Take Active Steps to Form Rival Line.

Chilliwack, July 16—The great need of a local telephone system for Chilliwack town and valley has long been realized, and on more than one occasion serious steps have been taken looking towards the organization of a local company to meet this need. Each time something has intervened to turn the promoters of the enterprise aside from the accomplishment of their purpose.

Last fall a movement was well under way, looking in this direction, but just then the B. C. Telephone Company got busy with their proposition for a local exchange and the enterprise was again abandoned. No sooner, however, were the local men out of the field than the B. C. Telephone Co. subsided into that deliberate and dignified pace which proverbially characterizes large bodies. First the poles were distributed along the streets, then after several months these were placed in position. Late in the spring a gang of men appeared with rolls of wire and the work advanced another stage. Since then no further steps have been taken to complete the task.

Weary with waiting, certain citizens have again put their shoulders to the wheel. A stock subscription has been circulated within the past week with very encouraging results, and a largely attended meeting of those interested in the formation of a local company was held in the Court House on Monday evening. Councillor T. H. Jackson occupied the chair and W. L. Macken was appointed secretary. The general scheme was outlined by S. A. Cawley, who stated that it was proposed to establish a rural system covering the entire valley. He believed that if a low rate were offered at least 300 phones could be placed. About 75 or 80 miles of line would be required and the probable cost of the entire system would be between $12,000 and $15,000. Mr. Cawley had laid the matter before the municipal council on Saturday and that body had pased a motion to put the necessary franchise by-law before the people.

Over $6,000 has already been subscribed, and there ought to be no difficulty in doubling this amount if necessary. Those who are back of the enterprise are confident of success and are determined that nothing shall turn them aside from its achievement.

WOMEN LASH WIFE BEATER.

Bound, Cast Into Lake, Tied to Post, Put in Dungeon.

Michigan City, Ind., July 15—Michigan City is the home of whitecaps. Joseph Geister, while drunk, hurled a brick at his wife, striking her in the neck. Neighbors chased him a mile, overtook him and administered an awful beating.

He was then tied hand and foot and thrown into Lake Michigan, from which he was rescued and ragged over the same course taken in his flight, to the front of his home. There he was tied to a hitching post.

Every woman in the vicinity obtained a switch and lashed his bare back until he cried for mercy. A rope was procured, but a squad of policemen prevented a lynching. Geister was taken to jail and confined in the dungeon. The police are baffled with Geister's case. Jail sentences have no effect on him.

Trouble Over Marconi.

Montreal, July 15—The Allan line steamer Corinthian has arrived in port, having come by the Belle Isle route, being the first steamer of the season to come that way. The fact was not known even to the head office in this city until the vessel docked, owing to the fact that it was impossible to communicate with land by means of the Marconi system, which as has already ben stated, has not so far this season been put in working order. The matter is now under severe protest on the part of the steamship companies an the Marconi people.

A garden party will be given on Tuesday afternoon and evening at Moody square, the social to be under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the West End Methodist church.

Swell Furniture.

The contract for furnishing the roms to be built in the addition to the Windsor hotel has been secured by Lee's Furniture emporium, through their manager, Fred W. Davis. The furniture will be of the very best, nothing but quartered oak being used, while the beds will be of brass, handsomely finished and furnished with Ostermoor mattresse.

CONTRACT IS LET FOR LULU ISLAND LINE

Actual Work Begins Next Week—Road Hugs River Bank.

Vancouver, July 16.

R. Marpole, general executive assistant of the Canadian Pacific railway, announced yesterday morning that the contract for the grading of the extension of the Lulu Island railway from Eburne to New Westminster had been awarded to J. B. Bright of this city. The contractor had been directed to proceed with the work immediately, and press it to completion at the earliest possible moment.

Camps will be established along the line next week, and actual work begun. It is expected that the job will be completed by the end of December.

This announcement advances another step the plans of the Canadian Pacific railway and the British Columbia Electric Railway company for a joint operation of lines through the suburbs of Vancouver. The Eburne-Westminster line route was surveyed last year, and extends along the North Arm of the Fraser, hugging the bank as closely as possible for the entire nine and a half miles between the two points.

By an arrangement with the Canadian Pacific railway entered into at the time the Steveston branch was taken over by the British Columbia Electric Railway company, the latter will take over the road and electrify and operate it under the same conditions as those governing the running rights over the main line.

A further development incident to the operation of the new line will be the taking over by the British Columbia Electric Railway company of the operation of the Canadian Pacific railway branch from Westminster Junction to New Westminster.

The contractor is the same man who did a considerable portion of the work on the Nicola Valle yextension of the Canadian Pacific railway.

Pioneer Passes Away.

Kamloops, July 16.—John Jane, a merchant at Savona, died at that place on Monday last at the age of 74 years and four months. Mr. Jane was born at Lanbyrock, Cornwall, England, March 3, 1833, and in 1857 came to British Columbia with the Royal Engineers. He was engaged in the Boundary survey and ran a number of roads and survey lines in the lower Fraser district. Later he was with the Moberly survey, locating the line of the C. P. R. through the Selkirk and Rocky mountains, and afterwards was through Creek and Boundary country. About 26 years ago, he moved to Savona, and went into business there as a general merchant and succeeded in building up an extensive trade. About 18 years ago he married Miss McNeill, of Victoria, who survives him.

The late Mr. Jane was well known in New Westminster, where he resided for a number of years after arriving in the city with the Royal Engineers. He owned property in Sapperton until quite recently.

Firebug at Work in East.

St. John, N. B., July 16.—A fire of incendiary origin yesterday caused $250,000 damage at Hartland. The blage started in Thornton's drug store. It is stated the place was saturated with oil, and the fire appliances had been tampered with. Besides Thornton's, Keith & Plumer's store, McMillan's book store, Orsen's hardware, Noxon's grocery, Chat's newspaper office, the post office, Masey-Harris agency, Perkin's monument, Miller's blacksmith shop Letson's harness store, Mayward's law office, McCormick implements, McLaughlin carriage agency, telephone building, Montgomery provision store, G. C. Watson, furniture, were all destroyed. The upper stores in many cases, were occupied as dwellings, and the losses are serious. A dozen other places were damaged including the big bridge crossing the river.

C. P. R. Employees Stole Goods.

Winnipeg, July 16.—The police now have four Canadian Pacific railway employees in cells on a charge preferred by the company of stealing freight from cars standing in the yards. Runyan and Erickson were arrested Saturday, and Orr and Hicks, two of their fellow-employees, were taken yesterday. It is estimated by officials of the C. P. R. that the operations of the thieves here are carried on by a gang of twenty-five, and most of them are under surveillance and likely to be arrested at any moment. The company estimates that thefts have been committed aggregating $3,000 a month.

THE WILD-EYED COLUMBIAN.

In the Columbian of Monday—we had thought of describing it as "the McBride organ," but however severely we may criticise that gentleman as a public man we should not dream of offering him such a gross personal insult as would be involved in even insinuating that he was in any way responsible for the article to which we propose to refer. That article appeared, then, in the Columbian of Monday. It is entitled "A Reptile of the Press," and while it is certainly sufficiently suggestive of snakiness, and sliminess, to be classed among the reptiles, we must confess that it reminds us more strongly of the yowling and spitting of an infuriated Thomas Cat.

One thing it does which its writer certainly did not contemplate. It bears strong testimony to the widespread influence of the Daily News. No doubt the consciousness that this paper is widely read and carries weight, while the Columbian is regarded simply as a sort of journalistic scandal-monger, had something to do with the fury which appears to have inspired the writer.

The ostensible purpose of the article was to accuse this paper of "lying," because it stated the fact that, while large numbers of people were present to welcome the premier home, both in this city and in Vancouver, the occasion was not marked by any special outburst of enthusiasm. That, we say, was the ostensible purpose of the article, but the sting of what was printed in these columns was not in that statement, but in the quotation from the London Times, which showed that the Daily News was right when it said, weeks ago, that the words "final and unalterable" would have been omitted from the amendment to the B. N. A. Act, if Mr. McBride had remained quietly in Victoria.

Detailed criticism of the article itself is hardly worth while. Professing great indignation that we should dare to criticise provincial public men, it in the same article and almost daily speaks of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, whom friend and foe regard as a high-minded gentleman, as he were a mere vulgar grafter. It describes fair criticism of the public acts of public men as "slander," and yet it names certain private individuals who are shareholders of the Daily News Publishing company (one of whom, by the way, is in Europe), and speaks as if they were each and all personally responsible for every word printed in these columns! Again, accusing this paper of lying, it prints a string of statements about persons connected with the Daily News, all of which, except the statement that some members of the staff were present at Saturday night's "function," are false, and it reiterates an old and stupied falsehood of its own invention about Mr. J. B. Kennedy, M. P.

There is one sentence in the article which we may appropriately quote: "What is there to be gained, beyond the gratification of personal spite, from the daily circulation of unprincipled trash of this kind?" That is a question which we have to ask ourselves after reading, say, four out of every five editorial articles in the Columbian. In this case, unless Dame Rumor is very much mistaken, the Columbian felt that there was something to be gained, beyond the gratification of its personal spite—although that motive is frequently all sufficient for it—by the publication of the article referred to. The thing to be gained was the warmer favor of the powers at James Bay who have promised, we are given to understand, that a nice fat government job shall reward the editor of the Columbian as soon as room can decently be made for him.

THE TRUTH HURTS.

The Columbian of yesterday's issue contains excerpts from the Vancouver papers on the reception given to the Hon. Richard McBride in Vancouver, but, as usual, disdaining anything that is honest, it omits to publish the following from the World although it does publish eight lines from that paper, to suit its own end:

"It is a sad thing to have to say, but the truth must be told, that the reception, to the Hon. Richard McBride on Saturday evening was a very poor affair compared with that which Prince Fushimi received but a week or two previous. And yet there are, just now at all events, more white people than Japanese in Vancouver. But the procession of last Saturday was more band than anything else, while that of the earlier occasion required neither sounding brass nor tinking cymbal to rouse it to enthusiasm. Possibly one per cent., possibly less, of the population of Vancouver received the thanks of Mr. McBride for 'this magnificent reception, joined in by all parties irrespective of political affiliations.'"

The above account must be true or else why does the Columbian quote from the World and held it up as an example to be copied.

It also quotes that nauseous write-up of the News-Advertiser commencing "When Caesar returned to Rome with captured subjects and hostages at his chariot wheels, he received no more royal reception than was accorded to Premier McBride"; language that absolutely holds up to ridicule the whole procession, and is apt to make the province the laugning stock of the Dominion.

Finally we are not the only ones that admire the colossal nerve of the Columbian in including itself among the "decent provincial press." It is well that it did so itself.

We have not, and we presume no one else has, the necessary imagination.

CIVIC JEALOUSIES.

The bickerings of other people are generally pretty good fun for the onlooker, and New Westminster people will find food for laughter in a quarrel which has developed between those coworkers in the cause of bad government, the Vancouver Province and the Victoria Colonist. The former has declared its conviction that Victoria "lives in a measure upon the recommendations of Vancouver," and that the people of the capital are "cursed by insularity and narrowness of view." Now it is beyond question that some dollars find their way into Victoria coffers because of Vancouver, so that the first statement, carefully qualified as it is, can hardly be denied in toto; and as for "insularity and narrowness," are there not narrow-minded people in all communities? But instead of looking at it in that sensible way, and telling the Province to take the beam out of Vancouver's eye before it bothers about Victoria's mote, the Colonist arises in wrath and hurls a column of recrimination at its Vancouver coworkers, declaring that the political influence of Vancouver is opposed to any broad policy of development, and that—"The trouble with the Province is that it is insanely jealous. It is beginning to realize what Victoria is certain to become, and it is endeavoring to injure this city in the opinion of those whom it is able to reach. We are glad to know that its influence is exceedingly limited."

A Siwash with the commanding name of Alexander Douglas and a bottle of Scotch booze in his hip pocket was coralled by Officers Geiser and Bourke last evening near the tram office, and led off to the police station. He affirmed as he was led away that he was only wanted for his money, but the officers denied that such ignoble designs lurked in their ample chests. Mr. Douglas will have a chance to square himself in the police court this morning.

CHINAMEN AND CREW CONSPIRE TO DEFRAUD

Thirteen Sallow Celestials Foiled In Attempt to Escape Head Tax.

Vancouver, July 16.—What appears to be a well organizer conspiracy for smuggling Chinamen into Canada has been discovered on board the C. P. R. steamer Tartar, and customs officials here are much excited over their find. What with $500 headtax and $1,000 fine to which the C. P. R. is liable are considered, it is reasonable to believe that the company's officials are also excited.

Thirteen Chinamen were discovered stowed away in the steamship Tartar yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. Some were found in the extreme forward part of the hold, while others were stowed away in the coal bunkers. Suspicion was aroused on Sunday night when several Chinamen were seen hovering around the ship in row boats. Strict lookout was kept all during the night and yesterday until the officers could make a thorough search.

About 5 o'clock the ship's crew were corralled on the upper deck in charge of Inspector McQinnon, while other officers made the search. The searching party consisted of J. M. Bowell, collector of customs; Chief Landing Waiter R. Aitken, Assistant Landing Waiter J. E. Fagon, Officers McKinnon, Cosgrove and McAllister.

After going over the ship carefully, three Chinamen were found in the forward part of the hold, and a continued search found ten more in the bunkers. Great excitement spread through the ship's crew as the search was being made, and it is believed that stowaway's fellow-countrymen were doing all they could to aid them to gain their freedom. When found the stowaways were grimy with coal dust and, needless to say, hungry, though none showed signs of extreme suffering from their long confinement, making it apparent that they had received some assistance from some of the crew. There was no luggage found. The Chinamen were taken to the detention sheds and will be held there until a steamer leaves on which they can be deported. Two of the Orientals were found to be great big six-footers, with every indication of being bad characters, and the officers feel that they have made a successful capture in not letting these thirteen stowaways get smuggled through.

It is reported that three more Chinamen were taken from the steamship Tartar this morning and placed in the large cell with the stowaways discovered yesterday. Officials will not talk regarding this wholesale stowaway scheme, and it is not given out authoritatively whether the three men, placed in the cell today are stowaways, or members of the crew held under suspicion of aiding the other men. Presumably though they are stowaways, or they would not be put in communication with those they had been aiding. The Chinamen detained are non-communicative, and even through interpreters are shielding those who were instrumental in bringing them here.

The customs house officers are making a thorough investigation, and developments may reveal a sensation in the plot to smuggle the Chinamen, as the stowaways were supplied with bedding and other luggage, which was discovered this morning. It is impossible for this number of Orientals to conceal themselves on board without the knowledge of some member of the crew, and officers are making a rigid investigation to place the blame where it belongs. It has been said that the steamship Tartar may be liable to a heavy fine by the customs.

Five members of the crew have been arrested and put in the cell in the detention shed, held on suspicion. Those under arrest are reported to be No. 1 fireman, the boatswain's mate, the carpenter's mate, the pantry man and one other.

John G. Copping, of Abbotsford, has applied for a record of 100 inches of water from a stream running through the S.W. quarter of section 21, township 16.

for the equipment of their vessels and shore stations. I regret to inform you that the action of the government has made it impossible for us to render the stipulated service which we have a right under our contracts with the government to agree to provide, and, as a consequence, we have been compelled to curtail our operations in connection with these contracts and may find it impossible to carry them out even in a restricted form.

I need hardly tell you that the west coast offers a field of the greatest possible value for the commercial use of Wireless telegraphy and that we wish to pursue the business of a telegraph company, as we are entitled to do, without resort to the law; but if the government disregards our rights you will, I am sure, agree with me that we have no alternative but to sustain them by proceeding against it if necessary.

Parliament can, of course, expropriate our rights and inventions, but both directors and shareholders must work together to take such steps as will result in the safeguarding of our rights or the payment of adequate compensation.

Yours truly,
(Signed) JOHN D. OPPE,

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

J. C. Brown leaves today for Victoria, where he will remain for some time attending the sessions of the fisheries commission.

Several carloads of Vancouver capitalists will arrive in the city today as the guests of the local real estate men, and while here will be conducted about the city and shown over the chief industries. The trip was planned by Messrs. Blair, Buchanan and Huff, who hit upon the idea of introducing outsiders to the city as the best means of convincing them of the advantages which New Westminster affords. It is expected that fully 300 people will join in the excursion.

Recent references to the appearance of smoke or steam issuing from the summit of Mount Baker has awakened a good deal of interest. One of the old timers recalls that about thirty years ago there were evidences of considerable activity about the old crater. Volumes of smoke were emitted and at a certain point the peak of the mountain seemed to fall in, leaving a flattened appearance with jagged edges. Ever since that time there have been manifestations of more or less heat at times. Mr. Dundas, of Chilliwack, has been continuing his observations last week with a good glass, and has noticed the appearance of a dark patch near the summit as if the snow had been melted away. J. O. Carlisle who is familiar with the district says that there are several places near the summit of Mount Baker where a certain amount of heat can be detected almost any time. Steam in large volumes rises from these spots at times. This doubtless explains the recently observed cloud-like emanations.
