C. P. R. LOCAL SERVICE IS NOT SUFFICIENT

Complaint Made of Inadequate Transportation Facilities—Instruction Needs

An interesting discussion on the transportation questions of this district, with reference to the C. P. R., took place last evening at the monthly meeting of the board of trade, the president, J. A. Cunningham, in the chair.

Among those present were Hon. W. Norman Bole, K. C., T. J. Trapp, D. S. Curtis, George Small, John A. Lee, H. Ryall, T. R. Pearson and A. E. White, secretary.

Poor Transportation.

A letter from the Port Haney Progressive association asking for support in their representations to the C. P. R. for a better train service between Westminster and the lower Pitt valley, urging that at present it was not possible to come here and return the same day, was received and led to a discussion on the need of better rail facilities.

T. J. Trapp said the C. P. R. seemed as if they wished entirely to ignore the town for Vancouver. He had spent half an hour for trains at Interurban junction, and it was easier to go from the junction round Vancouver, and thence by the interurban than the six miles by rail. He had heard it rumored that the main local would be put on again, and if so that would help the Maple Ridge people.

R. Bole said Westminster had always helped the C. P. R. years ago, and yet nothing was done to help us. There was not even a small platform or shelter at the station.

The chairman proposed that a strong committee should be sent to interview General Superintendent Bond and the new assistant passenger agent, C. H. Foster.

It was described the service given Kamloops in vivid language, and at a time when the delegation did attend it should not be put off because of promises made.

The mayor of the committee was to be the president.

A. Bole also urged something should be done with the C. P. R. for the extension of a boat service direct to Vancouver.

Continuation Schools.

A letter referred to the proposed building of the Y. M. C. A. and said it would be very beneficial to the young men. Much that was done, however, could be done by doing something with the present schools, to secure some of the rooms and teachers to make a beginning with evening classes, and was not along those lines? There were many young men in the city who were wishing something of a practical nature at their trades, but who required some theoretical training as well. It seemed to him incumbent on the community to do something at once.

T. Trapp said the matter was under consideration by the B. C. Mills at Roseistake, and locally Mr. Peck was very anxious to see something started. The Y. M. C. A. proposition was sleeping, but not dead. They hoped this year to make a start on the lot already owned on Royal avenue by the Y. M. C. A. trustees, and erect a simple building 66 feet by 132. Three parties had promised $1000 between them, and there were other promises of money. Columbian college had built a gymnasium, where his own boys attended, so that was only the beginning. They thought to get together committees of young men and boys and endeavor to obtain subscriptions through them. The site was a very good one, central to town and the schools.

Mr. Bole supported the idea, but no resolution was passed on the subject.

Weigh Scales for Lumber.

Mr. Small said the lumbermen's association were making efforts to secure scales to weigh lumber at Westminster Junction. At present they had to send to Mission, and he understood the C. P. R. company were moving those to North Bend. At present they had to take the company's word for the car weights.

The president mentioned that about 100 carloads of lumber were going out weekly from the city and district.

Communications.

J. S. Clute was elected a member of the board. The invitation of A. D. McRae to visit the Fraser River Sawmills this month was accepted with thanks, the date to be fixed later. J. W. Davis & Sons' letter, similar to one sent to the city council, with reference to the use of the city slips for landing, and their improvements, was referred to the municipal committee. A communication from the London chamber of commerce inviting the board to send a delegate to the meeting next fall at Sydney, Australia, and to suggest subjects for discussion, was read, and it is hoped the Westminster board will be represented at that great congress of commercial bodies. Later Mr. Small raised the question of the export of lumber from B. C. to Australia, and hoped that steps would be taken to make inquiries into market conditions. The president said a Westminster man, F. S. Cameron, was now in Sydney, and would be for some months. Arthur Malins resigned his position as member of the board, and it was duly accepted.

A letter from W. J. Brandrith, secretary of the B. C. Fruit Growers' association, asking for the support of the board to secure cheaper freight rates from the coast to the prairies, and from interior B. C. points to the coast, for B. C. fruit, was referred to the transportation committee. Correspondence with regard to the representation of Canada at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition was read and filed. There was nothing new in it. Permission on the usual terms of payment was granted the Westminster Co-operative society for the use of that room on Dec. 1 for a meeting.

The model bills of lading form of the Canadian Manufacturers' association was read by Mr. Lee and approved.

PRINCIPLES OF ORANGE ASSOCIATION REVIEWED

The Order and What It Stands for in Canada Explained by Grand Organizer Whiteley.

A very successful address upon the principles of the Orange order was given last evening at the Orange hall by Provincial Grand Organizer J. W. Whiteley. He was supported by County Master Scott in the chair, Grand Treasurer Clark and Grand Director of the Ceremonies Abercrombie. The meeting was open to the public. Mr. Whiteley in the course of his address referred to the position of the unfortunate Protestant in Quebec who was persecuted and denied the privileges allowed Roman Catholics in the other provinces. He went on to point out that the population of the province was fast dwindling, the land being at once taken up by the Catholics. The plan was to control parliament through the vote of the French speaking Catholics, and place on the statute books legislation which was not to the benefit of Canada as a whole. The sinister influence of the Roman Catholic power was seen in the forcing of separate schools on the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan. The Roman power sought to bring back a foreign control of the country. The Orange association stood for liberty of religion and the imperial connection, and he thought it was an association of which any body might be proud.

Addresses were given by the other visitors. A few musical items were rendered.

KAISER'S INTERVIEW MAY BE PUBLISHED

New York, Nov. 19.—A special cable to the Times from London says:

Reports are current in London that the suppressed interview with the Emperor William, after all, will be published shortly, of course without the concurrence of Dr. William Bayard Hale, who wrote the interview, the Century magazine, or the New York Times. It is said that copies of the article in the form in which it was to have appeared in the Century are in the hands of other parties, who are not likely to be deterred by a sense of responsibility or other scruples.

Heney's Condition.

San Francisco, Nov. 19.—The doctors at the Lane hospital in attendance on Francis J. Heney gave out a statement this afternoon that their patient was in a much improved condition, although he spent a restless night and was not allowed to receive visitors this morning.

YOUNG LIBERALS ORGANIZE WITH LARGE MEMBERSHIP

First Meeting Is Addressed by Several Prominent Local and Vancouver Speakers—Election of Treasurer Necessitates Three Ballots—Contest For Other Offices Was Keen.

In spite of strong counter attractions, the organization meeting of the Young Liberals of Westminster was well attended yesterday evening, a number of interesting speeches being delivered by local and outside residents. The election of officers, which was by ballot except in the case of honorary president and secretary, resulted in the following being selected to guide the destinies of the Young Liberals:

Honorary president—Robert Jardine.
President—Sid. Malcolmson.
Vice-president—K. C. Brown.
Secretary—P. W. Luce.
Treasurer—C. B. Deans.
Executive—Ed. Savage, D. Walker, E. Bridges, Ed. Hughes and Frank Reichenbach.

For the presidency, three names were mentioned, P. W. Luce, D. Walker and Sid. Malcolmson. The latter won easily on a ballot being taken, getting a clear majority over the other two candidates.

For vice-president, three candidates were in the field, K. C. Brown, D. Walker and T. F. Phillips. The first named was elected by a good majority.

When nominations for the secretaryship were in order, only one name was mentioned, that of P. W. Luce, he being accordingly elected by acclamation.

The call for nominations for the position of treasurer brought out three candidates, C. B. Deans, Ed. Savage and T. F. Phillips. Dave Walker, who was nominated for the position, voluntarily retired. The contest for this post was keen and evenly contested, three ballots being necessary. Mr. Phillips was defeated on the first vote taken, the second election resulted in a tie for Savage and Deans, with three spoiled ballots, which the third gave Deans the small majority of two votes with one spoiled vallot.

Messrs. Deans, Malcolmson, Bridges and Walker were elected a committee to meet representatives of the senior association with respect to the selection of suitable rooms for the headquarters of the new association. A meeting between the representatives of the two associations is to be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Liberal club rooms.

A special committee, consisting of P. W. Luce, Sid. Malcolmson, K. C. Brown, Ald. J. J. Johnston and Ed. Savage, was named to revise the constitution provisionally adopted by the meeting.

The meeting was called to order shortly after eight o'clock by Sid. Malcolmson, who was voted to the chair, P. W. Luce acting as secretary pro tem. In his opening remarks, Mr. Malcolmson pointed out the necessity of better organization among the Liberals in the Westminster district, holding out the hope that the constituency would be redeemed at the next election if all interested would only "get busy." A short reference to the political situation at the present time concluded Mr. Malcolmson's address.

H. A. Eastman, the first speaker called upon, touched upon the cosmopolitan character of Canada's present day population, together with the opportunities which this land offered to young men of ability and energy, special reference being made to the undeveloped agricultural resources of the fertile lands of B. C. The determination of young men to take a more active part in the political life in this constituency was looked upon as a happy augury, more especially when the spirit of optimism with which the younger element was setting about the organizing of a society was considered. Mr. Eastman pointed out that, being elected by the people, the legislatures would reflect the character of the people in a truthful manner. After pointing out that the dissolution of the youth of Greece, Rome and Egypt had resulted in the downfall of those nations, the speaker showed that a similar fate would overcome Britain if like conditions governed. It was the duty of the young men to take an active interest in politics; an association such as they were forming would tend to broaden the mind of those taking part in it, and while he considered that the advice of the members of the older association would always be welcome, he would advise the young men to conduct their organization with as little outside assistance as possible. After referring to the heterogenous population of Canada and the necessity of combating of yellow influx incessantly, Mr. Eastman closed his address with some sound advice to the new association.

G. E. McCrossan, president of the Vancouver Young Liberal association, who was next called upon for a few remarks, delivered one of the best speeches of the evening. He detailed the progress of the Vancouver Young Liberal association since the organization meeting a few short years ago until the present time, incidentally mentioning that he expected to see a membership in the Terminal City of several thousands before the next year had rolled away. He considered that New Westminster should make a good showing along this line, as whatever the Westminster boys went after, they generally got, a truism which met with the approval of the audience. Mr. McCrossan traced the growth of the Young Liberal association from the stirring days of 1896 down to the present time, pointing out that some of the young men who had first taken an active interest in politics in '96 were now classed among the most prominent statesmen of the day, instancing Mackenzie King as a notable example.

The objects of a Young Liberal organization, the speaker contended, should be twofold, political aspirations and educational work. The value of a Young Liberal association as a means of bringing out speakers and debaters was pointed out. While whist parties and pool tournaments might be all right, debates and mock parliaments could do infinitely more towards assuring the success of the party when the elections came around.

During the recent campaign, the Conservatives had made a great fight on the graft question. The speaker did not deny that graft might exist in some branches of the civil service; but he contended that it had never been proved that Sir Wilfrid Laurier or any of his ministers had made a dishonest dollar because of their position. It was up to the young men to use all their influence towards securing clean candidates when the elections came around. The legislature would not rise above the status of electorate, no matter what arguments might be put up. Mr. McCrossan closed an excellent speech by advising the young men to take a decided stand on pure elections, a sentiment which was cheered to the echo.

H. Ryall, who was next called upon for a few remarks, traced the history of Liberalism in Canada from the days of W. Lyon Mackenzie onwards in a concise speech, in the course of which he declared that it was brainwork and not merely oratory that made the statesman.

E. E. Teetzel, another Vancouver Young Liberal, declared that no man need be ashamed of the record of Liberalism in Canada. He pointed out that speeches alone would not make for the success of an organization, and for this reason urged the electing of workers to the responsible positions in the gift of the association. In his opinion, now was a good time to get into harness, because he was confident that a provincial election would be imminent before eighteen months had rolled away. In Vancouver most of the hardest workers in the recent campaign had been found among the Young Liberals.

A. E. Kellington, president of the Westminster Liberal association, advised the young men to get to work immediately. Entertainments were all very well in their way, but elections could not be won by billiard tournaments and whist parties.

Mr. Shinn, another member of the Vancouver Young Liberals, having addressed the audience on the importance of organization work, using an amusing story as an illustration, A. Hardman was called upon for a few remarks. The latter dealt with the need of district organization, suggesting the advisability of holding a district convention at Chilliwack or Westminster in the immediate future. The speaker declared his firm belief in the magnanimity of the Liberal government, which would not make this district suffer because it had sent an opposition member to represent it in the House.

Ald. J. J. Johnston voiced his pleasure at being present at the organization of a Young Liberal association. He considered that it was incumbent upon the young men to take a more active part in the politics of the nation; their fathers in years gone by had started the good work, and it was up to them to continue it. He was proud to be associated with a party which was respected by even its bitterest opponents. He assured the young men that they would always have the support of the older organization in whatever work they might undertake.

R. J. Deachman, of Vancouver, instanced the work of Laurier as the grandest in the history of Canada, and pointed out that in centuries to come the great statesman would be revered as the one man who had done more than any other to give Canada that recognition to which she was rightfully entitled. The need of continued educational work among the young men was dwelt upon at some length by the speaker, who made a most telling speech in support of his contentions regarding the power of a young men's organization.

Quite a number of names were added to the membership list yesterday evening, over fifty having now voluntarily joined the association. It is expected that the membership will be largely increased in the near future, as a strong membership committee is to be appointed at the next meeting.

AEROPLANIST WRIGHT HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Lemans, Nov. 19.—Wilbur Wright, the aeroplanist, had a narrow escape yesterday from serious injury in an accident similar to that which happened to his brother Orille at Fort Meyer some weeks ago.

The chain attached to one of the propellers broke when he was making his second flight yesterday afternoon and the machine began to turn over. Wright, with marvellous presence of mind, re-established the balance of the aeroplane by leaning to one side and cutting off the motor, descending in safety.

TRAIN DERAILED; FIREMAN KILLED

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—One man was killed and another severely injured as the result of a derailment of a G. T. R. freight train which occured shortly after 6 o'clock last night. The train was going over the switch entering the Elgin street yards of the G. T. R. when it is thought a defective frog caused the engine and nine cars to run off. Fireman Davie of Madawaska was killed and Brakeman Dean of Montreal was injured.

SCHMITZ MAY HAVE TO RETURN TO JAIL

San Francisco, Nov. 19.—The loss of one of his bondsmen is possible in the case of former Mayor Eugene Schmitz, now out on bonds of $160,000, which were furnished jointly by William J. Dongee and Thomas H. Williams.

Dongee's finances are said to be involved, and he is cited to appear on Saturday for examination as to his continued qualification as bondsman.

Bethune Will Retire.

Vancouver, Nov. 19.—While he has not yet made any official statement it is understood that Mayor Bethune will not be a candidate for mayor for a third term. When seen this morning his worship said that he had no statement to make, but that an official announcement would appear in the near future. This will probably mean a decided re-arrangement among the backers of mayoralty candidates.

Winnipeg, Nov. 19.—Lord Northcote and party, who have been spending a few days in the city, left for St. Paul last evening en route to Montreal.

IRISH MEMBERS VERY DOWNCAST

American Patriots No Longer Contribute Largely Towards Party of Militants.

Dublin, Nov. 19.—The Irish party is in the worst financial condition in years. It is doubtful today even whether the present number of Irish members can be long maintained in the House of Commons.

John Redmond is greatly downcast by his annual American pilgrimage. When the Irish party was at the height of its popularity the leaders always reckoned on returning from the U. S. with liberal contributions to their cause. This year, instead of the $1,000,000, which total has sometimes been reached, Redmond and Devlin came back with a meager $36,000. Moreover, there is practically no hope of funds from any other source.

The leaders realize that without American support the party could not hold its own for six months. They acknowledge that in the face of the present apathy, they can support not more than twenty members of parliament. Each member costs at least $1500 annually and the eighty therefore require a minimum of $120,000.

With its present resources the party can continue its existing strength for about one more year. If money is not forthcoming from America at the end of that time it must reduce its represention by at least half.

LEMIEUX ACT BEST FOR INDUSTRIAL PEACE

Toronto, Nov. 19.—Converted to faith in its utility by his experience of its operation as chairman of several conciliatory boards, Prof. Shortt in an address before the University club last night said he regarded the machinery of the Lemieux act as being the best legislative effort ever made with the object of preserving industrial peace.

POLAR BEAR SHOT MANY MILES FROM LAND

Tacoma, Nov. 19.—An enormous polar bear was found swimming in the waters of Bering sea, seventy-five miles from land, by Capt. A. M. Baker and his party on their recent trip into the Arctic regions. The animal was evidently lost and was swimming directly away from land when discovered.

Capt. Baber made attempts to take it alive, for the conditions for such a move appeared good. The bear was unable to do much in the water beyond swimming and keeping afloat, and it was planned to rope and hoist it aboard the vessel. But the difficulties of finding anything strong enough to imprison the great shaggy animal and the danger of it roughhousing the entire ship and driving captain, sailors and the Eskimos for the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition into the water made them give up the plan.

The bear was finally shot by Capt. Baber and its body hoisted on deck. It measured nearly ten feet in length. The skin has been sent to Fred Edwards here for mounting. Edwards, who is well informed upon the habits of the animal, is astonished at the great distance it was found from land. He says it had evidently gone adrift upon an ice floe and, driven into the sea by starvation, had lost its bearings.

Death of James Hutchinson.

The death took place at the Royal Columbian hospital this morning of James Hutchinson of typhoid fever after several days illness. He was about 29 years of age, and had been in British Columbia for some years. He was born in Norfolk county, Ontario, and is survived by brothers and sisters resident in that province. The deceased formerly worked for the B. C. Cold Storage company, and was well known in the district.

Melbourne, Nov. 19.—The Victoria legislative council has passed the bill empowering women to vote at state elections. This bill has been previously rejected several times. The women of Australia have now won the right of the suffrage in both commonwealth and state elections.

DISTRESS RAMPANT THROUGHOUT GERMANY

Conditions in Different Trades Described as Desperate - Outlook Is Gloomy.

Berlin, Nov. 19.—From all parts of the empire come more serious reports of unemployment. It is not confined to the north or south, but apparently all industrial regions are affected.

In the Soziale Rundschau there is an account of general depression in the building and allied trades, showing that in these industries unemployment is infinitely more serious than in any recent year.

The important industry of ready-made clothing, including ladies' mantles, underwear, etc., which employs hundreds of thousands in all the large cities of the empire, is in a very bad condition. Everywhere complaints are heard of lack of work, and wages have been reduced still further in the numerous home industries. In all branches of the textile trade the condition of affairs is described as desperate.

The same complaint comes from Silesia, and from the western provinces, from Vararia as well as from the north; and the state of affairs is not yet at its worst in Silesia. For example, in most of the factories the week's work has been reduced to four days, and the number of unemployed grows larger every week.

Already extensive measures have been taken, not only in Berlin, but in almost every industrial town in Germany, to assist the workless, the municipalities everywhere being urged to advance public works some weeks so as to find work for as many unemployed as possible. All the authorities are agreed that the outlook is exceedingly gloomy.

London, Nov. 19.—Hon. R. G. Tatlow and W. E. Efforts will be made by Hon. Mr. Tatlow this winter to direct the tide of immigration next spring westward.

THE STAGE

"On Parole."

With the presentation of Louis Evan Shipman's great military story, "On Parole," tonight, the patrons of the Opera House are to have their first glimpse of a play that has been made notable by being produced by Henry Miller at the Majestic theatre, New York City, with Vincent Serrano and Charlotte Walker in the leading roles.

In securing it for the Northwestern circuit, Charles A. Marshall has secured Willard Mack and Miss Maude Leono for the two principal roles originated by the two artists mentioned above, (Mr. Serrano and Miss Walker.

It has generally been conceded by the eastern public that the performance given of these two parts by Mr. Mack and Miss Leono have been quite as satisfactory as were given by the originals.

"On Parole" is a vivid, thrilling story of the Southern Confederacy, that absorbs the listener and divides his sympathies between Major Dale (Mr. Mack), the Union officer, and Constance Pinckney (Miss Leono), the Virginia gentlewoman, both struggling to do what they consider their duty, in spite of the great love which has sprung up between them.

Mr. Mack and Miss Leono, surrounded by a most capable company, are coming over their territory for the first time with a complete production of this most cleverly constructed drama of those much to be regretted days of '61-65.

Mr. Willard Mack, as Major Dale (U. S. A.) in "On Parole."

WOMEN CAVALRY CORPS TO BE FORMED

Wilder Schemes Than Ever Planned by Suffragette Union in London.

London, Nov. 19.—Active plans were begun for the formation of a troop of women cavalry for the purpose of aiding in the breaking of police lines during suffragette demonstrations. A fund of $250,000 has been voted by the Women's Social and Political Union and the greater portion of it will be used for concerted attacks upon the houses of parliament and the residences of its members hostile to suffragette legislation.

The dates fixed for the various rushes and raids are kept secret for the present. The members, however, have been warned by the officers of the union that there must be no "false politeness."

Public meetings will be held and at the elections every effort will be made to defeat Liberal candidates. The prediction is made today by members of the union that within a year the franchise will be given to all English women.

The 1909 suffragette campaign, just outlined, is to be the fiercest the union has ever waged. Minor changes will be made from time to time as emergencies require, but the main features of it are as follows:

A fund of $250,000 for an active campaign.

The breaking up of every meeting at which a cabinet member is to speak.

Continual raiding of the houses of parliament whenever the national legislative body is in session.

Incessant "rushing" of the ministers, in their own homes, at their offices and whenever they venture out of doors.

It is proposed to issue the stock on the instalment plan, 20 per cent. upon application, and 20 per cent. monthly until fully paid.

The property the Company proposes to take over is known as Timber Berth No. 400, and situated on Pitt Lake, covering an area of 214 acres tributary to New Westminster and also two mineral claims situated in the middle of said property, covering an area of about 3000 feet by 1500 feet wide, and known as the Silicon Mineral Claim No. 1, and Silicon Mineral Claim No. 2, which when Crown granted entitles the Company to all the mineral rights therein under the Laws of the Provincial Government of British Columbia. The timber berth covers all the rights to all the timber thereon the said area mentioned which has abundance of timber to supply the plant with fuel and timber for many years to come.

The property is situated adjacent to the shore of Pitt Lake which is a distance of about twenty-eight miles from the City of New Westminster, and affords navigation all the year round for steam boats and river boats and barges and has an ideal harbor where the said plant will be erected to operate on the ground. On this property there is a large deposit of clay of a cement nature which is very accessible, the bench of clay being over fifty feet high above the level of the water, which affords easy access to excavation. The clay bank mentioned is between 2000 and 3000 feet long by from 300 to 800 feet wide and affords a natural incline for transportation from the bank to the plant which will be a distance of about only 400 feet from the lake shore. The clay has been thoroughly tested by the Berg Machinery Manufacturing Company, of Toronto, which was reported on in report hereto as follows by H. P. Naylor.

The Pitt Lake Brick & Cement Company, Limited, New Westminster, B. C.

Gentlemen,—I hereby beg leave to report to you that I have on the 4th day of October, 1908, examined the property above mentioned in your prospectus on Pitt Lake and have found the material on the property to be the same as that sent to us for testing by Mr. E. J. Fader, of New Westminster, which has given the following results, that is to say: Some few months ago samples were sent to our Toronto plant by Mr. E. J. Fader for testing. We found on analysis that this clay contained properties of a very unusual nature containing almost every mineral necessary for the making of Portland Cement. We found by drying in a rotary kiln and pulverizing and pressing that we could make brick from it without burning that was superior in our opinion to any brick manufactured in Canada, being perfect in appearance, extremely rigid and of great fire resistance, and also non-porous, such as we have furnished the Pitt Lake Brick and Cement Company and stamped "Berg," which speaks for itself. My Company, namely the Berg Machinery Manufacturing Company, Limited, has guaranteed to the Pitt Lake Brick & Cement Company the manufacture of those brick at a cost on the ground not to exceed $4.00 per thousand as per exhibit. The brick was tested in the School of Practical Science of Toronto and the crushing test was 3740 lbs. to the square inch. (Signed) H. P. NAYLOR,

Vice-President Berg Machinery Manufacturing Company.

The following is the report of J. O'Sullivan as to the fire test: Vancouver, B. C., June 29th, 1908.

E. J. Fader, Esq., New Westminster, B. C.

Dear Sir,—I beg to report that the present silica brick submitted by you for fire test was subjected to a white heat in my wind furnace i.e., to a temperature ranging between 1300 and 1400 degree centigrade or 2372 to 2552 degree Fahrenheit for 1¾ hours without disintegration. The only effect of this great heat was to cause a slight crack in the brick due mainly to the escape of steam from the water of combination of the plastic material of the brick. In my opinion a building constructed of this brick would withstand the destructive action of fire, and can therefore be used with perfect safety. Yours faithfully, J. O'SULLIVAN, F. C. S.

It can readily be seen from the above report that the brick intended to be manufactured by the Pitt Lake Brick & Cement Company, Ltd., can be placed on the market at such a price that no other pressed brick manufactured in Canada can compete with it.

It is the intention of the Company to proceed with the erection of the plant at the earliest opportunity and place the brick upon the market of British Columbia and other places where a market can be had. Mr. E. J. Fader has agreed to sell to the Company the whole of his interest in the said property as above mentioned for the sum of $30,000, payable as follows: $2000 in cash, and $28,000 in stock in the Company. Apart from this Mr. E. J. Fader subscribes to the Company for $20,000 treasury stock, which he agrees to pay within two years.

This proposition, without exception, is believed by most expert men to be one of the best brick propositions that has been placed upon the local market, considering the fact that the brick in question is a waterproof brick, which as far as we know, cannot be found in the whole Dominion of Canada, and has all the qualities of a first class brick. As you will note from the above report by Mr. H. P. Naylor, it has a crushing test test of 3740 pounds to the square inch, which it is doubtful if any other brick made can equal. Apart from this, it is a handsome brick and will make a very pretty finished building.

The subscriber can easily judge from the cost of the manufacture guaranteed by the Berg Machinery Manufacturing Company, namely $4.00 per M what an enormous profit there must be made from the proposition, considering the fact that our local pressed brick and Seattle pressed brick is placed upon the market above $30.00 a thousand, places us in a position as you will readily see to cut those prices in two, if necessary, and then make 300 per cent. on our output, and I see no reason why the people of New Westminster should permit the outside public to take up this stock when they have at their door a proposition which cannot be surpassed by any which have been formed in British Columbia. I have already formed several companies here that the public of New Westminster know, and have made for foreign capitalists enormous sums of money which really should have remained at home. This is the first time that I have formed a company in New Westminster and asked the present public to subscribe, and I want you to plainly understand that I am not doing so with the object of coaxing you into the proposition. I am merely offering it to you as a good, solid, bona fide investment, and I am giving you the first opportunity to subscribe and at the same time knowing that the stock will be readily subscribed within thirty days in the East. I therefore consider those who have the money to invest should not lose the opportunity as there is not the slightest doubt that this Company will pay enormous dividends. Work commenced on the ground last week, and a gang of men is now clearing a site for the plant and opening large cuts into the clay, so that visitors may have an opportunity of visiting the property and seeing for themselves at any time.

The Company anticipates having the plant running within six months from the above date, and you therefore should not miss the opportunity of getting in your application at an early date.

Samples of the brick and clay may be seen at my office at the Northern Crown Bank, New Westminster, and any further information that any subscriber wishes to know, I shall be pleased to give them such particulars at my office.

Ladies or gentlemen are invited to subscribe. (Signed.) E. J. FADER, Promoter.

END OF ABSOLUTISM.

The constitution of the German empire has been notably changed, and by a spoken word. The emperor has conceded that he must act officially, so far as the foreign relations of the country are concerned, through his ministers and not of his own volition. No more can the indiscretion of the emperor disturb or threaten the peace of Europe, for no longer can he make public utterances which have not been submitted to and approved by his ministers. It is but a step from this to a ministry responsible to parliament and not alone to the sovereign.

This is the final outcome of the storm of protest which came from all over Germany at the recent publication of an interview with the emperor which appeared in the London Telegraph, in which the emperor made an amazing exhibition of himself.

The German press and the German people for once disregarded all laws forbidding criticism of the emperor, and there was freedom of speech on the subject such as was never before known. In the reichstag the same unsparing criticism was visited upon the emperor, and the demand was insistent that there should never again be a repetition of the incident; that the emperor should no longer be permitted, at his own volition, to speak for the German people. Prince von Buelow, the chancellor of the empire, assured the reichstag that the emperor would in the future refrain from a repetition of his action, and the emperor has confirmed this statement, as the alternative was the acceptance of the resignation of the chancellor.

It is the downfall of absolutism and the triumph of popular government. Since his accession to the throne Emperor William has asserted his claim freely to deal with affairs as he would and to speak as he liked. He has been forced to bow to the will of the people of Germany and surrender this claim.

The significant fact in the world today is that nowhere, where there is a government in any form, is it possible longer to ignore the demands of the people or to proceed directly contrary to the expressed popular will. Government rests upon the will of the people, and when that will is unmistakably expressed, governments, no matter what their form, are compelled to bow to it.

A great step forward has been taken in Germany with the downfall of absolutism. Germany will inevitably soon have government by the people in precisely the same sense that England enjoys it.

ACTION AGAINST TIMBER COMPANY COMMENCED

The County court action, Bamford vs. the Heaps Timber company was commenced yesterday before Judge Grant. The plaintiff, Albert Bamford, is a farmer at Hazelmere, and alleges that he suffered loss by the diversion of the Campbell river by the defendant company for the purpose of their sawmill, through a washout in 1907 had several acres of land flooded and the rubbish which had since collected had caused a nuisance, leading to the illness of his wife. The plaintiff asks for an injunction and $1000 damages. J. E. Bird, of Vancouver, appeared for the plaintiff and Hon. W. J. Bowser for the defendant company. The day was almost entirely occupied with the evidence and cross-examination of the plaintiff, the defence denying the statements alleged above. Defendant's counsel questioned Bamford in such a way that Mr. Bird at length remarked that "Not even the attorney-general has the right to lecture witness so." The case will be resumed this morning at 10:30 a.m.

CHINESE OCCUPY PORTUGUESE LANDS

Situation Considered As Serious by Diplomats--Fighting Momentarily Expected

Lisbon, Nov. 19.—Dispatches received here from Macao, China, state that the Chinese have occupied the colony which is Portuguese territory and the situation is most serious. The natives refuse to obey the Portuguese authorities and the Chinese troops, which have been infesting the place, have seized the customs. Fighting is momentarily expected.

The pretext advanced by China for occupying the territory is that when the Japanese steamer Tatsu Maru was captured by the Chinese two miles off Macao, Portugal, in order to avoid the responsibility of intervening, claimed the seizure was in Chinese waters. This, according to the Chinese government, amounted to a renunciation of Portugal's sovereign rights to Macao.

A cabinet meeting yesterday decided to despatch to the scene of the trouble the cruisers Dona Amelia, Adamaster and Patrid and the gunboat Riolima. The Portuguese newspapers are unanimously of the opinion that the situation is acute.

ZULU CHIEFS TRIED FOR HIGH TREASON

Greytown, Cape Colony, Nov. 19.—The trial of the Zulu chiefs accused of high treason opened here the first case taken being that of Cakijana, who pleaded not guilty.

Evidence was given with reference to the part taken by Cakijana in the rising.

In his recent statement as to the probable duration of the trials, Mr. Carter, the attorney-general, said that, while he hoped the case of Dinuzulu would be finished by Christmas, he was doubtful whether it would terminate by that date in view of its importance.

The loyal chief Magwababa, in giving evidence, said that many natives had been compelled to arm under a threat of being stabbed to death.

FRENCH COLONISTS STILL EXCITED OVER SCHOOLS

Postmaster and Attendants Remain at Government House of St. Pierre, Miquelon, Under Arms.

St. Pierre, Nov. 19.—Despite the order of the court the teachers of the clerical school kept the doors of the school open today. The postmaster and his attendants are at government house under arms, having been ordered there to protect the French flag, and if necessary, the person of the administrator. The populace continues in a very excited state.

Paris, Nov. 19.—The foreign office does not consider that the matter has become a diplomatic incident. The minister of the colonies, M. Lacroix, is awaiting further reports from the governor before taking action. The minister has been notified by Deputy Guernier that an explanation of the situation at St. Pierre will be requested in the chamber of deputies on Friday.

Advantages of a Bank Account

It is well to pay bills promptly, but not to pay the same bill twice. Business bookkeepers, by mistake, send out bills after they have been paid. If you pay by cheque, however, the cancelled cheeks are returned to you, and can be produced as receipts.

Cheque accounts are, therefore, more than a convenience. They are an insurance against over-payment. Every man or woman who pays money should do so with checks.

STORY OF PEKIN FIRE OFFICIALLY DENIED

Peking, Nov. 19.—There is absolutely no truth in the report telegraphed here from Singapore and elsewhere to the effect that Peking is in flames and in the hands of a mob, and that Prince Ching, president of the foreign board, is dead. Nor is the Dowager Empress Yehonala ill.

Official denial to these various rumors was given today and telegraphed by the government abroad.

CHINESE CRISIS FAR FROM ENDED

Ugly Rumors of High Officials Murdered by Plotters Reported From Pekin.

Manila, Nov. 19.—A despatch from Shanghai today, says that Prince Ching head of the Chinese army, died at Peking last night and that his death has been officially confirmed. The same despatch says that the new Dowager Empress Yehonala is seriously ill.

It is intimated here that the trouble is traceable to the same cabal that is thought to have caused the death of the Emperor Kwang Hsu and Dowager Empress Tsi An.

Ching was president of the Chinese Board of Foreign Affairs and in that position controlled the army. His sudden rise in power in the last two days has attracted widespread attention to himself in the last few days.

Paris, Nov. 19.—Rumors of the murder of Prince Ching, head of the army and most powerful man in China since the death of Emperor Kwang Hsu, reached here today. It is reported that Yuas Shi Kai, grand chancellor, has been murdered. No mention is made of the death of the new Dowager Empress. The rumors say the murders were committed by high officials, who are in a plot to seize the government.

Tokio, Nov. 19.—Rumors here today say that the Dowager Empress Yehonala of China has been killed and there are reports that Prince Ching, Grand Chancellor Yuas Shi Kai and other high officials have been murdered.

The reports are vague, but there is a belief that horrible acts of some sort have taken place at the Chinese capital. One rumor says that an effort is being made by agents of the revolutionists to overthrown the government by killing all the high authorities.

RAINS CAUSE DAMAGE IN FERNIE DISTRICT

Fernie, Nov. 19.—The continued heavy rain, which has lasted three days, shows no sign of abating, and is causing considerable damage throughout this section. During Tuesday night a heavy gale prevailed, carrying away the roof of the new Opera House now under construction. The rain caused a cave-in to a cellar wall of the new Waldrof hotel. The quick action of the contractor in putting in extra supports prevented what looked to be the complete destruction of the front wall.

CATHOLIC MISSIONARY CONGRESS IS CLOSED

Chicago, Nov. 19.—The first Catholic missionary congress closed last night. On every hand were heard expressions of satisfaction at the work of the congress in outlining a new missionary movement designed in particular to perpetuate the Catholicism of immigrants from Catholic countries and to send priests to sparsely settled regions. In the end it is the purpose of the congress that the church in America shall support missionaries in foreign lands.

INVITATION TO VISIT NEW PITT LAKE BRICKWORKS

There are a large number of investors in the new Pitt Lake Brick and Cement company who wish to see for themselves the property, and Ald. Fader has chartered the Favorite to enable them to do so. The vessel will leave the market wharf on Tuesday next at 10 a.m. The steamer will proceed to the spot where the plant will be erected, a beautiful bay on Pitt lake, and the passengers will be allowed one hour ashore, and will return here at 6 o'clock p.m. the same day. Lunch will be served on board at a cost of 25 cents each, but a pass will be given by Mr. Fader to any person who wants to go up and see the property with the object of investing in the stock. Passes can be had at his office any time before Tuesday morning and any person who wishes to look into this proposition is invited to investigate. The stock is selling fast.

Death of Thomas Allen.

Death came without warning yesterday afternoon about 1:30 to Thomas Allen, of 791 Brunette street, an old-timer. He had been living for some time with D. Sullivan, and recently had complained of rheumatism. Only on Tuesday in answer to a remark he said, however, he had not felt in better health for years. He ate a hearty meal and about one o'clock went out to harness the horse to go for a drive. Nothing further was heard of him, and about two hours later Mr. Sullivan went to the stable, to find Allen dead on the floor of one of the stalls. From what could be seen he had reached for a piece of the harness, taken a fit, and died at once. The body was examined by Dr. Walker, it being understood that death was due to heart failure. The coroner has been notified and will decide this morning if an inquest should be necessary, which is not thought likely under the circumstances. Funeral arrangements await the arrival of a son-in-law from Vancouver.

Deceased was 66 years of age, and leaves two married daughters in Vancouver, and a son in Nelson. The deceased owned a considerable amount of property in Sapperton and is one of the oldest residents.
