YUKONER INTERESTED IN BIG LAND DEAL

A deal between sixty-nine and seventy thousand dollars went through the office of W. J. Kerr on Monday. The names of the principals could not be secured other than that the buyer is an Alaska man who is here to invest the surplus of a fortune accumulated in the Yukon. He intends having this tract of land subdivided and sold in small holdings.

The property lies outside of New Westminster in the direction of Port Moody. A further detailed report of the transaction will be given later, but for the present it was impossible to secure more than the vague outlines here stated. The land is mostly improved and at present under cultivation.

FIRE ESTIMATES PROVIDE FOR AUTOMOBILE WAGON

Equipment Sought Will Be Strictly Up to Date—Site for West End Fire Hall to Cost $1000.

If the estimates of the fire committee are passed by the council, New Westminster will have an automobile chemical and hose wagon as part of its fire equipment. This was recommended by Chief Watson in his annual report and in Alderman Gilley's estimates, which have not yet been passed by the council, $6,500 is provided for the purchase of one of the most modern fire fighting appliances on the market.

A new fire hall is also provided for in the estimates, at a cost of $2,500. One thousand dollars is laid aside for the purchase of a site which will probably be somewhere in the west end of the city. Chief Watson also gets a new buggy at a cost of $120, and the firemen all get increases in pay.

South Westminster Homes.

H. D. Miller, manager of the local branch of the B. C. Telephone company, is building a handsome residence for himself in South Westminster. By all appearances there will soon be many fine homes there. Real estate men say that many of their buyers in that district are purchasing with a view to building.

FEARED RAILROAD STRIKE AVERTED FOR THE PRESENT

Dissatisfied Employees and Managers of Forty-seven Roads Interested Decide to Accept Mediation of Federal Officers—Action Must be Speedy.

Chicago, March 15.—Danger of an immediate strike of 27,000 firemen on the western railroads of this continent the coming week to be followed by a cessation of work on the part 125,000 railway employees, was avoided today through the acceptance of mediation through the federal authorities at Washington.

At the request of the general managers of the forty-seven western roads involved, Chairman Martin A. Knapp, of the Inter-State Commerce commission, and Commissioner of Labor Neil telegraphed an offer of federal mediation to the union officers. This offer was accepted, W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, stipulating, however, that the action must begin without delay.

The appeal to Washington was taken as an eleventh hour move to prevent a walkout, which it was declared, threatened the greatest railroad strike since that of 1894.

Thirty-seven members of the western federated board of the brotherhood last midnight formally voted for a strike.

The hour for striking had been set for next Monday, and the members were prepared to start for home to put the strike into action when the mediation steps were taken.

The members will come to Chicago and, according to Mr. Carter, will not arbitrate the questions in dispute, but will determine what shall be arbitrated. The questions included wages, which both sides had agreed to arbitrate, and two technical points, involving promotion and representation in the union. These latter subjects, the brotherhood contends, must be arbitrated, but the railroads assert that they cannot be arbitrated because they relate to internal dispute.

"If the mediation falls through, the strike will go right on," said President Carter tonight.

In a statement given out tonight the general managers said "all prospects of a strike are over. There will be none. Settlement of the whole controversy by mediation is assured.

The men are demanding a general increase of 12½ per cent in wages. The principal lines affected by the strike order are the Santa Fe, Chicago & Alton, Burlington, St. Paul, Rock Island, Colorado Southern, Great Northern, Illinois Central, Missouri, Kansas & Texas Northern Pacific, Oregon Short Line, Oregon Railway & Navigation company, Frisco Line, Southern Pacific and Union Pacific.

New York, March 15.—Grand Master W. G. Lee, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, received today a telegram from the leaders of the Firemen's Union in Chicago, asking if the trainmen would stand by the firemen in their projected strike in the west. Mr. Lee has sent no reply. Associates said that Lee felt that the railroad union felt that the trainmen's union had their hands ful, in the east at present.

JAPANESE EDITORS SEE NO REASON FOR ALARM

Tokio, March 15.—At a general meeting of the International Press association, Japanese representatives of the newspapers of America and Europe being present, resolutions were adopted unanimously that in view of the present reports abroad concerning the attitude of Japan, the correspondents express themselves as wholly unable to discover any basis in the circumstances for the sentiment warranting disquieting speeches.

Expects Brisk Business.

Nelson, March 15.—W. A. Anstie, secretary of Mountain Lumberman's association is back from a tour of the east and anticipates an increase of fifty per cent in the cut this year.

Japanese Goes Insane.

Noticing one of their companions, Kintars Taraski, trying to push a railway engine off the track at the Great Northern station yesterday, some Japanese workmen found that he had gone violently insane. At the police station he was examined by Drs. Manchester and Rothwell, who declared him insane and committed him to the asylum.

Jam Company Expands.

Nelson, March 1.—The Kootenay Jam company has just let contracts for doubling the present plant and will shortly be able to turn out five tons daily. The undertaking is a profitable addition to the steadily growing fruit trade of the district.

Coquitlam Lake Land Is Reserved From Settlement

A copy of the order in council passed at Ottawa on Friday, March 4, with reference to the land reservation around Lake Coquitlam has been received here. Following is the text of the document:

Whereas representations have been made to the Department of the Interior from time to time by the city of New Westminster and by the Vancouver Power company in connection with a reservation of the lands comprising the catchment basin or drainage area of Coquitlam lake in the railway belt in the province of British Columbia;

And Whereas the city of New Westminster obtains its water supply from Coquitlam lake and has applied for a large area surronding the lake to protect and preserve its water supply from contamination:

And Whereas the Vancouver Power company uses Coquitlam lake for reservoir and storage purposes in connection with its water power development on the North Arm of Burrard Inlet, and has applied for a reservation of all lands with the timber thereon, draining into Coquitlam lake in order that the rainfall may be conserved and the run-off regulated;

And Whereas an engineer of the Department of the Interior after a personal inspection, reports:

"It would be to the best interest of all concerned if the department extended the reservation of the land immediately surrounding Coquitlam lake, applied for by the city of New Westminster, to contain all the lands within the lake's catchment basin. The rainfall is very heavy over the Coquitlam lake district with a consequent heavy run-off. The water supply of the city of New Westminster and the increasing requirements of the Vancouver Power company for water power purposes renders necessary the conserving and protection of the forest cover on all land draining into Coquitlam lake in order that the run-off may be gradual and constant. There are at present no settlers within the Coquitlam lake drainage area and it would be advisable if entry into this area for any purpose except that of the Power company and the city of New Westminster be upon permission of the Minister of the Interior. No accurate survey of the height of land surrounding Coquitlam lake has been made but from reconnaissance and exploratory surveys by the engineers of the Vancouver Power company the following townships will very nearly cover the water shed of Coquitlam lake, viz:

"W½ fractional township 4, range 6, west 7th meridian.

"West one-third and NE of township 5, range 6, west 7th meridian.

"Township 6, range 6, west 7th meridian.

"Fractional township 7, range 6, west 7th meridian.

"Sections 1, 12, 13, 24, 25 and 26 in fractional township 5, west 7th meridian.

His Excellency in council, in view of the report made by the Departmental Engineer, in view of the city of New Westminster, and in view of the necessity for the conserving and regulating the run-off of the said watershed is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the land described above, excepting thereout the land sold and to be sold and leased to the Vancouver Power company for the purposes of its power development, shall be reserved from all settlement and occupation and the timber thereon shall be reserved from sale, except such sales as may be authorized by the Governor-in-Council; and further that all persons shall be prohibited from entering upon the said lands so reserved except only such persons as are duly authorized by the Minister of the Interior in connection with the water supply of the city of New Westminster, the works of the Vancouver Power company or for such other purposes as the Minister of the Interior may deem necessary in the public interest.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

WOMAN DOCTOR FLAYS SUFFRAGETTES

Constitutional Argument Embodied Such Terms As "Grafters" and "Fools."

Albany, N. Y., March 15.—Dr. Mary Walker, in what she called a "constitional argument," before the assembly judiciary committee today made a violent attack on the women who are advocating woman suffrage bills.

The terms "grafter" and "fool" figured liberally in her remarks. She was particularly severe in her criticism of Rev. Anna Shaw, president of the National Woman Suffrage association, whom she designated as a preacher who does not preach, and follows woman suffrage advocacy for for a living.

"While Mrs. Belmont holds meetings at her Newport palace," exclaimed Dr. Walker, "you can't even get in without paying five dollars for the efforts of those behind this movement."

The speaker insisted that all laws such as proposed are in violation of the United States constitution which, she claims to have discovered thirty eight years ago, contains authority for woman suffrage.

"There's no use of such silly rubbish as this bill," she exclaimed. "If women go to the polls in a body and demand their rights to vote, the men don't dare to refuse them."

TARIFF CONFERENCE.

French and Canadian Treaties Discussed at Washington.

Washington, D. C., March 15.—The French and Canadian tariff treaties were again the subject at the conference at the White House today. Ambassador Jusserand, of France, called to see the president immediately after luncheon, and the two talked for some time in the parlors of the house. Later the president saw James McDonald, of Toronto, and than consulted with Secretary of State Knox and members of the tariff board.

It was said that nothing definite will be decided until the president's return from his western trip on March 22.

ALSACE LORRAINE IS GIVEN MORE IMPORTANT STATUS

Berlin, March 15.—By a narrow margin the Reichstag today adopted the resolution of the Alsatian member, Preiss, asking for a bill making Alsace Lorraine a fertile state with the same status as other states of the empire.

Dr. Gregere, another Alsatian member, offered an amendment which was adopted providing that in the event of an Alsatian parliament being formed, its members should be elected by universal, direct and secret ballot.

Vendor Bought Property Four Years Ago for $350—General Store to Be Built.

A two-story brick building is to be erected by a Winnipeg man at the corner of the Yale and Scott roads.

The site changed hands yesterday for $3,500. It was originally a mill site and contains three and one-half acres. Four years ago it was sold for $350.

The purchaser is a dry goods man and will open a large general store in his new building. He believes in New Westminster and has faith in the growth of the district across the river.

Work has been commenced on the clearing of a site for a church to be built by the Roman Catholic population of Fraser Mills, the necessary property having been donated by the proprietors of the big mill. The church will be located north of the mill, close to the Coquitlam road, and will cost in the neighborhood of $3000.

Seating accomodation will be provided for between 300 and 350 people. Most of the attendants will be recruited from the French-Canadian element employed in the lumber yards, although quite a number of Roman Catholics residing in the district will also join the church.

Winipeg, March 15.—Word received from Fort Resolution, Athabasca, under date of February 4, states that there is a total absence of food in the far north. This is causing great distress among the Indians.

Caribou, the staple article of food, is absent.

Fish is the only product available, the bulk of which is not too fresh, as it was caught last September for dogs' food for the winter months.

NEW ARCHITECT ARRIVES TO START BUSINESS HERE

The report that many new buildings are likely to be put up in the city during the present season, has induced Campbell Hope, C. A., Cal., a well-known architect of Vancouver, to open a branch of his business here.

Seen yesterday by a Daily News representative he said he had been looking round the city for some time and had come to the conclusion that there was plenty of work here, and in a few months there would be a great deal more.

Mr. Campbell Hope has just been appointed to erect the Oppenheimer Memorial which is to take the form of a conservatory in Stanley Park. He is also responsible for a few of the Vancouver schools and many fine residences and rooming houses in and near the Terminal city. He has taken offices at 635 Columbia street.

FUNERAL OF JOHN HOUSTON LARGEST IN KOOTENAYS

City of Nelson Suspends Business While Body of Pioneer Journalist Is Laid to Rest.

Nelson, March 15.—The funeral of the late John Houston, four times mayor of Nelson, which took place this afternoon, was the largest ever seen in the Kootnays. All stores and places of business were closed from two to four o'clock, and many flags were flying half masted. The pall bearers were E. E. Phair, Thomas Madden, J. J. Malone, J. A. Irving, F. Teetzel and J. A Gilker, all old timers. Mayor Selous and members of the city council followed the city band The Eagles and citizens made a lengthy procession. Interment was in the Eagles plot in the cemetery. Rev. Dr. Ferguson, of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, conducted the services.

ENTERTAINMENT BRINGS IN MONEY FOR GOOD TEMPLARS

Performance Was Well Patronized By Supporters of Movement—Vancouver Artist Made Big Hit.

The Templars' concert given last night in the opera house under the management of Mr. and Mrs. R. Harris and Rev. A. de B. Owen was well patronized and worthy of the support it received. The hit of the evening was made by A. E. Earle, of Vancouver, when he sang "St. Patrick's Day" as an encore to a patriotic song.

Although Mr. Earle drew the greatest applause with this song, the rest of the numbers were exceptionally good and it would hardly be fair to give preference to any one performer. "Reveille," a tableau given by the Boys' Brigade under the management of R. Harris, and "A Dream of Fair Women," under the management of Miss Thompson, were exceedingly well done and roused the enthusiasm of the audience.

The Royal Templars of Temperance under whose auspices the concert was given, took in over $200 and, although about half of that will be taken for expenses, the coffers of the society will be considerably enlarged by the entertainment.

WOMAN JOINS MOB IN CRY FOR LYNCHING

Philadelphia, March 1 —The most serious disturbances of the evening occurred when a four-year-old child was killed by a car run at high speed to get away from men and boys who were stoning it.

The car stopped and an angry crowd gathered and made an attempt to get at the motorman, H. N. Gambie, of White Plains, N.Y. The policeman on board drew his revolver and held the crowd back while another policeman sent in a riot call.

There were cries of "lynch him," and it is said a woman produced a rope. The situation was exceedingly critical when a squad of mounted policemen arrived.

The crowd began to scatter when the police were forced to use their clubs. Several persons were slightly wounded. Three men and one woman were arrested.

GIRLS TRY TO KILL TRAITRESS TO THEIR BAND

Female "Apache" Who Gave Away Secrets Set Upon and Stabbed With Knives.

Paris, March 15.—Female "apaches" last night attempted to carry out sentence of death passed by their band, which was the terror of one of the suburban districts of Paris, on a woman who had denounced their lawless plans to the police.

The band had noticed that every time they made any nocturnal expedition the police appeared at the critical moment and put them to flight.

The chiefs of the gang met in council of war and delegated two of their female members to discover the source by which news of their plans leaked out. The culprit was soon ascertained to be a girl nicknamed "Curette," the sweetheart of a member of a rival gang. She was denounced to the chiefs and sentenced to death, her denunciators being appointed executioners.

Last night they tracked their prey to the Boulevard Garibaldi, and under the railway arch assailed her with knives. The victim's life was saved by the appearance of the police, who arrested the assailants, while Curette was taken to the hospital.

The police are waging determined war on the "apache," and the local commissioner in the district which has been the scene of the latest coup has sworn to rid the neighborhood of the pests.

M. Vallette, head of the "flying brigade" of police, is nightly carrying out raids in the Montmartre quarter on cafes and bars frequented by the "apaches."

Olympia, March 1 .—Shortly after midnight last night Edward Farquhar summoned an undertaker to his rooms to remove the dead body of his divorced wife, whom earlier in the evening had died of strychnine poisoning.

As the body of the wife was carried from the house Farquhar placed a revolver to his head and killed himself.

He was a son of a prominent and once wealthy Olympia merchant.

Mrs. Farquhar was formerly Miss Annabelle Mills, of Chehalis. They were married about twenty years ago and divorced two years ago.

Memphis, Tenn., March 1 .—Seeing nothing but starvation unless he resorted to unusual methods, L. O. Leonard, a machinist, yesterday spent almost his last cent for an advertisement in a local paper, offering to sell his soul for any kind of honest work. Leonard took this action after three months' search in Memphis for work. He is a machinist and boilermaker's helper. He says he tramped from place to place in a vain effort to get a job. He has been rewarded, he says, with an occasional piece of work only, not enough to keep himself, his wife and his children.

REFUSE DISPOSAL.

It is nothing less than a serious misfortune for this city that the Council has decided not to provide a refuse destructor. Months ago it was agreed, after due deliberation and enquiry that it was necessary to have some such effective means for the consumption of garbage and refuse, and a sum of twenty thousand dollars was provided in the money by-law passed last Fall, for the purpose. Since that time the council and its officers have been dilly-dallying about over this matter, until now it has decided not to install an incinerator. The reason given for this decision by the chairman of the Health committee is that the difficulty of collecting garbage would be so great and the installation of an incinerator would be costly.

Now this is utter foolishness. It is of the greatest importance to the health and well being of the citizens of New Westminster, to say nothing of their sense of comfort and convenience, that the waste and garbage should be, first, collected at frequent and regular intervals, and, secondly, that the material should be disposed of in so thorough and effective a manner as to remove all danger of disease germs spreading. And there is no way of securing this latter necessity so thoroughly and surely as by by the agency of fire.

The counter proposal again put forward by the Health committee, for the provision of a scow and the dumping of the noxious material into the gulf is not a satisfactory one. This method is in no sense so thorough, or so certain a means of disposal as an incinerator. For one thing, a muck heap must be accumulated somewhere on the river bank by dumping of the contents of the refuse carts; for another thing this heap must be disturbed and the poisonous atoms scattered over the neighborhood whenever the material is transferred to the scow; and yet again, the latter vessel must lay alongside for some time whilst its stinking cargo is being loaded in. Even supposing that arrangements are made to shoot the contents of the refuse carts straight into the hold of scow, the vessel must lay alongside for some days until its load is complete. Then, when its cargo is finally emptied into the gulf, some of the material will be washed ashore by the tide and possibly brought back up the river again. Contrast this system with that of emptying every cartload of refuse direct into a fiercely burning furnace, and the consequent rapid and absolute destruction of the stuff.

As to the question of expense, the cost of a scow and the necessary wharfage arrangements, as an item of capital expenditure, cannot be very much less than that for the installation of an incinerator, whilst the cost of maintenance will be just about as heavy for the one as the other. In this respect therefore, as the incinerator will be altogether the safest and best method, even if somewhat more costly at first, it should be adopted.

But the chief point for consideration is the health of the city. In this connection the proper disposal of refuse is of such consequence that, within reason, the question of expense should not be allowed to enter into the matter. The garbage must be frequently and regularly removed, and it must also be rapidly destroyed, and that in the most effective manner. Upon this point, the urgency of which none can gainsay, the question of a few thousand dollars should not enter into calculation.

There is another point that must not be lost sight of in connection with this subject. The population of the city is rapidly increasing and will increase, whilst larger commercial establishments are certain to become far more numerous in the near future than they are at present. These two factors of development will mean the production of a greater amount of garbage and waste. In the past New Westminster has been fortunate in not having had any serious outbreak of disease occur through the happy-go-lucky system of refuse disposal hitherto adopted; but with an increased population and a greater number of industrial and manufacturing establishments the peril becomes of far graver import.

The Council ought not to deal with so serious a matter as this in the half hearted, indifferent, mercenary way that it has been and is doing. It is its duty's guardian of the public health to adopt the very best system for refusal disposal that is available. Now is the opportunity for Mayor Lee to prove his worth. We hope he will do it by convincing the aldermen that this city must have an incinerator.

THE G. N. R. DEPOT.

Editor Daily News:

Sir,—I notice in your issue of Monday an article and interview on the proposed new G. N. R. depot. Though I am comparatively a recent arrival in your city, having only been here two years, I cannot help feeling that the shabby looking station at which many of our visitors have to arrive, has a detrimental effect. I remember my own feelings; summed up in a few words, they were: "If New Westminster is all on this scale of magnificence, then there is not much of a chance for a business man here."

If it had not been a fine day and my friend had not been enthusiast, I should never have started in here.

Today I can look back and thank both my friend and the fine weather; had I gone away I should have owed that station a grudge to the end of my days.

Mr. Editor, I am not a politician, nor an I am an engineer but I do feel very keenly that the city is being badly treated by the government for some unknown reason and the business men should take the matter of the new depot up and see to it that the company is allowed to go on with its work.

It seems to me that there must be something behind the government's action in stopping the work.

Perhaps you can give us a hint. I enclose my card.

AERIAL LOTS FOR SALE.

Vancouver City Council Takes Matter Up and Asks Mayors to Assist.

The sale of the aerial lots in North Vancouver, mentioned in these colums a few days ago, has been taken up by the city council and warmly discussed. Alderman Hepburn christened the blue prints "Lithographed Lies." After discussing the matter the following resolution was submitted and passed:

"That in the opinion of this council certain real estate dealers in Vancouver city are adopting misleading methods of advertising for sale subdivided property lying in municipalities adjacent to Vancouver; and we request the city solicitor to have an examination made in the land registry office and report to this council whether the provisions of the land registry act are being complied with by the parties who are handling this class of property, and we further suggest that the reeves of all municipalities lying within a radius of ten miles of Vancouver to withhold their signatures to any plan of sub-division within their boundaries until they have thoroughly examined the property and convinced themselves that it is in the best interests of the public to do so."

In seconding the motion Alderman Hepburn said that he thought undue boosting of city property was bad enough, but in such cases a purchaser at least got some value for his money. If he bought out in South Vancouver or Point Grey he secured in any case a place which he could make a little garden out of, but to buy the mountain top land, put on the market by some unscrupulous dealers, was absolute folly. The resolution called for the aid of the reeves of the neighboring districts, and he was sure that those of such as Burnaby and Richmond would be glad to assist, but he was not so confident, he said, about North Vancouver. The alderman even went so far as to intimate that he thought that the councillors and reeve of this place were apparently all hand in glove with the "boosters." Getting more definite still in his remarks, he mentioned one case where a map of a sub-division showed railways which did not exist and hotels which were only present in imagination. One of the railway lines was placed in such a position that it could never be a reality unless it was built along the plan of the scenic cog wheel lines in Colorado.

Beyond the remarks of Alderman Hepburn there was little said regarding his resolution, but more discussion will take place when the report of the city solicitor is handed in.

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY

Why You Should Insure Against Lawsuits

WORKMEN can sue you without cost to themselves, and they have EVERYTHING to gain and small chance to lose by so doing.

PERSONS other than employees accidentally injured about the premises invariably sue for damages.

REGARDLESS of their own responsibility for the accident, or the existence of negligence on the part of others.

ON the slightest pretext employees may sue you, even for accidents caused by the negligence of a fellow-workman, and

THE suit may be brought against you long after the occurrence of the accident by which he was injured.

EMPLOYERS and business men can ill afford to assume the risk of this ever-increasing and uncertain liability.

CREDIT of otherwise responsible manufacturers and business firms is sometimes seriously impaired by such damage suits.

TO go to law means loss of time, money, endless annoyance and worry.

YOUR profits may be seriously curtailed as a result of accident unless you are insured.

ONLY insurance against such risks will enable you to fix and reduce your expenses to a minimum.

UNDER the protection of a Liability Policy in the Railway Passengers' Assurance Company you will save money and time and be relieved from all such annoyances.

A Few Beautiful West End Lots, $360 Each

If you do not act upon my advice to buy one of these RIVERVIEW lots now at $360, you will regret it in a year from now just as certain as you have ever regretted anything in your whole life.

Do you know the location of this property, overlooking the gulf, North Arm and river, conceded by all to be the most splendid view location in this city.

On New Vancouver Cut-Off Line

The few remaining lots are close to 20th Street on Ottawa. The new Vancouver Cut-Off will cross 20th St., within 3 blocks. With the inauguration of this service the prices of these lots can do nothing but go UP, UP, UP; if this does not happen then all my experience in buying and selling of real estate has been for naught.

I fully believe that $1000 will be a conservative price for these beautiful lots one year from now. Just look over what has happened elsewhere, in less favored districts and make up your mind, not tomorrow but now, that you're going to be in on the ground floor with this certain movement.

Do you realize how rapidly these two cities are growing together? Vancouver people are not asleep to this future. Don't you realize that the meeting point is absolutely certain to be along the line of the tram. Looking back and telling your friends that you could have bought these lots at this price will get you nothing. A title, the black and white certifying your ownership will be all that will count then.

STOPPED EXPLOSION OF INFERNAL MACHINE

Paris, March 15.—From Touton comes an account of an extraordinary outrage which has been perpetrated at the mairie of a suburban parish.

A stranger made his appearance there, almost staggering beneath the weight of a heavy bag. When he had entered he calmly laid the bag on the floor and proceeded to open it, taking from it a curious article which looked very like a shell, and which he placed on a table. This done, he produced a match-box from his pocket, and lighted a fuse which emerged from a hole in what has since been found to be an infernal machine.

He was walking off quite coolly, when the secretary and another employee came in, and, rushing to the article which had been laid on the table, extinguished the fuse.

They had scarcely done so when the intruder fired with a revolver at them both, happily without hitting either of them. But as he evidently imagined that he had killed or wounded them severely, he turned his arm upon himself, and fell mortally injured.

The reports brought neighbors promptly to the spot. The man was taken up in a desperate condition, and expired on his way to the hospital, after having said that he had acted out of revenge, as the justice of the peace had pronounced some sentence on him.

He is thought to have been an Italian, but his identity has not yet been established. An artillery officer who has examined the infernal machine describes it as being extremely dangerous, and adds that if it had exploded several houses would have been destroyed.

MOOSE PLENTIFUL IN THE TERRITORIES

Winnipeg, March 13.—E. F. Stephenson, inspector of Crown timber agencies for the Dominion government, has just returned from the scene of lumber operations of the limit holders along the Canadian Northern Railway, Prince Albert branch. Mr. Stephenson says that the cut of logs will amount to between seventy-five and one hundred million feet.

Speaking of wild game, the inspector said that north of the Manitoba boundary, in the region still known as the Northwest Territories, moose and elk were numerous.

"The people up there," said he, "do not observe any game laws, and have become so tired of vension steaks that now they do not bother to shoot the animals, who roam at large on the public highways without the slightest timidity."
