ABORITES OPPOSE WATER LOT LEASES

rganized Workmen Not in Favor of Renting Street Ends to Private Concerns.

"That the Trades and Labor council the city of New Westminster is renuously opposed to the granting the leases of street ends on the aterfront to any individuals," is the xt of a resolution adopted last night the regular meeting of the Trades d Labor council. A copy of the solution will be forwarded to the y council.

This action is the result of the rent application made by Gilley others for a lease of the water lot the foot of McInnes street.

Thomas Turnbll stated that he had derstood that the firm had abandled the request, but he thought with rest of the members present that would do no harm to pass the resotion and let the council know where labor men stood on the question.

Another matter of importance that me before the meeting was the prosed legislation which will come bere the government at Ottawa very ctly to establish the eight--hour y as the legal day's work in Canada. The matter is at present before board of trade and the meeting t night decided that it ought to let board know that it was in favor the measure. It has been sugsted in the board of trade that that dy go on record as in opposition the bill, and the labor men want have a meeting with the board to otest against them taking any acn in the matter, as they claim that is not within the province of the ard to be a party to any class legision.

In regard to the standard weight bread and other matters, which e delegation of the Trades and Lar council brought before the city uncil a week or two ago, Dele Dodd reported that the mayor intimated that he would give m notice of what was being done, as yet they have had no word m him. Secretary Stoney was inted to write to the council inring what was being done.

The rest of the business transacted s mostly of a routine nature. All unions reported that the business s keeping up and that all men re working. Thomas Turnbull, in porting for the carpenters, caused me amusement by announcing that e carpenters all "seemed" to be rking. The delegate from the maninists union reported that trade as improving.

A committee was appointed to look to a suggestion made by W. Dodd at the council purchase a stove and me dishes in order to be prepared have any little entertainment enever the different unions felt e need of such. The meeting adurned at 9:30.

ART OF ORATORY TO BE ACQUIRED BY LABOR MEN

W. Dodd Suggests That Workmen of City Organize Debating Society to Discuss Public Questions.

The workmen of the city will probably take steps to form something in the nature of a debating club in the near future. At last night's meeting of the Trades and Labor council the subject was broached by W. Dodd, who remarked that there was great need of some club so that young men, and for that matter the older men, might learn the art of public speaking, and incidentally become conversant with some of the great questions of the day.

Said Mr. Dodd: "We are thinking of sending a delegation from the Trades and Labor council to protest to the board of trade against it opposing the eight hour bill, and I venture to state that there are not half a dozen men in the ranks of organized labor in this city who are sufficiently well acquainted with the subject to make a five minute speech on it before the board of trade."

The suggestion of forming a club caught on well with the delegates present, several of them speaking in favor of it. Mr. Sobey, of the machinists's union, thought that it would be well if no action was taken by the council itself, and suggested that a public meeting be called at which the subject might be discussed. His suggestion was adopted and the meeting will be convened some time in the near future. The date has not yet been fixed.

PARLIAMENT LISTENS TO UNPARLIAMENTARY REMARKS

Member Referred to as "Common Nuisance" Threatens to Slap Face of F. L. Carvell.

Ottawa, Feb. 18.—In the public accounts committee this morning F. L. Carvell, member for Carleton, N. B., accused S. Crocket, member for York, N. B., with trying to mislead the committee with regard to contracts let to the Maritime Dredging Company and Dominion Dredging Company. Crocket and R. Blain, of Peel, jumped to their feet and demanded that Carvell withdraw the remark.

Carvell, turning to Blain, said: "You are a common nuisance."

Blain: "Now, my honorable friend, you don't want me to slap your face, do you? As soon as I get outside I'll force you to apologize."

Carvell asked for the protection of the chairman against such ruffianly conduct. The incident ended with Carvell admitting that there had been a misunderstanding and apologized to Blain.

CHAUFFEUR STICKS TO STORY IMPLICATING DOCTOR

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 18.—Three hours of rigid cross examination today failed to shake the story of Chauffeur Joseph Leach, who testified that he drove Dr. George A. Fritch at midnight on August 7 to Ecorse Creek and saw the physician throw three sacks into the water where the dismembered body of Miss Maybelle Millman, of Ann Arbor, was found on Labor Day.

Leach's testimony did not differ in any material respect from the story he told at the police court hearing last fall.

He suggests, first the establishment of a college on the lines of West Point academy in the United States, with a staff of Imperial officers, but he advises Australia to later return to a system with an inspector-general at its head. A board of inspection is recommended.

Lord Kitchener approves of the government's decision to manufacture locally arms and ammunition.

QUESTION CANADA'S CLAIMS TO MINIMUM TARIFF RATES

Dominion's Treaties With Other Countries May Affect Her Trade Relations With United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—No steps have yet been taken by the British or Canadian governments looking to the determination of the question of whether Canada, in view of her tariff treaties with other countries, is entitled to the minimum tariff rates of the United States under the Payne-Aldrich Act.

In view of the fact that the maximum rates under this act will automatically be applied to Canada on March 31, six weeks hence, unless it is shown in the meantime that Canada is entitled to the lowest rate, the state department sent a communication to Ambassador Bryce, stating, in substance: "This government, entertaining only feelings of the warmest friendship for the people of Canada, regrets that no steps have been taken either by Canada or Great Britain, to place the United States in possession of facts which might prove that the Dominion is entitled to the most favorable rates.

CANADIAN MEMBER ELECT ON POLITICAL SITUATION

London, Feb. 18.—Speaking at the Constitutional club last night, Donald McMaster, Canadian member-elect of the British parliament, said his experience had convinced him that with education, organization and preparation of some six or eight months beforehand, two-thirds of the divisions of the United Kingdom could be carried for the unionist policy. He believed the question of navy and national security had a tremenduous effect on the votes cast in the late election.

Oats Shipment to Ontario.

Calgary, Feb. 18.—First shipment of Alberta oats to Ontario for milling purpose is being made today.

IRISH PARTY TO UPHOLD LIBERTY

Times Says Redmond's Hand Must Have Been Forced After Vitriolic Speech.

London, Feb. 18.—A London journal today says it has fallen to the lot of the Irish party to vindicate the liberties and rights of the British people. If there must be a second election, let it come at once and without delay. In the meantime the people's representatives must not part with the control of the people's money before they supply another appeal, if there must be one, but let there be no surrender.

The Irish Times says: "We may be confident that if Mr. Redmond has really thrown down the gauntlet to the cabinet, he has done so with reluctance. Redmond's choice, if indeed it has been finally made, has been hastened by his speech at Gresham hotel. It may have been intended originally as a bluff, but Nationalist Ireland has taken it seriously and he may have come to the conclusion that if he retreats from it now the storm of public digust will shatter the already tottering fabric of his authority in Ireland. Healey and O'Brien would then have an opportunity after their own heart, and might be trusted to exploit it with pitiless efficiency."

NORTHWEST BLIZZARD IS WORST FOR HALF A CENTURY

Pennsylvania Farmers Are Burning Fences for Fuel—Five Feet of Snow Cover Ground.

Pittsburg, Feb. 18.—Reports filtering along broker, telegraph and telephone wires into Pittsburg today show that the northwest section of Pennsylvania has been visited with a blizzard that eclipses anything of its kind for half a century.

Fourteen inches of snow have fallen near Oil City during the past twenty-four hours.

The snow came on top of a ground accumulation of four feet.

Farmers are burning fences for fuel, the roads to the woods being unpassable.

Oil well operators have abandoned pumping plants, as their apparatus is snowed under.

DAWSON EXCITED OVER POSSIBLE RADIUM FIND

Dawson, Feb. 18.—A sample of pitchblend from Colorado displayed here caused five prospectors to announce they have similar material in veins up to six inches wide near Dawson. If this is so it means the Dawson district is rich in radium. There is much excitement among prospectors, and they are preparing to forward samples of the find for a test.

TWO SMALL FIRES GIVE FIRE LADDIES EXERCISE

The firemen were given two tryouts yesterday afternoon. The first call turned in about half past three took them up the hill to Agnes street, where a chimney in a house owned by Dr. Manchester was on fire. The incipient blaze was soon extinguished without any damage.

The second fire might have been more serious. Some plumbers working at the C. P. R. depot spilled some gasoline in the baggage room. In some way it caught fire and there was quite a conflagration for a few minutes. The firemen put the blaze out without any trouble. There was very little baggage in the room at the time, and none of it was damaged.

The street yesterday was in a frightful condition and the hose wagon did not break any records going down Columbia street.

Herring Season Ends.

Nanaimo, Feb. 18.—The herring fishing season in Nanaimo will close tomorrow, an edict to this effect having been issued yesterday by Inspector of Fisheries E. G. Taylor. While the exact figures are not yet available, the total catch for the season will be the largest in the history of the herring fishing industry in British Columbia.

Last Word to Mulai Hafid.

Paris, Feb. 18.—The government has instructed M. Regnault, minister to Morocco, to despatch a special courier to Fez bearing France's ultimatum to Mulai Hafid regarding the signing of the recently arranged Moroccan loan.

BREAKING OF POWER WIRE CAUSES INCONVENIENCE

Reckless Blasting Has Far-Reaching Results—Lights Off All Day and Power Off All Night.

Carleless blasting at the corner of Tenth street and Eighth avenue yesterday morning resulted in the breaking of the high potential wire, the break being accompanied by a sheet of blue flame which shot several feet in all directions from the swinging ends. A man named Johnston Stevenson, who is said to have been blasting without a permit, is held responsible for the damage.

As a result of the accident, the electric lights were off in the morning and afternoon, while later in the day the juice supplied to the different industries for power purposes was diverted to the light wires, only a few firms usually using their motors at night.

To add to the trouble, a transformer at the power station blew out and was out for business for the night.

The Daily News was put to considerable inconvenience, all matter having to be set on the Columbian machines, which are supplied with power by a gasoline motor, and so were not acected by the accident.

Flashlight Powder Explodes.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—Igniting from a stove, a quantity of flashlight powder exploded in a photographic supply factory at 725 East Thirty-ninth street and killed Miss Sylvia Brewster and injured ten girls.

HOUSE BOAT RESIDENTS ORDERED TO VACATE HOMES

Clean-Up Slogan Works Hardship on People Who Have Been Living on Waterfront Street Ends.

In accordance with a general scheme of cleaning up the city, residents in house boats and shacks on the river front at the foot of McNeely street have been asked to move by by the city police. All the shacks and boats will be moved from the city property at this point and the place will be cleaned up and kept in good repair.

There is no definite plan yet to use the property for a wharf, but there is no doubt that the rapidly increasing need for more wharfage accommodation has impelled the council to take this step so that they may be able to use the place at any time on the shortest notice.

Some of the people living there have been in possession for about three years, and it is rather a hardship on them to be compelled to move out, but the city authorities think that the longer they put it off the more hardship there will be.

Prince George Dying.

Belgrade, Servia, Feb. 18.—Former Crown Prince George is near death today at a remote garrison in northeastern Servia. He is suffering from blood poisoning, which resulted from an accidental bullet wound in his hand.

READS LETTER FROM WOMAN AND THEN HANGS HIMSELF

Emerson, Man., Feb. 18.—Yesterday a man about 35 years of age arrived from the South and registered at the Russell house as D. P. Brende, Ortonville, Minn. He appeared to be very much depressed.

This morning he received a letter in the mail in a woman's handwriting.

After glancing hurriedly at the contents he went immediately in the basement, and an hour later his body was found hanging by a bit of clothes line. When cut down life was extinct.

Brende was well supplied with money and was well dressed.

BRITONS SPEAK ON SURTAX REMOVAL

Canada's Treaty With Germany Described as Nail in Free Trade Coffin.

London, Feb. 18.—Asked by London press men if Canada's latest commercial convention constituted a powerful argument in favor of tariff reform here, Lord Strathcona replied:

"I do not know party politics at all. I represent Canada, and therefore cannot speak for the government of Great Britain."

A prominent member of the London Chamber of Commerce said the agreement was a very important affair, and no doubt would greatly help trade between two countries. It is only a foretaste of what might come, he said, if there is no change in present fiscal arrangements. It is a useful object lesson, less of advantage of reciprocal treatment between our country and another.

The head of one of the principal steel making firms of Sheffield stated that the treaty would make it more difficult for the English trade with the Dominion in steel and mining implements. Any impression that German steel was inferior to British, he said, had no good foundation. The treaty was another nail in the free trade coffin. John Rodgers, of the steel cutlery firm of Joseph Rodgers & Sons, Ltd., was not inclined to take a pessimistic view of the effect of the ttreaty upon the cutlery trade, as far as higher qualities were concerned.

Messrs. George Wostenholm & Son, who probably do the largest English cutlery trade with Canada, do not think that the table and jack knife trade will be much affected.

Many German razors are dearer than the British article, and the new tariff will, it is said, enable them to reduce their prices against Sheffield firms who have been making efforts to recover the trade.

Satisfactory Trade Conditions.

New York, Feb. 18.—Dun's Weekly Review of trade tomorrow will say: "Despatches from branch offices in the Dominion of Canada continue to give generally satisfactory conditions. Prices of leading staples remain firm. A satisfactory volume of business is reported with prices very firm. Grain continues dull, but quotations are firm in sympathy with outside markets and limited offerings. Failures in Canada number fifty against forty-two last week and forty the preceeding week and forty-five last year.

AWKWARD BUTCHER BOY SADDLED WITH THREE WIVES

Youngest Bigamist in Captivity Sentenced to Reformatory for Marrying Twice Too Often.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—William Dresher holds the record for being the youngest bigamist now in captivity. Not yet twenty-one, an awkward, ill-favored butcher's boy, he was sentenced today to Elmira reformatory by Judge Foster after confessing he had three wives. The three women who prosecuted Dresher wept copiously as he was led away.

"You are very young to have married three women," said Judge Foster, before he sentenced Dresher, "why did you do it?"

"Oh, I dunno," said the boy sheepishly, "I just couldn't help it, I guess."

CONVICTED SWINDLER USES PENKNIFE TO END LIFE

Plymouth, Mass., Feb. 18.—Borrowing a penknife from one of his neighbors in the Plymouth county jail on the plea that he wished to trim his fingernails, W. L. Fowler, awaiting sentence after conviction on a charge of obtaining money on the promise to marry, drew the blade across his throat and bled to death before a doctor could reach him.

Lives of Loyal Subjects Are in Grave Danger in India

Allahabad, India, Feb. 18.—Jagdalpur today is the centre of one of the most serious Indian revolutions of recent years. The natives are reported to have rebelled against British authority and the lives of the small number of loyal Indians as well as the European residents are in grave danger.

Reports from Jagdalpur today state that less than 200 police are available for duty. The authorities are rushing troops to the scene of the impending trouble, but it is feared they will be unable to arrive at the scene in time to prevent bloodshed.

The disturbance is believed to be the result of the recent outbreaks in Bastiar, in the suppression of which the authorities have made little headway.

Canada's Trade Record Shows Steady Gratifying Increase

THE QUESTION OF THE NAVY.

Mr. McKenna, as First Lord of the Admiralty, has answered in great detail Mr. R. Blatchford's allegations in the London Daily Mail, against the state of the Navy. He said:

"At this moment Great Britain has got seven Dreadnoughts in commission. Germany has got two. When Germany has four in commission, Great Britain will have ten; when Germany has nine in commission, Great Britain will have fourteen; and when Germany has eleven in commission, Great Britain will have sixteen; and when Germany has thirteen in commission, Great Britain will have twenty. That carries us right up to March 31, 1912. Up to the present no program in either country has gone beyond that period.

"Next year will see its own program, and I have no doubt the figures will be equally satisfactory, giving absolute security to this country with regard to subsequent years. These are the facts, given you on official authority, and I think they are sufficient to substantiate the claim of the Government that everything has been done with regard to the construction of these great ships. I have not referred to ships of an earlier type than the Dreadnoughts. We have an overwhelming superiority in that class of ships. The Navy scare has not the slightest foundation in fact.

"It was grossly untrue to say that in two years Germany would have ten Dreadnought docks to Britain's three. As a matter of fact, Britain had at the present time twelve Dreadnought docks. They were not situated in the North Sea, but were just as useful where they were. In two years' time Britain would have sixteen Dreadnought docks, as compared with Germany's nine. It was not true that the British naval base at Rosyth would not be ready for seven years; it would be ready in six years, and probably in five. It was also grossly untrue to say that Germany had more fast destroyers and could build destroyers more rapidly than Britain. Germany had nothing like so many fast destroyers as Britain.

As to Britain's reserve of guns, he would say nothing, for it was a confidential matter, but there had been no change of policy from that adopted by Mr. Balfour's Governement. It was true, Germany had sixteen or seventeen slipways on which Dreadnoughts could be laid down, but Britain had a good many more. It was not true to say Germany could build twelve ships at the same time. The German power of building ships was not at the present moment as rapid as Great Britain's. It was untrue that Great Britain was 16,000 men short, and it was not true that Britain's stores were depleted. The government, concluded Mr. McKenna, made provision for raising the necessary money for the maintenance of the Navy by the Budget, and it was not the fault of the Government that the Budget did not pass."

MINTO CUP DATES ARE OFFICIALLY SETTLED

A telegram was received by H. Ryall yesterday from P. D. Ross which definitely settles the dates of the Minto Cup matches in this city, as announced in the Daily News yesterday. The wire reads:

"Minto Cup trustees hereby fix June 18 and June 25 for matches between Montreal and New Westminster, unless clubs mutually agree otherwise."

ROBIN HOOD FLOUR IS DIFFERENT

Every housewife who uses flour must be interested in ROBIN HOOD "the flour that is different."

You hear it makes a bigger loaf, that the loaf is sweeter-flavored, more nutritious, more easily assimilated than bread made with other flours.

We can tell you why ROBIN HOOD Flour makes that kind of a loaf, but what ought to interest you more than "why it does" is that "it does."

You can prove what we say as true at no risk of loss to yourself.

It is largely a matter of making up your mind to use "Robin Hood."

ADVERTISE IN THE NEWS

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY

AN EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY POLICY insures against loss or expense arising from claims upon the assured for damages on account of personal injuries, regardless of whether legal liability exists or not and whether the claims are made for injuries actually suffered or for injuries merely alleged to have been suffered. Each accident reported is promptly and thoroughly investigated. If the circumstances indicate liability on the part of the assured, steps are taken at once with a view of settlement without litigation. Should legal proceedings be taken, however, the company defends the suit, defrays expenses of litigation, and up to the limits named in the policy pays any damages which may be awarded.

The limits of liability undertaken are: In event of an accident causing death or injury of one person, FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS OR UPWARD.

In event of an accident causing the death or injury of several persons, TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS OR UPWARD.

The policies do not lapse upon these limits being reached, but continue their warranty to pay within such limits every accident that may take place during the policy year, whether few or many.

The Liability Policies of the Railway Passengers' Assurance Company enable employers to reduce to a fixed charge an uncertain element of business expense, which if not properly provided for frequently results in financial disaster. Incidentally, they relieve employers from much annoyance and anxiety.

MARKET REPORT

All prices remained stationery at a featureless market held yesterday. The bad roads prevented a better attendance of farmers, although the buyers turned out better than they have for some time. A further drop in the price of eggs which has been anxiously looked for by the consumers for the past few weeks did not materialize. Small live pigs were in demand, a good supply being in evidence and good prices paid.

The supply of beef was rather small and the demand in consequence was strong, but there was no change in the prevailing price. The supply of lamb and mutton was also short. The same conditions applied to veal, the price of that commodity remaining firm. There was a good supply and demand for pork.

Fowl were not so plentiful as they have been for the last five or six markets, and all that offered were bought in early. Chickens and ducks were in the same category.

For apples the demand was strong for No. 1 stock, but most of the fruit offered was of an inferior quality. Potatoes were the only commodity of which there was a surplus at the market, but most of the good stock was readily disposed of.

Music and Drama

One of the rarest musical treats that it has ever been the privilege of the people of New Westminster to listen to was given in the opera house last night when Maud Powell made her first appearance here, and to the shame of the music lovers of the Royal City be it said the audience was wretchedly poor.

The few who were fortunate enough to attend carried away with them the feeling that they had heard music as near perfection as it is possible to attain.

That Mme. Maud Powell is an artiste has long been known by New Westminster music lovers, this being accepted as a matter of course because of the dictum of the critics; that Mme. Powell is the absolute mistress of her chosen instrument, the kingly violin and that she can through the magic of her bow, sway an audience at will, was recognized for the first time last evening by the audience which for more than an hour sat enraptured by the witchery of sweet strains evoked by an artist of the first rank from an instrument without a peer.

From the moment that she stepped on the stage entranced the audience with the wild music of Tartini's "Le Tille du Diable," the rendition of which thrilled the audience into amazed and breathless silence, till when she closed the concert with the faint strains of equisite melody which mark the finale of Wieniawski's "Polonaise in D. Major," her hearers sat with every faculty intent on music such as it falls to the lot of most people to hear but once in a lifetime.

It would be useless to attempt to describe the Powell recital of last night. To tell those music lovers who were there about it would be a work of superogation, while those who did not hear the matchless violin of Mme. Powell would not understand.

It is not usual that an artiste in concert carries with her as an accompanist another artist, but that is what Mme. Powell does, for in Waldemar Liachowsky is something more than a clever and accomplished accompanist, as was demonstrated by his rendition of Chopin's nocturne in E Minor and Moszkowski's Melodie Italienne.

Though somwehat disappointed at the size of the audience Mme. Powell expressed great pleasure at the appreciative manner in which her work was received. After every selection the applause was deafening and her hearers insisted on encore after encore which Mme. Powell was very kind in giving.

Manager Tidy is certainly to be congratulated on the success which is attending his efforts to supply the theatregoers of New Westminster with first class attractions, and though the audience, as has been said beore, was distinctly discouraging, his persistent efforts to provide the best talent is undoubtedly appreciated by the educated people of the city.

The case of Simpson and Paine against Dr. Doherty for breach of contract, which occupied the attention of Judge Howay all yesterday, was finally non-suited with costs to the plaintiff. The point on which His Honor gave his decision was that the contract was entered into by a government official for the government and consequently he was not the proper person to sue. The claim was for $1000.

A section hand on the Great Northern made a gruesome find on the track near Wolfe's spur crossing yesterday, when he stumbled over the body of a Jap, who was lying at the side of the track almost completely buried in snow. The police were notified immediately, and Constable Wilkie and Detective Bradshaw went out to investigate. They found that the man had been ill for some time, and that he had just returned from consulting a physician in Vancouver. No crime is suspected, as the body had no marks of violence on it and his money was untouched. The dead man's name was S. Ikai; he was 27 years old; had an uncle in Nanaimo and was in the employ of R. W. Fauvel at Duthie, B. C., at the time of his death. Coroner Pittendrigh will hold an inquest on the remains at Burnaby station today.

Now is the time to see about your house decoration. At the same time see I. Hudson on Sixth stret. ***
