FARMERS' ADVOCATE COMMENTS ON EXHIBITION

Winnipeg Paper Criticizes and Compliment Management of Provincial Fair.

A recent issue of the Farmer's Advocate, published in Winnipeg, devotes almost a page to the New Westminster Provincial exhibition. Although somewhat critical, the article in some parts bestows unstinted praise and it is evident that the Advocate correspondent was impressed with the agricultural display here.

The "write-up" in part, is as follows:

If you want to see the agricultural possibilities of British Columbia you should attend one of her large exhibitions. And if you wish to convince yourself that the products you see in the fruit buildings or in the agricultural hall really do grow in British Columbia, wander down amid the large district displays, and without being questioned someone will tell you more than it is possible for you to comprehend and safely carry away. They tell you that the peninsula or the lower mainland is the best mixed farming country in the world; that the district of Ladner can grow more tons of roots per acre than any hot-bed in Saskatchewan, that Surrey can grow anything from peanuts to elephants. You are reminded that the turf on Vancouver Island is unsurpassed, and that land sells at six hundred dollars an acre—worth it for the climate alone. At this juncture a man from the upper country taps you on the shoulder and mutters of the Okanagan country or the Kootenay. He speaks of irrigated lands, developed and undeveloped; of high-tabled lands and valleys where apples and peaches grow in abundance. Those mammoth and blushing fruits and the overgrown vegetables are before you as witnesses, and, once convinced, you move on. Walking through the dairy barns or loitering by te horse-ring you notice that the winners are largely all bred in British Columbia, that the Canadian-bred classes contain the championship animals, and upon consideration you are prone to remark that British Columbia truly has great agricultural possibilities.

But there is one thing you must not expect when you attend a British Columbia exhibition, and that is fine weather. If you go with that expectation you will surely be disappointed. This is what was encountered this year at the New Westminster Provincial Exhibition. There was a grand display of fruit and agricultural products and a good showing of livestock, but the weather was most unfavorable. Each and every day there was continuous precipitation. Despite it all the show was held, and an average attendance went forth in umbrella parade, doing honor to the Queen City exhibition.

The citizens of New Westminster pride themselves on their exhibition, and because it is successful from an agricultural standpoint. In this they are right and much credit is due the managers for their honest endeavors. At the present time they have the support and the confidence of the farmers and livestock men, and we judge it would be to the interest of the exhibition management to retain this support. This year there was considerable dissatisfaction among the exhibitors regarding the courtesy and accommodation given them. Whether or not there was cause for this discontent, it is not for us to say, but speaking for the exhibitor we should say that any breeder who goes to the trouble and takes the risk of bringing his livestock to the show should receive every encouragement from the management. Manager Keary is an efficient man, but he should not be hampered by stringent rules and regulations enforced to make financial profits. The New Westminster exhibition is renowned as an agricultural educator and it is to be hoped it ever will be known as such.

The fruit display is an exhibition in itself, for the showing of apples stands unprecedented in the history of the province. E. C. Armstrong, superintendent of fruit culture in Oregon state, and E. C. Roberts, also of Oregon made the awards in the fruit entries and both made favorable comment as to the quality and the quantity of fruit on exhibition. One of the important special features of the fair this year was the demonstrations on fruit packing, given by B. R. Denny, of the Oregon Agricultural college. A large number of provincial fruit growers as well as local farmers attended these demonstrations. The grading of the different fruits was also taken up thoroughly. Grading has been the chief difficulty with small fruit growers, and the government inspectors have quite often had to censure the growers. These demonstrations will no doubt give fruit growers a good idea of how the fruit should be graded.

District Exhibits.

Perhaps no one feature of the exhibition was of greater consequence than that of the district exhibits. These were displayed in the agricultural hall, and they filled almost the entire lower part of the building. The district of Surrey for the second time carried off first honors, winning the Dewar trophy for the finest district exhibit. The Langley district was a good second, for they were only a few points behind the winner. Kelowna and Salmon Arm had also fine displays. The Kelowna district lies in the center of the large Okanagan valley, famous the North American continent over for its fine fruits. The Kelowna district is especially noted for its apples, both winter and summer varieties. A. H. Muirhead is an extensive fruit grower of that district and one of its most enterprising citizens.

THOUSAND WOMEN [illegible] PARLIAMENT

Suffragettes Reopen Hostilities, but Gallant Effort Only Lands Them in Jail.

London, Nov. 18.—The militant suffragettes reopened hostilities against the government today and, marching 1000 strong on the parliament buildings, gave the police a lively fight. The women, many of whom were placed under arrest, were led by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst.

The suffragettes had determined if possible to force the police cordon about the House of Lords, and reaching Premier Asquith to insist on the introduction of a woman's suffrage bill. The police, however, were too strongly entrenched and the women, who tried every means in their power to force the line were thrown back. Repeatedly they retired breathless and dishevelled, only to have their places on the fighting line taken by reserves. The police were ordered to make as few arrests as possible. By three o'clock twenty-one women and two men were in the police station.

A large contingent of American bluejackets from the visiting fleet were amused spectators of the struggle and, lustily cheering the combatants, incited them to fresh efforts. The fight continued and the police were compelled to make wholesale arrests.

At four o'clock eighty-two of the suffragettes and their supporters had been taken into custody.

APPEARANCE ASSURED.

Witness Who Failed to Show Up Yesterday Spends Night in Lockup.

S. J. Morrison, a witness who failed to answer to his name when a case was called in the city police court yesterday morning, spent last night in the cells and may give some testimony this morning. The case was one of forgery against Peter McCoy, who is charged with uttering a forged document on the Bank of British North America in Vancouver some time last July.

McCoy was taken in in Vancouver the other day on a vagrancy charge and when the police examined him they found that he had been wanted for six months. The case, owing to the non-appearance of Morrison, was remanded until this morning.

TRUANTS.

Help of Police Sought to Find Missing Vancouver Child.

A little eleven-year-old girl named Tompkins and her little five-year-old brother ran away from Vancouver on Thursday and came to New Westminster.

The father was over here yesterday looking for them and the police were also searching. It is understood the father located them last night, although the police were not notified.

The pair of truants were seen by a citizen on Thursday night and at that time they asked for enough car fare to take them to Sapperton. The little girl has run away before and gone to Sapperton, where the family used to live. The last time she left home she was found wandering about a cemetery in Sapperton looking for the grave of a little sister.

Dissolution in Ten Days.

RIOTING IN MEXICO IS BECOMING VERY SERIOUS

Clash in Pueblo Results in One Hundred Persons Being Killed---Chief of Police First to Fall---Rebels Entrenched in House.

City of Mexico, Nov. 18.—One hundred persons, including the chief of police, are reported to have been killed in riots at Pueblo today.

The trouble started in the morning, when a body of police attempted to break up an anti-re-electionist meeting being held in a large hall. As the force advanced on the building a door was opened and a woman shot and killed the chief.

The attacking party was joined by a company of rurales, but when they reached the house in which the rebels were entrenched a bomb was thrown and many of them were killed.

Other casualties occurred in desultory street fighting.

This evening a regiment of federal troops and some rurales moved against the house, but with what success cannot be learned.

It is believed that there are no Americans among those killed.

Johnston was a conductor of the B. C. E. R., but at the time of the accident he was riding in plain clothes as a passenger.

MEALS A CENT APIECE.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—The first step toward feeding the thousands of school children from the poorer districts of Chicago was taken by the School Management committee today, when it decided upon establishing lunch rooms in six of the largest schools. The committee will limit the meals to soup and bread and butter. It is purposed to charge one cent for the food, which will be served both in the morning and at noon. If a hungry child is without money, however, it will be fed. The children will get all the soup and bread and butter they want. The girl pupils will be taught to set the tables and to serve the food. The committee was told that the physical and mental progress of thousands of children was being retarded by lack of nourishment.

POTATOES ALONE SHOW DECREASE

Census Bureau Reports on Field Crops for the Fall.

The census office has just issued a bulletin on the crops of Canada as prepared from reports made up to the end of October.

The closing months of the year give good reports for nearly all of the field crops of the Dominion. Potatoes alone indicate partial failure, and in all the provinces there are complaints of rot in the fields and in the heaps for winter storage. The area is 503,262 acres and the estimated yield 74,048,000 bushels, being an average of about 147 bushels per acre, which is nearly uniform for all the provinces. The quality is 84.42 per cent.

Turnips and other field roots show a quality of 88.57, a yield per acre of 402 bushels and a total yield of 95,207,000 bushels for a crop of 236,622 acres. Hay and clover are computed for 8,515,400 acres and a yield per acre of 1.82 tons. The quality is 90.45 per cent and the total yield 15,497,000 tons. Fodder corn has an estimated yield per acre of 9.38 tons, which upon an area of 271,960 acres gives a product of 2,551,000 tons.

Sugar beets are grown most extensively in Ontario and Alberta, where they supply roots for three sugar factories. The area in crop this year is 16,000 acres, which is a substantial increase upon last year. The yield per acre is 9.69 tons, the total yield 155,000 tons and the quality 93.15 per cent. The roots supplied to the Berlin factory are testing 17 per cent of sugar and at the Wallaceburg factory 16 per cent, but a product of 5000 acres in Ontario is being shipped to factories in Michigan. The product of 8200 acres in that province is marketed at Wallaceburg and Berlin, where the average price is about $5.86 per ton or better than $57.80 per acre.

Computed at the average local prices the market value of potatoes this year is $33,446,000, of turnips and other roots $21,444,000, of hay and clover $149,716,000, of fodder corn $11,957,000, and of sugar beets $887,000. The report on fall wheat sown this year shows an area of 790,300 acres, whereof 682,500 acres are in Ontario and 98,000 in Alberta. The condition of the crop is reported at 98.40 per cent as compared with 93.60 last year.

The per cent of fall ploughing completed this year compared with the area planned for is less than last year, but the report is made for a period one month earlier. The per cent of summer fallowing compared in the same way is somewhat lower, but increases are shown for Saskatchewan and Alberta.

GOVERNMENT PREPARES TO THROW HOMESTEADS OPEN

Inspector Magee Getting Ready for Big Rush of Work—Prefers Coast to Kamloops.

Although no lands are being homesteaded in the coast section of the railway belt at present, preparations are under way to throw the land open for settlement again, according to a statement made yesterday by W. D. Magee, government homestead inspector, to a representative of the News.

Mr. Magee has been here for some time in connection with the work of getting the affairs of the department into shape for the rush of work which is expected to follow, when the restrictions against homesteading which prevail at present are removed.

A few months ago new regulations governing the homesteading of lands in the railway belt were printed and were to have gone into force during the summer, but the government could not complete its arrangements in time and the regulations were not put into force.

For several years Mr. Magee has been homestead inspector of British Columbia, having his headquarters at Kamloops, but he has now moved to New Westminster, preferring, as he stated, a little more rain and a little less snow.

He states that in the Kamloops district there has been some trouble lately between the government and certain homesteaders, but it was being adjusted and everything would be working smoothly soon.

LONG MEMORY BRINGS WOE TO FRIEND IN NEED

Caller at Police Station Arrested on Charge of Purporting to Solemnize Marriage Year Ago.

Walking into the police station last evening, seeking to get a friend out on bail, a man giving his name as L. Campbell was recognized by Chief Bradshaw and arrested on a charge almost a year old.

On December 12, 1909, a warrant was issued for James Thompson, charged with purporting to solemnize a marriage. At the time of the alleged offence the facts were not made public, but it is now stated that the man, pretending to be a clergyman, united in marriage a local girl and a Vancouver man. After the fake marriage Thompson disappeared and ever since then the police have been on a still hunt for him.

The man's description was left in the hands of the police. One of his peculiarities was a drooping eyelash. When Chief Bradshaw saw the man, who, by the way, came in to see if he could get his friend Morrison, charged with not obeying a summons to appear as a witness, out on bail, he noticed that he had a drooping eyelash. He looked up the records and found that the description of the friend in need tallied in every particular with that of the wanted man.

The case will be called in the police court this morning, but will probably be adjourned until witnesses can be secured.

The offence with which Campbell is charged is a very serious one, and if found guilty, he may serve a sentence of seven years in the penitentiary.

THE DIARY OF A PRETTY WISE KID

Call Boy's Jottings Down Bespeak Some Knowledge of Human Nature.

Ne wYork, Nov. 18.—November 18, eight o'clock. This is a pretty bum apartment house. Haven't had a tip for nearly a week. If a tip was to come and look me in the face I wouldn't know it. Say, is everybody broke?

8:10—Apartment 61 telephoned down to ask if their milk had come. Told her "No mam." She said that was funny. I said "Yes, mam." I asked her if I should run out and get her a bottle of milk. She said she wished I would. I'll wait a little while and then I'll take her 56's quart. Ought to get a quarter out of it anyhow.

8:12—This is the limit. Took the milk up to 61 and she gave me 9 cents. 9 cents.

8:15—A party has just telephoned Mrs. Wallaby in 24. Her husband is out of town. Funny that nobody ever phones her when her husband is home. The party asked her if she would like to go to a show this evening. He called her Sis, but that don't go with me. Wait till I see her. Maybe I won't look at her hard and try to scare a tip out of her. Oh no!

9:10—All the men have gone to work now except 43, 62 and Mrs. Munney's husband. 43 is out of a job and Mrs. Munney's husband has taken the dog fo ra walk. I feel kinder sorry for 43. He's certainly looking seedy and the super is up there all the time dunning them for the rent. There's a doctor up in 62.

9:30—I have just been calling up the boys. We had some fancy time last night. There was eight of us. I'll have to fasten those seven phone calls on somebody. Let's see—26, 31, 42 and 46 haven't been stuck lately. They'll do.

9:40—A boy just come with C. O. D. package for 39. He went back with it, too. That's twice he's been. I guess 39 is hard up and I'll put the super wise.

9:50—Mrs. Wherry has just come down. She does her shopping in the morning—chucking a bluff that she keeps a girl, I guess. She's one of those who try to be affable to the hallboys, but I don't like them stingy affable ways. I like the kind who call you down hard and then tip you because they spoke so sharp.

10—The gas man says 39 told him they had no less change than a $20 bill. He said he could change it easy and then they couldn't find it. They're broke, all right, up in 39.

10:15—Somebody just phoned for Mrs. Carney. She hasn't give me a nickel since I've been here and she reported me once for smoking cigarettes. "Who do you want?" I asked, when they phoned for her. They said her name half a dozen times and then to hold the wire and when they got good and mad I asked them: "Is she the janitor's wife?" Then I hung up, and if they call up again I'll say that Central cut us off.

10:40—I have been looking over the mail. The girl in 63 has got a new fellow. He writes twice a day, works in an insurance company downtown, and his name is Benson. Guess I'll see him soon. There's a lawyer's letter for 39. I never liked those people. I wish people would write their post cards plainer. 66 got some foreign post cards all written over with "Wish you was with us," and "This is a lovely view." Somebody's trying to make 66 jealous, I guess, and from the sour way they are looking lately I guess it's working, too. A letter came for Mrs. Wallaby sealed with red sealing wax. Looks funny to me.

10:50—Now they are starting to phone the stores. If I was Mr. Titson I'd buy a delicatessen store. He'd find it cheaper in the end. His bills must be a fright. I don't believe Mrs. T. ever cooks anything, and he's wearing his last winter's hat. 45 ordered four broilers. Going some. The Bankses ordered half a pound of pork chops. What's the matter with those people? Are they going to have company?

11—A new chair just came for 25; it's time. When they moved in and their furniture was out on the sidewalk it looked as if somebody had been evicted. I guess they'll take turns in sitting in the new chair and—

11:25—25 just called up his wife and asked if the new chair had come. Such excitement. I wouldn't wonder if they gave a party and held a reception over that new chair.

11:45—A woman came in to see if we had any vacant apartments. Showed her the one on the fifth. She asks how much and I told her $75 a month. She asked if we had anything cheaper. I turned to her slow and haughty and said "Mam?" She asked me again. "No Mam," says I, "Not in this house." That fixed her.

11:20—Mrs. Thomas, of 39, just came down, very excited. She hurried out and I saw she had the lawyer's letter in her hand. I wonder if her husband's in trouble. In jail, maybe. He always had a bad eye to me. A hallboy gets a good chance to study human nature and if those people aren't in bad, I miss my guess.

11:30—Mrs. Thomas came running in with a handful of money. She told me to ring up her husband downtown and she was in such a hurry she used my switchboard. "Hello, Jim!" she shouts, "I got a letter from the lawyers this morning and the estate is settled at last. They sent a check for the first month. Sure I got it cashed." She tipped me a dollar. I always knew those people were the real thing.

11:45—Another fifteen minutes and I'm through for the day. Me for the ball game this afternoon. This dollar is too good to keep.

11:55—The doctor just came down from 62 where he's being all morning. He had a grin on his face and he hadn't got to the door yet when Mr. Mallet, up in 62, began telephoning everybody that it was a boy. Say, he's excited. I guess I'll take his mail up and maybe there'll be something for me.

12—Another dollar! Say, it's a great day outside, too. That's what I've always said. If you treat everybody right, they'll treat you the same way, and there's nothing in this world that pays a hallboy so well as being kind and gentle to the tenants who are under him.

GREAT HIGHWAYS.

It is gratifying to see the question of good roads is coming more prominently to the front, and that the real value and importance of first class highway accommodation is being more widely recognized. Most of the older countries are provided with splendid public thoroughfares for wheel and pedestrian traffic, both in the way of main highways or trunk roads and by-roads.

The importance of and recognized necessity for such means of communication was recognized by ancient civilizations, the Romans being the greatest road builders the world has known. what is more, the roads made by them, well nigh two thousand years since, remain as perfect highways to this day. The railways came long after the great highways were made and established in the older countries, which thus, whilst enjoying the advantages of the cheaper and more speedy means of communication provided by the steam engine, and later by the electric locomotive, retained for ordinary purposes of travel the ancient highways that extended from end to end and side to side of their territory.

Here in Canada, the position is virtually reversed. Our country has been opened up and developed almost entirely by the agency of the railway, and good roads are consequently a minus quantity, whilst great highways are non existent. Now, however, the real value of the trunk road is becoming recognized, mainly owing to the increasing popularity of the automobile.

Some months ago announcement was made that the Hon. T. Taylor, Minister of Public Works, had formulated a scheme for the construction of a main highway extending from the Pacific coast through this province and thence through the prairie provinces. This project, to which we gave our hearty approval at the time, is now being considered by the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, and there is every reason to believe that it will be carried out. Eventually, no doubt, this highway will extend to the Atlantic ocean and thus, whilst providing a means of communication that will be commercially valuable will also open up to pleasure travel the most beautiful parts of the country.

Lately there has come to the fore a proposal to construct a trunk road from Northern British Columbia to Mexico in the south. The scheme has already been adopted by the states on the other side of the boundary line through which it will pass, and it now remains for this province to fall in line and make this international highway possible. This proposal came before the New Westminster board of trade on Thursday evening, in the form of a request by the Surrey board to endorse a resolution inviting government aid for opening up and improving the Clover Valley road, which it is hoped, will form a section of the great highway. The board, however, whilst agreeing that the government should assist in the construction of a road that would form such a connection, declined to support the Clover Valley road proposal in particular. In this they were acting wisely. Though the Clover Valley road may form the best and most direct route, it may also be that some other route will ultimately have to be decided upon. Yet this Surrey road is undoubtedly a valuable means of local communication and whether it is incorporated in the international highway or not, it is to be hoped the government may be prevailed upon to give adequate assistance towards its much needed improvement.

MARKET REPORT

Nothing of unusual interest falls to be recorded in connection with the weekly market. On the whole, prices tended to go below those of last week ,but so little as to make no appreciable difference to the retail buyer. The attendance was well up to standard, and there was no lack of buyers in any of the lines. A good supply of vegetables came forward an dthe sales were fairly good. Fish and game of all kinds sold very readily, and the supply was rather under the demand.

Beef was not so plentiful as it might have been, and was all sold, and the same may be said of lamb and mutton.

The supply of fowls was abundant and there was a good demand for hens of No. 1 quality, although lower grades did not command the same attention.

The price of eggs continues firm, and vendors had no difficulty in disposing of their shipments. Apples and pears appeared in larger quantities than usual, and rather exceeded the demand.

SPORTS

CITY SOCCER LEAGUE MAY BE ORGANIZED NEXT WEEK

Movement on Foot to Supply Long Felt Want in Local Football Circles—Meeting Soon.

The latest move in the sporting circles of New Westminster is the proposed formation of a city soccer league. A cup has been promised for competition among the clubs and the chances are bright for the formation of the league. A meeting will be called for some time next week, when the whole project will be discussed and acted on by the soccer enthusiasts.

The B. C. E. R. car shops are relied upon to put a team in the field and there may be one or two city teams. This is all that there is in sight so far, but the meeting next week may bring out some more material.

There are all sorts of good players in the city who, although not good enough to play with the Rovers, or not anxious to enter the professional ranks, like the game and would be glad of an opportunity to play.

Up to the present the Rovers have always had to rely on outside places for recruits for their team, but if the present proposal is carried into effect the seniors may have a body of young players to draw on, as is the case in lacrosse at present.

The date of the meeting will be announced later.

Football Fixtures.

There are two fixtures of the School Football league card today, St. Louis college and Sapperton at Queens park at ten o'clock, and Lord Kelvin and Central schools on Moody Square at two o'clock. The line-up of the teams is as follows:

Lord Kelvin School: Maine, Smith, Topping, Swanson, Furness, Marsdale, James Marsdale, E. Furness, Casselman, Kellie and Lindsay. Central school: Sait, Fader, McAllister, Annandale, Rolth, Stottard, Sinclair, T. Annandale, Solomon, Craig and Burkitt.

St. Louis college: Lavell, Guichon, Leonhardt, Sullivan, Tedrow, A. Leonhardt, Swenceski, Fitzgerald, V. Swenceski, Pittendrigh and Morrison. Sapperton line-up was not available in time for publication. The games promise to be well contested.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS PLAY HOCKEY TODAY

The Ladies' Hockey teams of Vancouver and Westminster High schools will meet in deadly combat at Moody Square this afternoon at half past two, when the following team will carry the banner of New Westminster to death or victory: Goal, Phyllis Bechill; full back, Laura Robertson, Dorothy Wilson; half back, Maggie Davis, Mary Robertson, May Kittson; forwards, E. G. Wilkie, Clara Maxwell, Maggie Wilkie, Alice Corbett, and Waverly Chasney; emergency players, Florence Price and Shirley Haggard.

MORE TIME FOR PLAY AND LESS FOR STUDIES

Montreal, Nov. 18.—When the corporation of the University of McGill meets a few days hence it will find an entirely new proposition confronting it. The proposition is that of the football club.

"More time for football, or no football," is virtually what the football club will have to say.

The football club will make a recommendation to the McGill Amateur Athletic association, with which it is incorporated, that the latter organization put up to the corporation to allow more time for practice during the Rugby season.

The thing has been discussed for some time by the student body. A plan of action was laid, and, headed by Dan Gilmor, the captain of the McGill Football club, a recommendation will go forth today from the football club to the A. A. A. as stated above.

The trouble seems to be that the students attribute the lack of succes of the football team during the past two or three seasons to the fact that lectures interfere with football. Therefore they say in effect, "Lectures at some other time or no football."

MOOSE AND DEER MOVE BECAUSE OF BIG FIRE

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 18.—One effect of the big forest fires in Minnesota has been an extensive immigration of moose and deer from the fire-swept districts into Canada. In Western Algoma moose are now reported to be in greater abundance than for many years past; indeed, so plentiful has been the immigration of them that some have been reported killed by the C. P. R. trains running through that district.

Filth in Toronto Slums.

Toronto, Nov. 18.—Fowl occupying living rooms, sixteen houses with one water tap between them, fruit in the last stages of decay, offered for sale, nine children huddled together in one bed under a heap of old clothes and rags, as their mother pathetically explained, it was the only way to keep them warm, houses over-crowded, adults of different sexes eating, sleeping and living in the same room; these were some of the examples cited by Dr. C. J. Hastings, medical health officer, of conditions of life in the city, in an address last night before the Irish Protestant Benevolent society.

TORONTO IS WASTING MONEY HIRING HORSES

Toronto, Nov. 18.—That the street-cleaning plant is entirely deficient, considering the growth of the city, and that the policy of renting horses instead of the city owning all the horses was an exceedingly wasteful method, were two statements made by R. C. Harris, property and street commissioner, in a report to the works committee yesterday. The committee decided to recommend that the board of control provide $16,000 for the purchase of horses. Mr. Harris showed that the owners of the horses received an average of $159 per week for the rent of the horses, the city stabling and feeding the animals. In nineteen months the owners got back the full value of the horse and besides it had increased in value by $50 through good stabling and feeding. The money spent on horse rent for a year is interest at 4 per cent on a sum sufficient to buy the horses sixteen times over.

This subject has been brought up in council on various occasions but no action of any account had ever been taken.

VOTE SUM FOR PRESS CENSORS

St. Petersburg, Nov. 18.—In the Finnish budget, as recently confirmed by the Czar Nicholas, a number of estimates for economic, educational, and sanitary purposes have been struck out. The educational estimates include subsidies to the communes for elementary and Sloyd schools, grants for adult schools, kindergartens, summer colonies for poor children, feeding and clothing poor children, libraries, etc.

Estimates for a sanatorium for consumptives in Osterbothma, new lecture rooms for the university, the completion of roads in Lapland, already begun, and the widening of the Saima canal, have also been brought down.

On the other hand, an increase has been made in the salaries of governors, and in these of senators in the Economic department. In addition a sum of $25,872 is set aside for press censors, one of whom is to be stationed in each town, and whose work was to begin from October 1.

Love veils her eyes to the Imperfections of her idol, And drinks deep draughts From the fount of Trust.
—MUNYON.

IF I can inaugurate a great spirit of charity, of sympathy and forgiveness throughout the world, I shall have done much to sweeten and prolong life, for as I have stated in previous articles, most troubles, most ailments and most sorrows are caused by distrust, selfishness and indifference. I will go further—I believe that most failures and most crimes are due to this want of human sympathy. We expect more than we are willing to give. We see imperfections in others, but are blind to our own defects. Under this unnatural condition of mind our digestion becomes impaired, our nerves irritated, our mental vision distorted and our peace of mind destroyed.

Hopeism, which I am spreading all over this country, means Loveism, means Peaceism. It means to get the most happiness out of life. It means the development of the God-like qualities that are in man. I am glad to see that this doctrine is being received with such enthusiasm. From all over the land I am receiving letters commending me for holding aloft the lantern of Hope.

My contention that the lower bowel is responsible for most of our ignoble thoughts and deeds, for most of our aches and pains, for our tempers and uncharitable acts, is being confirmed by the medical fraternity throughout the civilized world.

If a man's bowels are constipated, he is bound to suffer with indigestion, biliousness, headaches, nervousness and general depression. Constipation means poisoning the blood and weakening every nerve tissue. It is the cause of skin eruptions and sallow complexion. It dims the eye and deadens the intellect. A great writer once told me that he always flushed the lower bowel before he attempted to write. It made him think more clearly and more strongly.

Munyon's Paw Paw Laxative Pills are doing more to correct indigestion, liver ailments and constipation than any remedy yet compounded. They are not a purgative. They do not irritate the nerves and weaken the body, but they do assist digestion, they do put a lazy liver into activity, they do purify the blood, and they do positively keep the bowels clear, sanitary and normal. They habituate the bowels to act regularly, without any foreign assistance. They do get all the nutriment out of the food that is put into the stomach, thereby feeding the nerves, strengthening the body and prolonging life.

Here are four remedies that I want the public to use, with the distinct understanding that if they are not perfectly satisfied with the results, I will refund their money.

I want every rheumatic to use my Rheumatism Cure. It neutralizes the uric acid, and one bottle usually takes away all aches and pains. It contains no salicylic acid, no morphine or other harmful drugs.

I want every person who is subject to colds to try Munyon's Cold Cure. It gives almost immediate relief.

I want every person who suffers with any kidney trouble, no matter how serious, or how many doctors have failed to cure, to try my Kidney Remedy. One or two bottles will take away the backaches, the urinary difficulties, the puffiness under the eyes, swelling of the limbs and the general weakness and lassitude that follow this dread disease.

I want all persons who suffer with Piles, before they consent to an operation of any kind, or use any more ointments, or take any more medicine, to try my Pile Ointment. Its remedial action of any kind, or use any more ointa 25-cent tube of this ointment to cure cases that the most celebrated specialists in the land had been unable to relieve.

In addition to the above four remedies, Munyon's Homoeopathic Home Remedy Company put up specifics for nearly every ailment. They are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents per vial. They are absolutely harmless and are from the formulas of the most celebrated specialists of the world.

MUNYON'S DOCTORS FREE.

There are thousands of people who feel that they would like to consult a doctor before taking medicine. To accommodate this class, I have physicians who make examination and give advice without charge. You can't pay them a penny for their services. You will receive the same careful, painstaking examination as if you paid them $5, and you will not be expected to buy one penny's worth of medicine.

MANY AEROPLANES IN BELLE FRANCE

Paris, Nov. 18.—The French republic without doubt, leads the world in aviation. In Paris it is so common to see aerial craft of one type or another in operation, that it no longer excites unusual interest, and, in many cases, not much more than ordinary comment. At the recent aviation show in Paris there was a remarkable variety of aerial craft, while the advance that has been made in the general construction of such machines is startling.

Instead of what may now be regarded as the comparatively crude machines of last year, there were to be seen examples of planes and balloons much beyond what the conception of last year seemed possible. Dozens of aeroplanes of practical makes unknown outside of Frances were to be seen, thus showing the progress that the manufacture of such machines has made.

Among the unusual appearing machines was a monoplane with a fish shaped "chassis" having two propellers situated between the wings and the tail, a biplane with planes shaped like arcs of a circle, the upper ones curved downward, and the lower ones upwards, to meet them

EXIT "HOBBLE" SKIRT.

Paris, Nov. 18.—The "hobble" skirt is dead in Paris. It has been killed by a succession of accidents.

During the last few weeks ladies wearing this peculiar costume have fallen so often and so awkwardly that several arms and legs have been broken, and the Parisienne has now definitely decided against the "hobble" skirt.

Her decision has brought with it a curious little crisis in the second-hand clothes trade. At the old clothes market in the Temple, thousands of "hobble" skirts are on sale at prices varying from 4s. upwards—but there are no buyers.

The "midinettes"—or dressmakers' and milliners' assistants—who are the usual customers, are just as careful of their limbs as other persons, and the probable fate of bales of "hobble" skirts will before long be export to the colonies

The appropriations for general revenue of Burnaby Municipality are almost exhausted and a meeting of the council this afternoon will consider the abvisability of stopping all work paid out of these funds. A special meeting of the finance committee will be held on Monday.

A hunting party which is expected to bring back all kinds of big game to New Westminster left here last evening for Texada island. The personel of the party is Alderman C. A. Welsh, L. B. Lusby, Dr. Rothwell, Dr. Smith and Dr. McKay. The party left on F S DeGrey's new launch and is provisioned for a week's stay.

In the provincial police court this morning, Q. McGill of this city, will appear on a charge of pointing a revolver at Harold Kentworthy, of Hatzic Prairie. His Honor Judge Howay delivered an interesting lecture in the Simon Fraser school, Vancouver, on Thursday evening on the life and explorations of the discoverer of the Fraser river. The story was drawn mainly from the explorer's journal, and from the records of the Northwest company, of Montreal, with which he was associated. A number of lantern slides of scenes on the Fraser, portraits of the explorer, and drawings of the company's forts were used to illustrate the lecture.

The Citizens' Moral Reform league held a meeting in the Olivet Baptist church Thursday night, and while nothing definite can be learned regarding the proceedings, it is understood that the coming civic elections were the subject of a good deal of discussion. A B. C. E. Ry. train on the Fraser Valley line ran over a man who was lying on the track near Vedder Mountain Station on Thursday, severing his head from his body. The remains were taken to Chilliwack, where they were identified as those of A. Dubois, a laborer employed on the B. C. E. Ry. at Sumas Prairie. It is believed that deceased had been drinking and had fallen asleep with his head across the rail. An inquest was held at Chilliwack yesterday afternoon, when the jury returned a verdict of death by misadventure, exonerating the train crew from all blame. Deceased came to this province from Quebec, where his father is a grocer.
