MACKENZIE AND MANN ARE EXPECTED HERE

Railway Magnates Have Promised to Visit Westminster This Week.

William Mackenzie and D. D. Mann, of the Canadian Northern are expected to visit New Westminster sometime this week. When Mayor Lee was in Victoria on Friday Mr. Mackenzie assured him that he would be here the first of this week. Mr. Mann said that he would come if he could but that he might be called back to the East before he had an opportunity of visiting the Royal City.

The Athabasca, the private car of Wm. Mackenzie was taken through New Westminster yesterday to Seattle, but the men of the hour were not on it.

Mayor Lee had a long conversation with the railway men while he was in Victoria. They told him that the railway company would start construction as soon as they had come to a definite agreement with the government, and that the probabilities were that a large force of men would be working in this vicinity in a short time. They were reticent as to the location of their Pacific coast terminal, but let it be understood that New Westminster would be considered when the question comes up for decision.

Province Settles It.

According to the Vancouver Province the matter has already been settled, and the terminal will be somewhere on False Creek. The following is the reported result of a Province interview with D. D. Mann:

"The freight terminals of the Canadian Northern railway will be located on False Creek east of Westminster avenue bridge, alongside those of the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific railways, provided the management is able to secure a share of the tideflats from the city. The company is willing to accede to the proposition for a union depot near the bridge. It does not favor the project of the city filling in the tideflats and renting space to the road at an annual rental, nor does it regard as feasible the plan for the vesting of the proposed improvements in a terminal company, on which the various railways and the city would have representation."

FORM ORGANIZATION TO PROMOTE GOOD ROADS

The Good Roads Alliance, an organisation composed of members of the different boards of trade recently formed in most of the municipalities on the south side of the river, are starting a movement to have some change made in the method by which the provincial government aid is given for road building. The alliance wants a uniform system started instead of the haphazard method now employed by the government.

The farmers complain that at present the executive does not adopt any definite plan with the result that a piece of road is built here or there with no regard to a general scheme of road improvement. They also state that at election time roads are built indiscriminately for the purpose of securing votes from those benefited.

The proposal advanced by the Good Roads Alliance is to have a system patterned somewhat after the plan adopted in the state of Washington; have the government pay only 50 per cent. of the cost of the road; the municipality to pay 35 per cent., and the remaining 15 per cent. collected by a local improvement tax.

A meeting of representatives from Delta, Surrey, Langley, Matsqui and Sumas will be held within a week or two to get the scheme into shape to present to the government at Victoria. At present the movement only includes the municipalities on the south side of the river, but if those on the north side desire to come in there will probably be no opposition.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT TO BRING ON BIG SENSATION

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 16.—Sensational developments, including an inquisition by the grand jury of Onondaga county, are expected to result from the efforts of the state insurance department to take over the business and $3,000,000 assets of the Peoples' Mutual Life Insurance association and League of Syracuse.

ELECTION RESULTS IN MUNICIPALITIES

Polling on Saturday Took Many People Away From Cities--Surprise in Burnaby

The nearby municipalities held elections on Saturday. There were contests for reeve nearly everywhere, and a number of Vancouver and Westminster people who own property in Burnaby, Surrey, Coquitlam or other municipalities were taken out to the country to vote. The surprise of the day was the size of Reeve Byrne's majority over B. G. Walker for the reeveship of Burnaby. A close run was expected there, but the present reeve received more than twice as many votes as his opponent. The results in the several municipalities are as folows:

Burnaby.

For Reeve—P. Byrne 299, B. G. Walker 141; majority for Bryne 250.

For Councillors (in each ward)—Ward One: D. C. McGregor (acclamation); Ward Two: Eber Stride (acclamation); Ward Three: T. D. Coldicott 52, R. L. Cliff 47, Lt.-Col. Ward 19; Ward Four: H. J. McKee 35, J. B. Amos 18; Ward Five L. C. Hill 18, James Anderson 5; Ward Six: John Rumble 58, W. S. Silver 42, W. George 12.

School Trustees—D Ross 249, P. B. Brown 247, H. J. Whittaker 243 (two years). F. T. Cliff 222 (one year). T. Emerson was defeated.

Coquitlam.

For Councillors (first five elected)—James Fox 111, Joseph Cameron 97, R. J. Hawthorne 94, R. J. Mounce 90, Charles Tyner 81, James Grey 74, W. J. Norman 65, J. A. Sebrach 61.

The late Mrs. Witnemute was born in Devonshire, but came to Canada when she was eight years old. For a time she lived in St. Thomas, Ont., but has been in New Westminster for forty-five years. She is survived by a husband and three sons: Robert and Alfred, living at home, and George, who lives in Seattle. The funeral will take place today at two p. m. from the family residence on Third avenue, to the Odd Fellows cemetery.

SEEK SECRET SUFFRAGE AND REFORM OF FRANCHISE

Ran Away From Home.

A little girl named Mary Tompkins, ten or eleven years old, ran away from her home in Vancouver on Saturday and came to this city. When found here she was in one of the cemeteries in Sapperton decorating a grave under the impression that it was her little sitser's. She explained that her mother had promised her a strapping if she was not home by five o'clock on Friday night. Finding that she would not be home by that time, she was afraid and spent the in a basement, coming over here, where the family used to live, in the morning. An officer was sent back with her to the Terminal City.

POST OFFICE TO BE ON SEMI-STAFF BASIS

Growth of Population and Local Business Has Been Recognized by Department

Beginning the first of April, which is the first day of the fiscal year for the Dominion, the Westminster postoffice will be placed in the class known as semi-staff city office. This means that the appointment of the office staff will be absolutel yunder the control of hte postal department the control of the postal department has been the case in the past. It is understood most of the clerks at present employed will be retained, with the exception of three of the girls, whose places will be filled by men, it being the policy of the department to dispense with female labor as much as possible. It is probable the force will be increased, but these details are not yet definitely settled.

Increase in Salaries.

An extra letter carrier who will also be employed in the sorting department will be added to the present staff. The letter carriers have always received their salaries from Ottawa, and have not been, like the other members of the staff, engaged and paid by the local postmaster. The staff will receive increased salaries under the new system, while Postmaster George Kennedy will be placed on the salaried list, instead of receiving a salary and commission as in the past.

The advisability of placing the postoffice on the semi-staff basis has been urged upon the postal department by the executive of the Liberal association, who were notified through Robert Jardine last week by Deputy Postmaster-General R. M. Coulter, P. G. M., that the change would be made, and by the city council and the board of trade. Inspector Greenfields, of Vancouver, was in the city on Saturday conferring with Postmaster Kennedy with reference to the pending change.

Business Big Enough.

According to the regulations, a postoffice can only be placed on the semi-staff basis when the population of the city is over 12,000 and the postal revenue is over $20,000. The blue books of the postal department show the gross postal revenue of the Westminster postoffice for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1909, to have been $22,595.99. The number of money orders issued totalled 10,408, representing a value of $199,065.01, on which commission amounting to $59.83 was paid by the public. The number of money orders paid at the local office was 5574, representing a cash value of $108,877.04. The sum of $8450.05 was exchanged for postal notes, the amount of business done in notes being comparatively small.

Butiaba, Uganda, Jan. 16.—Commander H. Hutchinson, superintendent of marine, who went up with Col. Roosevelt and his party to Rhine-camp, has returned here. When they arrived at Koba it was midnight but they found all the white elephant hunters waiting to meet them. Among them was Engineer Bennett, of the Lake steamer, who in December had been captured by the natives, but had made his escape after enduring torture for five days.

HE'S A BORN YANKEE BUT VERY MUCH IRISH

Bernard Daly, the bright particular star in the new Irish play, "Innisfallen," is a born "Harp," while in a technical sense he is a born American. Yet his ancestry and youthful surroundings were as Irish as "Paddy's pig." If Mr. Daly could by any possibility reproduce upon the stage the excruciatingly funny characters, their quaint, original sayings and acts, he so graphically mimics when off the stage and free from dramatic cares, nothing more humorous could be presented.

Mr. Daly's characters are from life, the "real thing," merely transplanted from the mother sod to America, with the same wit and wisdom, fun and fight, as when they tramped the city streets or rural lanes, hills and dales of Old Ireland.

The Irish are natural mimics and story-tellers, and Mr. Daly is most gifted in this national trait. Nature gave him a soft tenor voice, which he, as soon as he was old enough to appreciate its value, placed under the training of some of the best and most noted voice teachers in Boston. For several years he studied, and today he has a voice of exquisite sweetness, which he uses in his vocal selections in "Sweet Innisfallen." He has five new songs—ballads of Old Ireland—and that familiar melody that will never die, "The Wearing of the Green."

Mr. Daly and his new play will be at the opera house on Wednesday.

MONDAY, JANUARY 17, 1910.

WESTMINSTER'S REPUTATION.

That British Columbia is engaging a rapidly increasing amount of attention on the other side of the Atlantic is made evident at frequently recurring intervals. A well informed article which appeared in a recent number of the Sheffield Weekly Telegraph, ,a British journal that enjoys a circulation of 700,000, gives a succinct and interesting account of the features and institutions of the province and the opportunities it affords to the intending settler. The writer, who was visiting in this locality about eighteen months ago, speaks highly of New Westminster and the Fraser valley. He says:

"New Westminster is twelve miles distant from Vancouver, with which it is connected by an electric car line, which gives an excellent service at frequent intervals. This line belongs to the British Columbia Electric Railway Company, Limited, an English company that is excellently well managed. In fact, it is frequently quoted as an example of an English company, directed from London, doing first-class work for its district, conducting its business on terms of the greatest amity with the local residents, and earning satisfactory profits for its shareholders. Unfortunately there are very few English companies doing business in Canada, of which the same can be said. The B. C. Electric Railways Company is now about completing an extension of their Vancouver-New Westminster line to Chilliwack, a distance of some seventy miles through the most fertile part of the lower Fraser river valley. This will prove of immense advantage to the whol e district. Hitherto settlers have had to complain of a very inadequate and irregular service by small steamboats on the Fraser river for conveying their produce to Vancouver, and this has greatly retarded the progress of the district. They will soon have a regular freight and passenger service at moderate tolls, and as a consequence there is likely to be a great influx of population within the next few years into the lower Fraser river valley."

That the Britisher was most favorably impressed by the opportunities afforded by this district for fruit-growing and market gardening work is testified by the following enthusiastic appreciation:

"Personally, the writer would sooner have ten acres of orchard and market gardens in the lower Fraser river valley, adjacent to the new railway, than a whole section (640 acres) on the Saskatchewan prairies, provided he had to live and earn his living on one or other of them. . . . Take it all around, the district between New Westminster and Chilliwack is about as good a place for the not too ambitious settler as any in Canada. It grows splendid apples, and where you can grow a really good apple, in any part of the world, you can rear rosy-cheeked children of Anglo-Saxon parentage. . .

"There are plenty of small farms, or small tracts, of virgin soil that can be bought at reasonable prices and on favorable terms. In the matter of cultivation, an Englishman bred in the country has little that is new to learn—or, harder still, to unlearn. . . . The smallness of the holdings obviates the isolation that many British men, and especially women, find so trying in the prairie country, and pleasant people will find plenty of pleasant and congenial society on the lower Fraser."

Of the Royal City and its claims to attention the writer of the article is no less enthusiastic. He urges that no visitor to the province should fail to pay a visit to our city, and remarks that "in the Hotel Russell the visitor will find one of the best appointed and most comfortable hostelries in Canada. If he can time his visit for the weekly market day he will see a sight such as he can see in no other place in Canada in the present day. New Westminster is thoroughly English, and in the market day customs it has preserved the traditions of an English town in the first half of the last century. The dairy and garden produce, the fruit, poultry, fish, fresh and dried, and other items that are exhibited for sale on these days make an exhibit that is much more interesting and illustrative of the wealth of the adjacent country than the show benches of more formal exhibitions. If the visitor should be in New Westminster during the salmon-packing season he will see one of the most interesting sights in the world."

To the prosperity and stability of our city high tribute is paid, it being remarked that for a community of its size it has more solid, realized wealth than any similar centre of population in Canada. "It was the money of New Westminster and Victoria," he says, "that helped the British Columbia banks to get through the troublous times of 1907 without unduly inconveniencing their customers, as was the case in other parts of the Dominion."

It is particularly pleasing to see an independent and unprejudiced appreciation of our district like this. Such a practical and sensible tribute, widely disseminated over Great Britain and abroad, is certain to bear tangible and satisfactory results. It serves also to give warrant for the general expectation that the present year will witness a far greater influx of settlers into this district than ever before.

CONSERVATIVES ARE NOT SANGUINE OF SUCCESS

politicians and Saturday's results were discussed from every possible viewpoint.

Consevatives Lose Hope.

Although both sides preserve an air of confidence, it was evident today that the Conservatives have at least abandoned hope that their party will form the next government. The utmost they dare expect is that the Liberal majority will be so reduced in the next parliament as to place the Liberals at the mercy of the Nationalists.

Mr. Balfour, leader of the Opposition in the house of commons, in a speech some days ago said that the great political issues now in question would not be settled by one general election and perhaps not by two. Clearly the ex-premier accurately measured the situation and the hopes of the tariff reformers must now be centred upon some future general election.

Expect Majority of Hundred.

An estimate made today by a well-informed Unionist, based on Saturday's pollings, gives the Liberals and Laborites a clear majority of ninety or a hundred over all parties, which would provide the Liberal government with a good working majority. Many of the Unjonists, however, do not believe the Liberals will finish the election with so good a record as this.

At the Liberal club, which is the home of the Liberal members of the house of commons, and many of the journalists affiliated with that party, great satisfaction is expressed over the results. The polling tomorrow includes thirty-one London constituencies and fifty-seven provincial boroughs. Should the Liberals retain the hold on the metropolis which they gained in 1906 their prospects will be regarded as much easier than they appear now.

Only a very great increase in the Unionist gains over Saturday's results will give them the victory.

Ministers are Pleased.

Chancellor Lloyd-George said tonight: "We are winning. England is declaring emphatically against government by the Lords. The north is overwhelmingly with us."

John Burns, president of the local government board, said: "All things considered, in the fight between those who have too much and those who have too little, yesterday's results are excedingly good. London has done much better than I expected. In my judgment it has done exceedingly well. To win the seats that have been lost would have required almost superhuman efforts."

Among the interesting members elected yesterday were the Rev. C. Sylvester Horne, congregational minister,, who won on the Liberal ticket at Ipswich, and Almerie Hugh Paget, the Unionist candidate for Cambridge.

HUNGRY RATS HELP TO EXECUTE WILL

Woman Recluse Dies, Leaving Fortune and Strange Bequests.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 16.—"Thrust a dagger through my heart three times to make sure I am dead. Let my body lie ten days, cremate it then, and bury the ashes in Allegheny cemetery," were the written instructions with the body of Laura White, single, aged 65 years, supposed pauper, living alone, who was discovered today in a room with five locks on the door, her body half eaten by rats.

Police found bankbooks and a will disposing of $100,000 to local charities in a trunk in the poorly furnished room. Cancelled checks found were from 17 cents to $1000 in value. Real estate held by the woman is located in Indiana, Montana and California. The will found by the police makes special request that "competent medical authorities examine my body for ten days" to ascertain for a certainty that death has occurred, leaving $50 for this service. The doctor stabbing her heart three times is to receive $20.

Detectives are searching for possible relatives.

TWIN SISTERS SUED BY BROTHERS FOR DIVORCE

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 16.—Anna and Annice Woodyard twin sisters, were made defendants yesterday in suits for divorce filed by their respective husbands, Eugenet and Jason Woodyard, who are brothers. Desertion is given as the cause in each case.
