PASSENGER STEAMER AGROUND ON ROCKS

THE SANTA ROSA WITH NEARLY THREE HUNDRED PERSONS ON BOARD CALLS FOR ASSISTANCE—LIFEBOAT SWAMPED.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 8.—The latest message is that the second officer, and from three to twenty passengers were drowned when the lifeboat capsized. There were over 200 persons on board, and it is a curious coincidence that another of the Pacific Coast Steamship's boats should have been recently lost, namely the Spokane, in Seymour narrows.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 8.—At a late hour yesterday a lifeboat transferring passengers from the stranded steamer capsized, and twenty lives are reported lost.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 7.—With 290 passengers on board, the steamer Santa Rosa, of the Pacific Steamship company's line, is on the rocks two miles north of Point Arguello, one of the most dangerous spots on the Pacific cast. At nine o'clock today a wireless report from the Santa Rosa operator stated that while the boat was fairly aground, the passengers were all safe and that the vessel showed no signs of leakage. At that hour two lumber schooners were standing by to render any necessary assistance.

Realizing the perilous position of the Santa Rosa, local officials stated that the steamer Curacoa, of the same line, left San Pedro at nine o'clock to go to the assistance of the vessel and its passengers. It was said that they would be transferred to the Curacoa and brought to Los Angeles.

The two schooners standing by the Santa Rosa are the Centralia and H. P. Drew. At nine o'clock in answer to wireless calls, the Argyle, an oil boat, arrived on the scene. These three vessels, with towing lines, are now trying to prevent the Santa Rosa from being beaten to pieces on the rocks.

The nearest wireless station to Point Arguello is the government station at Surf. The operator there says the Santa Rosa has been absolutely at the mercy of the breakers for hours. Two years ago the steamer Sybil Marston was wrecked within four miles of the same location and all efforts to take her off the rocks were futile. An attempt will be made to rescue the Santa Rosa with the coming of high tide, but marine men here doubt if this can be done.

When the Santa Rosa went aground the government operator at Surf said the passengers became panic-stricken and that it was with the greatest difficulty that the crew kept many of them from jumping overboard. Among the passengers are many women and children.

The steamer is only 300 feet from shore and the passengers, it is said, wanted to take chances through the breakers in yawls rather than wait for an attempt to float her.

The Santa Rosa was due at Santa Barbara at seven o'clock this morning. Practically all the remainder of her passengers were en route for Los Angeles.

KING AND QUEEN WELCOMED IN IRELAND

Dublin, July 8.—The royal yacht, the Victoria and Albert, had a remarkable reception on arrival at Kingston pier late yesterday afternoon, when their majesties, and the Prince of Wales received round after round of cheering. They were met by the Lord Lieutenant, the Earl of Aberdeen, and escorted to Phoenix park to the viceregal residence.

WILL COMMEMORATE BATTLE OF BOYNE

Victoria, July 8.—Thousands of Orangemen from the coast towns of British Columbia, and from the states of Washington and Oregon will unite on Wednesday to celebrate the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne here.

Denies Wharf Purchase.

Victoria, July 8.—An official denial is given to the story that an option to acquire the outer wharf here at a cost of $1,000,000 has been obtained by a German syndicate.

Forbid Absinthe Sale.

Paris, July 7.—The senatorial committee today reported favorably on the bill to forbid the sale, importation or manufacture of absinthe or any liquor containing thuyone, or essence of absinthe.

Since 1873, says the report, France has consumed increasing quanties of the deadly drink. In that year 147,686 gallons were drunk; in 1900, at least 5,245,000 gallons were consumed. The law will go into effect two years after passage, except for the importation clause, which will be enforced immediately.

NEW BAPTIST CHURCH INAUGURATED TOMORROW

Collingwood Residents Will Have Building for Their Services—Pastor of Olivet Assists.

A new Baptist cause will be inaugurated tomorrow at Collingwood for the increasing number of residents in the district between Cedar cottage and Edmonds.

A comfortable building has been secured convenient to the B. C. E. R. line, and services will be held by the new congregation for the first time. In the morning there will be a dedication service, at which Rev. H. G. Estabrook, superintendent of missions, will preach, and in the afternoon Rev. H. F. Waring, of Fifth avenue Baptist church, Vancouver, will conduct the service. Rev. A. F. Baker, of Olivet Baptist church, will occupy the rostrum in the evening.

Gasoline Tank Explodes.

Grant's Pass, Ore., July 7.—Miss Myrna Kelly, the daughter of J. B. Kelly, of San Francisco, is dead, her sister Angela is seriously if not fatally hurt, and Kelly and his little sons, Hobart, aged eight, and Homer, aged six, are badly burned as the result of an explosion of the gasoline tank of their automobile near Crescent City Wednesday night. Kelly and his children were returning from a visit in Portland to San Francisco by way of Crescent City.

The Moroccan Crrisis.

London, July 7.—Communications concerning Germany's action in Morocco are still passing among the governments of Great Britain, Germany and France, but little is divulged beyond the fact that Great Britain has made it clear that she intends faithfully to fulfill her treaty obligations towards France. Premier Asquith had promised a statement in the House of Commons yesterday, but when questioned by Mr. Balfour had to admit that the negotiations were still in an unsettled state. There is no truth in the report of a split in the cabinet over the Moroccan question.

DOOM OF DREADNOUGHT IS FORESHADOWED

London, July 7.—The approaching doom of the battleship of the Dreadnought and super-Dreadnought type has become a live question in British naval circles. Sir Philip Watts, admiralty director of naval construction, is credited with having designed already an entirely new type of fighting ship. Next year's naval program anticipates the retention of the all big-gun principle, but it is believed that the ships will be considerably smaller in displacement, averaging between 17,000 and 18,000 tons.

New York, July 7.—Naval officers stationed at the Brooklyn navy yard are inclined today to doubt the London dispatch in which was predicted the passing of the Dreadnought type of battleship in favor of the smaller vessels of equally heavy armament. In their opinion Great Britain and the other nations of the world will even enlarge the size of present-day battleships.

EMISSARY TO TOKIO TO RENEW AGREEMENT

Ottawa, July 7.—The Dominion government has sent Dr. H. M. Duhamel, of Montreal, on a secret mission to Japan for the purpose of negotiating if possible the renewal of the Lemieux agreement, restricting Japanese emigration to Canada to a maximum of 400 persons yearly.

The agreement will expire in January next. It was negotiated by Hon. Rudolph Lemieux, postmaster-general, who visited Tokio in 1907, shortly after the serious Oriental riots in Vancouver had resulted in disgraceful incidents and serious damage to property. During his month's stay in the Japanese capital, Mr. Lemieux was greatly aided by Sir Claude MacDonald, British ambassador to Japan.

Their success in securing from the Japanese government an agreement restricting migration to Canada for four years, was ascribed at the time to the great personal influence of Sir Claude as well as to the fact that Japan and Great Britain were parties to an offensive and defensive alliance and the unwillingness of Japan to prolong an embarrassing situation due to the strong anti-Oriental feeling then existing in British Columbia.

Want B. C. Harvesters.

Winnipeg, July 7.—It is possible that the novel experiment will be made during the harvest of bringing in from seven to ten thousand men from British Columbia points. The Canadian Pacific railway has been asked to grant the same cheap harvesters' fares from the Pacific coast as are offered from Eastern Canadian points. There is little doubt but that these will be conceded. Rates will probably be extended to Seattle and all points in that territory reached by the Canadian Pacific.

AVIATOR DASHES WILDLY TO RUIN

FLYING DUTCHMAN COLLIDES WITH GRANDSTAND ONLY FEW FEET FROM GROUND—FATALLY INJURED IN FALL.

Toronto, July 8.—August Richter, better known in the aviation world as the "Flying Dutchman," is lying at death's door as the result of a daring flight which he attempted to make last evening in this city. The birdman, who had been giving wonderful expositions of his command of his tiny craft, came to this city at the express wish of those who have taken up this latest craze, but after the awful occurrence of last evening it is doubtful if those who have been responsible for Richter's coming will want a repetition of the exhibition.

After the dinner hour, the Dutchman went out from the hangar where his machine was all ready, and after a casual look around decided that he would make the ascent, despite the fact that a strong wind was blowing. Immediately he had his machine brought out, and carefully going over every part of the frail, white winged craft, he took his seat and gave the command to let go.

For a brief moment the airship quivered, and then rose gracefully in the air. She skimmed along a few feet from the surface of the earth, and then answering the call of her master's wheel, ascended to the height of ten feet.

Suddenly the airship was seen to swerve, and without a word of warning the machine completed a circle. Standing up on his narrow platform, Richter was observed to make an attempt to bring the craft round again, but a strong gust of wind was his undoing, and to the horror of the huge crowd on the grandstand, the aerocraft and man were carried at hurricane speed to the stand where a horrible crash was heard, and before either the spectators or officials were aware of it, the ship lay with her white wings fluttering, and underneath poor Richter.

Quickly willing workers were on hand, and tenderly the bruised and mangled body of the aviator was carried back to his hangar. Medical men rushed to the temporary bed which had been made up, but it was all too plain that the Flying Dutchman had made his last flight, and that it was only a matter of a brief period before the end. Apart from having both legs badly broken, Richter has been internally injured, to such an extent that it was deemed unwise to move him from his temporary couch.

NE TEMERE DECREE IS ALLEGED CAUSE OF CRIME

Dispute in Family Over Desertion by Wife of Husband Leads to Shooting.

Cornwall, Ont., July 8.—The Ne Temere decree appears to have been last night responsible for the committal of a murder in this city, and the ministers of the various denominations are up in arms over the matter. James Shaw, who was employed in a drug store, it is alleged was fatally shot by a man named McRae. Dr. McRae's wife, who is a Roman Catholic, had left him after the publication of the decree. The doctor and the murdered man went over to the home of Mrs. McRae's parents to induce her to return to him.

A dispute arose, and from arguments the parties got to blows. A revolver was produced, and it is alleged that McRae shot the man Shaw in the scuffle. The doctor, and the accused are relatives.

Coronation Pictures Here.

As the result of a hurried message from Vancouver, Manager Hector McCaig, of the local opera house, visited the Terminal City yesterday evening, and at a late hour intimated that he had arranged to show in this city on Thursday and Friday the official moving pictures of the coronation which have arrived from England. Those who have been permitted to see the films speak in the highest praise of the representation of what is unquestionably the greatest event of the century. Richard & Pringle's Georgian minstrels have been booked for Tuesday week.

Sir Joseph Ward.

London, July 7.—Sir Joseph Ward, speaking before the United Empire club, said he had never favored in the Imperial conference the forcing of the pace beyond what public opinion in the old country allowed. But he believed they were on the eve of a great change in the relationship of the mother country and the overseas dominions. They should hold a conference every two years.

ESCAPED PRISONERS CAUGHT AT BOUNDARY

THREE MEN WHO SAWED WAY OUT OF LOCKUP HELD BY IMMIGRATION OFFICIAL—JAILER CALLED ON TO RESIGN.

Vancouver, July 8.—The three prisoners, John Ross, James Hughes and H. S. Gillisse, who sawed their way through a bar at the back of the jail here on Tuesday night and escaped, have been arrested by the immigration officials attempting to cross the boundary at Blaine.

At a meeting of the police commission held yesterday Robert Borland, for seventeen years jailer and member of the police force, was asked to resign, arising out of this case.

RESULT OF CONTEST LEAVES CONNEAU WINNER

Paris, July 7. — Lieutenant Conneau, whose name is Andre Beaumont, won the 1000-mile international circuit aviation race, which ended today at the aviation field at Vincennez. As he had already won the Paris-to-Rome contest, Conneau brings added glory to the French navy, of which he is an officer. Carros was second and Vidarrt finished third.

Of the fifteen aeroplanists who took wing at Vincennez on June 18, nine reached the final goal. Two of the racers, Kemartin and Captain Pringetau, who had been detailed to work out certain problems in reconnaissance in connection with the race were killed on the opening day. Several others received more or less serious injuries from falls.

The course took the men through four countries, from Paris across Belgium and Holland, over the English channel to London and return. Prizes aggregating about $100,000 were given.

Cholera in Italy.

Vienna, July 7.—Censored telegrams from Italy report cholera throughout the southern seaports of Italy. In Palermo there are one hundred cases daily with an average of fifty deaths. Conditions in Messina are also bad. The Italian government denies that there is any cholera in the seaports, declaring the death lists are no greater than in former years. Travellers, however, bring warning reports. Vienna correspondents in Rome have notified their home offices that they have been warned that they will be expelled if they send despatches about the existence of the dread disease.

GREEK FISHERMAN WILL FACE SERIOUS CHARGE

Alleged Play with Revolver at Steveston Will Bring Man Before Magistrate.

At Steveston this morning a fisherman named Peter Caesare, of Greek extraction, in the employ of Martin Monk, of this city, will be brought up before the stipendary magistrate charged with firing a revolver with intent to do bodily harm on Wednesday morning.

J. P. Hampton Bole will defend, and the line of his argument will probably be that Caesare was mixed up in a fracas, and a weapon was produced in the scuffle.

Mr. Vert's Return.

Rev. A. E. Vert, who went east as one of the two delegates from this province for the annual convention of the Sons of Scotland, returned yesterday and expressed his pleasure at being once again in an even temperature. Mr. Vert was one of many thousands who had to endure the almost unbearable heat wave which has been passing over the eastern provinces, leaving death in its trail. The convention at Toronto was from every point of view one of the most important yet held. Over two hundred delegates from all parts of the Dominion, representing no fewer than forty thousand members of the society, were in attendance.

Stamps Not Approved.

London, July 7.—The new postage stamps, which have been in circulation since Coronation Day, are not meeting with popular favor. The poverty of the design and the mediocrity of the engraving are criticized and the postmaster-general will be asked in parliament if he will consider the advisability of with drawing the stamps and having a fresh issue designed with a portrait of King George that shall be an actual miniature likeness of his majesty.

DYNAMITING OF GAME FISH ALLEGED BY SPORTSMEN

Fisheries Department Will Make Inquiries in North Vancouver Cases—Probably Groundless.

Following the complaints which have been received in official quarters of dynamiting game fish in the Seymour and Lynn creek districts, and at Oyster river, action was taken yesterday by Acting Inspector Halladay to send an inspector to North Vancouver to examine conditions, and see if there was any cause for the statement that the game fish, particularly the Dolly Varden and cutthroat trout which abound in those mountain streams, have been dynamited. Perhaps the complaints will prove as groundless as those made against the authorities over the Veddar creek recently, when investigation proved that the few trout killed were due to the blasting of a creek jam by provincial officers.

Inspector Taylor will make inquiries with reference to the condition of affairs at Oyster river.

KING AND QUEEN ON IRISH VISIT NOW

London, July 7.—King George and Queen Mary today and tomorrow will begin the royal visit to Ireland. Their majesties will go to Kingstown aboard the royal yacht Victoria and Albert. There they will be entertained by the lord lieutenant. While in Ireland, they will drive to Dublin and attend the opening of the Royal College of Science prior to attending the Phoenix park races and a dinner at the castle.

Sunday will start another tour, when their majesties will attend the service at St. Patrick's cathedral, visit the Artane industrial school and inspect the pensioners and girrls at Drummond institute.

Although during the next week there will be receptions, presentations, addresses and visits of all sorts, the most important event of the week will come Thursday, when the investiture of the Prince of Wales will take place at Carnarvon. King George and Queen Mary will leave for Carnarvon Wednesday. Though following closely upon the coronation of his father, the investiture of the prince looses none of its importance, for King George will take a conspicuous part in the ceremony. Ten thousand Welshmen will witness the spectacle, as Edward Albert is the first Black Prince to receive the investiture on Welsh soil in hundreds of years.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies refreshments were partaken of, and a pleasant time enjoyed by the large company.

Brotherhood of Owls.

J. T. Dossett, of Tacoma, deputy grand of the Brotherhood of Owls, is in the city organizing the re-establishment of the local nest. The branch in Westminster was at one time one of the most influential, but owing to many of the office bearers having left the district, interest lapsed. Hugh Campbell, brother of Alderman Campbell, is assisting Mr. Dossett in the work of reorganization.

In Yawl Across Atlantic

Horta, Azores, July 7.—The twenty-foot auxiliary yawl Seabird, in which Captain Thomas F. Day, of New York, and Ernest Goodwin and T. R. Turper of Providence, R. I., will attempt to again cross the Atlantic, sailed for Gibraltar at daybreak today. The captain expects to make the passage in eight days. The Seabird sailed from Providence on June 10 and arrived here July 1.

Extension of Intercolonial.

Ottawa, July 6.—The department of railways proposed to call for tenders immediately for the extension of the I. C. R. from Halifax to Guysboro county. Surveys for the line have been completed and it is proposed to commence the construction at as early a date as possible.

OFFERS FINE SITE FOR Y.W.C.A. BUILDING

LOCAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN ENCOURAGED IN EFFORT BY GENEROUS PROMISE—WILL ORGANIZE COLLECTION FUND.

At a meeting of the Local Council of Women yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Hill, Fourth street, the Y. W. C. A. question came under discussion, and the offer of a fine lot on Royal avenue between Sixth and Seventh street for the site was reported, the title deeds to be turned over as soon as a definite start was made with the work.

Acting on this offer the ladies determined to get to work as soon as possible, and collect enough funds this season to build the basement, which will not be expensive as there is a natural grade, and excavation will be trifling before the winter weather sets in.

Each of the affiliated societies of the council will be asked to nominate four collectors, who may chose their companions, for a thorough canvass of the city.

As there are some thirteen societies affiliated the council expects to get at least fifty collectors to work at an early date. Mrs. Maxwell and Mrs. Ferguson are the committee appointed to organize the collection, and the special committee previously named to take the matter in hand, Mrs. de Pencier, Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Lamb, of which the first named is secretary-treasurer, will take vigorous action in the matter. Mrs. Ferguson will have charge of the issue of subscription books, and the collections are to be turned in to Mrs. de Pencier. As it was felt that advice from three gentlemen might be desirable during the negotiations, three were named, and will be duly approached to know if they will serve.

The council would like the basement to be used for kitchens below street level, and so construct the building, as to give a rear entrance on Cunningham street.

It is not improbable that the local council will organize some scheme for raising funds, quite apart from the systematic canvass above mentioned. Just what line it will take is uncertain, but the ladies are determined to raise sufficient money to make an early start.

MOTOR BOAT REGATTA AT ASTORIA CENTENNIAL

San Francisco, Cal., July 7.—San Francisco is spending something like $50,000 to win the honorary title of the Pacific coast, with a $3000 purse divided three ways, five Northern Californians are counting the day for the starting gun at the Astoria, Oregon Centennial Motor Boat Regatta, opening September 4, next, and lasting a week. Those who are building boats here for this regatta are: C. T. Mitchell, San Francisco Yacht club; Prentice N. Gray, 110 Market street, this city; Nunnes Brothers, Sacramento, Sam Pankost, Sacramento, and Captain Wood Watson, Vallejo.

There are two big races in which these men are interested, the displacement boat championship and the hydroplane class. The purses in these two events total $5500 and the winner in each of these two classes will have to travel about 40 miles an hour.

The "Wolff II." of Portland, is the coast champion at present. She made 31½ miles an hour last year over a surveyed course and the owner says she can do 40 miles an hour today. Captain Wolff is not pinning all his faith on the veteran. He has launched and tried out the "Oregon Wolff," and when but eleven days off the ways during the Rose festival at Portland, Wolff says he will keep the championship honors in the Rose city.

By-Election in Glasgow.

Glasgow, July 7.—The by-election for the Tradeston division of Glasgow, held yesterday, resulted in the return of White, Liberal, by 3269 votes to 2783 for Watts, Unionist. At the recent general election, Corbett, Liberal, received 4811 votes to the 3137 of his Unionist opponent, Main. Little interest was taken in the election. The vacancy rose owing to Corbett's elevation to the peerage.

Street Railway for Saskatoon.

Saskatoon, Sask., July 7.—By an overwhelming majority, the ratepayers of Saskatoon decided to accept the proposition of the Evans syndicate for a street railway and power plant. Operations will begin at once.

Decoration Day.

Tomorrow the I. O. O. F. lodges in this city will hold their annual decoration day service. The ceremony at the cemetery will be preceded by a service in the hall, at which members of the two lodges are invited to be present.

"IN WYOMING."

"In Wyoming," one of the finest productions of the present day, will be seen here at the Opera house today. Perhaps not since "The Virginian" has the stage been offered a hero at once so human, so manly and so irresistable as Mr. Mack's "Bob Rickards." The glorified cowboy has appeared in fiction and stage again and again with his sombréro and his wild antics with a sixshooter. The thing about Mr. Mack's cowboy that has appealed so forcefully is that he is real. He is a man. He does some things that society does not sanction as proper; but his instincts are sound, his heart is big, he is generous and honorable, and a man to be trusted with a woman. He has lived the wild, elemental life of his kind, but he knows and loves the better way when he sees it.

DANGERS LURK IN ICE CREAM CONES

New York, July 5.—Following the lead set by other eastern cities in a war against impure and doped foods, particularly milk, ice cream and other products, an investigation into conditions in this city has been started, and the few tests made of certain articles show frightful results.

Among twenty-five samples of cheap ice cream purchased in Manhattan at as many different manufactories, Hochstadter & Riley, analytical chemists, have discovered in twenty-three coli bacilli ranging from 50,000to 4,000,000 per cubic centimeter. About a quarter teaspoonful is a cubic centimeter.

Not one of the samples came up to the government standard, which requires that ice cream shall contain 14 per cent of butter fats. Two or three of the samples showed as high as 7 per cent, the balance between 2 and 3 per cent.

These ice creams are made of dried milk, condensed milk or skim milk. None of them are made of cream, as would be necessary to come up to the government specifications. They are thickened with glue and starch.

The glue, by courtesy, is called gelatin, but little of the product thus named would come up to the standard necessary to distinguish it from common glue. This glue is made of the horns, hoofs and scrapings of hides of dead animals, and is used not only in the manufacture of ice cream, but is also the body of cheap jellies.

The coloring matter used in the strawberry and pistache brands is a deadly coal-tar uroduct, not at all up to the standard required by the United States pure food laws. In no instance of these colored ice creams was a wholesome coloring matter found by the chemists.

The manufacture of these ice creams is carried on in filthy basements and cellars. The freezers may be set alongside sewer connections, garbage cans, piles of decayed and decaying rubbish. Absolutely no precaution is taken to avoid contamination of the milk or the finished product.

SERIOUSLY ILL AFTER POISONED LEMONADE

Auburn, July 6.—Seventy persons are seriously ill, five of whom may not recover, from ptomaine poisoning swallowed with lemonade yesterday during a picnic at Black Diamond.

Miss Deva Stoliker, Miss Carm Russell and Miss Grace Brown, all of Auburn, are dangerously ill. They were brought to this city after the picnic and local physicians say they have about an even chance for recovery.

Two other women of Black Diamond, whose names could not be learned, are in a critical condition.

The lemonade containing the poison was sold by J. Pierpont Morgan, who had a refreshment stand at the picnic grounds.

All of the physicians of Black Diamond and Renton were called to the picnic grounds and passed three hours administering emetics to the sufferers. Long rows of women and children, too ill to stand, were stretched out under the shade trees and the physicians hurried from one to the other pouring relief portions down each threat. Other picnickers organized themselves into a relief corps of nurses and the merrymakers broke up in an ambulance procession.

Citric acid and lemon juice coming in contact with the zinc lining of a new washtub in which the beverage was concocted caused the ptomaine poisoning.

Half an hour after the drinks were mixed the tub was a veritable death vat, according to the physicians. Everyone who drank the mixture became ill within a few minutes.

Morgan denies that he is a relative of the financier art connoisseur.

MARKET REPORT

When the weekly market got down to business yesterday morning, the attendance of buyers and sellers was smaller than usual, the cold snap in the air doubtless keeping many of the usual frequenters back. As the the morning progressed, however, the various divisions showed a busier aspect, and when eleven o'clock arrived it was a scene of bustle.

White salmon fell flat, much changing hands at three pounds for a quarter, as against fifteen cents per pound last week. At the latter price a single sockeye was sold. Smelts occupied a prominent place on the slabs, and sold surprisingly rapid at ten cents per pound. The poultry market looked like falling down badly so meagre were the offerings, when sales bagun. Before the morning was far advanced special consignments from outlying districts came to the relief of the tension, and the result was that the portion set aside for the sale of birds was overstocked. Geese were to be had cheap yesterday, many good specimens fetching but ninety cents each. There was a good display of cut flowers and plants.

PARISIANS GROWING KINDER TO ANIMALS

Paris, July 7.—The movement in France for the prevention of cruelty to animals has been extended in the direction of attempting to stop the bullfights which are now held in French cities nearest the Spanish frontier. Bull rings exist at Bayonne, Toulouse and Nimes, where in the summer large crowds applaud Spanish bullfighters in their picturesque struggle in the ring. A deputy from Southern France, claiming that bullfights are attended by excessive cruelty to horses therein engaged, has introduced a bill in parliament under which bullfights would be declared illegal.

American visitors to Paris this summer have been struck often with the printed signboards hung across electric light posts in the centre of the boulevards, which contain the words: "Be kind to animals." Recently the number of these signs has been increased throughout the city, and an alert society of humane people, founded along the lines of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, keeps an active eye on public cabmen or other drivers of horse vehicles to see that horses are not wantonly punished.

The Paris cabman in the past has often been complained of for mercilessly whipping his tired, slow horse, but since the new campaign of education and prevention has been instituted the evil of horse-whipping has greatly diminished.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

COMPLAINS OF FLOODING CANADIAN LABOR MARKET

Toronto Carpet Company Charged With Bringing Out Strikebreakers From England.

Ottawa, July 7.—The practice of flooding the Canadian labor market with workmen from the British Isles brought out to Canada under false representation as to conditions here was strongly condemned by J. G. O'Donaghue, Toronto, generalsolicitor and parliamentary agent for the Dominion Trade and Labor congress, in an interview this morning.

"We have a case coming up in Toronto next week," he said, "under section 55, chapter 33, of the Immigration act of 1910, in which the manager of the Toronto Carpet company is charged with bringing out a number of old country workmen by making false representations of conditions where they came to work. These men arrived in Canada penniless and finding a strike on where they were engaged for, they refused to work." Mr. O'Donaghue went into further details, explaining how the abuse extends all over the country.

Speaking of the political situation, Mr. O'Donaghue said that the labor people were quite satisfied with its showing at the recent Nova Scotia election, when all their candidates were beaten. "We realize," he said "that things must progress slowly at first. It is very hard to win the older men from the old parties, but the younger men are taking to the idea of an independent labor party in a very encouraging manner. The coming of so many English workmen trained in their labor party work has also served to give the movement in Canada a distinct and very welcome impetus."

Mr. O'Donaghue said that the Labor party would be most useful in the Canadian parliament, and cited T. P. O'Connor's statement that the coming of the British Labor party to parliament in England changed the house from an afternoon tea party into a business session.

EXILED COUNT BRINGS BRIDE TO AMERICA

New York, July 6.—From the Siberian mines Count Boris Soukhanoff, of Moscow, released his bride, and with her he arrived here on the steamship Olympic. The countess, who was married two weeks ago, was looked upon as a mysterious person by her fellow passengers. She cannot speak English, so her husband told the story of his romance.

His bride, he said, is a daughter of a Russian noble named Petrovich, who was exiled to Siberia for his sympathy with revoluntionists and for editing revolutionary publications. His sentence included the banishment of his family as well.

The count had known the family of Petrovich for many years, and was in love with the eldest daughter. One day he told the czar of the exile of the Petrovich family and also of his love for the exile's daughter.

He had to wait nearly a year before he obtained the consent of the czar to marry the girl, and then only on condition that he would exile himself and pass the remainder of his life in Siberia. He agreed to these conditions, but when all was ready for his journey across Russia he begged an audience of the czar to say good-bye. The fact that the count is distantly related to the family of the czar brought about this meeting.

The czar gave the young count permission to bring his bride back to the capital, and also promised to pardon the exiled Petrovich if he would give his word not to spread his revolutionary doctrine. Petrovich refused, and although his daughter was taken to St. Petersburg and married to Count Boris, her father is still an exile in Siberia.

The bridal pair intend to tour America and the Far East before returning to Moscow.

C. P. R. and Erie.

Montreal, July 6.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the C. P. R., made this statement yesterday: "Neither the Canadian Pacific nor any of its allied companies has at any time been negotiating for a controlling interest in or a working agreement with the Erie Railway company. Such an alliance would not be of advantage to the company."

Captures Fish in Arms.

Husum, July 6.—The landing of a 36-inch steelhead salmon four miles up the White Salmon river from here was accomplished by John Hanson and Harry Mathews. The fish was to large for the line used, and when it came up Mathews tried to kill it with a club, but missed and broke the leader. Hanson threw himself on the prize, finally capturing it.

New Catholic Diocese.

Calgary, July 7.—A new diocese with Calgary as headquarters will probably be established in Southern Alberta, the present diocese of Alberta with St. Albert as headquarters being considered too large and unwieldy for one bishop to attend to. The recent visit of church dignitaries to Calgary would indicate that such is the intention and The Albertan was informed last night by a prominent Catholic that the question has been talked of for some time and that it will be only a matter of a year or two until there will be a resident bishop in Calgary. The property is an ideal one for the purpose, being centrally located in the residential section of the city, and is sufficiently large for the purpose.

DEPENDENCE OF WEST ON EAST FOR FOOD

Winnipeg, July 7.—Startling figures have been given by W. B. Lanigan, assistant freight traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific railway. He points out that the three western provinces are not doing their duty, and that the farmers do not realize the seriousness of the conditions in which they are placing themselves, for vast quantities of foodstuffs are being imported from the east, from the United States, and from abroad. "Last year," he said, "One firm alone shipped in 1000 cars of packing house products to supply the cities of the west. In the same year, $10,000,000 worth of horses were brought into western Canada from the United States. Again between 200 and 300 carloads of mutton were shipped in for the mining camps of British Columbia, and a good deal of this came to Winnipeg. Also during the past winter months Winnipeg imported from Dakota and Minnesota $10,000 worth of milk. Another point to be remembered is that vegetables for Winnipeg and other cities in the west are daily imported from Chicago, and the Twin Cities, and potatoes consumed as far west as Revelstoke are shipped from as far east as Prince Edward Island. Again fresh beef is being imported daily, killed in the abattoirs of Toronto, and no less than seven carloads were brought in one day last week. In other words, Manitoba, which boasts of its agricultural wealth, does not produce the stuff to feed itself, and its own cities, and even the farmers themselves are buying farm products."

SUPPRESSION OF THE OPIUM TRAFFIC

London, July 7.—The detailed report of Sir Alexander Hosie, Consul general at Tien Sin, on the cultivation of the poppy and the production of opium in the provinces of Shansi, Shensi, Kansu, Szechuan and Yunan, has just been issued by the foreign office, and shows that generally the Chinese government has made sincere efforts to stop the production and use of the drug, with a marked measure of success.

Sir Alexander Hosie bases his report on first hand knowledge obtained on tours through the provinces and also on reports from British residents in the districts which he could not personally visit.

In Szechuan, for many years the greatest opium producing province in China, where more of the drrug was produced than was imported from India, the trade has been suppressed, but Sir Alexander is careful to say "for the present." He spent thirty-four days traveling through the province and besides gathered much information from missionaries and consuls.

CAPTURED OWL ON HIS OWN ROOF

Ottawa, July 7.—Jeremiah E. Kealey, Slater street, has a pet such as few persons possess. It is a big, blinking owl, which he captured on the roof of his dwelling the other day. He noticed the bird perched on the top of the house, and, procuring a ladder, he climbed up and stealthily advanced towards it. As it was broad daylight the owl could not see his enemy approaching, and Kealey soon soon had a coat around him.

The bird put up a struggle, but was finally brought down and placed in the shed, where he is becoming quite domesticated. He has a ravenous appetite and eats meat by the pound. Kealey missed a favorite kitten the other morning, and on going out to the shed found that the owl had made a midnight lunch of pussie.

DOMINION OBTAINING DATA OF WATER POWER

Vancouver, July 7.—In view of the decision of the privy council, vesting ownership of water rights in the railway belt of British Columbia in the Dominion government, Hon. Frank Oliver, minister of the interior, recently gave instructions to J. B. Challies, chief hydrographic engineer of the department, to begin a hydrographic survey of Kamloops district. The survey will result in a scientific measurement of the flow of the principal streams and rivers to determine the amount of water available for irrigation purposes in the so-called "dry belt." When this information shall have been secured the department will be in a position to deal more effectually with the various applications for water or to inaugurate, if deemed advisable, some system of supplying settlers with the water needed for farming and fruit growing on the lines adopted by the United States government in the semi-arid districts of the southwest.

Mr. Challies has appointed P. A. Carson, a member of his staff, to take charge of the work in the Kamloops district, where the preliminary measurements were begun a few weeks ago. It is understood that the work will be extended to the coast district of the railway belt, the Kamloops survey being more imperative owing to the rapid influx of settlers.

Aviation Tower for Calais.

Paris, July 7.—Calais is to have the first aviation tower in the world. The tower will be 450 feet high and 15 feet in diameter and is being erected on the spot where on July 25, 1909, Bleriot started on his memorable flight across the channel. The object of this tower is serve as a beacon or signal tower to aviators crossing the channel. It is to be tresselated, of wood, without being entirely closed in. This is supposed to improve its visibility at a great distance and to distinguish it more easily from other objects in the landscape. The tower when complete will be easily visible at a great distance to aviators flying at a height of 1500 or 2000 feet.

THE LIBERAL DEMONSTRATION.

Thursday's meeting shows that the cause of Liberalism in this constituency is not so dead as the Conservative press would have us suppose. It above all things proves that Mr. J. W. Weart is the right man in the right place, and one who will receive the suffrages of those electors who believe in a man of courage and resolution, untrammelled by pledges, and prepared to sacrifice every personal interest in the public welfare. He argued with legal precision the constitutional aspect of Canada as a treaty making power with the British Empire, demonstrating clearly that it was no disloyalty to come to an agreement with our neighbors which will make for cheaper living and a better political understanding. His precis of the history of tariff negotiations since Confederation, proved clearly that the Canadian administrations, even in the days of the "National Policy," which was directly aimed at the United States, were yet seeking mutual concessions, and it was no fault of Sir John A. Macdonald that they failed to reach that stage in which the pact now remains, dependent on the vote of the respective assemblies of Canada and the United States. He demonstrated the fallacy of the prognostications of annexation or absorption by the United States, and showed there was no fear of the results forecasted by Eastern Tory papers of ruin following the lowering of the tariff.

The hypocrisy of British Columbian Conservatives in denouncing reciprocity was brought home by Mr. John Oliver, in describing a road roller from across the line belonging to the provincial government, and marked with the name of the province, yet decorated with the blatant American eagle. Such is the consistency of the government at Victoria!

While the visiting speakers took up a more general line of argument on the paramount issue, the serious arguments of Mr. Templeman and the humorous sallies of Dr. Clarke went home to the electors, and convinced free trader of the orthodox school of Bright and Cobden as the doctor is, he recognizes the change must be gradual, and that Canada must share in the downward revision of the tariff which has become a world-wide movement, and here is her opportunity.

The great federation of the Anglo-Saxon race will be materially advanced by reciprocal arrangements between the two chief sections of the North American people, and the conclusion of the agreement will serve as a fitting corollary to the Anglo-American pact shortly to be consumated.

New Westminster Liberals have an opportunity in returning Mr. Weart of sharing in the great movement for a better understanding, and a reduction in the cost of living, which swollen by artificial methods, is far too high on the Pacific coast.

The death has taken place in the city of Miss Jemima McoDnald from appendicitis following an operation. The funeral will probably be fixed for Monday, and friends have yet to be communicated with, one brother residing at Penticton. The funeral will take place from the undertaking parlors of W. E. Fales.

Olivet Baptist Sunday school will hold its annual picnic to Stanley park on Tuesday next.

The sale which was effected this week, whereby a large tract of land at Wharton's Landing was bought for the purpose of establishing a Scottish settlement, was made through Messrs. McQuarrie Brothers, of this city. It is the intention of the purchasers to bring a number of farmers from Scotland and in this district set them up in the same manner, and under similar conditions to those appertaining in the old land, but free from the conditions of land tenancy which hamper agriculture there.

The Curfew Bell.

Ottawa, July 7.—It is not improbable that the curfew bell will be heard ringing at nine each evening before long. The board of control had before them yesterday two petitions that have been presented pressing for a bylaw which will make it compulsory for children to be off the streets by nine each evening.

Mayor Hopewell said he saw no objection to this, and it was pointed out that at present the police really have no authority to tell children to get off the streets at night. Controller Hinchey asked if reverting to curfew bylaw would give the police authorities power to make arrests, and it was decided before making any formal recommendation to consult Chief of Police Ross.

PORTLAND SCULLERS TAKE BULK OF TROPHIES

Portland, July 8.—Yesterday the amateur oarsmen of this city secured the lion's share of the prizes in connection with the first day's meeting under the auspices of the North Pacific Rowing association. Of the four events decided, Portland athletes won three, Victoria scoring in the last competition. The meeting will be continued over today, when many important races will be down for decision.

BEATS SHERLOCK HOLMES' GREAT INDIAN YARN

Boston, July 9.—Believing that her husband is being pursued by Indian mystics who desire the return of a marvelously hideous ring he possesses, Mrs. Swanton, of Chester, England, arrived in Boston last night on the 465th day of her search, which has carried her to Indiana and across the continent to Boston.

Mr. Swanton received a strang silver ring bearing a hideous blue stone as a reward of service from an Indian doctor five years ago. He has since been continually besought by natives of India for the return of the ring. He went to India to learn the cause and after writing that he was leaving Bombay for America, was lost to his wife.

Heat Wave Over.

Washington, July 7.—Relief from the heat has come practically to every large city in the country, except Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D.C., which are included in a little circle now monopolizing all that is left of the record-breaking hot wave. Marked reductions in temperatures are reported from New England, New York, Pennsylvania and the lake regions and it is somewhat cooler in the Lower Ohio and Upper Mississippi valleys. It is slightly warmer over the northern plains and in the Rocky mountain region, but this will be of short duration, as a change to cooler weather already has set in along the Pacific coast.

Prophecy for the Coming Games--The Lightweight Title and Moran's Claim--Solution of the Problem--Noted Amateur Sportsman's Visit--Lack of Swimming Facilities Here.

BY ROBERT A. WILSON.

TWO days after the articles were signed between Adolph Wolgast and Owen Moran for their twenty-round bout, I wrote in this paper, "The bout will not go fifteen rounds. Paste that in your hat." The sporting dopster of one of the leading San Francisco newspapers on receipt of the clipping slated me by suggesting that I had been taking an overdose of "hop," but I wasn't much out when it came to a showdown, was I? From long years of experience and knowing intimately the life of the always plucky little Englishman, I could not see him beat the American champion, no, not with a telescope. Although Moran is far from being relegated to the backwoods of the boxing bunch, he has seen his best days, and much as the truth is sometimes distasteful, it has to be acknowledged that he will never hold the world's premier title. This statement recalls what I have so often noted in these columns since the match was consumated, that the bout of Tuesday last was not for the international title. If it is proved to me that Moran was ever a contestant for the English championship I will bow to those who so show me but having seen practically all the bouts of the Britisher in the old country, with the exception of these catch-weight affairs in which he took part in Glasgow, I for one have to confess that the sporting scribes have been putting one over on their respective bands of readers when they came out flat-footed and claimed that the Independence Day Battle was for the title of titles. Moran was one of the best in the iand over the herring pond, but when that is said, the matter is done with.

WOLGAST by his style of living has proved that science can be beaten if it has a weakened constitution behind it. No one will deny that Moran as an exponent of the grand old English straight left style is in a class by himself, but when one remembers that he had not conducted himself along the lines which we all know an aspirant for high honors should, it must be said that those who follow closely the Queensberry game were not wonderfully surprised when the ticker brought us the result of this week's meeting over the wires. There are some who tell us that Moran stood the chance of an even break, and I want to say right here that while I stated that in my opinion the bout would not go fifteen rounds, that was arrived at before I knew who would referee. When the respective managers of the boxers selected Jack Welsh, I would not have been surprised at anything, and those who know of my experiences with this Californian saloon-keeper know also why I thought so. Welsh was a strong candidate for the third man in the ring job between Jeff and the Smoke, but after he had refereed (?) the Papke-Thomas contest in Dreamland, San Francisco, his chances fell with a sickening crash, and it looked like a fond farewell to his ever being in the ring again. Welsh may be all right handing out highballs but when it comes to doing the same thing with decisions, then excuse me.

WATCHING the tape machine cyphering out the returns from the ringside, it looked that the Englishman was from the third round having a hard time of it, and although he was reported to have occasionally "come back" in some of the following rounds, the work from Wolgast made it all too plain that the American was but bidding his time. Naturally I would have liked to seen a fellow countryman win the bout, but personal feelings have to be discounted when it comes right down to the merits of a case. If you analyize the contest, and especially the eleventh and twelfth—I am referring to the reports written by accepted authorities on the game—it must be plain that Wolgast had by that time taken the measure of his opponent, an opponent who was trying hard against greater strength to stem the current. Moran thrice found the point in the twelfth and found it, please note, with left handers. Surely this must prove that Wolgast was not trying very hard, otherwise he would have been able to block blows of this nature, and when it is remembered that the Michigan Bearcat is a pastmaster in the art of covering-up, it looks very plain that he was waiting a chance to slip one over much in the same manner as that other classy boy, Bat Nelson. These two men resemble each other in many respects when in the ring in that they oftimes will accept a number of severe jolts purposely with the intention of fooling the man whom they are meeting in battle array, and so it appears this happened last Tuesday. Moran has shot his bolt and despite his avowed or rather Manager Charlie Harvey's intention of again meeting Wolgast, that third clash will have to wait for a somewhat lengthy period, as there are more representative candidates who desire to mix with the American holder. I strongly favor the chances of Matt Wells, the London holder of the English championship and the Lord Londsdale belt.

WELLS has science and strength, more of the latter than the former certainly, and he would prove that the American cannot beat him up in the same manner as was done to Moran. As the legitimate claimant to the world's title, it is only in the natural order of things that Wells should be given the first crack at Wolgast, and although it is rumored that Wolgast and Freddie Welsh, who was beaten for the British title by Wells, may meet on Labor Day in California, it would be only the correct thing if Promotor Jimmy Coffroth signed Matt and Adolph up for the world's title, at that time. Then we could see how much the old country had come on in the last decade. If that meeting ever materialized, then Wells would be my popular fancy.

FOR the first Saturday in many there will be no lacrosse league clash this afternoon and even fans will appreciate the rest from the spell. Its mighty hard work, but also enjoyable, rooting for your especial twelve, but the short cessation will be welcomed as it will give the enthusiasts time to get the lungs patched up for next week when the second half of the season will be with us and then right on without a rest until the destination of the Minto cup is assured, one way or the other. The Salmons have been taking matters quietly this week, but the real hard training will be commenced on Monday and there will be no let up until Friday when again the boys will seek soft spots and wait until the gong sends them to the centre of Queens park for a game which is certain to be one of the briskest of the series. I am an optimist, and although I can see nothing but Westminster for the final points, it must not be forgotten that to cinch this we have to win four out of the five matches yet to be played. This is no easy task, not even for champions such as Westminster team has proved itself to be but we are going to witness such an exposition of the national sport from the Royalists that even the rooters in this city will wonder what we have been doing all summer. That cup's staying right here, and don't you forget it. Ernie Murray will be on the lineup next Saturday according to those on the inside ,and it will be interesting to see how his presence affects the team.

Westminster played 10, won 6, lost 4.

Vancouver played 10, won 4, lost 6.

These will be the figures at the close of the season 1911. If this falls down, I am going to swear off hunches forever.

THE news cabled from the motherland that Lord Desborough will visit the Dominion and come on as far as Vancouver, will be received with a deal of pleasure by those who follow sport, no matter in what branch. There is no greater devotee to the shrine of sport than this man who will soon be with us. When he was plain everyday William H. Grenfell, he made his mark at cricket, rowing, foot racing and swimming. I first had the pleasure of meeting him when he presented me with a medallion and certificate for life saving, and that was—some years ago. As chairman of the Olympic games he did more than any other man to make the great Marathon from Windsor to London possible and those who were present in the famous Holborn restaurant when the prizes were presented to the successful competitors of that great meeting will recall how in addressing the various nations gathered that night, he spoke to them each in their own language. Desborough is not one of those men whom our cousins over the line fancy goes about with a silk topper and a monocle. He is a Britisher and a man!

IN one of the most disgracefully rough games ever played in Canada, Vancouver defeated Westminster by three goals to one. The last quarter was brutal and men were literally mowed down. This bright story appeared in the Calgary Albertan last Monday. Oh, those bright newspaper correspondents in the Terminal. You will have an awful lot of sins to answer for when you go stoking, methinks.

EFFORTS are being made to have the Canadian National Swimming championships brought to Vancouver this summer. It is sometime since I witnessed a real live natational event, and I would be pleased if the arrangements were carried to a successful issue so that comparisons might be made between the mermen of this and the old country. Since coming to this part of the world I have regretted that the opportunities offered for one indulging in this pastime are of the weakest. I only know two tanks in the Terminal city, one at the V. A. C. and the other next door at the Y. M. C. A., and both are so jocular that it would be well to pass them up. It is certain that national championships could never be swam for in either of those soup basins. A suggestion has been made to contest the one-mile championship in one of those two, but if this were done it would be practically a case of touching and turning and swimming but a few strokes. In the motherland, the country that put the art of swimming on the map for all time, the association will not pe tanks to be built less than sevent, five feet long. In the States there are hundreds of such tanks and there the healthy exercise can be enjoyed by all without cramming. But here— One of these days I will write something about water polo, a sport which for one especial reason, is my strong suit, but in passing, wouldn't it be a joke to start playing that game in the tanks of Vancouver, or say, the one which at some future date will be in use here. The walls of the latter will have to bulge a lot ere that game can be played under regulation rules here.

RUMORS from the middle west tell of the journeyings to the Pacific coast of Johnny Powers, and according to the telegraphic press message Powers who, was in his day a nifty stickhandler is going to sign up with one of the clubs in this province. M'yes. I think Johnny is barking up the wrong tree.

UNFORTUNATELY, the meeting of the B. C. Lacrosse association which was called for last night in this city, was in the afternoon called off as the notice to the Terminal City representatives was, 'tis said, too brief to allow of them marshalling their forces. It is to be hoped that the report from the two whistle holders of last Saturday will come up for settlement at an early date. Go where you will, one hears nothing but this awful report and some of the wise ones tell you all that it contains, with plans and diagrams and, I was very nearly saying the price of the lot. At the last moment I hear that the meeting will be convened for the beginning of next week. Then things may or may not happen.

SENIOR AMATEURS PREPARE FOR GAME WITH VICTORIA

The senior amateurs held a practice yesterday evening and are getting into shape for the game today two weeks, when they will receive Victoria. There are several changes contemplated in the line-up from the twelve which went down to defeat at Vancouver on Coronation Day, and among those changes will be the reappearance of Patchell in the defence. There is a match in the series today, as the Capital team receives a visit from Vancouver, and circumstances point to a win for the V. A. C. boys.

These extra votes on a few subscriptions, turned in on or before July 15th at 9 p. m., may give you a lead that will win a prize.

Already the extra vote offer announced by the Daily News has met with a cordial response from the candidates.

Bright and early every morning, many candidates come to the Daily News office claiming the extra votes offered for them and the enterprising candidates have been busily engaged in the quest for subscriptions which mean so many additional votes.

The perfect weather during the past few days has been a great advantage to the ladies in the Daily News contest as it enables them to utilize every moment of spare time to make their efforts count.

We cannot place too much emphasis upon the importance of every candidate making the most of this extra vote offer. The experience of the contestants in the short time the contest has been running, has shown that subscriptions can be secured without difficulty by any young lady who seeks them and lets it be known that she is in earnest and means to win one of the Daily News' splendid prizes.

Many of the candidates have secured promises of subscriptions, and the time has come when those who have made these promises should be seen and the matter closed. You will have no difficulty in securing these promised and postponed subscriptions, if you will make it clear to your friends that you are counting on them, and that their subscriptions will count you more now than at any other time.

We have said it before and it will bear repetition. The prizes will be won between now and August 5th. The work you do from now on will place you among the fortunate winners, if you go at it with a determination to win.

Keep one thought on your mind from now until July 15th.

Double votes on all subscriptions for one year or more.

Tell your friends and acquaintances.

If you have a subscription, turn it in. Don't wait to flood the contest department on the last day of the special offer.

Subscriptions will never count for more than they do right now.

New subscriptions received by the Daily News will be delivered two days after we receive them. It is impossible to get them on the list in a shorter time.

Uninterested Judges.

That each candidate in the contest may feel assured of a square deal, a committee of well-known business men will be selected to act as judges to count the votes and award the prizes at the close of the contest.

Rules of the Contest.

In addition to the nomination rules published below, the following regulations will govern the conduct of the Westminster News three thousand dollar voting contest:

1. The contest opens Monday, June 12. Names and standing of candidates will be published Thursday, June 15, for the first time, and the contest will close at 9 p.m. Saturday, August 5. There will positively be no extension of the time.

2. Votes may not be secured except on subscriptions to the Daily or Weekly News or by clipping the ballots daily during the life of the contest.

3. No votes may be transferred from one candidate to another.

4. Candidates must enter from the district in which they live. If a candidate removes from one district to another during the life of the contest she will be a contestant from the district she first entered.

6. Votes will be issued on all subscriptions, old and new, according to schedule.

7. A subscriber who pays up his arrears to the News will be allowed votes according to the schedule.

8. No statement made by any solicitor, canvasser or agent varying from the rules set forth will be recognized by the News.

9. Candidates by accepting their nomination and filling votes certify their agreement and these and any other published conditions of the contest.

An extension from six months to one year will count you 7500 votes.

An extension from six mor to two years will count you the difference between the original rate for one year and the rate for two years, or 1600 votes, only during the double vote period.

INDIAN AND ESKIMO WILL BE STUDIED

NEW DIVISION OF GEOLOGICAL SURVEY TO COLLECT INFORMATION OF THEIR LIFE AND HABITS.

Ottawa, July 7.—A division of anthropolgy has been established in connection with the Dominion Geological Survey. Dr. Edward Sapir is head of the new division. Indian and Eskimo life, habit and thought, will be studied, and the results published. The establishment of this division was hastened by the increasing settlement of the country, which destroys the materials necessary for a study of this kind. It is stated that unless these materials are collected now they will be lost forever and future generations of Canadians will search in vain for authentic information concerning the native races of their country.

Journey to Hudson Bay.

By permission of the Governor-General, a report has been prepared by Mr. R. W. Brock, director of the Geological Survey, covering the journey to Hudson bay taken by Earl Grey last summer. His excellency is credited in the report with a lively interest in "the continuous disproof of the theory of the frozen north."

Dealing with the country between Lake Winnipeg and Hudson bay, Mr. Brock says that as regards hill and river, the land is similar to much of Northern Ontario and Quebec, while the climate in the vicinity of Norway House does not differ materially from that of Manitoba.

Mr. Brock confirms several reports of the shortness of the navigation season in Hudson bay, three and a half to four months, extending from the latter half of July to the early part of November. "Ice in the straits," says Mr. Brock, "will usually prevent an earlier opening, and cold, fog and snowstorms put an end to it in November."

A World Museum.

A world museum for the Canadian capital is promised by R. W. Brock in his annual report to the minister of mines. Mr. Brock outlines the work proposed to be done in connection with the new Victoria Memorial Museum. For the present, he says, it is the intention to restrict the museum to Canadian material, except in educational collections, where necessary objects may be lacking in Canada, in order to make it the great Canadian museum, whose collections in Canadian material will surpass all others "When this has been accomplished," he says, "it may be advisable to enlarge its scope and make it a world museum. As a national museum it is the natural repository of all Canadian objects of scientific value."

Sealed Tenders addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for Public Building, Chilliwack, B.C.," will be received at this office until 4 p.m. on Monday, July 24, 1911, for the construction of a Public Building, Chilliwack, B.C.

Plans, specifications and form of contract can be seen and forms of tender obtained at the office of Mr. William Henderson, resident architect, Victoria, B.C., at the Post Office, Chilliwack, B.C., and at this Department.

Persons tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made on the printed forms supplied, and signed with their actual signatures, stating their occupations and places of residence. In the case of firms, the actual signature, the nature of the occupation, and place of residence of each member of the firm must be given.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Honorable the Minister of Public Works, equal to ten per cent. (10) of the amount of the tender, which will be forfeited if the person tendering decline to enter into a contract when called upon to do so, or fail to complete the work contracted for. If the tender be not accepted the cheque will be returned.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

By order,
R. C. DESROCHERS,
Secretary.
Department of Public Works,
