TRAIN ROBBERS GET $20,000

Fast Mail Held Up Near Spokane —Collision Follows Injuring Twelve People.

POSSES ARE IN PURSUIT

Spokane, May 21—Six bandits held up the Great Northern fast mail near here, uncoupled the mail car and engine, ran up the track a few miles where a stop was made and the mails ransacked. It is believed they secured about $20,000. The engineer, fireman and mail clerk were forced to leave their posts. The robbers then reversed the engine, threw the throttle wide open, sending the engine and attached car on a wild run back to collide with the remaining cars of the train standing where they had been left. Twelve people were injured as a result of the collision. The federal authorities and railway company have offered rewards aggregating a total of $66,000 for the capture of any one of the robbers. Detectives are coming from many points to join in the hunt. Armed posses are out in all directions.

London, May 21—Commenting on the Duke of Bedford's motion in the House of Lords for an enquiry into the condition of the army, Lord Roberts said, "Our army is a sham; we have no army. We have neither army to send abroad nor to defend the country at home. While we are sitting here taking it easy the danger is coming nearer us daily. Unless you cease telling people they are living in safety and get an army fit to deal with an enemy, we shall one day come to utter grief."

Post Offices for Francis Lake and Pleasant Valley.

A. R. McDonald of Francis Lake, one of the early settlers in that district, returned from the coast this week and brought the news that a post office has been granted for the lake settlers. W. D. Harris will be postmaster and there will be a monthly service connecting with Fraser Lake. Being centrally located on the north shore of the lake this office will supply a long felt want. An attempt was made by the Francis lake settlers to have mail connection with Aldermere and thus put them in direct communication with the government offices of the district, located at Hazelton. However, with the establishment of a post office at Pleasant Valley, thirty miles south of Aldermere, the present summer, it is hoped that the Francis Lake office and the Pleasant Valley will be connected and thus give direct communication between Quesnel and Hazelton and all intermediate points.

An interim appropriation has been granted by the provincial government to start work on the Francis lake wagon road and it is thought quite a large amount of money will be spent on roads and trails on both sides of the lake before the summer is over.

The matter of a post office for Ootsa Lake has been taken up with the department at Ottawa with every prospect of success in the near future.

While at the coast Mr. McDonald met many people who are looking toward the Francis and Ootsa lakes district as their future home, and from present indications there is to be a great influx of people there this year.

LOCAL AND DISTRICT NEWS.

E. H. Hicks Beach has moved into his new office, which was built this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Webster of Bulkley Valley were visiting in Hazelton this week.

Aldous & Robertson will open real estate and insurance offices on the second floor of the Herald building Tuesday.

The steamers Port Simpson and Hazelton departed for Prince Rupert Thursday, after waiting almost a week for a proper stage of water.

R. Widi, J. M. Lobi, Peter Skubo, W. Deki and Wm. Whitsett, who came up the river a short time ago, have located in Bulkley Valley.

As showing the increasing amount of business done each year in the northern interior, there were nine commercial travelers showing samples in Hazelton the last week.

R. J. McDonald, proprietor of the Essington Hotel at Port Essington, which is headquarters for the mining men coming into the district, and favorably known to all residents of the interior, was a visitor in town this week.

A splendid line of men's suits has just been received at Cunningham & Son's store. These suits are right up-to-date and superior to anything ever offered in Hazelton. The public are respectfully invitied by the Major to inspect this new line.

R. L. Gale, deputy mining recorder at Aldermere, has entered into partnership with R. E. Williams, the land man, and henceforth will operate jointly under the firm name of Gale & Williams, with offices at Telkwa. The recording office will be moved at once to Telkwa. Attention is called to their advertisement appearing in this issue.

Mr. J. Piercy, of J. Piercy, Morris & Co., wholesale dealers in men's furnishings, dry goods, tents, etc., was calling on the trade this week in the interests of his firm. This is the first wholesale house to be established north of Vancouver, and shows a faith in prince Rupert and Northern British Columbia, which should command the attention of every business man in the Interior. Mr. Piercy will be up the river again in July.

W. H. Wilson, of Palouse, Wash.; Adam Kammers, of Westlake, Idaho, and Herman Helm, of Ferdinand, Idaho, arrived from Francis lake Tuesday. They have staked land for purchase in behalf of themselves and friends and as a result quite a colony of of Washington and Idaho people will move in there this summer. Kammers and Helm have left for their homes in the States but expect to be back in two months with their families and effects, A sawmill owned by Mr. Kammers will be brought along and erected on the shore of Francis lake. In all there will be sixteen or seventeen families in the party, all of those who have land staked for them by Mr. Wilson being prepared to move this year.

Monday next is Victoria Day, a public holiday observed throughout the Empire.

Two representatives of a colony of Germans, now living in the States and numbering forty-one families, arrived a few days since, coming here from Francis lake. They were well pleased with the country about Francis lake, but having instructions to secure land for all in one solid block, they were unable to satisfy themselves in that locality. Besides their household goods and farming implements they have a sawmill ready packed for shipment and the whole colony will come on receipt of a wire from their agents. A strong effort is being made to locate them in this district, which at present writing seems likely to succeed. Both men expressed themselves as being extremely well pleased with the country they had seen and admitted that as an agricultural country it met their requirements abmirably.

Has Interests in Northern Interior.

R. J. McDonald of Port Essington was a passenger on the Simpson last Sunday, returning to Essington Thursday. Mr. McDonald will return about the first of July, at which time he expects to make the trip into the Ingineca, where he is largely interested and determine the advisability of installing a machinery plant there.

For years Mr. McDonald has been prominently identified with the development of the interior and has probably put more money into the district than any other individual. Besides the Ingineca he holds interests in dredging leases in the Omineca river country which are being prospected this year and also has an interest in three or four groups of claims on Hudson's Bay mountain, which are considered to be among the particularly good things of that mountain noted for its rich ore. Development work will be continued on these claims this summer.

The showings on these claims, the Halley Group, the Simpson Group and the Ashman Group, have been looked over by a number of mining men in the past two or three years and they have all united in the opinion that the showings are magnificent, the transportation problem being the only drawback. Smelter returns on the 9,200 pounds of ore packed out to Hazelton and snipped to the Tacoma smelter showed values of over one hundred dollars per ton. Being only fifteen miles from the main line of the G.T.P., when once the railroad is completed into the Bulkley Valley these claims will be admirably situated for handling their ore at a reasonable cost.

Died at Age of 1000 Years.

New York—Methuselah died at his home in the Bronx zoo last week. He was 1000 years old, and his death is ascribed to ills incident to old age.

Mathuselah, also known as Rameses II, was a toad who was discovered in a rock pocket 500 feet below the surface at Butte, Mont., two years ago. He was sent to the zoo here, where his age was carefully computed by the zoologists and geologists. For a time he appeared to thrive in his new home, but later he seemed to become disheartened and for the past few weeks has been steadily sinking. His remains will be preserved in alcohol.

Mouse Causes a Panic.

A mouse caused a panic among the three hundred spectators in a moving picture show given in the Womelsdorf, Pennsylvania, town hall the other night. The mouse was discovered on a window ledge by a young woman, who screamed just as loud as she could. In an instant one hundred women were standing on chairs and appealing to the men to kill the ferocious animal. The show was suspended for ten minutes. Chairs and benches were upset and window panes broken in the confusion. No one was hurt. The mouse was caught alive by Mrs. Martin Belleman, who prizes it for the excitement it stirred up. Mrs. Belleman is now considered one of the bravest women in the state.
