The Prince Rupert Optimist

DAILY EDITION.

VOL. I, NO. 34 — PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1910. — PRICE, FIVE CENTS

BIG SEATTLE FIRE

OVER $1,000,000 WORTH OF PROPERTY DESTROYED IN AN HOUR.

Started at Galbraith Dock and Spread by Full Gale to Adjoining Buildings—Six Blocks Entirely Destroyed—Three Firemen Lose Their Lives—Hospitals Crowded With Injured by Fire and Those Trampled Upon.

(Special to the Optimist)

Seattle, June 11.—A fire broke out in a stable at the rear of the Galbraith-Bacon docks last night at half past ten, and almost immediately there was a conflagration that illumed the sky for miles and miles, and could be plainly seen at Tacoma and Everett. Attracted by the ruddy glow in the heavens thousands flocked to the waterfront from all parts of the city. Every theatre was emptied immediately, as if the fire had suddenly broken out in that particular building.

The flames were fanned by a southwest wind which approximated to a full gale, and the fire spread with great rapidity despite the efforts of the fire-fighters, Great yellow tongues of flame would shoot up carrying with them burning brands and shower of sparks that fell on adjoining buildings over a wide area. Soon the fire seized with greedy grasp warehouse after warehouse and block after block, until it was feared the entire northern part of the town was doomed. It was common to hear spectators remark that it was the most amazing and disastrous fire since the one of eighty-nine, when the whole city was laid waste.

The stable on Elliott avenue where the fire started and the Galbraith-Bacon docks were seen to be doomed when the first streams begun to play on them, and while attention was being paid to the saving of adjoining buildings the great roof of the Galbraith warehouse fell in with a crash and an immense roar of ember-laden flame. Both fire boats had big streams playing and practically the entire fire force of the city was centered at the spot. Within the fire zone men and women struggled, women screaming and children wailing. The thousands of occupants of business houses, hotels, lodging houses and residences were wildly fighting to escape against thoae rushing in to witness the fire.

Hundreds of the beleagured lingered to hastily gather up their most cherished belongings and it is feared many tarried too long and their charred bodies will tell the tale when the piles of debris are worked over. For an hour there was an immense crowd fleeing south with the impact of a greater crowd struggling to witness the spectacle, and in the struggle many were trampled upon and had to be taken to the hospitals. Later on hundreds who had escaped from burning buildings walked the streets shivering in night clothes in the cold and pitless rain.

The ambulances seemed to be as busy as the fire-fighters, Everywhere could be heard the rapid clang-clang of their gongs as the police endeavored to force a way for them. The whole of the police reserves were called out, but it was impossible to maintain the fire lines.

How many lost their lives is not yet known. Three firemen are included in the death toll. They were fighting heroically to stop the flames wrapping around the storehouses and buildings between First avenue and Wall street when they were caught in an explosion which toppled forward the front of the building. As this fell a sheet of flame was carried by the high wind right down the crowded street and the ambulances picked up the most badly scorched. There may be several bodies under the fallen walls.

Not far from the scene the firemen operating an engine had to flee for their lives and leave the apparatus to be destroyed, when live wires fell and were entwined about them.

To Patrolman G. J. Gleason belongs the credit of saving the life of one woman. She was a roomer in Hotel Walfish, the northern half of which was destroyed. She had left the building with some of her valuables but apparently forgot something dear to her. While the north end of the building was a mass of flames she rushed back through the entrance. She was detected by the patrolman as she disappeared up the stairs and he immediately gave chase. He captured her in the thick smoke and had to carry her out bodily, she screaming and fighting against it.

Police Matron Dehan has issued a call for clothing for women who escaped the fire with the loss of all their possessions Many were unaware of the dangerous proximity of the flmmes until the smoke drove them out.

The loss will be immense and it is now said one million dollars will not begin to cover it. The area is said to approximate to that of the great fire of eighty-nine, while the buildings are larger and of a more costly character.

CANADA TEMPERANCE ACT

INFORMATION OF INTEREST TO LOCAL OPTION ADVOCATES

Temperance People have Gained a lot of Ground Under Their New Act—A Straight Majority Carries a Plebiscite.

As was noted in our issue of yesterday Dr. Spencer will lecture again in the Empress theatre tomorrow afternoon. His subject will be "Your next Move. Why?" At this time a few facts in connection with recent temperance legislation might be read with profit. The Canada Temperance Act is in part as follows:-

This act applies to "Counties" and "Cities" in British Columbia.

Prince Rupert can take a vote for and by itself.

Atlin County takes a vote by itself.

25 perc ent. of the electors can sign a petition asking for a vote.

The Federal Government fixes the day of voting and appoints returning officers without expense to the city.

A straight majority carried and all licenses cease.

Makers and shippers of liquor cannot import it into districts where the vote carries. This is an effective remedy to "blind pigs".

The no-license period is for three years and can be continued by similar vote.

On reasonable ground a re-count is possible.

The voting cannot take place on any other election day.

Liquor cannot be sold or given away, during time of voting.

One druggist, or other person, is appointed to dispense certain quantities of liquor under medical certificate for sickness, or under certificate of two Justices of the Peace, for other purposes, For personal or family use, liquor can be obtained under restrictions, but orders cannot be solicited, or accounts therefor collected in no-license districts.

Fines for violation are,—first offence, $50 or one month; second offence $100 or two months; third offence four months imprisonment, with no option.

The Inland Revenue officer, any other person, or enforcement officer appointed by the city or county can prosecute. The Criminal Code Part XV is also available.

The burden of proof is on the defendant.

Under this and similar Acts many counties and cities in Canada are prosperous, happy and moral. There are 1400 municipalities in Canada so situated. Importation prevented and law enforced are the sure remedy for "blind pigs". Remember the bar, the brothel and the gambling house all go together.

MINING AND STOCK EXCHANGE

The Development of Local Mines Creating a Lively Interest

While Prince Rupert Realty has the past year been a most profitable form of investment for quick returns, the remarkable development of the mineral resources of the Portland Canal, and other mining districts tributory to this city, promises in the immediate future to divide honors will real estate investments as a profitable venture. Among those who were first to see the possibilities of the industry were the organizers and charter members of the first mining exchange incorporated and opened for business in this city, under the title of the Prince Rupert Mining and Stock Exchange. The company was organized by a number of the leading business men of the city, and received its incorporation papers May 7, 1910. In the meantime the offiers had secured accommodations, and opened with its first call on 'Change May 22, 1910. The charter members, of which there are twenty-five paid in entrance fee of $25 the exchange at present has 27 members while the membership is limited to 40 at an entrance fee of $50. Daily calls are held at 11 a.m. and the members holding seats are displaying a lively interest in the work, an interest that is destined to continue and increase as the development of the properties and the formation of new companies directs attention to the fortunes to be made in local stocks. In addition to handling Portland Canal, Hazelton, Alice Arm and stocks of the various other mining districts, the Board will deal in municipal stocks and debentures, and industrial stocks of particular interest to local residents and investors, while all the Cobalt stocks can be bought and sold. The Exchange keeps in close touch with the Toronto Stock Exchange, of which board Mr. Evans, secretary of the exchange retains his seat. As indicative of the wide-spread interest aroused in the local exchange, it is interesting to note that the Seattle Minnig Exchange has made overtures t the local officials with the idea of maintaining close relations and to keep informed on the development of the districts and the work of the local body

NEW BUILDING INSPPECTOR

M. J. McNeil has had 25 Years Experience

M. J. McNeil the new building inspector for Prince Rupert is busy preparing himself for his duties which will commence in a few days, or as soon as the council get the necessary by-laws passed. Mr. McNeil is a carpenter and a building contractor. He has had some 25 years experience in Canada and the United States. He put in eleven years in Boston, Mass., during which time he erected a number of large blocks using brick and concrete and under the instruction of building and sanitary inspectors. He knows the building trade thoroughly and should be a good man for the city. He came here from Fairbanks, Alaska, and has been in the city about ten months. He is a native of Sydney, C. B.

SPECIAL TO MASSET

Leave Sunday A. M. and Spend Twenty-four hours at Village.

As the Henriette is going below to be put on the ways and the Prince Albert will not make Masset on her first trip there will be no steamer for this point for eight or ten days, and Chas. M. Wilson and party have chartered the Tasmanian to leave Prince Rupert on Sunday morning, weather permitting. Anyone wishing to join the party can communicate with him at his office 3rd avenue and 8th street. The party will remain 24 hours or possibly longer.

Hail In June

The citizens were surprised to see the hail storm this morning after so much warm weather. The storm only lasted about three minutes however.

Geo. H. Hammer In Town

Geo. H. Hammer of Vancouver was in town yesterday and returned on the May for Vancouver. This is not the celebrated Hammer of the C. P. R. publicity department, but he is a good fellow just the same.

CAPTAIN B. L. JOHNSON

WHO WILL COMMAND THE G.T.P. STEAMER PRINCE RUPERT

One of the Youngest Officers on the Pacific Coast and One of the Best—A Sketch of His Career as a Deep Sea Sailor and Officer.

It will be learned with much pleasure all along the coast that B. L. Johnson, of Victoria, will have charge of the Steamer Prince Rupert, the first G. T.P. coast steamer between Vancouver and the city of Prince Rupert. Capt. Johnson is only 32 years of age. He was born in Liverpool Eng., and has spent many years on the seas. The fact that he received the appointment as captain of the first Grand Trunk Pacific boat is a guarantee that he stands with the first rank of officers. His many friends in Prince Rupert and all along the coast will extend hearty congratulations to him and wish him every success.

Capt. Johnson is married and his family lives in Victoria. He will, however, bring them to Prince Rupert to live when the home port is established here.

The Captain entered upon his apprenticeship with Nicholson McGill's sailing ships in 1891. He came to the Pacific Coast on the ship Borrowdale, from Liverpool, in 1894. He remained here for two years and was a sailor on the steamers Coquitlan and Active running to Juneau and Northern B. C. ports.

In 1896 he returned to the deep water ships for two years. He then returned to the Pacific Coast and has remained in the employ of coast companies since, although he has made several trips across the Atlantic for the purpose of bringing new steamers over.

For two years he was with the Union S.S. Co., as mate and five years as master He then joined the Boscowitz S.S. Co. He has been with them for three years, and has been master during that time of the Venture, Vadso and St. Denis. He brought the Vadso out from the old country and the St. Denis from California..

The past year he brought the steamer Roman from the old country for the British Columbia Packers Association, arriving here last march.

Capt. Johnson has been ten years master of ships on the Pacific Coast and we hope he will pilot the Prince Rupert as successfully as his previous commands.

Engineer's Office

The furniture arrived this morning at the city hall for the city engineer's office. It was placed in a rear room upstairs and will be used by the temporary engineer until Mr. Davis arrives.

INDIANS COMPLAIN

Against Action of Constable Fitzgerald at Port Essington

The Optimist has received a communication from the Indians at Port Essington in reference to the Indians at the fire and the part played by Constable Fitzgerald The writer states that the Indians all worked hard and did their best. Alfred Wedildahed, upon the request of Constable McDonald, got the Indians out and started to work. They also brought out their apparatus from the reserve and everybody did well iin fighting the flames. Then the writer states that Constable Fitzgerald went up to Wedildahed and accused him of trying to keep the Indians from working and the latter denied it. The Constable is also charged with having knocked down an old man and a scrap ensued in which several men took part. The next morning Constable Fitzgerald laid a complaint against Alfred Wedildahed and he appeared for trial in the afternoon. He was charged with "unlawfully trying to stop the Indians fighting the fire," and Barriman, agent of Indian affairs, acted as counsel for Wedildahed and as the Constable had no evidence to produce the case was dismissed. The Indians are sore at Constable Fitzgerald and claim that he causes more trouble than all the others combined.

J. McHardy, of Portland, arrived in the city on the May and is registered at the Queen's hotel. Before Mr. Mc Hardy leaves again he will have invested considerable cash in Prince Rupert real estate.

IS ORGANIZING OUR NAVY

British Officer Assumes the Duties Of Commander

Commander Charles Dennison Roper. of the British Navy, has arrived in Ottawa to assist in the organization of the Canadian Navy, and assume the duties of Commander J. D. Stewart, who has been in Canada for some time, but who has left for England to take H. M. S. Rainbow from British waters to the Pacific Coast.

Capt. Roper is only 33 years of age but is regarded as one of the smartest officers in the service. He is the second son of Mr. George Roper, a well-known Yorkshire gentleman.

Commander Roper has been engaged by the Canadian Government for a term of two years, and he said on arrival that he looked forward with great pleasure to his sojourn in this country, of which he has read and heard so much. He is a typical Yorkshireman and son of the sea, with a hearty engaging manner and a ruddy weather-beaten complexion.

He has been a sailor since his boyhood and speaks with pleasure of the six years spent on the staff of Lord Charles Beresford, one of Britain's heroes. He has just left H. M. S. Grafton, a training ship stationed at Portsmouth.

Commander Roper has lost no time in getting after his duties. He was busy at work in his offices in the Canadian Building soon after his arrival.

If you want to have a good time at the Eagle dance, get a suit made or your clothes pressed at Rudnick, Sweder Bros., merchant tailors, Third avenue, to the right of Sixth street. 29d

CRIMINALITY IN THE WEST.

The Canadian correspondent of the Boston Transcript writes to his paper as follows:-

"Colonel White, comptroller of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police of Canada, tells me there is no reasonable ground for something which he has recently heard in Boston, i.e., an assertion that "village and country life in the Canadian West is becoming demoralized; that the police are unable to cope with the situation, that there are as many petty offences and as much bad conduct there as in any of the American Western States." Nobody can know the truth in this matter as well as the alert colonel, who has been the head and centre of the force for many years. He receives monthly reports from five divisional posts and sixty-four posts and sixty-four attachments and one post in the territories, including the Yukon and the Hudson Bay region. These monthly reports touch every sort of development in the policed regions. They are curiously particular in reference to crime, since they set forth details of cases in any way notable."

It is our privilege says the Vancouver Mail to corroborate what Col. White says We have lived in the territories they work, and we have worked in the districts they live in. We have hit the trail time and again and have buck-boarded the flats in cold and heat in company with the R. N. W. M. P., and one thing has always impressed us, that was the absence of crime and the placid order to be found in the new provinces of Western Canada.

MARINE

The Princess May left for Vancouver at ten o'clock this morning.

The Humbolt came in about noon with all her passenger accommodation crowded, most of them booked through to points in the interior and principally for Iditarod.

The Camosun cleared for Stewart at half past six this morning. She had not nearly as many passengers for Stewart as formerly, and there were few from here booked for the new city on the canal.

All the clerks on the waterfront were talking this morning about the dance to be given by the Publicity Club on Wednesday night, and growing excited as to their individual chances of receiving invitations.

The City of Seattle reached here with a banner list of passengers. She had 190 first class and 51 second, and of the whole number only forty-two were booked for way points. The passengers landed here were Ethel Golden, Frankie Dickson, Margie Schultz, W. Davis, G. A. Dyer, Gust Fredin and Mrs. Martin and ten second class.

IN THE ARENA OF SPORT

At the Circque de Paris Hogan, a pupil of Harry Lewis won the French heavyweight championship by knocking out Loreau in the twelfth round of a twenty round match. Loreau was trained by Duke Auileans, Billy Papke's trainer.

Sam Langford is in San Francisco and is preparing to establish training quarters at Milletts, Colma, for his fight with Kaufman, which takes place June 18th. Kaufman is training at Harbin Springs.

John Johnson is still taking the long road route every morning, and he hopes to enter the ring against Jeffries weighing 210 pounds. Yesterday he weighed 216 1-3 pounds after his morning ten miles.

E. Robert Mitchell, University of Mississippi star pitcher, signed with the Clubs, will not report. He has written Chance saying his intended wife refuses to let him play professional baseball.

Count Jacques de Lesseps, the aviator who recently flew across the English channel from Calais, landing near Dover, wired his congratulations to Capt. Charles Stewart Rolls, who flew across the channel and back again on one continuous journey.

Before a crowd considerably smaller than the one that come out to see James J. Jeffries box in the same arena a week ago, Jack Johnson sparred six rounds with his regular sparring partners, George Cotton and Marty Cutler. Johnson displayed all the form of a heavy weight champion of the world, according to fight experts who crowded the ring side. He was clever and fast in his work and the crowd applauded him generously after each round. He did not do any hard punching, however, and failed to create any excitement by his ex hibition.

The Carpenter-Morton Co., Boston, Mass., were the first paint concern to offer Varnish Stains to housekeepers. Campbell's Varnish Stain is the original, first made in 1888, and to-day recognized as the most satisfactory article of the kind upon the market. The Kaien Hardware Company carries a complete stock. Miss Alice DeVernet Bridemaid At a Swell Wedding

The Toronto Star of June 1st has the following account of a wedding there in which Miss DuVerney, daughter of Bishop DuVerney of Prince Rupert, appeared in the prominent role of bridesmaid.

"The marriage of Miss Enid Hartland Going, daughter of the late Charles C. Going and Mrs. Going, to Mr. Charles Lockwood Beckett was solemnized very quietly at half-past twelve o'clock today at St. Alban's Cathedral. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon McNab, in the presence of a fe immediate relatives. The bride, who was given away by her mother, was attired in a traveling suit of cream Murray Bay homespun and white hat, and she carried a bridal bouquet of fragrant natural orange blossoms.

Miss Alice DuVernet, of Prince Rupert was bridesmaid, in a dainty pale blue frock and blue hat with pink, and carried a bunch of lilies of the valley.

Mr. Ashley Russell was best man.

Eagle Ball Postponed

The Fraternal Order of Eagles has again shown its magnanimity in once more postponing its ball. It was announced for the 15th inst., and that date in MacIntyre hall was accorded to the Publicity Club for the dance to be given to the visitors coming on the Prince Rupert. Then the date for the Eagle ball was fixed for the 14th, but this was believed by the Publicity Club to be liable to clash, and the Eagles, as spirited public citizens, have again postponed their ball to a later date not yet fixed.

A Welcome Gift

The Seattle Brewing & Malting Co., has presented Prince Rupert Aerie, F. O. E. with a large case of "Eagles Mil commonly known as Rainier Pale Beer. The members of the Aerie appreciate the gift very much and extend hearty thanks to the donors.

PERSONAL

W. M. Brewer, the assayer and mining promoter, boarded the Princess May at Ketchikan on his way to Vancouver.

Colonel Sutherland, the well known mining operator, came down on the Princess May from Juneau and has a large party with him for Vancouver.

Among those staying at the Grand Trunk Inn are J. T. Phelan and his duughter. Mr. Phelan is on his annual inspection of the telegraph lines.

Police Court

Chas. Keck another drunk was fined $11 and costs. He paid his fine.

Frank Martini who has been held for several days as a vag, will appear before the magistrate this afternoon.

A Perrs, an ordinary drunk and disorderly was given a very severe lecture by the magistrate and allowed to go. When collecting his property Perrs refused to take the bottle of whiskey he had when arrested. He said he would never again taste or handle the stuff.

Henry George was charged with supplying the above two women with liquor. The defence claimed that the women, while Indians, had been married to white men for several years and were living in a white community. Therefore they did not come under the Indian Act. The case was dismissed.

Magistrate Carss had a busy time this morning with drunk and disorderly prisoners. Five of them lined up before him awaiting trial. Two of them were Indian women from Alaska and three were men. The women pleaded guilty and were convicted but allowed their freedom on suspended sentence.
