EARTHQUAKE DAMAGES NAPLES

Salerno Also Laid Waste.—Quake Followed By Volcanic Fires and Huge Tidal Wave.—Two Hundred Bodies Among Wreckage of Boats.

(Special to the Optimist)

Naples, Oct. 25.—Ravaged by earthquakes, volcanic fires and flood, the provinces of Naples and Salerno are today laid waste and desolate. The authorities are apparently appalled. The shores are strewn with the wrecks of fishing vessels. The dead on the island of Ischis number over two hundred.

The earthquake was followed by a huge tidal wave that submerged the shore for miles, threw all the vessels upon it high up into the streets and vineyards, leaving among the wreckage scores of dead.

With the first earthquake shock many of the inhabitants of Naples fled, many large buildings falling as they hurried through the streets to the railway and the quay. With the great exodus owing to the cholera scare, and that following the earthquake, the city is practically deserted by all able to get away.

And it is feared the worst is yet to come. The volcano of Epome, which in 1883 overwhelmed Casamiccola, has become active. Vesuvius is less violent this morning, but scientists say the conditions are exactly those preceding any great eruption. The worst is therefore to be feared.

DOLLAR FINE FOR SWEARING

ON PUBLIC STREET. FRANK KELLY COMPLAINED OF

Magistrate Carss Imposes Fine to Remind Accused of City By-law Against Bad Language in Public Places.

The principal case before Magistrate Carss at this morning's police court was that of Frank Kelly of the Union Transfer company who was charged with having addressed insulting and profane language towards W. H. Morrison on Saturday night last at the intersection of Third avenue and Sixth street.

F. Kelly had come with his teamster and a heavy wagon and team load of window and door frames for the new Salvation Army building on wihch Mr. Morrison is foreman during construction. The team arrived after 6 p.m. when the men were away, but Mr. Morrison was there, and said that the load should be taken up to the building. Mr. Kelly said it couldn't be done safely with the wagon and team, and the language complained of was the outcome of the dispute between Kelly and Morrison. The words mentioned in the evidence of complainer and his witness, W. T. Mews, as having been used by accused are far from pretty, though one phrase is a form of blasphemy in common currency. Accused did not deny having used this phrase, but another ugly and thoroughly unsavory word he absolutely denied having spoken, saying he never used it.

Ed. Macbeth, Mr. Kelly's teamster, did not set much store by the language, and said there wasn't much of a scene or he'd have noticed it. W. T. Mews said Kelly's voice was boisterous while complainer's was not at all loud. Morrison admitted in cross examination that having been called a certain kind of fool by Kelly he had repeated the phrase in denying the allegation.

Frank Kelly said that the reason he had not taken the load up was because it was absolutely dangerous to do so with that team. He had taken loads up before with lighter teams however. When he called Mr. Morrison a certain kind of fool he thought Mr. Morrison was just that kind of fool to want the load taken up, and that the language was justifiable.

Magistrate Carss found that accused was clearly guilty of infringing the city by-law against such language and fined F. Kelly one dollar "to remind him that there was a by-law."

The Magistrate said the question had nothing to do with the provocation, it was simply whether or not the language had been used on the street.

PREMIER McBRIDE COMING

Special to The Optimist.

Victoria, Oct. 25.—Premier McBride will leave Victoria next Monday for an extended trip to Prince Rupert and Stewart.

CITY CLERK AT HIS POST AGAIN

When City Clerk Woods appeared last night to resume his place at the council table there was a general expression of satisfaction that he had recovered from his recent indisposition. Though suffering a good deal from the effects of over-concentration upon his multifarious duties Mr. Woods has not allowed his illness to put him out of touch with the City Hall work and has buckled to again vigorously.

THE POPULAR MAN

Who Will Win the $75 Gold Headed Cane

On November 4th in McInytre Hall will be a contest unique and interesting. It is a public vote for the most popular man in the city and the prize is a $75 gold headed cane, presented by the ladies who are organizing the bazaar under the auspices of the Roman Catholic Church.

The ballot box for the popular vote will be open from 3 o'clock in the afternoon until 9:30 in the evening. There are only two candidates, Mayor Stork and Ald. V. W. Smith. A vote costs ten cents and the purchaser takes his choice.

Don't Swear

Last Saturday Magistrate Carss fined a young man $5 for having used foul language on Third avenue, saying in unmistakable terms that he meant to to put down this abominable practice with the utmost vigor. Today for the same offence the same Magistrate fined a local business man one dollar "just to remind him of the existence of the by-law against swearing."

TWO STEAMERS ARE WRECKED

NINETEEN MEMBERS OF CREW ARE DROWNED

Tug Went to Assistance of Steamer Regulus but Hawser Broke—Mail Steamer Lisbon Had Two Hundred and Fifty People Aboard.

(Special to the Optimist)

St. Johns, Nfd., Oct. 25.—Nineteen members of the crew of the steamer Regulus, running from here to New York, were drowned yesterday. The tail shaft broke and for several hours she was at the mercy of a heavy gale. At length a tug came to her assistance but she had scarcely been made fast when the hawser broke. The steamer was then carried by the wind and tide ashore in the Bay of Bulls, and she there lies a total wreck.

Steamer Lisbon Wrecked

Capetown, Oct. 25.—The mail steamer Lisbon, with two hundred and fifty people aboard, is a total wreck. All were saved with the exception of three.

AN IMMENSE HEIGHT

(Special to the Optimist)

New York, Oct. 25.—J. A. Drexel broke the American record for altitude at Belmont Park yesterday morning, ascending in his machine to a height of 7,105 feet. Brooking tried to beat this in a baby Wright areoplane but his engine stopped at an altitude of four thousand feet and he came back to earth in a hurry. The machine was smashed but the aviator himself escaped injury.

HAS ONLY ONE MINE

Fleet Robertson's Report Upon the Condition of Stewart Mining

(Special to the Optimist)

Victoria, Oct. 25.—Fleet Robertson's report upon the mining development and mineral deposits of the Stewart mining district states that the whole district has only one property that can pretend to be a mine, and that is the Portland Canal company's property. None of the others, he says, have yet reached the shipping stage.

British General Elections

London, Oct. 25.—(Special)—It is likely now that the general election in England will be put off until after the coronation next June.

PLOTTING SPANISH REVOLUTION

General Uprising Expected To Follow Republican Gathering.—Soldiers Being Paid Arrears and Salaries Of Non-Commissioned Officers Raised.

(Special to the Optimist)

Madrid, Oct. 25.—The reports of the discovery of a plot to start a revolution in Spain similar to that which has proved so successful in Portugal is causing great uneasiness to the government. The announced gathering of the Republicans is looked forward to with great anxiety, as it is generally expected this will be followed by an uprising against the crown. The pay of all non-commissioned officers has been raised and the back pay of both rank and file has been met.

The government now claims that it is prepared to cope with any emergency' but this is not generally believed as so large a contingent of the army are now on service in Morocco.

Three Drunks Fined

Three cases of drunk and disorderly were dealt with in today's police court. David Moriarity was fined $5 and costs, James McKinley $3 and costs and John Hachstrom $5 and costs. McKinley who had put up $5 bail failed to appear.

THINK CITY SHOULD REPAIR

Plankway Put in at Private Expense Previous to Incorporation

A number of prominent citizens resident or in business in and in the neighborhood of the Exchange Block, have petitioned the city council regarding the repair of the plankway between Third avenue and Fraser street which was put in at their private expense before the city was incorporated.

These citizens state that they had petitioned the Government for this plankway first, and had eventually put in the plankway themselves, and now agree that it is up to the city to keep it in repair. The petition states that the building inspector is particularly interested in the state of repair of the plankway in question, and desires that the city should see to it. The Streets committee will consider the matter.

VOTERS IN CITY'S EMPLOY

May Get on Register If They Pledge Their Credit With City to Extent of Road Tax.

Ald. Hilditch asked the Mayor last night if qualified voters doing work at present for city wages might have their names put on the voters' register provided they agreed to have the amount of their road tax deducted from their wages when they became due at the end of the month. The amount is of course $2, and as Ald. Hilditch remarked the city has a cinch on it anyway.

The Mayor said there was no reason against these voters being allowed to place their names on the register provided that they authorized the necessary deduction from their wages clearly.

GRADING OF THIRD AVENUE

Recommendation Will Be Made by Streets Committee on Thursday

Ald. Pattullo made the request that owing to the action of the Bank of Montreal in furnishing the funds required for the city grading work prepared for, the Streets committee might on Thursday night bring in a recommendation that tenders be called for the grading of Third avenue, and the other portions of Section One planned for to the extent of the funds available. The request will be acted upon by the committee.

L. Crippen left this morning for Port Essington to sell three booms of lumber there by order of the sheriff.

FROM THE BANK OF MONTREAL

LETTER TO MAYOR PROMISING $500,000 ADVANCE

F. Stork, Esq, Mayor, City

Dear Sir,—Following my letter of 10th inst., I beg to advise you that I am now further authorized by the General Manager, to advance to the city sufficient to prosecute the works to which it is committed, but not to exceed $500,000.

I trust that an amiable settlement with the Grand Trunk Pacific railway company with reference to their assessment may be early arrived at.

Yours truly,
J. W. CLANCY, Acting Manager

The letter was referred to the Finance committee.

Time to Think It Over

The other day Alexander McBlank, let us call him, who was a person in authority in the Northwest Territories forty years ago, got a snug billet for his old age in Ottawa. He was smiling broadly when Hugh John Macdonald met him on Main street, Winnipeg. "Is it the new job, Sandy?" "Naw, naw, Mister Macdonald, it's an old joke I've just kenned. When I was in Battleford, twenty-five years syne, I sent a wee bit message to Ottawa: 'Indian uprising threatened. What shall I do?' And some young fellow answered back: 'Get your hair cut.' It's only now I see the reason—they didna want me to be scaplit."—Canadian Colliers.

APPEAL CASE DISMISSED

Judge Young's Decision in Rex vs. Rosang Case

The appeal case Rex vs. Rosang came up yesterday before Judge Young in the County Court. The question of the proper serving of notice of appeal by counsel for the appellant was again argued. Notice should have been served upon the respondent or his solicitor. The question of who was the proper respondent in this case, whether Magistrate McMullin, who tried the case at first, Magistrate Carss as City Police Magistrate, Chief Constable McCarvell, was the puzzle. There was also the question of whether Mr. Manson had appeared as solicitor for the city or for the Chief Constable at the trial. Mr. Patmore thought Mr. Manson had distinctly said at the trial, that he appeared for the city. Mr. Manson disagreed with him. Mr. Patmore thought Mr. Manson was not acting in good faith in the matter and suggested that he was taking "the underground road" to get out of the appeal case. Mr. Manson replied that his learned friend was playing to the gallery a bit. Mr. Patmore was ready to call witnesses to prove that Mr. Manson had said at the trial that he appeared for the city.

"Oh, surely you can trust counsel's word in a matter like this," said Judge Young.

"I should like to," said Mr. Patmore.

Mr. Manson said that if he had said he appeared for the city in that case, the words were used colloquially, but he did not recall using them at all.

Judge Young dismissed the appeal case saying he would consider the question of costs.

"The state of the law requires the greatest care," he said, "in serving notice of appeal. The safest way is to deal directly with the respondent. In this case everybody thought the city of Prince Rupert was the respondent and it turns out that it was Chief McCarvell."

ALASKA RAILROAD BUILDER REMEMBERS THEM

Bequests of One Million Made in His Will, Many in Small Amounts to Business Associates and Those Employed by Him.

Seattle, Oct. 22.—The will of Michael J. Heney, filed yesterday, makes bequests to relatives and friends and for charitable purposes to the amount of approximately $1,000,000. Of this, $600,000 is in cash, notes, stocks and bills receivable, an unknown value in real estate, and the remainder in prospect as the result of completion of the Heney railroad contract in Alaska on the line of the Copper River & Northwestern. To old friends of the deceased is given $80,000, and $10,000 is left to Rev. Bishop P. T. Rowe of the Episcopal Church for the benefit of the Alaska Indians; $2500 goes to the missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Seattle, and $10,000 to the House of the Good Shepherd of Seattle. These last comprise the charitable bequests.

Annuities, in monthly payments, are granted to relatives and friends, including a $500 a month payment during her life to Mrs. Mary Ann Heney of Ottawa, Can., the mother. Employees are remembered in a bequest for $5000 to be expended for a clubhouse at Cordova, Alaska, for the use of men employed on the railroad now building. Among other bequests are those to P. J. Heney of Pakenham, Ont., of $300 a month and $40,000, and to Ann O'Brien, a niece, of Ottawa, $200 a month and $25,000. There are numerous other bequests ranging from $150 to $25,000.

LAST OUT OF DAWSON

Steamer La France Crowded With Last of the Migrates

Dawson, Oct. 21.—The steamer La France, the last steamer of the year to sail from Dawson for White Horse, got away Monday night, crowded with hundreds of passengers, including some of the best known operators. All freight for way points was refused, as the boat has a race against ice. Pelly and Stewart rivers are throwing heavy ice and there is considerable running past Dawson.

The first mail stage from Dawson to White Horse this season started yesterday and expects to make White Horse in seven days and to do as well as the La France. More people are remaining in the Klondike camps at work this year than last, due chiefly to the heavy construction work of the Treadgold Gold Mining and Power Company.

TWO PROSPECTORS KILLED

Tree Came Crashing Down on Tent While They Slept

New Westminster, Oct. 22.—Two bodies, supposed to be those of George Blake, Sr., and George Blake, Jr., have been discovered on the shores of Scott Creek, Pitt Lake, life having apparently been crushed out of the prospectors by a tree crashing through their tent while they were asleep. The Blakes had been missing since May. An inquest will be held as soon as the bodies are brought down from the lake, Constable Wilkie being now in that district arranging this detail. While the bodies have not yet been definitely identified, there is little reason to doubt that the Blakes are the victims of this tragedy.

EVELYN THAW SHORT OF CASH

Promises No Doubt Made at Second Trial When Her Evidence Was So Essential—Now Practically Without Funds Whatever.

New York, Oct. 20.—Once the central figure in gay night revels and saturnalias about the heart of the city, where money was plentiful and time hung lesiurely on the hands of her admirers, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wife of Harry Kendall Thaw, murderer of Stanford White, by all accounts is up against it.

The prevailing suspicion that she received a large sum of money from the family of her husband in consideration of her sensational testimony at his trial, appears to have had little basis in fact. There is no doubt that she was promised a fortune, but being of a trusting nature and lacking in business shrewdness, she neglected to drive a good bargain when she could have done so, accepting the assurances of the Thaws that they would provide her with a substantial annuity. But for her testimony, nothing in the world would have saved Thaw from going to the electric chair.

Realizing this, the shabby treatment accorded her by the Thaw family has since made her feel that she lost a golden opportunity to make herself comfortable for life when she failed to make them guarantee her a fixed sum. Her discontinuance the other day of her suit for damages against the Knickerbocker hotel for ejecting her and E. R. Thomas, the banker, from its dining room in 1908, revealed the fact that she is practically without funds of any kind.

Calgary News on Rocks

Calgary, Oct. 22.—The Evening News has gone into liquidation. Mr. D. McGillicuddy was editor, and the liabilities over the assets amount to $66,000. Several leading Liberals lost heavily, including Messrs. Bulyea, Cushing, Rutherford, Cross, Oliver and Finlay. The paper drove the Eye-Opener out of the city.

To Prepare for Legislature

Victoria, Oct. 22.—Hon. Price Ellison, minister of finance and agriculture, will return to Victoria in about two months so as to be here sufficiently in advance of the season to take up all the necessary business.

Her Secret of Longevity

Julia Ward Howe once said that her recipe for longevity was to learn a new language every ten years and to associate as much as possible with young people. I suppose she began the study of a fresh tongue when she was ninety. Both items of her recipe are good, though it is not all elderly people who have the faculty either for language-learning or for retaining a lively friendship with the young. The latter, be it said, demands that there shall be a certain amount of reciprocity on the part of the young people themselves. These, however, are usually quite accessible if the "old party" will only remember the time when he or she was young, and act accordingly. It may take an effort of memory to turn back and imagine oneself in the late teens, or the early twenties, but it can be done, and it is not an unpleasing effort of the fancy. And the old parties can always tell whether they are doing it successfully or not by the attitude of the young people towards them. These latter are sometimes quite surprised that these seniors can see through them so well.

WILL ASK FOR A SUBSIDY

Within the next few years it is likely that considerable capital will be employed in the development of our Pacific coast fisheries, says the Monetary Times. Sir George Doughty is about to return to England after an inspection of the sea wealth along the British Columbia's edge. He is an expert in fishing matters, and will convey a favorable report to influential British investors, who will be advised to establish a Canadian fishing industry in British Columbia, backed by British capital. He regrets that at the present time the fisheries, which extend from Vancouver north to Stewart, are exploited almost exclusively by Americans and Japanese. As a large amount of money will be required to develop the scheme proposed by Sir George, an application may be made to the Canadian Government for assistance in the form of a subsidy. Undoubtedly there are great possibilities in Canada's fishing grounds. They await only capital and enterprise.

The Bank of Montreal having come through with another quarter million loan the local merchants may anticipate a merry Christmas.

With the whole of Section One grading work under way the city pay roll will not only make business active but prosperous.

If the G. T. P. does not hurry up their transcontinental the aviators will make the line unnecessary before it ever opens.

The dispatch with which the famous Crippen murder case was disposed of in England is an example of the relentlessness of justice in Great Britain and the stability of British institutions. Public agitation did not stampede the courts nor did sensationalism and high-priced counsel avail the guilty anything. It is an example which is almost incomprehensible to the American people.

CABINET MOVES IN NOVA SCOTIA

PREMIER MURRAY DECIDES TO GO TO SENATE

Succeeds Senator McGregor Who Becomes Lieutenant-Governor—Attorney-General Maclean Has the Honor of Becoming Premier.

Lunenburg, N. S., Oct. 22.—The attorney-general, Hon. A. K. Maclean, succeeds Hon. Mr. Murray as premier of Nova Scotia, the latter going to the senate.

Senator J. D. McGregor, of Pictou county, succeeds Hon. D. C. Fraser, of the same county, in the position of liuetenant-governor. Mr. McGregor is an opulent business man, connected with several Nova Scotia financial corporations. He has been a member of the provincial legislature but failed in his attempt to reach the house of commons. His effective activities have been in the domain of business rather than politics.

This seems to be a non-partisan change of administration all round. Premier Murray's health is failing therefore he goes to the senate as successor to Senator McGregor who has become the lieutenant-governor, giving his own place to Hon. A. K. Maclean, the attorney-general. Mr. Murray has been the leader of the Nova Scotia government since 1896, when Mr. Fielding entered the Laurier administration. Mr. Maclean sat for Lunenburg in the house of commons in the last parliament. and joined the provincial government on the death of the late Attorney-General Pipes.

"WHITE FLYER OF THE SKEENA"

Is Much Admired by a Correspondent Who Tells of Her Achievements

"The whole fleet of up river steamers left Rupert together for Hazelton, last week just as the much needed rain commenced to fall. The Port Simpson, "The White Flyer of the Skeena" happened to be the last to get away. But Captain Jackman and Engineer Dennison felt that with the rising water they would not be the last boat to reach their destination. Early on the morning of the 19th the "Flyer" overhauled the steamer Hazelton, and Captain Gardener called upon the engineer for more steam. It was no good, the 'Flyer' sped past her through the canyon and soon overhauled the steamer Inlander though Captain Busey was frantic. Onward she sped overhauling the steamer Omineca and her captain seeing what was coming gave her the right of way.

"Then came the final struggle with the steamer Distributor, but like all the others she was soon overhauled and distanced and the Port Simpson arrived safely in Hazelton on the morning of the 22nd, after making every stop on the way and discharging fifty tons of freight for the Grand Trunk company at Seelyville, thus finishing one of the fastest and most exciting races on record."

TAKES NEW CHARGE

Vancouver Rector Is Called to a Charge in Ontario

Vancouver, Oct. 22.—Rev. Dr. Norman Tucker, who for nine years was rector of Christ church in this city, preceding Rev. C. C. Owen, the present rector, has accepted the charge of St. Paul's cathedral, London, Ontario.

Dr. Tucker left Vancouver to become the first general secretary for the Church of England missions in Canada, and was very successful in the work. Under his leadreship, the income increased three times what it was when he assumed the duties of the office.

He will be succeeded as general secretary by Rev. Sydney Gould, B. A., M. D., who graduated from Wycliffe college in 1893. Since that time he has been engaged in missionary work in Jerusalem, and is regarded as one of the greatest authorities on the Mohammedan world.

TO DEVELOP NORTHWEST

British Columbia and Alberta in League With Adjoining States

Seattle, Oct. 22.—Mr. Leigh H. Irvine, of the editorial staff of the Post-Intelligencer, addressed two hundred bankers at the Elk's hall today on the development of the northwest. He is organizing the Northwest Development league, which will embrace British Columbia and Alberta, as well as Idaho and Oregon.

Mr. Irvine will address the Rotary club next week, and expects to visit Vancouver at an early date in the interest of the league. He considers the entire northwest an economic unit, regardless of geographical lines.

Young Corbett's Days Are Over

New York, Oct. 22.—Young Corbett's days as a pugilist are over. For the second time since he first retired the former great lightweight attempted to "come back" but he was handed a terrific beating by Willie Beecher, a New York second-rater, in scheduled ten-round go here last night.

If thou would'st have all about thee like the colors of some fresh picture in a clear light, be temperate in all things, and of a peaceful heart with thy fellows.—Walter Patter.

Whenever I find a great deal of gratitude in a poor man I take it for granted there would be as much generosity if he were a rich man.—Pope.

HAPPENINGS ON PORCHER ISLAND

SECOND ANNUAL MEETING OF SETTLERS' ASSOCIATION

Election of Officers for Ensuing Year —Discontent Expressed That the Promised Wharf Is Not Yet Under Construction.

The Porcher Island Settlers' association held their second annual general meeting on Saturday the 15th of this month. A good number were present and all reported excellent progress in the development of the island. The officers elected for the ensuing year were F. J. Bacon, president; J. Cody, vice-president; A. Beavan, secretary-treasurer.

No little discontent was shown about the promised wharf, which now should have been under way, an appropriation having been made in this year's estimates. The increasing freight and passenger traffic already calls for at least a weekly steamship service both ways, and wharf accommodation for the same.

Roads for next year were discussed at length, and a large appropriation is hoped for and necessary to keep pace with the rapidly increasing settlement. Everything on the island is looking first rate, and it is to be hoped the Government with their assistance will keep up with the progress.

A. J. Haines and E. V. Shemmonds leave this month on an extended trip to the Old Country.

Fraser Murray arrived on last Friday's steamer to take charge of the school. He is a native of Nova Scotia. We feel sure the school will make good progress under his tuition.

One of our members returning from a trip up the Skeena returned lately, was glad to get back to Porcher, and expressed himself well pleased with his holdings on the island and its future prospects, especially in its proximity to the City of Prince Rupert, which we look on as a sure market for all produce in the near future.

The Port Nelson cannery on the Naas has been sold to the A. B. C. Packing company. The price is said to be $37,000. The A. B. C. Packing company has about a dozen canneries now and the Port Nelson plant is the first one they have secured on the Naas.

Three Classes of Men

In the recent speech, at the unveiling of a memorial tablet to the late Mr. T. E. Ellis, who was chief Liberal whip during the Rosebery administration, Mr. Lloyd-George gave a notable description of three classes of men in British public life. He said:

"As a rule, you will find three classes of men in political life. You will see a man who takes an honorable pride in representing his fellow-citizens in the greatest parliament in the world. That represents the climax of his abmition. As a rule, honest, straightforward, sincere, ready to make sacrifices for his party because he firmly and conscientiously believes that is the most effective way to serve his country and generation. This is the most numerous class. There is another class of men who are possessed and controlled by insatiable ambition. Their compass may appear to be unsteady, but if you watch, it points unerringly in one direction, that of their own personal advancement. This is a very small class. Then there is the third class, men who do not despise honorable positions, who are anxious to attain and are proud when they succeed in reaching them, but whose principles are inflexible and who, whenever there is any variance between personal advancement and devotion to principle, would have no hesitation in pursuing the course indicated by principle."

Always laugh when you can; it is a cheap medicine. Merriment is a philosophy not well understood. It is the sunny side of existence.—Byron.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 22.—Leaving a note identifying himself and declaring himself fearful that it would be but a matter of a short time until he would become dependent on charity, George Hubert Williams, of Marysville, Cal., is today a suicide, having taken his life at the Elks hotel. In the note he said:

"I have drifted into dreary midd age, poverty stricken and friendless, and I view with alarm the prospects of a dependent old age."

Williams also left a bundle of manuscript which indulged in philosophical flings at various phases of life. One said:

"In comparing religions, I have come to the conclusion that the basis for religion is superstition."

Another says:

"Those who haven't the patience to fully pursue the mazes of metaphysics nor the intelligence to reach at lengths in trying to understand speculative science, cannot and will not find God."

A third and fourth manuscript remarked:

"Morality is now understood to mean adherence to custom on the matter of intercourse between the sexes.

"Love is undeniable. Marriage as at present instituted will remain as long as it is needed for economic reasons. When that day goes, there will supervene some other form of union between the sexes."

Prize Fights Are Barred

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 22.—The city council has passed an anti-prize fight ordinance. Ten round amateur bouts with seven ounce gloves are permitted, but professional fighting is barred by the provision that no admission shall be charged and that the prizes be limited to trophies costing not more than $35.

HAS SILVER LINING

Big Fire a Blessing in Disguise in Some Respects

Beaudette, Minn., Oct. 22.—Beaudette and Spooner already see a silverlining to their cloud of gloom, and it is this which stimulates them to bear their losses and crosses so patiently and cheerfully. They are saying now that if it had not been for the dreadful loss of life, the forest fire would eventually prove a blessing. The towns will be rebuilt on a greater and more substantial basis and the clearing of the forest will greatly lessen the pioneer work of the homesteaders.

Mayor Moody, of Warroad, who has lived along the border for twenty-five years, declares that the fire has been worth more than $200,000 to the settlers within a radius of fifteen miles of Warroad and that the development of the country has been advanced fully a score of years.

That the destruction of timber, much of it of little value, will ease the work of homesteaders in clearing their claims, is duly appreciated in the two cities of the Beaudette river, but with their property all gone and twenty-five blackened corpses in their little cemetery, they are not jubilant. They are only hopeful that the adage "it is an ill wind that blows nobody good," may be true in this case. All the merchants as far as can be learned, intend to remain here and to go into business.

VOTERS' ROLL FINAL SCURRY

ALD. HILDITCH GETTING ANXIOUS OVER IT

Wants City to Hand Out Plenty of Blank Application Forms to Local N. P.'s to Relieve Congestion of Applicants at City Hall.

Ald. Hilditch is troubled over the time wasted for applicants for the franchise at the City Hall this week by the necessity for each man's taking his turn, owing to the impossibility of the city clerk's being able to attend to the numerous applicants at anything like the speed they keep coming in.

Ald. Hilditch asked if the city was prepared to supply blank forms of application to the notary publics and other agents who had been relieving the pressure at the City Hall, by dealing with the applications at other points n the city.

Mayor Stork stated that the supply of these forms had been stopped on account of an error discovered in one of them as filled up by a notary public which amounted to a pretty serious breach of the conditions regarding applications. It appears that the application had been dated "29th October," and the applicant had stated that he had paid the necessary taxes while, as a matter of fact, the intention of the error in the date was apparently to give the applicant time to pay these taxes.

Ald. Hilditch argued that this was no reason why the city clerk should not receive the applications right or wrong, and no reason why the supply of forms should be stopped.

The Mayor said that he was anxious to give everybody possible a chance to get on the roll, but he thought the city was right in not allowing the forms to go out if they were not to be correctly filled up.

Ald. Hilditch persisted in his contention that the city ought to continue the supply of blanks and the Mayor said that provided they were to be correctly filled up the blank forms would be forthcoming. It would not take long to print them if the supply was short.

Ald. Mobley was surprised that any notary public in this city should apparently stoop to anything in the nature of a deliberatley erroneous filling up of the blank form to suit any applicant's convenience. The notary public was entitled to a fee for filling up these forms he pointed out, while the justice of the peace was not. The applicants could avail themselves of the serivces of the notary public or the justice of the peace as they chose, or go to the City Hall.

Ald. Hilditch was inclined to the opinion that ,he error in the form referred to was by no means a deliberate one, but purely a clerical error.

There was some further discussion on the matter of the property owning voters' qualifications, and Ald. Hilditch argued that a man owning property assessed at below $100 in value was not qualified to vote as a property owner, and that many might lose the franchise through misunderstanding this. He thought this a question to be settled that very night.

Ald. Pattullo thought differently, and said that the law stood clear for all voters and applicants for the franchise.

Ald. Hilditch thought the council ought to make all matters of this kind clear to the citizens, and argued a little with Ald. Pattullo in direct conversation across the table on the matter of the actual property qualification.

He said that his definition of real property and Ald. Pattullo's differed. Ald. Pattullo said that was probably the case but he would not go into an argument about it as Ald. Hilditch's way of arguing was peculiar. Ald. Hilditch said he would return the compliment, and Ald. Pattullo then addressing the Mayor said he regretted that this form of discussion was becoming a little frequent in the council.

The matter ended in a decision by the Mayor to have the question of voters' qualifications gone into by the city solicitor and a statement made regarding it by him.

PRINCE RUPERT MAY SEND

Delegation of Aldermen to Meeting of Union of B. C. Municipalities

A letter from the secretary of the Union of the Municipalities of British Columbia, was read by the city clerk at last night's city council meeting. The letter suggested that the city of Prince Rupert should send a delegation of aldermen to represent their city council at the forthcoming meeting of the Union of Municipalities of British Columbia to be held in Vancouver.

The Mayor thought it was desirable that the city should be represented by one or more delegates.

Ald. Barrow believed it would be almost necessary as the approval of this union was practically essential in reference to municipal matters in the province that came up before the House at Victoria.

Ald. Mobley was suggested as a specially suitable delegate, but he was himself anxious to emphasize the need for choosing as a delegate a member of the council whose interests in attending the meeting of this union were purely the business interests of the city. He did not desire to be sent as delegate because he happened to have friends and relations in the district where the meeting was to be held.

The matter was allowed to stand over until Thursday evening.
