LICENSE BY-LAW WAS SLASHED

$2.00 Road Tax Was Struck Off the List.

Residents who Own or Rent Nothing get off Free.—Opinion is on Free List.—Professions Licensed—Many Lines on Feee List.

In their wisdom the aldermen decided last night that they has provided for licenses on altogether too many lines of business and professions. They then proceeded to cut them out and now licenses are issued for only thirteen callings.

The first license or tax struck out was the road tax of $2 per year on all men between the ages of 21 and 50 years ho were not otherwise taxed. By cutting out this clause all the gamblers, toughs night walkers etc., can live here use the streets, enjoy all the privileges of citizenship, get their living and never contribute one nickel to the maintenance of the city.

Anyone, so far as the by-law is concerned, is now permitted to sell opium in any quantity and to anybody. The license was cast off.

Among those to be licensed, along with the barristers and solicitors at $10 per year, are medical doctors, dentists, architects, civil enginerrs or electrical engineers.

Private bankers will pay $200 per year.

In Committee

In discussing the license by-law Ald. Hilditch said that he did not favor the tax of $2 or (road tax). He said it was a direct tax on labor and he was opposed to that. If the tax did not get after a certain element that he would like to see taxed. he would say cut it out altogether.

Several men were present to hear the discussion on the license by-law. Mr. Montgomery put in an objection to the road tax and claimed that the working man paid the greater portion of the taxes anyway. He also objected to the high license on the hawkers. It was knocking out the poor man and a manopoly creating.

Another man said he was a working man and had paid $175 to bring himself and his wife from Ottawa. If these taxes were going to be placed on the laboring man he was going to get out pretty quick.

The aldermen then went over the license by-law clause by clause.

The license on vehicles was struck out.

The licenses on wholesale, retail business and hawkers and peddlers was struck out.

The $2 road tax was cut out.

The $250 license on opium sllers was cut out, as was also the license on wholesale and retail traders, express companies gas, telephone, electric light, street, railway, tramway, investment and loan societies, laundry and wash houses, livery stables, owners of vehicles for hire and the license on all others in business here not covered by the by-law.

The by-law as it stands now provides for very few licenses and a very small revenue. It will come up for a third reading tonight.

HUMBOLDT HAS BROKEN SHAFT

VADSO TAKES OFF RUPERT PASSENGERS AND FREIGHT

Passengers and Freight for North to be Transferred to Seattle Boat—Humboldt to Be Towed Back to Seattle.

Steamer Humboldt on her way here from the South had the misfortune to break her shaft yesterday in Lowe Inlet, and for some hours was unable to get into wireless communication. The Vadso came along and was asked by the captain of the Humbolt to stand by. The Captain of the Vadso did so, and took off four passengers for Prince Rupert and a small quantity of perishables billed to this port.

After the Vadso had left the Humboldt managed to get wireless communication and notified her agent here. She wired to Seattle to make arrangements for carrying passengers and freight north and to send a tug to tow the Humboldt back to Seattle for a new shaft to be put in.

The Humboldt is said to have a large number of passengers and a heavy load of freight for Skagway..

Sir Henry Wrathful

London, June 17.—Sir Henry Dalziel not being appeased by Sir Edward Grey's explanations of Mr. Roosevelt's Guild Hall speech, has given notice in the Commons of a resolution deprecating the delivery of public speeches in this country by prominent foreign politicians on matters of British political concern as "calculated to violate respected and time-honored tradition and as being opposed to the best intersts of the state."

TELEPHONE OR NO TELEPHONE

IT IS UP TO THE PEOPLE TO SEND A PETITION TO THE COUNCIL

Aldermen and Mayor have no Authority to Take Over the Telephone Plant Without a Petition---Time for Citizens to Get Busy.

If the business men and the citizens want the council to take over the telephone system and run it on the municipal ownership system it is up to them to send a petition to the council. If no petition is forthcoming the council will have to grant the company a franchise and that it a very short time.

Under the head of inquiries Ald. Hilditch asked the council last might what was being done in connection with the telephone petitions.

Ald. Pattullo stated that the initiative should be taken by the citizens. They show considerable apathy in signing the petition or taking the initiative. They seem to think everything is up to the council, whereas the council cannot do everything. The assistance of the people must be secured. They must put their shoulder to the wheel and help the thing along.

The telephone company have considerable money to pay out in a few days and it is not fair to ask the men who have carried this thing for the city to again go down in their pocket and subscribe the money. They are taking absolutely nothing out of the project.

Ald. Lynch agreed with the above and said the people should certainly get the petition out and get it signed.

Clerk Woods said that the President of the Board of Trade had promised to circulate petitions. He had been furnished with four copies but what he had done is not known.

Two New Stars on Flag

HAS NO CAUSE FOR COMPLAINT

LANE IN REAR OF LOTS 21, 22 AND 23 IS ALL RIGHT

Sanitary Inspector Makes His Report.—Buildings Should be on the Lots Says Mrs. Owen — Application for Private Telephone.

The sanitary inspector says that the lane in the rear of lots 21, 22, and 23 is perfectly sanitary and that Mrs. Owen's object in complaining was to have the buildings on the lanes removed to the lots. The council also took up several other minor matters.

Those present were acting Mayor Mobley, Ald. Pattullo, McIntyre, Hilditch Lynch, Smith.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Lanes are Sanitary

A report from the sanitary inspector to the health committee was read as follows:

"I beg to report that I have this day very thoroughly inspected the conditions of the sheds and toilets located on Second avenue at the rear of lots 21, 22 and 23 respectively, as mentioned by Mrs. Mary E. Owen in her communication to the mayor and council under date of June 18, and am pleased to state that the said buildings and surroundings in general are absolutely sanitary in every respect.

"I learn from Mrs. Owen that her motive for entering the complaint was not altogether from a sanitary standpoint, but from the fact that in the opinion the buildings in question should be on the lots and not in the lanes."

It was moved that the sanitary inspector's report be referred to the streets, works and property committee to report on further, advising upon the action to be taken.

Ald. Hilditch thought that when the building by-law was passed it would deal with this particular matter,

Ald. Pattullo then withdrew his motion. In the meantime Mrs Mary Owen will be notified to that effect.

Ald. Hilditch introduced by-law No. 7, to regulate the erection and sefety of buildings. It was given its first reading and carried.

Wants a Telephone

Ald. Smith said he had been ap by the manager of the cold storage plant and asked if the council would have an objection to him placing a telephone on the old telephone line running from the old mill. He wished to connect with the hardware store for the sake of convenience until the municipal phone was ready. The line is operated between Foley, Welch & Stewart's warehouse and the hospital.

The city has no authority in the matter and no action was taken.

Ald. Lynch moved the first reading of a by-law governing the construction of streets under the local improvement system. The by-law was passed its first reading. It is to be known as The General Local Improvement By-law.

The committee then went into committee of the whole to consider the by-law on licenses, other than liquor licenses.

FIGHT FOR PRINCE RUPERT LOTS

Agreement to Sell One Thousand Acres.

Then Believed Prince Rupert Townsite would be Several Thousand Acres.—Was Merely a Verbal Contract Between the Parties.

Vancouver, June 22.—E. P. Davis, K. C., yesterday opened the case of Moreton Frewen against Charles M. Hays, president of the Grand Trunk Pacific, before chief Justice Hunter. In his opening the learned counsel stated that he asked the court to grant to his client the sum of three million dollars for breach of contract. He admitted that the agreement upon which this claim was based was a verbal one but he could produce evidence to show that it was a binding one.

With such well known capitalists and financiers as Hayes Hammond and Sir Edgar Vincent his client had entered into an agreement with the defendant for the purchase of one thousand acres of land, said parcel being a part of the several thousand acres it was proposed to reserve for the townsite of Prince Rupert, the Pacific terminus of the defendant's railway.

Under this agreement his client was to be permitted to purchase from the defendant any amount up to one thousand acres at a price not higher than that at which corresponding lots had prior to the transfers been offered to the public, less 25 per cent interest as a rebate for Mr. Frewen's work in interesting foreign capital in Prince Rupert townsite lots and for advertising them among influential connections.

This contract had not been carried out by the defendant although the plaintiff has carried out his part of it in good faith, and he therefore asked the court to award his client damages to the amount stated.

The learned counsel submitted that against this verbal claim the statute of frauds would be pleaded, but he did not see how counsel for the defence could possibly succeed upon it.

HAYS COMING TO PRINCE RUPERT

HEARING OF FREWEN CASE ADJOURNED TO MONDAY

Frewen Admits Advertising Sale of Prince Rupert Lots Helped His Proposition.—Defence is That the Alleged Contract was Illusory.

Vancouver, June 22.—E. P. Davis, K. C., closed this afternoon his opening argument in the damage suit brought by Moreton Frewen against President Hays of the Grand Trunk Pacific, but had to ask for an adjounnment for the production of evidence as to the reserve price of Prince Rupert lots in question. An adjournment was taken until Monday, and it is feared that President Hays will not be able to be present as it has been intimated that he will take a trip to Prince Rupert in the meantime.

When Mr. Frewen was in the stand he admitted in cross-examination that wide advertising of the sale of Prince Rupert lots had helped his proposition.

Mr. Davis said after adjournment that in any case the suit will be taken to higher court and he wished to get all the evidence in at this hearing as was possible so as to have his side of the case in first class shape.

The main point of the defence is that the alleged contract was illusory.

MONTREAL HERALD FIRE

Probable that the Total Deaths Will Amount to Thirty-three.

Montreal, June 22.—Morbid interest in the conflagration which destroyed the Herald building is renewed from time to time by the finding of more bodies among the ruins. There were brought to light yesterday and have been identified as those of Reuben Morrison, John Wade and Gusta Lipps. It is now thought likely that the total number of deaths caused by the fire will amount to thirty-three.

NO ASSISTANCE TO BE GRANTED

SASH AND DOOR FACTORY MUST BUILD THEIR OWN ROADS

Or Wait their Turn Under the Local Improvement By-law — Contrary Action would be at Variance with the Adopted Policy.

The sash and door factory will have to build it sown roads and walks or wait its turn under the local improvement system which the council has decided to adopt. The streets committee report contrary to the company's request. The members say that it would be at variance with the policy of the council. It was suggested by the committee, that a cash bonus be given, although they would not recommend such action. The committee's report and the opinions of the aldermen are given below..

The streets committee reported as follows:

It having been represented to this committee that the petitioners for improvements through lanes adjoining the sash and door factory were pressing members of this council for definite action to the question of granting their request, this committee has been asked to make a report on the advisability of granting or refusing the expenditure asked for.

Your committee beg to report that, in view of the fact that this council has, in spite of many weighty and important reasons which have been produced to influence us to adopt a different policy, have chosen to have all such work done on the local improvement plan, the cost to be borne by the lands receiving the benefit.

We think it would be anything but advisable to grant the request of the petitioners. It would be at utter variance with the position we have taken in this matter.

We would say that should this council desire to consider the matter in the light of a subsidy to an industry which the city could with profit assist, that we would much prefer the granting of a direct cash bonus in something like the amount that would be required to do the work asked for.

We do not wish it to be understood that we in any degree recommend that the latter suggestion be adopted.

W. P. LYNCH
Chairman of the Streets, Works etc.

Ald. Pattullo thought that as the council had no authority to give a cash bonue without submitting a by-law to the people, that the report should just be received.

Ald. Lynch said that the committee did not recommend a bonus to the company but merely suggested it as a way out of the matter.

Ald. Hilditch said that under the local improvement system the company might petition the council for the roads and walks, but as the cost was so small it would hardly be worth the cost of the paper it was written on.

The city clerk was instructed to notify the Sash and Door factory that the system to be adopted was the local improvement system and they would have to proceed under that system.

Ald. Lynch also reported that the cost of supplying lumber for building a conduit through Mr. McLellan's property on Second avenue would be $60 to $70. It would require over 3000 feet of lumber at $20 per M. He thought this would be a cheap way to look after the water running down that creek.

SOCKEYE SEASON OPEN ON SKEENA

FISHING REPORTED GOOD, BUT FISHERMEN SCARCE.

This Year the Opening of the Season Is ten Days Earlier Than 1909—Catching Twenty-five or Thirty to Boat.—Spring Fishing Is Good.

On Sunday at the stroke of midnight the Skeena River cannery men rushed their fleets into the big river and dropped their nets. It was sock-eye time and there was need of haste for expenses have been heavy and up to date there has been no revenue. Besides, the fishing crews are short and the boats are limited. Also the price this year is high, which is an incentive to get big catches.

Yesterday the boats reported a good day, getting twenty-five or thirty to the boat, which is a good start and makes the canneryman smile.

This year the native fishermen are showing the result of approaching civilization and good times. They refuse to fish—at least many of them do. Money and living is too easy elsewhere. Very few natives from up the Skeena came down, and the Simpson and Metlakatlah Indians are not out in their usual force. Last week a cannery man went to Ketchikan, where native fishermen are usually procured, but he came back without one. Two other cannerymen are up trying their luck in the north this week.

Riches of Our Empire.

These are some of the things British Columbia has:

A Kingdom within its boundaries.

The most promising career of any of the provinces in the most prosperous colony in the British Empire.

Golden opportunities for everyone and all the conveniences of civilized life.

British traditions, laws and customs—the refinement and culture of the old lands.

An advanced educational system—free, undenominational, primary and high schools.

An area of 255,000,000 acres, or larger than the British Isles, Switzerland, Denmark and Italy combined.

A climate superior to that of England or France.

Mountains, valleys and lakes more enchanting than those of Switzerland or Italy.

The shortes trade route to the Orient from Prince Rupert destined in a few short years to be one of the greatest and most beautiful seaports of the world.

Mines which have produced over $300,000,000 and an area of more than 280,000 square miles of mineral bearing lands, which have not yet been even prospected.

The largest coal deposits in the world, the coal fields of the Kootenay alone being capable of yielding ten million tons annually for seven thousand years.

The largest and most compact area of merchantable timber in the world. Fisheries, the largest and most varied in the Dominion, which have already yielded over $115,000,000—an acre of its seven thousand miles of coast line being in many cases more productive than an acre of the most fertile soil.

TRADE LICENSES ARE EXCLUSIVE.

The License By-law has passed its second reading in the city council deliberations, and will probably get its third reading this evening. The by-law is remarkable in its liberality of exemptions.

British Columbia is noted for its trade taxes, but Prince Rupert is opening a new area by letting practically everyone escape the annual fee excepting the billiard man, the theatre man, the three-ball man, the soliciting agent and the doctors, lawyers, dentists, engineers, auctioneers and circus men Whether these good fellows will all be tagged like the dogs is not known but they will no doubt take great pride in being the only licensed persons in the city. They may be tempted to organize an exclusive lodge.

It was originally intended to tax the man who lives here and pays on no real estate assessment, but some of the laborers kicked and the $2 per head was lopped off. Even the Chinese laundry man is let free,also opium merchants and the transfer man whose big teams wear out the board walks. All have the open sesame to the hearts of the council.

Only the poor professional man whom everybody loves and the rich pawn broker whom everybody hates is going to have the privilege of paying.

Letters to the Editor

PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS.

To the Optimist:

Gentlemen.—In view of the urgency of a pay roll for our town and the great necessity of permanent civic improvements. I trust our city government may not deem me intruding upon their jurisdiction by commenting upon discussions of principles given to the public.

Re frontage tax or general fund for immediate permanent streets and sewers. The writer is not familiar with how the Provincial Law deals with the disfiguring of valuable property within municipal limits, but he has a knowledge of municipal happenings in other places where frontage tax was applied for street improvements—To illustrate John Smith holds property in a local improvement district, for which he paid a high figure. Street grade necessitates a curb in front of Smith's property to a depth of 20 feet. When permanent grade is established, pavement completed, John Smith's lot is 20 feet in the air above street grade. By frontage tax John Smith is made to pay for improving the street in front, next to have the expense of cutting his lot down to grade, next to pay for a location to remove the excess rock and muskeg to, all of which he is obliged to pay to improve a street that the whole city for all time will derive an invaluable benefit from. Does it occur to you that John Smith might have a claim for damages against the municipality for isolating his property from an advantagious business location, to one totally useless without the expenditure of a large sum of money to reduce his property to grade? Is this not a case where an injunction from the court might stay proceedings in street improvements for an indefinite period, if the frontage tax system should be applied?

In the infant state of our municipality with so many absentee prospectors, with so many large holders of municipal property, awaiting an improved speculation value, benefitting by every dollar spent in street improvements, the cause looks reasonable, as though the general fund principle should apply to the permanent improvement of first, Second, Third avenue and part from McBride street to Eleventh street, both inclusive, also Slxth avenue from the Acropolis to Seal Cove Circle. These streets for some years will be the main thoroughfares, and business arteries from which all other parts of the town will derive an approximate increase in value. Outside these special avenues and streets from McBride to 11th street the town should be subdivided into local improvement districts, with the request of substantial majority of property holders for permanent improvements within a given area being granted upon the frontage tax basis.

It does not seem reasonable that John Smith should be compelled to pay for grading the street in front of his property that will render it comparatively useless to him with the surplus rock removed to the hollow will supply his neighbor with a basement free of cost, and his ground from street grade, with no more additional cost than to that of John Smith. who is made to pay for suffering a loss. Streets improved from general fund is chargeable to capital account and is always an asset.

Yours truly,
DANIEL W. MORRISSEY

HUGE POISONING PLOT

Three Already Dead and Two Hundred Suffering.

Vienna, June 22.—The authorities are trying to unravel a huge poisoning plot from the effects of which three persons are already dead others are suffering, some of whom may not recover.

There was a great pilgrimage to the sanctuary at Trau, two thousand people being in religious procession. Many were taken sick en route, and some of the cases resulting in death an investigation was made. It was found that all the springs along the road had been polluted. A corps of doctors and nurses have been sent to the scene to relieve the suffering.

ASK FOR NATURALIZATION

Judge Young Insists Upon Proper Procedure In All Cases.

A large number of applications for naturalization were presented to His Honor Judge Young this morning, but very few were granted. The majority of applicants were not present and those who gave the affidavits were not present either, except in a few cases. Thus the judge laid most of them over. In other cases the papers were not properly signed. One man appeared who could not read English and his lawyer had not arrived. In reference to such cases his honor said he could not grant naturalization. Being a foreigner and unable to understand English would not debar a man but the affidavit must be properly interpreted to him. The same proceedings must apply in these cases as in all other cases before the court, otherwise the proceeding would be a farce. He would refuse to grant naturalization to anyone who could not satisfy him in person or through an attorney. A number of applications were granted but about 30 or 40 will have to come up again at the July court.

Good mess of butter cakes, good cup of coffee and a good smoke to follow—life swims in rose!

O TAXES FOR BUSINESS MEN

ROMINENT WESTERN LAWYER SENDS SOUND ADVICE

d. McIntyre Got Personal Letter From Ex-Mayor Sharp of Edmonton, Who Advocates Single Tax and Llots of Play Grounds.

Dr. A. A. McIntyre, alderman, has eived a letter from an old friend, m. Sharp K. C., of Edmonton, an ex yor of that city and one of the leadg legal authorities of the west, in which given some very wholesome advice the Prince Rupert aldermen. His st and main point is the single tax stem. He strongly advocates no taxes improvements or business men. He nts out that it is the business man's terprise which builds a great city and should be encouraged in every way sible. For the benefit of the public d. McIntyre has consented to have the ter published infull, as follows:

A. A. McIntyre,
Prince Rupert, B. C.

Dear sir.—I am glad to know that u are one of the aldermen of Prince pert. You have a chance to do some od work while the slate is all clear. ight I so far presume upon old acaintance as to suggest that you adopt me of the ideas embodied in the dmonton charter. Cut out taxation improvements of all kinds. If tye ople there are really wide awake on the int cut out taxes on business algether. Allow even the banks and ess companies and other financial titutions which are in fact parasites, escape taxation altogether rather than the burden of taxes on the business n, whose enterprise would build up a eat city. Retain the power to license ly far enough so as to gain control er the different enterprises which find gement within a city. That is to say, ense all sorts of places of public assessent and public congress in order that nitary conditions, mental and physical ore particularly the latter, may be ll taken care of. I saw more partlarly the latter because publicity to large extent looks after the former. I understand that you are blessed with ood survey, with provisions for parks d gardens. If not, or if you have too ch rock, make arrangements for the y of a special rate every year to be ended by the parks commission in ting these fixed up, as well as the levards, etc. We fail to realize how ch even the aboriginies of this country vi in the natural beauty of the ntry.

We have ruthlessly destroyed, worse n the vandals, all these points of ural beauty. We have failed, utterly d absolutely, to realize that humanity m the highest to the lowest, love uty in its real and artistic cultiion. We fail to realize that play is an solutely essential ingredient in our keup, that we are never intended and t no religion or system of advancent ever required that we should not y or that we should not play ry day.

Yours truly
WILLIAM SHARP.

MID-OCEAN NEWSPAPERS

EDITORS GET NEWS AS FRESH AS ON LAND

Have Complete Newspaper Plants and Receive Latest World's News By Wireless.—Plenty of Advertising and Good Circulation.

Not the least interesting development of wireless telegraphy is the manner in which the invention has been utilized for producing newspapers on board ship. No longer does an ocean voyage mean that one is cut off, for the time being, from news of all happenings on land.. Nearly all the big trans-Atlantic liners issue newspapers on board, and every morning passengers are served with the latest news at the breakfast table, just as they would be on land. On the voyage of the Lusitania during the recent general election in England full returns were printed in the Cunard Daily Bulletin every morning of the results announced in London on the previous night.

The circulation of the Bulletin is over 2,000 a day, and has reached 2,500. It consists of 32 pages, ten inches by six inches, is excellently printed on fine glazed paper and sells at 2 1-2 pence per copy. It goes to press at 1 a.m. and is read over the breakfast table like the newspapers ashore.

Most the the giant Cunarders are now equipped with a miniature printing plant, so that the passengers on board are able to secure a daily paper containing the latest world's news transmitted by wireless telegraphy. Practically everything of news value in any part of the world appears in the ocean daily as soon as it is printed in the newspapers on land. Stock exchange quotations, parliamentary items, notable events and movements of famous people all are duly recorded. Moreover, the ocean daily often gets news that the land dailies cannot get, says the London Tit Bits, for it must be borne in mind that the liners are in touch with one and another as well as in touch with land, and thus able to exchange exclusive scoops now and then.

A very artistic production is the Journal de l'Atlantique, published on board the steamship La Provence of the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique. It has larger pages than the Cunard Bulletin and each number is well illustrated, the news being published in both French and English.

The daily of the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm 11. has twenty-four pages, and it has so many advertisments that it can be given free to the passengers and still leave the Norddeutscher Lloyd a profit. Humorous illustrations are a feature and a puzzle page gives much amusement on the voyage.

The Atlantisches Tageblatt of the Hamburg-American line is a sixteen-page sheet. It is printed partly in German, partly in English, and has a story by some popular writer.

The Express Mail, published on board the Canadian Pacific Atlantic liner Empress of Ireland, is a most elegant affair. It has twelve pages, and is enclosed in a handsome wrapper stamped in gold, with an emblematic design printed in the richest colors.

JOE MARTIN GOING SOME

Denounces Attempt to Patch up Compromise on Veto Bill.

London, June 21.—Joseph Martin, now representing a London suburb in the British parliament, has addressed a letter to the newspapers strongly denouncing the attempt at compromise on the question of the right of the house of lords to veto any bill originating in the commons. The holding of a conference by Premier Asquith and Balfour, leader of the Conservative party, has already been announced, the names or the conferees chosen on either side were also given, and harmony was expected to result. Now Mr. Martin earnestly appeals to all Radicals to speak out before a peace is patched up and the fat in the fire.

The Boscowitz Steamship Company gave a public reception on board their new steamer. Venture, upon arrival at Vancouver yesterday.

The Venture left on her maiden trip to Prince Rupert, Stewart and northern points Tuesday night.

The more love you give the more you have left. Figure it out—it's the simplest kind of arithmetic.

What's the use of bewailing the fact that you can't afford ten-centers, when there are scores of millionaires who smoke one-cent stogies because they like 'em?

BODY FOUND IN A TRUNK

MAN MURDERED HAD RECENTLY SOLD HIS FARM

Body Packed in Trunk and Checked At the Railway Station.—Blood Oozing from Trunk Led to Discovery of the Crime.

Portland, Ore. June 21.—What is believed to be a cold blooded murder for the purpose of robbery has just come to light and has caused a great sensation and excitement. A man named William Johnson came here a few days ago and with his wife stayed at a hotel, The man was said to have gone home, his wife paid the bill, and had the porter carry a heavy trunk from her room and check it to the railway station. Then she left.

A couple of hours later, while the trunk was standing on the station platform, blood was noticed to be oozing from the bottom. A policeman was called in and the trunk opened. The body of John son was found to jammed into it.

The woman was traced and arrested and also a man with her named J. F. Webb, who formerly worked in Vancouver as a printer. A large sum of money was found in the possession of the woman and it has since transpired that her husband recently sold his farm. The man and woman are likely to be charged with murder.

Regulation of Wireless

Washington, June 18.—The Senate today passed Senator Depew's bill regulating the use of the wireless. It requires all persons operating wireless telegraph stations to procure licenses from the Bureau of Commerce and Labor. The purpose is to prevent interference with government and other important messages. There is said to be 50,000 amateur wireless stations in the country, many of them conducted by boys, and it is claimed that in many instances they have prevented the delivery of business messages. The bill still requires the action of the house and the approval of the president, but it is claimed that if it becomes a law it will have the effect of placing all wireless operators under the control of the governent officials.
