COUNCIL MACHINE ATTACKS ENGINEER'S DEPARTMENT

Appointments to Electric Light Plant Made Over the Head of Col. Davis---Aldermen Decide to Limit Authority of Heads of Departments

The most important thing which the city council did at their session last night was to appoint several engineers and firemen to operate the new electric light plant over the head of the City Engineer, the legitimate head of the department. The appointment of the men was recommended by the light and telephone committee. There was no question of the men's competence. It was the fact that they directly ignored the consideration due to the head of a department in the selection of his staff.

Alderman Pattullo at once saw the point at issue and drew attention to it. He thought that the appointment of all engineers should be left in the hands of the city engineer in the same way as the fire chief chose his men.

This pointed objection to the proceeding had the effect of unmasking the real object of the committee's recommendation. It provided an opening for Alderman Newton and Alderman Hildich to get in their kick against the engineer.

With slow and steady solemnity Alderman Newton expressed the view that one of the greatest mistakes the municipality could make was giving too much power to the heads of departments. Of course he did not mean to reflect upon the said officials by calling their capacity for trustiness into account. It was a matter of principle—just a matter of principle.

Alderman Hildich got in his spike by alleging the humorous reason that the city engineer had already too much on his hands.

Alderman Pattullo did not allow the point to pass without pointing out that even the city engineer himself was not immune from the interference of the council. If at any time they thought he was not doing his duty properly they had their remedy at hand.

The committee's recommendation carried, and henceforth the city engineer may not even elect his own assistants.

Arising out of the same committee report Alderman Clayton asked for information regarding the surveying party which is now working on behalf of the city at Shawatian's Lake. The part of the report in the Optimist which apparently went over his head was that an "official recorder" should accompany the party. Acting Mayor Smith was able to assure Alderman Clayton that the survey party was perfectly in order. As to the recorder, however, who is a member of the Optimist staff, he was not able to give any information.

That incident brought forth another flood of talk about the terrible dangers of letting the heads of deaprtments have too much power vested in them. In order to satiate the thirst for knowledge regarding the subject the city engineer was sent for but happily for the dignity of the chamber he was absent.

OUR BLUNDERING CITY FATHERS

As a result of the precipitate hurry of the new Council to dismiss the late City Solicitors, and distribute the City's legal patronage around, the Council was called upon last night to pay a bill of $496 sent in by Messrs. Williams & Manson. The account represented a month's salary for the City Solicitors and stenogrpaher, they having been dismissed peremptorily and without notice. The account was sent to the Finance Committee.

"A BASE, DELIBERATE LIE," IS GRAINGROWERS' REPLY

Western Graingrowers Resent Price Ellison's Statement That Jim Hill Was Behind Their Trip to Ottawa or Their Desire for Reciprocity

(Special to the Optimist)

Winnipeg, Feb. 8.—The uncalled for and unfounded slur that James J. Hill was behind the farmers of Canada when they went to Ottawa with their demands, made in the Provincial Parliament yesterday by Mr. Price Ellison in denouncing the Reciprocity Agreement, has not been allowed to go unanswered. The officials of the Manitoba Grain Growers' Association vigorously resent the charges made in the address of Mr. Price Ellison at Victoria yesterday. His statement regarding the alleged bribe to the farmers by Mr. Hill is called by them "a base and ridiculous lie." The lie direct is bad enough but the Grain Growers realize that it means something more than that, hence their comment, "when ministers of the Crown stoop to make improbable statements the political situation becomes alarming."

Victoria, Feb. 8.—Mr. Brewster continued the debate on the Hayward resolution protesting against reciperoity. He expressed the opinion that the government should have waited for fuller particulars before committing themselves to a sweeping resolution of condemnation. He reminded them that the agitation for reciprocity with the United States was not a new one. It had been going for years. He emphatically claimed that the duty taken off wheat, fish and lumber must necessarily confer a great benefit upon many people all over the broad Dominion.

FISCAL FETISH RESURRECTED

TORIES WILL MOVE AMENDMENT TO THE ADDRESS

Allege that Government Policy Is Imperilling the Advantages of Preference with Colonies and Deferring the Commercial Union of Empire.

(Special to the Optimist)

London, Feb. 8.—Notice was given in the House of Commons last night of an official opposition amendment to the address. The amendment is upon the fiscal question and will be moved by Mr. Austin Chamberlain today. The amendment says that the House expresses regret that the persistent refusal of His Majesty's government to modify the fiscal system of the country is imperilling the advantages which are at present to be derived from British commerce from preference granted by the Dominions over seas, it has deferred the commercial union of the Empire and deprived the country of the most effective method of inducing foreign countries to grant fair terms for the British manufacturers.

GILL IS BEATEN IN SEATTLE

NEWLY ENFRANCHISED WOMEN RESPONSIBLE FOR HIS RECALL

He Was Charged with Harboring Vive and Misconducting His Office—Geo. W. Dilling Is the New Mayor—Wins by 6,000 Votes.

(Special to the Optimist)

Seattle, Feb. 8.—After one of the most exciting and bitterly contested elections, Mayor Hiram Gill, was last night recalled by the citizens of Seattle, and George W. Dilling was elected mayor in his stead.

The campaign was remarkable for its clearly cut issues. The entire underworld, and the ward and machine influences were lined up solidly for Gill, while the women and most of the male voters in the residential districts were behind Dilling. It is the first time that women have been able to use their recently acquired franchise, and the down-town districts gave Gill big pluralities, but when the votes were counted these were found to be offset by the results from the residential districts.

There is great jubiliation at the result among the church and reform socities, who look on the vote as the dawning of a new day in Seattle's history.

PORCHER IS WRECKED ON ZAYAS ISLAND

FOR FOUR DAYS FRANK ENGLER, HIS BOY AND JACK HILL ARE AT THE MERCY OF THE WAVES AND STORM

GALLANT RESCUE BY THE PRINCE ALBERT

Gasoline Craft Caught Outside Harbor on Wednesday Was Storm Driven Until Sunday---Wrecked on Uninhabited Island---Famished Men Lit Fires and Signalled a Passing Steamer---Hill's Prophetic Dream

With his boat, the launch "Porcher," wrecked on the rocks of Zayas Island, and after several narrow escapes from death by drowning, exposure and starvation, Frank Engler, his eleven year old son Tom, and Jack Hill were brought back to the port on the Prince Albert this morning. They have a thrilling story to tell, and are deeply grateful to Providence, to Captain Wearmouth and the crew of the Prince Albert for their part in saving their lives.

According to the story as told by Mr. Engler, he left Prescott Island at ten o'clock last Wednesday morning in his launch in order to come to Prince Rupert. It was a fine day, and by evening they were within sight of the lights of the port. Suddenly a snow storm rose obscuring their view, and for some hours they had to drift. At midnight when the snow ceased they were outside Metlakatla.

A storm was raging then, and they found it impossible to get a line to the lighthouse or to find a bottom for anchorage. Thinking to find shelter they made for Lawyer Island, but with daylight on Thursday morning the sea rose mountians high, thick snow storms came on, and fearful lest their gasoline should give out and leave them without any hope of making land the two men decided to stop the engine and drift.

At Mercy of Storm

All that day they were battling with the waves which broke over their tiny craft, threatening to capsize it. One great wave which broke over them carried away their mast. When at last the storm lifted toward evening they were abreast of Alaska Lands. While making for land the storm suddenly veered to the north, another snow storm descended and they were obliged to drift back again over their long course.

On Friday they attempted to get way on by rigging up a jury mast with a bit of canvas, and after a terrible struggle with the cold winds and raging sea managed to sight land again toward evening. By this time the unfortunate men had quite lost their bearings and knew not where they were, but determined to try and effect a landing, and get away from the raging billows which had threatened again and again to engulfh them.

Tired and Famished

The surf on the shore was so great that it was at first impossible to make a landing, but at last through an opening in the reef the men brought their little craft into what looked like safety. But they had reckoned without the tide. Tired and famished, they were wakened up at midnight by the great waves which broke over the reef and dashed their boat about. At two in the morning a giant wave swept along and struck the boat with such force that their anchor chain snapped. Within three minutes she was hurled against the jagged rocks, and smashed to bits.

Washed Ashore

One wave washed Frank Engler off the boat, but he managed to swim back. Taking his son on his shoulders, and accompanied by Jack Hill, he jumped in the water again and the little

ENGINEER BURNS IS COMPETENT

ALD. NEWTON TRIES TO SHOULDER BLAME FOR NO LIGHTS

Acting Mayor Smith Defends Official. Says Delay is Caused by Vancouver People—Pattullo Suggests Dealing With East.

The competence of engineer Burns who is in charge of the electric light plant was called in question by Alderman Newton who thought that some of the delay in obtaining the desired illumination might be shouldered on to that official. The Acting Mayor upheld the character and ability of Mr. Burns, and suggested that much of the delay was caused by the dilatoriness of the Vancouver merchants.

This left Alderman Pattullo to make the suggestion that they do thir business direct with the East. He pointed out that Prince Rupert received more knocking in Vancouver than it did anywhere else, so that they had two reasons for dealing elsewhere.

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

Mr. G. C. Emmerson returned from the south by the Princess Beatrice on Monday night.

A marriage of much interest to the people of Prince Rupert was quietly solemnized recently in the Roman Catholic Cathedral, Seattle, by the Bishop of Seattle, when Madame Artaud and Mr. Oliver Besner of this city were united in marriage. The happy couple will return to Prince Rupert this week.

Mrs. Arnold won the prizes at the Afternoon Bridge Club for the month of January, being highest both in points and honors and the number of games played. Mrs. Sweet will entertain the Club next Monday at her suite in the Annex.

Mrs. Vernor Smith gave a very jolly Valentine Bridge party on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Mason. Miss Rochester and Mr. Hannington won the first prizes, while the "Boobies," which were fancy Valentines went to Miss M. Rochester and Mr. Clancy. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Morris, Mrs. S. B. Johnson, Miss Mason, Miss Martin, the Misses Rochester, the Messrs. Clancy, Wilson, Hannington, Reitchel, Moore, Crewe, Browne, Agnew and McKnight.

Women Urged to Be Sensible

Mrs. John A. Logan recently made a forceful arraignment of the prevailing craze for dress. She catalogues the various fads as the "bunco games" of manufacturers and modistes; she says that the fashionable woman meekly dresses herself like "a maniac or an idiot" at the orders of her commercial exploiters; that current modish dresses are an "outrage on decency," and so on.

Replying, a New York apologist for the dress insanity contends that the freakish dressing tendencies of the current woman are merely indications of the rapid evolution which the sex is just now undergoing.

The apologist may note the fact that some English women have started a movement for the formation of a society to combat the increasing vanity of clothing. Among the propositions which this society is expected to support are the following: That the cost of clothes should be limited to a definite percentage of income; that a good and beautiful fashion be retained as long as possible; that all innovations that distort the figure be tabooed; that every costume should have a pocket; that gowns should be made so women can button themselves; that women shall take pride in being seen often in the same costume as distinct from the vulgarity that seeks frequent change; that costumes should be judged not by cost but by beauty of form, coloring and general appropriateness; that simplicity should be the highest merit, and that it be deemed an offense to look like a fashion plate.

The British women have undertaken a big job, but they may succeed. They wouldn't have much difficulty if those who are abundantly able to dress expensively and indulge in all sorts of whims would make a fad of simplicity and hold to the same style for a year or so at a time instead of changing with each phase of the moon as they do now. But, perhaps, this is too much to hope for.

System in the Household

There is no reason why a woman should not keep a filing case, something like that in her husband's office, where in a few minutes she can lay her hands on any required piece of information about household matters. There is no reason why she should not pin a label on every cotton bag containing clothing, on every box holding last season's hats and trimmings, on every trunk full of the odds and ends of clothes and materials for clothes, which every woman accumulates. These lists can easily be catalogued for reference.

In this way, instead of taxing her memory with every scrap of goods and article of apparel in her possession, instead of having to turn out drawers and trunks and boxes in the search for some article that is wanted—all this woman will have to do is to consult her catalogue on index, and she will know exactly where the thing wanted may be found.

Most women are tidy; most women dislike dust and dirt; most women like apparent order, but few are the women who are systematic, who do or can apply to the business of hous keeping the orderly rule of the shop and the office.

Decorating a Grey Room

An all-gray room is charming, but a little cold unless it has here and there cushions touched with color. The walls of such a room are tinted or papered in a warm gray, with a cream ceiling which should be brought down to the picture molding. Gray enameled furniture is used, and the cushions, covers, and curtains are gray, stenciled in soft shades of lilac and green, with soft brown. The rugs that cover a gray-stained floor are of gray-green hues, and the pictures on the walls should be framed in gray-stained wood and white enamel.

OUR DAILY RECIPE

Mutton Pie

For a mutton or lamb pie, choose a front quarter. Strip the meat from the bones, put the bones to simmer with an onion. Cut off most of the fat, and render out. The remainder of the fat and the lean should be cut small and put through the meat chopper. To the chopped meat add enough of the water from the bones to make a stiff batter. Season highly with pepper and salt. This will make enough for five or six pies, according to the size of the quarter. If too much for pies some of the meat can be reserved for fried patties before adding the water. The pastry can be made using the meat fat in the same proportion s other fat, two tablespoonfuls to one cup of flour making a good paste, and three making a rich one. Add salt and a little baking powder, and enough water to make a soft dough. Use meat between two crusts and bake in a quick oven If the pies are frozen in this weather they will keep several weeks, but are never quite as nice as if freshly made.

Some of the quarter may be roasted if preferred, and the rest used for pies.

DYNAMITE AT HOME

Destroys Kitchen and Causes $300 Damage

Regina, Feb. 7.—(Special)—A mysterious explosion completely demolished the kitchen in the home of Fred Carruthers on Lorne street. The theory advanced is that it was caused by a s ick of dynamite. It had been mixed with the coa's and being fired caused the boiler to burst. It created damages in the house to the extent of $300.

GETTING SOCIETY "NEWS" LONDON TIMES EXPOSE

Letter of an American Woman to an English Butler Offering to Buy Confidential Tit-Bits of Scandal Makes the Old Thunderer Mad

London, Feb. 4.—The Times of Saturday published a remarkable expose of the manner in which some American newspapers get society gossip and "news." The Times unfortunately does not give the offender's full name or address. It is content to describe her as Harriet Blank. It seems she wrote a letter to a butler who advertised for a situation, wherein she said:

"I shall be pleased to hear from you if you have half an hour to spare once or twice a week and would care to turn it into cash by writing me a long, gossipy letter about well-known people in English society who stay in houses where you are employed. I pay liberally and settle each month. I write for some American papers which insist on having current gossip amusing stories, etc., about well-known people over here and I buy large quantities of such letters regularly.

"If you think you would care to double or treble your salary in this way write me a good specimen letter. I will then write you more fully as to terms. To give you an idea of what I buy I may say that just now anything about——." Here follow the names of a dozen persons well known on both sides of the Atlantic.

It may readily be imagined that nothing could so stir the British ire to its depths as such an attempt as this to violate privacy. The Times heads a scorching leader on the letter, "A New Pest of Society," and says:

"The letter is a complete revelation of a system the existence of which has often been suspected but never so fully exposed. It will shock and disgust every decent person, and especially those of the same sex with the debased journalist who wrote the letter. We suppress her surname and address, not wishing to give her and her system an advertisement or to direct venal possessors of the news she asks for to a market for their worthless wares. The letter suggests the source of many of those stupid, nasty or exaggerated stories of English society which fill the lower sort of American newspapers. . . . To this point has come in the hands of the worst kind of American journalists the art of society reporting. . . . The story and the letter throw a lurid light upon the tastes, ideals and standards of life which flourish in a modern democrary and which we regret to say are fostered by a democratic press.

"The heirs of all ages are thus taught to interest themselves every morning in tittle-tattle about a world with which they have nothing in common and to cultivate a snobbishness of which Thackeray never dreamed. What a chance for a new and fiercer Thackeray to make the readers of this tainted stuff thoroughly ashamed, for they know now, if they did not before, that it is tainted. It is bought with the price of corruption. It is got by means deliberately designed to violate the most elementary of social rights, the right to preserve one's privacy. Money is lavished to break down the confidence between masters and servants and to change the constant service of the antique world into a habit of hypocrisy which sells secrets behind one's back.

"This is an odious state of things indeed, and surely something could be done to stop it if the respectable American newspapers would take the matter up and expose at once the demoralizing nature of the news purveyed and the detestable methods of the purveyors."

Second of Company's Boats to be Equipped with Oil Fuel—Tees Will Miss a Trip or Two After Mishap.

The C. P. R. steamer Princess Charlotte was taken off the triangular run last trip and will be the next of this company's steamers to be converted into an oil-burner. Upon her return trip she was replaced by the new steamer Princess Adelaide, which is temporarily taken off the Victoria-and-return run for the purpose.

It is probable that the Charlotte will be laid up for several weeks, and in addition to being fitted with oil-burners, she will receive a thorough overhauling. She is the second of the C. P. R. steamers to have this system installed, the first being the Princess May, which is now tied up at Victoria. The next to be equipped will be the Princess Victoria, and in turn all this company's steamers will be fitted with the more modern fueling methods.

In all probability, repairs to the steamer Tees of the same company will compel her to miss a trip or two to the west coast of the island. Her forward plates were severely strained by her recent contact with the rocks in Barkeley Sound, and she is at present in Victoria, where they will be replaced.

TOM LEWIS DEFEATED

United Mine Workers Elect White as President

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 6.—J. P. White, of Oskaloosa, Ia., was today elected president of the United Mine Workers of America, winning by a popular ballot of the 350,000 members of that organization, over Thomas L. Lewis, of Bridgeport, Conn., who for three years had headed the organization. Frank J. Hayes, of Springfield, Ill., was elected vice-president, and Edwin Perry was re-elected secretary.

White's vote was 98,934 to 72,190 ballots cast for Lewis.

Up to within a week ago it was expected that Lewis would surely win out, but the fact that he was hard pressed then began to leak out and for some days it has been freely said that his chances were slim.

An Amazing Plea

The argument used by Alderman Hilditch and Alderman Clayton at last night's council that haste must be used to pay Alderman Newton's printing bill which last year's council refused to pay, alleging that if it gets before His Honor Judge Young during the week, the court would be obliged to find that Alderman Newton has no legal claim for the money, is certainly the most amazing of arguments.

Would either of the gentlemen be so wantonly profligate with their own private funds as to want to make haste to settle a disputed account entered before the court, because they believed the claim to be illegal. To urge the illegality of the claim as a reason for paying it, before the court has a chance to pronounce upon it, is an outrage on the citizens, to say the least.

To propose to take the action away from His Honor's jurisdiction for such a reason would have been amazing enough, even if the settlement was to come out of their own pockets. In the present case the council are quite aware that if they make a settlement they are giving away not their own money but the people's money; not giving it away to an outsider, but to one of their own colleagues, who is a member of the finance committee.

To make a payment of $250 of the people's money to one of their own number, on an account which they admit cannot stand in a court of law, sounds perilously like malfeasanceof office

It was Alderman Newton who forced the matter to the court by issuing a writ. He as well as his colleagues, for their own as well as the people's interests, will be well advised to let the matter remain with his Honor that justice may be done.

The Result in Seattle

The news from Seattle this morning of the downfall of Hiram Gill and the election of a reform mayor is one to gladden the hearts of good men and women the world over. It is one of the best of triumphs for woman suffrage.

Seattle, like many other coast cities, has suffered at the hands of its rulers. In the present case, aside from the charges of personal misconduct on which the recall was based, Gill's campaign showed that he was merely the representative for the tenderloin, and the grafting element.

Against the organised machine, "The Beast" as Judge Lindsay calls it, the better element had hitherto been powerless. Nothing but the enfranchisement of the women of the state has sufficed to save the city from the rule of the parlor-house keeper, the saloon, and the political thug. It is a triumph that good men and women the world over may rejoice at.

EMPIRE ACCOUNT IN THE BALANCE

REMITTED TO FINANCE COMMITTEE WITH POWERS

Alderman Pattullo Votes Against Motion—Says Bill is Three Times Too Big—Hilditch Says It Is a Moral Debt.

Another pre-charter day's account was brought up at the city council meeting last night when the Empire Publishing company's account was under consideration. During the discussion on the account Alderman Newton left the table and took no part in the discussion which affected his interest.

Alderman Pattullo thought the matter should rest as it was before the courts. They had offered a generous settlement, but it had been refused. Alderman Hilditch, however, began to moralize on the subject. He pointed out that there was no chance for Mr. Newton if the matter went to the courts because there is no law to compel municipalities to pay debts incurred prior to incorporation. It was not a legal debt. He thought, however, that it was a moral debt and one which they ought to pay.

Alderman Pattullo gave the opinion that the sum charged in the account was three times too much. And in any case they need not be in a hurry. When the bill was presented on the last occasion it was accompanied by a note to the effect that if it was not paid by four o'clock that afternoon a writ would be issued. It was taken to the courts; it would be proper to let the court decide the issue. He wanted the city to pay its just debts whether they were legal or moral but he did not want them to pay three times too much. On Alderman Clayton's motion the account was sent to the finance committee, Alderman Pattullo voting against the motion.

It was argued by Alderman Newton's friends, that immediate action was needed as the case comes before the court this week, and if payment was delayed till next council meeting, there was a danger that Judge Young would decide that Alderman Newton was not entitled to the money.

BAYS QUESTION IS UP AGAIN

CITY APPOINTS SOLICITORS TO REPRESENT THEM

Case Will Be Heard Before Railway Commission at Ottawa—Messrs. Pringle & Guthrie Will Look after Interest of City.

The closing up of the small bays around Prince Rupert which has agitated the previous council as well as the present one, cropped up again last night when the clerk read communications that had passed between the city and the Hon. Mr. Templeman at Ottawa upon the subject. As a result of a series of letters and telegrams the city has appointed Messrs. Pringle & Guthrie to represent them when the case comes before the Board of Commissioners. This action was affirmed by the council.

VICTORIA PAPER TELLS OF THE RAINBOW'S VISIT TO RUPERT

Says the Canadian Cruiser Spent Several Days Here, and That We Entertained the Officers and Crew. A Reporter's Dream.

Yesterday morning H. M. C. S. Rainbow, Commander Stewart, returned to Esquimalt from her first cruise after arriving on this coast. he has been away several weeks, and made stays at Alberni and Prince Rupert, the officers and crew being entertained at both ports. The warship cruised off the west coast of the island for some time and after spending a week at Alberni proceeded to the G. T. P. terminus. After a short stay there she returned by the inside passage to Victoria.—From the Victoria Times of February 3rd.

TELEPHONE GIRLS GET A RAISE

CLAYTON'S GALLANTRY LANDS HIM UP AGAINST HILDITCH

Discriminates Against Working Men. Says They Can Live Cheaper Than Hello Girls by Living in Shacks—Hilditch Lands Heavily.

The telephone operators of Prince Rupert will hail with delight the information that they are to get a raise from $50 to $60 a month. This action is based on the recommendation of the light and telephone committee. Any new operators taken on will be required to serve as probationers for two months at $40, after which time, if they prove to be competent, they will be placed on the regular staff with $60.

Alderman Hilditch wanted to know just how long the girls worked. He had heard that they worked only 6 1-2 hours a day. Alderman Kerr informed him that they were working seven hours just now. At the present time there are five operators employed but these five will be able to work the whole system when it is completed.

Alderman Clayton got in badly with his discrimination against the working man. He said that girls could not live so cheaply as men. The latter could hire a small shack and live much more cheaply than the telephone operators who had to live respectably and dress nattily.

Alderman Hilditch was after him like the shot of a gun. He saw no reason in the world why the working men should be discriminated against. They were as much entitled as others to live "respectably" and dress nattily as anyone. He only hoped that the men who were acting so generously with the telephone operators would not close their hearts when they had to consider the claims of the workmen.

As an indication of how the system is progressing Acting Mayor Smith stated that during last month 33 new phones were installed.

The committee's report also provided that financial statements dealing with the electric light and the telephone be submitted to the council at the close of every month.

New Fire Nozzle

The fire committee recommended that the fire chief be empowered to purchase a patent double nozzle, Callahan model, for the system. The recommendation was adopted by the council.

CHIPS FROM THE HUMORISTS

Representative Nye of Minnesota has much of the wit of his lamented brother, Bill Nye. Himself a lawyer, Representative Nye said at a lawyers' banquet in Minneapolis:

"Lawyers have grand reputations for energy and perseverance. A lad said to his father one day:

" 'Father, do lawyers tell the truth?'

" 'Yes, my boy,' the father answered. 'Lawyers will do anything to win a case.' "

"How is the new filing system? Success?" asked the agent of the merchant to whom he had sold a "system" a few days before.

"Great" said the merchant.

"Good" said the agent, rubbing his hands. "And how is business?"

"Business?" echoed the merchant. "Oh, we have stopped business to attend to the filing system."

With a sigh she laid down the magazine article upon Daniel O'Connel.l "The day of great men," she said, 'is' gone forever."

"But the day of beaautiful women is not," he responded.

She smiled and blushed. "I was only joking," she explained, hurriedly.

One Other Man Seriously Injured—Explosion Occurred in Premises of Pluto Powder Company—No Cause Assigned for Combustion.

(Special to the Optimist)

Marquette, Mich., Feb. 7.—One of the most disastrous explosions ever recorded in Upper Michigan occurred today when ten men met instant death at the plant shop of the Pluto Powder company. One other man was injured, and though his wounds are of the most serious nature it is believed that he will recover. The ten dead men did not get a moment's warning. They were blown to pieces where they stood. The cause of the explosion is not assigned.

HIS BODY FOR SCIENCE

Japanese Socialist Leaves His Body to University

Tokio, Feb. 6.—Danjori Kotoku's body, it was announced today, was turned over to the Imperial University of Tokio for dissecting. This, according to a government announcement, was done as the result of a will left by the leader of the twelve Japanese Socialists who were executed here in the Central prison. In his last testament Kotoku made declaration for the last time of the principles for which he died and stated that as he could be of no further use to mankind intellectually, it was his desire that his body might be examined under the scalpel, looking to the advancement of science. No announcement has been made as to the disposition of the bodies of the other 11 victims of the hanging.

WHERE HAS THE DEFICIT GONE?

ALD. PATTULLO SHOWS CITY HAS BIG SURPLUS

Describes Deficit Canard as an Overflow of Nonsense from a Source That Was not Likely to Run Dry.

Under the heading of unfinished business at the city council meeting last night Alderman Pattullo referred to the financial statement of last year. It had been reported flamboyantly that the city had a deficit to face whereas he contended there was a surplus of $25,000 even without the Grand Trunk's assessed taxes of $100,000 which brought it up to 125,000. The auditor's report showed that to be true. On the second of March when they would open tenders for the issue of new debentures it was as well that that should be borne in mind.

He quoted figures showing that even if they deducted the rebate to the G. T. P. and the $23,000 for the city hall, and the $25,000 for the telephone system they would still have a surplus. The argument that there was a deficit, he said "was simply an overflow f nonsense from a source that was not likely to run dry."

DISCUSSION IS POSTPONED

Conservatives Were Not Ready to Discuss Reciprocity

(Special to the Optimist)

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—As the members of the Opposition were not ready to discuss the proposed reciprocity treaty between Canada and the United States, the discussion in the House of Commons which was down for today, has been postponed till Thursday.

At a caucus of the Government supporters held last night to discuss the reciprocity agreement, there was given a unanimous expression in favor of giving it effect.

OTTAWA PLAGUE STRICKEN

TAYLOR ACCOUNT IS DEFERRED

KNOCKED $1000 OFF IT TO HAVE SETTLEMENT

Was Remitted to Finance Committee —Pattullo Claims That It Is Still Too High—Clayton Satisfied With the Reduction.

The old standing account of Mr. Taylor, K. C., the lawyer who did work for the city in connection with the Prince Rupert charter was brought up at the council meeting last night when communication was read stating that the sum of $1000 would be accepted as full payment for the services rendered if the money was forwarded at an early date. The original account was for $2000.

Alderman Pattullo said that the price was still excessive. If he got $500 he would be getting enough.

Alderman Clayton took exception to this view. He said that the account had already been reduced by 50 per cent and he thought they should be thankful for small mercies. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

$100 FOR CHIEF

Police Chief Will Have Fund for Emergency Work

A $100 as an emergency fund. That is the amount which was voted to the Chief of Police at the city council meeting last night on the recommendation of the Police Commissioners. The fund will doubtless be used for the secret workings of the force in connection with the ridding of the city of the undesirable elements.
