KEENA MEMBER FOUND AT LAST--LEAVES TONIGHT BEFORE HOUSE CLOSES

RUSHED TO DEATH BY FALL OF HUGE ROCK

eadful Accident on First Ave. This Morning---Rade Mastilo, an Austrian Rock-Driller, Crushed Out of Recognition by a Rolling Rock at Tom Mazlum's Contract.

One of the ugliest accidents that has happened in the work of grading nce Rupert's streets took place ween 9:30 and 10 a.m. today. The tim, Rade Mastilo, an Austrian, dead in Hayner Borthers' morgue body crushed shapeless. The ac- ent took place on Tom Mazlum npany's contract on First avenue r Beach Place.

A tremendous rock loosened by a vious blast became dislodged as stilo was drilling it and fell to the tom of the cut. Mastilo and his tes thought the mass would slide. tead it turned completely over stilo tried to leap clear but failed, caught by the huge mass, was und to pulp beneath it. Death st have been instantaneous, though stilo's head escaped injury. The l he had been using was bent and sted like wire in the rock as it fell.

By tremendous efforts the mass which s big as a shack and weighs many was levered and picked up enough let the mangled body be extricated city police were notified and the y was taken along the railway grade the wharf and thence by the Pony press company to Hayner's morgue Eighth street.

Government Agent McMullin was ified and went down to view the scene of the accident. An inquest will be held it is expected. Over a hundred people gathered about the contract while the body was being extricated.

Third Avenue Grade Change

To alter the grade of Third avenue will not effect the cost of the present contracts there unless t reduce the cost of rock cutting. The alteration gives more fill. This was Alderman Hilditch's reply last night to Alderman Newton's enquiry.

TRAINING AN ALDERMAN

yor Manson and Ald. Hilditch Assist Ald. Morrisey

Already Alderman Morrisey seems be dreading the necessity for rendering account of his stewardship at the of the municipal year. Last night spoke of the coming reckoning and duced a list of all the things he nted to know before he felt com- ent to serve the interests of the zens of his ward. That list occupied out four foolscap pages, and took en or eight minutes to read. It mprehended practically all the sub- ts upon which an alderman might expected to be informed after a r's experience of city business.

Mayor Manson whose consideration his budding aldermen is commend- e, gently explained to Alderman orrisey how he might by a little rtion obtain quite a lot of the in- rmation he needs. Alderman Hilditch lunteered any amount of assistance that when the day of reckoning mes Alderman Morrisey will be able face the music.

He hoped that there would be no difficulty occasioned in securing the necessary advances to start the scheme speedily, and proposed that the finance committee take up the matter fort with nd enquire if the bank will advance the needful.

MANSON'S DEPARTURE

(With apologies to "Hiawatha")

From his place rose William Manson,
Bade farewell to Smith the Silent;
Bade farewell to all the council,
Spake persuading, spake he this wise:
"I am going O, my people
On a long and distant journey,
Many days and many happenings,
Will have come and will have vanished,
Ere I come again to see you:
But the "Empire" and the "Journal"
They will tell you how to do it;
In their watch and ward I leave you,
Listen to their words of wisdom,
Listen to the truth they utter."
Southward, southward, William Manson
Sailed without Prince Rupert Harbor,
In the glory of the moonlight
Out into that sea of splendour.
Sailed away did Mister Manson,
And the children left their bobsleds,
Sang farewell O, Mister Manson
Singing singly or together,
Shouted, Farewell Mister Manson!

Then, Pattullo the Financier:
"Farewell," said he, "William Manson,
Farewell, O my late opponent,
Come not back again to labor,
Come not back again to Rupert,
Where the Vampire and the Journal
Tells us how we ought to do it."

* * *

Thus departed Mister Manson,
William Manson, Mayor of Rupert,
To the regions of Victoria,
To the Island of Vancouver,
To the Halls of Legislation.
Left his tribe all broken hearted.

Left the Council all behind him,
Left them to their work and labor,
Fire and furnace, streets and water,
All demanding close attention:
But the Empire and the Journal
They will tell them how to do it:
They will read their words of wisdom,
Listen to the truths they utter.
Do the best they can without him.

WILL PEABODY COME BACK?

STATED HE AND BURNS WILL RE-ENTER ALASKA TRADE

Reported That They Will Form Shipping Company in Opposition to Guggenheims—Neither Man Will Say Yes or No.

Stories that Charles E. Peabody intends to return to the Alaska business and is considering offers of capital to organize a steamship business in opposition to the Guggenheims have been circulating among shipping men in Seattle for some time and are not denied.

Should Mr. Peabody, who was president of the Alaska Steamship Company until the Morgan-Guggenheim syndicate took over that line, re-enter the transportation business, he would undoubtedly associate with him Frank E. Burns, manager of the Inland Navigation Company and allied steamship lines.

Both Mr. Burns and Mr. Peabody are owners of stock to the amount of about half a million in the Alaska Steamship Company and both have been endeavoring to sell their interest in that corporation to the Morgan-Guggenheim syndicate.

CITY COUNCIL DISPENSES WITH SOLICITORS SERVICE

Axe Swings in Civic Affairs---Economy is Alleged as the Reason---After Seconding Motion Ald. Hilditch Makes Naive Request for Legal Assistance

By a motion carried in council last night the services of the present city solicitors are to be dispensed with and the council and city clerk are to avail themselves from time to time as circumstances require, of the services of any of the legal firms in the city no particular firm being named or excluded

This motion to which Alderman Pattullo alone was dissentient, was put by Alderman Newton and seconded by Alderman Hilditch in substitution of a motion by Alderman Smith that the expense of the legal department of the city be reduced to $150 per month including stenographer's salary This amount Alderman Pattullo said was too little. At least $3000 per annum he thought fair for the city solicitors' fee—and $4000 not excessive.

Then Alderman Newton introduced his amendment that the city solicitors' services be dispensed with and the advice of other firms be taken as required. This is an experiment to see if the city could get along more cheaply or not.

Agreeing with Alderman Newton on the ground that the present city solicitors had repeatedly said that if the amount paid them were cut down the city could look elsewhere for legal advice, Alderman Hilditch supported the amendment.

Alderman Pattullo recommended the advisability of the city's retaining the services of a regular solicitor no matter whom. It was explained by Alderman Newton that his idea was that the Mayor and three chairmen of committees should decide what solicitor should be consulted. Alderman Newton's amendment was then put as a new motion and carried as stated, Alderman Puttullo voting against.

A very short time thereafter Alderman Hilditch who had seconded the motion dispensing with the services of the city solicitors wanted a written opinion from them supporting the city in the demolition of the condemned Dunedin Block.

"Why, we have no city solicitors!" exclaimed Alderman Pattullo in some surprise, but Alderman Hilditch seemed still ignorant of the effect of the motion he had just seconded.

Mayor Manson explained it to him carefully, and he substituted the words "a solicitor's written opinion" for "the city solicitor's opinion."

"You see," put in Alderman Pattullo "it is sometimes quite convenient to have a retained city solicitor."

Alderman Hilditch did not dispute the point.

FILLING UP THE BAYS

G. T. P. Track Plans Before Railway Commission Sent Here

Mr. D'Arcy Tate has forwarded to the city council the plans laid before the Railway Commission relating to the G. T. P. track round the waterfront here, about which the matter of filling up the bays is under protest.

"SPARE THAT TREE"

Why the Tall Spruce Stands on Third Avenue

The tall spruce which the Optimist artist went and called a pine in a recent report on the light plant chimney, is said to endanger the light plant and the cry has gone forth "Cut it down, why cumbereth it the ground?"

But A. R. Barrow who contrary to express instructions spared the tree as a superb specimen when its brethren were cleared from the townsite, has requested the council to let it remain They are considering it.

Hydrants Resisted Frost

As a result of a recent test it is reported by the city engineer that none of the fire hydrants were frozen during the late severe frost.

Second Avenue Grade

The change of grade proposed for Second avenue has been recommended for adoption by the streets committee and their report adopted.

OUR ACTING MAYOR

Ald. Pattullo Congratulates Missing Member for Skeena

Alderman Vernor Smith was unanimously elected to act as Mayor during the absence of Mayor Manson at Victoria. He expressed his appreciation of the honor done him. Alderman Pattullo regretted that the Mayor had to leave the council so soon. He did not feel with Alderman Hilditch that Mayor Manson would not be missed for a month or two, and hoped that in his capacity as member for Skeena district the Mayor would have a propitious time at Victoria.

The Secret of Youth

Essays are so unpopular nowadays, that "Oh, to Be Rich and Young!" from the American Unitarian Press, Boston, will probably have a smaller audience than it deserves. Jabez T. Sunderland has a charming style, and he deals with important themes, "Wealth which all may win," "Beauty which all may attain," and "Perpetual youth for all."

Every few days the enquiry columns of newspapers are requested to tell how people may make themselves beautiful and keep young. The struggle to cling to the physical things of youth is one of the most pitiful as well as one of the most unnecessary spectacles in the world. It is so much easier to grow old gracefully; and the soul need never grow old.

"The way to prevent ugly wrinkles," writes Mr. Sunderland, "is to prevent ugly thoughts. There is no other way. Skilful massage of the face may do something, but not much. The massage which is effective is of the mind; that which drives out ill-nature, impatience, worry, anger, bitterness, envy, irritation." And he says further: "One thing you must do first, last, and all the while. Refuse ever to think of old age as having a claim upon any part of you except your body. Of your soul, your Self, say resolutely and always: I am young, I shall always be young. Of course, my body must grow old because it is of the dust, I am spirit: I am a child of God and of the eternities."

This "Rich and Young" book is better than all the pomades and powders which money can buy.

Fashion Ever Young

"If fashion is capricious it is because she is always young," said a witty Parisienne. By being la mode one is always young. It is the touches of the toilet, the finishing touches, that bring a costume up to its best. Youth is not a question of years, but one of appearance. The newest styles of dress are cut in lines and with a grace which knows no difference between youth and age.

To be young in fashion a dame, no matter her years, will look most carefully to four things—her corset, her shoes, her gloves and her hat.

Between these points of interest lie the jabot and the belt. A dainty jabot or a frill for the front of a coat or shirt waist will give it unexampled freshness and style.

A trim collar and modish jabot cover a multitude of oversights in the costume. The trim collar is sure to attract the eyes. The jabot of dainty mull and lace and the crimped frill of lawn, with an Irish edging or an insertion of guipure, mark an elegant thought. The Dutch neck is reserved for the home toilets.

The Lonely Road

Love came to her door one day
And knocked with his eager hands,
But she left the portal barred
Nor heeded his sweet commands.
For she was raptured with art,
And Fame was a hoped for guest,
And she knew if Love but entered the door
She must listen to his behest.
And life was long, and some later day
She might welcome Love if he came her way.

She stood at her door one day,
Wistful, with empty hands,
Watching to see if Love came by
With his laughing, sweet commands,
But the valley road was lone,
And the white road over the hill;
No hand to plead on the panel door,
No light foot on the sill;
"Come back, O Love, come back this way,
For life is now a speeding day!"

CITY HALL SITE IS DISCUSSED

MAYOR MANSON TO APPROACH GOVERNMENT

Streets Committee Favor Market Place Site, Aldermen Newton and Morrisey Fulton Street. Council Not Very Decided.

Mayor Manson wants to take with him to lay before the Government some definite opinion of the council's regarding the proposed City Hall site on Market Place.

As chairman of the streets committee Alderman Hilditch last night brought in a report favoring this site, and supported it with arguments.

He told of a former idea to have the City Hall on Futlon street, which was abandoned because of the expense involved in grading down the site after which the hall would have no basement. On the other hand an excavation of only 3 ft, 6 in. is needed on the Market Place site after which with a five foot foundation wall above ground, the building will have a splendid airy basement suitable for police cells, fire appliances, etc. Other arguments in favor of the Market Place site are its commanding position, isolation for fire protection, and central position in reference to the city as a whole.

Both Aldermen Morrisey and Newton spoke in favor of the Fulton and Fifth avenue site while Alderman Clayton got a bit mixed up on the subject of the isolation of the Market Place site in reference to fire risks. He thought Alderman Hilditch meant the general lack of buildings about the site at present. But Alderman Hilditch meant the park space surrounding the site even when it is all built up.

Alderman Pattullo would like that Market Place site secured for the city if possible anyway, whether for a City Hall site or not, but the Mayor pointed out that the government will require to know what the city wants the site for, before it can be granted.

In Alderman Newton's opinion the Fulton street and Fifth avenue site is the central one for the business section now and for years to come while the present temporary premises will do for another year or so.

Mayor Manson will place the position of the council in the matter of the Market Place site before the government, but thinks it rather too indefinite to be of much immediate good.

MR. McNICHOLL LIKES THE SOUTH

HAD PLEASANT HOLIDAY IN ORANGE GROVE COUNTRY

While There He Met Mr. George Morrow Who Intimated His Intention of Returning to Rupert Very Soon.

Mr. G. A. McNicholl, the district superintendent of the G. T. P., who was one of the passengers on the Prince George, has just returned from a holiday trip in California where he has left his wife and family to spend the winter.

Speaking to the Optimist this morning Mr. McNicholl said that Prince Rupert was spoken of a great deal in and about Los Angeles. He personally was asked many questions regarding this northern port and was much gratified at the interest manifested by people in varying walks of life.

Among the people whom he met while sojourning there was Mr. George Morrow. When they parted company Mr. Morrow intimated his intention to leave for Prince Rupert on the 15th of the month, so that he should now be on his way.

Climatically Mr. McNicholl has many nice things to say about the orange grove country. While holidaying there he met many Canadian people who were, like him, wintering in the south 'neath balmy skies and dust storms.

VOLCANIC PHENOMENA

Lecture on Subject by Rev. C. R. Sing

At the meeting of the Epworth League held in the Methodist church last night the Rev. Charles R. Sing delivered an interesting lecture on volcanoes. He dealt with the subject under three heads, their causes, distribution and phenomena. He took his audience with him through the volcanic fields of the world and endeavoured to trace for them the relationship between the different phases of the phenomena. The volcanic lines throughout the world he said ran north and south and the eruptive islands that figured on the map were the offshoots from the parent lines. All islands, he said, with the exception of the coral islands, were formed by volcanoes.

DAILY EDITION. THURSDAY, JAN. 19

On Behalf of the Workers

On March 10th last, Mr. William Manson, member for Skeena, voted against the Eight Hour Bill, when it came before the British Columbia Legislature. That was his right. Everybody must assume that at the time, Mr. Manson was convinced that an eight hour day for workingmen would be a mistake.

Since that day, a mayoral contest has taken place in Prince Rupert in which the eight-hour question figured. Mr. Manson announced as one of the planks in his platform that he was in favor of an eight hour day for workingmen in all civic work. That was his right. Everybody must assume that since March 10th, Mr. Manson has been honestly converted to the eight hour movement.

What is good for Prince Rupert should be good for every other city in British Columbia. Will Mr. Manson as member for Skeena now have re-introduced into the House the Eight Hour Bill he helped to defeat last March? It is the only proper way in which he can atone for his past error on the question.

The real friends of the working man are very few. We cannot afford to lose or underwork one of t em. As a recent convert to the cause of labor, and with a young convert's zeal and passion, Mr. William Manson will be able to accomplish much. Though very late in putting in an appearance at the House,as a supporter of Hawthornwaite and Parker Williams he will be invaluable to the cause. Hawthornwaite has already given notice that he will introduce an amendment to the Workmen's Compensation Act at this session. It is in favor of the injured worker. Last year Mr. Manson would probably have voted against it. Now as "a friend of labor," he will be in a position to support it.

There will be other measures coming up from time to time, which we will bring before the member's notice, and publish all he has to say when he supports them in the House. In the meantime, will Mr. Manson please re-introduce the Eight Hour Bill, and let the whole Province share in the blessings which the city workmen now enjoy.

Cutting Off the Legal Department

No one at all conversant with municipal usage will waste any sympathy on the city solicitors whose services were dispensed with at last night's council. Both are young men with academic distinctions, who are already marked out for bigger things than city solicitorships. It will always redound to their credit that they had officiated in the most arduous and most important year of Prince Rupert's history, and for a somewhat meagre salary had kept it out of legal troubles. They can probably make more of both money and fame in accepting actions against the city than by accepting service under it.

The sypamthy must go to the city whose rulers have cut off its legal department. The writer of the ancient Proverbs declared that in a multitude of counsellors there is safety. Experience, so far at least as legal counsellors are concerned, does not bear out the proverb-maker. It is more than likely that the city will find it a very expensive matter, leading to much litigation, to accept heterogenous legal advice.

This is not the worst aspect of the case. Following on the lopping off of the Prudhomme license, the action of last night's council, despite all protestations to the contrary, will be accepted as evidence that Prince Rupert has passed into the control of a party machine. The public may reserve any sympathy they may be tempted to offer the city solicitors. It can be more fittingly bestowed on themselves.

To Water Consumers

The cold weather has practically stopped the supply of water on the mountain. Since the 10th inst. water has been supplied to consumers by pumping, this supply is at present sufficient for all necessary purposes, but on account of numerous taps being left wide open, the pump cannot keep up the necessary pressure to supply the higher points in the city.

The chairman of the Water Works Committee hopes the consumers will assist the Water Works Department by curtailing the waste of water and avoid the necessity for cutting off the supply at night.

MRS. EDDY'S WILL NULL AND VOID

BEQUESTS ARE SAID TO BE BY LAW WORTHLESS

States of New Hampshire and Massachusetts Expressly Forbid Such Extensive Church Gifts—What Mrs Eddy Thought of Her Son.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 16.—The residuary clause in the will of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder of the Christian Science church, is null and void, in the opinion of former United States Senator William E. Chandler, Hannis Taylor, professor of constitutional and international law at George Washington university, and others, according to a statement given out for publication.

The clause in question provides for a gift of $2,000,000 to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, known as the "Mother Church."

A statute of New Hampshire, prohibiting a bequest to a church of more than $5,000 annually and one of Massachusetts, forbidding more than $2,000 annually, are the basis of the opinion which was written by Prof. Taylor, formerly minister to Spain. According by the residuary clause is "null and void," the opinion says.

The object of making this large bequest to the church is said to be that prior to the making by Mrs. Eddy of her will, on September 13, 1910, she had taken up the delusion that her son George had become possessed by an evil spirit under the influence of what she called malicious animal magnetism and had become hostile to her, and she declared her intention to disinherit him, and she had also gone on to conceive the same opinion concerning her adopted son, Dr. Foster Eddy.

ADDRESS ON HUDSON BAY CO.

Anglican Church Club Hears Rev. Mr. James With Interest

In the Anglican church on Tuesday night Rev. Mr. James gave an interesting address to the club on the subject of the Hudson Bay Company. Mr. James dwelt fully upon the early history, rise and progress of this great institution in Canada. He traced the subject right down to the present year instancing the far reaching influence of the company, and the world-wide significance of the name "Hudson Bay." A large attendance of the club members heard the address with interest, and took part in the subsequent discussion. Bishop Du Vernet presided in the absence of Colonel Davis, whose presence was required at the City Hall.

HARRIS BROTHERS ARE BACK AGAIN

ON WAY TO HAZELTON TO WORK "AMERICAN BOY"

Shaft Sinking Will Be Carried on This Spring. In Summer the Brothers Harris Intend Proceeding to Rocher de Boule.

Just back from spending the Xmas and New Year season at Vancouver, Seattle, and Victoria, the Harris Boys—Duke, Al and Edgar are today at the Premier Hotel on the way back to Hazelton. If is their intention to begin the work on the American Boy claim preparations of which have been in progress during their absence down below.

Shaft sinking operations on No. 1 and No. 4 veins are to be undertaken forthwith, and the Harris brothers expect to be busy with the American Boy up to the first of May.

Early in June it is their intention to proceed to the Rocher de Boule district where they have a particularly promising claim to investigate. This strike is situated within a mile from the line of the railroad, and some very promising samples of ore have been taken from it and sent down for assaying. The ore shows copper, gold and silver liberally present, and the Harris boys are sanguine as to the development of this property during the summer.

NEW FIRE HALL NEEDED

Will Probably Be Two Storey Building on Hill

At last night's council the fire committee reported on the need for a new fire hall on a site well up on the hill above the present fire hall so that a speedy turn out may be made in every direction.

New hose is needed—1000 feet of it. Alderman Newton hopes that a smaller engine may be purchased in addition to the large auto on order in case anything comes over the large one.

It is proposed that the new fire hall shall be a two storey building to accommodate the staff comfortably.

Meantime the matter is referred back to the fire committee for further details of the cost, also the cost of maintenance of the present fire fighting outfit. The old fire hall may be used as a city tool house.

Police Chief's War Chest

It was agreed at last night's city council that the sum of $100 shall be available for the Chief of Police for the period of one month to be used to cover expenses of gaining information necessary for the ridding of the city of undesirables.

THE WORLD'S GOLD SUPPLY

COULD ALL GO INTO A FORTY FOOT CUBE

Interesting Computation Made by Well-known Canadian Mining Geologist—New Methods of Mining Are Likely to Increase the Report.

"The World's Gold Supply" was the subject of a paper read recently before the Canadian Institute in Toronto by Mr. J. B. Tyrell, who gave a brief sketch of the history of the production and use of gold from the earliest ages to the present.

During all the ages, Mr. Tyrell said, the total amount of gold produced would not exceed 25,000 tons in weight, and could all be put in a cube 37 feet square. The value of the gold at present in circulation in the world had been estimated at $1,750,000,000.

Owing to the new and cheaper process of extracting gold. Mr. Tyrell said, it was probable that many of the old worn out placer mines would be reworked profitably. Ontario seemed at last, he said, likely to be a gold-producing country.

Sir Edmund Walker in proposing a vote of thanks to Mr. Tyrrell pointed the fact that gold was not only a measure of value, but was the basis of all trade. Every dollar's worth of gold, he said, represented ten dollars' worth of credit in the world's market.

How the Vocabulary Grows

It was the third Lord Spencer who in days gone by added a word to the language in consequence of a wager. The bet was that by cutting off the tail part of his overcoat he could bring into fashion overcoats so short that the skirts of the undercoat would show beneath. He won his wager, and "Spencer" became the name both of that garment and of the feminine one afterward constructed in its likeness.

The peerage has added more than one name to the terminology of costume. Everybody knows "Wellingtons," and the billycock hat is said by some to be really "Billy Coke," from Coke of Norfolk, Earl of Leicester. But none of these examples in the sphere of clothes rivals what the Earl of Sandwich did when he contrived the slice of meat between bread as a device to enable him to go on gambling without leaving off for a meal.

AUSTRALIAN GOVT. TAKES FIRM STAND AGAINST ROUTE

In the Event of Canada Insisting Upon Mails Steamers Calling at New Zealand Port Negotiations Will Be Off.

Melbourne, Jan. 19.—Sir James Mills, head of the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand, has arrived here and interviewed the cabinet regarding the tenders for the Canadian-Australian steamship service. After the conference the cabinet ministers made it known that the government would not continue its subsidy to the service if the proposed call at Auckland, as favored by Canada, was included.

It was agreed, however, that negotiations with the Canadian Government should be reopened, and in this circumstance the advocates of the claims of New Zealand profess to find some ground for hope.

READ THE OPTIMIST AND THE ADS WELL

CHIPS FROM THE HUMORISTS

Singleton—Do you believe in the old adage about marrying in haste and repenting at leisure?

Wedderly—No, I don't. After a man marries he has no leisure.

Willie—Father, a man is always a bachelor before he gets married, isn't he?

Father—Yes, my son.

Willie—And what does he call himself afterward?

Father—I wouldn't like to tell you, my son.

"What shall we say of Senator Smugg?

"Just say he was always faithful to his trust."

"And shall we mention the name of the trust?"

An Irishman at a fair got poked in the eye with a stick and took proceedings against the offender.

Said the Magistrate, "Come, now, you don't really believe he meant to put your eye out?"

"Faith, you're right this time," said Pat; "for I believe he tried to put it farther in."

A college professor who was always ready for a joke was asked by a student one day if he would like a good recipe for catching rabbits. "Why, yes," replied the professor. "What is it?"

"Well," said the student, "you crouch down behind a thick stone and make a noise like a turnip."

"That may be," said the professor, with a twinkle in his eye; "but a better way than that would be for you to go and sit quietly in a bed of cabbage-heads and look natural."

GOLD SEIZED IN ALASKA PORT

WAS GOING TO SEATTLE TO COVER OVER-DRAFT

Consigned to Dexter Horton Bank but Seized at Cordova to Pay Depositors of Bank That Had Failed.

The seizure a week ago at Cordova by the United States marshal of $101,000 in gold coin, gold dust and currency, shipped by the Washington-Alaska Bank of Fairbanks, which recently went into the hands of a receiver, to the Dexter Horton National Bank of Seattle, has brought out the fact that the failed Alaska institution has an overdraft of $141,407.89 with the Seattle bank.

Learning that large sums of money had been sent out over the trail to Seattle Fairbanks depositors of the failing bank took action to prevent the gold from getting out of Alaska. They petitioned District Judge Overfield to seize the money and return it to the vaults of the bank. Accordingly, after asking Judge Hanford at Seattle to institute a hearing and submit findings of fact, he seized the gold on its arrival at Cordova and ordered it to be sent back to Fairbanks, not withstanding the fact that the money had been shipped to cover indebtedness incurred at Seattle prior to the closing of the bank.

That the bank will eventually disentangle itself from its predicament and pay its claims in full is the statement of the president and vice-president and others connected with the institution.
