A BEAUTIFUL HALF-BREED IS ARRESTED FOR MURDER

Town of Juneau Is All Excited---Believed That a Love Story is at the Bottom of the Death of the Mother of Selina Dowling

(Special to the Optimist)

Juneau, Feb. 3.—The town is all excitement over an alleged murder. Selina Dowling, reputed to be the most beautiful half breed maiden in Alaska, was arrested today following an investigation into the cause of the death of her mother. The old woman died in terrible agony after eating three candle fish brought to her by John Harris, the Indian suitor for the beautiful Selina's hand.

While partaking of the fish the old mother gave a small portion of the alleged dainty to the dog. The effect upon the animal was instantaneous. It threw itself into paroxysms of agony, yelped and died in a few minutes. Startled by the sight the old woman became alarmed for herself but before she could do anything the poison gripped her. With terrifying grimaces and physical contortions she passed out of existence.

Selina has been arrested because it is believed that the murder, crude as it was, was a frame up between her and her lover to get rid of the old woman who would not hear of them coming together. Harris will also be arrested in all probability.

HOW THE ISSUE IS OBSCURED

THE LORDS AND VETO SHELVED—RECIPROCITY THE DANGER

British Unionists to Sidetrack Great Constitutional Issue to Prate about the Evils of Reciprocity—Will Disintegrate the Empire.

(Special to the Optimist)

London, Feb 3.—The Unionists of Great Britain are losing themselves in a maze of words over the reciprocity proposals between Canada and the United States They hail it as the question of the hour and are using it to sidetrack the question of the veto and the supremacy of the House of Lords

Unionist editorials all over the country make the statement with greater unanimity than originality that tariff reform and imperial preference are now more urgent than ever They see in the adoption of the reciprocity treaty the first steps toward the disintegration of the Empire, and they think thay can save it at fifty cents a bushel

OVERWORK LEADS TO SUICIDE

YOUNG BANK MANAGER CLIPS CAREER AT BUD

A. J. Ferguson Did Not Have a Vacation for Five Years—Strain Wrought upon His Mind—Leaves Young Wife Behind.

(Special to the Optimist)

Hanley, Sask., Feb. 3.—Death in most sinister shape overtook a young bank manager named A. J. Ferguson. His body was discovered about two o'clock yesterday afternoon in a coal shed. On being examined it was fouud that he had a bullet wound in his left temple. Lying near him was the revolver with which he had committed the desparate deed. He had been missing from the house for several hours. When found there was still a flicker of life in him but he never became conscious.

Ferguson was one of the most popular young men in the district and no reason other than the strain on his mind caused by overwork can be assigned for the act. Though only twenty-seven years of age he was manager of the Dominion Bank. It was thought first that some discrepancy had caused him to take the desperate remedy for all human ills but an examination of the books proved them to be in good shape. He had been in the service of the bank five years but in all that period had not been able to obtain leave of absence for even a limited period. The tragedy is rendered all the more touching by the knowledge that Ferguson has only been married a year. Last January he and Miss Gessel, a young lady of this town entered into matrimony.

LEGISLATURE MAY PROBE INTO THE PRICE OF COAL

There is a String to It However---Premier Will Put the Matter up to Ottawa---Railway Bill Passes Its Second Reading

Victoria, Feb. 3.—In the House yesterday Dr. McGuire's resolution regarding the price of coal was passed unanimously. The Premier took the opportunity of intimating, however, that before the Province instituted the inquiry they would put the matter up to Ottawa once more. If the Federal Government would do nothing then the Provincial government would act.

Dr. McGuire in moving the adoption of his resolution quoted the cost of mining in other provinces and states. He thought that $2 per ton was a good allowance for the cost of mining in British Columbia. The average wage of the coal miner in the province he thought was about $60. However, that was a matter that should also be investigated. Public bodies had many times protested against the high cost of coal.

For the resolution there spoke Carter Cotton, Watson, Brewster, and Manson (Skeena), while Manson of Comox spoke against it.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite criticised the resolution from the socialistic point of view. Mr. Williams held that the only solution of the difficulty was for the government to take over and operate the mines for the people.

The Hon. Mr. Bowser moved the second reading of the Bill to consolidate the railway act of the Province. The bill provides for almost free trade in railways. It provides that any five or more who are each agreeable and responsible for $10,000 worth of stock, and who pay regular fees, can get a certificate of incorporation from the registrar of companies. The work of construction must start, however, within twelve months after securing the certificate. The main lines of the railways under this bill must be completed within five years and the branch lines within two years.

CONCERT IN S. A. CITADEL

IN SPITE OF SNOW GOOD CROWD HAD GOOD TIME

Program of Music, Song, and Recitation Proved Popular, Miss Gray's Services Were Much Appreciated by Audience.

A very successful concert was held in the Salvation Army Citadel last night. The attendance considering the weather was good. On the program were many favorites. Mrs. Johnson and Lieut. Wright sang a duet "Everybody Has Work to Do," Mrs. Hoyt recited "Peter at the Gate," and Captain Kerr gave the recitation "Work and Pray."

Musical items were cornet solos by Mr. Miller and by Miss Mabel Gray who came voluntarily and contributed a particularly pleasing performance. A mouth organ medly by the Johnson family including guitar, banjo and triangle parts was excellent.

Other recitations and songs were "A Boy's Belief," by Fred Leggat. Solo "Me Join 'Em!" by Lieut. Wright, "Little Jim," by Johnnie Law, "Keeping His Word," by Georgie Shaw, "The Last Hymn," by Mrs. Derry." "The New Church Organ," by Mrs. Johnstone. A reading "The Widow at Nain," by Ensign Johnstone completed the evening's program.

Well deserved success continues to attend the efforts of the Salvation Army's popular representatives in Prince Rupert, and a big entertainment for the children is being planned for a month hence. Those who desire to help should get in early.

ITALIANS HAVE SHOOTING BOUT

MAN SHOT FOR INSISTING ON BEING FRIENDLY

Three Called Upon Old Celeppe Who Did not Love Them—They Burst in on Him and Got Warm Reception.

(Special to the Optimist)

Vancouver, Feb. 3.—On Thursday morning three Italians of the quicksilver temperament endeavored to force their friendship upon another of their countrymen who resides on Clark Drive. The friend did not make good. He would not admit them to the house so with the accustomed impetuosity of their race they burst in the door and created a great disturbance. The one thing they did not count upon was that they did not have a monopoly of the quicksilver.

Old man Celeppe, who owned the house, failing to convince his unwelcome guests that their absence was preferable to their company thought he would emphasise the point with some shooting. He fired a couple of shots, one of which took effect in the shoulder of the man named Natale. The disturbance ceased immediately. Natale was seriously injured and had to be taken to the hospital.

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

Brave Women of Russia

In the face of the dreadful possibilities that may arise through any movement pointing towards freedom of either thought or action in Russia, it strikes one as not only rash, but positively dangerous, for—in the first place—Russian women to join a "Society for the protection of women's rights," and worse yet to attend its meetings Perfect obscurity seems to be the only safe thing in Russia Yet there is not only this society, but in April an open meeting was held in St Petersburg The aim of the society is to uphold the rights of women with regard to questions of heritage; (2) the right of protest against the sale (by the husband) of family land, houses or other possessions (this especially in the case of the poorer classes); (3) educational rights; (4) professional and other "labor" rights

Of what effect can such movements be in Russia? The true spirit of its police was exhibited when in last December the first Russian congress to deal with "The struggle against alcohol," Russia's next greatest curse after its tryanny, met to discuss the present situation Naturally, the government spirit of monopoly came up for discussion The ever present chief of police would have chosen to forbid any allusion to this, but was overborne, but the natural result of the reflections on the government was an intimation that if the question was not dropped the congress would be closed However, a paper on the growth of alcoholism among the young schcolboys and working lads from 15 to 20, and students from 20 to 23 was read

The Great Joys and Happiness

Maurice Maeterlinck's symbolical play "The Blue Bird," which is now being played both in England and America, has been given an additional chapter which has already been added to the version as acted in England Among the new groups introduced are: The Luxuries; The Happinesses of the Home; The Great Joys

Of the group of "The Happinesses on Earth," we are told that there are more of those than people think, "but the generality of men do not discover them" There are the Happinesses represented in the play: Happiness of Being Well; Happiness of Pure Air; Happiness of Loving One's Parents; Happiness of the Blue Sky; Happiness of the Forest; Happiness of Sunny Hours; Happiness of Spring; Happiness of the Sunsets; Happiness of Seeing the Stars Rise; Happiness of the Rain; Happiness of the Winter Fire, Happiness of Innocent Thoughts; Happiness of Running Barefoot in the Dew.

Then there are "the Great Joys"—"tall and beautiful angelic figures clad in shimmering dresses" The names are: Joy of Being Just; Joy of Being Good; Joy of Fame; Joy of Thinking; Joy of Understanding; Joy of Seeing What is Beautiful; Joy of Loving; Joy of Maternal Love And there is also a group of "Joys whom men do not yet know"

Of all these joys, it is to the Great Joy of Maternal Love that Maeterlinck gives most prominence "Maternal Love" explains to Tyltyl that her dress "is made of kisses and caresses and loving looks Each kiss you give me adds a ray of moonlight or sunshine to it . . . All mothers are rich when they love their children . . . Their love is always the most beautiful of the Joys, and when they seem most sad, it needs but a kiss which they receive or give to turn all their tears into stars in the depths of their eyes"

Wear Gloves for Dusting

The wearing of gloves at night, although much advocated in the days of our grandmothers, is not advisable, and unless the hands have been allowed to get into a very bad state will not be found necessary When, however, the hands are very red and rough, it may be better to wear them, but they should be very soft and loose-fitting, for if the gloves are tight at the fastening and the skin pliable they are apt to make wrinkles, and nothing is uglier than a shrivelled hand

A large hole should be cut in the palm of each glove and the fingers snipped off at the tips to admit of proper ventilation The hands should be smeared over with a good cream or a mixture of glycerine and rose water, and the gloves worn for a week or more As soon as the hands have regained their original state they should be discarded

OUR DAILY RECIPES

Lemon Cheese Cakes

To 1-2 lb of good butter add 1 3-4 lbs of sugar, broken small, the yolks of eight eggs and the whites of six, the grated rinds of four lemons and the juice of six Put all into a clean, well-tinned saucepan or double boiler simmer over the fire, stirring all the time until it is as thick as honey Pour into small jars and cover When required, line patty pans with puff paste, fill with the mixture and bake This is very good and will keep for years

Orange Salad

Peel two oranges, remove pips and white, divide into quarters, lay in a small dish with a little chopped onion; mix a dessertspoonful of salad oil and one of brandy, and a teaspoonful of caster sugar and pour over the oranges Let it stand a little, then serve

GOVERNMENT GIFT USED UP

Small Portion of Sewer Must Be Completed by City

The government gift for funds for sewer construction in Prince Rupert has at last come to an end. A few yards of sewer which it was thought could be completed out of the funds still remain to be done. The job was in the hands of S. P. McMordie who successfully carried out the other portions of the work in the business section. In the lane between Third and Second avenues, and Sixth and Seventh streets is the little bit left to be finished—probably at the cif's expense.

Committee Was Busy

Up till nearly midnight on Tuesday the light and telephone and fire and water committee sat discussing matters connected with the light plant, the fire protection and alarm system, and other business. The fact that the coty council meets only once a week does not mean that the city fathers are idle the other six days.

DEATH CALLS SIR C. DILKE

ROMANTIC LIFE STORY OF GREAT POLITICIAN

Recognized as One of Britain's Brightest Parliamentarians—Mighthave Held Highest Office of State but for Old Divorce Scandal.

London, Feb 1—Sir Charles Wentworth Dilke is dead The immediate cause of death was heart trouble, though he had been in an enfeebled condition since the recent election, the strain of the campaign having affected him severely He went to the south of France to recuperate, returning to London last Saturday Soon after reaching home he took to his bed

Sir Charles had represented the Forest of Dean division of Gloucester in Parliament since 1892 He was recognized as one of the most brilliant minds in Parliament, particularly in the domain of foreign affairs, and but for an old divorce scandal probably would have held the highest offices in the gift of the country He was born in 1834: was educated at Cambridge and admitted to the bar in 1865 He was under secretary of state for foreign affairs in 1880-82 and president of the local government board in 1882-85 Subsequently he was a member of several royal commissions and wrote extensively of national and international political affairs

His first wife, Katheryn, daughter of Captain Arthur Gore Sheil, died in 1873 and in 1885 Sir Charles married Emelia Frances, daughter of Major Henry Strong, and widow of Mark Pattison, rector of Lincoln college, Oxford

It was during their engagement that the scandal resulting in the separation of Donald Crawford and his wife occurred. Mrs. Pattison, who was a beautiful and talented woman, remained loyal to Sir Charles throughout this trouble. She died as the result of a rupture of a blood vessel on October 24, 1904.

CAN'T THE GIRLS HELP;

Young Sailorman Won't Wear His Nice New Uniform

When a young man disdains the aid of an attractive uniform to enhance his charms for the fair sex he must be either an Adonis or a woman-hater you'd think. W. R. Greer isn't any Adonis though he's not just hard to look at either, but he won't wear the uniform of the Canadian Government Coast Service.

Brought to book about it yesterday by Captain Newcombe of the Kestrel, Greer was given the chance to wear the uniform or quit the service. He used bad language and caused a scene in the captain's cabin for which he later appeared before Magistrate Carss charged with the offence.

Captain Newcombe whose authority over his crew empowers him to have a man imprisoned for a month for this offence wanted Greer treated leniently and Magistrate Carss let him go on suspended sentence.

The Magistrate emphasized the need for strict preservation of the discipline on all boats, government or other and warned Greer sharply. It seems that other members of the crew have also objections to wearing their uniforms, and Captain Newcombe promises them all that is coming to them if they persist.

AVIATOR DROPS INTO THE SEA

M'CURDY FAILED TO MAKE HAVANA NARROWLY

Was Within Ten Miles of Cuban Coast When Lubricating Oil Became Exhausted—Picked Up by the Accompanying Destroyer Pauling.

Havana, Feb. 1.—Within ten miles of the Cuban coast and out a short distance further from his goal, the Columbia aviation field, J. A. D. McCurdy, the Canadian aviator, ran out of lubricating oil and was compelled to abandon a magnificent flight from Key West, Fla. When he saw he could not quite reach this port, McCurdy alighted on the waters, and the pontoons, with which it was equipped, floated the aeroplane until the destroyer Pauling, splashing along in its wake, had overtaken the aerial craft. McCurdy and his biplane were taken on board.

MILITARY ROAD FOR ALASKA

$50 000 MAY BE APPROPRIATED FOR ITS CONSTRUCTION

President Taft Actively Supports the Project—3000 Persons in the District Will Benefit—Anticipated the Proposition Will Carry.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The secretary of war today sent to Congress recommendations that $50,000 be appropriated for the construction of a military road from Seward to the new Iditarod district in Alaska.

It is estimated that 3000 persons are now in the district and would be benefited by such a road. The secretary of war was at first disinclined to favor the project on the grounds of the necessity for economy in departmental matters, but upon presentation of the matter to President Taft the latter gave his active support to the project and it is anticipated that the appropriations will be made.

Ten Million Dollars for Two White Star Liners

Vancouver, Feb. 1.—Insurance of $5,000,000 each has been written for the two new White Star liners, Olympic and Titanic, now in course of construction at the Belfast yards of Messrs. Harland & Wolff. With the exception of the Cunarders Lusitania and Mauretania, which when new, were valued at the same figure, no other steamships have ever been insured for that sum. The policies are written with special conditions, which provide that the underwriters shall not be liable for any damage amounting to less than $750,000.

The Wanderings of Wallace

DAILY EDITION. UNION LABEL FRIDAY, FEB. 3

The Manufacturers Appeal to Ignorance

One of the most significant tributes to the proposed reciprocity treaty is the fact that so many of the alleged "Chambers of Commerce" are protesting against it. The chambers of commerce are for the most part trades unions of manufacturers and middlemen who have made big fortunes under the present system of protection They know that they are doing a large volume of trade at inflated prices under artificial conditions and that the consumer pays the bill They know that if trade were free to develop along natural lines they would lose their artificial markets, and the cost of commodities would shrink They seem to lack knowledge to know that for artificial markets they may lose, they will gain the natural markets which are at present withheld from them, and that the reward for their labor, and profit for their outlay will still remain in an era of lessened prices It is only the transportation companies and the monopolists who will suffer.

Selfishness and Ignorance are the twin obstacles to the world's progress They belong to every country It is a curious condition, and one which answers itself, that while in Canada we have the corporations, the chambers of commerce, and the Legislature of British Columbia trying to appeal to the people's ignorance by crying that the treaty means ruin to our country, across the border, the corporations, the chambers of commerce and the corporation interests in the Senate are appealing to the ignorance of the masses with the same cry As if any nation can be ruined by being able to get the things it wants without voluntarily taxing itself for getting them or paying heavy tolls to railways for bringing for a distance at great cost, the commodities it could get close at hand at a low cost Some day, when the people of Canada get thinking about economics, there will be as Mr Chesterton remarks of the English people, "something doing"

It is comforting to find in some quarters that some of the manufacturers realize that it will be better for themselves to have natural trade instead of artificial trade Senator Edwards, the millionaire lumberman, has declared that every lumberman from the Atlantic to the Pacific will be benefited The same will be true of every head of a family to benefit by the rebating of $7,000,000 in taxes on food It will mean not $7,000,000 taken out of circulation, but $7,000,000 more to be expended on commodities, at present unattainable

In this connection the experience of England since the passing of the old age pensions is illuminative Every one knows the fondness of old people for tea One consequence of the pensions is that the importation of Indian tea jumped 1,077,209 pounds last November over the November of the previous year The increase for the eleven months up to the end of November was 2,066,332 pounds over the corresponding period of the previous year

Nor does the matter end there The boom has made the whole of the Indian tea-planting industry flourish, with the result that tea shares stand higher than ever on the markets, and the general prosperity of the country is aided There is nothing which is more likely to enhance the general prosperity both of Canada and the United States than the proposal to extend a large measure of free trade to our inter-commerce

Investigate the Coal Combine

(Vancouver News-Advertiser)

The high price of coal is a matter of vital concern to the people on this coast In the last few weeks the burden of the cost of fuel has borne heavily on those least able to endure it It is generally believed that high price is unnecessary, and it is no relief to the sufferer that he cannot say who is to blame The Legislature can command the machinery for investigation If the necessary cost of production and distribution justifies the existing prices the fact ought to be established, thus relieving the producers, carriers and traders from undeserved censure

FORT GEORGE ON THE MAP

SURVEYS OF G. T. P. ARE ALMOST COMPLETED

Only One Gap Between Proposed Fort George Site and Vancouver—Two Survey Parties in Field Working Toward Each Other.

Vancouver, Feb. 1.—Survey parties of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway have virtually completed the location of the proposed branch between Fort George and Vancouver. The only unfinished gaps are those between Fort George and Big Bar, on the Upper Fraser River, now well advanced, and the short stretch from Harrison Lake to Burrard Inlet. It is not probable that this last mentioned work will be undertaken until next spring. Chief Engineer Van Arsdall is figuring on sending out a party to determine whether a short route can be secured from the Lillooet district to the Fraser River, via Stave River and Stave Lake.

The route has now been surveyed from Harrison Lake to a point north of Big Bar on the Upper Fraser. It follows the lake and Lillooet River to Pemberton Meadows and thence swings east via Seaton and Anderson lakes to where the Fraser is first struck. A grade of half of one per cent was obtained for most of the 170 miles from Harrison Lake to the Fraser. In the vicinity fo the lakes referred to the maximum gradients will be baout one per cent. From Lillicoet the line will run up the west bank of the Fraser, seventy miles to Big Bar, where it will cross to the east side of the river which will be followed to Fort George. Two survey parties are now in the field, working in opposite directions, between Fort George and Big Bar, and the work is so far advanced that next month will see the closing of the 150-mile gap.

WALTZ PRIZE IS WON

First Prize for Waltzing Ever Offered in Prince Rupert

Last night's usual "Thursday Night" Dance" held in the K. of P. hall was a great success. The waltz contest which has been running was opened again and the honors of the evening were awarded to Miss Blanche Legard and Mr. Joe Keller. The committee committee previously appointed, viz., Messrs. Corley, Lessing and Stickney then decided to have the contest finally decided last night. Accordingly the three leading couples. Mrs. Embleton, Miss Cliff and Miss Legard with Messrs. Mill, Lawley and Keller danced out the final contest. After changing of partners the prize—which is the first prize offered for waltzing in Prince Rupert—was awarded to Mr. Embelton and Mr. Lawley. The decision of the judges met with hearty approval.

SNOWED UP ON LINE

G. T. P. OFFICIALS OCCUPY CURIOUS POSITION

Took Snow Plough up with Them to Clear Passage—Storm Clogged the Track Behind Them—Can't Reverse Plough.

A party of prominent G. T. P. officials are at present in the unique position of being snowed up on their own line. It seems like poetic justice with a vengeance. Mr. Mehan, the general superintendent, desired to make one of his periodical trips of inspection at the end of last week so he departed in company with Mr. McNichol, the district superintendent and Mr. Van Arsdoll, one of the company's engineers.

In order to ensure themselves a passage they took the rotary snow plough with them. The plough did not fail them. It cleared the tracks of its encumbering snow and swirled it overhead in glittering circles of silver spray. It defied the ravages of the storm and took them safely to their destination.

Unfortunaetly, however, the snow storm did not see fit to cease. It snowed on an on and the track they had traversed on their upward journey became clogged again. Then the difficulty loomed up. The line is single and the rotary snow plough was of course attached to the front of the engine. They could not reverse it with the somewhat humerous result that they were snow bound on their own line and in sole possession of the means of remedy

It is understood at the head office in Prince Rupert today that they are now at Ka Yex about thirty miles up and that they have rigged up an improvised plough and are anticipating reaching home tonight ot tomorrow.

CHIPS FROM THE HUMORISTS

Wife—Darling, I want a new gown

Husband—But you had a new one only a short time ago

Wife—Yes; but my friend Ellen is to be married, and I can't wear the same dress as I wore at her last wedding

"George," said her husband's wife "I don't believe you have smoked one of those cigars I gave you on your birthday"

"That's right, my dear," replied his wife's husband "I'm going to keep them until our little Willie wants to learn to smoke"

Visitor—The attendants treat you kindly and considerately, I hope

Patient (in hospital)—Yes, the nurses have been very kind, but the surgeons have treated me in the most cutting manner you ever heard of

Woggs—So you are stung in that mining company? You should have known better

Boggs—How could I? It looked like a real thing, no fake earmarks about it Why, there wasn't a single man on the Board of Directors who was prominent in public life

---

Hewitt—What sort of fellow is he?

Jewett—He is always shouting "Welcome" to our city" But the other fellow has to pay for the welcome

The sculptor had just finished the Apollo Belvedere

"I am satisfied," he cried "Every man who passes thinks it looks like himself"

Ah! What a Meeting!

(From the Brockville Times)

Manager W R Travers of the Farmers Bank has pleaded guilty to charges of theft and making false statemetns A few weeks ago he stood in the Brockville Police Court pressing similar charges against a young man who had been in charge of a branch near here, with the result that his subordinate officer was sent to the penitentiary for three years. Fate has been ironical in the swiftness with which it has dealt out retribution to the older man What a meeting there will be between the two at Kingstoon.

City Pay Day on Fifth of Each Month

Commencing with the February pay roll, cheques due on all city pay rolls will be paid to employees on the fifth of each month beginning March 5th. The reason for this is that the number of men on the pay rolls is increasing so that it is impossible for the city treasurer and his staff to have the cheques ready the day after the pay roll is certified. There are 145 names on the January pay roll.

PLANES MAY FLY OVER OUR CITY

WHEN THE ALASKA AERIAL TRANSPORTATION CO. COMES

The Wizard Edison Predicts That Such a Business Will Come to Pass With Progress in the Art of Flying.

Thomas A Edison has many interesting predictions for the future, but even such a great wizard as Mr Edison finds it hard, after the wonderful progress of the last decade, to discover even a new field for speculation The air has been conquered, making man master of all the elements, and it is in the development of aerial transportation that Mr Edison sees the greatest work of the near future

"I believe aerial navigation will become practical," said Mr Edsion, "not as a means of personal transportation alone, but for the transportation of the mails and small articles intended for quick delivery

"I do not believe that the government will take up the problem of the development of aerial nagivation. I think it will be done by private companies These companies will use the aeroplane to reach points in Alaska and other places that would be almost inaccessible by ordinary means of transportation

SNOW BLOCKADE UP THE LINE

SUPT. MEHAN AND MR. M'NICHOL CAN'T GET BACK

Went up with the Rotary Snow Plough but Were Caught in Fierce Storm—Are E pected to Return Daily.

Superintendent Mehan of the Grand Trunk Pacific and Mr. McNichol, the district superintendent, are at present located up the line, unable to get down on account of the snow blockade. They went up Saturday taking the rotary snow plough with them to clear the line. After their departure, however, the storm rather increased than abated with the result that the work of the plough was nullified almost as soon as done. Both gentlemen were expected back in Prince Rupert Wednesday to take part in the banquet given that night to Mr. J. B. L. Macdonald of Messrs. Foley, Welch & Stewart, who left last night on the Prince George for a two months' holiday at his home in Scotland.
