NEW ENGLAND TO OPPOSE THE RECIPROCITY TREATY

Although Agreement Is Framed to Help Trade With New England States, Its Forces Will Line Up to Prevent United States Senate from Ratifying the Treaty

(Special to the Optimist)

Toronto, Jan. 26.—A special wire to the Journal of Commerce, New York, from Washington says in part: Information which has been received by the Senate with reference to the contents of the reciprocity treaty concluded by President Taft with Canada is already leading to a strong combination of forces against the adoption of the agreement.

The antagonism seems to be headed from New England by one of the men who have been doing a great deal of talking in regard to reciprocity. The treaty it is stated has been framed largely along New England lines with the idea of placating New England desires for better trade relations.

In spite of this fact New England men of both houses who have been investigating the status of the agreement have obtained what they consider official information to warrant them in making the statement that they expect to be obliged to vote against the agreement.

The investigation at the capital shows the old combination which in the past has always killed reciprocity, drawing together for the same purpose now.

NEARLY A TRAGEDY

Two Men Fell Into Harbor This Afternoon

Two men nearly lost their lives in the harbor this afternoon. They were jigging for herring off the wharf near Foley, Welch & Stewart's building when the railing they were leaning over gave way. They fell about 30 feet and clasped in a death grip together were almost down for the last time when their mates managed to get a boat out and save their lives.

MACKENZIE-MANN ROAD MAY COME TO RUPERT

Rumored In Reliable Quarters That They Intend to Invade the Field of the G. T. P. by Entering the City from the North---Surveying Land in the Naas District

Rumors are afloat in responsible quarters in Prince Rupert to the effect that the Grand Trunk Pacific will not be the only railway having a terminal within its gates. The Mackenzie & Mann railroad organization is credited with the intention to construct and operate a line to this city. At the present time, and for some considerable time past the Mackenzie-Mann syndicate have had surveyors and prospectors in the field to the north of Kaien Island, and it is currently reported that one of their next announcements will be that they are going to invade Prince Rupert from the north. From the Portland Canal they are at present constructing a line eastward, and they are also credited with being behind the company ostensibly owning the surveyed road from Stewart down in the direction of Port Simpson.

In the event of the rumor taking tangible shape it would not be impossible for those kings of the rail, who are known to be very keen upon acquiring lines in British Columbia, to blossom out with a second transcontinental line. The acquirement of a few running rights over the places in which they have no jurisdiction would greatly facilitate their efforts in this direction.

PREMIER TWITS THE SOCIALISTS

BUT THEY TURNED THE TABLES ON HIM

A Lively Interchange of Compliments at Victoria When the Government Introduced a Measure to Protect Workers in the Mills.

(Special to the Optimist)

Victoria, Jan. 26.—The proceedings of the House were considerably enlivened yesterday when Premier McBride delivered a long and severe criticism of the Socialists in a long debate on the introduction of the new bill for the better protection of workers in the mills.

The criticism was not allowed to pass unquestioned. Both Parker Williams and Hawthornthwaite got up and in their replies intimated satirically that similar measures brought forward by the Socialists had been turned down in the past, and that the present bill was only being adopted by the government in order to make some cheap political capital.

In replying to this assertion the Premier stated that the previous measures introduced by the Socialists on the subject contained clauses so drastic and revolutionary that it was impossible for the government to adopt them.

The bill passed unopposed.

HON. MR. PATTERSON RETURNS

Minister of Customs Got Rousing Reception from His Colleagues

(Special to the Optimist)

Ottawa, Jan. 26.—During yesterday's sitting of the House of Commons the Hon. Mr. Patterson took his seat. The appearance of the Minister of Customs fresh from the scene of the reciprocity negotiations was greeted with Liberal cheers.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier welcomed Mr. Patterson back to the chamber and announced that Mr. Fielding would unfold the result of the proceedings at Washington in regard to reciprocity today.

W. A. Casey of Pillsbury & Casey, has returned to the town after a ten days trip up the river. Bill says it was the hardest trip he ever had and his friends were all glad to see him back.

U.S. GUNBOAT IS IN TROUBLE

AMERICAN SHIP TALKS ASHORE BY WIRELESS

Communication Tells of Accident on Board—Believed to Be an Explosion—All Stations on Alert for Further Details.

(Special to the Optimist)

New York, Jan. 26.—Rumors are current this morning to the effect that the American gun boat Wheeling, which is at sea, has met with an accident involving a serious loss of life. The message was received by wireless but whether the cause of the trouble is an explosion or not cannot be ascertained.

The Navy Department has been advised and all the wireless stations are on the alert to receive a message that will help them to locate the gun boat's whereabouts.

STORM CAUSES LUMBER LOSS

PASSAGE SOUTH STREWN WITH IT FOR FIFTY MILES

Reported at Seattle That a Raft and Four Cars Are Tossing About Wildly Off Hecate Head—Effects of Stormy Weather.

(Special to the Optimist)

Seattle, Jan. 26.—Captain Donaldson, of the steamer Grays Harbor, which arrived here from Aberdeen today, reported that when in the northern waters, abreast of Hecate Head, he sighted a lead colored raft with four cars lashed to it tossing about in the trough of the waves. He also reported that for fifty miles of the passage the way was littered with fresh cut timber that had been cast adrift by the storm.

DARING BANDITS IN LOS ANGELES

HELD UP A STREET CAR WITH THEIR GUNS

Made Conductor Pass Round the Hat Among Passengers—Plucky Passenger Showed Fight and Scared Them Away.

(Special to the Optimist)

Los Angeles, Jan. 26.—Two daring bandits brought off a successful coup in this city last night. They held up the surbuban car when it was nearing Tokio station and at the point of the gun compelled the motorman to pass the hat round the forty-five passengers for their money and jewelry. Most of the passengers were women and complied quickly but reluctantly, but one man who happened to be armed whipped out his revolver and shot one of the holdup men through the cheek. Realizing that the car was too hot to hold them longer the bandits returned the shot, slightly wounding the recalcitrant passenger, and then fled. A posse of armed police is now in hot pursuit of them.

IRON AND STEEL INDUSTRY IS COMING HERE

TRANSACTION HAS BEEN PUT THROUGH WHICH WILL MEAN A GREAT DEAL FOR THIS CITY'S COMMERCIAL PROGRESS

DEVELOPMENT IS TO COMMENCE THIS SPRING

Steel Corporation Acquires Big Mineral Tract on Louise Island for $250,000---Is Equal to Best Swedish Ores---Can Deliver Ore Cheaply to Prince Rupert, and Produce Cheaper than Cape Breton

Prince Rupert will before long have a steel industry to rank with the most thriving on the American continent. Today it is announced by Mr. Jas. D. Sword that with Mr. H. K. Owens, C. E., and other associates he has just taken over a tract of iron ore deposits ion Louise Island, Queen Charlotte group. The sum of $250,000 is represented by the transaction, and the property is being turned over to one of the largest steel corporations on the American continent.

The ore is one of the finest iron showings on the Pacific coast assaying 68 to 69 per cent of metallic iron, no sulphur, and only a trace of phosphorus. It is equal in quality to the Swedish ores now used for the finest tool steel.

Development work is to commence this spring. Many millions of tons of the ore are on the ground, and by the construction of 2 1-2 miles of railway and a dock, the ore can be landed at Cumshewa Inlet and delivered on Puget Sound points or the Fraser River for $2 a ton and at Prince Rupert for $1.50 a ton.

With the coking coals, and necessary limestone for fluxes available on the islands and in the interior there can be no doubt that the iron and steel industry to be established will flourish in Prince Rupert. The cost of production here will compete favorably with that of the Dominion Steel company of Cape Breton which is known to have facilities for producing steel cheaper than any other point on the American continent.

It was J. W. Austen of Prince Rupert, who on a recent visit to the Queen Charlotte Islands realized the value of these deposits and secured an option on them. The deal was put through by Mr. Sword who is well known as having concluded the deal with Mr. Mann for the Portland Canal short line railway.

Miss Pankhurst Has No Doubts

Miss E. Sylvia Pankhurst, daughter of the leader of the British militant suffragettes, and who has been imprisoned because of her activities in the cause in the streets of London, is at New York to instruct the American women in the latest English methods of bringing about woman suffrage. "Will the English women get the ballot?" she was asked. "They will," was the prompt reply. "We will get the ballot in a year's time. We have the assurance from the Premier that that old bill will reach its third reading during the next parliament. That is all we want —the third reading. Then our just rights will come."

Tests of Real Education

A professor in the university of Chicago told his pupils that he should consider them educated in the best sense of the word when they could say yes to every one of fourteen questions that he should put to them. It may interest you to read the questions. Here they are: Has education given you sympathy with all good causes and made you espouse them? Has it made you public-spirited? Has it made you a brother to the weak? Have you learned how to make friends and keep them? Do you know what it is to be a friend yourself? Can you look an honest man or a pure woman straight in the eye? Do you see anything to love in a little child? Will a lonely dog follow you in the street? Can you be high-minded and happy in the meaner drudgeries of life? Do you think washing dishes and hoeing corn just as compatible with high thinking as piano-playing or golf? Are you good for anything to yourself? Can you be happy alone? Can you look out on the world and see anything except dollars and cents? Can you look into a mud puddle by the wayside and see the clear sky? Can you see anything in the puddle but mud? Can you look into the sky at night and see beyond the stars. Can your soul claim relation ship with the Creator?

A Working Girl Novelist

The prize awarded annually by the Goncourt academy for the most original and meritorious book of the year will probably go this year to the poor Parisian seamstress, Marguerite Audoux, for a novel entitled "Marie-Claire," which records the bitter struggle of her early life and took her ten years to write. Left an orphan at an early age, educated at a convent till she was twelve, she became a farm servant, and minded sheep and pigs in return for her keep. The town called her, and she went to Bourges, where she earned a couple of francs a day by mending old clothes. At the age of 18 she made up her mind to go to Paris, and reached the capital with just 3c in her pocket. Finally she got work as a dressmaker. A year ago her sight began to fail her, and she decided to see if "Marie-Claire" had any value. Madame de Noailles was shown the book, but was horrified at the bad spelling. Octave Mirbeau, the dramatist, was not deterred by this fault, and was so impressed by the poignancy of the work that he took the authoress under his wing and helped her to get her story published.

Entertaining the Kiddies

Irma B. Matthews writing in the Mothers' Magazine makes an interesting suggestion. She says:

The traveler's scrapbook is one thing that will help solve the rainy-day problem and prove a valuable educator at the same time. I got the idea from my little daughter, who is in the fourth grade and beginning to study geography. She was studying about Japan and was ransacking all the papers and magazines in her effort to find pictures that would help her to understand. Then the idea was born.

An old book may be used. Two-thirds of the leaves must be cut out to make the thickness right when the book is completed. I have found that flour paste is about as good as anything to paste in the material.

Divide the book into as many departments as you wish countries, and at the top of the first page of each division paste a plain strip of paper with the name of the country written upon it, as for instance Japan, China, Russia, and so on. In the back part it is well tohave a department of miscellany, for often some interesting item about some place that we have not given a department may be found.

Now comes the collecting of the material. Hunt up all of the old papers and magazines and set the children to work selecting pictures of cities and people and places of interest in the various countries. Pictures give the children better ideas of foreign life than any amount of reading.

You will readily see what a lot of material may be collected in this way and how rapidly the book will grow. Every paper will contribute something of interest. You will find yourself growing as interested as the children, and really such a book when completed makes a fine reference book.

DAILY COOKING RECIPE

Pineapple Salad

Take one can of pineapple, drain off all the juice, and one-half pound of marshmallows cut up in small pieces. Take your salad dish and put first a layer of pineapple and then a layer of marshmallows until the dish is two-thirds full. Cover with a good thick layer of whipped cream. The sliced pineapple cut up in small pieces is preferable to the grated. This makes a good sized salad and is excellent.

PRACTICAL HOUSEHOLD HINTS

If a curtain or portiere pole is rubbed with hard soap before being put up the draperies will slip on easily.

In cooking beans or peas their flavor will be much better if cooked in as little water as possible.

Dates stuffed with peanut butter and then rolled in sugar are a pleasing change from dates stuffed with nuts.

Dates and figs cut in small pieces and served with plenty of sugar make a tasty accompaniment to a dish of rice boiled in milk.

To use sour milk for griddle cakes, never add baking powder, but instead an even teaspoonful of baking soda to each cup of milk.

Strange as it may seem, beef may be kept for months if immersed in sour milk. The lactic acid destroys the germs of putrefaction.

OPEN COAL LANDS TO PRE-EMPTION

THOUSANDS OF ACRES READY AT GRAHAM ISLAND

Massett Indians Elect Town Council and Take Over Wharf and Lighting Plant—Cupid Works Havoc in Massett Circles.

(Special Correspondence)

Massett, Jan. 25.—It is expected that authentic information, regarding the opening of coal lands to pre-emptors, will be received shortly. Thousands of acres of the best farming land in the province will then be available for the settler.

The lack of telegraphic and steamer communication is a hardship to the settlers on Massett Inlet. A fortnightly steamship service,in a growing portion of the province, with no other means of getting outside, is a drawback that can only be realized by those within a few hours' journey of Prince Rupert. The need of another steamer on this route, giving a weekly service, has been brought before the people interested.

Three marriages are on the tapis in Massett. These unions will mean a record of five marriages during the present month. In one instance the groom-to-be is over 70 years of age and the prospective bride bears her 60 years with many happy days still in prospect.

The Massett Band of Indians have elected a town council for the ensuing year, and appointed committees to take charge of the several works under consideration. They have ordered additions to their street lighting plant and are considering the introduction of water works, fire fighting equipment and a sewerage system. The Indians of Massett are now in possession of a wharf, and desire that all correspondence and supplies shipped to them shall be addressed "Massett Reserve, Massett, B. C.," this will avoid confusion with the new townsite further up the Inlet.

The work of extracting minerals from the sand deposits, at Cape Fife will receive the attention of three of the best mining men in this region, Messrs. Garde, Parks and Robertson have organized a company and purchased the latest improved machinery. A steamer has been chartered to convey the material to the shores of Graham Island where it will be landed in scows and beached. Active operations will be commenced at an early date.

The recent inclement weather caused the closing of the schools for a few days. The oldest inhabitant speaks of such weather occurring twenty years ago. After three days when the thermometer hovered around zero the usual Queen Charlotte weather was in evidence again.

Brief Paragraphs from Massett

Road Superintendent Jennings paid a flying visit to Massett on the last trip of the Prince Albert.

The steamer Henriette is expected at Naden Harbor, with lumber and supplies for the whaling station in course of erection there. The steamer left for Victoria last week.

John Brown and wife, of Skidegate, gave a dinner to twenty-six of their friends at the Edenshaw Hotel.

Messrs. C. Harrison and James Martin were passengers on the outgoing steamer on a visit to the south.

Two of the Massett Indians were fined $20 and $12.50 respectively, for over indulgence in intoxicating liquor. The cases were tried before the Indian Agent.

LOVERS' KISS IS KISS OF DEATH

TRAGIC AND ROMANTIC DEATH OF ENGAGED COUPLE

Poisoned Chewing Gum Said to be Unhappy Cause—Lover Chewed Stuff and Kissed His Sweetheart—Both Dead.

Cumberland, Md., Jan. 23.—States Attorney David A. Robb has begun his investigation into the perplexing death of Miss Grace Elosser and Charles Edward Twigg, the young couple who were found side by side on a sofa in the girl's home, dead, on New Year's night, the eve of their wedding day. They were the victims of a poison plot that is baffling, but the theory is now advanced that the pair met their death through the medium of chewing gum, which had been given to the bridgroom-elect in revenge and which was saturated with cyanide of potassium.

It is believed that Twigg took a piece of the gum containing the deadly poison, and that he probably killed the young woman whom he planned to make his wife through the medium of a kiss. It is thought that the gum may have been given to Twigg by some young woman with whom he had been friendly, and who preferred to see him dead rather than married to another woman.

The authorities now assert their belief in the theory that Twigg almost immediately after he placed the stick of chewing gum in his mouth leaned forward to kiss his sweetheart, and that the kiss communicated the poison to her lips. So unconsciously he had made the kiss of a lover the "kiss of death."

The story is strengthened by the fact that the tips of the tongues of both Twigg and the young woman who was to have been his bride were red and inflamed, as if they had been burned or bitten. Cyanide takes immediate action.

Little of the poison has been found in the body of the young woman, while in the body of Twigg enough has been found to kill several persons.

Chemists are making an analysis of a package of gum found in the Elosser house from which a stick had been taken. A box of candy from which all the household partook is also being analyzed.

Go On; Sic 'em!

The question of whose house is on fire makes all the difference in the world to some people's sense of humor. Three weeks ago, in certain quarters, a terrific howl was being made about the delay in the electric lighting plant. Accusations were made by one somewhat irresponsible party that the delay was intentional, and for an improper purpose. The whole future of the city, and our hope of heaven seemed to depend on having the electric light turned on immediately. Even Mr. Manson referred to the matter in announcing his platform, and with a great show of sincerity promised "If the plant is not completed before January 12th, I will undertake to have the electric light plant in operation within ten days after my election."

Well, the ten days were up last Sunday, but there is no light. Neither is there any howl. Mr. Manson is Mayor. Alderman Smith is still Chairman of the Light Committee, and the gentleman who had an attack of editorial hydrophobia because the light was not on last Christmas has been a member of the Council for two weeks.

For ourselves, we quite understand that these delays are unavoidable. We do not accuse anyone of graft or incompetence. Our own idea is that the plant has progressed as well as could be expected. But Alderman Newton is different. After those terrible tirades of his before his appointment to office, his silence now is exceedingly funny.

It cannot be that he is careless of the public welfare since his elevation to office, for he has announced his intention to fire all the city employees who can be dispensed with by hook or by crook. It cannot be that he is unaware that the Mayor sailed away from his job without taking any steps to redeem his promise in regard to the electric light.

We would hate to suspect Alderman Newton of editorial cowardice, but it certainly looks as if he is scared to give Mr. Manson and Alderman Smith a jolt over the delay in the electric light plant. We appeal to our contemporary to show its spunk and singleness of purpose.

There is nothing to be afraid of. Go on; sic 'em!

Notes and Comments

A good suggestion for the Rainbow reception would be to hand it over to the committee who had charge of last night's Burns banquet. There was no Vancouver welcome about that.

By, the way, wasn't the original rainbow sent as a token that the unfortunate denizens of the earth were to be saved from an overdose of cold water. Oh, you Vancouver theologians.

EXPANSION BY POPULAR FIRM

MESSRS. STEWART & MOBLEY'S NEW WAREHOUSE

Ready for Business and on Monday Will Be in Full Swing. Active Preparations Now in Progress for Occupancy.

Preparations are in active progress for the occupancy on Monday of their new warehouse and business offices by Messrs. Stewart & Mobley.

In the spacious five storey building just completed, accommodation is found for an extensive and varied stock of all classes of this firm's merchandise Special provision has been made for stocking tobacco and cigars. From six to ten thousand dollars worth can be stored in the space fitted.

Business offices for the heads of the firm and staff are conveniently placed on the top storey which is level with First avenue and convenient for the city shipping floor.

Warmed throughout at present by stoves, the warehouse possesses the largest solid brick bulit chimney in Prince Rupert, 64 feet from base to crown. The elevator is not yet fitted owing to rush of work in the construction shops, but will very soon be in position.

Everything has been planned for convenient handling of merchandise for storage and despatch; and there is room for future expansion that will double the present spacious extent of the warehouse. The building is a joint one with Messrs. J. Piercy Morris & Co.'s warehouse, which is similar to Messrs. Stewart & Mobley's with a little more floor space owing to the nature of the site. E. Kauffman was contractor for the building and G. L. Proctor, architect.

ENGLISH ONLY IN THE SCHOOLS

ONTARIO MAY STOP USE OF OTHER LANGUAGES

Proposed Bill Follows the Agitation Against the Bi-lingual Schools in Roman Catholic Districts—May Arouse Very Bitter Controversy.

(Special to the Optimist)

Toronto, Jan. 26.—In the Ontario Legislature H. G. Ferguson of Grenville will move on Friday that no other language than English shall be used in the schools of the Province. There is understood to be a large following but on the other hand ther is also a strong feeling antagonistic to the idea which the motion embodies.

The motion follows the agitation against the Roman Catholic bi-lingual schools, an agitation made noteworthy by the action of Bishop Fallon of London who aroused much criticism by condemning the bi-lingual schools in his diocese as being educationally defective.

Made by Expert Specialists

In the 20th Century Brand coat shops each garment passes through 26 distinct operations, with expert specialists doing the work in each of these 26 stages. Any of them can do what he does much better than an all-round coat maker who may be a fairly good tailor but who is not a specialist in any particular branch of the art and science of coat making. The degree of perfection that these specialists arrive at through years of practice and study in one small department of coat making is nothing short of amazing. Custom tailors who visit the 20th Century Brand tailor shops (and they are always welcome) never fail to express their astonishment at the perfection of workmanship which this system of specialization produces. It is the old story of "Jack-of-all-trades" being master of none and giving way to the specialist in this and every other department of human endeavor.

BURNS' MEMORY WAS HONORED

ST. ANDREWS SOCIETY BANQUET A GREAT SUCCESS

Bagpipes, Haggis, the National Beverage, Eloquence, Music, Story, and Good Fellowship Figured in Celebrating the Scottish Bard's Birthday.

With bagpipes, haggis, wee drappies of the national beverage, eloquence and good fellowship, the 152nd anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns was celebrated by the St. Andrews Society at their Burns banquet last night. The event was an unqualified success. The opinion was fr ely expressed that in the excellence of the repast, the flow of soul, and the high order of the speeches, the banquet put in the shade anything previously attempted in the city. Mine host, Peter Black, of the Central Hotel, vice-president of the society, was the su ject of very hearty con ratulations at the close for his part in the evening's success. The large dining room was splendidly illuminated and decorated for the occasion, and the service excellent. It was well after three in the morning before most of the guests attempted to depart. All agreed that it was a celebration such as would have pleased the heart of the poet himself.

The toasts were proposed by the chairman, Mr. Geo. W. Kerr and responded to by representative speakers. "The immortal memory" was made the occasion for a review of the poet's life and work by Mr. Thomas McClymont. Acting Mayor Smith and Alderman Pattullo sketched the possibilities of Prince Rupert's future under wise development in response to "The city we live in."

"Scotland" eloquently responded to by Rev. F. W. Kerr, M. A., brought also some good stories. One was about the Scotchman's landlady who cleaned the inside out of the haggis before serving and complained that there was very little left.

Rev. W. H. McLeod and Mr. H. F. McRae spoke for "Canada," praising the part of the Scottish pioneers in laying the foundations of prosperity and national character.

A strikingly effective sketch of the resources of British Columbia was given by Mr. A. M. Manson in reply to "Our Province." To the same toast, Mr. F. H. Mobley contributed incidents gleaned from his own experience while mining and prospecting in the farn orth. He spoke of the vast mineral wealth awaiting the advent of the railroads.

"Kindred Societies" were represented in telling responses by Mr. E. A. Woods for the Sons of England, Mr. Morris Soskin for the Hebrew Young Men's Association, Mr. T. Trotier for the French-Canadian Club, and Mr. W. P. Lynch for the Irishmen. The latter's tribute to Burns as a poet was unexpectedly eloquent and telling, and breathed a real intimacy with the poet's spirit.

"Imperial Forces" was responded to by Mr. J. F. Macdonald, and "The Press" by Alderman S. M. Newton and Mr. J. S. Cowper, in effective speeches. The latter created a good deal of merriment by saying that the greatest thing Burns accomplished had been quite overlooked. Burns was the only man who had succeeded in bringing the editor of the Empire and the editor of the Optimist to see eye to eye upon any one question.

In true Scottish accent and fashion Mr. David Thomson paid tribute to the toast of "The Ladies," acknowledged for them by Mr. James Russell, whose rendering of Scottish humorous songs in splendid voice, was one of the greatest helps to the evening's success. Songs from the poet were given by Mr. C. W. Gauld, Jas. Black, W. M. Brown and Jas. Dick, and an excellent rendering of Tam O'Shanter by Mr. W. G. Dennis.

NEW TARIFF FOR PULLMANS

RAILWAY COMMISSION GIVES SANCTION TO REDUCED RATES

Rates West of Calgary Are Still Two Mills a Mile Higher Than in the Eastern Sections of Canada.

(Special to the Optimist)

Montreal, Jan. 25.—The railway commission of Canada has given its formal approval to the new sleeping parlor car tariffs which were being protested against and they will now go into effect on February 15.

In approving of the new tariffs Chairman Mabee pointed out that they will make for a general reduction of the Pullman rates in spite of the fact that the rates now in operation west of Calgary are higher by two mills permile than in the eastern sections of Canada.

It was on the initative of Chairman Mabee that the inquiry into the berth rates was instituted.

CHIPS FROM THE HUMORISTS

"Pop."

"Yes, my son."

"Is ten dollars a lot of money?"

"It all depends whether I'm earning it or your mother's spending it, my boy!"

"I cannot understand," wrote the college boy, "why you call yourself a kind father. For three weeks I've had no check from you. Pray what sort of kindness do you call that?"

And the father wrote back, "Unremitting kindness."

"They tell me your wife is very original. What does she say to you when you come home late?"

"Exactly what her mother said to her father when he came home late. There's no chance for originality there."

"He says he doesn't believe in hiding his light under a bushel."

"He is economical. It would be extravagant to use a bushel when a thimble would do as well."

A woman and her daughter were at sea during rough weather. After a silence of some time the mother asked, "Are you seasick, dear?"

"No, I think not," replied the daughter; "but I'd hate to yawn."

"You say you once had a home?"

"Dat's what I had," answered Plodding Pete.

"Why didn't you do something to make your folks comfortable and happy?"

"I did. I left."
