GREECE AGAIN GAUSING ALLIES SOME UNEASINESS

Serbs And Allies In Balkans Endeavor To Join Forces

Greece Is Still Adopting Dilatory Tactics With Allies

London, Nov. 27.—London's cheerful view with respect to the Greek situation has been succeeded here by something in the nature of a reaction. The prevailing opinion at the present time is that the press and the public jumped too quickly to an agreeable conclusion that Greece would concede readily to all the Allies' demands.

The latest information from Athens clearly indicates that Greece has not definitely abandoned the dilatory tactics which have caused the Allies such uneasiness. It is reported from Athens that the Greek Government will probably propose that military experts representing the Entente Powers be appointed to discuss with the Greek general staff, the demands which hitherto have been assured, and which have been already satisfactorily answered.

Greece's Withdrawal?

Greece has consented to a partial demobilization and will withdraw her troops from Saloniki on a plea of relieving the financial strain.

CITY OF SEATTLE EXPECTED BACK

STEAMER THAT MET WITH ACCIDENT MAY RESUME RUN THIS WEEK

Steamer Senator From Nome Run Took Freight From Here.

The steamer Senator was in port all day yesterday taking on board the cargo of freight that was left at the Government wharf by the steamer City of Seattle a week or so ago, after the latter vessel had struck a rock on the way north. She sailed last evening for Alaskan ports with the seven hundred tons of freight from the City of Seattle, in addition to a rather heavy cargo of her own. It is expected that the Senator will call here on her way south again. Some of the officers of the City of Seattle accompanied the Senator on her way north on this trip.

The City of Seattle is undergoing the repairs that were necessary to be made to her in Seattle. It is expected that she will leave the dock there and resume her regular run to Alaskan ports about Dec. 3. She will call here as usual on her way north again.

The Senator, which was in port yesterday, is a larger vessel than the City of Seattle. She has been for years operating out of Seattle on the Nome run, making about six trips a season to the Behring Sea port. She had just returned from her last trip for the season and made a trip to San Francisco when called upon to take this voyage to the north in the place of the City of Seattle.

Successful Sale.

The Red Cross sale held in Mrs. Demers' store this week, again demonstrated the keen interest that is being taken in the welfare of our soldiers by the folks at home. Mrs. Seymour Wright and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, the ladies in charge, desire to thank Mrs. Demers for the use of her store and also all who helped to make the day a success. The half-ton of coal donated by the Pacific Transfer Company was won by Joe Scott, Sr., the cake by the tug B. C. Boy went to Mrs. Arnold. The camera given by McRae Bros. and the pillow by Mrs. Frank Bowness, will be drawn for next week.

GRAND TRUNK WON THE GOLD MEDAL

HIGHEST AWARD MADE AT SAN FRANCISCO TO RAILWAY FOR ITS EXHIBIT

The Canadian West Well Advertised By The Railway Company.

From Montreal comes the information that the Grand Trunk has won the highest prize at the San Francisco Exposition for its display. The despatch from Montreal says:

The Grand Trunk system has been awarded the gold medal, (highest award) and diploma, for its exhibit at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco.

The announcement has reached the railway officials here from Blythe B. Anderson, chief of the transportation department of the exposition, and was the result of the decision of the superior court.

The Grand Trunk system has done notable work at the big San Francisco Fair in bringing to the notice of tens of thousands of visitors the scenic, agricultural and industrial resources of Canada. Its exhibit was housed in a special pavillion erected by the company, with a moving picture hall attached, where the beauties of the Dominion were thrown upon the screen throughout each day, and the riches of the new territory opened up by the Grand Trunk Pacific illustrated.

CHANGE MADE IN C.P.R. OFFICES

J. G. McNABB WILL NOT RETURN TO LOCAL AGENCY

J. I. Peters Has Been Promoted To Take Charge.

A change has taken place in connection with the C. P. R. Company on this coast, by which J. C. McNabb, who for some time has been local agent of that company takes up his residence in Vancouver. He will be associated with Mr. Clendenning, the District Freight Agent of the company. For some time Mr. Clendenning has had charge of the freight for both the railway line and the steamship service of the C. P. R. Under the new arrangement the work connected will be divided, and while Mr. Clendenning will remain in charge of the railway end of the district freight business, the part pertaining to the steamship service on this coast will pass under the control of Mr. McNabb.

With this promotion for Mr. McNabb, comes a promotion likewise in the local office, and J. I. Peters is given a well deserved advance to the post of local agent in charge of all the work at this point.

Mr. McNabb was popular in the city and his removal will be regretted. It has been felt for some time

Serbian And Allied Troops Propose To Make Junction

London, Nov. 27.—The Bulgarian operations in the neighborhood of Monastir have been apparently frustrated. There are hopes for a union of the Serbian and the Allied troops in southern Serbia; hence the use of the railroads in the Greek territory to effect this union has become of the utmost importance.

Notwithstanding the persistence of the Bulgarian advance, the Serbians are continuing a strong defensive southwest of Prilep.

Russia is now said to have 350,000 troops near the Rumanian frontier, in preparation for an attack upon Bulgaria by land and sea. This will not be precipitated until a definite declaration of Rumanian's intention has been made.

Bulgarians Retire.

The Bulgarians have abandoned their attack on Monastir and are concentrating their forces for an effort to cope with the big advance being carried out along the Vardar River by the Franco-British forces.

Rumania's Attitude.

A reassuring circumstance is that

U. S. CONSUL COLE MAY QUIT HERE

PAPER FROM HIS HOME STATE CONTAINS INTERVIEW WITH HIM

He Speaks Of The Prospects Of Prince Rupert And Canada's Loyalty.

The United States consul at Prince Rupert, who is now on a visit in his old state, is likely to quit the service of his country and resume the practice of law. The following is taken from The Wheeling (West Virginia) Intelligencer, of November 18, 1915:

Hon. George C. Cole, United States Consul at Prince Rupert, British Columbia, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, and while at the Windsor met a number of personal and political friends. Mr. Cole, it will be recalled, was formerly senator from the Weston district, of which city he has been a citizen since youth.

Senator Cole talked most interestingly of conditions in the Canadian northwest, but the most important statement he made in the course of a talk with a representative of the Intelligencer was the following:

"I have it in my mind to resign from the United States Consular Service, and return to West Virginia for the practice of my profession, the law. And while I may again locate in my old town of Weston, I have thought some of coming to your city of Wheeling, where there is an opening which I consider very bright. I have always been an admirer of the progressive spirit and business enterprise of the state metropolis, and it is quite within the bounds of probabilities that I may be one of you

November While A Light Month Saw Nearly Two Million Pounds Of Fish Brought Into Port Here

The month of November is generally looked upon as a light month in the line of fishing on this coast. This year there were reasons why it might have been expected to be exceedingly light. This was the continued rough weather that prevailed for a good part of the month. In spite of this fact the record, as compiled for the month that is just closing, has been a very gratifying one, and Prince Rupert has reason to feel well satisfied with the showing that was made in the amount of fish landed in the port.

The total amount was very nearly two million pounds, most of it, of course, halibut, for at this season of the year the salmon fishing has well nigh fallen away. At a fair market price, that of five cents a pound, which is lower than has been paid for a large part of the catches to the fishermen, this amount of fish represents a value of just about $100,000.

In the fish that was landed here this month there were 1,924,500 pounds. This is not for the calendar month, but for a full month's time, beginning a few days before the close of Oct. and ending the same number of days before the close of November. Considering the weather this showing in the matter of halibut is considered by the men interested in the industry as very gratifying. It is in fact better than that, and is sufficient to show residents of this city that the fishing business is not one that will be a summer vocation alone, but it will be a calling that will be giving employment every month in the year.

During the early winter it has been the practice to haul boats out and give them a general overhauling. This will be done to some extent this year, and already there are some of the boats out of commission for this very purpose. But it is reported that with the proximity of this city to the fishing banks, this will not be practised as much as in the past. Instead, the boats will keep at work to the very fullest extent without any let up in the season.

Next to the halibut, but still very far behind it in the quantity taken, comes cod. The most of that landed here was used in a freshs or frozen state. The cod landed here was 38,400 pounds.

In the salmon line there was 5,700 pounds landed here. Flounders represented a catch of a ton. In crabs there were 1,700 pounds landed here. This made up the amount of the fish that reached this port for handling or for local consumption during the month.

THE FISHERIES' OFFICIALS.

This week the city will be visited by Messrs Cunningham and McIntyre, representing the Dominion and Provincial Governments as fisheries' experts. Their visit is for the purpose of getting information relative to any suggested changes in the regulations looking to the improving of conditions under which fishing is carried out. This visit will afford an excellent chance to present some aspects of the fishing industry that appeals specially to these waters. There are, of course, all kinds of changes advocated by local fishermen. It is only to be expected that each man wants the regulations of such a chracter that he can get most out of the industry. At the same time, evidently there are some alterations that could be made with benefit. The visit of these men will give the chance to press these requests home.

THE WESTERN CANADIAN CROP.

Ever since the middle of August The Grain Growers' Guide has been revising its crop estimates in an upward direction. It began with a preliminary forecast of 212,000,000 bushels of wheat, 257,000,000 bushels of oats, 52,000,000 bushels of barley and 6,500,000 bushels of flax. When threshing commenced and actual yields were known, The Guide, together with the rest of the west, began to realize the extent of the year's good fortune. It now puts out an estimate of 341,500,000 bushels of wheat, 330,000,000 bushels of oats, 63,000,000 bushels of barley and 7,700,000 bushels of flax making a grand total of over 742,000,000 bushels of grain from the three Prairie provinces. As The Guide says, "it is quite evident that this year's crop surpasses anything in the history of the country and that the financial returns to the country will be greater per acre than in any previous year." Western Canada is probably entering upon by far, the most prosperous period in its history—a prosperity which, it is to be hoped, will not be diverted too freely to speculative channels as in the past. The chances are that the west, like the east, has learned its lesson—until temptation arises in some new form.

WILL HEAR VIEWS ON FISHERIES

F. H. CUNNINGHAM AND D. N. McINTYRE COMING HERE

As Members Of Advisory Board They Will Confer Locally.

The opportunity of all those who have views relative to changes in connection with the fishery matters will have the opportunity this week to present them before F. H. Cunningham, the Chief Inspector of Fisheries on the coast for the Dominion Government, and D. N. McIntyre, the Deputy Minister of Fisheries for the Province of British Columbia.

Stewart Norrie, the local representative of the Dominion Fisheries, has received a message from the two officials in which they give the information that they will be here on Thursday. The message received by Mr. Norrie was as follows:

"As members of Fisheries Advisory Board, we will be in Rupert on Thursday to obtain views of all interested in fishery matters in the north, in order same may be laid before meeting which takes place Ottawa, January. Arrange for place of meeting and notify interested parties.

F. H. CUNNINGHAM,
and D. N. McINTYRE."

Mr. Norrie will make arrangements for the sitting of these two officials, so that the fishing industry and any others having representations to make, may have the opportunity to do so. Announcement will be made later with respect to the sitting.

HOW VERNON DISTRICT PROFITS FROM TIMBER

There Is A Considerable Amount Being Used Locally In That Part.

Advices to the Hon. the Minister of Lands contain some interesting particulars concerning the lumber industry in the Vernon district. While at the present time there is not much logging, the mills are preparing for a fairly large cut. The S. C. Mitchell Company are working on a 3,000,000 foot contract for flume stock, which is being shipped into the States. Several mills have concluded arrangements to buy logs from settlers this winter, and the Okanagan sawmills at Enderby have contracted for 2,000,000 feet in this way. The Nicola Valley Pine Lumber Company intends to log between two and three million feet from the Clearwater, operations to begin as soon as the snow offers facilities for hauling, while the Betterton mill will log in preparation for cutting in the spring. Other winter logging operations include those of the Summerland Lumber Company, and amount to two and a-half million feet. Mining activity has provided a better market for props, and together with a demand for railway ties, has led to numerous inquiries for timber sales. It is predicted that with improving railway facilities, and the consequent development of the mining industry, there will be an increasing use of the inland fir as tie and prop materiral.

The contracts for six million feet of snowshed timber for use on the Coquihalla branch of the Kettle Valley Railway have been recently let.

This season no fewer than four hundred thousand fruit and vegetable boxes and crates were used in the Okanagan, the greater proportion of which were manufactured locally.

in the near future."

"As to his resignation from the consular service, Mr. Cole said that he had served for ten years, and he was enough of a patriotic American to believe that ten years is long enough for anyone to remain away from his country. However, he had not as yet tendered his resignation to the State Department, and it was possible this step would not be taken for some time. If he does resign, he said, he would not return to his post in the Canadian northwest, having left the affairs of the consulate in shape for the coming of his successor.

"Before his recent transfer to Prince Rupert from Dawson, in the Yukon Territory of the British northwest, Mr. Cole had served for several years as consul at Buenos Aires, the capital city of Argentina, South America. His journey from Buenos Aires to his next post in the Yukon was a remarkable one, travelling, as he did, across the equator and through the torrid and temperate zones, and finally through the frozen north to the town of Dawson, almost within the Arctic circle.

"The Canadians are intensely patriotic and loyal to the British cause in the present world war" said Senator Cole. "In British Columbia alone there have been more than twenty thousand men enlisted, and at the front the Canadians have proved their mettle.

"Prince Rupert is destined to become a great seaport on the Canadian west coast. The recent completion of a railroad system, spanning the continent and tapping the vast grain fields of Saskatchewan and Alberta will bring an enormous tonnage of grain to the sea for re-shipment south to Seattle and San Francisco, and over the Pacific to Japan. The Japanese, by the way, seem to be raising their standard of living, for while while they formerly subsisted almost on rice, they now consume great quantities of wheat, most of which is imported from America.

"With reference to the political situation the Senator expressed the opinion that the nation and the state of West Virginia would be carried by the Republican party."

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS.

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Applications for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only; but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 per acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

By persistent experimenting I have now evolved a system of heating two rooms in a residence with your kitchen range, besides supplying hot water for domestic uses, regardless of the position of the range boiler. By the turning of one valve you turn your stove into a house heating system. I am now trying to improvise a thermostic automatic valve which will do away with the handling of any valves.
