PREMIER ASQUITH ASKS FOR MILLION MORE MEN

TO WIN WAR MUST HAVE MEN, MUNITIONS, ECONOMY

VARNA CAPTURED BY RUSSIA FROM BULGARIANS

CAMPAIGN IN WEST HAMPERED BY BAD WEATHER

Premier Asquith Asks For Million More Men In The House

London, Dec. 21. — Premier Asquith, today in the House of Commons, asked for a million more men.

He praised those responsible for the removal of the troops in the Anzac and the Suvla Bay zones. The Premier, in the course of his speech, said that in order to win the war an adequate number of trained men, an increasing supply of munitions and strict economy of all resources is needed in the Empire.

In Gallipoli.

Operations by the British in the other sectors of the Gallipoli Peninsula are still being conducted.

Transports are now arriving in the Aegean Sea. The troops from the Dardanelles will either reinforce the garrison at Saloniki or will attempt a flanking movement on the enemy from Kavala.

Operations On Suez.

It is announced that British preparations for the protection of the Suez Canal have been rendered complex by the Germans having sent a fleet of aeroplanes from Belgium to prevent the British from making an aerial reconnaissance.

The Germans and British in the canal zone have engaged in forty-four aerial fights, resulting in the loss of two German aeroplanes and one British.

Rushing Railway.

The Turko-German threat against Egypt is becoming more grave daily in the belief of military men. The construction of a railway line from Damascus to the Egyptian frontier has been pushed with extraordinary speed, it is stated, and it is feared that it will be finished by Feb. 1, there being only 50 miles more of track to lay before the Sinai Peninsula is reached. This railway, which has double tracks, is considered by military men to permit of a concentration of half a million men in one month, together with the necessary supplies and ammunition at the Egyptian frontier.

About 300,000 Ottoman troops, commanded and drilled by German officers, already have been concentrated between Alessandretta, Aleppo and Homs, it is stated. Army engineers are laying miles of tubes for carrying drinking water across the desert, and also are providing material for the construction of bridges with which to cross the Suez Canal.

Turko-German emissaries are said to be urging the Senussi to attack Egypt from the west, while an attempt also is being made to induce the Abyssinians to march into Sudan. German officers are reported to be acting as propagandists, organizers and military instructors.

Capt. Brandt Will Arrive On The Next Boat To Take Charge.

The drilling of the men of the local company of the 102nd Regiment will start at once. The men are very comfortable in the temporary quarters which have been fitted up on Second Avenue, in the premises formerly used as Little's Pool Room. About twenty men are already enrolled and are making themselves at home in the quarters. Drilling will start today.

Capt. Scharsmidt left yesterday morning for the south. Lieut. Carss has been left in charge, awaiting the arrival by the next steamer of Capt. Brandt, of this city, who has been taking his course in the south. Lieut. Robt. Stalker is orderly room officer here. Ald. Thomas Maitland is acting sergeant, pending the full organization of the company. Constable Leese of the Provincial Police force, who has enlisted is acting corporal. WEATHER IS BAD AT THE FRONT

MAJOR PECK WRITES TO GEORGE W. MORROW FROM THE TRENCHES

Strange Confusion Of Weather Conditions Now Prevail There.

In a letter received from the trenches, from Major C. W. Peck, he speaks of the disagreeable weather that is prevailing there, and a longing to have the conditions that prevail in Prince Rupert again is expressed. The letter was sent to G. W. Morrow. The major says that rain, snow, slush and freezing all mixed up together are the conditions under which they are existing at the present time.

There is heavy cannonading almost continuously, and this is taking its toll. The men from here, he says, are all well for the most part.

Blue Grouse Mountain Property May Soon Be Shipping Ore Here

There is every reason for expecting that another property other than the Rocher de Boule will be shipping ore this way to the smelters before very long. A group of claims on Blue Grouse Mountain, in the interior, is taking shape very fast towards putting it into the shipping class.

The group of claims is that held by the Cassiar Copper Crown Mining Company. The property was recently turned over by the original owners to a strong syndicate representing large American capital, and it is the intention of the new owners to put the mine in first class shape for turning out ore in paying quantity, as it is expected the property is capable of doing.

The original owners were Charles Barrett, well known in the interior, Joseph Bussinger, Samuel Bush and Louis Schorn. These men carried on development work sufficient to prove that the property was one of great promise. A shaft was sunk for a depth of 60 feet with the body ever increasing in its dimensions. The ore is a copper one with gold values of sufficient amount to pay for the treating it is expected.

The new buyers were interested in the property by R. P. Trimble, of Portland. With him are associated Mr. Anderson, who was formerly superintendent of the Tacoma smelter, and J. P. Miller, who was employed as an expert by the Guggenheim interests for a long time.

Upon acquiring the property the contract was let for the sinking of 100 feet additional on the lead. Water interfered with this and the work was suspended awaiting the examination by an expert of the company. It is anticipated that the work will be started up in the spring at least on a large scale and the property put in a position to ship to the smelter. It is situated only about three miles from the railway and can be served by an aerial tram line very satisfactorily. The ore, which in some parts runs over 25 per cent. copper, will stand shipping quite as well as the ore found at the Rocher de Boule mine. It is anticipated that this may in the very near future become another of the shipping mines of the interior.

Mr. Bussinger, one of the original owners, is in the city at the present time. He has been all over the American northwest in the mining game. He has been through the Yukon and Alaska and is convinced after spending a few years in this section of the continent that there is nothing to beat it on the continent. He says that the mining alone will make this a most important country. The property that he was interested in, referred to above, was too great to be handled without a very large amount of money. That is the reason why he sold. It is now in the hands of men who can get the capital to make it a paying mine, and that at an early date.

Varna Is Captured From Bulgarians By Russian Forces

London, Dec. 21.&—The Chronicle reports the capture of Varna, which is the Bulgarian's chief port on the Black Sea, by the Russians.

The report says that in the bombardment by the Russian force the Bulgarian guns were silenced. They laid the town in ruins, the garrison suffering heavily. The Russians then landed a body of infantry and artillery without loss, in sufficient force to hold the town against any Bulgarian attack.

Conference In Italy.

Rome, Dec. 21.—King Peter, of Serbia, and King Nicholas, of Montenegro, are on their way to Italy.

The Teuton forces in Serbia are reported to be working towards Albania to offset the Italian occupation of that country.

A Serbian army, 100,000 strong, is at Durazzo and is being reinforced daily by numbers of stragglers who are coming in.

The people of Albania are sharing their food with the Serbian refugees who have fled into that country before the German invaders.

LIMITED HOURS IN WHICH SOLDIERS MAY BUY INTOXICANTS

According to a district order issued by Col. Duff-Stuart, commanding the 23rd Infantry Brigade, which includes this post, the time during which liquor may be served soldiers has been limited. The order says:

"Between the hours of 9:30 p.m. and 12 noon, all bars, saloons and drinking places where intoxicating liquors are retailed are placed out of bounds for all troops in the district. This applies to all ranks."

WEATHER AGAINST FIGHTING IN FRANCE

SOME ARTILLERY ACTIONS HAVE BEEN IN PROGRESS IN DIFFERENT PARTS

Advantages Were With The Allies In The Fighting That Took Place.

Paris, Dec. 21.—An official report says bad weather has hampered operations along the greater part of the front.

In Belgium, between Soissons and Rheims, our artillery has bombarded the communicating trenches and disposed of the convoys of the enemy.

In Champagne the German works at Butte du Mesnil were bombarded by a destructive fire on the enemy's salient at Riodpt Height. This gave good results.

In the Vosges a strong a[illegible] our troops was delievered a[illegible] tillery preparation had permitted us to occupy an important part of the enemy's works. We made a number of prisoners.

A Belgian official report says an artillery action on both sides, of a somewhat violent character, took place along the Yser front. Our batteries bombarded the German works at Dixmude, erected on the dyke on the Yser. We completely destroyed by our shells the enemy's cantonments at Essen. Clericken has been vigorously cannonaded.

PARTY PLEDGES.

In his speech at Montreal, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said: "If there is one spectacle more demoralizing than another it is to see a party making promises once it is elected to office." The ghost of the Liberal Convention of 1893 must have paled at this statement, says the Toronto News. Whatever may be the personal qualities of the Liberal leader he has a stock of broken pledges to his credit such as perhaps no other statesman ever accumulated. (1) He was pledged to reduce debt and expenditure. These were greatly increased during his long Administration. (2) He had made many protests against subsidies to railways. During his term of office at least $350,000,000 in cash and credit were bestowed upon private railway builders. (3) He was pledged to eliminate the principle of protection from the tariff. He maintained protectionist duties hardly lower than those which Conservative Governments had established. (4) He was pledged to reform the Senate. During all his term of office not a single appointment was made save for strictly partisan reasons. (5) He was pledged against offers of public works in order to influence constituencies in favor of the Government. There never was such a flagarant nationwide exhibition of public bribery as in the campaign of 1908. In 60 per cent. of the constituencies the Liberal candidates directly pledged themselves to secure cash from the treasury for local objects if they were returned. (6) He opposed Federal action to compel restoration of Separate Schools in Manitoba. He imposed Separate Schools on Alberta and Saskatchewan. For natural increases in debt and expenditure he should not be held to account. For failure to respect pledges that he was able to redeem, he should be condemned. It is curious that a statesman should so unequivocally condemn himself as did Sir Wilfrid Laurier in his speech at Montreal.

B. C. EGGS ARE QUITE EQUAL TO PRAIRIE ONES

Experiments Conducted By The Department At Victoria Proved This.

The following letter is self explanatory:

To the Editor,—

Statements having been made that eggs produced in this Province, particularly at the Coast, were inferior to prairie eggs for cold storage purposes, the writer was authorized by the Executive of the British Columbia Poultry Association to conduct experiments with both kinds of eggs this past season to test this. Eggs were secured from a government farm on the prairies and also from the Cowichan district. Both lots were laid during the same period and all were infertile. After being placed in cold storage in Vancouver for a period of five and a half months, they were taken out, carefully examined by means of candling, and some were given to various persons, who cooked and tasted both kinds. No information was given out as to where the eggs were produced. The consensus of opinion was unanimously in favor of the local eggs, as regards flavor, taste and "set-up." The eastern eggs were much stronger in flavor and contained a larger proportion of watery contents when candled. The writer considers that there is no ground whatever for the assertion that British Columbia eggs are inferior for cold storage purposes, and ventures to state that local infertile eggs produced in the spring can more than hold their own against the best produced outside the Province.

Yours truly,
J. R. TERRY,
Sec.-Treas., B. C. Poultry Association.
