BRITISH LOSS IN NAVAL BATTLE WAS VERY LIGHT

Allies Recapture Trenches Lost

The Movement In Belgium Seems to Be Still Against Kaiser's Forces Which Are Repulsed at All Points

Paris, Dec. 11.—An official notice issued here says that in the region of Ypres a very violent German attack has been repulsed. In that same region those of our trenches which were reported in the official communication this afternoon as having been taken by the Germans have been recaptured by us.

Upon the rest of the front there is nothing important to report.

DISPUTE OVER LAND TRANSACTION

CASE OF BURROWES VS. HARRISON OPENED YESTERDAY IN SUPREME COURT.

Question Involved Is One of Getting in on the "Ground Floor."

In the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon Mr. Justice Clement heard the first of the evidence in the case of Burrowes vs. Harrison. This is a case in which the plaintiff, Mrs. G. Burrowes, seeks to recover what she contends is her share in a transaction connected with the disposing of what is now known as the Tyee Park property. She claims that she should share in the profits of those who disposed of the land to the company formed instead of ranking as a member of the company only. The plaintiff is represented by W. E. Williams, while the defendant, Samuel Harrison, is represented by W. E. Fisher and Fred Peters, K.C.

Evidence taken in examination for discovery by Mr. Harrison was put in by Mr. Williams.

R. J. G. Burrowes was the first witness. He testified that in the spring of 1911 he had met Mr. Harrison on the street and told him about this proposition of land on the Skeena on the line of the G.T.P. Witness had said he was not able to put any money in it but Mrs. Burrowes might do it. Mr. Harrison had asked if he could borrow some money. He said he would pay good interest, 5 per cent. per month, and only wanted it for a month. Mrs. Burrowes had lent the $300. Witness took the cheque to Mr. Harrison.

Mr. Harrison later came to the house and in his presence advised Mrs. Burrowes to put money in it. Mr. Harrison said he would have liked to have handled it himself. He was only going to take a few in. Harrison said that if she put $400 in she would come in on the ground floor and she would share with him. Witness advised her to go in and Mrs. Burrowes offered to give the cheque then Mr. Harrison said it was Saturday and to leave it until Monday. Mrs. Burrowes made out the cheque and witness took it down to Harrison's office and gave it to him. Witness asked for a receipt, but defendant said the cheque was a receipt. In August, 1911, Mrs. Burrowes got a receipt. It was dated May 1. The receipt stated it was for 40 fully paid up shares for the taking up of land in the McNeill Valley. That was the first he heard of a company. He thought this referred to Harrison, Mrs. Burrowes and a few friends of Mr. Harrison that were spoken of as going in.

In September, 1913, he received certificates for the shares in the McNeill Valley Land Syndicate. In October a notice of a meeting for November 18 was issued. The meeting was held on December 3. The money was Mrs. Burrowes' own. He attended the meeting on behalf of Mrs. Burrowes.

At the meeting there was a discussion about a commission. Witness acted as secretary of the meeting and he wrote to London with respect to the commission. He had then discovered that there were a number of promotion shares among Harrison, Gamble and Miller. He asked why Mrs. Burrowes had none of these. Mr. Harrison said they were for promotion.

In conversation with Mr. Miller over the letter written by witness to London, Miller said he came in after Mrs. Burrowes, and further he thought she was entitled to promotion shares. About the end of the year the matter was put in a lawyer's hands for investigation.

Cross-examined by Mr. Peters, witness was questioned as to what witness had done of late years. It was stated that he had taken photos of this valley itself and was paid for by a cheque of the syndicate.

During the questioning His Lordship interjected, "I suppose the pictures did not show 'the niggers in the fence' there."

Witness did not know of Mrs. Burrowes being offered double her money for the shares she held.

Witness did not know at the time of the first conversation how much

A New Butcher Shop.

A new butcher shop opens in the city this morning, when Harry Atkins starts off in this line, having taken over a part of the store occupied by Stalker & Wells for that purpose. He is an experienced dealer and has made arrangements for a specially well selected stock for the new store. He will give his personal attention to the business and hopes by that means to warrant a good line of trade.

ACQUITTED ON STEALING CHARGE

LILY HARRIS WAS FOUND NOT GUILTY BY THE JURY YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

She Was Forthwith Given Her Liberty—Money Will Be Returned to Her.

Yesterday afternoon the case of Rex vs. Harris was concluded in the Assize Court, when the jury found the accused, Lily Harris, charged with stealing about $700 from another woman named Daisy Lee, not guilty of the offense.

When court resumed in the afternoon His Lordship proceeded to charge the jury.

His Lordship said that the case required few remarks from him. It was a question purely of fact. It was a question for the jury to decide which story was to be believed. In approaching the evidence of prosti-

CLAIMS MADE BY RED CROSS SOCIETY

WHAT THE ORGANIZATION IS DOING TO ALLEVIATE SUFFERING.

Statement Issued by Authority of the Canadian End of the Service.

In the multiplicity of appeals now before the people of Canada, there is one which is unique in its purpose and therefore also in its claims.

The Red Cross Society exists to collect funds and material and to provide assistance to the sick and wounded in time of war, supplementary to that provided by the official naval and medical departments.

There is no need to enlarge upon the claims of the Red Cross or to multiply instances of its usefulness. The Good Samaritan of the battlefield, it sees a neighbor in every sick or wounded man, binds up his wounds and takes care of him.

One instance of the sort of work done by the Red Cross Society comes to hand from Lady Perrott, a member of the Joint War Committee of the Red Cross and St. John's Ambulance Society in London. At 7 o'clock one evening a telephone message came in to the Red Cross office from the British Consul at a French seaport, saying that seven hundred wounded men were waiting there to cross the Channel to an English Hospital next day, and that there were no blankets to cover them. In two hours the Red Cross Society shipped the necessary blankets and they reached France in time to be used for the wounded men

This story shows both the "emergency" nature of Red Cross work and also answers the oft-repeated question, "Why does the Red Cross need warm clothing and knitted goods?"

MORRIS WAS SENTENCED TO THREE YEAR TERM

Man Convicted Of Wounding With Intent To Do Bodily Harm---Sentenced Pronounced At The Close of Assizes By Mr. Justice Clement

The criminal assizes closed yesterday afternoon when Sam Morris, the negro convicted at the opening of the court of shooting with intent to do grievous bodily harm, was sentenced by Mr. Justice Clement to three years in the penitentiary. Morris had had a dispute over the allowance kept back for board by a G.T.P. foreman for whom he was working. He stole a revolver from the camp and left. When later he was overtaken and came back he had fired several shots, inflicting wounds in the breast, the arm and the leg. He was found guilty of shooting with intent.

Remanded until the close of the assizes, he came before the court yesterday afternoon to receive his sentence.

Speaking on his behalf, Alex Manson, who had been counsel for the convict, pleaded that the man had shown no evidence of being a bad man. He did not believe he had any criminal intent. He therefore pleaded that the sentence of the judge should be corrective rather than punitive.

His Lordship acknowledged the able plea for the prisoner, who had nothing to say himself. He explained to Morris that it was by the greatest good fortune that he was not up for murder rather than for shooting. He sentenced him to three years in the penitentiary.

The Germans Have Been Forced To Give Way Before Fierce Attacks Of the Russians--Conflict Continues

Petrograd, Dec. 11.—In an official statement issued it is announced that in the direction of Mlawa the Germans on December 10 kept up a strong offensive action throughout the whole day and the night, but we succeeded in repulsing them.

Our troops finally took the offensive and gave chase to three German columns which in some places retreated in disorder.

In the region north of Lowicz the enemy made some fierce attacks on the night of December 9-10. Throughout the whole following day we repulsed these attacks and inflicted enormous losses on the Germans. We have repelled all the seven attacks made during a murderous fire in the region south of Cracow on December 10. We are still continuing our offensive attitude. Stern resistance has been offered by the Germans.

We have captured several guns and mitrailleuses, and as many as 2,000 prisoners.

There is no important change on the remainder of the front.

CLAIMS MADE.

The wounded are not always treated in steam-heated wards. They are treated in tents and in all kinds of improvised hospitals. They have to be transferred from the battlefield to the hospital, and from hospital to hospital by stretcher, motor, train or ship. Their needs cannot be measured by the ordinary requirements of hospital patients, and we rely upon the Canadian people to respond liberally to our appeal for funds and material to carry on this work on the broadest possible interpretation of its sphere of action.

What Are the Needs of the Society?

We need funds to purchase regular surgical and medical supplies of all kinds, including the motor ambulances which are doing such noble work in carrying the wounded as quickly and painlessly as possible to the hospitals. Each of them costs about $2,000, according to the approved War Office pattern. Money is also needed to fill the requests for blankets, underwear, sweaters and overcoats which are coming in from our commissioner in London. These are garments which cannot be made by the women of the country. Subscriptions will be gratefully received by the treasurers of local and provincial branches or at 77 King St. East, Toronto.

But from the women we ask in practically unlimited quantities good woolen socks in sizes 10½, 11, and 11½; flannel shirts, pyjamas, dressing gowns, cotton night shirts, and all the garments specified in "Suggestions for Work" issued by the head office and supplied to all applicants free of charge. Such supplies should be sent to local or provincial branches or to the Canadian headquarters, 77 King Street, East, Toronto.

What Has the Canadian Red Cross Society Already Done?

To the British Red Cross Society we have sent a cash donation of $50,000, besides $25,000 for the purchase of twelve motor ambulances. We have shipped to England in care of our Red Cross Commissioner, Colonel Hodgetts, 50,000 bandages, 20,000 blankets, 17,000 pillows, 40,000 shirts, 35,000 socks, and some 24,000 other knitted garments. Also 900 yards rubber sheeting, crutches, hot water bottles and other medical and surgical supplies. Also invalid foods, such as biscuits, arrowroot, cereals, oxo cubes, preserves, etc., and such "comforts" for the convalescents as tobacco, cigarettes, games, books, stationery

In addition to the above a motor hospital kitchen and five motor ambulances have been provided through the generosity of Major Leonard, and the women of Calgary have contributed a sixth at a cost of $2,500. We equipped with Red Cross supplies the five hospitals attached to the first contingent, and some of these have been used on Salisbury Plain.

The committee has also voted the sum of $10,000 for the equipment of a hospital in the private house of Waldorf Astor, Jr., at Clieveden on the Thames. Her Royal Highness, the Duchess of Connaught, has graciously permitted this hospital to be called "The Duchess of Connaught Canadian Red Cross Hospital," and it is to be staffed by Canadians. Grants of money and supplies will also be made from time to time to other hospitals in which Canadians are specially interested, such as the "Queen's Canadian Military Hospital" at Shornecliffe. We are devoting special attention to the Franco-Canadian Hospital at Dinart, Normandy, which was equipped at the expense of the Canadian Government, and is being run by the French government. Our commissioner has been instructed to forward medical supplies and invalid comforts for this hospital.

For the support of such work as this we appeal confidently to the Canadian people.

tutes they should not, he thought, treat them as a class to be discredited. Their evidence might be treated as other witnesses'. The jury would have to take into account the fact of financial gain influncing the evidence. There had been no attempt made to discredit the evidence of the Lee woman that she lost the $700. While a person might not swear to an individual bill, it was possible for one to swear to a roll of bills; the association creating the reason for identification. The fact that the magistrate did not commit the woman for trial should have no bearing because the Crown had at this trial introduced some very cogent evidence. As to her story of reformation the jury might have their own opinion in view of the fact that she had proposed to follow her illicit life with a man in Vancouver if he had come forth. They might be reminded of the couplet, "When the devil was sick, the devil a monk would be; when the devil was well the devil a monk was he."

The jury was out for some time before returning with a verdict of not guilty. His Lordship thereupon discharged the accused, who left the court-room in company with the officers of the Salvation Army with whom she has been making her home for some weeks pending the trial. She was quite overwrought as she reached the adjoining room and required attention before she was able to leave the building.

DISCUSSED.

and various questions were asked as the lecture proceeded.

Rev. Canon Rix in his introductory remarks referred to the good services that Mr. Tomlinson had given to the Horticultural Society.

Mr. Tomlinson said that muskeg was a semi-decomposed peat. Coal ashes was useful with muskeg. Lime also was very useful. Drainage was very essential. The closed drains were the best. The different kinds of drains were referred to. From his observation many were going too deep with their drains. About 3 to 4 feet was deep enough for the main drain. The laterals should not be as deep, a foot and a half being deep enough in some cases.

In reply to a question he said a wooden drain should have a fall of at least 6 inches in 100 feet. Without a hard bottom he would not advise tile draining.

The use of lime was advocated. After the land was drained and dry season came it was possible to burn part of the moss. This provided the ash that was necessary. Lime is needed for nearly all land. It unlocked plant food. It sweetens the muskeg. With potash it gave good results. The best form of lime to use was the common builders' lime. It was in a concentrated form. It acts on the acid of the soil and neutralizes it. Water slacked lime served the best. The lime will increase by about 100 per cent. in the slacking. He advocated from 1,000 pounds to 2,000 pounds to the acre.

Lime should be put on in the fall to get the best results. It should not be put on at the time the fertilizer is being used. Sow the fertilizer in the spring.

It would not hurt to use lime every year on muskeg for a time, said Mr. Tomlinson, in reply to a question.

Coal ashes would take part of the place of coal. Wood ashes were very valuable on muskeg. The putting of lime and ashes in the soil brought about a chemical action and also bacterial action, which was of benefit.

The bacteria in the muskeg was useless as plant food. It was necessary to stimulate another bacterial development. The best way to apply lime was by grinding, but it was too laborious usually to be accomplished.

At Sitka Prof. Jorgenson had had no results on part of the land without lime. In Prince Rupert they succeeded better.

Sand was of great value on the muskeg. He also advised bringing a little of the subsoil, the clay, each year into mixture with the muskeg.

The use of barnyard manure and various other fertilizers was dealt with by the speaker and some very interesting points were raised by those present.

MR. HARRY HANSON,
"The Reliable Plumber," Prince Rupert, B.C.:

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in certifying to the excellent work of your water and heating system that you installed in our parsonage and that after six months of operation through the winter months it has given every satisfaction.

The system heats a thirty-gallon tank of water to boiling temperature in one hour after the fire has been started; it in no way interferes with the oven for baking purposes. In addition to this the wall radiator which you placed in dining room and connected with the range boiler has given us splendid satisfaction, supplying us with ample heating throughout the winter, saving us the cost of a stove and fuel. I most heartily testify to the satisfaction and efficiency of your system and gladly recommend it.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) (REV.) J. F. DIMMICK.

Rexall TRADE MARK

The Rexall Stores of Canada

CONTRIBUTE TO

The Canadian Patriotic Fund

THE Rexall Stores of Canada, 400 of the leading Drug Stores in Canada have unanimously agreed to contribute to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, FIVE PER CENT. of their total purchases of all Rexall Toilet Goods, Rexall Remedies and other merchandise manufactured or sold by he United Drug Company, Limited, Toronto, from October 15th o December 31st, 1914.

This action of the Rexall Drug Stores of Canada has been undertaken co-operatively, because as a co-operative organization, they realize how much more can be done unitedly than individually, and it has been taken for two reasons—to fulfill a humane duty in raising a fund for the relief work of the Canadian Patriotic Organization, and a patriotic duty in an endeavor to keep a large staff of Canadian employees busy.

The 400 Rexall Stores of Canada make an appeal to your sympathy and support in their doubly worthy cause for increasing the funds of th Canadian Patriotic Organization and for the support o Canadian workmen because:—The fund that would be raised on the basis of last year's business can be tremendously increased if every man and woman in Canada will help a little by the simple process of purchasing Rexall Goods at the Rexall Stores.

No need to give space in this announcement to emphasize the high quality of Rexall Toilet and Medicinal goods. Sufficient to say that 7,00 of the leading Drug Stores in Canada, Great Britain, and the United States place their personal and collective reputations behind them; that the public in these countries endorse them to the extent of several million dollars worth of purchases a year.

Better goods are not made, and you take no risk in buying, for every Rexall Store will return you your money if any Rexall Product is not entirely satisfactory and do it, too, without the slightest objection.

There's a full list of Rexall products waiting for you at the Rexall Store in your town.

Ask for it—kindly pass he word along to your friends. It is the collective purchases of all that will make this Rexall Store Fund for the Canadian Patriotic Organization work a big one.

The Fund will be collecte from each Rexall Store in Canada by the United Drug Company, Limited, Toronto, and will be paid by them direct to the officers of the Canadian Patriotic Organization, and the amount so collected will be published in this paper when paid over.

REXALL GOODS ARE MADE IN CANADA and you can procure them in your town only from land there was involved. He did not know how much money was being involved. Mrs. Burrowes accepted the receipts, trusting Mr. Harrison.

The letter he wrote to London as explained was to Mr. Miller in London. The letter was to try to induce the London people to pay Harrison & Gamble commission rather than pay for expenses for the purchase of land. He thought that five per cent. was quoted. He never saw any reply to the letter. The letter was written at the dictation of Mr. Harrison, Mr. Gamble, Mr. Warton and Mr. Miller. Witness did not originate it.

In reply to Mr. Williams witness said he understood the commission would be for selling land in Tyee Park.

Mrs. Burrowes, the plaintiff, corroborated the evidence of her husband as to the negotiations. Mr. Harrison said this was a sure thing. She would make ten times as much as she would out of investments in Prince Rupert real estate. She said Mr. Harrison said that if she came in she would stand on the same ground as himself.

The case was still in progress when the court adjourned in the evening.
