THE ALLIES MADE ADVANCE IN BELGIUM

MORE AUSTRIANS TAKEN PRISONERS BY RUSSIANS

BRITAIN HAS NOW NAMED A SULTAN OF EGYPT

London, Dec. 18.--It is officially announced that Prince Hussein Kemal has been appointed to succeed the Khedive of Egypt. Prince Hussein Kemal will take the title of Sultan of Egypt. Egypt will now be under the protectorate of the British.

Russians Have Made Further Prisoners In The Austrian Forces

Petrograd, Dec. 18.—An official statement says that on the left bank of the Vistula there has almost been a complete lull on nearly all the fronts. Repeated attacks have been made by the enemy in the course of the past few days. All of these attacks have been repulsed.

These moves were made in connection with the advance on the part of our troops towards the Bzura River.

In view of the fact that the Austrians are continually receiving reinforcements in the Carpathians we have thought fit to rearrange the positions of some of our armies. We checked an offensive movement of the enemy yesterday in Western Galicia on the front between Sanck and Lisko. We succeeded in our offensive move and have captured three thousand prisoners together with several guns and mitrailleuses.

SPECIAL EXERCISES HELD IN MANY CLASS ROOMS BY THE SCHOLARS.

A Pleasing Feature Was a Presentation to Principal Hunter by the Pupils in His Room.

The Public schools of the city closed yesterday for the Christmas holidays. In many of the rooms special exercises were held to which the parents were invited and programmes given which were of an excellent order.

The evening before the pupils in Principal Hunter's room held an entertainment to which a number of the High School pupils also were invited. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation to the principal of a very valuable pocket knife.

NEW MAGAZINE RATE.

New Postage Rate on Magazines From United Kingdom to Canada Is Arranged.

Ottawa, Dec. 15.—Arrangements have been completed between the British and Canadian governments for a new postage rate on newspapers, magazines and trade journals, to go into effect on January 1. By the application of the new scale there will be an increase of half a cent on the postage charged on packets weighing 6 ounces and 1 pound, but at the same time there will be a reduction of half a cent on all packets weighing between one pound and four and a half pounds.

The present arrangements, which concludes on December 31, was first concluded in 1907. Under this arrangement Canada had to pay the whole of the sea conveyance from the United Kingdom to Canada. However, this was considered hardly fair, and Hon. L. P. Pelletier opened negotiations with the British authorities for a new plan which would divide the expense. The old arrangement ran out on July 1, but was left in force for another six months, running out the end of this month.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION GOOD

HON. W. T. WHITE REVIEWED THE POSITION BEFORE MONTREAL MEN.

Canada Has Stood the Shock Well Says That Minister Recently.

The Hon. W. T. White, Canada's minister of finance, delivered a vigorous speech on Canada's finances and trade and commerce at the Canadian Club luncheon in Montreal. Among the audience that attended the banquet were Mr. H. V. Meredith, president, and Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, general manager of the Bank of Montreal; Sir Melbourne Tait, three of the Montreal's Board of Control, Messrs. Herbert, Macdonald and Ainey, and representatives of many other financial interests.

In opening his address Hon. Mr. White said that "with the war engrossing from day to day the interest of the nation, it may appear an act of temerity to invite your attention to such prosaic commonplaces as trade and finance.

To Take Bearings.

"But," he said, "it has occurred to me that after four months' experience of the struggle, after having passed through the period of acute shock and dislocation, it might be well to take our bearings, to consider how Canada has stood the stress and strain, both individually and in comparison or contrast with other nations. Such a review may be useful by reason of the encouragement it affords us, or, if not encouraging, then owing to the knowledge we shall obtain which we may be able to turn to good account for our future guidance."

The finance minister first dealt with the circumstances incident and concurrent with the outbreak of war in August last.

Finance Prostrated.

"The appalling rapidity of its development, the unprecedented magnitude of the event which has locked half the human race in a life and death struggle, threw the civilized world into a panic without parallel in history," he said. International finance was prostrated. Exchange suffered collapse. The bourses and stock exchanges of the world have closed. Confidence, upon which the financial structure rests, was at an

SUSPENDED BANK OF VANCOUVER

THE DEPOSITORS WILL RECEIVE IN FULL THE AMOUNT DUE TO THEM.

Upsetting of Business Has Had injurious Effect Upon the Institution.

The Bank of Vancouver has been forced to suspend payment.

The directors, in a statement issued a few days ago, attribute the suspension to three causes—damaging rumors, causing loss of public confidence; inability of the bank to collect outstanding loans; and failure to obtain financial assistance in the crisis.

The statement follows:

"The directors of the Bank of Vancouver regret very keenly to be obliged to announce that the institution has been compelled to suspend payment. This decision was reached at a meeting of the board held yesterday afternoon, and was made necessary for the following reasons:

"1st. Widespread and damaging rumors, resulting in the loss of public confidence and heavy withdrawals of deposits.

"2nd. Inability of the bank to quickly collect outstanding loans under present unprecedented conditions.

"3rd. Failure to obtain financial assistance in the crisis.

"Shook Public Confidence."

"Since the failure of the Dominion Trust Company, which shook public confidence, the Bank of Vancouver has failed to receive even a reasonable measure of support. Without doubt this is largely attributable to the damaging rumors which have been persistently circulated regarding the bank during the past month or two. To illustrate the nature of these rumors, it can be stated that many depositors of the bank and others interested in its welfare have been advised—some of them anonymously—to discontinue their business with the institution. The direct effect of these rumors caused very heavy withdrawals of deposits which an institution much stronger than the Bank of Vancouver could not have continued to meet because of the impossibility readily to collect loans under prevailing conditions, notwithstanding the fact that vigorous and persistent efforts were made

British Advanced Along The Line In Belgian Territory

Paris, Dec. 18.—There is an official statement that we have gained some ground along the towns northeast of Nieuport. We repulsed two strong counter-attacks by the enemy at the north road between Ypres and Memin.

The British troops have advanced in the region of Armentieres. Our artillery has destroyed two heavy batteries in the region of Verdun. There is nothing of importance to report in other parts of the front.

TRAINING OF SECOND CONTINGENT OUTLINED

Official Statement Issued by Government Outlines What Is Being Done in This Regard.

An official statement given out by the Government summarizes and elucidates what is being done in connection with the training of the second Canadian expeditionary force and the recruiting and training of further forces for active service.

In regard to the second Expeditionary force, which will comprise one army division of some twenty-two thousand, includes three infantry brigades to be called the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Infantry brigades.

With the first contingent are the first, second, third and a part of the fourth brigades of the Second Contingent, comprising the men taken over in excess of the requirements of one army division.

The fifth brigade consists of the 21st., 22nd (French-Canadian), 24th and 26th battalions, which are mobilizing at Kingston, St. John, Quebec, Montreal, and St. John, N.B.

Second Brigade.

The Second Brigade consists of the 18th, 19th, 27th and 29th battalions which are mobilizing respectively at London, Toronto, Winnipeg, and Vancouver. In addition to these three infantry brigades of the second contingent, there are two companies of cyclists, each of three platoons

THE FINANCIAL.

"In estimating the shock sustained by trade and finance, we must bear in mind that all these events occurred within the brief period of two or three weeks," he continued. "I can liken the effect of the war upon international commerce and finance to nothing more appropriate than the thrusting of a crowbar into a machine of the most complicated and delicate mechanism, such, for example, as a printing press in full action."

Four Months' Experience.

"Taking up the situation as it is today, the Hon. Mr. White asked: "Now is it not encouraging, is it not wonderful, that after the brief period of four months, and with the war still raging with unabated fury we find conditions as they are today, confidence restored, panic allayed, trade passing across the ocean in tranquil security, the stock exchanges opening, money becoming easy, industry in all lines quickening to activity? That we enjoy this marvellous tribute to the exquisite adaptability of the financial ministry of the world to changing conditions is possible," he said, "only because of a deeper, a more potent, a more fundamental cause—the proven supremacy felt in any decisive theatre in the seven seas of the world of the British fleet." He asked what would be the position of our finance, of our trade, if attack were to be apprehended by merchant shipping from the cruisers of Germany.

"I shall not deal with the steps taken in Canada to meet the financial emergency which presented itself here as elsewhere as a formidable reality to be promptly dealt with."

Measures Efficacious.

The finance minister continued. "The measures taken are known to all. They were immediately efficacious to accomplish the purpose they were designed to serve. Since the day they were put into effect, financial conditions have been quiescent in Canada. Our banks show that they are abundantly able to care for the legitimate financial requirements of the Dominion. A period such as we have passed through is a great testing time. That our great financial institutions have emerged stronger than they were at the outbreak of the war is at once a tribute to the ability with which they are administered and the system under which they operate."

Federal Rescue.

Mr. White then referred to the new federal reserve banking system recently inaugurated in the United States. It is, he said, essentially the same as our Canadian system, the regional reserve bank corresponding with the head offices of our banks gathering up surplus funds where they are not required and mobilizing them for use where they are required. He found the adoption of the system in the United States a compliment to the flexibility of our system.

The speaker then said: "Since the outbreak of the war the banks have provided for legitimate banking requirements of the community, made advances to governments and towns to enable them to complete works under contract, provided for the payment in whole or in part of treasury bills and other short time securities maturing due abroad which but for the war would have been funded, and financed themselves from the grain crops and other products of Canadian agriculture.

Government a Bank.

"To enable them to do this the government turned itself into a Bank of England, a bank of rediscount, but such were the resources of Canadian banks that it has not been found necessary to avail of this assistance to any considerable extent.

"The financial legislation of the August session was designed to avert the effect of panics of all kinds that might be occasioned by war or otherwise. In that view it is permanent legislation to be brought into operation in case of emergency when it is necessary that the currency should be immediately enlarged to meet abnormal demands upon it. With this legislation there is no reason why there should ever be an acute money panic in Canada."

ITALY MAY SOON ENTER THE CONFLICT

To Master Adriatic and Possess Trieste and Trent Her Aim.

With a thoroughly homogenous cabinet, Premier Salandra is working feverishly for Italy's ultimate participation in the great conflict, says a despatch from Domodossola, on the Italian frontier.

"Armed neutrality, with 1,000,000 men mobilized, to the end that Italy does not lose any rights or advantages accruing to her by reason of her neutrality." This is Italy's present motto.

Reduced to their maximum terms, "Italy's advantages and rights accruing to her by reason of her neutrality," mean the redemption of the two Italian provinces of Trieste and Trent—Italy's Alsace and Lorraine—and the permanent occupation of Vallona on the Adriatic. These rights mean also the passing into Italy's possession of at least enough of the northern and eastern coast of the Adriatic to ensure that she will be mistress of that sea.

In maintaining and holding these "rights and advantages" Italy will have the solid support of the Triple Entente. That has been officially assured. It was assured even before Britain consented to supply Italy with coal and other necessities while the war is in progress.

The Triple Entente will not allow any portion of the Adriatic coast to remain in the hands of Austria which might eventually afford Germany a port on the Adriatic. The only other countries to whom this can go are Servia and Italy, and Italy does not propose that Servia get all.

Premier Had Difficulties.

Although this was the policy of Premier Salandra from the beginning of the war, a lack of harmony in his cabinet made it impossible for him to work effectively to that end. First of all, the late Marchese de San Giuliano, minister of foreign affairs, was one of the greatest supporters of Italy's alliance with Germany and Austria. He sincerely and conscientiously believed that Italy could not turn against them. Under the strain of the fight which he managed to keep up for two months he died. Premier Salandra took over his portfolio for the time.

Another obstacle in Premier Salandra's first cabinet was Gen. Grandi, minister of war. The chief of staff of the army, declaring Italy utterly unprepared for war, demanded immense sums for immediate preparation. These Premier Salandra succeeded in getting, but these sums Minister of War Grandi declined to spend. Finally he resigned, Gen. Zupelli, fully in sympathy with the premier's views, was then substituted.

But still another obstacle developed. The $200,000,000 Signor Rubini, minister of finance, was willing to give, but only on condition that it was approved in the usual bureaucratic way by a bill through Parliament. Salandra insisted that the exceptional crisis warranted the exceptional measures he insisted upon. Rubini, still objecting, resigned. The resignations of the entire cabinet were presented at the same time.

King Is Sympathetic.

Then King Victor Emanuel, evidently also in sympathy with the views of Premier Salandra, charged him to form a new cabinet. This Salandra did, and now for the first time since the outbreak of the war he is surrounded with colleagues in sympathy with his views that Italy cannot afford to see the map of Europe readjusted without the realization, at least in part, of her dreams for the past fifty years.

Salandra has at his disposal the $200,000,000 necessary for Italy's thorough preparation. The press of Italy is also demanding that the mobilization be increased. In general, however, it is not believed this will be done until the actual moment when it is up to Italy to take possession of the provinces she desires—the provinces that have been openly offered her by Russia and Britain—and hold them if necessary by force.

Italy, at the present, has 500,000 men under arms. These form the nucleus of all the units that would be engaged in a war calling for her full mobilization. They have already completed every detail of the organization, so that the final call to arms merely means the filling out numerically of these units already on a basis for war. For that reason further mobilization at the present time would only mean additional expense without any advantage.

Italy considers herself ready from now on, and she will be fully prepared, fully organized, and ready to act when the psychological moment arrives.

THE METHODIST CHURCH

Parsonage: 632 6th Ave. W.; Church: 6th Ave. and Musgrave Place. British Columbia Conference; Rev. J. F. Dimmick, Pastor.

Prince Rupert, B.C., April 9, 1914.

MR. HARRY HANSON,
"The Reliable Plumber," Prince Rupert, B.C.:

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in certifying to the excellent hot water and heating system that you installed in our parsonage and that after six months of operation through the winter months it has given every satisfaction.

The system heats a thirty-gallon tank of water to boiling temperature in one hour after the fire has been started; it in no way interferes with the oven for baking purposes. In addition to this the wall radiator which you placed in dining room and connected with the range boiler has given us splendid satisfaction, supplying us with ample heating throughou the winter, saving us the cost of a stove and fuel. I most heartily testify to the satisfaction and efficiency of your system and gladly recommend it.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) (REV.) J. F. DIMMICK.

A. T. Broderick, manager of the local branch of the Union Bank, returned to the city yesterday afternoon after three weeks' absence in Vancouver on business. He returns to Prince Rupert with the message that this city is still the city that is most to be envied as far as commercial conditions are concerned on the Pacific Coast. He says residents here may well compliment themselves upon residence in the city.

SUSPENDED BANK.

to do so. In addition to seriously affecting the bank's policy of collecting, which was being pursued, the war indefinitely postponed negotiations towards securing additional capital for the bank, and it has since been impossible to resume these negotiations.

"When it became evident that funds would be required to meet depositors' demands, every possible effort was put forth to secure assistance and it was only after exhausting all available sources that the directors reluctantly decided to suspend business.

Depositors to Be Paid.

"The directors are confident that the depositors will be paid in full as the assets are ample but in view of existing conditions some time will be required for full realization. The assets at the close of business yesterday amounted to approximately $1,098,000.00, of which about $70,000.00 is made up of cash, cheques, bank balances and deposit with the Government at Ottawa as security for note circulation. The liabilities are composed of deposits totalling $379,000.00 and notes in circulation $325,000.00. Attention is here directed to the fact that on the 30th of November, 1913, a little more than a year ago, the bank's total deposits amounted to $1,507,000.00 and notes in circulation $373,000.00. These figures are indisputable evidence of the large reduction which has taken place in the Bank's liabilities during the past year."

Board of Directors.

The authorized capital of the Bank was $2,000,000, and the subscribed capital $1,174,700. The board of directors consisted of R. P. McLennan, president; L. W. Shatford, vice-president; Hon. T. W. Patterson, M. B. Carlin, J. A. Harvey, K.C., Dr. O. Grunert, Alvo von Alvensleben, Col. J. Duff-Stuart, F. W. Jones.

It had branches at the following points: Cedar Cottage, B.C.; Collingwood East, B.C.; Fort Fraser, B.C.; Fort George, B.C.; Hazelton, B.C.; New Westminster, B.C.; Port Coquitlam, B.C.; Vancouver, B.C. The Rexall Stores of Canada

CONTRIBUTE TO

The Canadian Patriotic Fund

THE Rexall Stores of Canada, 400 of the leading Drug Stores in Canada have unanimously agreed to contribute to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, FIVE PER CENT. of their total purchases of all Rexall Toilet Goods, Rexall Remedies and other merchandise manufactured or sold by the United Drug Company, Limited, Toronto, from October 15th to December 31st, 1914.

This action of the Rexall Drug Stores of Canada has been undertaken co-operatively, because as a co-operative organization, they realize how much more can be done unitedly than individually, and it has been taken for two reasons—to fulfill a humane duty in raising a fund for the relief work of the Canadian Patriotic Organization, and a patriotic duty in an endeavor to keep a large staff of Canadian employees busy.

The 400 Rexall Stores of Canada make an appeal to your sympathy and support in their doubly worthy cause for increasing the funds of the Canadian Patriotic Organization and for the support of Canadian workmen because:—The fund that would be raised on the basis of last year's business can be tremendously increased if every man and woman in Canada will help a little by the simple process of purchasing Rexall Goods at the Rexall Stores.

No need to give space in this announcement to emphasize the high quality of Rexall Toilet and Medicinal goods. Sufficient to say that 7,000 of the leading Drug Stores in Canada, Great Britain, and the United States place their personal and collective reputations behind them; that the public in these countries endorse them to the extent of several million dollars worth of purchases a year.

Better goods are not made, and you take no risk in buying, for every Rexall Store will return you your money if any Rexall Product is not entirely satisfactory and do it, too, without the slightest objection.

There's a full list of Rexall products waiting for you at the Rexall Store in your town.

Ask for it—kindly pass the word along to your friends. It is the collective purchases of all that will make this Rexall Store Fund for the Canadian Patriotic Organization work a big one.

The Fund will be collected from each Rexall Store in Canada by the United Drug Company, Limited, Toronto, and will be paid by them direct to the officers of the Canadian Patriotic Organization, and the amount so collected will be published in this paper when paid over.

REXALL GOODS ARE MADE IN CANADA and you can procure them in your town only from
