British Columbia Forever Gives Some Interesting Facts

The Case Regarding Cameron Cove Before The Court

Advances Were Made By The Allies On Western Front

Case Relative To G.T.P. Filling Opened In The Supreme Court Today

In the Supreme Court yesterday the case of Westholme Lumber Company vs. G. T. P. opened before Mr. Justice Murphy. An early adjournment was taken yesterday afternoon in order to allow the court and all concerned to iew the place. For the plaintiff company E. C. Mayers, of Bodwell & Lawson, Victoria, appears, while for the defendand company E. P. Davis, K. C., and L. W. Patmore and H. H. Hansard appear.

In the chambers yesterday morning an application was made by E. P. Davis, K. C. He made application for security of costs. The claim was that the plaintiffs were only nominal and were appearing for another party, the Bank of Montreal.

His Lordship suggested that this was a late date to make such an application.

Mr. Davis admitted this and said he did not press for a stay of proceedings but asked for an order for the putting up of security.

Mr. Mayers opposed this, holding that the other parties were against this course. There had been an appeal to the courts on two occasions against applications to wind up the affairs of the company on the grounds that the assets of the Westholme Lumber Company far exceeded the liabilities.

Jury Selected.

The following jury was selected: Wm. Denholm, foreman, James Hampton, Harry Atkins, Harry W. Buch, Geo. Hill, Andrew W. McLean, M. H. Large, and Angelo Astoria.

Mr. Davis called attention to the fact that one witness, Davey Tate, who had been subpoenaed had not arrived. He would be here for Friday morning. Mr. Davis suggested that the court would likely wish to visit the location. It might be wise, therefore, to postpone the taking of evidence until the following morning.

Mr. Mayers pointed out that this would add to the costs.

His Lordship presumed that Mr. Davis would have to assume any retrifling. He believed the practice sponsibility for that.

Mr. Davis said this would be very was otherwise where a subpoena had been served. It was in Manittoba and he believed it would be the same here.

Mr. Mayers did not wish to inconvenience the other side but he did not feel like consenting to any delay. He had considerable documentary evidence to put in at once. This was agreed to.

Opended the Case.

Mr. Mayers on opening the case, pointed out that Sol Cameron who was really the Westholme Lumber Company, had decided that Cameron Cove was a very advantageous position for his lumber yards and proceeded to secure this site. The G. T. P. had cut off the entrance and put him to a great deal of expense and inconvenience. For five years Mr. Cameron had sought a settlement without success.

Mr. Mayers submitted evidence taken at previous examinations. This included leases obtained by the Westholme Lumber Company for lots from the Company produced by Robert A. Reddie of the Department.

Further evidence was put in by Mr. Pafmore for the defendants.

A Knotty Point.

Mr. Mayers submitted documents ers in the matter of the fill made by the Board of Railway Commissioners in the matter of thefill made by the Company at Cameron Bay and the judgment given by the Commissioners.

Mr. Davis objected to this on the ground that it was irrelavent.

ELECTION TIME REFLECTIONS

VOTE FOR HON. WILLIAM MANSON AND THE BOWSER GOVERNMENT

Pattullo it is announced by The News, does not stand for Bowserism He stands for and defends Macdonaldism. Macdonald as a member of the last legislature sat as the member for Plugging Triumphant. He sat by the grace of Scott, Pearce Jack White, Monte White and a host of Seattle pluggers. H. C. Brewster, the leader of the Liberals in B. C. has condoned all the rescality that was proved against his party and accepts Macdonald in spite of it all as his chief of staff. Macdonald will go down to defeat, however, and with him the Liberal party.

* * * *

Now the Liberals cry out for retrenchment by the government. When the McBride Government took power, however, and a policy of retrenchment was started the Liberal leaders of that day took the ground that what was wanted was a government that would expend on a more liberal scale and develop the vast resources of B. C. Anything to be opposite is the poilcy of that party.

BRITISH GAIN ON WESTERN FRONT

DECIDED ADVANTAGE WON BY THE ALLIES IN LAST DAY OR TWO

British Took 8,000 Germans in Fierce Fighting.

London, Sept. 5.—The British forces have captured one town and the suburbs of another, and there is desperate fighting along almost the entire western front, with the Germans being pushed steadily back.

In fierce fighting in De Ville wood, the British accounted for eight thousand of the German 108th division.

London, Sept. 5.—The great Anglo-French offensive on the Somme front has been resumed with renewed vigor and there is a fierce battle raging along both banks of the river. The French made important gains in the Picardy region on Sunday, taking two strong German positions and a substantial portion of the German line.

Le Forest and Clery were occupied by the French and, following up this success, our Allies captured Soyecourt and a portion of Vermandovillers, taking over five thousand prisoners.

ALLIES HAVE TAKEN FIRM GRIP UPON GREEK KINGDOM

London, Sept. 5.—The iron hand of the Allies has been firmly clamped on Greece and the government has acceded to the Allied demand for the entire control of the postal and telegraphic communications, only a few wireless stations remaining in Greek hands.

A landing party has been placed in charge of the Greek port of Piraeus and the Entente warships are within gunshot of Athens. The presence of the British and French fleet has simplified the situation and Premier Zaimis realizes that he has lost control of the country and has promised to support the Venizelos party. Even the opponents of Venizelos are rapidly throwing their influence against the Germans.

British Columbia Forever Returns To Attack After The Holidays

To the Editor:—Jock Turnbull of The News art thou dead? If not it would be of interest to the Labor man, of whom you and me, Jock, are brother members. Jock, I ask you to be honest and tell the workingman of Prince Rupert who gave them 45 cents per hour. Jock, it is a very convenient thing to have a poor memory on a witness stand; but I will refresh your memory with a few plain facts. I suppose you heard of Kelly's Cut and one Bill Lynch. The workingmen wanted 45c. an hour. Now Jock I am going to show you your company. Lynch had a revolver and he went to the famous Kelly Cut in Prince Rupert. The men wanted 45 cents an hour. The contractor to whom Lynch was a friend, refused to pay more than 37 1-2 cents an hour. Hence a rebellion.

Lynch, more forcibly than eloquent, used his revolver. Somebody got wounded from bullet wounds. I have a faint recollection that one poor laborer died. Many were injured from the revolver during Lynch's famous ascent to the face of Kelly's Cut. Now Jock I will further remind you that a horrible Tory council made 45 cents the standard rate of wages for Prince Rupert.

The members were Jack Hilditch, Vernon Smith, Geo. Kerr, Doc Clayton, Jack Kirkpatrick, S. M. Newton, D. W. Morrissey and T. D. Pattullo. Now Jock, I think you will admit the first six were Tories of that despised old school. The last two were of the honest Liberal type, the same type as Bill Lynch, Yankee J. R. Morgan and Yankee Frank Kelly, all of the sympathetic type for the poor laboring man. Pattullo and Morrissey in the interests of their contracting friends fought against the 45 cents per hour. T. D. Pattullo got disgusted with the whole situation, city, Northern B. C. and all connectel with it and fled to Victoria, complimenting the voters who elected him by refusing to represent them in a minority position in the council.

The result was that when the seat was declared vacant Hamilton Douglas, Esq., was elected making a Tory council of seven members with Morrissey, the Liberal.

Now Jock, for the shock, don't faint as do your friends when I tell you that that highly esteemed gentleman, Hon. Wm. Manson, was the presiding officer over this council. He held the distinguished position of being mayor of Prince Rupert. That Tory council established the 45 cent rate of wages for Prince Rupert in both the civic and provincial labor and northern B. C. in all public works did likewise; while Bombast Pattullo after opposing tooth and nail such an outrage upon the contractors, his friends, and when he failed left the city to sink or swim. The old pioneers, of which the Hon. Wm. Manson was one, always stood at the helm of Prince Rupert and Northern B. C. to steer it through the breakers

Now Jock this is a big enough dose for you for this time; but before closing I will ask you whether Bill Lynch's bullets to the working men of Kelly's Cut was more consoling than the Bowser Workmen's Compensation Act.

Now Jock sum up your company and state if any honest voter could conscientiously vote for one of the following bunch, instead of the Hon. Wm. Manson:—T. D. Pattullo, Bill Lynch, Yankee John R. Morgan, Yankee Frank Kelly, Brewster, the Accident, or Donald, the Plugger. Don't forget to tell the voters that every one of the names below Hon. Wm. Manson are supporters and workers of Bombast Pattullo.

Now Jock be a good boy and come with Honest Wm. Manson.

CASE RELATIVE TO G.T.P. FILLING

Mr. Mayers contended that the decision of the Board was one relating to this matter by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Mr. Davis took the ground that if Mr. Mayers was prepared to abide by this judgment as a binding one it should be so treated. It could not be taken as evidence.

Mr. Mayers took the ground that he could have taken the judgment of the Board of Railway Commissioners as binding. He did not take advantage of this, but was at liberty to use it as he proposed.

Considerable argument followed in which the powers of the Board of Railway Commissioners were gone into.

Delayed Decision.

His Lordship felt that while the Board was constituted as a court of competent jurisdiction of the contention, of Mr. Davis was correct that evidence was not always taken under oath, it could not be binding on this court.

On this point Mr. Patmore, of Patmore & Fulton, was called to give evidence as to the proceedings in Prince Rupert before the Board. He testified to the fact that an informal discussion took place without witnesses being sworn.

It was finally decided to allow this report to stand over until Mr. Tate should be heard as to the proceedings. The court adjourned at 12:45.

Afternoon Sitting.

Upon resuming at 2:30 in the afternoon, J. Y. Rochester was called to the witness stand by Mr. Mayers. He testified that in 1909 Comeron Cove was an open bay very suitable for landing material from scows, etc. He had leased lots on it.

Proceeding to get from the witness a statement that at the sale of the lease an assurance was given that he land would be open to the sea.

Mr. Davis disputed this. He held that even if it were true for argument's sake that this oral assurance was given by some one there would be no recourse as the title was concontained in the printed deed itself.

Mr. Mayers argued that the government gave the privilege to enter from the open sea, but the G. T. P. appeared as a trespasser and blocked it.

His Lordship allowed the evidence.

Witness said C. D. Rand had given an assurance at the sale that it was never the intention to have he bay other than open.

Witness testified that it was more convenient to unload lumber in Cameron Cove than on the water front.

Cross examined by Mr. Davis, witness admittted that the valuations fixed for the lots at the time were fair one. The bay was blocked up about November or December, 1909.

The court adjourned early to inspect the location.

SAYS COMPULSION IS UNNECESSARY

New Zealand Governor contradicts Statement Circulated From London

London, Sept. 4.—The colonial secretary has received a communicatio from the governor of New Zealand drawing attention to and contradicting an article in the London press and cabled abroad, which implied that the voluntary system had failed in New Zealand, and that it was, therefore, necessary to introduce compulsion. An unfavorable inference was drawn from New Zealand.

The New Zealand government desires that the statement should be strongly contradicted. They point out that the voluntary system had not failed, but as a precaution for all eventualities before parliament again meets, next year, the precaution of securing power to maintain the country's obligation to the imperial government.

Use of the powers favorable for compulsion has so far not been required. The ministers add that they have always avoided drawing comparisons between the efforts of New Zealand and other parts of the empire, but that they have no reason to fear comparison with others in the number of men dispatched under the voluntary system from New Zealand.

ALD. CASEY BEFORE LABOR WORKERS

INTERESTING SMOKER GIVEN ON MONDAY EVENING IN EMPRESS

Songs and Speeches Given Before Labor Men at Gathering.

On Monday evening a very interesting smoker was given by the labor men. In the absence of the president, S. D. Macdonald, the chair was taken by W. C. Thompson He believed that the educational side was intended to be observed on Labor Day Vast strides had been made in Canada and in the United States in the past year In Prince Rupert the car workers and the retail clerks had been organized He called on all to get in and help the labor movement out Those not in the labor ranks should take a broader view of the labor movement

Ald. Geo. Casey lamented that the speaking had not taken place on the recreation grounds. He paid a compliment to the gracious part of the president of the United States in conceding to the demands of the railway workers. He had commended himself to the civilized world in complying with the demand of the railway workers. He had shown he was one who would not subdue with the militia the men who demanded their rights. He contrasted this with President Cleveland's attitude in 1894, when federal troops were called to suppress the railway workers.

An excellent programme of songs was given. Refreshments were served also during the evening.

GREAT DOUBLE SHOW AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Last Episode in the "Graft" Serial and the Charming Comedy "Drugged Waters."

"Drugged Waters," the five-act Red Feather feature at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow, is one of the funniest films ever screened. It is a story of High Bluff Mineral Springs, which are faked by a doctor in order to attract patients. A bright youth gets up a small-pox scare and the visitors are quarantined, with the most laughable results. From start to finish this play is extremely amusing, while there is of course a love story as well.

The last episode of "Graft" is also on the bill and there will be many who will make a point of seeing the final story of this thrilling series. A good single-reel picture completes an eight-reel show which should prove very attractive.
