SOCKEYE SALMON IS STILL RUNNING IN THE NAAS

Roumania Is Now Taking An Active Part In The War

Roumania Is Moving In Support Of Russia In Austrian Territory

London, Aug. 29.—The Rumanians are seeking entry into Transylvanian plains through the Eastern Carpathian Passes towards Kronstadt, also in the direction of Hermannstadt. They are endeavoring to advance into Bukowina over the Galician borders, in the rear of the Austro-Germans who are trying to prevent the Russians from occupying the Plains of Hungary.

Declared War.

Berlin, Aug. 29.—Germany has declared war on Rumania.

Rumania's Reason.

Paris, Aug. 29.—Rumania's reasons for joining the Entente are that the Rumanian population on Austrian territory are exposed to the hazards of war and invasion. Rumania believes that her intervention will earlier terminate the fighting. United with the other powers she believes she can most efficatiously realize her national ideals. Rumania is able to furnish in the field one million men.

PUBLIC OPINION IN GREECE IS NOW CHANGING

Paris, Aug. 29.—The Bulgarian invasion of Greek territory is powerfully changing public opinion in Greece in favor of the Entente.

The Serbians have repulsed Bulgarian attacks and made considerable progress near Vetrenik. The Bulgarians occupy various localities which the Greeks abandoned west of Kavala. British monitors have bombarded enemy forces at the mouth of the Struma.

BRITISH DIRIGIBLES ARE FASTER THAN GERMAN ZEPS

London, Aug. 29.—The new British dirigibles completely outdistance the latest Zeppelins. Germany is said to be alarmed at their powers which are now better known.

BOAT OFFICERS ACTED PALLBEARERS AT FUNERAL

Capt. Magar's Memory Honored By Fellow Masters At Peace River.

W. H. Wright, of the Windsor Hotel, has received a letter from Mrs. Magar giving some further particulars to those which appeared in The Journal as to the funeral of the late Capt. Magar.

The pallbearers were all officers on the boats and appeared in their uniforms on the occasion of the funeral. They were Capt. Beusy, Capt. Martin, Capt. Smith, Capt. Height, Mr. Hutchinson, Mr. Mavis, Mr. Meikle and Mr. McDonald. Capt. Magar died on August 8 from throat trouble. He was taken to his resting place on his boat, the Northland Call.

The captain was well known on this coast. He had sailed river boats on the Fraser, the Yukon, the Skeena, the Thompson and the Peace Rivers.

PRESIDENT WILSON IN FAVOR OF EIGHT HOURS

He Will Also Prepare Industrial Disputes Act.

Washington, Aug. 29.—President Wilson has recommended congress to pass an eight hour law for railway employees.

He is in favor of a measure similar to the Canadian Disputes Act to settle labor troubles.

Toronto, Aug. 29.—Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance, stated that he would not announce the details of the coming war loan until September.

PROF. HERING ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

EXCELLENT ADDRESS GIVEN IN WESTHOLME THEATRE LAST NIGHT

Full Text Of Lecture Will Appear In The Journal Tomorrow.

The Westholme Theatre was well filled yast evening to hear the lecture given by Prof. Hering, who comes from the Mother Church of Christian Science in Boston. This is the first lecture given here by the local organization which is being formed into a church. The lecture last night was given under the auspices of the Juneau Church, in the absence of a duly organized one here.

The lecturer was introduced by Ald. Nelson. The text of the address given will appear in tomorrow's Journal, being given practically in full.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS

OBSESSION.

Sometimes a man gets an idea in his mind which so captivates him by reason of its novelty or allurement that it drives out all minor ideas and takes up absolute sovereignty. It becomes an autocratic monarchy, brooking no opposition, and insisting on its own aggrandizement at all times, in season or out of season.

Under such circumstances a man is said to have an obsession—it has been known, in vulgar parlance, to be called a bug—. The poor fellow becomes hypnotized by the idea that has taken lodgement in him.

He trots it out on every conceivable occasion. Whatever subject you may attempt to discuss wih him, he will invariably lead it round to his one absorbing interest. By it he lives, moves, and has his being.

Nor is this peculiar state confined to the individual. It is often to be found in communities and parties. For instance, we have a typical example just now in the Liberal organization. Their peculiar obsession is that they are the Heaven-sent saviours of the people of this Province from the hands of the spoilers, the said spoilers, of course, being the Conservative Government. Bowser is the modern Pharoah, the oppressor, taskmaster and King. Brewster is another Moses, called to free the people from their slavery and lead them into the promised land which flows with milk and honey.

It is very beautiful this obsession, almost sublime. And who would question the sincerity of its adherents? Their eyes are not dazzled by the prospect of power and high office. Oh dea no. He would in truth be ungenerous who would attribute to them anything but the purest of motives. Their hearts burn for the opportunity of slaying those fell dragons—Graft, Corruption and Patronage.

Do not say that they do not implicitly believe this glorious gospel At any rate they are almost persuaded that they really do, for all as they are in the iron grip of a mighty obsession. It calls for pity rather than censure.

GERMAN REPORTS ARE UNRELIABLE

WRITER ON NEW YORK TIMES SAYS THEY HAVE BECOME WORSE

Russian Reports Have Been Very Conservative, He Says.

When writers on the war in Allied countries warn their readers against accepting statements as to the progress of a campaign that come from Germans sources, there are doubtless many who think that this is done merely out of patriotic ardor and that one government's official announcements are just as likely to be true as those of another. The testimony of the very competent and clear-sighted military man who writes the daily review of the war for The New York Times is of interest an this point:

Without departing from the neutral character of these reviews, he declares, one may say a word as to the character of the official reports from the various capitals as they have developed in the last month or six weeks. This character has undergone a complete change since the early days of the war. At that time the German reports were generally exact in detail and accurate in their relation of events; more so, perhaps, than those from any other source. The German and Austrian reports of today, particularly of the more distant Russian operations, are often misleading and incorrect.

As an example, one will find one day that the Russians report an advance in a given section, while the Germans report that all attacks were repulsed. A day or wo later, without announcing a retirement, the German reports will mention fighting at the point to which he Russians asserted that they had advanced two days previously. The Russian reports on the other hand, are often too terse to be of value to one interested in details, but almost invariably reliable. If they err at all it is on the side of conservatism. The reason for this difference is, of course, that the Russians are advancing and the people at home know it. The Germans, on the other hand, have to feed the home population onreport s which, if they state anything, cannot state but half the truth.

PRIZE MONEY DISTRIBUTED

Admiral Sturdee's Men Receive Large Bounty.

London, Aug. 29.—A prize court has awarded £12,100 prize bounty to the officers and crew of the squadron of Vice Admiral Sir Frederick Sturdee, which destroyed the German Pacific squadron in the battle off the Falkland Islands in December, 1914. The bounty was determined by the number of men aboard the destroyed ships, £5 being awarded for each man.

This is the largest amount of prize money awarded since the outbreak of the war.

The prize court also awarded the officers and crew of the Australian cruiser Sydney £1,985 in connection with the sinking of the German cruiser Emden in November, 1914. The complement of the destroyer Kennet received £175 for the sinking of the Turkish vessel Mastiko, while £1,605

Sockeye Still Running Well In Naas River According To Late Reports

The sockeye salmon according to reports are still running well in the Naas. While they have been short everywhere else along the coast, the Naas has had a very heavy run of this variety.

In the Skeena, the run of other varieties is good.

The first official figures of the pack of Alaska salmon of the season of 1916 show a shortage of at least 1,000,000 cases of pinks as compared with the 1915 pack, while a big shrinkage in the output of Alaska red salmon and Puget Sound and British Columbia sockeyes is also recorded.

The total pack of sockeye salmon canned in British Columbia is given at 200,000 cases for 1916, as against an average pack of 660,000 in the three previous years. Alaska red salmon is the only brand which England takes as a substitute for sockeye, of which 1,000,000 cases were exported last year. There is practically no carry-over in this pack.

Pinks sold early in the season last year at 65 cents a dozen cans, opening this year in San Francisco at 90 cents and in Seattle at 1. The opening price of Alaska red salmon a year ago was $1.50 a dozen. This year the opening figure in San Francisco is $1.50, in Seattle $1.60 a dozen. The short pack, together with the heavy war demand, is given as the reason for the increased price.

CONTEST FOR HALIBUT FISHERMEN ON LABOR DAY

Interesting Competition Arranged For By Committee—Tug Of War Also.

Among the unique sports the Trades and Labor Council are arranging for their Labor Day festival is a contest among the union halibut fishermen. It is to be a time competition in setting a skate of gear, paying it out and hauling it in, and will rank among the most interesting of the sports provided on that occasion, as it will teach the spectators something of the mystery of halibut fishing.

There will be war here on Labor Day—a big tug of war. All skookum chaps not gone to the front should be doing a little practising, for a lot of sturdy fellows from up-river will be here at the fete on Labor Day the Trades and Labor Council are getting up.

AN ATTRACTIVE PLAY AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

J. Warren Kerrigan Will Be Featured In "The Pool Of Flame" Tonight.

This evening the Westholme will present a Red Feather photoplay entitled "The Pool of Flame." The story is one of love and adventure which appeals to everyone.

Terence O'Rourke, soldier of fortune gentleman adventurer, and penniless suitor for the hand of the beautiful Princess Beatrix. Best soldier in Europe though he was, his sword had not carved out his fortune, and without fortune this proud Irishman would not offer his hand to the only woman in the world for him. A telegrapher offer of $20,000 for the delivery of the great diamond known as the "Pool of Flame" in Calcutta was like a ray of light from Heaven to the adventurous and lovelorn captain. No wonder he indulged in a day dream in which he sailed for America, the land of the free, with the Princess as his bride and a tidy fortune safely tucked away in his trouser's pocket. But action came as naturally to O'Rourke as breath itself. And well he knew the need for haste, for was not the treacherous Duke Victor likely at any moment to succeed in his endeavor to wed the Princess in spite of all that he and the lady could do, and when did ever State reasons take into account the personal preferences of its sovereignty? 'Tis the way of the world—the Royal world. In a twinkling Danny was packing his grips, for O'Rourke knew right well where the Pool of Flame was and he had as much right to it as any other person. He had fought for it as had thousands of otther men, black, white and yellow, in its crimson history. And possession is nine points of the law. It looked like a simple thing to the captain to comply with the cahlegram and to claim the reward, but it proved the toughest job his sword had ever tackled, and before the Pool of Flame, the brightest, biggest and most precious diamond in the collection of an Indian Rajah, again reposed in its accustomed place a chapter in the adventurous life of O'Rourke was written which far eclipsed any other.

WAR LOSSES.

We are apt to be very depressed in reading the casualty lists published in London. The sacrifice of life is appalling in all conscience, but we do well to remember that up to the present the toll of the war on British subjecs has been but small as compared with that on the subjects of most other belligerent countries. Major General Hugh Scott, of the United States army, who, it may be presumed, has exceptional facilities for getting information as to the war losses through the military representatives which his department has with the different armies, has issued a comprehensive estimate of what these losses amount to. He places the German casualties at 3,162,627, while Austria has 2,000,000; France, 2,000,000 and Russia 5,000,000. Though Russia's total is much larger than Germany's, General Scott places the Russian killed at 1,000,000 and Germany's only 100,000 less. The British total is 620,000, with 150,000 killed.

HONESTLY CONDUCTED.

In spite of the use of many columns of space "The Sun" does not get away from the fact that A. Rives Hall, Liberal Agent in England, has written these words to Mr. Fred Welsh:

"I regret to say that my cable to Mr. Wade was exaggerated in 'The Sun.' I made no charge of dishonesty whatever, and am very sorry if the exaggerated report has been in any way detrimental to you. I had no such intention in sending the message. I did not suspect nor make any charge of dishonesty."

Mr. Hall mad eno charge of dishonesty. But on the basis of his despatch "The Sun" charged "crooked manipulation of soldiers' votes," "foul conspiracy," "coarse" work, and much more of the kind. "The Sun" has been contradicted and rebuked by two Liberal agents, but will doubtless go on with its "exaggerations," of which the English Liberal Agent complains.

PRINCE RUPERT PEOPLE GET INSTANT ACTION

Those who have used it in Prince Rupert are astonished at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. Because it acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL Adler-i-ka relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. Suggestions for Successful ADVERTISING

The Best Time To Use Advertising Space

While the successful advertiser makes all times his own, their must of necessity be occasions when there are special advantages in presenting live facts about your goods to the public.

Advantages In Strenuous Times

Did it ever occur to you that in times when money is specially "tight" that the average buyer, and especially the thrifty housewife makes it a point to buy where the best can be got for the money expended? Have you an advantage to offer? Your advertising it will give you far better results than when times are better.

Buying Values Are Investigated

The value of money is appreciated now. Values count and are investigated by the public. This is the time to get full results from those who have good values to offer the public in any line of consumption.

GLYCERINE AND BARK PREVENT APPENDICITIS

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-i-ka, astonishes Prince Rupert people. Because Adler-i-ka acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-i-ka is astonishing. No Need To Send Away For Jewelry

If Prince Rupert people will deal at home they will find our price about the same as elsewhere for equal quality, as our freight bills are not heavy, and home dealers will be encouraged to keep proper stocks.

Let us compare, for instance, Eaton's price, $5.70 on a 7 Jeweled Waltham. Our Price is $6.00, but it is worth the 30c to see what you are getting when you want it, and have it guaranteed right here.

Take also the highest priced Waltham, a 23 Jeweled Vanguard at $44.60. Our Price is $45.00. Not very much difference.

Many articles, of course, are not so easily compared, and are made in many qualities and often look big for the money in the catalogue.
