PROPOSITION FOR LARGE FISH PLANT

GEORGE W. CLAYTON WRITES HE HAS IN VIEW $200,000 UNDERTAKING

Matter Is Before The Council And Referred To Finance Committee.

The first communication to come before the new city council was one from Geo. W. Clayton, of this city, with respect to a proposed fish plant and cold storage. This is a proposition that Mr. Clayton has been working on for some time. He has been disappointed in the securing of capital, but in a letter to the council last night, he stated that he had received word which made it look as highly probable that the capital for a $200,000 plant for fish handling and cold storage would be available. Strong Forces Of Enemy On Italian Front--- Suffering Heavy Losses

Rome, Jan. 17.—An official report says, along the Trentino front there have been artillery actions. Our fire against Fort Raibl destroyed a part of the cupola and resulted in the flight of the enemy's detachments.

On the heights around Oslavia our vigorous counter offensive was devoted to the re-capture of small portions of trenches north of the village, still held by the enemy. The action continues successfully. Prisoners taken confirm the reports that strong forces of the enemy are engaged and have suffered heavy losses.

On the Carso there has been no change.

The enemy aeroplanes dropped bombs on the inhabitated places in the lower Isonzo plain. Little damage was done.

NEW HAZELTON TO BE KEPT AS A RAILROAD STATION

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—The Board of Railway Commissioners has refused the application of the G. T. P. for an order to authorize the discontinuance of the station agent at New Hazelton. The company must continue to maintain the agent at this point for the present the Board declares.

Had Pleasant Time.

Four local men are being made the subject of a good deal of joking. It is reported of them that they were carried several miles out to sea on the fishing boat San Juan and then landed and made to walk back along the track.

RUSSIANS MADE CAPTURE OF STORES

TURKISH ARTILLERY DEPOT SEIZED WITH SHELLS AND CARTRIDGES

Fighting In Progress Along Russian Front At Different Points.

Petrograd, Jan. 17.—An official report states that on the western front German aeroplanes have raided Schlok, Kurtenhof and Dvinsk.

There have been artillery duels in the region of Platanen. South of Riga our artillery made successful attacks upon the villages of Lavrenska and Dubelisski.

In the Caucasus the Turks made two attempts to cross to the right bank of the Arkhava River, both were repulsed. In the fighting on the 15, we took 167 prisoners and captured a Turkish artillery depot northwest of Khorassan, containing a million rifle cartridges and a thousand shells.

Previous Captures.

On the Caucasus front the Russians captured, on January 14, twenty Turkish officers, four hundred men, a number of heavy guns and machine guns, and a quantity of engineering material.

The Russians, on this front, have driven the enemy back for many miles.

The Turks, in Persia, are now in full flight, after sustaining heavy losses.

All Kinds Of Arms Used In The Conflict Now Raging.

Today we made a combined attack with bombs, rifles, grenades and trench mortars at the same place with excellent results. Our bombardment was effective. A large fire was caused behind the enemy's lines.

Hostile artillery has been active at Ypres.

FIGHTING NEAR METZ.

MAYOR ADVISER CARE AND ECONOMY

HE ASKED THE VARIOUS COMMITTEES TO HAVE THIS IN VIEW

Estimates Should Be Carefully Prepared To Avoid Waste.

Mayor McCaffery is not likely to take up much time at the Council Board with long speeches. At the meeting last night he had little to say. There was very little other than routine disposed of.

After the committees had been read, His Worship, in a very few words, offered the council a little advice. He said he felt they were elected to see to the carrying on of affairs with due economy. He hoped the various committees would so arrange their estimates.

Has Broken Even.

The skating rink has now broken even, as far as revenues are concerned. Henceforth the proceeds will go for the Red Cross. The management object to those who take advantage of the skating by coming in by other routes than those covered by them.

What The South Is Doing To Secure Ship Building Trade

Unanimously of the opinion that only by the providing of a merchant marine, with which to convey the products of British Columbia to the markets of the world, can this Province ever hope to become a prosperous and progressive province, the largely attended meeting held in the Board of Trade rooms, under the auspices of the Manufacturers' Association of British Columbia, heartily endorsed the steps taken by Mr. J. A. Cunningham, President of the Manufacturers' Association, towards the formation of a merchant marine for British Columbia, and took the second step towards the accomplishment of the desired goal, says the Vancouver News Advertiser. It was decided to immediately make application for incorporation of the new concern, which will be known as "The British Columbia Merchant Marine," and which will commence operations with a capitalization of $2,500,000, divided into 250,000 shares at $10 each, of which the minimum paid up capital of $250,000 must be on hand before the first move is made.

It is estimated that this amount of capital would insure the successful inauguration of the plan to provide British Columbia with ocean transport, and that later, as the business develops and as conditions require, the amount of capital can be increased to any amount that may be found necessary. One of the rigid conditions laid down in the formation of the new concern is that no stock whatever will be issued for promotion expenses or as commission on the sale of stock or in any of those methods commonly designated, "watering stock."

Under the conditions stipulated by the draft prospectus presented to the meeting, no money will be spent nor will a dollar of debt be incurred until $250,000 set as the minimum amount of paid-up capital is on hand. This, it was stated, would insure to subscribers that their money will not be used unless and until the amount on hand is sufficient to insure the success of the undertaking.

It is proposed to begin by building a number of ships, although the company will not be limited in acquiring tonnage to ships built by itself, but it may charter ships, purchase the same or generally enter into any negotiations with any existing ships or companies which will tend to arrive at the object aimed at, namely, the providing of ocean transport to and from British Columbia ports.

The company proposes to obtain power to borrow money necessary to build ships, the money to be secured by bonds charged upon all of the company's assets. It is also proposed to ask the Government to guarantee the principal and interest upon the company's bonds, the company providing security to the Government for guaranteeing its bonds. In order to cope successfully with other shipping companies doing business in different parts of the world, it is proposed to establish a line of shipping agencies, forwarding agents and freight contractors in all ports to which the company intends to send its ships. In London the office of the Agent-General for British Columbia will be used until such time as business improves, so as to warrant the establishment of an independent office there.

The board of directors will be composed of 15 shareholders, the qualification essential as a director being the holding of 50 shares, fully paid up. These directors will employ the services of the best shipping experts in the world to act in an advisory capacity to the board of directors. By the effecting of this orgnization it is believed that a merchant marine can be provided for British Columbia of such size and dimension as to relieve the present congested state of affairs in industrial circles in this Province.

Captain Gardner Johnson, one of the best known men in local shipping circles, was the first to attach his name to the charter list, in all 18 placing their names on the list for different numbers of shares, from 100 down to five. The names were as follows: Captain Gardner Johnson, 100 shares; Mr. George Bushby, 100; Mr. J. A. Cunningham, 100; Mr. Carl Pendry, Victoria, 100; Mr. John Hanbury, 100; Wallace Shipyards, 100; Mr. T. E. Clark, 50; Mr. G. Perkins, 50; Mr. F. Miller, 35; Captain Eadie, 10; F. E. Woodside, 10; J. E. Byrne, 10; G. N. Hamilton, 10; Captain J. Stewart, 10; H. G. White, 10; Vancouver Knitting Co., 10; Mr. W. H. Copp, 5; Mr. A. B. Clark, 1.

Subscription lists will now be thrown open to any citizens of Vancouver who desire to attach their names, and in audition lists will be opened in all other cities in the Province. It was the general opinion that in view of the fact that the aims of the organization were, first and foremost, the advancement of the Province as a whole, every inducement should be given to all residents of this Province to subscribe to the company.

MINISTER'S VISIT.

The arrival in the city, on Thursday, of Hon. C. E. Tisdall will afford an opportunity for the Board of Trade and representatives of other bodies to meet the Minister and ascertain what is contemplated relative to shipbuilding, and how it may affect Prince Rupert. A few days ago the Journal published a list of headings, under which the Minister sought information in the southern cities. These might be useful as a guide for us locally.

DOMINION WORK.

The proposition of the Journal, that Prince Rupert should bend its energies towards the securing of immediate action with respect to the construction of a Dominion Government wharf here has met with very general approval in the city. On all sides we have heard a demand that the citizens unite, as they did for the fishing concessions, and show the Government that we mean what we ask for. J. E. Merryfield, who has just returned from Vancouver, where he confered with H. S. Clements, M. P., before the latter left for Ottawa on matters affecting this part of the constituency, had this subject up. He states that Mr. Clements has agreed to do his best to further the proposition. When the Journal made the plea for this pressing of our demands, we did not know that this aspect of the situation had arisen, and that Mr. Merryfield had renewed demands upon Mr. Clements for the work. The situation is, thereore, even more hopeful than we had expected, which lends additional force to any effort made to back it up.

To be effective, action must be taken promptly, for the House is already in session. It is true, that with the war on, and with it a tremendous undertaking, as far as the Dominion is concerned. Nevertheless the Government is awake to the fact, as shown by recent speeches of the Minister of Public Works, that Canada must be prepared for the return of peace and the anticipated development, especially in the west after that. Prince Rupert must not be left behind in the race. We must fight for all we can get and fight without ceasing.
