Atlin Camp Is Looking Well In Mining Way This Year

Engineer Group At Atlin Has Immense Body Blocked Out Now

The Engineer Group in the Atlin camp has been steadily working this year and Capt. James Alexander who controls it says work will be carried on all winter. This property is the immence free gold proposition that has of late done so much to make Atlin famous outside of the placer workings.

Capt. Alexander and Mrs. Alexander went south yesterday by the Princess Alice. A force of about seven men will continue work all winter, blocking out the ore and preparing for the time when reduction works will be put in at the mine.

Capt. Alexander estimates that there is practically $2,500,000 worth of ore now in sight, and, this he says, could be taken out in a year's time if the capital were available to put in the works necessary.

This year there have been several shipments made of ore from the property to Tacoma smelter, but the cost is too great and the facilities too limited for much to be done in that line. That shipped has averaged about $135 a ton.

Capt. Alexander will return later in the year to the camp.

MR. GEORGE W. NICKERSON AND MISS KINKADE WED

Well Known Young People Married And Left For Winnipeg.

Yesterday morning at 11:10 Mr. George W. Nickerson, who has been resident here from the early days of the city, was married to Miss Lois Margaret Kinkade, daughter of Mrs. Ella Kinkade. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McGraw.

Immediately after the wedding ceremony they proceeded to the train, leaving for Winnipeg where they will spend the winter. At the train there was an immense gathering of friends of the bride and groom to give them a jolly send off. They had even taken occasion to attach streamers to the rear of the car stating that the wedding had taken place.

WILLIAM E. TUCKER OF BULKLEY VALLEY KILLED IN ACTION

William E. Tucker, a young farmer of Bulkley Valley, was killed in action September 26. He was the son of W. H. Tucker, of Strathcona, Alberta. He came to Canada from Watford, England, in 1902, being the pioneer of the family. After spending a year in Assiniboia in 1903, he moved to Edmonton and commenced farming near Beaumont in 1904. About five years ago he came to Bulkley Valley, and had a farm near Smithers, which he left to join the 63rd with his brother Ernest, just one year ago. He was transferred to the 10th Battalion and sent to Belgium almost immediately on arrival in England, and gave his life for his country on September 26, aged 34 years.

Nearly Two Million Pounds Of Halibut Landed In October

The fishing returns for the month of October for this centre shows that very nearly two million pounds of halibut were landed here for that month. The amount was 1,890,100.

With the close in the salmon season, as far as canning is concerned, there was a falling off in the salmon receipts for the month. It reached only 686,700 pounds. Cod was represented by 117,900 pounds.

There were receipts of smelts for the month of 3,350 pounds.

ATLIN'S GOLD OUTPUT HALF-A-MILLION

THE YEAR HAS BEEN AN AVERAGE ONE IN THE PRODUCTION LINE

Arrivals By Steamer Yesterday Say That The Town Is Prosperous.

The output of the Atlin camp in gold this season will be about half a million dollars. The year has been an average one. This was the information given by arrivals from that camp who reached here last evening by the Princess Alice on the way south.

Among those on board were James Lipscombe, the Agent for the White Pass Company at Atlin, and who always goes south for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Breeze, the latter a sister of Mrs. F. McB. Young, of this city, were aboard. Capt. McDonald and his crew of the steamer Scotia were also aboard. Mr. Molyneux, the Road Superintendent; John Dunham and Charles Miller, a well known mining man, were all among the passengers.

The arrivals state that Atlin has built up more substantially than ever since the fire.

Barge Donald D. Adrift With Six People Aboard For Hours Until The Prince John Succeeded In Rescuing Them Without Saving Barge

Any travellers who cross Queen Charlotte Sound in staunch steamers when there is a heavy sea rolling and a high wind can sympathize with a little party that drifted all night long under such conditions, but with only an old barge between them and the sea. This was the predicament in which Capt. Svendsen and his wife, Mate Hansen, a cook, and two of a crew found themselves on Thursday night. Thanks to the efforts of Capt. Davies and the crew of the G. T. P. steamer Prince John they were safely taken off the barge and brought here early this morning.

The barge Donald D., belonging to the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company, of which they were the crew, is now probably a wreck piled up on Fitzroy Reef off Calvert Island.

The Donald D. was proceeding south in tow of the tug Dola, of Vancouver. On Thursday night about eleven o'clock, according to the information received, the hawser parted and the barge was thus cut loose from the tug. This was about 8 miles off Pine Island in Queen Charlotte Sound. There was a very heavy south-east gale blowing at the time and the weather was very thick.

The captain of the Dola was short of coal, and leaving the Donald D. to drift he put for Alert Bay to get coal. He was on his way there when he met the Prince John and informed Capt. Davies of what had taken place, asking him to give the wireless at Alert Bay the news asking for help.

Capt. Davies did so and started off out of his course to try to find the barge. The weather was very dirty; there was a strong wind blowing; and a high sea running so that the search was very difficult. It was about 7 o'clock in the morning that he got the information and started in search.

Owing to the character of the weather Capt. Davies, after several hours search, gave it up as useless to continue and proceded on his way.

Then the weather brightened a little and he continued his search again. About 11 o'clock his efforts were rewarded and he sighted the deserted craft. She was then off Calvert Island. She was drifting in the direction of Fitzroy Reef and was, in fact, only about five miles from there.

He came up to the Donald D. and they succeeded in getting a line from the barge to the Prince John. A hawser was got from her and Capt. Davies proceeded to tow her to safety.

This was doomed to failure, however, as the hawser would not hold under the stress of weather. It parted after towing for about a quarter of an hour.

It was then decided to take the crew off and let the barge go. This was done about 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, to the infinite delight of the crew, all of whom were glad to leave their vessel. The taking off of the crew was accomplished without mishap. Mrs. Svendsen was let down over the side of the barge to a boat sent from the Prince John. The remainder of the crew came down by a line, all with life preserves on.

The Donald D. was on her way south to take on a cargo of coal for the Cold Storage. She was built on the Atlantic coast and was known originally as the Ivy. Later, when her usefulness as a sailing craft had passed away, she was converted into a barge and was used in rail and supply carrying for the Mackenzie & Mann Railway at Stewart. When the Cold Storage was built she was bought very cheaply by the Cold Storage to carry coal and was admirably adapted for that work. She could carry about two thousand tons of coal. For years she has been doing nothing but that for the company.

PRICE OF COPPER.

Commenting on the recent order for 448,000,000 pounds of copper for the warring nations, Walker, of Boston, commercially known as one of the most noted copper authorities, says:

"This means that the metal situation is in a stronger position than ever previously in the history of the trade. It now appears that they have agreed to pay 26 cents a pound for this immense tonnage and that the profits to the producers on this single transaction will be $20,000,000 in excess of the aggregate dividend payments of the American copper mining companies during any preceding year.

"The tremendously strong cash position of the producing companies cannot fail to have a steadying influence on the metal market for many months and probably for years to come.

"This transaction makes it quite clear that the Allies see before them a long period of hard fighting."

"The Innocent Lie" Photoplay Of Real Thrills.

"The Innocent Lie," the latest Famous Players-Paramount production appearing at the Westholme Monday and Tuesday, was staged in Bermuda, under the personal direction of Sidney Olcott with Miss Valentine Grant in the stellar role of Nora O'Brien, a poor Irish emigrant.

Nora O'Brien is intrusted with a message from a Nora Owen to a certain Mrs. Winters, a sister of the late Mrs. Owen. Nora has Mrs. Winters' address on a card and proceeds to find the residence upon her arrival in New York from Ireland. She becomes the victim of foul play and is identified as Mrs. Winters' niece by the card in her pocket. Believing Nora to be her niece, Mrs. Winters takes the injured girl home. Upon recovering, Nora asserts her mistaken identity but is discredited by the Winters family, who are convinced that she is the genuine Nora. Later she is happy to think that her story was not believed, for she becomes a beloved member of the family. Her daring rescue of Teddy, the youngest of the two sons from asphyxiation, wins their hearts. Time passes and her love for Egan, one of the sons, grows as his does for her. But Nora's brother, Pat, a disreputable chaffeur, worms his way into the Winters' household, and upsets the lovers' plans. Recognizing his sister, he tries to persuade her to assist him in robbing the house. This discussion takes place in Nora's room and before Pat's departure he relieves her of valuable gifts from the Winters, dropping, however, Mrs. Winters' meshbag in his haste, and thus throwing suspicion on Nora. Nora dons her old clothes and leaves the house. She is observed by Egan, who follows her to Pat's headquarters in the slums. Disgusted at the turn of events, Egan returns home. Love still burns in his heart and returns to find Nora in a group of insulting drunkards. Without delay he plunges into the crowd and a fight ensues. With the aid of a revolver, snatched from the soloonkeeper, Egan escapes with Nora. A letter from Nora Owen Stewart greets their arrival and the misunderstanding is all straightened out.

REMINDERS OF SCRAP OF PAPER FOR SCHOOLS

Facsimiles Of Signatures Attached To Treaty Of 1831 Provided.

Pupils in the schools throughout the Province will have before them in future mute testimony to the ruthless disregard for national honor displayed by the German Empire, in the violation of the treaty of 1831 which was responsible for the war, in framed facsimmiles of the signatures to that document; famous the world over as: "A scrap of paper," which will be hung in every classroom.

These have been supplied by the Department of Education at Victoria and are printed on fine parchment paper, in exact facsimile of the original document which guaranteed the independence and neutrality of Belgium, over the signatures of the representatives of five powers.

The signatures reproduced are: "Palmerston" for Britain; "Sylvan Van de Weyer," plenipotentiary for Belgium; "H. Sabastiane," plenipotentiary for France; "Bulow," representative of Prussia and "Pozzo di Borgo," plenipotentiary for Russia.

It is proposed to hang a copy of this historic document in every classroom in the city schools, surrounded by photographs of the boys and men connected with the schools who enlisted for overseas service. The frames will be made by pupils in the manual training department.

Production and Thrift

"CANADA from her abundance can help supply the Empire's needs, and this must be a comforting thought for those upon whom the heavy burden of directing the Empire's affairs has been laid. Gain or no gain the course before the farmers of Canada is as clear as it was last year—they must produce abundantly in order to meet the demands that may be made, and I believe this to be especially true in regard to live stock, the world's supply of which must be particularly affected in this vast struggle. Stress and strain may yet be in store for us all before this tragic conflict is over, but not one of us doubts the issue, and Canadians will do their duty in the highest sense of that great word."—HON. MARTIN BURRELL, Minister of Agriculture.

"MODERN war is made by resources, by money, by foodstuffs, as well as by men and by munitions. While war is our first business, it is the imperative duty of every man in Canada to produce all that he can, to work doubly hard while our soldiers are in the trenches, in order that the resources of the country may not only be conserved, but increased, for the great struggle that lies before us. 'Work and Save' is a good motto for War-time."—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

THE CALL OF EMPIRE COMES AGAIN IN 1916

TO CANADIAN FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, FRUIT GROWERS, GARDENERS

WHAT IS NEEDED? THESE IN PARTICULAR—

WHEAT, OATS, HAY,
BEEF, PORK, BACON,
CHEESE, EGGS, BUTTER, POULTRY,
CANNED FRUITS, FRUIT JAMS,
SUGAR, HONEY, WOOL, FLAX FIBRE,
BEANS, PEAS, DRIED VEGETABLES

We must feed ourselves, feed our soldiers, and help feed the Allies. The need is greater in 1916 than it was in 1915. The difficulties are greater, the task is heavier, the need is more urgent, the call to patriotism is louder—therefore be thrifty and produce to the limit.

"THE AGRICULTURAL WAR BOOK FOR 1916" is now in the press. To be had from The Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.
