BIG TRANSPORTATION SCHEME IN CHINA

PARTY OF FORMER CONTRACTORS ON G. T. P. HAVE GONE TO CHINA

The Contracts Which Have Been Secured Amount To About $100,000,000.

When the big trans-pacific liner "Empress of Russia" sailed from Vancouver at 4 p. m. on Thursday, 10th inst., it carried on board a larger number of passengers than have ever previously been taken across the Pacific at one time. There were 360 cabin passengers and a large number in the steerage. She also carried a capacity cargo of freight on board.

The passengers included principal officials and employees of the newly formed Siems-Carey Railway & Canal Company, many of whom are well known here, says the McBride Journal, owing to their connection with the Siems-Carey Company that did a considerable amount of the construction work on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Among those on board were Mr. W. F. Carey, Mr. Hitchcock, Vice-President and General Manager; Mr. Buckner, Auditor; Mr. and Mrs. Purcell and family, and Mr. and Mrs. M. F Carey and family, Mr. G. B. Watson, as well as a party of engineers and the corporation's lawyer.

The new company has secured contracts amounting to over $100,000,000 for railway and canal construction work in China. The contracts already signed call for the completion of 500 miles of work on the Grand Canal, and 1,500 miles of railway lines. It is expected that 50,000 men will be employed on the work. The laborers will mostly be coolies. No vtry heavy machinery will be needed on the canal work and for the railway construction new machinery is being secured. It will probably take four months or so to complete the preliminary arrangements before much actual work on the canal and road can be commenced. Mr. Linthicum, who was at Vancouver to see the party off, will probably follow them to China in a few weeks' time.

F. L. McFarlane, of Vancouver, representing Buscombe & Company is in the city on a business trip.

Bowserism And Its Features As Seen By Well Known Newspaper Writer Of Vancouver And Dealt With At Length

The Liberal press is busy making disparaging reports against the Provincial Government and use is made of the name Bowserism to describe it. The following article appears in J. P.'s Weekly, from the writer "Bruce."

Liberal leaders, Liberal orators and Liberal press constantly refer to "Bowserism." They speak of it as our nurses used to scart us with the "Boo-man." Yet this fearsome sounding personage had quite an innocent origin, as any reader of Stevenson may know. Boo-man or bouman was the term by which a "cattle tenant" in the highlands of Scotland was known. He was no more fearsome than his modern prototype, the cattle rancher. But by dint of the right inflection on the threat "the boo-man will get you if you're not good," the innocent old hieland cattleman was conjured up as the embodiment of childish terrors, just as the Liberals today try to conjure up some sinister meaning in the minds of the electors by shouting "Bowserism."

Editor Wade, in The Sun, says Bowserism is lying, moral and physical cowardice, poltroonery and other unlovely attributes of a person devoid of manliness. Now, for many years, as most people in British Columbia know, I was a fairly sturdy and consistent opponent of the author of Bowserism. But I am free to say that I never in all those years found symptoms of cowardice, moral, physical or otherwise in Premier Bowser. On the other hand his opponents have generally found him ready to meet them more than half way in a fight. He has never run away from a fight that I am aware of. Moreover, I never knew Mr. Bowser when he would not meet his bitterest opponent with a smile and a handshake. Further than that, I have frequently found him disconcertingly frank. He has a fashion of laying his cards on the table face up, with a candor that flabbergasts his opponents. He will tell you just what he intends to do and how he intends to do it, knowing full well that you are going to do your level best to defeat him in his efforts, which is not the way of a coward.

Unpopular Duties.

In his capacity at Attorney-General he has had to do many unpleasant things, things he knew would tend to make him unpopular. As the first lieutenant of Premier McBride, it seemed to be an understood thing that if the Government had to take a stand that would prove unpopular, Mr. Bowser was the one chosen to bear that unpleasant part. To such an extent was this carried that for a long time it looked as if the Attorney-General might be blazing a trail to his own political grave. It is not to be supposed he did not know what all this must mean for him. Yet he never appeared to shirk any unpleasant duty that was laid upon him. All this goes to show, of course —if it needed proving—that Mr. Bowser is not a coward, nor a poltroon, and that Bowserism cannot mean either cowardice or poltroonery as suggested by the gentleman of Yukon waterfront fame.

Perhaps Bowserism as it affects the public interest of the Province may be best understood by comparing it with Brewsterism. Bowserism is characterized by directness, downrightness and straight from the shoulder methods. Bowserism has vision and business sense.

What Is Brewsterism?

Brewsterism is circuitous, dissembling and uncandid. Take the prohibition issue as an example. Until Mr. Bowser was convinced that a large section of the community was in favor of prohibition he set his face resolutely against the proposal. But in the moment he was convinced of the existence of that sentiment he decided. He made his decision and announced it without hesitation, well knowing that he would find arrayed against him not only the liquor interests but many of his own followers. The Liberals tell us that through his machine he has hitherto controlled the support of the liquor interests. If that is the case then his decision on that issue was doubly courageous, for he would alienate a support which was his.

But what was the position of the Liberal leader on that question? Mr. Brewster said: "Return us to office and we will secure powers to adopt a general referendum act. If we secure those powers (which was extremely doubtful as they would have to come through the Dominion and Imperial Parliaments) we will then submit a referendum, and if it carries we will enforce the law." All of which would take from two to four years to bring about. And the same would apply to the women's suffrage law.

Attitude On The Liquor Question.

Premier Bowser, however, did not wait for powers to adopt a general referendum act, but, following the precedent of the Manitoba Legislature, passed one at once. He further supplemented this by drastically reducing the hours for selling liquor during the war. On this point Mr. Brewster has never committed himself. And if the referendum carries the prohibition law, drafted and approved by the prohibitionists, will go into effect July 1, 1917.

During the by-elections Mr. Brewster and his political infant prodigy, M. A. Macdonald, made sweeping assertions that the Government was the most corrupt in Canada, and if they were elected, they would prove it. This was another Brewsterism.

Courted Full Investigation.

Bowserism said: "We will throw wide open all doors in all departments of the Government. We will put one or both of you on all committees. We will suspend the rules so you can delve into the public accounts as far back as you want to go. We will extend the session to the limit of our powers." And Bowserism did that. We all know how miserably the Brewster boast failed to make good.

Bowserism said: "We propose to make a record in progressive legislation. We are in the midst of depressing war conditions. But we are not downhearted. We intend to do the best we can for British Columbia."

Brewsterism said: "The Province is going to the dogs. We are head over heels in debt. The public domain has been squandered. The Government is bankrupt. You will ruin us. We should not borrow money now. We should put on the brakes and sit still, awaiting the turn of the tide."

Bowserism Is Cheerful.

But Bowserism went ahead. Bowserism was cheerful, confident, progressive. Bowserism believes in the future. Bowserism is constructive. Brewsterism is timid, fearful of its own shadow, long in complaints but short in confidence, long on criticism but short on constructiveness.

Bowserism passed the Shipping Bill. The result is ten ships are already laid down. Hundreds of workmen are employed. The lumber industry has taken on new life. Brewsterism opposed it. It screamed against it. It organized opposition in the Board of Trade here and elsewhere. But the wails of the croakers are lost in the sound of the shipwright's hammers.

Bowserism provided the most advanced Workmen's Compensation Act in the world. Brewsterism wants to render it null and void with a writ.

Bowserism provided money to complete the P. G. E. Railway. Brewsterism would let the railway rust through a court injunction.

Bowserism passed an act to prevent frauds upon creditors by making it illegal to make secret assignments of book accounts. Brewsterism, as expressed in The Sun newspaper, not

Determined Effort Will Again Be Made At Saloniki By Allies

Paris, Aug. 22.—That the Allies are initiating a determined camp again at Saloniki is indicated by the fact that Italian forces are to be sent to reinforce the 700,000 French, British and Serbian troops now there.

There are rumors that Rumania will join the Entente Powers also in the operations. The mobilization of Rumania exceeds at present half a million men who are all well equipped.

GERMAN SOLDIERS ARE SURRENDERING TO BRITISH

They Declare They Cannot Stand The Attacks Made.

London, Aug. 22.—German soldiers, unable to withstand the British attack north of Pozieres, are surrendering to the British. They are marching into British quarters.

DON'T BE MISLED

THE QUESTION ON WHICH ELECTORS WILL CAST A REFERENDUM BALLOT ON SEPTEMBER 14 IS NOT THE QUESTION OF "PROHIBITION" BUT ON THE STRAIGHT QUESTION OF THE ADOPTION OR REJECTION OF THE "B. C. PROHIBITION ACT."

There's A Decided Difference Between "Prohibition" And The "P. C. Prohibition Act."

PREPARATIONS FOR LABOR DAY HERE

TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL HELD MEETING LAST EVENING

Questions Affecting Union Workers Were Discussed At Gathering.

There was a large representative meeting at the Trades and Labor Council last evening.

Credentials were received from D. Millen and A. Watchman, delegates from the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union.

The Labor Day Committee reported arrangements for the annual celebration were going ahead, with assurance of having a successful day. Funds were being liberally subscribed by merchants, hotelmen and others.

The question of having Mayor McCaffery present in his official capacity was voted down, owing to the stand the Mayor had taken on a number of labor questions. It was also decided not to invite a labor speaker from one of the outside points to address the gathering until a later date. The Secretary reported that no word had yet been received from Mr. McVety as to whether he would be able to be present on Labor Day.

Ald. Casey submitted a letter to be read to the Trades Council, relative to his nomination in the labor interests for the Atlin riding. The correspondence was received from that district and gave reasons why Mr. Casey's nomination had not been carried out, when the labor interests of that district were favorable to him running. The correspondence also stated that it was the impression that one of the candidates now running had been endorsed by the Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council. The Secretary was instructed to inform the correspondent that such was not the case, as the stand taken by the Trades Council was that they would not endorse any candidate affiliated with either political party.

Correspondence was read from Alice Arm which had an enclosure of a considerable sum to support a candidate in the Atlin district. This was returned with thanks, as a labor candidate was not in the field.

The Council went on record as endorsing the Women's Suffrage movement, in answer to a request from that body.

The meeting decided that they would not send a delegate to Toronto to be present at the Canadian Congress meeting which will be held in that city this year.

J. Hawkinson, of Alice Arm, is in the city for a few days.

MUNICIPAL ECONOMY.

The Winnipeg Free Prtss says: The municipalities of western Canada have received a salutary lesson in economy. Most of them, be it said to their credit, have made a virtue of necessity and have achieved very considerable savings in expenditure without abandoning any of the essential civic activities or losing in efficiency. On the contrary, in many departments more real public service is being rendered today, at less cost, than was obtained in the days of extravagant spending.

The last yearly accounting of this city's administration is still sufficiently fresh in the citizens' mind to make unnecessary the repetition of the savings effected in comparison with, say, the year, 1913. Further west, where the tendency to openhandedness was even more strongly marked than in Winnipeg, economies have also been effected which are more noticeable by contrast. The cities of Edmonton and Saskatoon have recently struck half-yearly balances and both show very creditable results.

The gravity of the situation in which the former city found itself at the end of 1914 and the strenuous measures of curtailment practised during 1915, producing a saving of over half a million dollars, are familiar to Winnipeg readers. The continuation of the process during the first half of the current year has again resulted in reductions of expenditure totalling over$100,000; this, it is anticipated, will grow into the neighborhood of a quarter of a million by the end of the year. Thus close upon $750,000 will have been saved in two years.

BREWSTER'S WRIT.

H. C. Brewster is claiming that the chief purpose of his writ is to stop expenditures on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. But the P. G. E. is only part of what the writ would do to British Columbia as a whole. Does he mean to suggest that he did not know when he issued the writ that it would invalidate all legislation passed last session and prevent public undertakings from being carried out while the lawyers argued about technicalities? If he intends to put out this suggestion he should read his writ. Its application for an injunction and for a declaration that last session's work was technically invalid is set forth in the plainest of plain terms.

The writ was intended to tie the public business of the Province into knots, with the hope of gaining political advantage for the Liberals by embarrassing the Government and Mr. Brewster might as well admit it.

MR. HARRY HANSON, "The Reliable Plumber," Prince Rupert, B. C.

Prince Rupert, B. C., April 9, 1914.

I have great pleasure in certifying to the excellent hot water and heating system that you installed in our parsonage, and that after six months of operation through the winter months it has given every satisfaction.

The system heats a thirty gallon tank of water to boiling temperature in one hour after the fire has been started; it in no way interferes with the oven for baking purposes. In addition to this, the wall radiator which you placed in dining-room and connected with the range boiler has given us splendid satisfaction, supplying us with ample heating throughout the winter, saving us the cost of a stove and fuel.

I most heartily testify to the satisfaction and efficiency of your system and gladly recommend it.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) (Rev.) J. F. DIMMICK.

Suggestions for Successful ADVERTISING

The Best Time To Use Advertising Space

While the successful advertiser makes all times his own, their must of necessity be occasions when there are special advantages in presenting live facts about your goods to the public.

Advantages In Strenuous Times

Did it ever occur to you that in times when money is specially "tight" that the average buyer, and especially the thrifty housewife makes it a point to buy where the best can be got for the money expended? Have you an advantage to offer? Your advertising it will give you far better results than when times are better.

Buying Values Are Investigated

The value of money is appreciated now. Values count and are investigated by the public. This is the time to get full results from those who have good values to offer the public in any line of consumption.

BOWSERISM AND ITS FEATURES.

only secretly assigned its book accounts and defrauded its creditors, but it froze out its shareholders and repudiated its solemn contracts.

Protects The Absent Soldier.

Bowserism protects the absent soldier. It provides grants of land when he comes back. It protects the absent soldier pre-emptor and gives him a free grant of his land. It prevents creditors from suing him while he is fighting for the Empire. It gives him a vote and a voice in the affairs of the Province.

Brewsterism opposes all these things. Brewsterism screams against enfranchising the soldier. Nothwithstanding the hysterics of Brewsterism, public men in England want the Imperial Government to follow British Columbia's lead and enfranchise the soldiers in the trenches.

Bowserism passes legislation enabling municipalities to carry on their affairs. Brewsterism would tie their hands with a court judgment and prevent them from carrying on their affairs.

Bowserism provides for cheap loans for farmers. Brewsterism would prevent loans and stagnate agriculture with a lawsuit.

Bowserism encourages investment in Dominion war loans by exempting them fronr income tax, succession duty and other provincial impositions. Brewsterism howls that the Province is broke and has no money to invest. Brewsterism tells Montreal and Toronto audiences that the Province is broke and discredited, while Bowserism puts through a loan on terms better than those of the Allied Governments' loan in New York.

Bowserism passes legislation to encourage the development of the mining industry. Brewsterism takes no account of the mining indutsry and has no policy or plans regarding the mining indutsry. Bowserism selects as minister of mines a thoroughly practical and competent man who has the confidence of outside investors. Brewsterism is opposed to outside investments in the mining business and carps at the minister for endeavoring to secure capital to develop our mines. Bowserism secures the establishment of an experimental complex ore reduction works which will bring into the market many millions of dollars' worth of refractory ores which hitherto have been of little or no value. Brewsterism doesn't know what a "refractory ore" is.

Bowserism goes on administering the Government and doing the business of the Province, while Brewsterism is seeking on a foolish technicality to destroy the entire work of the last session of the Legislature, to tie up the public and private credit of the Province and to throw the public and private affairs of the Province into the most inextricable chaos.

Brewsterism uncandidly says it wants only to establish the legality of the proceedings of the Legislature. Yet on the night of March 14, when a bill extending the life of Parliament to June 1 was before the House, he talked till after midnight, believing that thereby he would kill the bill that would do what he now claims he wants to do with a lawsuit.

Brewsterism tried to force a dissolution which would have prevented the passage of all the acts of the Legislature and would have prevented the investigation into the plugging scandal in the by-election.

Bowserism "carried on" and forced Brewsterism to face the investigation.

Bowserism means business.

Brewsterism means muddle.

Take also the highest priced Waltham, a 23 Jeweled Vanguard at $44.60. Our Price is $45.00. Not very much difference.
