CITY COUNCIL DISCUSSED COST OF LIVING

Will Later Consider Having Investigation Of Retail Prices

Doreen Mines Are Preparing For An Active Summer

Powers Given To Investigate High Cost Of Living

The method of procedure given to city councils to investigate any alleged advances in the price of the necessaries of life is a simple one. It is provided for under the War Measures' Act.

The section of the Order-in-Council which gives the city council the right to conduct such an investigation, is as follows:

. Whenever the council of any municipality shall declare by way of resolution that in its opinion excessive prices are being demanded within the limits of such municipality for any necessary of life, such council may, by notice of writing under the hand of its clerk or other authorized officer, require any person dealing within the municipality in such necessary of life and locally situate therein, to make and render unto the council, precisely as required by it, a written return under oath or affirmation, showing in detail—

(a) The amount of such necessary of life held by such person for sale or disposition within such municipality at any indicated time or times including any time preceding the making of these regulations;

(b) The time when any or all of such necessary of life was acquired, produced, or brought within or into such municipality;

(c) The cost of such necessary of life, including all charges of an overhead or other nature affecting such cost;

(d) The price at which such necessary of life is held for sale or at which any sales of part of the same or of a similar necessary of life have been made by such person within such municipality at any indicated time or times, including any time preceding the making of these regulations;

(e) If, after the receipt of any such return, such council shall consider that any circumstances justify reference of the return and a statement of the conditions to the Minister of Labor for further investigation at his hands, or if no return, or that the council may consider an untrue or misleading return, is made, such council may, by way of resolution in writing expressing the facts and the the council's conclusion therefrom, report to such minister.

Continuing, the Order-in-Council states that the Minister of Labor upon receipt of the returns, providing he considers such action warranted, may appoint an examiner and upon the result of this examiner's report will depend the taking of further action under the Attorney-General's Department.

The wording of the Order-in-Council goes very fully into the question of illegal practices in regard to dealing in the necessaries of life, Section Two of the order stating:

2. (1) No person shall conspire, combine, agree or arrange with any other person;

(a) To limit the facilities for transporting, producing, manufacturing, supplying, storing or dealing in any necessary of life; or

(b) To restrain or injure trade or commerce in relation to any necssary of life; or

(c) To prevent, limit or lessen the manufacture or production of any necessary of life, or to enhance the price thereof; or

(d) To prevent or lessen competition in the production, manufacture, barter, sale, transportation, insurance or supply of any necessary of life.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to combinations of workmen or employees for their own reasonable protection as such workmen or employees.

(3) Section 498 of the Criminal Code shall, as respects necessaries of life only, until the repeal of this section of these regulations be deem-

VIGOROUS POLICY RESPECTING WAR

NEW PREMIER WILL DEVOTE ENERGIES TOWARDS BEATING THE ENEMY

Some Expected Features Of The Programme To Be Carried Out.

London, Dec. 11.—The programme of Premier Lloyd George includes the arming of British merchantmen so that they may be able to fight the German sumbarines; a great preparation for the spring offensive; the mobilizing of the entire British civil population between the ages of sixteen and sixty; the making of the blockade effective; the rationing of the population by the issue of food tickets; the increasing of the home food production; the banning of all work not essential to the carrying on of the war, and the production of material not essential to that purpose, and the enforcing of the prohibition of the use of luxuries and the instituting of certain meatless days each week.

London, Dec. 11.—The new Premier has initiated the system of a war council for which he has stood out. It will consis of Premier Lloyd George, Lord Milner, Earl Curzon, A. Bonnar Law and Arthur Henderson.

Mr. Bonnar Law will be the leader of the council in the House of Commons and Earl Curzon will act in a like capacity in the House of Lords. More power will be concentrated in the Prime Minister than ever before in the history of Britain.

City Council Will Inquire Into Prices Charged Locally

At the council meeting last evening the subject of the cost of living, as applied to the necessaries of life, came up for discussion. As a result of it the council will meet again at 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon as a committee of the whole to make an investigation in an informal way into the question of prices charged here, so that a decision may be reached as to whether further steps shall be taken along the lines laid down under the Order-in-Council, passed at Ottawa, looking to the investigation of such things.

A report was read last evening from the City Solicitor relative to the subject, following the resolution passed last Monday evening. This report explained that sweeping powers were given, but that the procedure was somewhat cumbersome. It might take six months to reach a final judgment.

Ald. Casey moved a resolution that a committee should be appointed to go into this question composed of two members of the council, one nominated by the Board of Trade and one by the Trades and Labor Council, and that $5 a day be paid the members of the commission while they sat.

Ald. Montgomery seconded the motion.

Ald. Casey felt that it was unfair to attribute all to the war. He instanced cases that had been brought to his attention. One was granulated sugar, which he understood could be brought from Windsor, Ont., and after paying freight the cost here was away below what it could be bought here for, although the sugar was manufactured in Vancouver. Perhaps the local merchants were not to blame altogether, but he felt from the information that was given that there was some combine here.

The Mayor thought that this might clash with the opinion of the City Solicitor and it might be better to

Doreen Mining Property Is Being Fully Developed

The prospects for active mining operations next summer at Doreen are very bright. The property is on Knauss Mountain and is easily operated. Last week several of those interested were in the city and effected the organization of the company, which includes W. L. Shaw, M. P. P. of Stettler, Alberta, D. Treadway of Edmonton, W. McAdam, D. R. Jones and D. J. Williams.

A road has been constructed from the railway to the mine, a distance of five miles. This is on an easy grade and is built so that an auto may run over it. There is a force of men at work now erecting comfortable buildings there and later a concentrating plant will be put in, the oil floatation system being employed. The ore, which gives values of about $20 to the ton, will be treated and the concentrates shipped.

Hauling to the railway will be a simple matter, those interested state. It may be done by auto truck, this being very easy, owing o the fact that the grade is a gentle one.

The tunnelling is being done on the property now, but not to the fullest extent. Later on towards spring, it is expected that operations will be more active then.

THE LITTLE DESPOT.

It has been many a long year since a British people were ruled as despotically as it is today. Lloyd George, the impassioned little Welshman who a few years ago was regarded by the great interests in England as threatening the very Empire because of his extreme views with regard to home affairs. Now it is safe to say the great majority of the nation is delighted to see him clothed with the powers which resemble those of a medieval king rather than those of a modernr constitutional governor. And the democratic sections of the Empire, like Canada, will welcome this apparent retrogression in the matter of a constitutional government.

* * * *

The cause is not far to seek. A mighty cataclysm as far as the body politic has taken place in the Empire. Such a situation calls for a bold leader. One has arisen in the self-reliant Premier who now fills the post. He catches the popular fancy because of his power to appeal at once to the intellect and to the imagination of the people.

* * * *

But the Lloyd George of today is undoubtedly a different Lloyd George to the one who fought so trenchantly in the elections of his earlier life. The politics of the Old Land have a wonderful faculty for changing the tenor of the ways of men who follow them. As Joseph Chamberlain passed through all stages in his career, so may David Lloyd George do the same. But today he accepts a tremendous load. The prayer of all throughout the Empire will be that he may prove equal to the task.

* * * *

Speaking of despots, is it not true that it is the most perfect form of government, with one proviso of course, and that is that the despot is the right man. One-man-power exercised by the best of his type of race must be good. At a time like this, when prompt action counts for so much, this is doubly true. And yet against the carrying into effect of such a principle as an established one the race to which we belong has fought for generations and shed some of its best blood. Now when the hour of trial comes are we not reverting to the old order of things—but only for a time.

THE BY-ELECTION.

A by-election will be held here in the course of a few weeks. At present the proclamations are being officially posted. There is no likelihood of the election going beyond nomination day. With a Liberal Government in power in Victoria and Prince Rupert represented by a Cabinet Minister, it would be folly on the part of the Conservatives to contest the election. Hon. T. D. Pattullo won the general election and is entitled to this by acclamation.

CITY COUNCIL WILL ENQUIRE.

hold this over.

Ald. McClymont suggested that as the investigation, according to the City Solicitor, was a cumbersome one, it might be better to take another course. He would propose that the city order a carload of sugar in Windsor, if the figures given by Ald Casey were correct. He would not sell that sugar, but have it sold to the local merchants.

Ald. Dybhavn thought the procedure psoposed by Ald. Casey was altogether too cumbersome. The council could call for the information from the retailers and wholesalers. This might stand over.

Ald. McRae said he thought the merchants in town would have no objection to the investigation proposed. He would himself have no objection. He doubted the figures as to the sugar at Windsor. He was led t believe the price of sugar in New York was about 9 cents.

Ald. Montgomery wanted the fullest investigation. He thought this was the right time. He did not care for some procedure that would take so long to become operative. There had been an amendment which took away the power that formerly existed to take proceedings.

Ald. Nelson was not in favor of the resolution as it stood. He cited the procedure that was necessary under the Order-in-Council. He was not so sure that it was cumbersome, and he was surprised to hear Ald. Montgomery taking exception to a proceeding that was so essentially democratic as this Order-in-Council provided for. The Criminal Code had been amended, it was true, but the power had been given to the city council elected by the people to initiate proceedings on a simple resolution that it believed there was too great profit being made. Nothing could be more democratic than that. If they acted on Ald. Casey's resolution they would find they had no power to call for sworn declarations. If there was to be any such investigation he favored keeping within the powers given under the Order-in-Council. Before voting for a resolution, such as was provided for as a starting point, he would want something fairly definite as to enhanced prices.

Ald. Casey said he was quite agreeable to withdraw his resolution and follow the more effective way.

Ald. Montgomery also thought the resolution should be withdrawn. He wanted to see the proceedings as authorized. Moreover, he did not want to see anyone vote against the resolution on a technicality.

Ald. Nelson took exception to the insinuation of Ald. Montgomery, which he thought was uncalled for. There was nothing to indicate that any member of the council wished to avoid the issue. Personally he would not vote that he believed there was he undue raising of prices locally just at present until he had some further information. He had suspicions that there might be such, judging by prices advertised in other cities. Moreover, he did not approve of any action such as that described by Ald. Casey at a recent meeting, in which it was alleged that a man who had complied with the law, had a peddlar's license and was supporting a family was refused goods because he sold cheaper than elsewhere.

The resolution was withdrawn, and it was decided to hold a meeting of the council to go into the subject and get information upon which intelligent action could be taken.

Production and Thrift

"CANADA from her abundance can help supply the Empire's needs, and this must be a comforting thought for those upon whom the heavy burden of directing the Empire's affairs has been laid. Gain or no gain the course before the farmers of Canada is as clear as it was last year—they must produce abundantly in order to meet the demands that may be made, and I believe this to be especially true in regard to live stock, the world's supply of which must be particularly affected in this vast struggle. Stress and strain may yet be in store for us all before this tragic conflict is over, but not one of us doubts the issue, and Canadians will do their duty in the highest sense of that great word."—HON. MARTIN BURRELL, Minister of Agriculture.

"MODERN war is made by resources, by money, by foodstuffs, as well as by men and by munitions. While war is our first business, it is the imperative duty of every man in Canada to produce all that he can, to work doubly hard while our soldiers are in the trenches, in order that the resources of the country may not only be conserved, but increased, for the great struggle that lies before us. 'Work and Save' is a good motto for War-time."—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

THE CALL OF EMPIRE COMES AGAIN IN 1916

TO CANADIAN FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, FRUIT GROWERS, GARDENERS

WHAT IS NEEDED? THESE IN PARTICULAR—

WHEAT, OATS, HAY,
BEEF, PORK, BACON,
CHEESE, EGGS, BUTTER, POULTRY,
CANNED FRUITS, FRUIT JAMS,
SUGAR, HONEY, WOOL, FLAX FIBRE,
BEANS, PEAS, DRIED VEGETABLES

We must feed ourselves, feed our soldiers, and help feed the Allies. The need is greater in 1916 than it was in 1915. The difficulties are greater, the task is heavier, the need is more urgent, the call to patriotism is louder—therefore be thrifty and produce to the limit.

"THE AGRICULTURAL WAR BOOK FOR 1916" is now in the press. To be had from The Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.
