FIGHTING TO KEEP LIBERAL PREMIER CLEAN

War Now On Between Elements In The Vancouver Party

Reparation Will Have To Be Made Before Peace Comes

Lloyd George Shows Britain Is Fighting For Lasting Peace

London, Dec. 20.—Premier Lloyd George, addressing the House of Commons last evening on the German peace proposals, said: "To enter into peace proposals of which we have no knowledge would be to put our heads into a noose with a rope end in the hands of Germany.

"Peace without reparation for the grave wrong done to Belgium and to humanity is impossible. Have all the outrages on land and sea been liquidated by a few pious phrases about humanity?

"Our answer will be given in full accord with the views of our Allies, and each of our Allies has separately and independently arrived at the same conclusion. Swashbuckling through the streets of Europe and the disturbance of its peaceful citizens must cease.

"The people of the Central Powers, and the speech which preceeded it, afford small encouragement and hope for a lasting and honorable peace.

"Britain will wait until hearing what terms and guarantees there are, and these must be surer than those which Germany has broken. Meanwhile, our trust remains with our unbroken army as the only means to end the war. There must be a guarantee against German militarism ever disturbing Europe."

SIR THOMAS WHITE DENIES HE IS CONSPIRING

Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance, has characterized the allusion to him in the morning papers that he was in a conspiracy against the Borden Government in favor of a coalition government, as contemptible and beneath him to answer.

He declared he is a staunch supporter of Borden and that he considers a coalition government unnecessary and impracticable.

ALASKA CANNERIES HAVE BEEN BOUGHT BY BOOTH COMPANY

In one of the greatest deals of the year in the Alaska salmon packing industry, the Northwestern Fisheries Company, subsidiary corporation of the Booth Fisheries Company, has purchased from the Lindenberger Packing Company, the Roe Point Cannery, South-eastern Alaska, and the Seldovia Cannery, Cook Inlet, the deal including all the floating equipment at both plants.

By the acquisition of the two plants, which have a combined capacity of 130,000 cases of salmon, the Northwestern Fisheries Company and the Anacortes Fisheries Company, also a subsidiary of the Booth Company, now have a total of fifteen great salmon canneries.

General Joffre Has Entered Upon New Advisory Duties

Paris, Dec. 20.—General Neville has assumed the command of the French armies on the western front. With that General Joffre steps out of the position and will assume a place at Paris as technical military adviser of the Government, with authority to participate in the meetings of the newly constituted war committee.

General Neville has attracted a great deal of attention by his brilliant work at Verdun. In London he is specially interesting, inasmuch as his mother belonged to a well known Kentish family, so that the General is half English.

The new war council, with Premier Briand at its head, is expected to be of great advantage. It will work in conjunction with the council in London.

There is active artillery fighting on the Verdun front and the Germans have made efforts to advance at Rougemont and Chambres, but without any permanent success.

Attorney-General Macdonald Has Succeeded In Creating Mighty Political Commotion

The City of Vancouver is truly in the throes of a most exciting election. The new Premier, Hon. H. C. Brewster is facing a serious situation with his party in the City of Vancouver. A decided split has been created and this week a bitter war is being waged between the opposing elements of the party.

There is a decided difference between the Premier and D. E. McTaggart and his friends, with reference to the giving of a promise that Hon. M. A. Macdonald was not to be given a place in the Cabinet until after an investigation was held.

Premier's Statement.

Mr. Brewster, in a statement issued over his name, states in brief part as follows:

"With reference to the alleged election irregularities in the City of Vancouver, my declared policy and my consistent intention has always been to bring about a judicial investigation of the most thorough nature possible, so that no person in any wise implicated should be shielded or protected. In all fairness this involves the converse propostion, that no one shall be condemned, prejudiced or injured until, as a result of judicial investigation, he is found to have been implicated.

* * * *

"In conclusion, let me say that I did not, prior to the actual election of my colleagues, tell anybody that any man would not be selected as a member of the Cabinet. This is intended to cover and contradict every statement or suggestion to the contrary.

Yours truly,
(Signed) "H. C. BREWSTER."

Issues A Challenge.

But Mr. McTaggart is equally as decided that the assurance was given. He and Geo. E. Housser has given the following to the press:

"At the confernce with Hon. Mr. Brewster at Victoria on Saturday, the 9th inst., we discussed the interview he had had with Mr. Joseph Martin as to Mr. Macdonald not going into the Cabinet. The Premier went as far as he could to offset the promise he had given that Mr. Macdonald would not be Attorney-General, without denying that he had made the promise. He put it rather on the basis that Scott having been spirited away the whole arrangement had fallen through. But he did not deny that he had stated positively that Mr. Macdonald would not be Attorney-General.

"Insofar as any breach of confidence is concerned we have made public no statement which is not given by the Premier unreservedly. If Mr. Brewster will allow us to state what he told us confidentially about certain ardent supporters of Mr. M. A. Macdonald in this city, and as to his theory of the source of the plugging fund, we shall guarantee that only those who expect a share of political patronage will stay in the fight for Mr. Macdonald.

"D. E. McTAGGART.
"GEO. E. HOUSSER."

Keeping Brewster Right.

Mr. McTaggart is evidently not trying to get after the Premier, for he said in a speech:

THE PREMIER'S TROUBLES.

Premier Brewster is realizing these days the force of the old saw, "uneasy lies the head that wears a crown." He is facing troubles and fightings in his own ranks at a very early stage in the game. It is not to be thought that Mr. Brewster has been taken unawares in these matters. He walked into the situation it is safe to say with his eyes wide open to what might occur. He must have realized from long experience in British Columbia politics that there is in the Liberal party in this Province a most dangerous element and one that, by no stretch of the imagination nor by any concession of charity could be construed as having the interests of the Province at heart. Selfishness has been the actuating principle of that wing.

* * * *

It would appear as if that section of the Liberal party had brought M. A. Macdonald under its influence and was attempting to do the same with the Premier. It is to be hoped they will not succeed. The situation that is being revealed seems to indicate that Mr. Brewster became a little too anxious to conciliate all the sections of the party. He may drop between them.

* * * *

Poor Ralph Smith, the new Minister of Finance, finds himself in an awkward position now. If all reports be true he does not favor the Attorney-General for the post he has. But the Minister of Finance has taken office under Mr. Brewster and must get in and push for Macdonald or take the other horn of the dilemma and resign. Now the latter alternative, Ralph never contemplated. He will not resign. But he is an apt hand at shaping a course to meet the situation and then finding excuses for so doing. And so the Minister of Finance is evolving beautiful excuses and holding his job with few compunctions.

* * * *

Mr. Brewster may have been actuated by a good spirit of fellowship in taking a course that would not condemn Mr. Macdonald. That is, if he is suspicious that Mr. Macdonald is not as spotless as he would wish him in the plugging episode and the correspondence passing between the belligerents seems to indicate some such course on his part. But while this is a spirit that is to be admired to a certain degree, Mr. Brewster should not forget that there are far greater things than the protecting of the good name of Mr. Macdonald. The honor of the Province has to be looked to and protected. Those who oppose him now seem to believe that the Premier wishes to do right, but that he has been badly advised or forced to take a wrong course.

JOE MARTIN.

Joe Martin is happy. He is up to his eyes in political troubles. It is needless, therefore, to wish him a Merry Christmas. The only lament will be that it is not going to last long enough. In the meantime Joe is being fought by The Vancouver Sun with vigor. The Sun proceeds to expose the methods by which Mr. Martin, as a supporter of the Liberal party at Ottawa, won over Manitoba for that party. The Sun's exposure in that regard cannot reflect credit upon the Liberal party at Ottawa that profited by the alleged double dealing of Mr. Martin.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

"I like Mr. Brewster, but he has made a mistake and I must fight him on it and set him right. I believe that in this matter there were men too strong for Mr. Brewster and that they held the gun to his head in order to accomplish what they did. Honestly, in my own mind, I believe that a great big load will be lifted off the Premier's shoulders if Mr. Macdonald is not elected Attorney-General."

Joe Martin's Views.

Joe Martin is in the fight with Mr. McTaggart to the finish. Fighting Joe, speaking on the campaign, told how he paid a visit to Mr. Brewster and asked if Mr. Macdonald were to be appointed Attorney-General, stating that if such were the case the Scott matter must be dropped entirely. Mr. Martin said he was frankly and plainly assured by the new Premier that Mr. Macdonald would not be named as Attorney-General, Mr. Brewster stating at that time that he would not be fulfilling his pledge to the people should he name Mr. Macdonald. Satisfied with this assurance, Mr. Martin said, he left, and was greatly surprised when the Cabinet announcement showed that Macdonald was appointed.

Wants Them Straight.

Mr. Martin excused the Premier, whom he believed had been forced into it. He said:

"If the Liberal party is to go by the board in a case like this, then let it go rather than have it stand for what is wrong. We are all standing by Brewster and the Government, even though we are incidentally criticising what we believe to have been a bad mistake. Mr. Brewster is not a lawyer, he may have been bamboozled. If you think that Brewster is not as strong as he should be on some things, put him right and keep doing that if in future he makes another slip. I know McTaggart will put him right."

Cowper In Rebellion.

J. S. Cowper, formerly a resident of Prince Rupert and who was elected a member for Vancouver, is in open rebellion against Mr. Macdonald's return. He so describes the appointment of Mr. Macdonald, "Assisted by the pressure of powerful friends Mr. Macdonald fairly took the portfolio by force."

Continuing, he said the complaint was that the electors were asked to judge a man who was accused, without hearing the evidence. "Here right following the return of the Brewster Government," he said, "we, the elected members of this city are faced by a peculiar circumstance. We find a man selected and placed at the head of the Department of Justice who is himself accused by several men, one after another."

IN RECRUITING FOR HALF MONTH KINGSTON LEADS

The total recruiting in Canada for the first half of the present month was 3,247. This brings the total recruiting in the Dominion since the war commenced up to 381,438.

The recruiting for the first fortnight of the present month shows an improvement. The total enlistments for the whole of the previous month, being only 5,072, for the last fortnight Kingston holds the record with 630 enlistments, Toronto coming next with 567. Other military districts are in order of recruiting: Manitoba, 421; Montreal, 352; British Columbia, 314; Maritime Provinces, 283; London, 264; Saskatchewan, 219; Alberta, 210 and Quebec, 23.

Production and Thrift

"CANADA from her abundance can help supply the Empire's needs, and this must be a comforting thought for those upon whom the heavy burden of directing the Empire's affairs has been laid. Gain or no gain the course before the farmers of Canada is as clear as it was last year—they must produce abundantly in order to meet the demands that may be made, and I believe this to be especially true in regard to live stock, the world's supply of which must be particularly affected in this vast struggle. Stress and strain may yet be in store for us all before this tragic conflict is over, but not one of us doubts the issue, and Canadians will do their duty in the highest sense of that great word."—HON. MARTIN BURRELL, Minister of Agriculture.

"MODERN war is made by resources, by money, by foodstuffs, as well as by men and by munitions. While war is our first business, it is the imperative duty of every man in Canada to produce all that he can, to work doubly hard while our soldiers are in the trenches, in order that the resources of the country may not only be conserved, but increased, for the great struggle that lies before us. 'Work and Save' is a good motto for War-time."—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

THE CALL OF EMPIRE COMES AGAIN IN 1916

TO CANADIAN FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, FRUIT GROWERS, GARDENERS

WHAT IS NEEDED? THESE IN PARTICULAR—

WHEAT, OATS, HAY,
BEEF, PORK, BACON,
CHEESE, EGGS, BUTTER, POULTRY,
CANNED FRUITS, FRUIT JAMS,
SUGAR, HONEY, WOOL, FLAX FIBRE,
BEANS, PEAS, DRIED VEGETABLES

We must feed ourselves, feed our soldiers, and help feed the Allies. The need is greater in 1916 than it was in 1915. The difficulties are greater, the task is heavier, the need is more urgent, the call to patriotism is louder—therefore be thrifty and produce to the limit.

"THE AGRICULTURAL WAR BOOK FOR 1916" is now in the press. To be had from The Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.
