ATTACKS FROM ALL SIDES ON GERMANS SUCCEED

BRITISH FORCES HAVE MADE EXCELLENT SHOWING

British Have Made Fresh Attacks Along An Extended Front

London, July 8.—The British bombardment on the western front now extends from La Basse to Armentiers.

The attack on this part of the front, combined with the intense Anglo-French offensive, has compelled the enemy to withdraw their reserve forces from the Verdun front. The enemy casualties are particularly severe.

The British have captured the Leipzig redoubt, a very strong piece of fortfication which the Germans have held for the past eighteen months.

French Waiting.

Paris, July 8.—The French are meantime suspending their advances in the Somme district, waiting until their opponents have been sufficiently disorganized by the artiliery bombardment and the attacks at other points.

KAISER SAID TO REALIZED DEFEAT IS IMMINENT

London, July 8.—The Kaiser, realizing that defeat is imminent, has arrived on the Somme front with his general staff to take command of the German defence against the great Allied offensive.

LOCAL OFFICER SUFFERED SEVERE WOUNDS AT FRONT

S. P. McMordie Has Lost One Eye And Sustained Other Wounds.

A letter received in the city from Mrs. S. P. McMordie conveys information relative to the wounds sustained by Major McMordie at the front. He has, according to the letter, been wounded in about ten places and has suffered the loss of an eye.

Evidently the Major will retire, but he is not likely to be available for active service again.

ARTHUR H. JOHNSTON DIED FROM BATTLE WOUNDS

His Brother Is Serving Now With The 232nd Battalion.

A letter has been received in this city by M. M. Stephens from W. M. Johnston, who is serving with the Battleford unit of the 232nd Battalion, giving details of the death of his brother, Arthur H. Johnston, formerly engineer at the Marine Depot on Digby Island.

The information contained in the letter is that Arthur Johnston was wounded in the head on May 21. He was removed to the hospital at Canner's, France, where he died May 25. Evidently he suffered little from the wounds, being unconscious all the time.

MORE CANADIANS HAVE LANDED ON BRITISH SOIL

Ottawa, July 8.—It is officially announced today that six thousand more Canadian troops have arrived safely in England.

OPENING OF CAMP BORDEN

July Fifteenth Fixed For Formal Inauguration.

Ottawa, July 8.—When the new training ground near Barrie is officially opened on July 15, it will accommodate 40,000 troops. It has a score of concrete buildings, seven miles of railway, a railway depot and fifteen miles of drain.

"DESERTERS" EITHER WAY

Americans In Our Army Called Home To Join Guard.

Sarnia, July 8.—It is reported here that there are a number of Michigan National Guard officers now being formed in Canada under the American Legion. These men are placed in a peculiar situation now that the States is mobilizing its guards for service on the Mexican border.

It appears that these officers in many cases were given leave of absence from the guard, and that they have also sworn allegiance to the British throne. If they go back to the States now to join their old units they will be deserters, and if they remain in Canada they will be posted as deserters from the Michigan Guard. The matter will likely be settled by the Canadian Government.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS HAMPSHIRE LOSS

SUBJECT BROUGHT UP IN COMMONS ON DEMAND FOR COURT MARTIAL

Lord Kitchener's Death Is Made The Subject Of Discussion.

London, July 8.—There are mysterious rumors regarding the Hampshire disaster and the indirect evidence of Kitchener's death has been the subject of much discussion in the House of Commons.

Richard Cooper has demanded that a court martial be held, in order to get at the facts, while Mr. McNamara, the Liberal member, is opposed to this procedure on account of the statements made by the survivors.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE

The New Occupant Of Rideau Hall Has Splendid Record.

Canadians, familiar with their London, remember the unpretentious, red-blinded building in Piccadilly which is known as Devonshire House, the town home of the Devonshire family, says an eastern exchange. The owner of this house and the head of this family succeeds the Duke of Connaught as Governor-General of Canada. The dukedom dates back to the reign of William of Orange, whom the first Duke helped to the throne. The first Earl of Devonshire got his title in 1618.

Like his uncle, the late Duke whom he succeeded in 1908, the new incumbent at Rideau Hall is credited with marked ability, high character, a deeply religious disposition and a strong sense of responsibility to his fellow men. Formerly Financial Secretary to the Treasury, and since 1915 a civil lord of the Admiralty, he finds time, like his late burly uncle, to be an enthusiastic farmer and breeder of live stock. The administration of his estates in London, Devonshire, Derbyshire, Yorkshire and Ireland, no doubt has occupied much of his time, and the tenants of no landlord in the world are better treated.

Few historic families have higher traditions of public service to stimulate them, and in coming here at the King's request to relieve the Duke of Connaught at a critical time in the world's history we may be sure that the Duke of Devonshire acts from a sense of duty, feeling that he can serve Canada and the Empire to some purpose in this high post. A man of democratic outlook and habits, he is likely to be popular in this young democracy.

Meeting Requirements.

Pat went to a druggist to get an empty bottle. Selecting one that answered his purpose, he asked:

"How much?"

"Well," said the clerk, "if you want the empty bottle it'll be one cent, but if you have something put in it we won't charge anything for the bottle."

"Sure, that,s fair enough," observed Pat. "Put in a cork."

KITCHENER'S ARMY HAS MADE A NAME

MAGNIFICENT SHOWING MADE BY THE BRITISH FORCES AT FRONT

Nothing Can Withstand The Charge Made By These Soldiers.

London, July 8.—Pride in the magnificent showing of Britain's new armies is mingled with regrets for the nation's heavy losses in the comments of the morning papers. The Daily News says:

"Above all things that the first days of this great battle has taught us, is that whatever we may have imagined of our great new army, that they are better than we have dared to hope. Nothing has stopped them except death. Our losses, of course, will be dreadful, but, apart from the defeats which we inflicted on the Germans we are being taught the magnificent quality of our men—men who are not professional soldiers but who are the British people."

British Blood Shows.

The Daily Graphic says:

"The new army that Kitchener bequeathed to the country is not composed of professional soldiers, but it has proved itself an army of which any nation might well be proud. It now is showing on the battlefields of France the stuff of which the English race is made."

Dispatches from the morning paper correspondents at the press camp in France deal largely with the British attack on points known as Shelter Wood, Railway Alley, and Poodles Wood. This attack was witnessed by correspondents from a vantage point behind the British lines. One correspondent writes:

"All these places were full of Germans. We first got 'Shelter Wood' by pounding it with our guns until it was almost leafless and then rushing it along the high ground behind the Germans who were thus left isolated in Railway Alley and Poodles Wood.

Machine Guns Rushed.

"Their machine guns there continued firing despite all that our bombardment could do. There was nothing for it but to rush the position in the face of the machine gun and rifle fire. We saw the brown line of our men swing out from the end of Fricourt Wood, an irregular, snaky line followed by other bits of line and scattered dots across that dreadful open space.

"Some of the dots ceased to keep up with the others, but the line as a whole went on, bending a little at points and seeming to break, but always joining again and always going on until, even as one watched, the left end of the line disappeared in the shadows of Poodles Wood. Almost simultaneously the middle and right of the line reached the end of the white scar in the slope which marked Railway Alley. Into it and behind the white parapet we saw our men pouring without check. As soon as they were in they started bombing. We could see their arms swinging as they threw bombs and the air above this came thick with the smoke and dust of the struggle, going on out of sight below.

Germans Forced Out.

"But the struggle was short. Almost before the last of our men disappeared at one end of the trench, figures came pouring out at the other. They looked darker than our men and they came running down the slope towards Mametz, brandishing what looked like handkerchiefs and all with their hands above their heads. There was an astonishing number of them, more than there were of our men in that thin line which was pushed so gallantly up the hill.

"Then we watched other prisoners come more slowly under guard from the trees of Poodles Wood. In all we got 700 prisoners from these two spots and 400 more from nearby places.

"What chiefly impressed one as one watched was that it was all curiously unreal and like some scene in a moving picture—that it had been carefully rehearsed before being photographed."

Smashing Blow Is Delivered Against Huns Along Russian Front

SOCIALISTS CLAMOR FOR PEACE IN GERMAN CENTRES

Berlin, July 8.—Regardless of the penalties attached to any breach of discipline the Socialists are clamoring for peace, while the population is surrounding the bakeries and demanding food.

REFUSED ENTRY TO INDIA

Canada-India League Representative Turned Back.

Mr. E. W. Jackson, who left Toronto two months ago in the interests of the Canada-India League, was refused admittance to India, and returned to the city. He was turned back at Hong Kong, says an exchange.

Owing to the state of unrest in India at present, there is a closed door to the country through which only missionaries and officials can pass. Mr. Jackson's mission was to break down the prejudices and ignorance which exist in Canada and India with respect to each other's peoples.

PRAISES RELIEF PARTY

Shackleton Extends Thanks To Uruguay Government.

Montevideo, Uruguay, July 8.—In a despatch to the British Minister here, reporting his return to Port Stanley, after having failed, because of heavy ice conditions, to effect the rescue of the main body of his Antarctic expedition, left on Elephant Island, Lieut. Sir Ernest Shackleton extends thanks to the Uruguayan Government, which placed a vessel at his disposal for the purpose. The explorer's message says: "Please convey to the Uruguayan Government my earnest thanks for their services in the attempted rescue, and of my high appreciation of the valiant efforts made by Commander Elichirbehety and his officers who reluctantly turned back in deference to my ice experience."

Sir Ernest reports the officers and crew of the relief ship well.

See Windows for Bargains at Geo. D. Tite's July Sale. Everything for the Home.

Petrograd, July 8.—The Russians have launched a terrific offensive on the Riga front and are firing fifty times the quantity of ammunition which they did in 1914, rendering the Germans helpless and compelling their withdrawal to a new location.

Terrific Assault.

London, July 8.—The Russians have inaugurated an unprecedented offensive along a three hundred-mile front and are delivering smashing blows against the enemy lines.

The Germans are quite unable to defend themselves against this furious attack and the Russians have captured several villages; important railway stations; fortified enemy positions and immense quantities of artillery and military accessories. Two hundred and seventy officers and 9,900 men have been taken in the past two days.

Russian Gain.

Berlin, July 8.—The German salient in Volhynia, facing Czartorysk, has been abandoned owing to the tremendous superiority of the Russian force which is bringing terrific pressure to bear on our troops.

LLOYD GEORGE HAS BEEN APPOINTED MINISTER OF WAR

London, July 8.—The Hon. David Lloyd George, who is the Minister of Munitions, has been appointed Secretary of State for War, in succession to Earl Kitchener, and Lord Derby has been appoined Under-Secretary.

ITALIAN DRIVE AGAINST AUSTRIANS HAS BEEN SUCCESS

LOYAL GERMANS.

The editor of J. P.'s Weekly, Vancouver, tells of a conversation he had with an elderly man up-country who declared that he was "a German without a drop of German blood in his veins, a German at the point of the bayonet." He came from Schleswig-Holstein, where he had twice fought the Prussians and which, he was sure, would go back to Denmark after the war along with the Kiel Canal. There are many Germans of this sort through the country, and the absurdity as classing them as friends of the Kaiser is apparent. Despite all the efforts to Prussianize Schleswig-Holstein in the last fifty years, they seem to have had little effect on the people.

Prince Rupert has men of this blood who are ready to die for the British flag and yet have been described as pro-Germans by some who have not investigated.

EXERCISE ECONOMY.

Dr. C. C. James sought to impress Canadians with the importance of a provident economy so long as the war lasts. His message should not be forgotten because he has gone. Rather should it be the more sincerely taken to heart. The Agricultural War Book, edited by him, and entitled "Production and Thrift," cites the quotation: "Extravagance, always a folly, in these days becomes a crime; thrift, always a virtue, in these days becomes a national duty." The more we increase our savings the better able shall we be to sustain the strain of a world-wide conflict and the better prepared for the period of readjustment and progressive development which will come with the return of peace.

Canadian bank deposits are increasing by tens of millions of dollars, but a considerable proportion of our people are still wasting resources which they should husband against the national needs of the present and the golden opportunities of the future. This kind of advice and caution has been drilled into the people of the United Kingdom, and Allied countries. The Finance Minister of Australia has been telling the Commonwealth Parliament of the duty of extreme carefulness in private and public expenditurees. In his last budget speech, on May 10, he warned his people that even for selfish reasons they should put by as large a proportion as possible of their present unusual earnings against the day when the cessation of war orders will throw thousands out of employment for the time being. If all act providently the period of readjustment may be curtailed and easily passed.

Surgeons state men are slightly more subject to appendicitis than women. Prince Rupert people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-i-ka is surprising. ## The Stores Closing On Saturday

Notice to the Public

At a meeting called by the Prince Rupert Retail Merchants' Association for the purpose of selecting a half-holiday, a petition signed by practically all the retail employees of the city was presented asking that Saturday be adopted. The meeting unanimously resolved to make Saturday the half-holiday, and notices to that effect were ordered printed and have since been displayed in most of the stores in the city.

Certain merchants who are opposed to Saturday as the half-holiday have published a notice to the effect that their stores will be open on that day. As this will create confusion as to which stores will be open on Saturday afternoons, and which will be open on Wednesday afternoon, the undersigned hereby give notice to the public that their stores will be closed on Saturday afternoons and open every Friday evening until 9:30.

PRINCE RUPERT ASTONISHED BY SIMPLE MIXTURE

Prince Rupert people are astonished at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. ONE SPOONFUL removes such surprising foul matter it relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. Because Adler-i-ka acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Orme's Limited. g-4.

Suggestions for Successful ADVERTISING

The Best Time To Use Advertising Space

While the successful advertiser makes all times his own, their must of necessity be occasions when there are special advantages in presenting live facts about your goods to the public.

Advantages In Strenuous Times

Did it ever occur to you that in times when money is specially "tight" that the average buyer, and especially the thrifty housewife makes it a point to buy where the best can be got for the money expended? Have you an advantage to offer? Your advertising it will give you far better results than when times are better.

Buying Values Are Investigated

The value of money is appreciated now. Values count and are investigated by the public. This is the time to get full results from those who have good values to offer the public in any line of consumption.

Eye Troubles Corrected

Mr. Bulger has had over ten years experience in sight testing and fitting glasses, and last mid-summer took a post graduate course, which included the latest discoveries in the science of optometry or eye measuring. One of the most important is dynamic skiametry. The new method of Prof. A. J. Cross, of New York, in which the eye is measured by a beam of reflected light and any error is recorded.

But we do not simply rely on one method; each eye is tested separately, in three different ways, besides trying the muscular balance, together and the nervous acuteness.

We use the new drugless methods, no drops in the eye and no heavy frame resting on your face; ours swings from the wall by a bracket.

Prince Rupert, B. C..

I have great pleasure in certifying to the excellent hot water and heating system that you installed in our parsonage, and that after six months of operation through the winter months it has given every satisfaction.

The system heats a thirty gallon tank of water to boiling temperature in one hour after the fire has been started; it in no way interferes with the oven for baking purposes. In addition to this, the wall radiator which you placed in dining-room and connected with the range boiler has given us splendid satisfaction, supplying us with ample heating throughout the winter, saving us the cost of a stove and fuel.

I most heartily testify to the satisfaction and efficiency of your system and gladly recommend it.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) (Rev.) J. F. DIMMICK.
