ITALIAN WAR MINISTER RESIGNED TO GO TO FRONT

Germans Thown Back At Different Points Of Attack

Canadian Halibut Boats Continue To Arrive Here In Considerable Numbers

Aerial Duels Took Place In Region Of Verdun With Disasters To Germans

Germans Suffer Reverses At Hands Of French At Several Points

Paris, April 5.—The French gained ground at North Caillettee Wood, northwest of Verdun during the course of several engagements during the night.

In yesterday's fighting the Germans lost considerable ground. They again sustained heavy casualties, notwithstanding the formation of new attacking parties.

In Argonne there has been a combat with hand grenades in the sector between Bolante and Fille Morte. We caused the explosion of two mines and damaged the enemy's trench.

East of the Meuse we took part in several engagements, during which we made progress.

In Woevre there has been an intense bombardment. The Germans threw into the Meuse 22 mines which exploded.

In Lorraine, the Germans after a violent bombardment delivered several small infantry attacks. The enemy was everywhere thrown back by our machine guns and artillery.

In Vosges the enemy's reconnaissance force was easily dispersed.

In the region of Verdun there have been fifteen aerial duels, in which a double motored German machine fell down. Another aeroplane fell vertically to the ground.

WELL SITUATED FOR FISH TRADE

ALASKAN PORTS LOOK TO SHIPPING MILD CURED SALMON THIS WAY

Already In The North The Fish Are Being Taken In Quantity.

The port of Prince Rupert is well situated to take its place as the entrepot for the Alaskan business. This applies particularly in the case of perishable commodities, either going into Alaska or going from there.

In the matter of mild cured spring salmon the Alaskan fishing towns look to the service that is to be given with Prince Rupert as affording the opportunity to get the fish on the eastern United States market with little loss of time, and consequently without risk of deterioration.

The spring salmon is already running in the north. While Germany was formerly the main market for this, the war has altered all that. The east has developed, however, a taste for the mild cured product, and the demand is becoming greater all

MORATORIUM TO EXTEND TO AMOUNTS DUE TO GOVERNMENT

The Legislature has given the second reading to a bill to extend the moratorium on payments due the Crown under the Coal and Petroleum Act, and any other acts which the Lieut.-Governor and Council may name, for a period ending six months after the close of the war.

H. C. Brewster, Victoria, objected to the bill on the ground that it was placing too much authority in the hands of the Lieut.-Governor and Council. He thought the Government should insist on all payments due it on land, timber, and mineral claims. In other words, it should either get the money or take the property back.

RESIGNATION OF HORTICULTURIST

A. H. TOMLINSON IS LEAVING HERE AT THE END OF THE MONTH FOR THE EAST

He Will Join The Ontario Agricultural Staff At Guelph, Ontario.

A. H. Tomlinson, who has been located here as Assistant Horticulturist in connection with the provincial department of Agriculture, will leave about the end of the month, going to Ontario. He has been given a position on the staff of the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, and his resignation from the British Columbia service has been accepted. Mr. Tomlinson is a graduate of the Guelph College, which is recognized as one of the foremost institutions of its kind on the continent. His acceptance on the staff is a worthy tribute to his ability.

The following letter has been received at this office from Mr. Tomlinson:

THIS CITY BECOMES GREAT FUR CENTRE

PRINCE RUPERT IS A REGULAR MARKET FOR ALL KINDS OF PELTS NOW

Trappers And Dealers Make This Their Centre For Dealing.

The City of Prince Rupert is fast becoming a very important centre in the matter of furs. Following a few seasons of very dull times, as far as furs are concerned, there has been a decided renewal in the demand this year. Prince Rupert is splendidly situated to act as a centre for the trade, and dealers seem to recognize that. Thousands of dollars' worth of furs have in consequence been bought and shipped out of here to the larger markets of the world.

So important has this become, insofar as this trade is concerned, that W. Goldbloom, who has become quite a large dealer, is practically making this his headquarters.

Dozens of other dealers come here in their search for valuable furs, and the outlook is good for the industry.

Change In Italian Government To Allow Zuppelli To Fight

London, April 5.—King Victor Emmanuel, of Italy, has accepted the resignation of the War Minister, Gen. Zuppelli. He has appointed General Morrone to succeed him.

It is stated that General Zuppelli desires to participate in active operations at the front, and for that reason has retired from the non-combatant position.

HOLLAND DOES NOT REVEAL WHAT IS GOING ON THERE

The Hague, April 5.—Following a secret session of the Dutch Parliament yesterday, the President announced that the suspension of all naval and military furloughs was merely a precautionary measure, and not the result of any political entanglements. This measure had been adopted on account of certain information which had reached the Government, but it was considered inopportune to make public at the present time.

The mobilization of the Dutch forces has been completed and every motor car in Holland has been commandeered by the Government. The army has been mobilized on the German frontier, while the fleet has gone through manoeuvres along the line of repelling an invasion of Hallond from the sea.

GERMANY IS STILL SINKING BRITISH AND OTHER BOATS

London, April 5.—German submarines have sunk the British steamer Bendew and the Spanish steamer Vigo in the Bay of Biscay; the Norwegian steamer Belle off the Scilly Isles, and the Dutch steamer Elaine Bolora in the North Sea.

A Norwegian steamer was sighted flying signals of distress in the bay of Biscay, and a British steamer approached to render assistance, but, observing a German submarine close by, made for the nearest port, sixty miles away, where information was lodged with the British and Norwegian consuls.

The Dutch Government has ordered an enquiry into the sinking of the Dutch steamers Tubantia and Elaine Bolora.

The fragments of a German torpedo which were discovered in the Channel steamer Sussex have been forwarded to Washington.

The Eagle Club has decided to cancel its fortnightly entertainments for a time during the summer months. The series of meeting will be continued later in the year. The Eagle Ladge will meet fortnightly as usual.

Many Canadian Boats Sought To Engage In Halibut Trade

The scarcity of halibut is making the situation intense. The continued shortage of the fish to arrive has exhausted in very large measure the frozen supplies that were carried, and the consuming parts have to depend almost altogether upon the fresh supply. Yesterday the price prevailing locally went as high as nine and a quarter cents a pound.

The Zebassa of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company brought in 30,000 pounds of fish. Nearly 50,000 pounds additional was bought by the Cold Storage from smaller boats, which included quite a number of Canadian bottoms.

Two American boats, the Wireless and the Nellie, brought 15,000 and 5,000 respectively. Canadian boats that came in were the Margalise with 4,000; the Cayeon with 5,000; the Yaddie with 3,000; and the Nautilus with 4,000.

There is a growing demand for Canadian bottoms now for the trade. With the high price prevailing, it is sought to get boats that will ply out of here to enter the trade. It is probable that before very long there will be quite an addition to the fleet of locally owned halibut vessels.

FORMER RESIDENT OF PRINCE RUPERT DIED

A. J. Morris Passed Away In Edmonton On Tuesday.

Word was received in the city yesterday that A. J. Morris, for many years a resident of Prince Rupert, had died the day before in Edmonton. The deceased had been exceedingly well known here, and his death will be lamented by a wide circle of friends.

He was born in England, but came to Victoria while a boy. He entered the warehouse of John Piercy in that city and for years was a traveller for the firm. When Prince Rupert first started Mr. Morris became identified with the firm of Piercy, Morris & Company, and came here to take active charge of the business. A little over a year ago he moved to Edmonton to carry on the business there.

The decision to move to Edmonton was made partially with the expectation that the change to the dry climate of the prairies might have a beneficial effect upon his health. The change, however, did not effect any permanent cure, and he passed away after a severe cold, which was followed by other complications.

A CONSCIENTIOUS WORKER.

In losing Mr. Tomlinson, Assistant Horticulturist from here, the city and the district is suffering a decided loss. Mr. Tomlinson, ever since he came to Prince Rupert, in connection with the office he has filled under the Department of Agriculture at Victoria, has thrown himself heartily into everything that looked to the improving of conditions that had to do with his office. He never considered anything a trouble that would add to the improving of city beautifiers, or those engaged in farming on the outside. The college at Guelph secures a most painstaking worker in Mr. Tomlinson.

CANADIAN FISHING BOATS.

If the strike on the fishing boats, with the consequent increasing in the price of halibut succeeds in driving more local boats into the fishing business, it may be a blessing in disguise. Certainly fishing at the prices that now prevail should attract anyone that can get into it to enter the business. There is a demand for Canadian boats now, and every effort, it is said, is being put forward to get Canadian bottoms into the trade. Nothing would do more for the business than this building up of a local fleet. It would bring to the city all the advantages that the fishing industry has to offer and would create the ideal situation here.

MAJESTIC WAS CROWDED TO DOORS LAST NIGHT

Charlie Chaplin Proved A Great Drawing Card For Theatre.

That Charlie Chaplin is still the most popular comic attraction at picture houses was made evident last night, when the Majestic Theatre was crowded for its two shows. Chaplin was the greatest attraction for the crowd. The film which depicts him is certainly a most laughable one. In the most novel positions this versatile actor presents himself. Not the least amusing is that in which he sits down on a smoldering fire and his clothes take fire. Before he gets the fire checked he has to sit down in the discharge of a sewer pipe.

"The Masqueraders" is a great feature also with Hazel Dawn as the star.

The remainder of the programme is an excellent one and warrants the patronage extended to the house.

GRADUATE NURSES MAY REGISTER

BILL INTRODUCED IN LEGISLATURE TO PROTECT WELL TRAINED NURSES

It Will Not Interfere With The Employment Of Others.

H. H. Watson's bill for the registration of graduate nurses was given its second reading in the House at Victoria last week, after being warmly supported in principle by Dr. H. E. Young (Atlin), F. J. A. Mackenzie (Delta), H. C. Brewster (Victoria), as well as the mover. W. R. McLean (Nelson), opposed it as closed corporation legislation.

In supporting the bill Mr. Watson pointed out that it was planned to protect the public from those who have had little or no training; those who have been dropped from hospitals for cause, graduates of correspondence schools, etc., claiming to be fully trained nurses.

"It does not prevent any person nursing for hire or claiming to be a nurse," said Mr. Watson, "but only mark the thoroughly qualified person by the designation of 'registered nurse.'

"In cases where it is necessary that the patient should be provided with a qualified nurse, it gives the relatives the chance of knowing that the registered nurse has the knowledge required.

"The public insists on having doctors, druggists, etc., registered for its protection; the nurse is left in almost complete charge of the patient, her judgment and knowledge are relied on by friends and physicians. Unfortunately there are those who claim to be what they are not, and prove that 'a little knowledge is a dangerous thing.' The bill gives the household or practical nurse a standing, registering her as such.

"It being admitted that the nursing of the sick is a matter which closely affects every class of the community. It follows that it is the duty of the state to provide public safeguards in this matter.

"In 1899 South Africa passed a bill giving legal recognition to its nurses. This was the first nurses' law passed in the world. Other legislatures have followed suit, but all of these laws have their weak spots.

"Provision has been made in this bill whereby nurses who are registered in any other province or country may become registered in British Co-

APPEARING AT THE WESTHOLME OPERA HOUSE THIS EVENING

"THE FRAME UP" IS WELL STAGED AT WESTHOLME

A Splendid Play Presented At This Popular Theatre Last Night.

The leading feature at the Westholme last night, and which will be repeated again this evening, is "The Frame Up," introducing George Fawcett. The play is one of political intrique.

Luke Simms is an honest politician. Many unscrupulous ward workers and also lobbyists of national prominence have met their first failure when confronted with his dogged honesty, until the proverb, "As square as Luke Simms" has been coined.

Luke is as charitable as he is honest and his greatest pleasure is found in giving excursions to the poor little ones of the great city's slums.

The nomination for the mayorality is refused by Franz Hargraves, a representative business man, on the score that he believes he would be expected to sign away the people's rights in favor of the Electric Company. This puzzles the schemers, for they thought Hargraves would be an easy man to handle. One of the ward workers suggests Luke Simms to Sears, the leader of the corruptionists, and who is known as The Power, but withdraws his suggestion as he decides that Luke is too honest. But Sears smiles cynically and sneers that every man has his weak spot and that he can be depended upon to handle Luke.

Later Luke is nominated after he has declared himself in favor of the people. The political schemers wait. Luke is finally elected Mayor.

Sears, The Power, has a stenographer, Nell. She has a weak brother, Ned, who, although not bad at heart, has set his feet on the downward path and is a race track gambler and a friend of some young crooks.

Simms gives a reception and the young crooks persuade Ned to accompany them and rob the home, which they figure will be free to them, as Simms will be tired after the departure of his gutsts. Simms hears them and succeeds in capturing Ned. His sorrow is great, because Ned's father had been a friend of his. He reproaches the boy for not having made a better use of his college education and Ned shamefully promises to lead a better life. Simms believes him and employs him as his secretary.

GRADUATE NURSES.

lumbia without passing an examination, providing their application be approved by the council. This is one instance where the proposed B. C. bill is much broader than others.

Proper Status Given.

"We want registration of nurses to give graduate nurses proper status, but so as to let it work no hardship to anyone we have planned to register untrained women as household nurses. No fee will be paid by them, but they will be required to pass an examination demonstrating their dexterity and knowledge. In arranging this we wish not only to protect the public, but to help these untrained women to do better work.

"In a hospital of less than 25 beds it would be impossible to give adequate experience or training in itself. To enable nurses training in hospitals of less than 25 beds to have broader training, affiliation courses, to be taken during their last year of training, may be arranged. This plan attracts a more ambitious type of young woman to the small hospital. The Vancouver General Hospital has already arranged affiliation courses, and several other of the large hospitals in British Columbia have signified their willingness to do the same.

Dr. H. E. Young also urged that the bill should be given the favorable consideration of the House, as nurses were of great importance in a household at a time of sickness. The family had to depend on medical men and the doctors had to depend on their nurses. Nothing worried a doctor more than to have an incompetent nurse in charge during his absence, Dr. Young said. Under this law he would know that "R. G. N." stood for quality.

"He also referred to the difficulty in giving full training to nurses in small hospitals. Even in the Royal Jubilee Hospital, of Victoria, excellent as it was, the graduates had had no training in midwifery until this year, and the provisions of the present act would overcome this weakness, he declared. It was not only a protection for the nurses, but much more so for the public.

"This seems to me another of those propositions to get everything into the hands of a corporation," objected Mr. McLean. "In many cases of illness our grandmothers are better nurses than the best trained nurse in British Columbia. This bill is a direct discrimination against working men and women who cannot afford a high-priced trained nurse. The cost of medical attention is going up all the time owing to such measures as this. Nursing is a profession in which experts are born more often than bred, and any mother of a family will tell you that she would rather have the old-fashioned nurse than the modern one."

Mr. Mackenzie pointed out that the bill did not interfere with grandmothers nursing all they wanted to. It referred to nurses who were graduates of large hospitals. In his opinion the bill did not go far enough as it was not compulsory, and perfectly good nurses might not register under it.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB GAVE ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT

Excellent Programme Given At Presbyterian Church Last Evening.

The entertainment given by the Fortnightly Club, of the Presbyterian Church, last evening proved a treat to the many who were present. W. E. Williams, who acted as chairman, spoke briefly, remarking that the club was closing for the summer months, after enjoying a very successful season. He announced that an Outing Club had been formed for the coming season.

One of the features of the evening was the playette entitled "Tilda's New Hat," a sketch, which kept the audience in convulsions of laughter. Those taking part were Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Duncan, Miss M. McColl and Mr. Corkhill. Mr. and Mrs. Brady pleased the audience with a selection from "The Merchant of Venice."

A piano duet, "Mendellson's Wedding March," by Mrs. Bay and Miss Brand, was well rendered, receiving hearty applause. Mrs. Miller, who is always a favorite, rendered a solo, "Marie My Girl." Miss Irwin accompaniest. A quartette, "Sweet and Low," by Mrs. Darton, Miss Kathleen Grant, Mr. Darton and Mr. Currie was well received. Mrs. McIntosh rendered Scotch songs in her usual charming manner. One of the most pleasing items on the evening's programme was the reading, "Legend Beautiful," by Mrs. C. L. Munroe. The singing of "God Save the King" brought the evening to a close.

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED

Prince Rupert people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-i-ka has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. C. H. Orme, the Pioneer Druggist. g-5

Eye Troubles Corrected

Mr. Bulger has had over ten years experience in sight testing and fitting glasses, and last mid-summer took a post graduate course, which included the latest discoveries in the science of optometry or eye measuring. One of the most important is dynamic skiametry. The new method of Prof. A. J. Cross, of New York, in which the eye is measured by a beam of reflected light and any error is recorded.

But we do not simply rely on one method; each eye is tested separately, in three different ways, besides trying the muscular balance, together and the nervous acuteness.

We use the new drugless methods, no drops in the eye and no heavy frame resting on your face; ours swings from the wall by a bracket.

"The Reliable Plumber,"

Prince Rupert, B. C.,

I have great pleasure in certifying to the excellent hot water and heating system that you installed in our parsonage, and that after six months of operation through the winter months it has given every satisfaction.

The system heats a thirty gallon tank of water to boiling temperature in one hour after the fire has been started; it in no way interferes with the oven for baking purposes. In addition to this, the wall radiator which you placed in dining-room and connected with the range boiler has given us splendid satisfaction, supplying us with ample heating throughout the winter, saving us the cost of a stove and fuel.

I most heartily testify to the satisfaction and efficiency of your system and gladly recommend it.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) (Rev.) J. F. DIMMICK.
