HON. WILLIAM MANSON NOW ASSURED OF SUCCESS

THE PRINCE RUPERT DRYDOCK IS SECOND TO NONE

Hon. William Manson Pleased With Prospects On Queen Charlottes

Hon. William Manson, Minister of Agriculture, and Conservative candidate for the Prince Rupert Electoral District returned from Queen Charlotte Islands Friday afternoon, having made a complete tour of the Islands. He was accompanied by J. E. Merryfield, Conservative candidate for the Dominion Electoral District of Skeena.

The following places were visited: Naden Harbour, Massett, Tow Hill, Woden, Nadu, Sewall, Port Clements, Tl-Ell, Hydah, Skidegate, Queen Charlotte City, Aliford Bay, Sand Spit, Lockeport, Jedway and Ikeda Bay.

Mr. Manson states that at Naden Harbour the whaling station and the cannery are both in operation. The saw mills on Graham Island are at present shut down. Re-organization is now taking place and it is expected arrangements will soon be made to commence running again.

There are five mills established on Graham Island, two at Port Clements, one at Massett, one at Sewall and one at Queen Charlotte City. The operation of these mills will mean a great deal to the Islands, and the legislation of last session to carry our lumber and other products to the markets of the world will materially assist in the operation of these mills.

At other points on Graham Island agricultural progress is being made. The settlers are increasing their clearings and improving their holdings. With the development of mining, milling and fishing, excellent markets for farm products will be opened. There is a large increase in live stock and with improved steamboat connection with Prince Rupert, which is greatly needed, the people of the Islands will be in a position to furnish Prince Rupert with a large supply of beef, mutton and pork, as well as other products of the farm.

A cannery is now in operation at Aliford Bay and the oil refinery at Skidegate, both of which have assisted in making Skidegate Inlet a busy place.

The outlook for mining on Queen Charlotte Islands is very bright and the settlers are much interested in the prospects of increased markets on that account. The mining property known as the South Easter, near Skidegate, is being developed and is expected soon to become a shipper. Development work is also being carried on at Lockeport, Tasso, Jedway and other points on Moresby Island. The Ikeda mine at Ikeda Bay is now shipping 100 tons of ore per month to the Granby Smelter at Anyox. Recently a rich strike has been made in this mine of 20 per cent. copper. The intention is to materially increase the output in the near future, and it is hoped by the end of the year to reach 500 tons per month.

Boring operations are proceeding on the Swede Group at Lockeport by the Granby Company.

Altogether mining prospects on Queen Charlotte Islands are brighter than at any previous time.

THIS CLAUSE IS A DIRECT BLOW AT THE BRITISH PRINCIPLE THAT "A MAN'S HOME IS HIS CASTLE."

That Clause 40 of the Prohibition Act provides that if liquor is found in your possession, it is necessary for you to prove that you obtained and are holding it legally.

IN OTHER WORDS, THE ACT HOLDS THAT YOU ARE GUILTY UNTIL YOU HAVE PROVEN YOUR OWN INNOCENCE.

GOVERNMENT IS SAFE OF ELECTION

R. F. GREEN, M. P., SAYS CONDITIONS IN KOOTENAYS ARE GOOD

The Conservatives Will Sweep The Southern Interior Of Province.

(Special to The Journal.)

Victoria, Aug. 25.—Interviewed on his return to Victoria, after a tour through the interior in company with Premier Bowser, R. F. Green, M. P., whom there is no one more competent to express an authoritative judgment, expressed the opinion that there will be a sweeping victory for the up-country candidates who are standing in the interests of the Conservative party.

"In my opinion," said Mr. Green, "and I have seen something of election campaigns in this Province, the electors of British Columbia are behind the Government. There is absolutely no question in my mind that the Government will be returned to power at this coming election.

"The measures which the Government has already taken for the encouragement of the timber, mining and agricultural industries have elicited the whole-hearted approval of the people of the interior. Business conditions in that section are exceptionally good, better in fact than for years past. More men are at work in the mining and lumbering industries than ever, and the prices of the products of both mills and mines are better than ever. In consequence the people of the interior desire no change. They feel that the policy under which good business conditions have returned and which will still further improve the position, is the one entitled to their support. They are content to retain a definite programme of tried value

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of the late Alexander Meikle, who died Friday, August 25, at the Prince Rupert Hospital, will be held from Hayner's Undertaking Parlors this afternoon, Sunday, August 27, at 4:30 p. m.

FINE RECEPTION TO HON. W. MANSON

Enthusiastic Working Committee Is At Work For Conservatives.

On his return from the Queen Charlotte Islands on Friday, Hon. William Manson was given a hearty reception by his friends at the committee room. A smoker was given in his honor Friday evening. W. E. Fisher, chairman of the campaign committee, presided. There were a number of songs given during the evening by Messrs. Harris, Sinclair, Nicholls Jones, Meth Davis and Murray. Mr. Manson, at the close of the meeting was cheered to the echo, after which those present sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Called upon to speak, Mr. Manson dealt at some little length with the situation as he found it on the Islands.

Reading from an alleged interview with T. D. Pattullo as to the splendid outlook there was for the return of the Liberal candidate, Mr. Manson said these stories were not well founded. He never found the people of the riding more favorably inclined to the Government. On the Queen Charlottes the vote would, he was satisfied, be two to one in favor of himself (Mr. Manson).

The war had caused a good deal of depression on the islands, but there were men who were staying with their pre-emptions. These were making progress, and he was pleased to see considerable stock being introduced. He believes there are great possibilities in connection with the Queen Charlottes. He felt that there should be a regular weekly boat connection with the islands, the boat having its headquarters in Prince Rupert. Until wholesale supplies were all provided from here there would be a disadvantage to the business here. It was the duty of every citizen to do his part in making Prince Rupert the centre for the trade out of here. With vessels making this their headquarters and plying the places within reach, the advantages would be all in favor of this port.

Mr. Manson referred to the attempts made to villify the Conservative party and the Conservative leaders by the Liberal party. The Opposition had a great deal to say about Bowserism.

There was talk about machines in this election. There was a machine that should be broken, and that was the Liberal machine in Prince Rupert. If it had not been for the Conservatives and the Labor men in this city, Prince Rupert would not stand in the enviable position it did with respect to its public utilities. There had been a great deal of criticism of himself (Mr. Manson). He had taken that criticism, as a public man had to expect to take that. His opponent, Mr. Pattullo's record along the lines referred to was not above reproach.

Mr. Manson recalled the early attempts made to secure charters in Prince Rupert and the part he had played in holding the utilities for the city. An instance was recalled in this respect where Mr. Pattullo had sought a charter for a telephone company.

Prince Rupert Men Making Good At Front And Winning Honors

In a letter received by M. M. Stephens from Dr. N. McNeill, the medical officer of the 102nd Battalion, some very interesting facts are given as to what the officers and men from here are doing. The letter was written on August 4, before the battalion left for France.

Extracts from the letter reads as follows:

"We are all packed up to go and expect to leave next week for France. The 102nd were rather fortunate in that they secured a place on the 4th Canadian Division under General Watson. On looking us over for about five seconds they decided to take us on, hence the move.

"I was up in London last week-end and ran into Major McMordie, who was there having his artificial eye fitted. He looks very well indeed, though hit thirteen times on the 13th of June. How about the number? He, of course, is very proud, and so ought Rupert to be. He got the D. S. O. for his work, as did Major Cy. Peck. The latter is going to be some soldier if he is not that already. I was talking with Gen. Odlum who is just back from France, and he says Peck is a coming big man at the game.

"All our boys from Rupert are with us yet and are all well. Capt. Halsey s working hard and makes a capital officer. Capt. Kirkpatrick is the pet of the whole bunch, especially when the boys want to go to London. He has made good and was complimented by the General staff here for having his books in better shape than any other batttalion coming from Canada.

"Pa Beak has gone to the war office London on a staff job until after the war. Major Gibson was wounded in June and has gone to Scotland to convalesce. Trave Lucas is with the 54th and lives as in Rupert, next door to me.

Mrs. McNeill arrived last Sunday and will live with her mother until I return.

"Oh! poor old Tom Maitland is still on the job and is now busy teaching about one hundred mules how to swear in French."

The funeral of the late Alexander Meikle will be held this afternoon from Hayner's Undertaking Parlors to Fairview Cemetery. The deceased was 40 years of age and was born in Kulsliston, Scotland. He had been employed on the G. T. P. Rev. J. F. Dimmick will conduct the services.

LIBERALS FAIL TO WIN VOTES

RESIDENTS OF QUEEN CHARLOTTES DO NOT TRUST THE OPPOSITION

J. E. Merryfield Tells Of Conditions As He Found Them.

J. E. Merryfield, who is the nominee of the Conservative party for the Dominion elections, and who represents the northern portion of the Province on the provincial executive, made the trip to the Queen Charlotte Islands with Hon. William Manson. He returns exceedingly pleased with the reception accorded the Minister on that trip. Mr. Merryfield is amused at the contention put forward by the Liberal candidate, Mr. Pattullo, that the islands were to go almost decidedly in favor of the Liberals. He thinks Mr. Pattullo must have passed through very lightly without meeting many of the settlers if he could reach such a conclusion. This is a general habit of the Liberals, and in 1912 they claimed a clean sweep woul, result on the Islands; yet, Mr. Manson received about 3 votes to one cast for the Liberals. In the coming election Mr. Merryfield feels absolutely safe in promising that the Minister of Agriculture will receive 2 votes to every

LIBERAL FORGETFULNESS.

The Liberal politicians have a happy faculty of forgetting all the past of the party in efforts to tickle the fancy of the public. And so we have the spectacle of the candidate of that party in this riding at a meeting on Monday night telling what his party is going to do for the fishing industry. His remarks on this subject were made, according to the Liberal chronicle of the meeting, immediately following the shedding of his coat. In truth, there would seem to have been some method in his coat shedding. It would appear to have been simply symbolical of the attitude of mind in which he found himself. His remarks show that in casting off his coat he was prepared to forget at the same time all the traditions and all the past of the Liberal pary. The Liberals former policy relative to fishing went with the discarded coat of Mr. Pattullo.

This Liberal of the Liberals talks of his party being prepared to restore the fishing industry to the white population. When did the industry on the Skeena ever get its first taste of white labor? Not as long as the Liberals remained in power. The Conservative party came into power to find the river given over to the monopolists that Mr. Pattullo weeps about; they found the fishing boats manned by Japanese exclusively. The Conservatives have taken the initial steps to right this. Today white fishermen are given the fullest opportunity to engage in the industry.

With an election on his hands, Mr. Pattullo has become exceedingly jealous of the Oriental in this country. The root and branch method of excluding Orientals by total exclusion was never practised by the Liberal part and is not followed in practise by those who prat about it now.

FALSE COURAGE.

The Liberal condidate for Prince Rupert, whenever he speaks, tells of the wonderful victory he is going to have at the polls. To those who have taken pains to investigate the real conditions this is amusing. It is recognized as an attempt on the part of Mr. Pattullo to keep up the courage of his followers, who are becoming less all the time. When he talks of Hon. William Manson having trouble to save his deposit, he overdoes the thing from his own standpoint. He no longer is amusing, he must be regarded only as dealing in buffoonery. Mr. Manson is a safe winner.

FINE RECEPTION.

The Minister of Agriculture said he had no doubt as to the results of the election. They must work, however.

The Liberals were using, in connection with the campaign, that there was time for a change that Vancouver foretold it. Mr. Manson said he thought that the Liberals should be reluctant to use that. Vancouver's action was that which followed, the assistance of the pluggers from Seattle. The evidence before the committee of the Legislature all pointed to the connection of the Liberals wih the plugging. The Vancouver Sun garbled the reports. If the Liberals should win the election, it could only be by the people believing the falsehoods put forward by the Liberal press.

rather than to endorse a party which has so far shown itself to be incompetent to advance a single logical reason why it should be given the reins of power.

"We had a splendid trip. The reception accorded the Premier was a magnificent one, and everywhere he spoke he was greeted with large audiences, who gave him a rousing welcome. The electors in the seven constituencies to which I accompanied the Premier—Columbia, Fernie, Cranbrook, Kaslo, Trail, Slocan and Revelstoke—showed unmistakably by their attitude towards the Premier that they have every confidence in his adminisration. It was apparent that they desire no change at this time, but, instead, are satisfied that the progressive programme of the Government is undoubtedly the best thing for the Province.

"They feel that the Conservative Government's bona fides has been ably demonstrated by the constructive legislation which was passed at the last session of the Legislature. They contrast these performances of the administration with the entire lack of any definite proposals from the opponents of the Government, and have been quick to appraise at its real value the Liberal campaign of insinuation and slander, a campaign which has so far disclosed not a single idea to indicate in what manner the Opposition proposes to advance the best interests of the Province."

one cast for Mr. Pattullo.

The pioneer settlers on the Islands are firmly behind Mr. Manson and the Government. These men who had followed the course of the Government through the years had every confidence in Premier Bowser, and were very proud of the honor done the north in making Mr. Manson Minister of Agriculture. The unfair criticism in the press and on the platform of Mr. Bowser and his Government was having the effect of drawing these settlers more firmly to the support of the Government.

The settlers, he found, appreciated the legislation passed last session. They appreciate the fact that Mr. Bowser and his Government is not appealing on any vague promises, but on legislation placed on the statutes. They failed, they said, to get from Mr. Pattullo any clearly defined line of policy which was in keeping with the policy of the Liberals elsewhere.

The settlers met with on the Islands showed indignation at the accusations of the Liberal candidates in the north, as to the indifferent way in which they performed road work. They contend that they have given full value in the work performed. Many of these men had lived in Prince Rupert in early days and were inclined to believe that the desire of the Liberals was for a contract system in connection with this work. This they did not want, having in mind how his had worked out in the City of Prince Rupert. These settlers remembered Mr. Manson's protection of the city franchises in the early days and they were prepared to continue their support of him.

Mr. Merryfield said that it was amusing to see The Daily News advertising that the Islands had been depleted of settlers. It was true that about 150 of the residents had enlisted and were serving with the colors. In this way the Islands were doing as other parts of the north, but there were still a good representation of the old settlers there. These were evidently not visited by the Liberal candidate on his trip.

Mr. Merryfield said the weather was excellent throughout the visit. The crops on the Islands are looking well and the settlers are looking forward to making a splendid exhibit at the Fair here. Mixed farming is coming into more general practice. The stock is looking well and there is no reason why large quantities of sheep should not be raised there. They do well, and have no wolves or other enemies to guard against.

The mills are starting up again under the demand which has been created for the excellent clear spruce found on the Islands.

In a fishing line, the cannery at Naden Harbour has been catching many salmon, while at Aliford Bay the cannery has been getting all the fish it can handle. W. J. Leary has been operating the Orley at Skidegate.

The prospectors at various points are very optimistic. The Ikeda property is shipping and the work being done by the Granby Company at the Swede Group is encouraging other holders.

With regard to the boat service to the Islands, Mr. Merryfield points out it is a question of vital interest to the people of he city. It is up to the people of Prince Rupert to look after this trade and thus benefit Prince Rupert to the fullest extent.

CHARLES CHERRY AT THE MAJESTIC

In A Picturization Of The Famous Play "The Mummy And The Humming Bird."

Tomorrow evening the Majestic Theatre presents "The Mummy and the Humming Bird."

In the adaptation of this celebrated dramatic success, the Famous Players Film Co. introduces another famous Frohman star, Charles Cherry, to the motion picture public. The drama is one of those rare plays which permits an actor of real ability to display the full force of his histrionic power. "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" recounts the tragedy of a neglected wife who seeks amusement in the company of an unscrupulous Italian novelist, Signor D'Orelli, known as the humming bird, who seeks first-hand information of the experiences and emotions of which he writes. Unfortunately his next story is to concern the wrecking of a home. The re-awakening of the unsuspecting husband, the revenge which a former victim of the wily schemer wreaks upon him, and the saving of the innocent woman, are fraught with thrills and dramatic suspense in abundance.
