CANADIANS ARE WANTED FOR THE IMPERIAL NAVY

Local Men Behaved Splendidly Under Fire At Front

Haig's Drive Is Proving A Significant Victory For Allies

Men Of Local Battalion Made Excellent Showing In Action At Front

Letters continue to arrive telling of the excellent behavior of the men of the 102nd Battalion from here in the memorable battle of October 21, when Capt. Adair Carss, Lieut. Gordon of Terrace, and many others were killed.

In addition to mention made through these columns previously, a letter has been received by George Wynn of the Marine Depot, from his brother Jack, formerly of the Government wharf, written on October 29. He tells of having received a slight wound from shrapnel. It took effect in his neck, but he is not badly wounded and will soon be all right.

He says in the letter that they had lost Capt. Adair Carss. Lieut. Gordon of Terrace, McPherson from here, Corp. Hay, a South African war veteran, and Doherty, all of whom were killed. Then, in addition to himself wounded, he mentions Lieut. Copp. There were several others he learned from here who had been wounded but he had not received their names at the time he wrote. Andy Brighton, he said, had gone to England.

The 102nd, the writer says, has made a great name for itself. The men acted like dreadnoughts, but he adds, "we miss the boys who fell awfully."

The weather is very bad, with rain and cold. Mud, he says, is the worst trouble they have to put up with.

ALLIES PRESSING CLOSELY UPON CITY OF MONASTIR

London, Nov. 18.—Fresh information received shows that the French, Italian, Russian, Serbian and British forces on the Macedonian front are making victorious progress and that they are fighting their way through fog, snow, sleet and mud towards their goal. It is predicted that Monastir will fall within three days.

Serbs Make Gains.

Saloniki, Nov. 18.—The French and Russian troops advancing towards Monastir have captured the villages of Velushina, Parrodin and Jabyani. The Serbians, since November 10, have captured 3,900 prisoners and 24 guns.

RAID MADE ON GAMBLING PLACE BY THE POLICE

In the police court yesterday a fine of $20 was collected from John Peters, convicted of running a gaming house. Five who were in the place at the time, engaged in a poker game, were fined $7 each.

The magistrate gave them a warning that they would be dealt with more severly next time.

ONTARIO MINISTER DIED YESTERDAY OF HEART FAILURE

Toronto, Nov. 18.—Hon. J. S. Duff, Minister of Agriculture in the Ontario Government, has died of heart failure. Mr. Duff had a son killed at the front two weeks ago.

GERMANS WERE TAKEN BY SURPRISE

GEN. HAIG'S VICTORY OVER THE HUNS IS PROVING OF GREAT IMPORTANCE

Many Thousands Are Coming In And Surrendering To Allies.

Haig's Headquarters, Nov. 18.—The importance of the British victory along the Ancre is becoming hourly more apparent. The real significance of this most decisive engagement since the prolonged trench warfare began is just beginning to loom up, as thousands of prisoners, in addition to the thousands already accounted for, begin to come in. According to reports received from British transport officers, thousands are now en route for the British bases.

The weather on the Somme front is now intensely cold, and frost has set in following the fog in which the great movement was carried out. The Canadians are now engaged in strengthening their trenches for winter occupation.

The most amazing part of Haig's drive is that the Germans seem to have been taken entirely by surprise. They were evidently relying upon the natural strength of their position and had never thought for a moment that the British could successfully attack them. A dense fog added to their bewilderment and the British infantry was right on top of them before they realized what was happening. The German leaders tried to rally their men, but the British charged with such determination that their momenum carried them right through the first line positions. It is not impossible that this big vicory may lead to a general drawing in of the German lines along this section of the front.

INTERESTING STORY OF NOTED DIVINE

SON OF CANON FARRAR LIVED NEAR VICTORIA AFTER DISGRACE

He Has Now Redeemed Himself In Foreign Legion Of France.

The New York Herald says: "Another man has emerged from the European war purged of disgrace, according to information received today. Frederick P. Farrar of the French Foreign Legion, has been decorated for valor in the field, and acclaimed for conspicious gallantry.

"He disappeared five years ago, after his many friends here and in England learned that, as the Rev. Dr. Frederick Percival Farrar, Rector of Sandringham, domestic chaplain to King George, and honorary chaplain to Queen Alexandra, he had been dismissed from his court posts. He had not been heard of since in the United States or England, until a few days ago.

"For a year he has been fighting in the Foreign Legion, but it is not known under what name. His persistent courage finally drew attention to him. In addition to other honors, it is understood he was offered a commission in the British army by the King, but declined, preferring to fight in the ranks with his present comrades.

"The former rector's wife was Miss Nora Davis of Philadelphia, a sister of the late Richard Harding Davis. He had met her when he was a Philadelphia newspaper reporter, and they had been married only five months when his disgrace came.

"Farrar is a son of the late Canon Farrar, author of the famous 'Life of Christ.'

Imperial Navy Is Seeking Five Thousand Canadians For Service

owing to the necessity of utilizing all availablo tonnage and to cope with the traffic, the Department of Naval Service undertook to supply the empty Admiralty colliers with cargoes for European ports. The plan rapidly developed, and Mr. A. H. Harris, formerly of the C. P. R., was placed in charge of the organization, with the title of Acting Director of Overseas Transports. The work has so developed that today thousands of tons of materials are shipped daily from Canadian ports to the Allied nations. The sailings average a ship a day. All ships are fine modern vessels, of suitable capacity for the Canadian trade, and are allocated by the Admiralty for this service as necessary.

Speaking of the work, the Annual Report of the Naval Service Department, just issued, has the following: "Control of the traffic inland, by rail and otherwise, its reception and storage at the shipping ports, the allocation of cargo to the different ships, the stowage on board of the various materials so as to provide for the maximum use of the tonnage at our disposal comes under the jurisdiction of Mr. Harris and his staff, who have been lent to the Government for this purpose by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. The movement and control of the ships are under the direction of the Department, who act for the Imperial Government, and are the medium of communication with them on all matters relating to the service."

The growth of the service has been astonishing. In April, 1915, the amount of tonnage cleared was 35,307 tons. This has steadily grown until at the end of the fiscal year, March 31, 1916, the total for the month of March was 173,538. For the year the total tonnage handled by the department was not less than 973,805.

The Imperial navy wants five thousand Canadians; two thousand before the end of the year, and the balance at the rate of three or four hundred a month. To secure these men is the mission of Capt. the Hon. Rupert Guinness, now on the coast.

Capt. Guinness points out that trained seamen are not particularly sought. Any man of good physique and ordinary intelligence, for whom the sea has a call is acceptable. On a modern battleship there are a number of experts but there are also numerous men engaged in work which requires only elementary training. Moreover there are a host of auxiliary services in connection with the navy, in which new men may be engaged and as their adaptibility is demonstrated transferred to the post to which they are best suited.

Canadians thus engaged for the Imperial navy are paid on the same basis as men of the expeditionary forces, with the same separation allowances, but while on actual service ney draw only the same pay as British seaman of the same rating, the balance being retained in Canada pending the termination of their service.

What Canada Does In Advertising The War Business

Some one has said that the Borden Government needs a $10,000-a-year advertising man, states the Ottawa correspondent of The Toronto News. There is some truth in the statement, he goes on to say. The present cabinet ministers are poor publicity agents. As for their faults, the opposition press sees that the public are informed of them. But there is a lot of important quiet work going forward in a businesslike way of which not a word is ever heard.

For instance, how many people in Canada know that since the outbreak of the war the Department of Agriculture, under the direction of Hon. Martin Burrell, has purchased between fifty and sixty million dollars' worth of hay, flour and oats directly for the Imperial authorities? The saving in commissions for the British Government has amounted to millions of dollars, and the advantage to the farmers of Canada has been enormous. All this vast work has been done through the machinery of the Department of Agriculture and by the regular officials, with the direct oversight of Mr. Burrell.

Another instance is the transport service, which is handled by the Naval Service Department, under Hon. J. D. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries. It has developed and accomplished a wonderful work and its organization has been one of the big accomplishments of the administration. The public has never heard of the work of this branch.

ALSO CANADA'S SHIELD.

The manner in which Lady Guinness presented to the women of New Westminster what their concern in this world war is, could not fail to impress. If the British steel wall—the invincible Grand Fleet—went down, Canada would be just Canada, as pointed out, the British Empire would be as nothing for this Dominion, and it would not be long before the Hun was at the gates. Canada would then pay bitterly for her part in opposing the world domination ambition of the Hun.

Thus the call comes to people of this country to recognize what the navy is as a protecting force and to support the recruiting campaign for the Royal Naval Canadian Volunteer Reserves.

The navy will ever be the chief protecting force for Canada as it will be for the Mother Land, and this fact should not be lost sight of. Let it be hoped also that the time will come when Canada will be adequately represented in fighting ships on the High Seas, as her sister Dominion, Australia, is today.

INTERESTING STORY.

"He was graduated from Cambridge in 1897, and in 1905 he succeeded to the rectorship of Sandringham. Many celebrities were at his marriage at St. Andrew's, Westminster, to Miss Davis. Then suddenly it was reported he was suspected of an offence that made the retention of his office impossible. He is said to have refused to resign when asked. The next day he disappeared. It was reported later he was in British Columbia."

Frederick E. Farrar appears to be identical with N. P. Farrar, who for years had a small farm at Mount Newton, on the West Saanich Road, near Victoria.

Mr. Farrar sold out his furniture on September 30, 1913, and the sale was unusual because the splendid collection of antique and old silver attracted dealers from an extended area. He disappeared and nothing has been heard of him since.

A gentleman resident in this district, who knew Mr. Farrar well, says that he is absolutely satisfied the man who has just won renown in France and obliterated the stain on the honored name he bore, is the N. P. Farrar who resided at Mount Newton. Mr. Farrar was a linguist and a man of great accomplishments He had evidently moved in the highest circles in England, but was reticent concerning his past. Those who knew him, however, and were aware of the disappearance of Dr. Frederick Percival Farrar, former rector of Sandringham, and domestic chaplain to the King, connected his appearance in Saanich with the incident. While here he was known to be a son of the famous Dean of Canterbury.

WATER NOTICE.

Take notice that G. R. Naden Company Limited, whose address is Prince Rupert, British Columbia, will apply for a licence to take and use 300 cubic feet per second, and to store 40,000 acre feet of water out of Kum-ea-lon River which flows northwesterly and drains into Kum-ea-lon Inlet. The storage dam will be located at the natural outlet of Lake Katherine. The capacity of the reservoir to be created is about 1,280 acres, and it will flood about 200 acres of land. The water will be diverted from the stream at a point about at the storage dam and will be used for power purposes upon the land described as below. This notice was posted on the ground on the 4th day of October, 1916. A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act 1914" will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Prince Rupert, British Columbia. Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, British Columbia, within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper. The territory within which the powers in respect of the undertaking are to be exercised is Prince Rupert, British Columbia, and vicinity and along the transmission line between the Power Station and Prince Rupert, British Columbia. The date of the first publication of this notice is November 17th 1916.

Production and Thrift

"CANADA from her abundance can help supply the Empire's needs, and this must be a comforting thought for those upon whom the heavy burden of directing the Empire's affairs has been laid. Gain or no gain the course before the farmers of Canada is as clear as it was last year—they must produce abundantly in order to meet the demands that may be made, and I believe this to be especially true in regard to live stock, the world's supply of which must be particularly affected in this vast struggle. Stress and strain may yet be in store for us all before this tragic conflict is over, but not one of us doubts the issue, and Canadians will do their duty in the highest sense of that great word."—HON. MARTIN BURRELL, Minister of Agriculture.

"MODERN war is made by resources, by money, by foodstuffs, as well as by men and by munitions. While war is our first business, it is the imperative duty of every man in Canada to produce all that he can, to work doubly hard while our soldiers are in the trenches, in order that the resources of the country may not only be conserved, but increased, for the great struggle that lies before us. 'Work and Save' is a good motto for War-time."—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

THE CALL OF EMPIRE COMES AGAIN IN 1916

TO CANADIAN FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, FRUIT GROWERS, GARDENERS

WHAT IS NEEDED? THESE IN PARTICULAR—

WHEAT, OATS, HAY,
BEEF, PORK, BACON,
CHEESE, EGGS, BUTTER, POULTRY,
CANNED FRUITS, FRUIT JAMS,
SUGAR, HONEY, WOOL, FLAX FIBRE,
BEANS, PEAS, DRIED VEGETABLES

We must feed ourselves, feed our soldiers, and help feed the Allies. The need is greater in 1916 than it was in 1915. The difficulties are greater, the task is heavier, the need is more urgent, the call to patriotism is louder—therefore be thrifty and produce to the limit.

"THE AGRICULTURAL WAR BOOK FOR 1916" is now in the press. To be had from The Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

TO EXPLOIT HERRING.

Prince Rupert in the Jesse, who is associated in the new venture, for a considerable time past has been busy superintending the outfitting of the Favorite as a "saltery" and everything is now in readiness to tow the craft to her new station.

Hesquait is to be the base of operations for the new fishing venture. The company, which is backed by Victoria capital, will operate a fleet or small craft, power and sail, out of Hesquait.

As the herring catches are brought in by the small craft they will be salted aboard the Favorite and made ready for the market. Capt. Heater recently returned from the west coast with a sample consignment of herring and it was quickly disposed of in Victoria. The herring are plentiful and of such quality that a ready market is assured. Many tons of salt and large ice shipments have been placed aboard the Favorite and her deck has been cemented and fitted for the purpose of handling and cleaning the fish as it is taken aboard.
