Russian Armies Still Holding Their Own Thus Prompting Asquith's Praise

London, July 28.—The Russian armies are still holding the German-Austrian advance upon Warsaw, by counter offensive movements.

Heavy Loss Reported.

Though the Germans hold the line from the Gulf of Riga around Warsaw to Galicia, it is estimated that they have lost 500,000 in the effort.

The Russian line is still unbroken, and they are holding Von Hindenburg on the Narew River.

After four days fighting the attempt to seize the Lubin-Chelm railway continues.

Asquith's Praise.

The British Prime Minister, Premier Asquith, said today that there had been nothing in military history that afforded a more magnificent example of discipline and endurance than that shown by the Russian army.

Although hampered, he said, by lack of munitions, it still impedes the enemy and evades any decisive action which might annihilate it.

OVER TWELVE MILLION POUNDS OF FISH TAKEN DURING MONTH OF JULY

The Pack of Salmon Exceeded One Hundred Thousand Cases During The Month---Halibut Taken Exceeded Two Million Pounds For Same Time Being Increase Over Last Month---Humpbacks Are Running Strong In The Skeena Now It Is Reported.

The month of July has been a heavy one as far as the fish returns of this centre is concerned. Including the Skeena canneries, the catch of fish during this month has been over twelve million pounds. The salmon represented about ten and a half million of this, while halibut for the same time was over two million pounds, which is a decided increase over the month of June. Taking an average value of five cents a pound for fish, the values of that taken has been about $622,000. This is certainly a great showing for one industry, and one that should make for the building up of a great centre here.

During the month there has been 107,827 cases of salmon put up at the canneries within reach of here. The catch of sockeye is reported for the early part of this week to have been good, but during the last few days it has been falling off again. It is reported that there are good runs of humpbacks now coming. This variety of salmon is running strong in the river now in fact.

The salmon end of the fishing has been the large one during the month of July. The total etch was 10,424,400 pounds. This at a valuation of five cents a pound, represents for that time, a value of $521,220. In disposing of the salmon, there has been about 894,900 pounds that has been used fresh or frozen. There were 427,600 pounds that was mild cured, while the remainder was treated in the time honored method of canning. This provided for 107,827 cases.

Halibut, the next largest producer of tonnage, was represented here by 2,010,700 pounds, which is a magnificent showing.

Cod was accountable for the landing of about 8,000 pounds, which was all used in a fresh condition. There was in addition to this a small quantity of crabs that was landed here and made use of. The amount of this is not obtained, but represents considerable.

EXCITING BASEBALL MATCH PLAYED AT ACROPOLIS HILL

Prince George Won By A Lucky Hit Made By McGuire.

The Prince George baseball team return to their homes this morning after defeating the local players in two of the three games played. Last evening's match was the most exciting of the series that was played here. At the beginning of the eighth innings, with Hunt pitching for the local team, all looked well. The score was standing 3 to 2 in favor of the home players, and the game was going with little choice to be made in favor of either team.

In the eighth, however, Prince Rupert's evil star came in to the ascendant. With the bases full and only one down, McGuire the pitcher for

Hazelton May Give Machine Gun

This giving of machine guns to assist the troops from here at the front is becoming infectious. Anyox has provided for one gun. The Cold Storage in this city has done the same. The citizens are contributing to another. It is said that the canneries will give one of these at once, and now it is altogether likely that the town of Hazelton will be contributing to a fund to give a gun. When Roy Mosele y gets back to Hazelton, he says that he will start a campaign for one. As a means of effecting it he is going to make use of the letter that was sent by Major Peck to the editor of the Journal.

RUSSIA'S GREAT WORK.

The press despatches indicates that Russia is making a great fight against the common enemy. So valiant is the fight that she is putting up, that Premier Asquith has taken occasion to pay a compliment to that nation and its valiant soldiers for the magnificent fight that was being put up. These words from Premier Asquith will go a long way towards a'laying any feeling that the Russian army was not doing its fullest duty.

RUMOR OF CHANGE.

There is a persistent rumor (says the London World), that there is likely to be a change in the command of the British Expeditionarv Force in Flanders. It is said that Sir John French will return to England to take up the command of the home forces, and that he will be succeeded in Flanders by Sir William Robertson. The latter is the brilliant chief of staff, who began life as a footman, and afterwards, having joined the army as a private, rose to he head of the Staff College. For three years previous to the outbreak of the present war he had lectured on the next war with Germany, and it is said that the plan of campaign which he indicated has proved amazingly correct. The appointment, if made, is likely to meet with the warm approval of General Joffre."

BEN TILLETT'S ADVICE.

Ben Tillett, who has organized so many successful strikes in England, is organizing another one, but it is causing enthusiasm, not alarm, through the country.

"We're going on strike against the Germans. If we don't strike now, and strike hard, there is no use striking. The capitalists must strike with us. If we don't crush the Germans tomorrow there'll be no capitalists. Every man who can't get into khaki can get into the workshops. We are fighting Prussianism; something that has been preparing to murder civilization for forty years. Our fight must not be any kid glove business. We've got to murder back, and murder as hard as we can. It must be slaughter for civilization's sake. Get busy and let's slaughter."

With Mr. Tillett, who before the war was so frequently denounced as a public enemy, adopting this attitude, there need be no fear of the part that British organized labor as a whole will play from now on. His language may jar some people. It is to be hoped that it does. This is a time for talking plainly and facing ugly facts and ugly necessities.

Sale Of Cooking.

D. Brown electrician, corner Third Avenue and Fifth Street has kindly lent his store for the Red Cross sale of home cooking on Friday next, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Mrs. McColl and Mrs. Pattullo will be in charge, and will be glad to receive contributions.

Items picked up for the most part from Visitors to this City.

Among the visitors to the city are Dr. and Mrs. Murphy, of Moncton, N. B. This is the extreme limit on the Atlantic coast of the National Transcontinental Railway. In the visit of Dr. Murphy, there comes one from the eastern terminus of the railway system to the western one. Dr. Murphy is identified with the railway service as far as the engineering department is concerned. He passed upon the work of construction from Edmonton to the Yellowhead Pass in the days of construction. For about forty years he has been in the public service. Mrs. Murphy has not been well, and the trip to the Pacific is now taken in the hope that her health will be improved. They will spend several weeks here and elsewhere on the coast.

Charles Howard, of Vancouver, who is making a round trip on the first run of the steamer Camosun on her northern service, is a member of the firm of Ross & Howard of the southern terminal city. He is identified with the machinery business, and his firm has the distinction of having turned out the largest flywheel that has ever been made on this coast, at least as far as B. C. is concerned. The wheel was cast for the Daly Reduction works in the interior. It was manufactured directly under the supervising eye of Mr. Howard himself. The wheel was sixteen feet in diameter and weighed over twelve tons. It was thirty-seven inches in width. In turning the wheel down, after coming from their casting room, over a ton of iron was taken off. Mr. Howard was an interested visitor to the drydock here during his stay.

Robert Drummond of the Railway Mail Service in Vancouver is here. He is a guest at the Hotel Prince Rupert for a few days. He is an old-time official, having gone out of Vancouver on the first mail car that left there. With Superintendent McLeod, he is one of the oldest on this service on the Pacific side of the service. All has not been pleasure during his career in that capacity. He has been in many wrecks, numbering up to about fourteen that he is sure about, and some that he may have forgotten in his long service. He has the distinction of having carried Superintendent McLeod on his back after the mail car burned up, and when the superintendent, who was then only a mail clerk, had been badly burned in a successful attempt to save the registered mail.

Is Business Slow?

It probably serves you right

You are not letting the public know what you have

That is the Solution

That manufacturers should increase their advertising appropriations during a period of business depression and curtail during the years of prosperity, was the opinion advanced by Roger Babson, the financial and business statistician, at a meeting of the Technical Publicity Association, held in New York.

"Directors of your company regard advertising as a luxury to be cut down when business is poor," said Mr. Babson. "They give you orders what to do rather than you giving them orders.

"If you solved this advertising problem in a scientific way you would tell them what to do, the same as their lawyers and their bankers tell them.

"In a year of prosperity they are willing to give you a big advertising appropriation, and when the reaction comes they cut down to almost nothing. Take the big appropriation in the fat years and salt it away for use in the lean years.

"If you all did this the business of the country would move along more evenly; the business boom would be less, and the reaction, the area of business depression, smaller."

ANOTHER OF THE OLD GOLD SHIPS IS GONE

Destruction Of Bertha Leaves Few Of Original Klondike Steamers Still Afloat.

Another of the famous Klondike steamers has come to grief in northern waters. The Victoria Times told of the total destruction of the American steamer Bertha. She struck on Harvester Island, Uyak Bay, Alaska, during a heavy gale, and immediately afterwards fire broke out and completely gutted her. Capt. Chas. Glasscock and his crew of 18 men are safe, according to the latest despatches.

The Bertha operated in the coast trade for a great many years. Following the discovery of gold in the Klondike she was kept in service continuously, and turned out each month to her owners huge profits. But like many of the old gold ships the Bertha was destined to leave her bones to decay on a reef in Alaska waters. Gradually the packets are slipping from view and in a few years none of the original gold ships will remain afloat.

So memorable was the history of the Bertha in the gold rush to the Klondike and so well known in connection with the development of the north, that she was chosen at the first Potlatch celebration to take the part of the gold ship Portland which was sunk in Alaskan waters.

The Bertha is registered at 926 gross tons and 752 net tons. She was built by M. Turner at Benicia, Cal., in 1888. She had a length of 185.5 feet, a breadth of 32.5 feet and a depth of 22.1 feet, and was originally owned by the Alaska Coast Company, which later was absorbed by the Pacific-Alaska Company. The ship was valued at $75,000.

The Bertha, loaded with lumber and cannery supplies for the Libby, McNeil & Libby plant at Nushagak, Bristol Bay, cleared from Seattle at 8:30 a.m. July 9. She had no passengers. Uyak Bay, where the boat is reported to have gone ashore and burned, is on the northwest coast of Kodiak Island and is an arm of Shellikof Straits.

FUNERAL SERVICES WERE HELD YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Large Attendance To Pay Last Tribute Of Respect To F. Morgan.

There was a large attendance of friends of the late Frank Morgan at Hayner's Chapel yesterday afternoon where services were held over the remains preparatory to their leaving this morning for the east.

The chapel was crowded. The casket was covered with wreathes, and all about it were other floral offerings.

Rev. Canon Rix conducted the services. He alluded to the fact that it would be some consolation to the relatives of the deceased, to know that he had had many friends in the city, and not a single enemy.

The body will leave by the train this morning for Hamilton, Ont. Mr. Morgan, the father of the deceased, will accompany the remains east.

HEDLEY CONTRIBUTED TWO MACHINE GUNS

Patriotic Little Mining Town Supplies Quick-Firers For The 54th Battalion.

Major Megraw, of Vernon, Inspector of Indian Agencies, received a telegram from his old home town of Hedley, placing at his disposal the price of two machine guns, contributed by the citizens of that place to the 54th Battalion. Half of this amount was raised by the employees of the Hedley Gold Mining Co., and the remainder by the citizens of the town.

Hedley has a population of less than a thousand, but its inhabitants have shown their intense patriotism in many ways since the war started, having sent a large number to join the colors, and being extremely generous in contributions to various funds.

fending the flag and standing guard in various ways. One received by the editor of the Journal, shows the Canadian in a somewhat different role, however. The card is labelled "The Canadians are holding their own, at Hythe." It depicts a Canadian soldier in khaki warmly embracing a Red Cross nurse, who is to say the least, showing no reluctance to return the compliment.

The card was written on July 6. It announces the arrival in England, and says that they narrowly escaped a submarine. There are no particulars of it, however.

Capt. Clayton conveys the information that he saw Col. Vic Odlum in London the day previous. Col. Odlum is an old newspaperman on this coast and known to many.

the visitors went to bat. The situation looked critical at the best for the home players, but no one expected to see the finish of the innings with such a whirlwind victory for the Prince George's.

McGuire, however, found the ball, and with a terrific drive far beyond the fielders, he cleared the bases and made a home run himself, bringing the score by one jump up by four.

That was the last scoring that the visitors made, but it was enough to give them the victory. In the last innings the local players made another run and brought the score more even again.

The score by innings was as follows:

Prince George	0-2-0-0-0-0-0-4-0	—6
Prince Rupert	0-0-0-0-1-1-2-0-1	—5

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS.

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Applications for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only; but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 per acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.
