VOL. 5, NO. 38 LILLOOET, B. C., FRIDAY, JULY 16, 1915. $2 PER YEAR

Provincial Outlook is Good

It is evidient from reports on trade conditions in British Columbia which have been received by officers of the Canadian Northern Railway Co. at Toronto, that the war in Europe was not the entire cause of the business depression. Representative business men of Vancouver and Victoria almost unanimously advance the opinion that speculations of the boom period in real estate, account for the greater portion of their troubles. They add that the European conflict has had the effect of complicating conditions of trade, but contend that the slowing down of provincial commerce may justly be attributed to the economies British Columbians were forced to resort to in order to meet payments for the real estate they had purched long before, in the hope of obtaining a prompt and excessive profit. But it also seems from the reports, that the days of disipline have resulted in the formation of a new perspective towards business generally, and the revival which now appears to be imminent will find a people without illusions and with a more intelligently directed courage waiting to take advantage of its opportunities. These reports of the C.N.R. are supplementary to those published recently in connection with the survey of trade conditions in Canada, which was conducted by that company.

In British Columbia, the worst effects, commercially, of the war overseas, have been experienced by the men engaged in the lumbering industry. The demand for building material from the people in the prairie provinces fell off sharply almost immediately after the outbreak of war, and has not yet returned to its former volume. This undoubtedly adversely affected a number of smaller operators, or at least those enterprises lacking adequate backing, but the larger concerns which were well financed have been able to easily weather the re-adjustment period. At present, it would appear that the mills in B.C. would be doing a much larger business if ships were available to move the product to its destination. A shortage of bottoms as a matter of fact, appears to be the chief handicap. While prices have eased off somewhat, the shrinkage has been taken up, possibly more than taken up better, and what a manufacturer describes as "more tractable," labour. A remedy for the price trouble is being sought in plans for the organizing of a central selling agency, similar to that operating in the State of Washington.

The mill men on the coast say that stocks of lumber all over the world are badly in need of new supplies. If from the confidence engendered by the harvestiing of a good crop, building resumes its activity in the prairie provinces, and vessels are able to clear to newly developed markets in Great Britain, the West Indies, and the American Atlantic Coast States, they expect a business that will tax all their available facilities. In the meantime, it is shown that one mill in Vancouver is working overtime on new orders, which will keep it busy for a considerable period, and other lumber men are in daily expectation of

"Help From Every Class"

The Lillooet War Fund committee, being anxious to send forward the money already subscribed for the Canadian Red Cross Society (There being urgent and immediate need of it), would call on all those who have put their names down for certain amounts to kindly hand the same to Mr. Le Mare, the Secretary.

They would also appeal to those who may not be on the list, to come forward and help to swell the amount to, at any rate, the figures we have always sent. This is not charity. It is the Duty of every man and woman that they owe to the "Men who are fighting for them."

Read what Premier Asquith says, "For my part, in every speech which I have made to my countrymen since the first day of the war, I have tried to strike two notes: A note of warning as to the gravity of our task, and a note of confidence as to the ultimate issue.

There is a fit place, there is fitting work for every man, for every woman in the land.

And when the time comes, be it sooner or later, when our cause has been vindicated, and there is once more peace upon earth, may it be recorded that the proudest page in the annals of this nation was that—There was not a home in the whole of the British Empire—which did not take part in the common struggle and earn its share in the common triumph."

Another result of the efforts made by the Provincial Government on behalf of the lumber industry is announced by the Minister of Lands, the Admiralty having agreed to turn over to the British Columbia Government, for one voyage from this coast to the United Kingdom, the steamer "Grahamland" now at the Falkland Islands. The "Grahamland" has an interesting history, having been, until the destruction of Admiral von Spree's squdron, the German collier "Josephena," when she surrendered to one of the British warships.

The ship was offered through the Agent-General, to the British Columbia Government for the transport of a lumber cargo to United Kingdom, not necessarily for admiralty purposes, and this being so, all timber shippers were notified and asked to make offers for the vessel. the amount of the charter being $33,000. The bid of the Cameron Lumber Company of Victoria, was accepted, and the "Grahamland" is expected to arrive for August loading. Her capacity is given as 550 standards equal to 1,100,000 feet, and the securing of such a vessel at a time when tonage is scarce by a B.C. firm even at such a high figure is a matter for congratulations. It is hoped that the "Grahamland" will not be the last of the captured or interned German ships to be utilized in the lumber carrying trade from this coast.

Late War Telegram

London 15—Two strongly held Turkish trenches defending the Dnrdanelles have been captured by Anglo-French forces on the Gallipoli Peninsula according to an announcement given out this morning by the British official press bureau.

Amsterdam.---The German admiralty have proclaimed a state of war at Kiel, in anticipation of an attack by British ships and submarines upon that naval base according to advices from Berlin.

Rome.--Turkey has made overtures for a separate peace and is confirmed by information from a diplomatic source, but the negociations are not being carried on in Switzerland as reported. The Turkish government has not sent the Missaries there, instead Turkish diplomats in the Bulkan St'ts are indirectly communicating with representation of Entente powers who are authorized to fix conditions of peace.

London—Financial News says Germany is making tentative peace proposals.

Summer Delights

Yesterday was a day brimfull of pleasure for the scholars and teachers of the Lillooet Sunday School. Between thirty and forty happy youngsters and about twenty visitors and friends of the school were transported to the beautiful mountain home of Mrs. F. Kinder who welcomed with her usual hospitality the large party of visitors, young and old.

By the kindness of Mr. P. B. Lewis, of the Victoria hotel, and of Mr. J. Rutherford, who lent their automobiles the fun commenced from the moment the youngsters climbed into the cars at the meeting place, the Methodist church.

Arrived at the Picnic Ground the party obtained views over lake, mountain, and valley which are indescribably beautiful.

Good things to eat were provided in abundance by several ladies of the town.

After dinner, games of all kinds were heartily enjoyed by all present and Mr. J. S. Bell and Rev. J. B. Butler are to be congratulated on arranging a programme which ensured the fullest satisfaction.

Several of the summer visitors to Lillooet, including Mrs. Bowser and family, and Mr. and Miss Lewis graced the occasion with their presence and assured the hostesses that they had had a "real good time."

No purer or keener pleasure can this world afford than the spectacle of young and beautiful life as exemplified in the joyousness of childhood.

Mrs. J. S. Bell superintendent of the school and the committee thank all who contributed to the day's pleasure.

Notice is hereby given that it is my intention thirty days from date to sell by public auction all unclaimed and unindentified baggage that has been lying in the Victoria Hotel the charges on which have unpaid for the last twelve months.

"Pa," queried little Tommy Toddles, "what's a parasite?"

"How long have you been going to school, young man?" asked Toddles senior.

"Four years," answered Tommy.

"Well," continued the old man, "there is something wrong with our educational system if four years of schooling haven't taught you that a parasite is a person who lives in Paris."

Provincial Outlook is Good

orders for large quantities of building materials for reconstruction in Europe. There are evidences that the clear spruce of British Columbia is meeting with favor for the construction of aeroplanes, and several small supplies have been delivered.

The credit situation in the province is improving, and it seems to be the general opinion that obligations have been well met when conditions are considered. Lumbermen report that their collections are satisfactory. The weaker dealers are not in the market to any extent, and the stronger firms are able to meet demands made upon them. Export lumber is sold on a basis of cash on delivery.

The Department of Agriculture for British Columbia, reports that the agricultural situation is distinctly encouraging, and that weather conditions are favorable for growth. Increases are reported in land clearing, and in the area devoted to crops of all kinds. The profits of poultry raising have been reduced to some extent owing to the high price of grain, but there has been satisfactory increase in dairying. In small fruits, there is a fair crop. The selling organizations have been improved, and prices have been excellent so far. Truck farming is increasing, and the B. C. produce is largely displacing imports from the United States. The prices for beef, pork and mutton are good and likely to so continue. There is a satisfactory increase in hog raising. The establishment of public markets is proving very satisfactory, and is reducing the cost of living.
