VOL. 5, NO. 33 LILLOOET, B. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1915. $2 PER YEAR

General News of Lillooet District

FOUND—A pair of spectacles. Apply at the Prospector office.

Mr. V. Huus, Bank of British North America inspector, paid Lillooet an official visit during the past week.

Mr. Harrry Gibbs of Babine Lake is in town on a visit to his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gibbs.

J. A. Skertchly of the Horse Shoe Bend, passed through town this week, on his way to the Old Country.

Mrs. C. P. Dam of Bridge river, arrived in town this week and left for a visit to the coast cities.

Joe Russell, who has been on an extended trip to the coast, arrived home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Noel left for the Bridge river country this week, on a fishing and hunting tour.

Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott from Tuxford, Saskatchewan, are visiting Lillooet as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Le Mare.

Mr. and Mrs. Bothwell of Vancouver Island, accompanied by her sister Dorethy Kinder, paid Lillooet a visit during the past week. Mrs. Bothwell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Kinder, of Seton Lake.

There are too many pin-heads in this province who howl at any person who wishes to push things along, they sit in the shade with their mouths open, expecting people to come along and drop gold dollars in their mush tunnels. They will do nothing themselves and knock those who are trying to build things up.

There are "men" and "apologies for men." Which class do you belong to?

"My good man," said the chronic meddler to the old Irishman who was building him a chicken coop, "why don't you stop drinking?"

"Sor," said Pat, "I havn,t taken a drink in tin years."

"Oh, come off," sneered the meddler, "you tell me that when your nose is as red as fire?"

"Yis," said Pat. "Tis not the dhrink thot makes my nose so red. 'Tis blushing with pride because it attends to its own business."

At the Movies

On Sunday afternoon, in the Moving Picture Hall (kindly lent by Mr. Paul Santini) the Rev. Robert Hughes of Vancouver, will deliver a short lecture on, "Did the Whale Swallow Jonah?" being a review of some of the Bible difficulties in the light of modern thought.

The men of Lillooet, and in the construction camps are very cordially invited to attend.

No Sermon and no Collection.

Mr. Hughes will be glad to deal with questions sent up by any in the audience as far as he is able.

The chair will be taken at 4.30 p.m. by Mr. P. B. Lewis of Lillooet.

"Sports as Usual"

The greater the support given to the Lillooet Celebrations on the 1st and 2nd of July the greater will be the Lillooet War Fund benefit.

This is the outstanding feature of this years Festival so far as Lillooet is concerned.

For every $100 contributed to the sports fund, $10 goes to the war fund.

Energetic collectors in the persons of Mr. Wm. LaValle and Mr. George Prosser are using every means to ensure a heavy list of donations, and are already being well received and supported.

The two days holiday will give opportunity to large numbers around to attend and the P.G.E. Railway Company are arranging for Special Rates to Lillooet.

Two brass bands will enliven the proceedings, one from Pemberton, the other from the Fountain.

One most important feature will be the judging of the Horse races by that well known judge on all racing tracks Mr. McQueen, who will by his reputed ability give confidence to those who take part in these leading events.

The Lillooet citizens are determined to make this years meet a record success. Let it be so!!

Congratulations

Little Joe Johnson, whose life was despaired of on May 10th, is about to leave the Lillooet Hospital, to all intents and purposes a perfect cure.

An attack of pneumonia and fever combined had brought the little fellow to death's door, and while his little sister Mary was being conveyed to her last resting place (she having died of fever after a brief illness) it seemed a foregone conclusion that little Joe would soon follow her across the "Great Divide." But Dr. Christie, who, with Dr. Asselstine and Nurse Whitehead, had been unremitting in efforts to snatch this cheery little boy from an early death, made a final effort after all had been done that seemed humanly possible for their patient.

At 2.30 a.m. a preliminary operation was performed and to the surprise of all, Joe survived it and in the forenoon of the same day a further operation was performed, and though for days the young life trembled in the balance the turn finally came and today hearts are cheered through the devotion and skill of the Doctors and Nurse.

Volunteers Depart

Two volunteers left Lillooet this week for Kamloops, they are Clem Morgan and Allen Morgan, although of the same name they are not related. Clem is well-known here, he having played baseball for the locals during the last two years. Allen is an old soldier and has seen service. Both the "boys" were employed on the Pacific Great Eastern railway, and are in the pink of condition. Every good wish goes with them in their endeavour to do their utmost for freedom of nations.

Church Services

Church of England—Morning 8 a.m.; 11 a.m. Evening at 7.30 p.m.

War Gleanings

All enemy aliens among the miners in the Crow's Nest are being sent to the concentration camps.

The Italians have taken the town of Monfalcone which is sixteen miles northwest of Triest.

Many of the Turkish forces in Tigris region are retiring in disorder, dicarding their arms in the endeavor to escape.

London June, 9.—Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons today that the British casualties from the beginning of war to May 31, totaled 258,009 men.

All battle fronts in European conflict are scenes of fierce encouters by opposing forces.

The Allies have carried the posts of the enemy near Arras, have taken positions in Neuville St. Vaast, and are holding and strengthening all positions they have taken.

Lillooet War Fund

The committee of the Lillooet War Fund announce that the collections for the Red Cross Society now amount to $178.88.

They wish to thank Miss Reed of Lillooet for the contribution entered in the name of Miss Nora Christie for the sum of $6.50 proceeds from the sale of flags.

As the Red Cross Society are asking for immediate funds to carry on their noble work, the committee wish to appeal to those who have not yet donated to this worthy eause, to hand their subscriptions to Mr. Wm. Adams, collector for the fund, or to Sec-Treas, Le Mare, Provincial Forest Office, so that a substrncial sum may be formarded to the above mentioned organization as soon as possible.

When reading war criticism it is always advisable to find out, if possible, the name and qualifications of the critic, before putting much faith in the article. It is usually the person who knows nothing whatever about war that has the most to say about it.

Some caustic comments are being printed in American papers, concerning the resignation of Mr. Bryan. The New York Times says: "The place and time demands not a Bryan but a statesmen of the ability and the stature of Elihu Root."

A young woman went to a grocery store and asked the polite clerk if he had some good cheese.

"Yes, indeed!" he replied. "I have some lovely cheese."

"It is not correct to call cheese 'lovely'," she said.

"How is that?" he inquired.

"Because 'lovely' should be used to qualify only something that is alive."

"Well," said the clerk, I'll stick to lovely'."

The Lytton baseball nine are expected to arrive here this week to play the local nine.

For Protection of the Forest

The following is a list of the Forest Rangers and Forest Guards and their districts as announced by the Forest Branch Fire-protection Department of the Lillooet district.

WEST

Fred Johnson, ranger in charge
R. Burkholder, guard Bridge riv'r
A. Williams, guard upper ,, ,,
J. F. Arthur, guard Ander'n l'k

EAST

J. K. McLean, ranger in charge
J. McKinley, guard Clinton div.
M. Mawdsley, ,, N. Bonapart
W. Boyd, guard LacLaHache div.
R. Hume, guard Alkali lake ,,

CHILCOTIN DISTRICT

O. J. Sangar, ranger in charge
J. A. Stewart, guard, Hanceville.

The forest rangers in charge are all members of the permanent staff of the forest branch, being experienced cruisers, and timber men.

The forest guards are only engaged for the fire season and are experienced in woodcraft and in the handling of fire fighting tools

They are resident in their respective divisions and are required to know all the roads and trails as well as the topography of their districts.

The destruction wrought by the ravages of forest fires has greatly decreased during the past few years, and it is anticipated this year, with the organization of such an efficient force of fire rangers that the damage will still further decrease.

The splendid co-operation which the officers of the department received from the general public is very encouraging, as the vast areas which have to be covered by each individual officer, cannot be efficiently controlled without the aid of these public spirited people who recognize the great importance, of the work, undertaken by the department in the protection of the greatest resource of the Province.

A baseball match is billed for 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

It was at a ten and fifteen cent vaudeville window. A country villager approached.

"Ten or fifteen?" asked the ticket seller.

"Jist one," said the villager. "I hain't got the fam'ly along."

A social evening was given last Saturday evening by the local engineering staff of the P.G.E., to their many friends, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Craig, Cayoosh creek. The guests spent a very pleasant evening, arriving home in the wee small hours of the morning.

Mail Order Craze

Retail merchants can do a great deal in the way of curtailing the operations of the mail order houses. If the merchants advertise intelligently in the local papers, it will pay them and at the same time gain the support of local publisher in the movement towards creating a more loyal feeling towards the home community. The spirit of "Home Loyalty" is being encouraged in many sections and the following notice which has appeared in many rural newspapers will show how the small town publishers are taking up the matter. The following is from a Vernon, B.C. paper.

"It is worth while to stop and think seriously what this sending of money to mail order concerns mean locally. It means poorer schools, poorer roads, higher taxes, unemployment. To buy cheap things cheaper never did and never will mean prosperity.

"There is involved in this thing of sending money to large cities for goods which can be purchased from the home merchant, the question of local prosperity. It is a poor policy to tear down the business stability of the home town in order to swell the prosperity of the large city.

"In the long run there can be no gain to anybody in patronizing foreign business concerns at the expense of local concerns. If local merchants cannot get sufficient business to pay the expense of operation, it means that smaller stocks will be carried and that the range of selection will be restricted. It means that fewer clerks will be employed; it means that, fewer houses will be built or rented; it means that the growth of the local town or city will be retarded. This means in the long run that the amount of taxes which the rural districts will have to pay will be increased or that the public highways and other conveniences which make for better things will be sacrificed.

"This thing of sending out money in large volume which should be spent at home always strikes back some way or other. The school teacher may send away for her gowns; the boardhouse keeper may send away for her gowns; the boarding-house keeper away for his needs. Then comes the cry that revenues from local taxation because of decreased business are not adequate to meet expenses. School boards are confronted with the necessity of cutting salaries; the patrons of the boarding house become fewer; the sign 'for rent' is seen conspiciously posted on buildings.

"The whole question of local betterment is involved in this foolish mail order craze. If a community is foolish enough to spend its money abroad which should be spent at home, then that community must satisfy itself with poorer schools, roads, churches, theatres, mean-looking towns, everybody in debt, mortgages foreclosed and general business depression.

"If the people would cut out the mail order nonsense for six months, there would be a local prosperity which would surprise everybody. When all the people learn that their own community is most worthy of consideration, when they learn the folly of building up great cities at the expense of their own local towns, then they can be called rational, and not till then."
