War Gleanings

London, May 12.---The sinking of the steamer Lusitania has aroused to a violent climax the smouldering hatred and suspicion of Germans living in England. This animosity has found expression during the past twenty-four hours in attacks on Germans, principally upon their shops in the poor quarters of London and Liverpool, while there have been minor disturbances in Manchester, Birkenhead, Glasgow and a few other places.

A spontaneous movement has developed in the London market to boycott subjects of enemy countries, and small dealers who appeared for supplies today, were refused them and a number of them were driven away by the crowds.

A reuter dispatch from Johannesburg says a mob wrecked a number of Austrian and German establishments in that city yesterday.

New York, A despatch to the "Evening Post" says:

"There is every indication that the American career of Dr. Bernard Dernberg, ex-Minister of the Colonies in the Cabinet of the Kaiser, is rapidly drawing to a close.

"It is the general impression in official Washington that, like a parrot, he has talked a great deal too much and that something is likely to drop within a short time.

Germany must stop their piracy say note from America.

The Allied fleet are again bombarding the Dardanelles, thus indicating troops have gained good footing in the Krithia vicinity, some five miles from the point where they landed and from the entrance to the straits.

Muscovites are driving the Austrian troops back and capturing many prisoners and quantities of munitions.

Austria has, at the eleventh hour accepted all proposals of Italy, and thus, for the time being war between the two countries has been averted.

Paris, May 11---Kaiser Wilhelm has written to Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, requesting her to use her influence with her son, King Victor Emmanuel, towards preventing Italy from intervening in the war, according to despatches received here today from Rome.

The Queen is reported to have replied: "In the House of Savoy we reign one at a time."

London.--- Viscount Bryce, formerly British Ambasador at Washington, in presiding at a lecture on International law, among other remarks said:

"The technical legal description of pirates was that they were enemies of the human race. They are everybody's enemies alike. They are wild beasts on sea, and a danger not to one nation in particular, but to all mankind, and neutrals will be just as much ultimately involved as are the nations at war."

Viscount Bryce added: 'The German idea was that they terrify nations and was another of the numerous mistakes they have made."

To the Commander of Submarine that sank "Lusitania."

Ye have broken all the rules of war,
The traditions of the brave,
We lift our hands in speechless awe,
Above the children's grave.

We figured you an honored foe,
Surfit with power, and pride,
We find, a skulking, traitor, lying low,
Cold, coward on the side.

Our wondrous ways, are on the waves,
Our mighty march, o'er battle fields,
Nor mountain mists, nor gulfs, nor graves,
Shall shade the sunshine from our graves.

A.M.

No German Spoken

According to the Cologne Gazette, the Russian authorities are determined to stamp out once and for all the German influence which in the past swamped Russia. An absolute ban has been placed on the speaking of German, and several "Baltic" Russians of German descent, who are still full of German sympathies, have been sharply reminded that they are not above the law. Baron von Sievers, Baron von Mayendorff and a German lawyer named Petzold have been fined $150 each for speaking German in the street. Russia certainly is determined to put up with no nonsense.---London Sunday Pictorial.

Mr. Justice Murphy has sentenced T. M McKillarny to be hanged at New Westminster on August 3, for the murder of Detective Lewis, last August. The prisoner asserted his innocence and begs for forgiveness for the jury for verdict they had given.

The sinking of the Lusitania has been a great boom to recruiting.

London, May 12--By the King's command, "all celebrations of his birthday at home and abroad, with the exception of the flying of flags, will be dispensed with this year owing to the war. The foregoing announcement was made public by the British War Office.

Geneva. --- All Italian officers and men in Switzerland up to the age of 34 have been ordered to rejoin their regiments immediately.

Sydney, May 12.---That deep indignation felt throughout Australia at the sinking of the Lucitania should find immediate expression in increased participation in the war, was a statement contained in a resolution adopted yesterday at the conference of Australian premiers.

A Milan despatch from Udine to the Havas Agency says trains arriving from Austria are filled with Italian travellers. Hundreds are waiting at Trieste railroad stations for places on trains.

Church Services

W. D. Kerfoot was registered on the Lucitania from Ashcroft.

Mr. and Mrs. Poland, accompanied by their family, left town this morning, for the United States, by way of the P.G.E. railway.

The sergeant (to recruit who has failed to hit the target at short range) Cease fire, No 1. Fix baynet, charge! It's the only blooming hope you've got.

Canada, if she carries out the wheat-growing problem which has been reccommeded, will become the dominent factor in the grain market after this year's harvest. Will Greater Britain rally to the Motherland's assistance?---English Eddition World's Work.

Charlie Loveday: Um-ah-er-er! He! he----

Jeweller (to his assistant): Bring that tray of engagement rings here, Henry.

It is intended to hold a service on Sunday evening May 23rd at the Methodist church in connection with the Sunday School and it is hoped that parents of children attending the school will endeavor to be present. Further particulars in next week's Prospector.

Chas Perrault, the Indian who killed the Indian woman at Hat creek last October, was found guilty of murder before Justice Hunter, at the Clinton assize. Perrault, by outward appearance seemed to be quite unconcerned, and smiled at the remarks of the witnesses. Perrault shot an Indian woman in bed during the night in the presence of another woman who was the principal witness against him. He took to hills and was not captured until about one month later.

The hanging is to take place at Kamloops on July 9.

In the recent list of casualties from the front we notice the name of Lieut. Booth, Royal Field artillery, as having been wounded. As will be remembered Mr. Booth was a partner with Downton and some three years ago did considerable surveying in the district and on Bridge river. Mr. Booth is quite an authority on ths Science of Ballistics and was a member of the Edinburgh Royal Garrison Artillery before coming to Canada. Immediately on the declaration of war he offered his services to the war office and received a commission in the Royal Field artillery.

Miss T. H. Wolfe, representative of the Vancouver World, paid Lillooet a business visit, during the past week. Miss Wolfe is quite optimistic concerning the paper; it is under entirely new management and is independent.

The smoke from the forest fire has at last passed away, and the beautiful scenery is once again in full view. The fire started at Pemberton Portage and spread over an area of about 150 acres, the property of Messrs Charles Place and W. Ash. It is now under control, and is being watched by Forest Ranger Fred. Arthur.

The weather last Wednesday was ideal for camping out, in fact, was so ideal that at least one person could not resist the temptation, and finding a nice springy board in the sidewalk, hung his cap on the near-by gate post, started to disrobe, he, in fact, got so far as to the taking off of his underwear, when he was politely told that he could not "sleep there," and, after a little persuasion, although disapointed, he went to a neighboring hotel to pass the remainder of the hours before dawn.—We don't get much money, but we see lots of life.

Opportunities for B.C. Lumber

Cardiff is the greatest lumber-importing point in the United Kingdom except London. The annual imports approximate 1,500,000 loads, of 50 cubic feet each. Imports into Newport, the other port in the district, exceed 300,000 loads. By far the larger part of this import is of newn timber, consisting mostly of the stems of coniferous trees, used for props in coal mines.

The imports of sawn timber into Cardiff in 1913 amounted to 183,000 loads valued at $2,860,000; into Newport, to 70,000 loads, valued at $1,148,000. 1914 returns are not yet obtainable. Of these imports of sawn timber, practically all of which are of soft woods, 75 pr. cent came from the Baltic and Archangel, 20 per cent from American and Canadian Atlantic ports, and 5 per cent. from Pacific ports.

Of the import of sawn lumber 70 per cent is planks, 20 per cent in logs, and 10 per cent in manufactured doors, door frames, window frames, sashes, battens, etc. The planks in greatest demand are those between 9 inches by 2 inches and 12 inches by 4 inches; much larger sizes are taken in smaller quantities, and logs up to any size. Imports from the Pacific coast are almost entirely of large sizes and lengths, and are used in large buildings and for government purposes. They command higher prices.—Call.
