A beautiful hand-painted tray was this week raffled for the benefit of the Lillooet War Fund. Mr. Wm. Manson was the lucky winner. The tray was painted and donated to the cause by Mrs. D. Craig. The adding of $25.00 to the fund was the ultimate outcome.

A Board of Investigation, in connection with the Water Act, rights and priviledges, will be held in the Court-house, in the near future. For full particulars see page 4 of this issue.

Today, Secretary-Treas. LeMare has forwarded a Bank draft for $500.00 to the Treasurer of the Red Cross Fund, Vancouver, B. C. from the account of the Lillooet War Fund.

Lillooet Machine Gun

The Committee of the Lillooet War Fund have passed a resolution that collections now made to the fund shall go towards the purchase of a machine gun to be called the "Lillooet Gun."

Mr. Adams, Chairman of the Fund during his address to the citizens of Lillooet on Aug. 4 electrified hearers by stating, "that by next Wednesday week he thought that he could l ave the amount of $1000 the purchase price of one of these guns, collected,"

"These guns are an absolute necessity. Where British soldiers have 2 guns the Germans have 40. Canadian shells and Canadian machine guns means the saving of Canadian men.

The committee trust the people of Lillooet and vicinity will heartily approve of the raising of funds for this purpose. We await with pleasurable anticipation the fulfillment of Mr. Wm. Adams's prophetic utterance.

Machine fund as follows—

A Friend	$50.00
E. W. Cox	10.00

"August 4th 1915"

The meeting of the Lillooet citizens on Wednesday evening, August 4, the anniversary of the declaration of war, will be long remembered in the history of our little town. Although there has been some remarkable gatherings here, there has never, (with, perhaps the exception of the departure of the Lillooet contingent of volunteers, when fourteen young stalwarts answered their country's call for help), been such a gathering in our midst.

The evening's programe of consecration was opened by the singing of the hymn, "Our God Our Help in Ages Past."

Dr. H. A. Christie, chairman for the evening, then, in a short, but very appropriate address, explained the objects of the meeting, (which was announced last week), adding that it gave him much pleasure to address such a fine representative assembly of the Lillooet citizens, who had done so nobly in this the Nation's time of need.

Mr. O. J. Sangar, soloist for the evening, then very ably sang "The Best Flag on Earth," the audience joining in the chorus.

Mr. Wm. Adams, and Mr. J. S. Bell, during the course of the evening, very ably delivered two most interesting addresses on the war, thereby bringing to all present the "vital necessity of everybody doing all in their power to crush the German menace, which is threatening the world today."

Words never rang more true than those of these two speakers, who, realizing the situation, spake with such soul stirring forcibleness, that all were intent to hear every word of their addresses.

The Ladies of Lillooet, as usual, had taken every precaution to ensure the success of the refreshment side of the program, with their united efforts centered on two booths, one under the management of Mrs. H. A. Christie and Mrs. P. LeMare, the other under Mrs. J. S. Bell and Mrs. W. T. Bridge, and what with home-made cakes, ices, soft drinks, cigars, fruits, candies, etc., they certainly tempted the the citizens, who heartily gave way to the temptation, causing the wares to disappear as if by magic, and incidently the funds to grow.

Too much emphasis cannot be placed on this part of the programme, for it was by the untiring efforts of the ladies that the magnificent sum of $200.00 has been added to the Lillooet War Fund.

A very pretty and symbolical item of the day's proceedings was the dressing, in miniature nurse's costumes, of Miss O. Bell and Miss E. Bridge, for the purpose of canvassing the outskirts of the town thereby giving all a chance to donate to the relief of the wounded. The total gleaned by these young people is $34.30

During the course of the evening Mrs. J. S. Bell very ably sang "Tenting tonight on the old Camp Ground," and Mr. Sangar, "O Canada," and "Rule Britannia."

The following resolution was moved by Dr. S. Clarke, and seconded by Mr. D. Hurley.---

"That this meeting of the Citizens of Lillooet, British Columbia, assembled on August 4th the Anniversary of the declaration of War between the British Empire and Germany, desires to express its thankfulness for the success thus far attending the British and Allied arms, and its satisfaction at the steps being taken by the Leaders of varions departments in the conduct of the Campaigns; also to record its unswerving confidence in the future glorious and successful issue of this great conflict.

Further, this meeting desires to record its gratitude to the brave ones who have gone to the battlefield to dedefend their homes and country."

The resolution was passed unanimously, the assembly rising and singing the National Anthem

Mr. P. LeMare, Sec-Treas. of the Local War Fund, gave a synopsis of "What Lillooet Had Done," in this crisis. The following account, by him, speaks for itself.

National relief fund	$ 405.50
Belgian relief fund	500.00
Canadian patriotic fund	500.00
Overseas Daily Mail tobacco fund	48.50
Cash in bank Aug. 3	426.38
Total	$1970.38

During the evening reference was made of the boys who had left Lillooet for the front, unfortunately the speaker was not aware that Mr. A. P. Chisholm, a native son, had left for overseas service.

The meeting was followed by the sale by auction of all eatables left over, and a short concert of National airs of France. Russia, Japan and Italy, played by Mr. Faulkner, and highly appreciated by the audience.

War of Opposing Principles

Editor of the Spokane Spokesman's Review

The European Armageddon is more than a conflict of nations. It is a war of opposing and irreconcilable ideas.

America has no concern with this war of nations. But it has a vital interest in the irrepressible conflict between two principles.

One of these is represented by Austria and Germany. the other by England, France and Italy and by Belgium and Serbia. The Austro-German idea at bottom is that might makes right, the supposed national necessity supersedes law, that puny nations must give way to great empires, that the people exist for the use of the rulers. The English, French and Italian idea is that right should control might, that law is the master of necessity, that small peoples have the right to live, that the ruler derives power from the people and exists for their benefit. The first idea is irresponsible absolutism, the second the sovereignty of the people. The Teutonic idea in the last analysis means brute force and the rule of the sword; the English idea means the sovereignty of the moral forces and government by the people through law.

Germany declares that the will of one nation, when it can be enforced, may set aside the rights of all nations. According to the German theory the one nation if it deem this necessary, should ignore and endeavor to abolish the law of nations. Civilization has established human priviledges to be regarded even in war, but Germany asserts a "right" of necessity to violate these immunities. Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg justified the violation of Belgian neutralization, which Germany had guaranteed, on the ground of "necessity." Secretary Jagow alleges that the destruction of Americans upon the Lusitania, although America is neutral, is justifiable because England wars with Germany. A German "right" to disregard every law when law works against German interests is claimed.

American democracy is based upon ideas with which the German idea conflicts irreconcilaby. It is labor lost to try to deal with the German idea. Negociations upon the basis of international law and universal humanity stand foredoomed to failure. Germany has deliberately put itself outside of them. It wars upon the ideas that form the foundation of civilization and of democracy. The European conflict of ideas is the thing of moment and permanent meaning to America.

Mrs. Mr. R. Eagleson is at the coast.

Alex Phair, proprietor of the Excelsior hotel, paid a visit to Anderson lake this week. He is having his boat transfered to Seton lake.

Mr. A. Williams of Lillooet, kindly donated a splendid fur robe, to be raffled for the benefit of the war fund. The sale took place this week, the lucky winner being Mr. Anderson. The sum of $28.30 has been added to the fund as a result of this splendid gift.

"Pat, wouldn't yez loike to be a-working over there on that mud-digger"? says Mike. "Yes," saysPat, "but, begorra, O'id hate to be wan of the fellows under the water that's fill-in' up thim shovels."
