THE LILLOOET PROSPECTOR

Vol. 1 No. 18 | FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1912 | $2.00 Per Year

GREAT ACTIVITY IN REAL ESTATE

SEVERAL DEALS PUT THROUGH

Several real estate deals of more or less importance were put through this week in the vicinity, the greatest demand being for ranch properties, although there was one deal that means not a little to Lillooet town. A. F. Noel practically put through a deal for a property adjoining town to Vancouver parties, which will be subdivided and put into town lots which will be put on the market as soon as it can be surveyed. The parties who are purchasing the property were in Lillooet this week having their engineer with them, and they were favorably impressed with their purchase and with the prospects in general

Another deal pending is the sale of forty acres belonging to Charles Noel and situated on the Short Portage. This is being disposed of to local parties who contemplate putting extensive improvements on the property.

Stuart Henderson purchased two ranches from local parties this week, both being located across the river from town. One was the ranch owned by Jack Lynne, and the other was the property of Dan Hurley. Mr. Henderson already has large holdings in this locality.

Besides these sales there are several other deals pending and also several options granted. Prospective buyers are numerous and the demand on the increase. Several large tracts of fruit and agricultural lands have been put on the Vancouver market and a letter to the Prospector states that sales are good.

CANDIDATES ANNOUNCED

The candidates who will contest in this district for the membership were nominated on Thursday, the 14th the result announced being Stuart Henderson on the Liberal party and A. McDonald, of Clinton on the Conservative ticket.

TWO CARS ON ROAD

Passenger traffic between Lytton and Lillooet has been steadily increasing for the last two weeks and now there aretwo cars onthe road for the convenience of the traveling public. It has been necessary lately for the one car that has been operating to make a round trip daily to cope with the situation and with the continued increase both cars will be kept busy.

BUILDING ACTIVITY

Work was started this week on the new warehouse for the C. A. Phair store, and will be rushed to completion. Alex Phair is in charge of the work and is being assisted by Dick Clarke and Joe DeShields. The foundation for Billy Page's new pool room is now well under way and quite a crew of men are employed making preparations for the actual construction. From reports work will start soon on several dwellings in the town.

The Seton Lake sawmill has been operating for the past week with a full crew employed, getting a stock ahead to supply the heavy demand for lumber that they will be called on to furnish this spring.

LOCAL AND DISTRICT IMPROVEMENTS

TROUT HATCHERY ON BRIDGE RIVER

About the first of April, Mr. Ledgerwood of the Seton Lake Hatchery with a crew of five men will depart for Bridge River, where they will follow out the instructions of the Provincial Fish Commissioners and establish a hatchery for the proflagation of trout at Fish Lake. This year only a temporary camp will be established as the work is in the expermen tial stage but if the undertaking proves successful permanent buildings will be constructed and the hatchery made a fixture to the district The object of this undertaking is to stock six or seven lakes in the Bridge River section that are without fish, and also to ship to other sections of the province where it is necessary to stock streams and lakes. At present there are two men employed in the vicinity of Fish Lake whipsawing lumber for the temporary buildings, so there will be no delay when the crew arrives on the ground in starting the construction of the camp.

At the Seton Lake hatchery there has been already planted about 19,000,000 fine healthy young humpbacks, and there are about 11,000,000 more to go in. This past season's run is said to be the largest in nine years.

Earnest Duby and J. Mont gomery of Ashcroft came in by Friday's stage. Mr. Duby is a well known and popular barber in Ashcroft and came to Lillooet to look over the situation with the view of locating here. It is understood that he will put a chair in the Victoria hotel in the near future.

START ROAD WORK EARLY THIS WEEK

J. K. Moore, district road superintendent, came in from Clinton on Thursday and spent several days in town making arrangements with J. Bell, superintendent for for this section of the district, for the season's work on the roads and trails. A crew of men and two teams under the foremanship of J. Jones, was put to work early in the week graveling the Seton Lake road, working at present from the top of the clay bluffs toward town. It is understood that this work will be continued until such a time that work can be resumed on the Bridge River road and that then the largest available crew will be put to work on that road rushing it to completion to the mines in the earliest possible time. Mr. Moore also made arrangement while here to have the street improvements in town started in the near future. It is the intention to build the plank sidewalks on both sides of street. On the south side of the street these walks will extend from the C. A. Phair store to the hospital and on the north side from the Methodist Church to the town limits. The road will be graveled and put in good condition for the present and later will be graded and turnpiked.

William Durban has received a new 30-foot gasoline lanuch with a 12-horse power engine from Hamilton, Ont., and as soon as he can assemble the same he will put it on Seton Lake, and it is understood that he will cater to the passenger traffic this season.

FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1912

We are pleased to notify our subscribers and exchanges that the post master general has instructed the postmaster at Lillooet, B. C., to extend to The Prospector the usual postal privileges accorded by statute to newspapers and periodicals. Several of our exchanges not knowing the reason why postage was put on The Prospector have cut it off their list thinking that it came from some other source. We wish to thank the postmaster general for his kindness and for the promptness with which these privileges were granted.

As the snow line creeps higher up the mountain side there is a renewed interest being taken in the mining outlook in Lillooet district both by the local mining men and the incoming prospectors It is stated on good authority that it will be a month or six weeks before the snow is sufficiently off in the Bridge River section to make a trip into that part for prospecting advisable, but already several parties are arranging to go in that they may be on the ground ready for operations at the first opportunity Judging from all reports and the early movement into the hills this season, there will undoubtedly be a great rush into all parts of Lillooet's mineral section, and with experienced prospectors scattered throughout this district this year should witness some big discoveries and strikes. The more prospectors that are out the more chances for unearthing other of the big propositions that are known to exist here. Lillooet district with its miles of practically unexplored territory is certainly an ideal field for the prospector to operate in this season.

Alcohol is now being made from gas. A good deal of "gas" has already been produced from alcohol.

The Prospector's Ante-Mortem

When I cash in and my game's all played,
With the last white chip stacked up and paid;
Don't shove me under the snug green turf
In the town where I am an office serf,
Don't put me down in a dinky pot
Where they bury them several to a lot.

No, ship me back to the hills I knew
Where I was a Man and a good man too,
A sort of a king in a vast demense
Not simpiy a cog in a huge machine;
And plant me up on the mountain side
Where the cliffs are high and the view is wide
And the winds blow swift and keen and thin,
When I cash in.

When I cash in, though my ears will be
Quite deaf to the wind's shrill minstrelsy,
And the sounds I love I shall not hear,
I want to lie where the trail is near,
That the tread of the old prospector's feet
May shake the walls of my last retreat;
And the puncher, humming a careless song
May stir them too as he rides along:
And even the thnd of the miner's blast
May rock the ground where my bones are cast;
And I shall share in the miner's quest
And know their luck in my place of rest
Whether they lose the game or win,
When I cash in
