ROOM FOR RENT. -- Nice large front room furnished and heated for rent $10.00 per month Apply "Prospector."

W. Means, who is now in the army. has been here for the past few days visiting his people and friends.

A. W. A. Phair accompanied by Frank Gott spent a few days hunting in the Bridge river district last week. They obtained 2 good stagg heads and a good big horn.

Mr. Edgar C. Lunn. Government Agent of Clinton, was here this week and presided over the Court of Revision and Appeal, in connection with the "Taxation Act."

Gossip has been well defined as putting two and two together, and making it five.—There are some, however, who do not like odd numbers, and do not stop at five.

Chas Hickman, one of the best known boys of 1908, arrived on Monday from Vancouver. He, in company with W. Cox and W. Haylmore worked on placer properties on Cayoosh Creek. He eventually took the position of Constable and was stationed at the Naas.

Last week we published the following.

Wm. Dickey accompanied by some cowboys passed through town this week with a bunch of about one hundred head of cattle which they are taking to Dougal McDonald's ranch for the winter months.

We were misinformed; the cattle went to the Vancouver market, where our informant ought to be.

Hunting Party

Mr. L. Taylor, big game hunter, of Cincinnatti, arrived in town this week from a very successful hunting trip extending over 25 days.

Henry Schwartz, assisted by Joe Russell and Tommy Schwartz, was the guide of the party.

A record bag consisting of 2 rams, 3 staggs, 1 cougar, 1 lynx, 1 wolverine, and several smaller annimals was secured. Dogs and ropes were used to catch the cougar, lynx and wolverine.

The hunter expressed his appreciation of the hunting ground and intends to return in the spring and hunt bear.

It Gott My 'Goat!

Yes sir, many a thrilling story could I tell you of encounters with savage specimens of the four-footed denizens of the forest, but for real thrills this little experience beats all.

It was like this; Meinself und Gott, I, a Conservative Legislator with the most peaceful intentions, he, a "mighty hunter before the Lord", were strolling along in the valley of the Creek called "Cayoosh" when, loo afar off we beheld a beautiful member of the tribe called Mountain Goat.

After much careful scouting, stealthily we approached His Majesty; We crept up towards him with the air of those who apologize for their presence and fear to intrude. It was a bloodless operation that we were engaged in. I with my Kodak, being only anxious to get his range and focus him so as to show the full beauty of his beard, (things so rare in these days of smooth tongues and faces) and to show to my friends in the Victorian Legislative Assembly the kind of hair that can be grown in Lillooet.

One would have thought that any silly goat would have appreciated such efforts put forth by one in my position, realizing that I had indeed travelled far and risked much to immortalize him and his kind by imprisoning his image on paper, but no, such was not the case, for barely had I clicked the trigger of the Camera for the snap shot when, the Giddy Goat with head lowered and whiskers almost sweeping the ground made a violent frontal attack, charging at my centre and almost capturing my artillery. Mein Gott !!! What ingratitude !!! What had caused this? Was it political spite? Gott alone knows. And Gott cursed him and said "Let me lay low this thine enemy and bring him to nought" But I answered and said "Nay, mein Gott, for many are like unto this Stupid Goat and are hostile without just cause."

Fight for Permanent Peace

London, Nov. 17,—Reaffirmation of Premier Asquith's historic pledge regarding the Entente Allies' terms of peace, delivered at the Lord Mayor's banquet Nov. 9, 1914, was made by Sir Edward Grey British Foreign Minister, last week, in a written answer to a question put by Sir Arthur Markham, Liberal member of Parliameut for Mansfield Division of Notinghamshire.

After stating that Great Britain's position in the war is fixed by her alliance with Japan, France and Russia, the Foreign Secretary proceeds:

"In our view the conditions of peace must fulfil those laid down by the Premier on November 9, 1914. It is desirable that it should be understood once and for all that this is the determination of the Government collectively, and of the nation."

At the Lord Mayor's banquet, Nov., 9, 1914, Premier Asquith said:

"We shall not sheath the sword, which we have not lightly drawn, until Belgium has recovered more than she has sacrificed; until France is adequately secured against menace, until the rights of the smaller nationalities have been placed upon an unassailable foundation, and until the military domination of Prussia is finally destroyed."

London.—According to reports from German sources, forwarded from the Hague by the Cenlral News, 12,000 Arabs have joined with the British army in Mesopotpmia. This army is said to have approached within a few miles of Bagdad.

Call to Arms

The great and pressing need for more men has caused the Government of Canada to authorize the raising of more battalions for service overseas, and although the sons of Canada have already nobly responded to the call, the government are strongly impressed of the urgent need of more men at the present time.

The Government of British Columbia followed by many of the larger firms and corporations have issued messages to all members of their staffs who are physically fit and have no dependents, the great desirability of offering their services to their country at this critical time in the affairs of the Empire.

Lord Derby's scheme of volumtory enlistment in England has met with the approval of all parties, and a hearty response is be made.

Advices to the Hon the Minister of Lands contain some interesting particulars concerning the lumber industry in the Vernon pistrict. While at the present time there is not much logging, the mills are preparing for a fairly large cut. The S. C. Mitchell Company are working on a 3,000,000 ft. contract for flume stock, which is being shipped into the States. Several mills have concluded arrangements to buy logs from settlers this winter. and the Okanagan sawmills at Enderby have contracted for 2,00,000 feet in this way. The Nicola Valley Pine Lumber Company intends to log between two and three million feet from the Clearwater, operations to begin as soon as the snow offers facilities for hauling, while the Berterton mill will log in preparation for cutting and hauling. Other winter logging operations include those of the Summerland Lumber Company, and amount to two and a half million feet. Mining activity has provided a better market for props, and, together with a demand for railway ties, has led to numerous enquiries for timber sales. It is predictep that with improving railway facilities, and the consequent development of the mining industry, there will be an increasing use of the inland fir as the prop material.

The contracts for six million feet of snowshed timber for use on the Coquihalla branch of the Kettle Valley Railway hrve been recently let.

This season no fewer than four hundred thousand fruit and vegetable boxes and crates were used in the Okanagan, the greater proportion of which were manufactured locally.

To The Children

Nowhere, November, 1915
Dear Children,

Xmas is coming soon and I am coming too.

Last year I said in my last letter to you "Goodbye till next Xmas."

Well, the year has gone. Many have been killed in the Great War and many wounded but no harm has come to your old friend

SANTA CLAUS.

The gold mining operations of the Union of South Africa were its salvation during the recent critical period of its history, according to a recently issued report. By arrangement between the Imperial and Union Governments the continued production of gold was ensured after the outbreak of war even at times when the export of the product could not be carried on with safety. During the year gold of the value of $177,000,000 was produced in South Africa but the actual exports were only $100,000,000. Some $75,000,000 worth of Gold was retained within the Union on behalf of the Bank of England.

The most successfui Bazaar ever held in Phoenix took place last week, under the supervision of the Woman's Patriotic Society. The proceeds of this grand endeavor is estimated above the seven hundred dollar mark (in cash) and incidentally a very enjoyable time for all.

The ladies concerned in this very worthy cause certainly deserve much credit for their noble part, also those who patronized so loyally.

A colored regiment is being raised in South Africa. So great was the rush wen the doors were opened that baricades had to be erected, and a squad of police had to be requisioned to keep the entrances passable. This aptly indicates the enthuiasm with which the recruiting opened at Capetown. Within two hours 200 recruits were enrolled, a large percentage of whom had already served in the German South-West African campaign. The non-commissioned officers will be drawn from the ranks. The training of the contingent will be carried out at Simonstown. Enlistment is confined to single men without dependents.—Montreal Star.

"I wouldn't drink out of that cup," said little Johnny to the immaculate young visitor.

"That's Bessie's cup, and she's very particular who drinks out of it."

"Ah," said the young man gallantly, as he drank the cup dry, "I feel honored to drink out of Bessie's cup! Bessie is your elder sister, isn't she?"

"Oh, no," replied the small boy, "Bessie is my dog, and she's very particular who uses that cup."

"Tell me noo, Jamie, what was the most wonderful thing you saw when at sea?"

"I think the strangest thing I ever saw was the flying fish."

"Noo, laddie, dinna mak' a fule o' yer mither. Wha ever heard o' a fish fleein'?"

"Another strange thing I saw when crossing the Red Sea. We dropped anchor, and when we raised it again there was one of the wheels of Pharaoh's chariot entangled on it."

"Aye, laddie, I believe that. We've scripture for that."
