Just to keep in practice, he tried his rifle on a hawk passing swiftly overhead, & Gott him.

Mr. Pritchard is gone. He gave the operator a Holiday and fixed the line, sang some solos, and now contemplates seeking fame and fortune in Similkameen or Edmonton.

Ex-member A. W. Smith came back to see how that bed of asparagus was doing, and had some already, at the Hotel Victoria.

DREDGE

Mr. Schlecker, Secretary of the Company, and Mr. Hancock are here. H. Gethman's brother and nephew went back to Iowa and also W. L. Simplot, who will return to Lillooet after attending to a few matters of business.

It is said the wheels will not go round on Sunday in future; as some of the stockholders invested on that understanding.

H. Gethman received a black eye by stumbling against the side of the wood scow.

Billy Bones had a contract to deliver 800 cords of wood to the dredge; after hauling 300, he decided to let the other 500 grow some more, and draw interest on the money due by the dredge. A financier is Billy, and can't read or write.

There was an old lady,
Who killed her Cat,
For killing a Rat
On the Sabbath Day.

Poor old lady—
She'll be sorry for that
Till the hair in her hat
Turns iron Gray.

R. D. CUMMING RIGHT HOUSE

ASHCROFT.

Rev. Dr. White, has come and gone. Three addresses on Sunday and one on Monday rested him. That free lecture on B. C. was worth four bits. Dr. Clarke and Mr. Phair tendered a vote of thanks, and as old residents endorsed his statements as to the wealth of our great province.

You know, we are heathens, here in Lillooet. The Catholic missionary comes up all the way from Old Mission City, monthly; the Episcopal missionary comes from the Indian Institute near Lytton, once a month; and it looks now as if we will soon be having a Methodist missionary coming bi-monthly from Ashcroft

Several hundred dollars worth of fruit trees were shipped from Oregon for Lillooet on March 15. It will take a 4-horse waggon to bring them from Lytton.

Ex-constable Sears of Lytton was killed by a train near the Spence's Bridge station. He had a wife and child in Kamloops.

Some Lillooet cattle owners do not like the workmanship on the fences near Pavilion mountain.

C. D. Wray was in from Bridge River, and very much in earnest, as usual. Says it sounded like a Russian attempt to re-take a fort, while the Indians were after meat recently. Doubtless many fawns were deprived of the right to be born. The meat is often in Spring, of a bluish color; and it is well to stay outdoors while it is in the pan; but soon the fresh feed will change the venison to a desirable red.

The miners had a severe winter and welcome the Spring. Mr. W often had to go to bed with a sack of potatoes to keep them from freezing. Another man had to get up in the night and put on all the clothes in the cabin including a heavy overcoat. He then turned up his collar, turned out the light, crawled into the blankets and froze to death.

This is a fact, as Mr. Wray got it direct from the man who was found dead.

30 Yrs. of Eczema Cured at Last

Another illustration of the remarkable power of Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema.

On account of many vain efforts to cure eczema and driven almost crazy with the itching, stinging sensations which accompany it many declare this disease incurable. Not so with those who have used Dr. Chase's Ointment, for this preparation soon brings relief from the itching and thoroughly cures the disease itself, leaving the skin soft, smooth and natural in appearance.

Once you learn the merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment you will find it indispensable in the home as a cure for every form of skin trouble.

MR. JOHN PRATT, Blythe, Huron Co., Ont., writes :—" I cannot give Dr. Chase's Ointment too much praise for I was troubled with eczema for over twenty years and had been treated by three doctors, though they all failed to cure me. Dr. Chase's Ointment has cured me completely and I have not had the slightest sign of the return of this disease for several months. I am quite satisfied that I have found a permanent cure at last."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

For pains and aches use Dr. Chase's Backache Plasters.

MORE POETRY

From Hotel Victoria,

To the Czar, Apart.

Imperial minion, swollen with a pride
That reeks to heaven yet may not rear
Aloft an honest brow to face the world ;
But pride that builds itself on craven fear
Gnawing thy vitals like a stinging worm
Groping a deadly way to death more near.

Who art thou hast dared to crown thyself
Now in this day of brotherly desire
With god-like power; what gave thee warrant
To cast strong equal men into the mire
Beneath thy feet, or pour a deadening slime
Of tyrant power upon their sacred fire.

By what divine decree hast thou yet spurned
The long sad yearning question of thy race ?
Or cast thy fellows, oft more than thy peers
Chained in some dark vermin-writhing place
Where Shame sat gaunt by shrinking women's breasts,
Whilst thou swept on nor slacked thy wanton pace.

From what high universe dividing power
Draw'st thou thy wondrous ripe brutality?
Is it from Jesus, standing at thy gate
Murmuring " Little children, come to me"
While babes lie bathed in gore about thy feet
With over seven wounds that gape at thee?

Oh horrible, Thou God seest these things,
Help us to blot this terror from the earth,
Count in thy memory divine the lives
That cast into this chasm their noble worth
And grant to Russia in her dying need
From Thine own hand a radiant new birth.

The first printing press on the Pacific Coast now lies in a heap of tailings on William's Creek, a half a ton of good old iron, in exchange for a ton of worthless gold taken out.

It was of French make, but came from Spain to San Francisco, and was used by the Catholic missionaries for awhile. Here the old press was a little homesick but fairly happy, and should have remained, and might have graced some dime museum : but came north with a rush of gold hunters, to share the burial place of many.

The first issues sold at $100 a copy. Mr. McArthur of Lillooet kept the press in repair. The few copies remaining to-day, would perhaps be worth the price of the Prospector outfit. If you keep a Prospector fifty years, it will be worth something.

A Minister Cured of Itching Piles

The suffering from itching and burning was almost beyond endurance.

The victim of a severe case of piles is not only unfit for mental or physical work but is kept in almost constant agony.

Besides the dreadful itching and burning sensations there is a strain on the nervous system which almost drives a person crazy.

So far as is known the only absolute and guaranteed cure for every form of piles is Dr. Chase's Ointment, a preparation which is now standard the world over.

REV. WM. THOMAS, Brownsville, Ont., writes: —"As a man of seventy years I am grateful to God and to Dr. Chase's Ointment for a cure of piles which had caused me endless annoyance and much misery. The itching and burning was almost beyond endurance, but Dr. Chase's Ointment brought quick relief and as the trouble has not returned, I have reason to believe that the cure is lasting."

Fir Seeds wanted,

For export, seeds of Douglas Fir and cedar I will pay for clean seed $1.50 for fir and $2 for cedar per pound.

The seed can be secured by gathering the cones from the trees, and spreading them on a tight floor, or on sheets; or on paper in a dry room. In a few days the cones will open and the seeds drop out by stirring them occasionally.

Then clean the seed by using a sieve, or by pouring from one dish into another, in a light breeze, to separate light seed and dirt.

Advise as soon as possible, the quantity you have, and I will send directions about shipping. See my advertisement in this paper

MINE HOST HURLEY.

George is well known to all miners, prospectors and other travellers in the Lillooet and Bridge River country, who have sat beside him and admired his dexterous handling of the ribbons on the Lytton-Lillooet stage.

Not only the driver, but the drive is no doubt well remembered by all who have taken it, as it is through one of the most picturesque stretches of the Fraser Valley. Among the pines and park-like benches one minute, the traveller is next winding safely along the precipitous side of some gulch, which pours its torrent into the rushing Fraser, always in sight. Soon the stage rolls up on a high plateau affording an excellent view of the valley both up and down; then across the big slide, stretching from the foaming river to the sky line; and on through similar scenes, across the Fraser Bridge and up to the door of the very hostelry to which Mr. Hurley will welcome instead of convey the traveller.
