Preserve Your Fruit Without Sugar

The high price of sugar, due to the war, has possibly led some economical housewives to consider curtailing the quantity of fruit they will put up this year.

As to the general question of economy, it may be pointed out that while so many essential articles of food have risen in price on account of the war, fruit has been, and will be as cheap as ever. There will be a decided saving, therefore, in using it to replace, as far as possible, other more expensive foods. It should further be considered that war conditions have greatly increased the cost of English jams, so that it will be economy to replace these as far as possible with home-made jams and preserves.

With regard to the high price of sugar, why use sugar at all? The prevalent idea that fruit cannot be kept without the addition of sugar in the process of canning is quite a mistake. If made into a thick syrup, sugar acts as an antiseptic, keeping perfectly sound fruit from decay even without heat, but, in the quantities ordinarily used in canning, it takes absolutely no part in the preservation of the fruit from deterioation. Authorities all agree that fruit put up without sugar retains its delicate and distinctive flavor very much better, and is altogether superior to that put up in the ordinary way. Of course, sugar will eventually have to be used in preparing the fruit for the table, but much less is required to sweeten to taste after cooking. This is so far a well-understood, scientific reason. Our ordinary white granulated is a a pure cane sugar, and is the sweetest of all sugars. When cane sugar is heated in the presence of an acid, it gradually changes into other forms of sugar having much less sweeten power. One of these, glncose, has only 33 per cent. the sweetening power of pure cane sugar.

All fruits contain more or less acid, and so all mixtures of fruit and sugar tend to lose some of their sweetness in the process of cooking. On this account, it is more economical to add the fruit after the fruit is cooked, while this is, also, the only way in which the full characteristic flavor of the fruit can be retained. Another point worthy of consideration is that before fruit so preserved has to be used, it is quite possible that sugar prices will be normal again. There is nothing to lose, therefore, a gain in the quality of the preserves, and a probability of considerable saving in trying out the sugarless method.

To put up fruits without sugar, simply prepare them in the ordinary way; see that the jars are perfectly clean, thoroughly scalded with boiling water, filled to top and left in them a considerable time; boil the rubbers and covers, and see that the rubbers are soft and free from grooves or cracks; place the fruit in the jars, fill with cold water, place them in a boiler filled with cold water, heat to the boiling point. Berries will do if removed when the boiling point is reached. Large fruits, such as peaches, pears, plums, cherries, and the like should get 20 to thirty minutes boiling. A board should be placed in the bottom of the boiler to keep the jars from the direct heat of the stove. Fruit thus preserved will be found excellent for pies, delicious for eating with cream, and, generally, superior to the sugar-syrup preserves. In properly air-tight jars they will also keep quite as long.

Lillooet War Fund

A meeting of the Executive was held on Wendesday at the residence of Dr. H. A. Christie, to appoint new members in place of W. Abercrombie and E. Corkett who have left the town. Messrs A. B. Greig, P. B. Lewis and A. Phair were appointed.

The matter of calling a public meeting to be held on August 4 was discussed.

Lieut-Governor Barnard is calling attention to the movement on foot throughout Great Britain, which is headed by the Prime Minister, Earl Roseberry and Mr. H. Custer to hold meetings in all cities, towns and villages in the British Empire on Aug. 4, the anniversary of the day upon which Great Britain declared war.

The meetings are called for the purpose of expressing confidence in the part being played by Great Britain and her Allies in the fight for freedom and liberty.

It was decided to hold a meeting and garden party in the St. Mary's Church grounds on that date and that the following ladies be asked to form a committee to arrange for the Garden Party

Mesdames Adams, Bell, Bridge, Christie, Eagleson, Elliott, Gibbs, Haylmore, Kerr, LeMare, Lawson, McIntyre, Noel, Phair, and Smith.

A meeting of the committees will be held tomorrow at 7.30 p.m. at Dr. Christie's residence, to further discuss the arrangements to be made.

Mr. A. J. Beaudette, mining expert, arrived here this week, he is at present geting things in shape for the opening of the Dunlop property, which lies about seven miles up Seton lake, and one and a half miles from the P. G.E. railway track. It is base ore, and will be taken from the mine by tram to the railway and shipped to the Tacoma smelter.

Marked Activity in Bridge River District

Now that transportation is assured in the Pacific Great Eastern railway, marked activity is being shown in the mining district.

There are, at present, more mining men and prospectors in the Bridge river section of the Lillooet district, than has been known for years.

Experienced mining men, both from the U.S.A. and Canada say: the formations in this district are equally as good as any they have seen elsewhere, and without the least doubt, somebody is going to strike it rich one of these days.

C. D. Wray is doing some good work on his placer claim, on Cayoosh creek.

C. P. Dam is busy these days on the Golden Dream property; he has a large staff of men working akd reports are good.

W. Cox and M. Schenall, have located several placer claims on Cayoosh creek, and intend to drive a tunnel at once.

Dr. H. A. Christie is having considerable development work done on his property, the Spokane group of mineral claims.

It is reported that Herb Taylor has made a new find on the great contact which runs from Seton lake to Alexander creek.

Geo Bell is steadily developing his mineral claim in White's Basin, but he is "mum" regarding the results.

A. F. Noel, left town Tuesday on a tour of inspection of some mineral claims, along the Ashcroft-Lillooet road.

Jack McPhail and French Joe, leave this week for Bridge river, to open up some mineral claims owned by Geo. Hurley and Geo. Gibson.

F. H. Kinder has struck a lead on the group of claims adjoining the Forty Thieves property. The showing struck, is at present very promising.

It is reported that the Lajoire Company intend to do extensive development on their property at Lajoire Falls. At present they are driving a tunnel.

Carl Wihksne is hard at it these days, developing his placer claim, on the South Fork of Bridge river, and is accumulating considerable of the yellow stuff.

S. Cawley, M.P,P., has had two mining men looking over his property on McGillivary creek, for the past week; it is reported that ore is to be shipped from the property, in the near future.

Joe Shuster and Grant White have purchased a boiler and engine from W. Cox, and intend to instal it in the new saw mill, which they are erecting on Bridge river. There is a good demand for lumber in the district at present.

A. Landon and F. A. Brewer, have just returned from a trip to their antimony property on Gunn creek. It is the intention to place three motor trucks on the road for the purpose of shipping the ore to the coast, via the P.G. E. railway.

Canada is Dependent on Forestry

The proper interpretation of forestry, and what it actually means to Canada, cannot be stated too frequently. The future of this country depends upon our making every acre productive. Broadly speaking, the earth's surface can be made productive in two ways only, by producing agricultural or timber crops. South of the 60th parallel, about 69 per cent of the area of Canada is uusuited for agricultural crops. A very large proportion of this non-agricultural land is suitable for the production of merchantable timber. The production of forest products has been and will always be one of the chief industries. At the present time forest industries supply 12 per cent of the foreign trade, 16 per cent. of our railroad trafic, and equal in value cur annual wheat crop.

ROYAL YEAST
MAKES PERFECT BREAD

We have a choice to make. Shall we let these valuable industries perish for want of raw material or shall we perpetuate them by protection of our present mature timber from fire, by protection of the young forests of our non-agricultural lands, and by the logging of our forests in such a manner as to encourage the reproduction of valuable forests? The perpetuation of these industries and their source of raw material by the investment of such expenditure as the anticipated crop will warrant is forestry.—Conservation.

Have you anything to say before I pass sentence?

Yes, your honor, I would call your attention to the fact that the fool lawyer who defended me was assigned to the case by yourself.
