Latest War News.

Antwerp Falls.

London, Oct. 10.---The British government announces that Antwerp was evacuated by the Belgians yesterday.

The Hague, Oct. 10.---Antwerp surrendered to the Germans at 2:30 Friday afternoon. The war flag was removed from the cathedral and the white flag raised in its place at 9 in the morning. The actual surrender took place five and a half hours later. The Germans delivered their last furious attacks between 6 and 7 o'clock Friday morning. The Belgians resisted valiantly and desperate fighting resulted in heavy losses to both sides The Cathedral of Notre Dame has not been damaged.

London, Oct.---The Morning Post says it has been informed on good authority that Antwerp has fallen. The official press bureau is unable to confirm the foregoing. A telegram from the Rotterdam correspondent says that a more hopeful view prevails regarding Antwerp. Refugees from the city declare that not a single German soldier has yet entered Antwerp. The Belgian minister is unable to confirm the fall of Antwerp. (The foregoing is an earlier despatch. There is no doubt about the surrender.)

The Massett school was thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned this week. The mothers did the scrubbing and the kiddes packed the water. It was a case of everybody worked but father.

All of the Indians are still at the rivers on the island preparing their winter supply of food. They report a large run of cohoe, humpback and dog salmon. This year the Indians are putting up an extra supply of fish, on which they will principally exist, and they are making preparations to meet the hard times by having a stock on hand for emergencies.

G. H. Gower, district inspector of schools, with headquarters at Prince Rupert, arrived in Massett Tuesday, coming overland from Queen Charlotte City. Mr. Gower visited the schools at Port Clements, Woden River and Massett and was well pleased with the work and attendance. A request has been made for a school at Graham Centre and the inspector was instructed to make inquiries, and report to the department.

Local Jottings Around Massett Inlet.

Monday is Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. Holmes, B. C. L. S., feft for the west coast on Wednesday.

Art Ives came in this morning from J. C. A. Long's survey camp.

W. Flewin of Prince came over on the Prince John Tuesday and later left for the west coast.

Mrs. Grange and C. C. Grange of Woden River left on Tuesday on a short visit to Prince Rupert.

Paddy Duffy returned on the Prince John Tuesday and went out to his pre-emption on the eaat coast.

Capt. Alex. McTavis, who is connected with the army intelligence department, arrived Tuesday from Prince Rupert, returning the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Edenshaw entertained a party at dinner on Friday night in honor of Mr. C. Westwood Gauld, who leaves shortly for Prince Rupert.

R. A. Dodds, who has been with the international boundary survey all season, returned on Tuesday's steamer. He spent a few days in Massett before leaving for his pre-emption at Tow Hill.

Reginald Partridge left Tuesday on the Prince Jonn for the south, where he will enlist for the front. If not successful there he will proceed to England and join a London regiment. Good luck, Reggie!

Mr. and Mrs. Hinton and family of Galiano Island arrived on the Prince John on Tuesday to locate on the west side of the inlet. Mr. Hinton brought in a big bunch of live stock and supplies. He was accompanied by Mr. Wade.

J. C. A. Long, B. C. L. S., returned this morning from the Yakoun River district, where he has a survey party engaged on government work. The party will only be a few more days in the field, orders being received to suspend operations for the season.

Despite a bad spell of heavy weather at the opening of the season whaling off the British Columbia coast during 1914 has produced better results than last year. The latest information forthcoming form the Queen Charlotte Islands stations shows that the little steamers have done fairly well. It is reported that up to ten days ago the whaler Blue, Capt. J. Anderson, had taken 66 mammals, and that the whaler White, Capt J. Christian, had harpooned 57 of the largest creatures in the Pacific ocean.

G. Stokford of Sewall spent a few days in Massett during the week.

Capt. Perry and Arthur Robertson left for the west coast on Wednesday.

Chas. Harrison and W. E. Wanless visited Sewall and Port Clements early in the week.

Frank Hicks, Massett's popular poolroom proprietor, left on a hurried visit to Prince Rupert.

F. Geduhn, of Woden River, brought in a splendid collection of cabbage from his ranch this week.

Robert Ridley has made an addition to the fleet of gasoline launches on Massett Inlet by the purchase of a boat from Thomas Polleck, of Skidegate.

C. Stone, of Woden River, who has been with F. Nash's survey party at the south end of the island all summer, returned on Monday, coming over the trail.

The power launch Venus, Capt. Alex. Yaltatze, arrived Thursday from Sulzer, Alaska. She brought home a number of Massett Indians from the fishing grounds there, who report that the run of fish was very poor.

There once was a Kaiser from Kiel,
Who peddled an awful war spiel,
On a Tango dance
He went to France
And came back to look for a meal.
—Chas. M. Wilson.

Word was received last night that the steamer Prince John had met with an accident while on the return trip to Prince Rupert from the southern end of the islands. She was due at Massett tomorrow but in consequence of the accident has gone south for repairs.

C. D. Emmons, M.E., returned this morning from a trip to Camp Wilson and Hidden Creek. Mr. Emmons said that the quality of the coal at Camp Wilson could not be equalled in North America and that he was sure there was sufficient to make Graham Island the supply point of the north.

Mr. Wm. J. Leary of Hydah and Mattock Bros. of Lena Island, are to be congratulated on securing such an array of prizes at the Prince Rupert fair. Considering that their exhibits were shipped nearly a week before the opening of the fair and placed them in an unfair advantage than those from other districts, it speaks well for the quality of vegetables grown on the Queen Charlottes.

District Exhibit Won By Graham Island

Skidegate and Lawn Hill Capture Cup for Second Time at Prince Rupert Exhibition.

C. Richardson, of Lawn Hill, is a happy man today. He represents a combination exhibit from Lawn Hill and Skidegate on the South end of Queen Charlotte Islands and his exhibit pulled down first prize for the best district collection. The prize is a $50 cup and since this is the second time they have won it, according to the terms hereof, they own it. A diploma also goes with the prize.

This is certainly a fine boost for the south end of the Queen Charlotte Islands. That district is perhaps not so well known as others around here but in soil and climate it is very near perfect and anyone examining the products they grow there will realize that there is a great future before it. There are already a large number of settlers there and the Government has established an experimental farm. All that the district requires is better transportation to make it the garden of the Pacific.—Prince Rupert Daily News.

Massett, B.C., Saturday, Oct. 10, 1914

The strenuous times we are now experiencing will bring forth economic, social and religious problems which will have to be solved in a different manner from the way our forefathers handled such weighty questions. It is apparent that the old way of meeting the problems of life is fated to go down in history with the record of past ages and be supplanted by new methods and ideas that will appeal to the masses as well as the classes. Diversity of opinion on all matters of Church and State will, undoubtedly continue, although diametrically opposed to the original teachings of the bible and the master minds of all ages. Governments will topple and fall with vanished hopes and lost causes and proof will be forthcoming that militarism has no place in the adjustment of territorial right or in bettering the condition of the wage-earner. The lessons of Solomon and the greatness of that wise man brought only to his lips the words: "Vanity of vanities—all is vanity." Alexander conquered the whole world and yet he failed in conquering the greatest man then living—himself. Kaiser William, inflated with pride, is endeavoring to repeat history of the two great men, regardless of the rights of others, and forgetting that:

"The drying of a single tear hath more
Of honest fame than shedding tons of gore."

The sad awakening in this twentieth century will mean hundreds of thousands of desolate homes. Trade and commerce of the whole world has been paralyzed. The trust once reposed in the integrity of governments has vanished. Fire and the sword are the predominent factors in settling the disputes of nations:

"Once more with blood the storied rivers thicken,
Once more rude cannons shame the lowly plow,
And once again must smaller crowns be stricken
To clear the way for one who here and now
Decrees to test imperious will and power.
Where Ceaser fought, where rushed Napoleon's legions;
Where Bismarck's stubborn plans hurled conq'ring legions;
Where art was shrined to bless all distant regions—
There strides some lord on pyramids of slain
To flaunt triumphant crest for blood stained hour."

Officers Papers Suspended By Court

Wreck of Prince Albert Held Due to Negligence of J. J. Flood who was on Bridge.

The decision of the marine court of inquiry into the wreck of the Prince Albert, of the G. T. P. steamship fleet, is that the cause of the wreck was the negligence of the officer in charge of the vessel at the time, J. J. Flood, and his certificate of competency as master of a passenger steamer in the coasting trade is suspended for three months.

That Captain Duncan McKenzie, master of the vessel, was justified in retiring to his cabin after having been on duty for a considerable time, considering the state of the weather, the time of day and the distance to be run after passing Rose Spit is the opinion of the court, but he is nevertheless severely reprimanded for not leaving definite instructions to be called at some specified time before Brown Passage was reached. In view of his long and splendid record the court returned to him his certificate. The court was unanimous in its findings.

It was held by the court that the evidence, which was found satisfactory all through, showed that Flood was lacking in a sense of his responsibility, inasmuch as he must have known that he was in a dangerous locality; that he trusted too implicitly in what appeared to have been the custom, the registering by the log of a distance of forty-five miles, without considering the conditions of fog, tide, wind and sea; that the steamer was driven at full speed and went on in the midst of a group of small islets and rocks three miles in area, showing that she must have run though kelp and close to sunken visible dangers for some distance before she struck the rock on which she now lies; that in spite of its being foggy and in utter disregard of the Grand Trunk Pacific company's regulations and customary instructions to call the captain, Flood had failed to inform Captain McKenzie of the weather conditions until practically one minute before the steamer struck ; that the fact of the light on Triple island, ordinarily visible for twelve miles, not being seen should alone have been warning that either it was not burning or that it was inveloped in a bank of fog, in which case the captain should have been notified when the light was not picked up in a reasonable time

The court found that after the accident everything was done that seamen could do for the preservation of life and property, and the discipline maintain was perfect.

Synopsis of Coal Mining Regulations

COAL mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territery the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10.00 an acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORRY.
Deputy Minister of the Interior.

What's the matter with you Pessimists?

If you knew as much as I do about the future of Delkatlah Bay you would be chasing me up with payments on your lots.

The farming may be a little slow in developing, and the coal seams hard to trace in paying quantities, but Delkatlah is on the eve of development as a Winter Tourist Resort which will place it only second to Prince Rupert in Northern British Columbia.

I am not a prophet, for such prophecy only requires the application of ordinary common sense.

Buylng lots in Delkatlah is like sowing seed—the money disappears like the seed in the ground only to spring up and yield ten fold.

Canada needs no summer resort, it has all the summer climate it wants, but from Nova Scotia to the Rockies it needs a winter climate, and that's what we have. The Spring is the time to sow seed. Sow your wages in a lot at the rate of $5.00 a month and have a home in town.

Immediately back of Delkatlah pre-emptions are being taken up at the rate of ten a week. That will soon increase values.
