60 WALL STREET,
NEW YORK.

October 14, 1913.

James Goldie, Esq.,

Okanagan Centre,

British Columbia.

Dear Mr. Goldie:

I have your letter of September 27th which I note is more hopeful with regard to the prices that we will probably receive for this seasons apple production.

I also have your letter of the 6th inst. with enclosed additional sheet completing trial balance as at September 1st. The proof of the pudding is in the eating with all of these things. My greatest anxiety is to know as soon as possible whether our industry out there can be made to pay.

I have not yet heard from Dormer, and will let you know the moment I do.

I return herewith the government reports of September 20th recently forwarded by you.

With best wishes.

Yours very truly,

J. M. McAllister

Enclosure.

8