IF REPLYING PLEASE QUOTE ORDER No 8248.

The Rainbow Ranche,

WINNIPEG, Feb. 8, 1909.

Okanagan Centre, B. C. CANADA.

Dear Sir:-

We are in receipt of your favor of recent date with enclosure of $14.20, for which we thank you.

Goods to the value of $12.50 went forward by C. P. R. Freight on the 3rd inst., the charges on which were $2.67, making a total of $15.17, which leaves a balance of 97¢, due us. Kindly remit this amount at your earliest convenience and oblige.

On the other side of this sheet are given the Freight and Express to Okanagan Landing. You will notice that the minimum freight charge is $2.49, that is to say, no goods can be sent by freight to Okanagan Landing for less than $2.49. When goods are shipped at a rate lower than 1st Class, it is advisable to make up an order a little over 100 lbs., to get the full advantage of the minimum charge. For instance 130 lbs. of bacon could have been sent for the same money.

Dear Customer:-

We cannot emphasize too strongly the advisability of making up orders of 100 pounds, or over, and having them shipped by freight--freight orders should never weigh less than 100 pounds; for goods weighing less cost just as much to ship, and we want you to get the full advantage of charges. In the majority of cases for the amount it costs to send 20 or 30 pounds express, 100 pounds can be forwarded by freight. The lowest charge for which any freight shipment can be sent is 50c., even when the 1st class freight rate is less than this amount.

Should you not be able to make up your order of 100 pounds from our General Catalogue--write for our Special Grocery Price List. This contains all that is good, pure and wholesome in groceries. The quality we recommend--the prices speak for themselves.

You can save money on every article bought from us; our liberal guarantee shows the confidence we have in our goods. Kindly refer to paragraph "K" on the colored insert of our General Catalogue, which fully explains how any goods that on arrival are not entirely satisfactory, may be returned at our expense, when we will cheerfully and willingly exchange for other goods, or refund money, as desired. Our assurance is given that your order will receive prompt attention in being filled, packed and shipped. A Trial Order shipped by freight will fully convince you of the saving which can be made in purchasing your supplies from us.
