7.25

Victoria, September 7th 1864.

Mr Royal Fisk

San Francisco.

Dear sir,

As I receive now almost all my flour from Oregon, I made the remark that, on every steamer that Messrs Richards & McCraken shipped my flour, there was always a large quantity sent up here by them to be sold at auction. So, I wrote them about that, and they answered me that they haven't sent up a barrel of flour here to be sold for their own account for over two years, but almost all that they sent up here lately was ordered by you. So, I would like to know if you intend continue to do it, in that case I would stop to send any more orders to Oregon

Flour coming here to be sold by the auctioneers is sold at the price that it fetches. They sold it pretty well the last times, but it spoils the trades, and I believe that it will be sold soon as cheap up here as in Oregon. Buyers are waiting always the steamer from Oregon to buy it at auctions. So, please let me know if ~~it~~ you are willing to continue ~~who Reduce your in Oregon, or~~ to send flour here at auction for your ~~Yours~~ account, for in that case I would stop to order any more of it.

Yours &c. A. Cesamayor